KANSAS CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS CONCERNING LEGISLATIVE POWERS

Article 2.—LEGISLATIVE

§ 1. Legislative power.—The legislative power of this state shall be vested in a house of representatives and senate.

§ 2. Senators and representatives.—The number of representatives and senators shall be regulated by law, but shall not exceed one hundred twenty-five representatives and forty senators. Representatives and senators shall be elected from single-member districts prescribed by law. Representatives shall be elected for two year terms. Senators shall be elected for four year terms. The terms of representatives and senators shall commence on the second Monday of January of the year following election.

§ 3. Compensation of members of legislature.—The members of the legislature shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law or such compensation as is determined according to law.

§ 4. Qualifications of members.—During the time that any person is a candidate for nomination or election to the legislature and during the term of each legislator, such candidate or legislator shall be and remain a qualified elector who resides in his or her district.

§ 5. Eligibility and disqualification of members.—No member of congress and no civil officer or employee of the United States or of any department, agency, or instrumentality thereof shall be eligible to be a member of the legislature. Any member of the legislature who accepts any appointment or election contrary to the foregoing shall be disqualified as a member of the legislature.

§ 6. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 7. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 8. Organization and sessions.—The legislature shall meet in regular session annually commencing on the second Monday in January, and all sessions shall be held at the state capital. The duration of regular sessions held in even-numbered years shall not exceed ninety calendar days. Such sessions may be extended beyond ninety calendar days by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. Bills and concurrent resolutions under consideration by the legislature upon adjournment of a regular session held in an odd-numbered year may be considered at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year, as if there had been no such adjournment.

The legislature shall be organized concurrently with the terms of representatives except that the senate shall remain organized during the terms of senators. The president of the senate shall preside over the senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives shall preside over the house of representatives. A majority of the members than elected (or appointed) and qualified of the house of representatives or the senate shall constitute a quorum of that house. Neither house, without the consent of the other, shall adjourn for more than two days, Sundays excepted.

Each house shall elect its presiding officer and determine the rules of its proceedings, except that the two houses may adopt joint rules on certain matters and provide for the manner of change thereof. Each house shall provide for the expulsion or censure of members in appropriate cases.

Each house shall be the judge of elections, returns and qualifications of its own members.

§ 9. Vacancies in legislature.—All vacancies occurring in either house shall be filled as provided by law.

§ 10. Journals.—Each house shall publish a journal of its proceedings. The affirmative and negative votes upon the final passage of every bill and every concurrent resolution for amendment of this constitution or ratification of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States shall be entered in the journal. Any member of either house may make written protest against any act or resolution, and the same shall be entered in the journal without delay or alteration.

§ 11. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 12. Origination by either house.—Bills and concurrent resolutions may originate in either house, but may be amended or rejected by the other.

§ 13. Majority for passage of bills.—A majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified of each house, voting in the affirmative, shall be necessary to pass any bill. Two-thirds (2/3) of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, voting in the affirmative, shall be necessary to ratify any amendment to the Constitution of the United States or to make any application for congress to call a convention for proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

§ 14. Approval of bills; vetoes.—(a) Within ten days after passage, every bill shall be signed by the presiding officers and presented to the governor. If the governor approves a bill, he shall sign it. If the governor does not approve a bill, the governor shall veto it by returning the bill, with a veto message of the objections, to the house of origin of the bill. Whenever a veto message is so received, the message shall be entered in the journal and in not more than thirty calendar days (excluding the day received), the house of origin shall reconsider the bill. JOINT RULES OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
2015-2016

Joint rule 1. Joint rules; application and date of expiration; adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation. (a) Joint rules; expiration, adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation; vote required. Joint rules are adopted under the authority of section 8 of article 2 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas and shall govern matters made subject thereto except when otherwise specifically provided by joint rule. Joint rules shall expire at the conclusion of the terms of representatives. Joint rules shall be adopted, amended, suspended and revoked by concurrent resolution of the two houses of the legislature. Concurrent resolutions adopting joint rules shall receive the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house.

(b) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules; previous notice; vote required. After one day's previous notice, joint rules may be amended, suspended or revoked by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house. Upon the filing of such notice in either house, a message shall be sent to the other house advising of the filing of such notice and the reading of the message shall constitute notice to the members of such house. If such previous notice is not given, the affirmative vote of  $\frac{2}{3}$  of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house shall be required for the amendment, suspension or revocation of a joint rule.

(c) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules at commencement of legislative session; vote required; conditions. Notwithstanding any provision of this rule to the contrary, no notice shall be required for the adoption of a concurrent resolution amending, suspending or revoking any one or more joint rules at the commencement of a legislative session, and adoption of any such concurrent resolution shall require only the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, subject to the following conditions: (1) The concurrent resolution is sponsored by the speaker or the president, and (2) either (a) a copy thereof is mailed to each member of the legislature by deposit in the United States mails not later than 11:00 p.m. on the Thursday preceding the Monday on which the legislative session is to commence or (b) in lieu of mailing, copies of the concurrent resolution are made available to members on the first day of the legislative session and final action is taken on a subsequent legislative day.

Joint rule 2. Joint sessions. (a) Joint session called by concurrent resolution; vote required; time, place and subject matter. A joint session of the senate and house of representatives may be called by concurrent resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house of the legislature or as may otherwise be prescribed by law. Any such resolution shall fix the time and place of the joint session, and the subject matter to be considered at the joint session. Joint sessions shall consider only such matters as are prescribed by law or by the concurrent resolution calling such joint session.

(b) Presiding officer at joint sessions; record of joint session; rules applicable. The speaker of the house of representatives shall preside at all joint sessions of the senate and house of representatives, and the clerk of the house of representatives shall keep a record of the proceedings thereof and shall enter the record of each such session in the journal of the house of representatives. The rules of the house of representatives and the joint rules of the two houses, insofar as the same may be applicable shall be the rules for joint sessions of the two houses.

(c) Votes in joint session; taking; requirements. All votes in a joint session shall be taken by yeas and nays, and in taking the same it shall be the duty of the secretary of the senate first to call the names of the members of the senate, and after which the clerk of the house of representatives shall in like manner call the names of the members of the house. Each member of the senate and the house of representatives present shall be required to vote on all matters considered in joint session, unless excused by a vote of a majority of the members of both houses present.

Joint rule 3. Conference committee procedure. (a) Action by house of origin of bill or concurrent resolution amended by other house. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned to the house of origin with amendments by the other house, the house of origin may: (1) Concur in such amendments; (2) refuse to concur in such amendments; or (3) refuse to concur in such amendments and request a conference on the bill or concurrent resolution.

(b) Concurrence by house of origin; concurrence prior to taking action on conference committee report by other house; final action; effect of failure of motion to concur. The house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution may concur in any amendments made by the other house, except that if the bill or concurrent resolution has been referred to a conference committee such action may only be taken prior to the taking of final action upon the conference committee report upon such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house shall be considered action on the final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has been appointed and action has not been taken upon the report of such committee by the other house and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and the motion to concur may be renewed but not on the same legislative day. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has not been appointed and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(c) Motion to nonconcur; when considered final action; effect of adoption of motion. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to nonconcur or to refuse to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house which is not coupled with a request for the appointment of a conference committee shall be considered action on final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal, and the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed killed on the adoption thereof.

(d) House of origin refusal to concur or nonconcur; request for conference; procedure. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned by either house to the house of origin with amendments, and the house of origin refuses to concur or to nonconcur therein, a conference may be requested by a majority vote of the members present and voting. Such request shall be transmitted to the other house by message which shall include the names of the conferees on the part of the requesting house. Upon receipt of any such message, the receiving house may, in like manner, approve such conference, and shall thereupon notify the requesting house by message stating the names of its conferees.

(e) Membership; appointment; chairperson; house of origin of substitute or materially changed bill or concurrent resolution; meetings of conference committee. Each conference committee shall consist of three members of the senate and three members of the house of representatives, unless otherwise fixed by agreement of the president of the senate and speaker of the house. Senate members shall be appointed by the president of the senate and house members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The president or the speaker may replace any conferee previously appointed by such person. Not less than one member appointed from each house shall be a member of the minority political party of such house except when such representation for such house is waived by the minority leader of such house. In all cases, the first-named member of the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution assigned to the committee shall be chairperson of the conference committee. The house of origin of a substitute bill or substitute concurrent resolution shall be the house in which the bill or concurrent resolution in its original form was introduced. The chairperson of a conference committee on a bill or concurrent resolution the subject matter of which has been ruled to be materially changed shall be a member of the house which amended the bill or concurrent resolution to materially change the subject matter. Each conference committee shall meet on the call of its chairperson. All meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be adjourned to another time or place in order to subvert such policy.

(f) Conference committee reports; matters which may be included; report not subject to amendment; house which acts first on report; copies of reports; reports considered under any order of business. Only subject matters which are or have been included in the bill or concurrent resolution in conference or in bills or concurrent resolutions which have been passed or adopted in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution except in any appropriations bill there may be included a proviso relating to any such item of appropriation. Subject to any limitations imposed under the constitution of the state of Kansas, no more than a total of four additional bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions in conference or bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions which have passed in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution, except that reports of conference committees on any taxation bill are not subject to the limitation contained in this provision. A conference committee report shall not be subject to amendment. The original signed conference committee report shall be submitted to and acted upon first by the house other than the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution. Except when a conference committee report is an agree to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed or is a recommendation to accede to or recede from all amendments of the second house, electronic and paper copies of the report shall be made available to all members of the house considering the report not later than 30 minutes before the time of its consideration, except that if the report is more than six pages in length no paper copies will be required to be distributed to individual members provided that at least 10 paper copies of the report are made available to members at the clerk's or secretary's desk at the front of the respective house. By written notice, the majority leader may direct the clerk or secretary to increase from six pages to some greater number of pages the size of conference committee reports that need not be distributed by paper copies to individual members pursuant to this rule. The affirmative vote of  $\frac{2}{3}$  of the members present in the house at the time of consideration of the report shall be sufficient to dispense with distribution of copies of the conference committee report to all members of that house. Reports of conference committees may be received and considered under any order of business.

(g) Signatures required on conference committee reports. All initial conference committee reports other than an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by all of the conferees. All initial conference committee reports which are an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. If a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is not adopted, a subsequent conference committee report shall be signed by all conferees unless a subsequent conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is adopted, in which case a conference committee report subsequent to the adoption of such report shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. All other conference committee reports shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house.

(h) Vote to adopt conference committee report final action; effect of failure of motion to adopt conference committee report. The vote to adopt the report of a conference committee, other than a report of failure to agree coupled with a recommendation for appointment of a new conference committee, shall be considered final action on the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed. If the motion on a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and remains in conference.

(i) Report of conference committee unable to agree; effect of failure to request new conference committee; effect of failure of motion to adopt report requesting new conference committee. If a conference committee upon any bill or concurrent resolution is unable to agree, it shall report that fact to both houses. Such report may request that a new conference committee be appointed thereon. If the committee so reports but fails to request the appointment of a new conference committee thereon, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to have been killed upon the adoption by either house of such report. If the motion to adopt a report requesting the appointment of a new conference committee fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(j) Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by conference committees and reports thereof; carryover from odd-numbered to even-numbered year. Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by a conference committee, or a report of which has been filed but no action taken thereon in either house, at the time of adjournment of a regular session of the legislature held in an odd-numbered year shall remain alive during the interim and may be considered by the committee and legislature as the case may be at the regular session held in the following even-numbered year.

Joint rule 4. Deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills. The senate and house of representatives shall observe the following schedule of deadlines in making requests for drafting and in the introduction and consideration of bills.

(a) Bill request deadline for individual members. Except for bills introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no request to draft bills, except those made by committees, through their respective chairpersons, shall be made to, or accepted by, the office of the revisor of statutes after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on February 2, 2015, during the 2015 regular session and on February 1, 2016, during the 2016 regular session.

(b) Bill introduction deadline for individual members. Except as provided in (i) of this rule, no bill sponsored by a member or members shall be introduced in either house of the legislature after the hour of adjournment on February 11, 2015, during the 2015 regular session and on February 10, 2016, during the 2016 regular session. Such deadline for the introduction of bills by individual members may be changed to an earlier date in either house at any time by resolution duly adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in such house.

(c) Bill request deadline for certain committees. Except for bills to be introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no committee except the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall make a request to the office of the revisor of statutes for any bill to be drafted for sponsorship by such committee after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on February 9, 2015, during the 2015 regular session and on February 8, 2016, during the 2016 regular session.

(d) Bill introduction deadline for certain committees. Except as provided in (i) of this rule, no bill sponsored by any committee of either house of the legislature, except the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be introduced in either house after the hour of adjournment on February 13, 2015, during the 2015 regular session and on February 12, 2016, during the 2016 regular session.

(e) House of origin bill consideration deadline. No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered in the house in which such bill originated after the hour of adjournment on February 27, 2015, during the 2015 regular session and on February 26, 2016, during the 2016 regular session.

(f) Second house bill consideration deadline. No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered by either house, not the house of origin of such bill, after the hour of adjournment on March 25, 2015, during the 2015 regular session and March 23, 2016, during the 2016 regular session.

(g) Exceptions to limitation of (d), (e) and (f); procedure. Specific exceptions to the limitations prescribed in subsections (d), (e) and (f) may be made in either house by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members of such house then elected (or appointed) and qualified.

(h) Deadline which falls on day neither house in session; effect. In the event that any deadline prescribed in this rule falls on a day that neither house of the legislature is in session, such deadline shall be observed on the next following day that either house is in session.

(i) Bills introduced in odd-numbered years after deadlines; effect. Bills may be introduced by members and committees in regular sessions occurring in an odd-numbered year after the times prescribed in (b) and (d) of this rule, but there shall be no final action thereon by either house during the session when introduced. Such bills shall be held over for consideration at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year.

(j) Modification of schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills; procedure. In any regular session a concurrent resolution may be adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house setting forth a different schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills for that session and the provisions of such concurrent resolution shall apply to such session notwithstanding provisions of this rule to the contrary.

(k) Bill consideration deadline; exceptions. No bills shall be considered by the Legislature after April 3, 2015, during the 2015 regular session and after April 1, 2016, during the 2016 regular session except bills vetoed by the Governor, the omnibus appropriation act and the omnibus reconciliation spending limit bill provided for under K.S.A. 75-6702, and amendments thereto. This subsection (k) may be suspended for the consideration of a specific bill or bills not otherwise exempt under this subsection by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in the house in which the bill is to be considered.

Notwithstanding any rule in either house of the legislature, those portions of a motion to amend a bill as described in this rule shall be indivisible

(4) those portions of a motion to amend a bill as described in Rule 2110 shall be indivisible.

