

HB 2406--Brief

HB 2406 amends the Personal and Family Protection Act to provide that no person of authority for the building shall require, request or record personal information of the off-duty officer including, but not limited to, the officer's email address, home phone number or home address, nor shall the off-duty officer be required to wear anything identifying the officer as a law enforcement officer or as being armed.

Mike Heim

Revisor of Statutes Office