(b) Upon a request to divide a motion to amend a bill or resolution, the presiding officer shall inquire as to whether there is a request for a ruling on germaneness of the motion to amend. If such a request is made, the issue of germaneness shall be determined prior to dividing the motion.

If no request for a ruling on germaneness of the motion to amend is made, the presiding officer shall proceed to divide the motion to amend in accordance with this rule, and no subsequent request for a ruling on germaneness of any distinct proposition of the motion so divided shall be in order.

Rule 2109. Identical Motions.

Except upon the unanimous consent of the House, an identical motion to amend a bill or resolution shall not be made a second time on the same legislative day.

A motion for reconsideration, being put and lost, shall not be renewed, nor shall any subject or vote be a second time reconsidered without unanimous consent, but this provision shall not be construed as preventing the introduction of a bill on the same subject. The member moving for reconsideration shall be allowed not more than two minutes for stating the reasons in support of the motion. (2) A motion to suspend the rules and to permit amendment and debate of a bill under the order of business Final Action shall require an affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the House.

FIRST DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

This being the day fixed by the Constitution of the State of Kansas for the assembling of the 2015 session of the legislature, the House of Representatives was called to order at 2:00 p.m. by Kris Kobach, Secretary of State.

Prayer by the Rev. Eunice Brubaker, Topeka:

Loving God,
We thank you for another new and beautiful day.
Thank you for the atmosphere of joy, excitement and anticipation of the ceremony and inauguration of this new session.
We ask for a peaceful transition and a Spirit-led new season.
Though many are returning, we have several new representatives.
Be with them these first few days.
Give to all members wisdom, knowledge, understanding and humility that they might know how to accomplish the work they have been given to do.
I also pray for courage for each one to act upon that which they discern what Your Spirit is telling them.
All that is done in the future days ahead, may it be done for Your glory and honor.
I pray this in Your name,
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Merrick.

Thank you for this opportunity to serve you as Speaker Pro Tem! All the best for Legislative session 2015!

Speaker Merrick asked for announcements from party caucuses:

Rep. Couture-Lovelady stated the majority (Republican) party had met and elected the following:

- Majority Leader, Representative Jene Vickrey
- Assistant Majority Leader, Representative Mario Goico
- Majority Whip, Representative Ron Ryckman
- Caucus Chairperson, Representative Travis Couture-Lovelady.

Rep. Vickrey addressed the following remarks to the members of the House:

Good Afternoon. Greetings honored guests; Speaker Merrick, Minority Leader Burroughs. First I want to introduce my wife of 30 years Teresa and with her is my son Jacob and his wife Kori. They are here with their three daughters: Emma, Olivia, and 2 month old Anika. My daughter Jazz and her husband Tyler are here as well with their daughter Analeigh.

Two years ago, in the same speech, I commented that we had a long way to go and a short time to get there. And as it turned out it took longer to get there than we had hoped. But through the years I have been in the Legislature, our state motto “Ad Astra per Aspera” is always an important reminder of where to turn during the struggles of the session. But it’s in these tough times that have made us, Kansas, a free state. The struggles that through the years, as Kansans, we always pull together, work hard, and get the job done.

Over the last couple of decades this legislative body has toiled long hours finding solutions to many budget and funding issues. While fighting unreasonable and often unfunded federal mandates on our state, we continue to help Kansas communities recover from floods, tornadoes, and earthquakes while debating heart-felt, often very emotional issues.

In this house, each member is here to improve the future for Kansans as they see it. Yes we often strongly disagree but this is the peoples’ house where each member here works hard for their constituents that elected them. Kansas is such a beautiful state, from the smoky flint hills to the golden fields of wheat but the most amazing part is our people. We are all here hard at work to make it a better place for them and should never lose sight of that.

This is going to be another year of challenge but one truth has proven itself over and over, democracy works. It is very often ugly to watch and hard to understand but the tug of war and debate of ideas does give us confidence that the end of this year again through the difficulties we will find real and positive solutions that do continue to provide better lives for our constituents.

Rep. Ballard stated the minority (Democrat) party had caucused and elected the following officers:

- Minority Leader, Representative Tom Burroughs
- Assistant Minority Leader, Representative Louis Ruiz
- Minority Whip, Representative Ed Trimmer
- Agenda Chairperson, Representative Brandon Whipple
- Caucus Chairperson, Representative Barbara Ballard
- Policy Chairperson, Representative John Wilson

Rep. Burroughs addressed the following remarks to the members of the House:

My beautiful bride of 33 years, Cathie, is here with me today. Cathie, thank you so much for your love and support throughout my 18 years in the Kansas Legislature. She decorates my office, she sends baskets of snacks for me to munch on throughout the session. She is strongly supportive of my hectic schedule. Simply put, I wouldn't be here today without her.

To the Kansas House Democrats: Thank you for the privilege of serving as your leader. I am humbled and honored by the faith you have placed in me and I pledge to work relentlessly on your behalf for the next two years.

To Representative Merrick: Congratulations on your re-election as Speaker of the Kansas House. This body has tremendous confidence in your leadership abilities, and rest assured that confidence extends beyond your own caucus. Despite our policy disagreements, Mr. Speaker, you have always maintained a friendly rapport with the Minority Leadership team. I look forward to continuing that tradition.

And finally, congratulations to the 20 new members who are taking their oaths of office for the first time today. You are about to embark on a 90-day adventure. By the end, there is so much going on that all the days seem to blur together. But this particular day will stand out in your memory.

It reminds me a little bit of Opening Day in baseball.

Any baseball fan knows that Opening Day is not just "one of 162 games." The start of a new baseball season means anything is possible. Every team is a contender for the World Series – even if they haven't been there for 30 years.

And no matter what team you're cheering for or what stadium you're sitting in, everyone in a ballpark on Opening Day feels the same sense of community as they celebrate a tradition that is so proudly American. The day is just as much about our rich culture as it is about score of the game.

Now, the work we have before us this year in the Kansas Legislature has far more serious implications than that of our national pastime. The challenges we face this year cannot be understated. But before we dive in to the difficult work before us, it is important to embrace our shared heritage as we raise our hands and pledge to serve the people of this great state.

It's a moment to focus on our shared desire to build of a stronger, more prosperous Kansas...not stronger, more prosperous political parties.

And it's a moment to remember that – no matter what the partisan breakdown of this chamber may be – every person has an equally important role to play.

You know, legislative bodies rarely score well in public opinion polls. I saw one poll last year that ranked Congress lower than lice and root canals.

Ouch.

I believe that the public's frustration with legislative bodies is just as much about how they treat each other as it is with the legislation they pass.

But we're Kansans. We do things differently here.

After 18 years in this Chamber, I've watched a lot of members come and go. I was certainly closer to some than I was to others. But all of them were my respected colleagues, as are you.

We all have different backgrounds, different priorities, and different ideologies. There is no question that we will vigorously debate the issues, and we will, at times, passionately disagree. And there is no question that the process is always a little bit messy.

Actually, more often than not, it's a lot more than a "little" messy.

But rest assured, this is still the People's House.

And even though it has been decades since the majority party of this chamber shifted, it has been my observation - year after year - that the more important the task at hand, the more likely it is that the 63rd vote will be hard won and uncovered in a surprising place.

This is a constant truth that has preserved the importance of compromise and civility in our legislative process.

Which is exactly how Democracy should be. And it's exactly what our constituents expect.

Not all the good ideas are in one party. Not all the good people are in one party. But we are all one Kansas.

We are a people defined by our imagination, by our sense of duty and justice, by our individualism, and by our unrelenting optimism.

We're the kind of folks who roll up our sleeves and get to work when something needs doing – no matter how difficult the task and no matter who made the mess.

We're the kind of people willing to fight for the things that we believe in.

And there's no question that Kansans' values and beliefs are solid as a rock.

Kansans have never had much use for national trends. From abolition to women's suffrage to the end of government-sanctioned racial segregation, we've never been afraid to forge our own path.

But that doesn't mean we've never made mistakes. In fact, in 1855, our first territorial legislature enacted a series of state laws patterned after our neighbor, Missouri. But it didn't take too long for us to realize that we didn't want to be like Missouri. And by 1858 many of those laws were repealed and replaced with a uniquely Kansas vision.

There are more modern policy decisions that we will be forced to re-evaluate this year if we want to preserve that Kansas vision our forefathers dreamt of on the Kansas prairie over 150 years ago.

That vision established world-class public schools and universities, a growing economy, and a vibrant middle class. It is worth protecting.

My friends and colleagues, we have a tough road ahead. Kansas has many challenges to face in the coming months and years. And no matter what party label we wear, we're all in this together.

Good government is a collaborative effort, and I look forward to working with you all as we embark on this journey.

So let us begin. Day One of 90...to the stars through difficulty.

Ad astra per aspera.

God bless you and God bless the great State of Kansas.

The roll was called with 124 members present.

Rep.-Elect Claeyes was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

ARTICLE 21. AMENDMENT OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS

Rule 2101. Germaneness. Amendments to bills and resolutions shall be germane to the subject of the bill or resolution. The principal test of whether an amendment is germane shall be its relationship to the subject of the bill or resolution, rather than to wording of the title thereof. The amendment, including any amendment from the floor to strike all of the substantive provisions of a bill or resolution and insert other provisions, must be relevant, appropriate, and have some relation to or involve the same subject as the bill or resolution to be amended. For the purposes of this rule the subject matter of any appropriation bill is the spending and appropriating of money and any amendment which changes the amount of money spent in any state agency or program is germane to any appropriation bill.

Rule 2102. Form of Amendment Motions. Motions to amend bills and resolutions shall specify the page and line number, as shown on the printed bill or resolution, and shall be in writing on a form provided by the House or a form substantially similar. Rule 2104. Motions to Amend Motions. A motion to amend a motion to amend a bill or resolution shall not be in order.

Rule 2105. Dividing Amendments. (a) When any motion to amend a bill or resolution contains distinct propositions, it shall be divided by the presiding officer at the request of any member. The division by the presiding officer shall be made in accordance with the following:

(1) A motion to strike out and insert words of less than a sentence shall be indivisible;

(2) the distinct propositions shall be only in the form submitted in the motion to amend;

(3) each proposition must be so distinct that, one being removed, the remainder may stand entirely on their own; and

(4) those portions of a motion to amend a bill as described in Rule 2110 shall be indivisible.

(b) Upon a request to divide a motion to amend a bill or resolution, the presiding officer shall inquire as to whether there is a request for a ruling on germaneness of the motion to amend. If such a request is made, the issue of germaneness shall be determined prior to dividing the motion.

If no request for a ruling on germaneness of the motion to amend is made, the presiding officer shall proceed to divide the motion to amend in accordance with this rule, and no subsequent request for a ruling on germaneness of any distinct proposition of the motion so divided shall be in order.

(c) The presiding officer, or any member, may request that the member requesting the division make the request in writing specifying the manner in which the motion to amend should be divided.

(d) The division of the motion to amend shall be in accordance with the rules of the House and with items (1) to (4), inclusive, of subsection (a). The ruling of the chairperson of the Committee on Rules and Journal, or in the chairperson's absence the vice chairperson of the Committee, on how to divide the motion to amend shall not be subject to appeal except that any member may appeal the ruling of the chairperson, or vice chairperson, on the grounds that the division is not in accordance with a rule of the House including the provisions of items (1), (2), (3) or (4) of subsection (a), or any combination thereof.

(b) The Speaker may determine when a bill is subject to subsection (a). An affirmative vote of 70 members shall be required to sustain a challenge to the Speaker's determination hereunder.

Rule 2108. Motions to Strike Out and Insert. The rejection of a motion to amend a bill or resolution by striking out and inserting one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and insert another proposition, nor prevent a subsequent motion simply to strike out; nor shall the rejection of a motion simply to strike out prevent a subsequent motion to strike out and insert.

Rule 2109. Identical Motions. Except upon the unanimous consent of the House, an identical motion to amend a bill or resolution shall not be made a second time on the same legislative day.

Rule 2110. Floor Amendments to Bills Making Appropriations. Unless by majority consent to correct an error in drafting, no floor amendment to increase the amount of expenditures that would be authorized in a provision of an appropriations bill shall be in order unless the amendment contains a provision reducing, by a like or greater amount, expenditures that would be authorized in another provision of such appropriations bill.

Rule 2302. Motion to Adjourn. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except while a vote is being taken and until announced, or when a member has the floor, or when the previous question is pending; but a motion to recess is not equivalent to a motion to adjourn.

Rule 2303. Motion to Reconsider. A motion to reconsider shall take precedence of all other questions except the motion to adjourn. No motion for reconsideration of any vote shall be in order, unless made on the same day or the legislative day following that on which the decision to be reconsidered took place, nor unless a member voting with the prevailing side shall move such reconsideration. A motion for reconsideration, being put and lost, shall not be renewed, nor shall any subject or vote be a second time reconsidered without unanimous consent, but this provision shall not be construed as preventing the introduction of a bill on the same subject. The member moving for reconsideration shall be allowed not more than two minutes for stating the reasons in support of the motion. Such motion shall be subject to debate by any member, stating reasons in support or opposition to the motion. Each of such members shall be allowed not more than one minute for the purpose of such debate. Such motion shall require the affirmative vote of members equal in number to that required to take the action proposed to be reconsidered. A motion to reconsider any final action of the House shall be in order at any time prior to the time at which the message of the House thereon is read into the record of the Senate. A motion to reconsider any final action of the House may be made after the time at which the message of the House thereon is read into the report of the Senate but any action taken pursuant thereto will be contingent upon the return of the measure to the House by the Senate.

Rule 2304. Previous Question. The "previous question" shall be: "Shall the main question be now put?" and until it is decided shall preclude all amendments or debate. When voting on the previous question, the House decides that the main question shall not now be put, the main question shall be considered as still remaining under debate. The main question shall be on the passage of the bill, resolution or other matter under consideration. When amendments are pending, a vote shall first be taken upon such amendments in their order without further debate or amendment. A majority vote of the members present shall order the previous question.

Rule 2305. Motions Not Subject to Debate. All questions relating to priority of business shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn, to change the order of consideration of a bill, for a call of the House, and to lay on the table shall be decided without amendment or debate. The several motions to postpone or commit shall preclude all debate on the main question.

Rule 2306. Motion to Refer Bills or Resolutions to Committee When Not in Committee of the Whole. When not in the Committee of the Whole, a motion to refer a bill or resolution from the Calendar to a standing committee shall be in order only when the body is meeting as the House of Representatives and shall be authorized only when offered by the Majority Leader, or in the absence of the Majority Leader, by the Assistant Majority Leader. Such motion shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House.

Rule 2307. Motion to Strike Bills and Resolutions from Calendar When Not in Committee of the Whole. When not in the Committee of the Whole, a motion to strike a bill or resolution from the Calendar shall be in order only when the body is meeting as the House of Representatives and shall be authorized only when offered by the Majority Leader, or in the absence of the Majority Leader, by the Assistant Majority Leader. Such motion shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House.

Rule 2308. Stating Question. Every motion shall be first stated by the presiding officer or read by the chief clerk, before debate, and again immediately before putting the question.

Rule 2310. When Motions to be in Writing. Every motion, except those specified in Rules 2301 and 2303, shall be in writing if the Speaker or any member desires it. All motions to amend a bill or resolution and all resolutions shall be in writing.

Rule 2311. Suspension of Rules of the House. (a) No rule of the House shall be suspended except by unanimous consent or by an affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House, subject to the following exceptions:

(1) A motion to suspend the rules, and to declare an emergency and to advance a bill to the order of business Final Action, as contemplated in article 2, section 15 of the Constitution shall require an affirmative vote of  $\frac{2}{3}$  of the members present in the House.

(2) A motion to suspend the rules and to permit amendment and debate of a bill under the order of business Final Action shall require an affirmative vote of  $\frac{2}{3}$  of the members present in the House.

(b) When under the rules of the House a motion, question or action requires a vote of a majority greater than a majority of the members present, the majority specified for such motion, question or action shall be required to suspend the rules for the purpose of such motion, question or action. When under the rules of the House notice of a motion reduces the required majority for adoption of the motion, the required majority shall not be reduced if the notice is disposed of by suspension of the rules.

(c) Suspension of the rules or unanimous consent shall not reduce the majority required under subpart (1) of subsection (a) of this rule.

Rule 2312. Mason's Manual; When Applicable. (a) In any case where rules of the House or the joint rules of the Senate and House do not apply, Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure (2010 edition), with the exception of section 4, paragraph 2, shall govern.

(b) Rules of legislative procedure are derived from several sources and take precedence in the order listed below. For the Kansas House of Representatives, the principal sources are as follows: (a) Constitutional provisions; (b) statutory provisions; (c) adopted rules; (d) adopted parliamentary authority; (e) custom, usage and precedents.

The electronic voting system shall be used to record the vote whenever a roll call vote is taken on any question and may be used for ascertaining the vote upon any measure upon which a division of the assembly has been called. In the event that the system is not operating properly, roll call votes may be taken by calling the roll.

Rule 2502. Procedure for Taking a Roll Call Vote. When a roll call vote is taken, the presiding officer shall state the question and instruct the members to proceed to vote. When sufficient time has been allowed the members to vote, the presiding officer shall inquire: "Has every member had an opportunity to vote?" After a short pause the presiding officer shall direct the chief clerk to close the roll. After the roll has been closed, when Rule 2505 applies, the presiding officer shall inquire: "Does any member desire to explain his or her vote?" and any member so desiring may give such explanation when recognized by the presiding officer. The presiding officer shall inquire: "Does any member desire to change his or her vote?" If any member does desire to change his or her vote, such member when recognized by the presiding officer, shall advise how they desire to change such vote and the presiding officer shall then instruct the chief clerk to make the appropriate change. A member who has not previously voted may vote at this time when permitted by the presiding officer. Such member shall advise how they wish to vote and the presiding officer shall then instruct the chief clerk to record such vote. In addition to such penalties as may be prescribed by law, any member who votes or attempts to vote for another member shall be subject to Article 49 of these rules. If a person not a member votes or attempts to vote for any member, such person shall be barred from the floor of the House for the remainder of the session, and, in addition to penalties prescribed by law, may be punished further as the House determines.

(c) The Speaker shall not be compelled to vote except in case of a tie.

Rule 2505. Explaining Vote. Any member may, when a roll call vote is being taken on the passage or adoption of any bill or resolution, explain their vote. Such member shall be allowed not more than one minute for such explanation. Such explanation, if furnished in writing and signed, with printed name and district number, by such member by 4:00 p.m. upon the day the vote is taken or if the vote is taken subsequent to 3:30 p.m., within one-half hour after the adjournment of the House on that day, shall be entered in the Journal, provided it does not contain more than 100 words.

No record shall be made of the vote of any member voting upon any measure upon which a division of the assembly has been called.

(b) When a roll call vote is taken, it shall be recorded in the Journal by a statement of the names and total number voting in the affirmative, the names and total number voting in the negative, names and total number indicating presence but not voting and the names and total number absent or not voting, except that the provisions of this section shall not permit a member to fail to vote in violation of Rule 2508.

Rule 2507. When Roll Call Vote to be Taken. (a) A roll call vote shall be taken for the passage of any bill.

(b) A roll call vote shall be taken for the adoption of any concurrent resolution to amend the Constitution of the state of Kansas, to call a Kansas constitutional convention, to extend a session of the Legislature in even-numbered years, to ratify any amendment of the Constitution of the United States, to make any application for Congress to call a convention for proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States and when required by the joint rules of the House and Senate. A roll call vote is not required for adoption of concurrent resolutions pertaining to commendations or acknowledgments, unless required under subsection (e) of Rule 2507.

(c) A roll call vote shall be taken for the adoption of any House resolution to adopt, amend or revoke any rule of the House or to reject any executive reorganization order.

(d) A roll call vote shall be taken to concur in Senate amendments to any bill or concurrent resolution or to adopt any conference committee report other than a report agreeing to disagree.

When the call of the House is invoked, the doors to the House chamber shall be secured and all members shall be required to be in their seats unless excused by the Speaker. All members present during the call shall be required to vote before the call is raised. The call of the House shall not be raised (so long as 10 members continue the demand) until a reasonable effort, as determined by the Speaker, has been exerted to secure absentees.

(b) Any member, who is directly interested in a question, may be excused from voting, when there is a call of the House. The member, who is requesting to be excused from voting, shall state the reasons therefor, occupying not more than five minutes. The question on excusing such member from voting shall be taken without debate and a  $\frac{2}{3}$  majority of members present shall be necessary to excuse such member. If a member refuses to vote, when not excused, such refusal shall constitute grounds for reprimand, censure or expulsion under Article 49 of the Rules of the House.

Rule 2509. Voice Vote; Division of the Assembly. Except when a roll call vote is required, a voice vote shall be taken on all questions. Any member may call for a division of the assembly to determine the vote by the voting system.

ARTICLE 27. FINAL ACTION

Rule 2701. Description and Function. Subject to Rule 2705, bills and resolutions reported favorably by the Committee of the Whole shall constitute the order of business Final Action of the House. If the motion on a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and remains in conference.

SECOND DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, January 13, 2015, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 122 members present.

Reps. Hutton and Kelley were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Member-Elect Claeys was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by the Rev. Eunice Brubaker, Topeka:

God in Heaven,
With the excitement and fanfare of the “first day of a new session” over, we come together to begin the work of making Kansas a better state.
There were many promises made to get this done, but as we gather here, we recognize there are many differences in how these promises are to be fulfilled.
I pray that You give this body of leaders a spirit of unity in their diversity.
For our returning representatives, help them to be open to new ideas and willing to listen and learn from the new voices that have joined this body.
For our new freshmen representatives, may their excitement, determination and ideologies be contagious, but at the same time teach them to be patient, teachable and understanding.
As this body works together in a spirit of cooperation and collaboration with one another, give them the grace and ability to have the same spirit in working with the Senate, the Governor, and other heads of state.
Lord, for Kansas to be the kind of state that brings honor to You, and be an example to other states,
we need Your help.
I come before You and ask for this help today in Your Name,
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Dierks.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Dierks are spread upon the Journal:

Yesterday, Governor Brownback and others mentioned the important role our spouses and families play in our success.

Columbus, Ohio, is the birth place of my mother, Evelyn Collier, and three of our children, Erich, Christopher and Susan Dierks. My husband, Heinz, is also an alum of Ohio State University.

This morning in the Statehouse located in Columbus, Ohio, the members of that legislative body are celebrating an event just as we have on several occasions.

Yesterday, young men took to the football field in Ohio. Those men became the champions of the first National Collegiate playoff.

I wanted to share this with you to emphasize that no matter where we live, there are families who are proud of their youth, just as we in Kansas are proud of our young men and women.

The Kansas Teacher of the Year is awarded the Hubbard Foundation Kansas Teacher of the Year Ambassadorship, which enables the person selected to devote significant time during the second semester to activities to support the mission of the program. Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we congratulate and commend the members of the 2015 Kansas Teacher of the Year team and wish Mrs. Ralph success in the national competition.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Estes are spread upon the Journal:

The 2015 Kansas Teacher of the Year was selected from a pool of nearly 100 nominations. The 2015 finalists are: Jennifer Hofferber, a special education teacher at Sunflower Intermediate School in Liberal (Liberal USD 480); Jamie McDaniel, a fifth-grade teacher at Sunflower Elementary School in Paola (Paola USD 368); Abby M. Hedrick, a seventh-grade mathematics teacher at Paola Middle School (Paola USD 368); Beau T. Bragg, a physical education teacher at Bonner Springs Elementary School in Bonner Springs (Bonner Springs/Edwardsville USD 204); Kimberly Nelson, a sixth grade English language arts teacher at Robert E. Clark Middle School in Bonner Springs (Bonner Springs/Edwardsville USD 204); Lisa Holt, a special education teacher at Country View Elementary School in Winfield (Winfield USD 465); and Dennis Munk, a physical education teacher, including medical career exploration, sports medicine and health science, at Campus High School in Wichita (Haysville USD 261).

Shannon Ralph, a high school biology teacher at Dodge City High School (Dodge City USD 443), was named the 2015 Kansas Teacher of the Year. She has clearly demonstrated her ability to innovate, lead and inspire both within and outside the classroom. Thanks to her passion for the sciences and her ability to really connect with her students, Shannon has substantially increased Dodge City students' interest in science learning and serves as a powerful role model for STEM careers.

Mrs. Ralph has taught in Kansas at the middle school and high school level for 18 years, 13 of which have been at Dodge City High School teaching biology, honors biology and Advanced Placement biology. She is an ardent proponent of inquiry-based learning and as such co-authored and piloted Biology Rocks! curriculum, which is focused on developing inquiry-based labs to improve critical thinking skills and enhance student engagement. Ralph has served as DCHS' Science Department chair since 2003 and Professional Learning Communities Facilitator since 2005. She also serves as a mentor for new teachers. Under her leadership, DCHS was an early implementer of Kansas' Next Generation Science Standards.

Among her many honors, she was named Kansas Master Teacher by Emporia State University in 2008 and received the Wolf Teaching Excellence Award from the University of Kansas in 2014. She spent two summers working at the University of Kansas in the Research Experience for Teachers program and has presented at several national conferences, including the National Science Teacher Association Conference and the National Association of Biology Teacher Conference.

One of her colleagues at DCHS writes that she is a “spark.” Her passion for science and learning is evident as soon as you step in the door to her room and is incredibly contagious. Shannon uses her boundless energy to ensure her students feel confident and are successful in their learning. Shannon can convince even the most reluctant of students that biology, well....biology really does rock!

DCHS Principal Jacque Feist adds, “Students will work hard for a teacher who works just as hard, if not harder for them and this is what Mrs. Ralph does for all of her students. The respect she has for her students is profound and it comes back to her tenfold.”

When asked why she chose to teach instead of enter the medical profession, Ralph explains “I am crazy in love with this profession. I do not tire of teenagers; I am energized by them. I do not work with co-workers; I work with colleagues who inspire me. I am not drained by teaching a concept until students understand; I am fueled when a light bulb turns on for them.”

Security Benefit, the chief corporate sponsor of the Kansas Teacher of the Year program, presented Ralph with a $4,000 cash award.

As the 2015 Kansas Teacher of the Year, Ralph will also receive an educational technology package from SMART Technologies ULC of Canada.

In addition, Ralph will receive the Kansas Teacher of the Year Lifelong Learning Scholarship to attend participating universities free of charge as long as she continues teaching in Kansas, and The Hubbard Foundation Kansas Teacher of the Year Ambassadorship.

All eight members of the 2015 Kansas Teacher of the Year team will receive a cash award from Security Benefit; a Teaching Excellence Award from SMART Technologies and will also receive a marble apple from The Master Teacher in Manhattan.

The Teacher of the Year program has state and national competitions. The Kansas program is sponsored by the Kansas State Department of Education.

On motion of Rep. Vickrey, the House adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Wednesday, January 14, 2015.

Lord God,
Thank You for this another new beautiful day with sunshine (something we haven't seen much of lately), and a day where these leaders come to work together.
As we remember the late Dr. Martin Luther King on his actual birthday, we are reminded of the wise words he often spoke:
"If I cannot do great things, I can do small things in a great way."
Help our leaders in everything they do and say, no matter how small, to do and say them in a great way.
I also pray that as our leaders begin to make serious decisions that will affect the citizens of this state, they will follow and adhere to the following challenge that Dr. King gave:
"On some positions, cowardice asks the question, is it expedient?
And then expedience comes along and asks the question, is it politic?
Vanity asks the question, is it popular?
Conscience asks the question, is it right?
There comes a time when one must take the position that is neither safe nor politic nor popular, but he or she must do it because conscience tells him or her it is right."
Lord, may it be so with these ladies and gentlemen.
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Clayton.

Governor Sam Brownback's Complete Text of the State of the State

Mr. Speaker, Madam President, , Legislators, Elected Officials, Cabinet Members, Justices of the Kansas Supreme Court, Leaders of Kansas sovereign Native American Nations, Lt. Governor and his wife Ruth, the first lady of Kansas, my wife Mary...My Fellow Kansans...

One person I want to recognize in particular is the new House Minority Leader, Tom Burroughs. Tom, welcome to leadership.

Good evening and welcome back.

Before I begin the State of the State in earnest this evening, I want to pay tribute to the men and women of our armed forces. The strength of Kansas is best represented by those who risk their lives to protect us.

Major General Paul Funk from Fort Riley currently is leading the fight against ISIS. So obviously he is not here with us tonight. Instead we are honored to recognize all the brave Kansans who serve through the presence of Brigadier General Eric Wesley and Command Sergeant Major Maurice Jackson of Fort Riley.

Please help me welcome and recognize them.

I am informed by the clerks that of the 165 current members of the Legislature, about 100 of them are new to the body since 2010.

That is to say, many of you have never had the opportunity as Legislators to hear a different Governor give a State of the State Speech.

And for that, I don't apologize.

But, I will keep this speech as short and concise as I can.

Throughout my career in public service, I have been driven by the belief that Government exists to serve the people. Those who lead...those who govern, must do so with courage and compassion. In that way, those we serve can live in freedom and dignity.

That belief continues to guide my actions today, as it did four years ago when I gave my first State of the State message.

At that time, we gathered to address the challenges confronting our state.

Two of the biggest were our economy and budget.

On that January night, four years ago, more than 100,000 Kansans were actively looking for work and could not find it. Kansas ranked near the bottom among US states in private sector job growth. Personal income growth was low and poverty was headed up.

From 1999 to 2009, the number of Kansans in private sector employment had actually dropped – actually dropped – while state general fund spending had grown by more than a third.

In Fiscal Year 2010, for the first and only time in Kansas history, the State General Fund ended the fiscal year in a negative status.

Our economic and fiscal course was clearly unsustainable. It was time for a change.

From this podium, I announced that the days of ever-expanding government were over.

And we went to work.

We reformed state government to better serve Kansans by eliminating, consolidating or privatizing multiple state agencies and redundant functions, and reduced the public sector workforce by more than three thousand positions.

We embarked on a budgetary course that saw State General Fund expenditures grow at a lower rate than each of the previous nine Governors, while continuing to support core government functions and serving Kansans.

With bipartisan support, we overhauled our state's economic development strategy, established rural opportunity zones, and strengthened KPERS.

Four years later, I submit these facts for your review.

Kansas has created more than 59,000 new private sector jobs. Our unemployment rate is tied for the tenth lowest in America and more Kansans are working today than ever in the history of the state.

Personal income is rising, we are addressing the causes of poverty and welfare rolls have been cut in half.

Thanks to the efforts of our teachers and parents, Kansas students score among the best in the country, record numbers of Kansans are enrolled in technical education and our institutions of higher education are global leaders in fields from animal health to aeronautics to the universal fight against cancer.

Mr. Speaker, Madam President, it is for these reasons and more that I can report to you tonight that Kansas is on the rise, and the State of our State is STRONG.

As we have always known in Kansas, great achievements require hard work. It requires the courage to face our challenges head-on and find solutions that work for Kansans.

The goal of the Department for Children and Families is to be the agency of opportunity, helping Kansans move from poverty to prosperity.

One of our great successes has been the number of people who have left welfare and found work. We have seen more than a 50 percent decline in TANF recipients in the last four years.

Instead of welfare, we want Kansans to enjoy the dignity of work and build a better life for themselves and their families. This is to be celebrated.

Valerie Cahill is a single mother who was on public assistance. With the help of our Employment and Training program, Valerie is now earning full-time wages in the medical industry and is off welfare assistance.

Valerie and her son Cortez, are here with us tonight. Valerie, will you and your son please stand so we can congratulate you on the courage and perseverance that has allowed you to build a better life for you and your son.

We will continue to move forward, helping people move from dependence on the government to independence.

We will put forth programs that require more able-bodied welfare recipients to apply for work or work training as a condition of receiving the welfare benefit.

One of the key ways out of poverty and despair is through work. That brings hope and that brings a path forward.

To move forward, we need all of Kansas growing.

This includes our urban cores that in too many cases have seen their problems multiply and their solutions divide.

In the first term, we implemented Rural Opportunity Zones that this legislature passed. It has been a success. 77 counties have embraced it with more than 2,000 applications received – and more than a quarter of those are from out-of-state. People are coming to Kansas for opportunity and growth.

It is time to take this same successful concept to our urban core.

I am proposing that we provide the same growth tools to high poverty areas in Kansas City, Wichita and Topeka. The same requirements for local participation will exist as well.

This will help more Kansans succeed and will draw more people to our state.

Now, even as we celebrate our successes, we must acknowledge that the most recent data regarding state government revenue and expenditures present a clear challenge that must be addressed.

For the past several weeks, we have been in consultation with government, business and industry leaders regarding our shared fiscal concerns. They have been generous with their time and frank with their advice.

Tomorrow I will present to the legislature a proposed two-year budget that is in balance – with revenues exceeding expenditures each year.

And we will continue our march to zero income taxes.

Because the states with no income tax consistently grow faster than those with high income taxes.

There may be some who consider this course too bold...well, I'm the sort of guy who would have sent Alex Gordon from third base.

I propose this budget as a starting point to your deliberations. I understand and appreciate that the "power of the purse" is yours and does not belong to any other branch of government.

In my travels around Kansas I've found what I expect most of you have during your visits with the people we serve.

Kansans are sensible, decent, compassionate, thoughtful people.

They prize liberty, celebrate achievement and recognize an obligation to their fellow man.

They want government to focus on its core functions, to perform them well, to provide quality services, good schools, good roads and low taxes.

Kansans understand the importance of living within our means and meeting our obligations.

Kansans know the importance of a promise whether to friends, family or a business. And recognizing that promise, they pay their debts on time and in full. The Kansas Constitution should reflect that as well.

I am proposing the Legislature pass a Constitutional Amendment and put it before Kansas voters stating that the debt of the state is a general obligation of the state and we will pay it first.

This is good policy for our state.

Those who make state policy in the people's name have to make the tough choices. Those who refuse, don't lead.

Everyone will be able to find things in the budget I put forth that they disagree with. I hope as you review the budget, you put forth what you would do to make it better.

But as we go about this work, please bear two things in mind.

First, the family budget is more powerful than the government budget.

Second, a growing economy that is adding private sector jobs and increasing personal income can fix a government budget.

A growing government budget cannot bring lasting prosperity to its citizens by appropriating ever more of their earnings.

If we could spend our way to paradise, we would already be there.

Forty Kansas Governors held office before the State General Fund Expenditures reached $1 Billion for the first time.

The next four Governors saw that number hit $6 Billion.

That government spending growth was not reflective of the trajectory of our population or of the economy. It was government getting too big too fast.

The era of ever expanding government is over, because it has to be

The major drivers in state spending increases are what you think they are: K-12 education, public pensions and Medicaid.

Over the past several years, in addition to providing medical care in war zones around the world, Lt Governor Colyer has led our efforts to improve services and control costs in Medicaid.

The results have been good.

Waiting lists are down and services are up. Costs are growing, but at a slower rate than before.

On pensions, we have enacted reform and succeeded in devoting considerably more resources to what was a badly underfunded system.

In 2010, according to the Pew Center, Kansas had the second worst funded pensions system among all the U.S. states.

Thanks to the reforms undertaken since, done with bipartisan support, our rankings have improved and we are now middle-of-the-pack.

Understand though, that the unfunded liability in KPERS vastly exceeds any issues over our year-to-year budget. It dwarfs every other item on the state balance sheet.

All of those truly interested in fiscal prudence should support putting our state retirement system on a sound long-term footing.

Now, on the matter of K-12 spending.

A majority of the projected shortfall we face is due to increases in K-12 spending since Fiscal Year 2014.

I want to repeat that.

A majority of the projected shortfall we face is due to increases in K-12 spending

For decades now, Kansas has struggled under a school finance formula which is designed not to be understood---to frustrate efforts at accountability and efficiency.

A formula designed to lock in automatic, massive increases in spending unrelated to actual student populations or improved student achievement.

A formula which calculates that we have added more than 100,000 new students to the public schools while the actual census has grown by a fraction of that number---an accounting scheme that claims cuts to per pupil spending even as budget increases dramatically outpace increases in student population.

Not surprisingly, that formula has been under litigation in Kansas for the past 40 years. Just within the last few weeks, the latest ruling was issued in a suit filed under the previous Administration.

In the words of that court ruling, "one cannot classify the school financing structure as reliably constitutionally sound."

I agree.

Friends, it is time for a new school finance formula.

That formula should reflect real-world costs and put dollars in classrooms with real students, not in bureaucracy and buildings and artificial gimmicks.

That formula should be about improving student achievement and school accountability, not bureaucratic games.

My suggestion is simple, and I believe necessary – a timeout in the school finance wars.

In this two-year budget, the Legislature should appropriate money directly to school districts, so it can be spent where it is needed most, and that's in the classroom.

At the same time, the Legislature should repeal the existing school finance formula and allow itself sufficient time to write a new modern formula that meets our needs for great 21st Century schools.

And as we go about that process, it should be accountable to local parents and voters, because here...the people rule.

Accountability. You have heard me say that we must be accountable with our budget and education policy.

That accountability should extend to how our elected officials and judiciary are selected.

Currently, most elected officials in Kansas are chosen in elections when the fewest voters participate.

In general, Spring elections see a mere fraction of the voters who participate in Fall elections...generally with about 10 percent of eligible voters coming to the polls in the Spring.

Yet that's when most of our elected officials are selected. That does not honor our values of wanting higher voter participation.

It is time to move local elections to the Fall.

It also is time we change the way we pick our Supreme Court.

Recently, the Legislature introduced a greater element of public accountability to judicial selection by reforming the process for selecting appellate judges in Kansas.

It is time for similar reforms to apply to the Kansas Supreme Court.

Currently, we have the least democratic system in America to select Supreme Court justices.

The Legislature should put before Kansas voters a proposed Constitutional amendment for a more democratic selection process. One either based on the federal model or providing for direct election of Supreme Court justices, as we did for the first 100 years of our history.

With the court involving itself in so many public policy issues, it is time the selection process be more democratic.

Now we turn to a subject that will directly affect the future of every single Kansan. And that is.... water.

In my first term I challenged my administration and the citizens of Kansas to develop a long-term vision for the future of the water supply in our state.

And you answered that challenge. Now it is time for us to act.

Water is an intensely passionate issue where local situations vary enormously.

We have not yet accomplished a plan that ensures adequate water supplies throughout our state for the next 50 years but this will happen before my second term is concluded.

When I began my comments this evening, I told you that throughout my career, I have been driven by a belief that we are here to serve others. It is a God-given responsibility that we, as elected officials must accept and act upon.

We are at our best when we stir within ourselves our better angels. When our hearts are tender to what God is tender to...the poor, the voiceless, the powerless.

We should see human life as sacred and recognize its immeasurable worth in every human condition.

Whether at the beginning of life or the end of life, Kansas is the most pro-life state in America. And we are not going back.

So let us be wise and loving in how we serve the people particularly those in the greatest need at the time of their greatest need.

We need a budget that is adequate and not pernicious.

We need social policies that are wise and helpful, and which lead people from dependence to independence.

We need strong, healthy marriages and families. As I said at the Inauguration, big government can never be big enough to replace the family.

And we need vision to pass on to our children and their children to come. A vision of Kansas that stands the test of time because it is built on truth.

So as we move forward in this legislative session, let us be wise and prudent and act in the way that the Ancients told us to. That is that our actions should be "first pure, then peaceable, gentle, open to reason, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial and sincere."

Thank you and may God grant us all grace, mercy and truth to carry out our duties.

On motion of Rep. Vickrey, the House adjourned until 8:00 a.m., Friday, January 16, 2015.

SIXTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, January 20, 2015, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Mast in the chair. The roll was called with 115 members present.
Reps. Gallagher and Kuether were excused on verified illness.
Reps. Curtis, Edmonds, Goico, Henry, Merrick, Sawyer, Schwab and Winn were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Matt Zimmerman, pastor, St. Margaret's Episcopal Church, Lawrence, and guest of Rep. Sloan:

Gracious and Sovereign God, from the primal elements you brought forth the human race and blessed us with memory, reason and skill. You also blessed us with forgiveness, compassion and caring. In these times we find ourselves fraught with conflict with those in other lands of whom we have little knowledge or understanding. Events here at home cause us to wonder how well we know each other; too often the art of compromise gives way to hurtful feuding.

Help us all remember and reclaim the virtue of humility that enables us to continue to listen to one another in the midst of strife; the humility that keeps us faithful during the difficult and arduous times without weakening or seeking escape; the humility that gives birth to endurance and desire for the right and the just way of things.

I pray your blessing, O Lord, upon these women and men as they engage in the work you have called them to do. Bless their memory with forgiveness, their reason with compassion, and their skill with your caring.

All this I ask in your Holy Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Wolfe Moore.

Fifty years ago, Dr. King led thousands of marchers across the Edmund Pettus Bridge in Selma, Alabama on March 21, 1965. The movie Selma recently opened in theatres, across the country and has been nominated for Best Picture.

On August 6, 1965, President Lyndon B. Johnson signed the Voting Rights Act into law.

The series of programs and events presented in observance of Reverend Martin Luther King marked the 46th year the nation has celebrated the legacy of the civil rights leader, who was assassinated April 4, 1968. In 1994, Congress designated the Martin Luther King, Jr. federal holiday as a national holiday.

Dr. King delivered a speech outside Detroit, describing two Americas: one that is prosperous, safe, and full of opportunity and hope, and another that is fearful, grinding and with a new obstacle around each corner. Fifty years later, Reverend King's description of two Americas still resonates today, though we have come a long way towards his dream and many would not believe the changes and the progress we have made in our country. But we all know, as a country, that we must do better. The people we love, and who love us are counting on us. The community where we live and work are counting on us. The people we serve are counting on us.

Dr. King put himself, his faith and his trust in God and caring people, into a peaceful, nonviolent revolution to bring about change. We must continue to work together to create "one" America. "Dr. King's inclusive legacy must live on inside each of us." We can make a difference, not because we are forced to but because we want to and we can.

I will close with a quote from Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.: "Darkness Cannot Drive Out Darkness; Only Light Can Do That. Hate Cannot Drive Out Hate; Only Love Can Do That."

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Executive Reorganization Order No. 43

By Governor Sam Brownback

January 16, 2015

Pursuant to Article 1, Section 6(b) of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I am transmitting this day Executive Reorganization Order No. 43 to both houses of the Kansas Legislature. Simultaneous with this Order, I am transmitting the accompanying Governor's Message.

This reorganization affects operations at the Kansas Department of Health and Environment and the Kansas Department for Children and Families.

Beginning July 1, 2015 the Department for Children and Families will assume foster care licensing responsibilities that currently fall under KDHE. DCF is responsible for child welfare services in Kansas. Placing that responsibility under DCF will help streamline the process and further the agency's ability to monitor the entire foster care system and serve those in need.

This Executive Reorganization Order also transfers Medicaid eligibility processing duties from DCF to KDHE on January 1, 2016. KDHE is the State Medicaid agency and currently has employees in the Division of Health Care Finance with knowledge and expertise in Medicaid eligibility. Combining the current KDHE and DCF work groups that manage Medicaid eligibility will improve service by reducing the Kansas Medicaid Payment Error Rate Measurement by coordinating staff training and ensuring uniform implementation of policy and processing changes.

This will be a positive change for both agencies and the State of Kansas. The reorganization will allow DCF to better monitor the entire foster care system. It will also enhance the coordination between when a client applies for Medicaid, is determined eligible and receives medical services.

My administration looks forward to working with the Kansas Legislature on this and other solutions to provide better service to the citizens of Kansas.

Such justices or judges shall receive no fees or perquisites nor hold any other office of profit or trust under the authority of the state, or the United States except as may be provided by law, or practice law during their continuance in office.

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to place the law concerning the court of appeals into the constitution, to do away with the supreme court nominating commission and to provide for election of justices of the supreme court and judges of the court of appeals. Future justices and judges would be elected in partisan, statewide elections. Each justice and judge elected would hold office for a term of six years and would be allowed to seek reelection.

"A vote for this proposition would cause justices of the supreme court and judges of the court of appeals to be elected in partisan, statewide elections for terms of six years.

"A vote against this proposition would continue the current system in which justices of the supreme court are appointed by the governor from a list of three individuals submitted by the supreme court nominating commission and judges of the court of appeals are appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the election in August in the year 2016 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

"§ 2. Supreme court. The supreme court shall consist of not less than seven justices who shall be selected as provided by this article. All cases shall be heard with not fewer than four justices sitting and the concurrence of a majority of the justices sitting and of not fewer than four justices shall be necessary for a decision. "§ 5. Selection of justices of the supreme court. (a) (1) Any vacancy occurring in the office of any justice of the supreme court and any position to be open on the supreme court as a result of enlargement of such court, or the retirement or failure of an incumbent to file such justice's declaration of candidacy to be retained in office as hereinafter required, or failure of a justice to be elected to be retained in office, shall be filled by appointment by the governor, with the consent of the senate, of a person possessing the qualifications of office.

(2) Whenever a vacancy occurs, will occur or position opens on the supreme court, the clerk of the supreme court shall promptly give notice to the governor.

(3) In event of the failure of the governor to make the appointment within 60 days from the date such vacancy occurred or position became open, the chief justice of the supreme court, with the consent of the senate, shall make the appointment of a person possessing the qualifications of office.

(4) Whenever a vacancy in the office of justice of the supreme court exists at the time the appointment to fill such vacancy is made pursuant to this section, the appointment shall be effective at the time it is made, but where an appointment is made pursuant to this section to fill a vacancy which will occur at a future date, such appointment shall not take effect until such date.

(b) No person appointed pursuant to subsection (a) shall assume the office of justice of the supreme court until the senate, by an affirmative vote of the majority of all members of the senate then elected or appointed and qualified, consents to such appointment. The senate shall vote to consent to any such appointment not later than 60 days after such appointment is received by the senate. If the senate is not in session and will not be in session within the 60-day time limitation, the senate shall vote to consent to any such appointment not later than 20 days after the senate begins its next session. If such declaration is filed, the justice's name shall be submitted at the next general election to the electors of the state on a separate judicial ballot, without party designation, reading substantially as follows: "Shall (Here insert name of justice.), Justice of the Supreme Court, be retained in office?"

(3) If a majority of those voting on the question vote against retaining the justice in office, the position which the justice holds shall be vacant upon the expiration of the justice's term of office. Otherwise, unless the justice is removed for cause, the justice shall remain in office for the regular term of six years from the second Monday in January following the election. At the expiration of each term, unless by law the justice is compelled to retire, the justice shall be eligible for retention in office by election in the manner prescribed in this section.

(4) If a majority of those voting on the question vote against the justice's retention, the secretary of state, following the final canvass of votes on the question, shall certify the results to the clerk of the supreme court. (2) Any vacancy occurring in the office of any judge of the court of appeals and any position to be open on the court of appeals as a result of enlargement of such court, or the retirement or failure of an incumbent to file such judge's declaration of candidacy to be retained in office as hereinafter required, or failure of a judge to be elected to be retained in office, shall be filled by appointment by the governor, with the consent of the senate, of a person possessing the qualifications of office.

(3) Whenever a vacancy occurs, will occur or position opens on the court of appeals, the clerk of the supreme court shall promptly give notice to the governor.

(4) In event of the failure of the governor to make the appointment within 60 days from the date such vacancy occurred or position became open, the chief justice of the supreme court, with the consent of the senate, shall make the appointment of a person possessing the qualifications of office.

(5) Whenever a vacancy in the office of judge of the court of appeals exists at the time the appointment to fill such vacancy is made pursuant to this section, the appointment shall be effective at the time it is made, but where an appointment is made pursuant to this section to fill a vacancy which will occur at a future date, such appointment shall not take effect until such date.

(b) No person appointed pursuant to subsection (a) shall assume the office of judge of the court of appeals until the senate, by an affirmative vote of the majority of all members of the senate then elected or appointed and qualified, consents to such appointment. If the senate is not in session and will not be in session within the 60-day time limitation, the senate shall vote to consent to any such appointment not later than 20 days after the senate begins its next session. In the event a majority of the senate does not vote to consent to the appointment, the governor, within 60 days after the senate vote on the previous appointee, shall appoint another person possessing the qualifications of office and such subsequent appointment shall be considered by the senate in the same procedure as provided in this article. The same appointment and consent procedure shall be followed until a valid appointment has been made. No person who has been previously appointed but did not receive the consent of the senate shall be appointed again for the same vacancy. If the senate fails to vote on an appointment within the time limitation imposed by this subsection, the senate shall be deemed to have given consent to such appointment.

(c) (1) Each judge of the court of appeals appointed pursuant to subsection (a) and consented to pursuant to subsection (b) shall hold office for an initial term ending on the second Monday in January following the first general election that occurs after the expiration of 12 months in office.

(2) Not less than 60 days prior to the holding of the general election next preceding the expiration of the term of any judge of the court of appeals, the judge may file in the office of the secretary of state a declaration of candidacy for retention in office. If a declaration is not filed as provided in this section, the position held by the judge shall be vacant upon the expiration of the judge's term of office. "§ 7. District courts. (a) The state shall be divided into judicial districts as provided by law. Each judicial district shall have at least one district judge. The term of office of each judge of the district court shall be four years. District court shall be held at such times and places as may be provided by law. The district judges shall be elected by the electors of the respective judicial districts unless the electors of a judicial district have adopted and not subsequently rejected a method of nonpartisan selection. The legislature shall provide a method of nonpartisan selection of district judges and for the manner of submission and resubmission thereof to the electors of a judicial district. A nonpartisan method of selection of district judges may be adopted, and once adopted may be rejected, only by a majority of electors of a judicial district voting on the question at an election in which the proposition is submitted. Whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of district judge, it shall be filled by appointment by the governor until the next general election that occurs more than 30 days after such vacancy, or as may be provided by such nonpartisan method of selection.

(b) The district courts shall have such jurisdiction in their respective districts as may be provided by law.

(c) The legislature shall provide for clerks of the district courts.

(d) Provision may be made by law for judges pro tem of the district court.

(e) The supreme court or any justice thereof shall have the power to assign judges of district courts temporarily to other districts.

(f) The supreme court may assign a district judge to serve temporarily on the supreme court.

(g) The supreme court or the court of appeals may assign a district judge to serve temporarily on the court of appeals.

"§ 8. Qualifications of justices and judges. Justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals and judges of the district courts shall be at least 30 years of age and shall be duly authorized by the supreme court of Kansas to practice law in the courts of this state and shall possess such other qualifications as may be prescribed by law.

"§ 9. Prohibition of political activity by justices and certain judges. No justice of the supreme court who is appointed or retained under the procedure of section 5 of this article, nor any judge of the court of appeals who is appointed or retained under the procedure of section 6 of this article, nor any judge of the district court holding office under a nonpartisan method authorized in subsection (a) of section 7 of this article, shall directly or indirectly make any contribution to or hold any office in a political party or organization or take part in any political campaign.

"§ 10. Extension of terms until successor qualified. All judicial officers shall hold their offices until their successors shall have qualified.

"§ 11. Compensation of justices and judges; certain limitation. The justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals and judges of the district courts shall receive for their services such compensation as may be provided by law, which shall not be diminished during their terms of office, unless by general law applicable to all salaried officers of the state. Such justices or judges shall receive no fees or perquisites nor hold any other office of profit or trust under the authority of the state, or the United States except as may be provided by law, or practice law during their continuance in office.

"§ 12. Removal of justices and judges. Justices of the supreme court may be removed from office by impeachment and conviction as prescribed in article 2 of this constitution. In addition to removal by impeachment and conviction, justices may be retired after appropriate hearing, upon certification to the governor, by the supreme court that such justice is so incapacitated as to be unable to perform adequately such justice's duties. Other judges shall be subject to retirement for incapacity, and to discipline, suspension and removal for cause by the supreme court after appropriate hearing.

"§ 13. Savings clause. Nothing contained in this amendment to the constitution shall: (a) Shorten the term of office or abolish the office of any justice of the supreme court, any judge of the court of appeals, any judge of the district court, or any other judge of any other court who is holding office at the time this amendment becomes effective, or who is holding office at the time of adoption, rejection, or resubmission of a nonpartisan method of selection of district judges as provided in subsection (a) of section 7 of this article, and all such justices and judges shall hold their respective offices for the terms for which elected or appointed unless sooner removed in the manner provided by law; (b) repeal any statute of this state relating to the supreme court, the supreme court nominating commission, the court of appeals, district courts, or any other court, or relating to the justices or judges of such courts, and such statutes shall remain in force and effect until amended or repealed by the legislature."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to place the law concerning the court of appeals into the constitution and to do away with the supreme court nominating commission. The governor will appoint a qualified person, or if the governor fails to act, the chief justice of the supreme court would appoint a qualified person, and such person's appointment would be required to be confirmed by the senate. A procedure is established whereby senate confirmation would occur within 60 days of receiving the appointment. If the senate does not confirm the appointment by a majority vote, the governor would then appoint another qualified person, and such person's appointment would again go to the senate for confirmation. The same appointment and confirmation procedure would be followed until a valid appointment is made. If the senate fails to vote on an appointment within 60 days, it will be considered that the senate has confirmed the appointment.

"A vote for this proposition would provide a procedure whereby the governor or chief justice would appoint a person to be a supreme court justice or court of appeals judge and the senate, by majority vote, would confirm the appointment of the supreme court justice or court of appeals judge.

"A vote against this proposition would continue in effect the current provision whereby the supreme court nominating commission nominates three persons for the office of the supreme court or court of appeals and the governor appoints one of such persons."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2016 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

The same appointment and consent procedure shall be followed until a valid appointment has been made. No person who has been previously appointed but did not receive the consent of the senate shall be appointed again for the same vacancy. If the senate fails to vote on an appointment within the time limitation imposed by this subsection, the senate shall be deemed to have given consent to such appointment.

The court of appeals shall have such jurisdiction over appeals in civil and criminal cases and from administrative bodies and officers of the state as may be prescribed by law, and shall have such original jurisdiction as may be necessary to the complete determination of any cause on review. The legislature shall provide a method of nonpartisan selection of district judges and for the manner of submission and resubmission thereof to the electors of a judicial district. A nonpartisan method of selection of district judges may be adopted, and once adopted may be rejected, only by a majority of electors of a judicial district voting on the question at an election in which the proposition is submitted. Whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of district judge, it shall be filled by appointment by the governor until the next general election that occurs more than 30 days after such vacancy, or as may be provided by such nonpartisan method of selection.

(c) The legislature shall provide for clerks of the district courts.

appeals, district courts, or any other court, or relating to the justices or judges of such courts, and such statutes shall remain in force and effect until amended or repealed by the legislature."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to place the law concerning the court of appeals into the constitution, to change the procedure for selecting supreme court justices and court of appeals judges and to change the membership of the nonpartisan supreme court nominating commission. The nonpartisan supreme court nominating commission membership would be changed to include appointments by the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate. The gubernatorial appointments to the commission would be reduced from four members to three members. The members of the bar would no longer elect members of the commission. The commission would continue to nominate three persons for appointment by the governor. The governor would appoint one of such persons to the office of justice of the supreme court or judge of the court of appeals, and such person's appointment would be required to be consented to by the senate. A procedure is established whereby senate consent would occur within 30 days of receiving the appointment. If the senate does not consent by a majority vote, the governor would then select an appointment which would again go to the senate for consent. The same appointment and consent procedure would be followed until a valid appointment is made. If the senate fails to vote on an appointment within 30 days, it will be considered that the senate has consented to the appointment. Further, the supreme court justices and court of appeals judges would hold their offices during good behavior, be subject to the retirement, discipline and removal for cause provisions of section 12 of article 3 of the Kansas constitution and would no longer be subject to a retention election.

"A vote for this proposition would place the law concerning the court of appeals into the constitution and provide a procedure whereby a modified supreme court nominating commission would nominate three qualified persons to the governor for each vacant office of justice of the supreme court or judge of the court of appeals. The governor or chief justice would appoint one of such persons to the office of justice of the supreme court or judge of the court of appeals and the senate, by majority vote, would consent to the appointment. The supreme court justices and court of appeals judges would hold their offices during good behavior, be subject to the retirement, discipline and removal for cause provisions of section 12 of article 3 of the Kansas constitution and would no longer be subject to a retention election.

"A vote against this proposition would leave the law concerning the court of appeals in the Kansas statutes and continue in effect the current procedure whereby the governor appoints judges of the court of appeals, with the consent of the senate. It would also continue in effect the current procedure whereby the supreme court nominating commission nominates three persons for the office of justice of the supreme court and the governor appoints one of such persons, with no senate consent required. Further, the justices of the supreme court would continue to hold six-year terms and be subject to retention elections."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the election in August in the year 2016 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

Lord God,
We give thanks for the brief break this past weekend,

As this body begins to face the issues and make decisions,
I pray that each individual will exemplify love rather than self-protection, joy rather than despair,
peace rather than anxiety, patience rather than intolerance,

Without Your help and power, none of us can accomplish this, so I ask for Your help and strength.

HCR 5007-- A PROPOSITION to amend section 1 of article 11 of the constitution of the state of Kansas, relating to property taxation.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Section 1 of article 11 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended to read as follows:

"§ 1. System of taxation; classification; exemption. (a) The provisions of this subsection shall govern the assessment and taxation of property on and after January 1, 2013, and each year thereafter. Except as otherwise hereinafter specifically provided, the legislature shall provide for a uniform and equal basis of valuation and rate of taxation of all property subject to taxation. The legislature may provide by law to limit valuation increases on single-family residential real property which is owned and occupied as the principal place of residence of a Kansas resident who has served in the armed forces of the United States or the Kansas national guard and who is entitled to compensation for a service-connected disability of 100% under the laws administered by the veterans administration, and the legislature may enact legislation to limit application of this provision and enact such other legislation as is necessary to administer this provision. The legislature may provide for the classification and the taxation uniformly as to class of recreational vehicles and watercraft, as defined by the legislature, or may exempt such class from property taxation and impose taxes upon another basis in lieu thereof. The provisions of this subsection shall not be applicable to the taxation of motor vehicles, except as otherwise hereinafter specifically provided, mineral products, money, mortgages, notes and other evidence of debt and grain. Property shall be classified into the following classes for the purpose of assessment and assessed at the percentage of value prescribed therefor:

Class 1 shall consist of real property. Real property shall be further classified into seven subclasses. Such property shall be defined by law for the purpose of subclassification and assessed uniformly as to subclass at the following percentages of value:

- (1) Real property used for residential purposes including multi-family residential real property and real property necessary to accommodate a residential community of mobile or manufactured homes including the real property upon which such homes are located..... 11½%

- (3) Vacant lots..... 12%
- (4) Real property which is owned and operated by a not-for-profit organization not subject to federal income taxation pursuant to section 501 of the federal internal revenue code, and which is included in this subclass by law..... 12%
- (5) Public utility real property, except railroad real property which shall be assessed at the average rate that all other commercial and industrial property is assessed..... 33%
- (6) Real property used for commercial and industrial purposes and buildings and other improvements located upon land devoted to agricultural use..... 25%
- (7) All other urban and rural real property not otherwise specifically subclassified..... 30%

- (1) Mobile homes used for residential purposes..... 11½%

- (2) Mineral leasehold interests except oil leasehold interests the average daily production from which is five barrels or less, and natural gas leasehold interests the average daily production from which is 100 mcf or less, which shall be assessed at 25%... 30%
- (3) Public utility tangible personal property including inventories thereof, except railroad personal property including inventories thereof, which shall be assessed at the average rate all other commercial and industrial property is assessed..... 33%
- (4) All categories of motor vehicles not defined and specifically valued and taxed pursuant to law enacted prior to January 1, 1985..... 30%
- (5) Commercial and industrial machinery and equipment which, if its economic life is seven years or more, shall be valued at its retail cost when new less seven-year straight-line depreciation, or which, if its economic life is less than seven years, shall be valued at its retail cost when new less straight-line depreciation over its economic life, except that, the value so obtained for such property, notwithstanding its economic life and as long as such property is being used, shall not be less than 20% of the retail cost when new of such property..... 25%

(b) All property used exclusively for state, county, municipal, literary, educational, scientific, religious, benevolent and charitable purposes, farm machinery and equipment, merchants' and manufacturers' inventories, other than public utility inventories included in subclass (3) of class 2, livestock, and all household goods and personal effects not used for the production of income, shall be exempted from property taxation."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"A vote for this proposition would authorize the legislature to limit valuation increases of single-family residential real property which is owned and occupied as the principal place of residence of a Kansas resident who is a 100% disabled veteran who has served in the armed forces of the United States or the Kansas national guard. The amendment would also allow the legislature to enact legislation to limit application of this provision and enact other legislation as necessary to administer this provision.

"A vote against this proposition would maintain the current system of property taxation which provides no such authorization to limit such valuation increases."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 2016, unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. HCR 5008—

By Representatives Couture-Lovelady and Lusker

HCR 5008-- A PROPOSITION to amend the bill of rights of the constitution of the state of Kansas by adding a new section thereto, relating to the public right to hunt, fish and trap wildlife.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: The bill of rights of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§21. Right of public to hunt, fish and trap wildlife. The people have the right to hunt, fish and trap, including by the use of traditional methods, subject to laws and regulations that promote wildlife conservation and management and that preserve the future of hunting and fishing. Public hunting and fishing shall be a preferred means of managing and controlling wildlife. This section shall not be construed to modify any provision of law relating to trespass, property rights or water resources."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. This amendment is to preserve constitutionally the right of the public to hunt, fish and trap wildlife subject to reasonable laws and regulations. The right of the public to hunt, fish and trap shall not modify any provision of common law or statutes relating to trespass, eminent domain or any other private property rights.

"A vote for this proposition would constitutionally preserve the right of the public to hunt, fish and trap wildlife that has traditionally been taken by hunters, trappers and anglers. This public right is subject to state laws and rules and regulations regarding the management of wildlife and does not change or diminish common law or statutory rights relating to trespass, eminent domain or private property.

"A vote against this proposition would provide for no constitutional right of the public to hunt, fish and trap wildlife. It would maintain existing state laws and rules and regulations governing hunting, fishing and trapping wildlife."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2016 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

Almighty God,
Thank You for Your faithfulness and unfailing love.

I ask that Your Spirit give them the power to turn blame and hostility into harmony and unity for the sake of the good of Kansans.
In 2 Chronicles, Your Word admonishes
“...the hand of God was on the people

TENTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Monday, January 26, 2015, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Mast in the chair.

The roll was called with 119 members present.
Rep. Edmonds was excused on verified illness.
Reps. Goico, D. Jones, Kelley, Sawyer, and Winn were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Almighty God,
For this new day in which You have created, we thank You and ask that You help us relish each moment.
In this body of leadership we have the adventurous and the cautious;
the antagonistic, the acquiescent;
those who are always calm,
those who tend to be nervous;
those who tend to conform, those who are very independent;
the practical, the visionary;
the self-controlled, the impulsive;
those who are task-oriented, those who are people-oriented;
those who like to talk, those who are good listeners;
the conservative, the liberal;
savers and spenders;
the indirect and the direct.
And yet, they are to come to agreement on very important issues.
With man, this is impossible—with You, all things are possible.
I ask that you make possible today that which we cannot.
In Christ's name I pray,
Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Ewy.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Lunn are spread upon the Journal:

Today I am privileged to honor the memory of 2nd Lt. Justin Lee Sisson. Justin was born in Minnesota, but moved back to Kansas shortly after he was born. Before leaving home for college at Florida State, Justin lived in Kansas for 13 of his first 18 years, including the last 7 years in Overland Park, where he graduated from Blue Valley West High School in 2007. We have received an enormous amount of emails from Justin's teachers, friends, and people who were inspired by his story. Although every person seemed to have something unique to say about Justin, they all had a similar element in common. Justin was a leader who demonstrated humility and genuine concern for those he interacted with. Justin took leave from Florida State University to deploy to Iraq with the National Guard; Sisson earned a Bronze Star Medal for his honorable service.

Nearly a year after Sisson's graduation from Florida State, he deployed to Afghanistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom. On June 3, while on foot with his platoon, after a meeting with local officials, a teacher from a nearby children's school detonated explosives while on his motorbike, it was a suicide bombing. 2 Lieutenant Sisson, Specialist (SPC) Robert Allen Peirce, an Afghan policeman, and ten school children were killed. Nine other members of the platoon were injured, some still recovering from their wounds today. He could have been laid to rest anywhere, including Arlington cemetery, but he humbly chose to be buried in Leavenworth, KS beside two of his veteran grandfathers.

He clearly made an impact on everyone he met. Justin's character can best be summed up by the remarks from one of his fellow soldiers:

"When you think of the value a life it is impossible to grasp or comprehend. Nonetheless, it is worth pondering. According to the law, all men are created equal, but are all men, in fact, equal?"

We are created equally, but we do not live equally. I have never been one to shower others with compliments because, quite frankly, most do not deserve praise. Most people I have met fall into the category of ordinary and accept mediocrity as a way of life. There are, however, those who shine like a burning example of what excellence looks like. They are the living proof that all men are not, and never will be, equal. Such a man touched my life in an indescribable way. He was a man of discipline, honor, and fortitude. I met him years ago in a place where I knew no one and from the beginning we looked out for each other. We are forged together through struggle and hardship.

He was a man that you could cast all your worries upon and then he would brush you off, look you in the eye, and compel you to continue on, and much to your surprise, with a lighter heart and quicker step. He was, by all account, extraordinary. His own drive and dedication stoked a fire within me. I feel honored to have served alongside a man who I can affectionately call my brother; a brothe4r who has given everything for me and for you. If he were here today, I know without a shadow of a doubt, he would do it all again. That's the kind of man he was. He would lay his life down for you and you alone. He was one of the bravest I have ever met and he brought great honor to his Country and this Army and to those who knew him, not because he died, but because of the way he lived.

The magnitude of his presence is something I cannot describe to you. If you did not know him then you will not understand. For those who knew him, these words do not begin to describe what I mean and what you undoubtedly felt. He was one of those few who have a tangible pull. Just as the earth pulls our feet to the ground, by sheer force of will and outstanding nature of his character, he pulled men together. As is clearly seen by the wake of his accomplishments, he was among the best that this nation had to offer. We are all at a loss. I, myself, am pained with sorrow.

My only request is that we honor our brother with our lives. To meet life head on with a fervor and a moral fiber that cannot be shaken and to live as he lived. With humility, grace, passion, professionalism, and charisma. I pray that I can follow the example that he set, for the path that he set was not easy. Second Lieutenant Justin Lee Sisson, you will never be forgotten.”

I am honored to present this certificate of recognition to a fallen American Patriot, 2nd Lt. Justin Sisson, on behalf of the Kansas State Legislature.

Rep. Lunn also introduced family members and friends of 2nd Lt. Sisson to the members of the House.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Sustainer God,
Thank You for this day.
I ask that You remind our leaders frequently that when they are weak, You are strong;
when they call upon You and put their faith and trust in You,
You can move mountains for them;
When they are attacked,
You help them stand strong in the face of enemies.
When voices of doubt, temptations and fears come upon them, help them sense Your presence, feel your love, and walk in Your courage.
I also ask that you be with Representative Goico's wife as she goes into surgery today.
Use the gifts and skills of the medical personnel and bring her through surgery successfully.

THIRTEENTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, January 29, 2015, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 116 members present.

Reps. Edmonds and Schwab were excused on verified illness.

Rep. Sloan was excused on legislative business.

Reps. Doll, Goico, Jennings, Sawyer, Suellentrop and Winn were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. David Hintz, pastor, Flint Hills Christian Church, Emporia, and guest of Rep. Mast:

Father, your word tells us in:

Romans 13:1 Let every person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God.

You have appointed each and every member of this congress. They have been entrusted with an authority which is from you. Lord I pray that they will see such authority as a stewardship. Keep them uncorrupted by the allurements of power. May they use their power in a righteous way for righteous means.

We read in: Proverbs 29:2 When the righteous increase, the people rejoice, but when the wicked rule, the people groan.

Lord this is so true. A wise man once said, "Absolute Power Corrupts Absolutely." This is true of people but not of you. Thus, I pray that they will make decisions in light of your absolute power.

Specifically, I pray that they will look to the example of your Son Jesus Christ. While He could have commanded legions of angels to rescue him from the fate of the cross. He yielded to your will, sacrificially offering himself on the cross as an atonement for sin. He willingly sacrificed himself for the sake of His subjects.

May these men and women take a similar tactic, and use their power and authority not to enrich themselves, but the citizens of Kansas.

In Jesus Name, AMEN.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Kuether.

Reps. Goico, Kelley, Sawyer, Schwartz and Winn were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Creator God,
Thank You for this beautiful day with all the sunshine, albeit very cold.
Since the groundhog can see his shadow it appears that we have six more weeks of winter, and a few more weeks of political debate.
I pray for each of these leaders that they will remember that where they stand in the conflict, that is their place.
Just when they think they are useless, they will not hide their face.
For You have placed them here for a purpose, whatever that may be,
May they be thankful You have chosen them, and work faithfully.
Please be with Lt. Governor Colyer and his family as they mourn the death of his father.
Bring grace, strength, hope and comfort as only You can in times like these.
In Christ's Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Dove.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 119 members present.

Reps. Kiegerl and Proehl were excused on verified illness.

Reps. Goico, Kelley, Sawyer and Winn were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Heavenly Father,
For the great and small things we experience today, we thank You for life and the gift of this day.
For these men and women, I pray for strength, wisdom, kindness and a spirit of unity.
They are not supermen or wonder women.
They are just doing the work they were elected to do.
They cannot be in more than one place at a time.
They may not smile all the time.
They do not like to be called out by the media or constituents.
They won't keep everyone happy.
They can't expect everyone to agree with them.
They will not get every bill passed.
They will not win every argument.
They can, however, do unto each other as they would have done unto them.
They can be considerate and polite.
They can be determined and persistent.
They can respect one another.
In their diversity, they can find common ground.
And, most of all, I believe they will put forth their best effort into making the tough decisions that need to be made.
To accomplish this, they need clarity of thought and Your guidance, wisdom and compassion.
It is for Your gift of these qualities that I pray, in Christ's Name, Amen.

SEVENTEENTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, February 4, 2015, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Mast in the chair.

The roll was called with 122 members present.

Reps. Goico, Peck and Sawyer were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Rep. Dove, who sang “The Lord’s Prayer.”

Our Father, which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come.
Thy will be done in earth,
As it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
The power, and the glory,
For ever and ever.
Amen.

Arissa Ahtone and Shaniah Leslie, of the Wichita and affiliated tribes, provided native sign language of the prayer.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Victors.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Victors are spread upon the Journal:

On this second anniversary of “Native American Legislative Day,” I would like to take this opportunity to graciously introduce and welcome our tribal leaders and council members from the Prairie Band Potawatomi Nation, Kickapoo Nation, Sac and Fox Nation, as well as the Iowa tribe of Kansas and Nebraska and welcome them to our state Capitol. I would also like to thank the students from Haskell Indian Nations University for taking time out of their busy schedules to perform “The Lord’s Prayer” in our native sign language.

In 2013, we honored our Native American veterans from Kansas for their service to our country. This year, we would like to recognize the Native American youth of Kansas. I would like to welcome the Royal Valley Native American Singers and Dancers to our House chamber. They are the only school-sponsored dance group in Kansas. They recently traveled to Bartlesville, Oklahoma and brought home the championship trophy in the 12th annual “Battle of the Plains Native American Youth Dance Competition.” Several dancers of the group also placed in individual dance competitions and took home awards. The group is sponsored by Anita Evans, who is also affiliated with the Prairie Band Potawatomi Boys and Girls Club, where she teaches our Native American youth their rich culture and heritage. I would like to take this opportunity to thank her for her dedication and mentoring of our Native youth.

I am very proud of all of their accomplishments and what they contribute to our state. I would like to thank them for being with us here today. They will be performing for us from 12:15-1:00 p.m., first floor of the rotunda. Please stop by and show your support. Also, don’t forget there will be a reception this evening, in honor of “Native American Legislative Day.”

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

On emergency motion of Rep. Finch, HR 6006, as follows, was introduced and adopted:

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. HR 6006—

By Representative Finch

HR 6006--A RESOLUTION commemorating the 150th Anniversary of Ottawa University in Ottawa, Kansas.

WHEREAS, Ottawa University traces its roots to a strong partnership between Baptist missionaries and the Ottawa Indian tribe that began prior to Kansas' statehood; and

WHEREAS, In 1837, the Reverend Jotham Meeker, his wife, Eleanor Richardson Meeker, and their children moved to the banks of the Marais des Cygnes River to devote themselves to serving as ministers, physicians, teachers and counselors to the Ottawa Indian tribes who had recently been moved to the area; and

WHEREAS, Reverend Meeker inspired others, including John Tecumseh "Tauy" Jones, to take up this work of building a vibrant partnership with the tribal leaders; and

WHEREAS, This partnership between the Kansas Baptist denomination and the Ottawa Indian Tribe, under Tauy Jones' leadership, led to the foundation in 1865 of a school dedicated to the benefit of the children of the Ottawa people, placed on 20,000 acres of land endowed by the Tribe to support the establishment of the institution; and

WHEREAS, The original charter was to form a boarding school for tribal children. Both parties quickly recognized the importance of offering a college-level education and the understanding by members of the Tribe, the Baptists, and the people of Ottawa that a college would serve as an economic growth engine for the emerging community around the Marais des Cygnes; and

WHEREAS, Ottawa University's Christian heritage and respectful partnership with the Ottawa Indians remains alive and powerful today, evidenced by the 2008 agreement between Kevin Eichner, President of the University, and Chief John Ballard of the Ottawa Tribe of Oklahoma to grant, in perpetuity, free tuition, room and board to all certified tribal members who wish to attend either the residential college in Ottawa, Kansas or any of Ottawa University's adult on-campus or online programs. This agreement has been widely embraced and celebrated by faculty, alumni, board members and friends of the University and by tribal members as emblematic of the institution's core mission and principles and its enduring commitment to serve the mutual purposes of its founders; and

WHEREAS, Throughout its history, Ottawa University has pursued an innovative approach to higher education's role in society. In the 1970s, Ottawa University was one of the first to embrace a growing demand for programs specifically tailored to the needs of adult students, opening an adult campus in Kansas City in 1974, in Phoenix, Arizona in 1977, in Brookfield, Wisconsin in 1992, in Jeffersonville, Indiana in 2002, and in Chandler, Arizona in 2009. The University also began offering exclusive degree programs online in 2008; and

WHEREAS, Ottawa University's mission is to provide the highest quality liberal arts and professional education in a caring, Christ-centered community of grace – which integrates faith, learning and life; and

WHEREAS, Ottawa University serves more than 4,800 students from 49 states and 16 countries; and

WHEREAS, Ottawa University employs more than 200 Kansans as faculty and staff who are equally committed to ensuring that each and every student receives personal attention and the highest quality education that honors the school's mission and history; and

WHEREAS, There are more than 23,000 distinguished graduates of Ottawa University serving their communities, professions and churches around the world; and

WHEREAS, Ottawa University has grown from a single building to a comprehensive, global institution of higher learning dedicated to preparing students for a lifetime of enlightened faith, exemplary service, inspired leadership and personal growth and significance; and

WHEREAS, Ottawa University's commitment to education exemplifies the best of Kansas' past, present and future and serves as an inspiration to all Kansans: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we commend and celebrate the 150th Anniversary of Ottawa University in Ottawa, Kansas. Ottawa University inspires students of Kansas to lead with competence and character and we urge all Kansans to celebrate its success.

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send 8 enrolled copies of this resolution to Representative Finch.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Finch are spread upon the Journal:

One hundred fifty years ago a small Baptist mission along the Marias des Cygnes River in Franklin County, Kansas gave life to one of its most enduring successes, an enduring institution of higher learning. Ottawa University was born in the time of great national upheaval during our country's civil war. Native peoples had been and would continue to suffer greatly under forced relocations and unfair treaties.

In the midst of this great turmoil, Ottawa University was founded upon a different and more humane notion. That native and new could work together in harmony to build a lasting monument to the power of education to change lives, improve fortunes and better the world. The Ottawa Indian Tribe donated the land that would eventually endow Ottawa University and in exchange the school agreed to provide an education to the future children of the Ottawa Tribe. This is a promise still being kept today.

Those visionary tribal leaders and school founders could not have foreseen what would become of their school. Today Ottawa University continues to be an adult education innovator in Kansas City and across the country at its seven campuses and online, all while continuing to serve traditional students at its residential campus in Ottawa. Ottawa University prepares students for lives of significance and embodies that promise for the future as its graduates of all ages enter not only the workforce, but also our communities as excellently educated, well-rounded citizens ready to lead the course of tomorrow, both in Kansas and the nation.

I want to recognize Ottawa University's current cadre of Visionary Leadership, Mr. Kevin Eichner, President of the University; Ms. Wyndee Lee, Chair of the Board of Trustees, and Ms. Lisa Johnson, Director of Regulatory Compliance and Government Affairs.

Please join me in congratulating Ottawa University as it celebrates its 150th anniversary, an important milestone in its history, and proudly, one for our great state of Kansas.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: We have a cancer in Kansas government – it is growing rapidly and it is destroying essential services, diminishing our public schools, reducing public safety and denigrating our infrastructure. H Sub for SB 4 hurts poor children and damages KPERS but does nothing to cure the cancer killing the quality of life in Kansas. I vote no on H Sub for SB 4. --JIM WARD

MR. SPEAKER: When the 2012 and 2013 tax plans were discussed, many legislators, researchers and economists warned that they would create catastrophic budget deficits by 2016. Here we are one year ahead of these predictions. To balance this year's budget we now have to cut more than $300 million from the last few months of the current fiscal year. While I realize we must balance our budget, I cannot support a solution that, coupled with the Governor's allotments, sacrifices the future of our children, seniors, medically underserved, infrastructure, veterans, public safety, disaster relief, and education system. We vote no on H Sub for SB 4.--ED TRIMMER, ANNIE TEITZE, PONKA-WE VICTORS, JOHN ALCALÁ, LOUIS RUIZ, PAM CURTIS, ADAM LUSKER, RODERICK HOUSTON, NANCY LUSK, JARROD OUSLEY, VALDENIA WINN, BARBARA BALLARD

MR. SPEAKER: I applaud the work of Appropriations. My vote is not in opposition to their work, but in support of what is required to appropriate well: priority-based budgeting. Across the board cuts are a blunt instrument; priority-based budgeting is a laser.

Two years ago, we had FY 2015 below $6 billion. Six months later, a rescission took it to $6.2 billion. Now FY 2015 is up to $6.35 billion.

Agencies will use priority-based budgeting only if advanced and enforced by the administration. We are what we measure. Until we quantify and annually evaluate the effectiveness of programs, we cannot confidently defend blunt cuts or new spending. I vote no on H Sub for SB 4. --MARC RHOADES, KASHA KELLEY

MR. SPEAKER: I cast my vote in support of H Sub for SB 4 with reservation. Transferring funds from KDOT, reducing highway maintenance and the use of funds normally reserved for children's programs are not practices we should continue to embrace to balance the budget. While the urgency of our current situation requires extraordinary steps to meet our obligations and pay our bills, we must not continue to rely upon such extraordinary measures to make ends meet.--J. RUSSELL JENNINGS

MR. SPEAKER: The vote today is not a choice-the state has an obligation to pay its bills. I will not contribute to default by voting no, however responsible governance begins with the courage to admit we have a problem. Today I vote yes on H Sub for SB 4, but I will not support any other temporary fixes that enable magical thinking to triumph over responsible public policy. --MELISSA ROOKER, DIANA DIERKS

MR. SPEAKER: I cast a "yes" vote on H Sub for SB 4 today with great reservation. This measure is necessary to keep school doors open, public safety officers on the beat, courts open to the public, and to provide other essential public services. However, it reflects neither the realization of rapid economic prosperity nor disciplined and thoughtful spending reductions, both of which were the promised results of fiscal policies instituted in 2012 and revised in 2013. Our current fiscal condition is indicative of a need for greater financial responsibility, honesty about the limits of current policies, and reasonable solutions for the good of all Kansans.-- BLAINE FINCH

MR. SPEAKER: I vote yes on H Sub for SB 4 because I cannot bear the thought of Kansas not paying our bills. That said, this bill does not come close to alleviating this desperate situation. This bill is tantamount to handing a bottle of vodka to an alcoholic, and this must stop. Members of the Body, it is time for us to go to Taxation Rehab. Kansas cannot continue on this self-destructive path. I've been asked what my solution is, and it is to provide a balanced tax plan that will truly grow the economy.-- STEPHANIE CLAYTON

MR. SPEAKER: This bill presents us with terrible choices. It destabilizes vital governmental programs and increases the financial burden on future legislatures and the Kansans they will represent. As distasteful as these choices may be, our focus must be on what led us to this difficult decision. The overly aggressive tax cut of 2012 has created a structural imbalance which cannot be responsibly corrected with budget cuts alone. I reluctantly vote yes today on H Sub for SB 4, but with the resolve that future budget bills must be accompanied by additional revenues to correct that imbalance.-- DON HINEMAN

MR. SPEAKER: My YES vote on H Sub for SB 4 in no way reflects my support for the reckless economic policy currently in place by this administration. I originally voted NO on this tax plan that is failing to bring the revenue needed for Kansas. My YES vote today recognizes that bills must be paid, such as the $56 million dollars still owed to my school district this year. Sound fiscal policy must be put in place in Kansas to prevent further revenue crises.--BARBARA BOLLIER

MR. SPEAKER: Four years ago a consultant told us we were a high tax state on the way to becoming poor. We were advised that if we lowered our income tax we would be a wealthy state! That analysis was flawed and the advice we followed has led to the desperate budget and cash flow situation we face today. A yes vote today signals that our period of denial is finally over! In the coming days we must find hundreds of millions of dollars of real budget cuts and, if necessary, raise revenue. Let's take responsibility and get to work! We vote yes on H Sub for SB 4.--DON HILL, SUSIE SWANSON

MR. SPEAKER: I vote Yes on H Sub for SB 4. As a common sense Conservative, I feel it is time to step up. Our budget reminds me of a credit card debt that is out of control. It is my feeling that this has been caused by the aggressive income tax bill of 2012. We have put at risk our state, our security, our children, and our future. I will not vote for any other budget bill until the bill of 2012 is re-examined and fixed.--LARRY HIBBARD

MR. SPEAKER: Kansans expect us to be frugal, and responsible. We are enabling irresponsible borrow and spend policies. We should budget wisely, levy appropriate revenues, and insist upon a fair and stable tax system. Additionally we should be looking after the engines of progress to include roads, education, and investments in our future like the biosciences.

The recent tax bills created this imbalance. Without these we would have raised another $885 million dollars in FY2015. This is almost exactly what is needed to fix the structural imbalance in our state budget. I vote yes on H Sub for SB 4.--TOM MOXLEY.

MR. SPEAKER: Due to our self-inflicted budgetary crisis I vote in favor of H Sub for SB 4 allowing us to meet our looming financial obligations. I feel I have no other viable option.

However, I have strong objection to sacrificing the care, protection and education of our youngest citizens by taking 12 Million Dollars provided to the Children Initiative Fund from the Kansas Endowment for Youth. I so wish we would keep our promises to children. I vote yes on H Sub for SB 4.--STEVEN BECKER.

MR. SPEAKER: I vote yes for H Sub for SB 4 with the primary reason being the serious concerns over the State paying its bills. I am deeply concerned about the transfers from KDOT and the impact it has on road maintenance and future improvement projects. In addition, I am very concerned about the impacts that will be felt in other important services provided to the citizens of Kansas. Our options were limited with today's vote. Now that work begins on the preparation of 2016-17 budget, we must focus on creating a long-term, sustainable solution to correct the shortfall in tax revenue.--TOM PHILLIPS, JIM KELLY.

MR. SPEAKER: Our state is in the situation it is today as a result of gross fiscal mismanagement. Unfortunately, this rescission bill does nothing to address the underlying problems that brought us to this point. It is only a short-term fix to what is a much larger problem. Additionally, the revenue sources drawn on in this bill, stolen from critical programs and services, further hurt our state and its citizens. I vote no on H Sub for SB 4. – GAIL FINNEY, TOM BURROUGHS, JOHN WILSON

MR. SPEAKER: This bill presents us with terrible choices. It destabilizes vital governmental programs, increases the financial burden on future legislatures, and leaves inadequate reserves to finish the year. As distasteful as these choices may be, we must focus on what led us to this difficult decision. The overly aggressive tax cut of 2012 has created a structural imbalance which cannot be responsibly corrected with budget cuts alone. I must vote no today, with the resolve that future budget bills must be accompanied by additional revenues to correct that imbalance. I vote no on H Sub for SB 4. – TOM SLOAN

MR. SPEAKER: I vote yes on H Sub for SB 4. There is nothing about this bill I like. Leadership requires doing the hard thing. We are not and should not be allowed deficit spending. There is no other way to meet our financial obligations. The alternative is to cause greater harm by not paying our bills, not paying school and state employees, not paying businesses that have performed work for the state, and not having state offices open for the people's business. It is now time to develop a budget that pays for our promises of good highways and good schools. – SHANNON FRANCIS

MR. SPEAKER: Legislative research reported yesterday that even with the passage of this bill, the state will still face a budget deficit of $800,000 at the end of the fiscal year. I cannot in good conscience support a bill that will not cover the existing budget deficit AND does not address the underlying problem which brought our state to this point: an unsustainable and inequitable tax policy. We are diverting funds from critical programs and services to pay the state's bills at the peril of our citizens. I vote no on H Sub for SB 4. – SYDNEY CARLIN, CAROLYN BRIDGES

MR. SPEAKER: More than $1 billion has been transferred from the state highway fund in recent years. This transfer of an additional $158.5 million from the state highway fund will delay projects and contribute to the denigration of our roads which in turns risks the safety of Kansas drivers. Additionally, the 10-year transportation plan is one of the greatest job creators in our state and it is now at risk. As our state's economy continues to struggle to gain footing, we should be investing in infrastructure, not sweeping funds. I vote no on H Sub for SB 4. – JOHN CARMICHAEL

EIGHTEENTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, February 5, 2015, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 118 members present.

Rep. Jennings was excused on legislative business.

Reps. Bridges, Goico, Hedke, Hildabrand, Kelley and Sawyer were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Almighty God,
Thank You for yet another day to be used by You to hopefully bring about goodwill.
As these leaders face once again many seemingly insurmountable issues to resolve, bring to their hearts and minds Your words: “Forget the former things;
do not dwell on the past.
See, I am doing a new thing!
Now it springs up;
do you not perceive it?
I am making a way in the desert and streams in the wasteland.
Help us all to live in expectancy of this new thing.
Abba Father,
Please wrap your arms around Representative Hedke and his family in the tragic, sudden loss of his wife.
We don't understand why these things happen.
But we do know You are in control and that You can and will carry them through this dark valley.
I also ask that You be with Representative Hildabrand and his family, as his grandfather is not doing well and has been placed in hospice.
It is in Your name and in Your mercy and grace
I ask these things. Amen.

(Isaiah 43:18-19)

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. B. Carpenter.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Anthimedes are spread upon the Journal:

In February 2013, the Wichita Police Department implemented a Homeless Outreach Team (HOT) pilot program. According to the annual point in time count for Wichita, Kansas, the chronic homeless population nearly doubled from 2009 to 2011. Like many other cities nationwide, Wichita frequently receives 911 calls regarding people who are experiencing homelessness and panhandling or drinking alcohol in public. As the homeless numbers increased, so did calls for service. Part of the mission of the Wichita Police Department is “improving the quality of life in our community.” And homelessness is a quality of life issue. Therefore, we began attending meetings with local homelessness service providers to develop rapport, build trust, and more importantly learn about the homelessness issues in Wichita.

Through these meetings we realized that by working in partnership with these providers, the Wichita Police Department (WPD) could get many people off of the streets and connected to valuable service programs. There are providers who specialize in outreach for specific populations, but few were all encompassing. In law enforcement, we found that we could be that missing link to help the homeless connect with case managers and/or submit referrals for the Wichita Sedgwick County Housing First Program. We also envisioned offering other services, which could help people experiencing homelessness be successful. These services include, but are not limited to, transportation to shelters or substance treatment centers, case management, assistance with employment, and diverting minor criminal charges away from the courts in lieu of homeless services.

WPD conducted research throughout the nation to find best practices in addressing the issue of homelessness. We found that the Colorado Springs Police Department’s model had won the 2010 Herman Goldstein award for community policing. This department implemented a Homeless Outreach Team in its community, dramatically reducing the homeless population. WPD members attended a training workshop with Colorado Springs officers, brought back what they learned, and in February 2013, the Wichita Police Department’s Homeless Outreach Team pilot program was initiated. WPD’s H.O.T. program has three full-time members and one supervisor - Officers Nathan Schwiethale, Officer Dave Nienstedt, Officer Lisa Berg and Sgt. Brett Stull.

WPD H.O.T. also began the “Finding A Way Home” program, which reunites people experiencing homelessness with family members who are willing to give them housing and offer assistance. To date, HOT has reunited over 100 homeless individuals utilizing this program.

HOT also assists people who are experiencing homelessness obtain employment. Once a person experiencing homelessness becomes housed through the Housing First program, HOT works with him or her to find employment and eventually become self-sufficient. This assistance includes job-readiness programs offered through the City of Wichita, the State of Kansas, and other employment programs. So far, the pilot program has helped over 50 people gain employment. One individual the HOT team helped had incredible skills in construction. He is now the proud owner/operator of a very successful construction company. After being homeless for 20 years, his dream is now fulfilled.

Working with the Housing First program and other homeless providers has allowed the HOT team to witness tremendous accomplishments. Since February 2013, the Homeless Outreach Team has:

- Helped more than 300 people move from homelessness into permanent or transitional housing
- Reunited more than 100 people experiencing homelessness with family members or friends willing to take them in
- Helped more than 150 people experiencing homelessness obtain shelter
- Made contact with people experiencing homelessness more than 4,000 times.

The success of the WPD HOT program has been featured in numerous articles and news stories. HOT has also bridged the gap between police, the homeless population, and service providers. The three groups are now working together. In 2012, United States Interagency Council on Homelessness called for increased collaboration among law enforcement and behavioral health and social service providers.” In Wichita, we believe we have met the challenge.

The Wichita Police Department has won multiple awards including those from the Wichita Crime Commission, NAMI, The Red Cross, the Veterans Administration and among others. Wichita H.O.T. has been recognized as a best practice by the Federal Government and their United States Interagency Council on Homelessness and hired as a board member to implement their Criminal Justice Sustainable Implementation Guide (CJ SIG) for other police agencies across the nation that wish to implement a Homeless Outreach Team.

Rep. Anthimedes presented each team member with a framed House certificate.

Lord our God, there is serious work to be done on behalf of the people of Kansas, but it has to wait for another day.

There is a budget to balance, but that will have to wait for another day.

There are roads to be repaired, but that will have to wait for another day.

There are schools to finance, but that will have to wait for another day.

Because Lord, today our hearts are too broken for work. Our grief is too deep. We are worried about our friend and colleague Dennis Hedke. We are grieving the loss of his wife Annette.

We wish we could be with Dennis, Jacob and Reasha right now to show our love and respect – to grieve with those who grieve as the Apostle Paul said.

Lord, pour out your grace and mercy on these men and women who represent we the people of Kansas. Allow them to represent all of the people of Kansas today at the service celebrating the life of Annette Hedke. Protect those who travel to attend the service.

And when they return give them a greater determination to work for the well-being of the people of Kansas. Swell their hearts with love and grace for all the people. Stoke their souls with the desire to do justice and love mercy. Help them to walk humbly with their God.

But for today Lord, for today receive their grief and comfort them just as we ask that you comfort all of Annette's family.

In the name of our compassionate God. Amen.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Kiegerl are spread upon the Journal:

In early December I attended a Christmas service in an Episcopalian Church in Kansas City which moved me. It was entirely in German and brought back memories of my childhood. A choir of high school students sang the old traditional carols, and I became aware of the German language program at Olathe South High School.

In the early days of the Republic some 230 years ago, there was an election in Pennsylvania to determine what should be the official language of the country. German lost by one vote. Nevertheless, it has played a role in the United States, after all 46 million Americans trace their origin to Deutschland. It was the second language until the mid-twentieth century. In North Dakota it is still widely spoken.

German is a difficult language, with complex grammar and great precision. It was the language of science and many seminal works were first published in German.

Learning a foreign language is rewarding and enriching, it opens an intimate access to new vistas and cultures. Most educated Europeans are multi-lingual. We are remiss in foreign language studies. At least we ought to learn Spanish to better communicate with our neighbors to the south. I took it up at age 60 and I must say "me gusta mucho." The 120 students who chose to learn a much more difficult and challenging language deserve our recognition. I invite you to welcome them and their teacher, Scott Seeger.

The senate shall vote to consent to any such appointment not later than 60 days after such appointment is received by the senate. If the senate is not in session and will not be in session within the 60-day time limitation, the senate shall vote to consent to any such appointment not later than 20 days after the senate begins its next session. In the event a majority of the senate does not vote to consent to the appointment, the governor, within 60 days after the senate vote on the previous appointee, shall appoint another person possessing the qualifications of office from the names submitted to the governor by the standing house committee on judiciary, or the successor to such committee, and such subsequent appointment shall be considered by the senate in the same procedure as provided in this article. The same appointment and consent procedure shall be followed until a valid appointment has been made. No person who has been previously appointed but did not receive the consent of the senate shall be appointed again for the same vacancy. If the senate fails to vote on an appointment within the time limitation imposed by* this subsection, the senate shall be deemed to have given consent to such appointment.

(c) Each justice of the supreme court appointed pursuant to provisions of subsection (a) ~~of this section and consented to pursuant to subsection (b)~~ shall hold office for an initial term ending on the second Monday in January following the first general election that occurs after the expiration of ~~twelve~~ 12 months in office. Not less than ~~sixty~~ 60 days prior to the holding of the general election next preceding the expiration of ~~his such justice's~~ term of office, ~~any~~ the justice of the supreme court may file in the office of the secretary of state a declaration of candidacy for ~~election to succeed himself~~ retention in office. If a declaration is not so filed, the position held by such justice shall be open from the expiration of ~~his such justice's~~ term of office. If such declaration is filed, ~~his such justice's~~ name shall be submitted at the next general election to the electors of the state on a separate judicial ballot, without party designation, reading substantially as follows:

If a majority of those voting on the question vote against retaining ~~him~~ the justice in office, the position or office which ~~he~~ the justice holds shall be open upon the expiration of ~~his such justice's~~ term of office. Otherwise ~~he~~ the justice shall, unless removed for cause, remain in office for the regular term of six years from the second Monday in January following such election. At the expiration of each term ~~he~~ the justice shall, unless by law ~~he~~ the justice is compelled to retire, be eligible for retention in office by election in the manner prescribed in this section.

(d) ~~A nonpartisan nominating commission whose duty it shall be to~~ The standing house committee on judiciary, or the successor to such committee, shall nominate and submit to the governor the names of persons for appointment to fill vacancies in the office of any justice of the supreme court ~~is hereby established, and shall be known as the "supreme court nominating commission."~~ Said commission shall be organized as hereinafter provided.

(e) ~~The supreme court nominating commission shall be composed as follows: One member, who shall be chairman, chosen from among their number by the members of the bar who are residents of and licensed in Kansas; one member from each congressional district chosen from among their number by the resident members of the bar in each such district; and one member, who is not a lawyer, from each congressional district, appointed by the governor from among the residents of each such district.~~

(g) ~~No member of the supreme court nominating commission shall, while he is a member, hold any other public office by appointment or any official position in a political party or for six months thereafter be eligible for nomination for the office of justice of the supreme court. The commission committee may act only by the concurrence of a majority of its members."~~

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to do away with the supreme court nominating commission, assign the commission's duties to the standing house committee on judiciary and make supreme court justice appointments subject to senate confirmation. The standing house committee on judiciary would submit the names of three persons to the governor and the governor would appoint one of such persons. A procedure is established whereby senate confirmation would occur within 60 days of receiving the appointment. If the senate does not confirm the appointment by a majority vote, the governor would then appoint another qualified person from the names submitted to the governor by the standing house committee on judiciary, and such person's appointment would again go to the senate for confirmation. The same appointment and confirmation procedure would be followed until a valid appointment is made. If the senate fails to vote on an appointment within 60 days, it will be considered that the senate has confirmed the appointment.

"A vote for this proposition would change the procedure for selection of justices of the supreme court whereby the standing house committee on judiciary would nominate three persons for the office of justice of the supreme court, the governor would appoint one of such persons and the senate, by majority vote, would confirm the appointment.

"A vote against this proposition would continue in effect the current procedure for selection of justices of the supreme court whereby the supreme court nominating commission nominates three persons for the office of justice of the supreme court and the governor appoints one of such persons."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2016 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. HR 6009—A RESOLUTION designating February 10, 2015, as Multiple Sclerosis Awareness Day at the Capitol.

WHEREAS, Multiple sclerosis (MS) interrupts the flow of information between the brain and the body and stops people from moving. It is an unpredictable, often disabling disease of the central nervous system, and every hour someone is newly diagnosed in the United States; and

WHEREAS, The Mid America Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society reports that MS affects an estimated 2.5 million people worldwide, 400,000 nationwide and over 4,600 Kansans; and

WHEREAS, Often first diagnosed in individuals aged 20 to 50, attacking them in the prime of their lives, MS is the most common neurological disease leading to disability in young adults; and

WHEREAS, The symptoms of MS range from numbness and tingling to blindness and paralysis. The progress, severity and specific symptoms of MS in any one person cannot yet be predicted, but advances in research and treatment are moving us closer to a world free of MS; and

WHEREAS, The Mid America Chapter of the National MS Society has been committed to mobilize people throughout Kansas who want to assist those afflicted with MS; and

WHEREAS, "Walk MS" events are scheduled this spring in Kansas City, Hays, Hiawatha, Hutchinson, Lawrence, Manhattan, Neodesha, Salina, Topeka and Wichita; and

WHEREAS, On February 10, 2015, the National MS Society will sponsor MS Awareness Day at the Kansas State Capitol; and

WHEREAS, The mission of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society is to mobilize people and resources to drive research for a cure and to address the challenges of everyone affected by MS: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we declare February 10, 2015, as Multiple Sclerosis Awareness Day at the Capitol to raise awareness for this disease that has no known cause and no known cure. We recognize the importance of moving closer to a world free of multiple sclerosis and express appreciation to the Mid America Chapter of the National MS Society for its work.

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send two enrolled copies of this resolution to Representative Boldra.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Todd are spread upon the Journal:

My mother has Progressive MS. This stands in contrast to the more common form of MS called Relapsing-Remitting MS. It is estimated that between 10-15% of individuals with MS have the Primary-Progressive form of MS. There are no FDA-approved medications for treatment and there is no cure. While I have been around individuals with MS my whole life and have a tremendous amount of sympathy for individuals battling the more common forms of the disease, my mother, sister, and my family have traveled our own path with this disease.

My first memory involving MS was when my mother had an accident. I was a child. We had a coffee table in the living room that had a metal corner. My mother lost her balance and cut her knee. After this accident she started to use a cane. As a young child not fully understanding what was happening, I for a while blamed that small accident for my mothers developing difficulties walking.

But, when her leg healed she didn't get back to walking normal. She moved from a cane to a walker and eventually part time in a wheel chair. She moved to Lawrence. My first memories of the MS Society involved going to a Saturday morning breakfast at Perkins. I got the chance to eat and giant chocolate muffin and afterward we would go over to an arcade in the same shopping area.

I got older, the disease got worse. In high school, my mother had an accident where she fell and broke her femur or hip. I get corrected each time. By this time my mother had developed osteoporosis. As I mentioned previously, there are no medications for Primary MS but it was common to prescribe a steroid to individuals with Relapsing-Remitting MS. If it worked for one form the disease then they were willing to try it on my mom. So, I remember spending nights in the hospital while my mom recovered from her surgery. She helped me practice my lines for a scene in drama.

In every struggle my mother has confronted the obstacles facing her. There has always been a moment of reflection, an acknowledgment of the new struggle, and a commitment to fight. My mother is a fighter of the highest order.

She has inspired me throughout my life. I wouldn't be where I am without her encouragement and powerful example. She is my hero. So, I challenge you to get out, get involved.

Rep. Mason introduced Dr. Jessie Huisinga and Ms. Marcillene Dover to the members of the House. Dr. Huisinga, doing research at the University of Kansas, is currently the principal investigator on grants from the National Multiple Sclerosis Society and from the NIH on studies related to understanding gait and balance deficits in persons with MS. Ms. Dover, recently diagnosed with MS, attends Wichita State University and is a teaching assistant at Wichita North High School. Upon graduation she would like to be a high school science teacher.

The supreme court shall have general administrative authority over all courts in this state.

"§ 2. Supreme court. The supreme court shall consist of not less than seven justices who shall be selected as provided by this article. All cases shall be heard with not fewer than four justices sitting and the concurrence of a majority of the justices sitting and of not fewer than four justices shall be necessary for a decision. "§ 5. Selection of justices of the supreme court. (a) (1) Any vacancy occurring in the office of any justice of the supreme court and any position to be open thereon as a result of enlargement of the court, or the retirement or failure of an incumbent to file such justice's declaration of candidacy to be retained in office as hereinafter required, or failure of a justice to be elected to be retained in office, shall be filled by appointment by the governor of one of three persons possessing the qualifications of office who shall be nominated and whose names shall be submitted to the governor by the supreme court nominating commission established as hereinafter provided.

(2) Whenever a vacancy occurs, will occur or position opens on the supreme court, the clerk of the supreme court shall promptly give notice to the governor.

(3) In event of the failure of the governor to make the appointment within 60 days from the time the names of the nominees are submitted to the governor, the chief justice of the supreme court shall make the appointment from such nominees.

(4) Whenever a vacancy in the office of justice of the supreme court exists at the time the appointment to fill such vacancy is made pursuant to this section, the appointment shall be effective at the time it is made, but where an appointment is made pursuant to this section to fill a vacancy which will occur at a future date, such appointment shall not take effect until such date.

(b) (1) Each justice of the supreme court appointed pursuant to subsection (a) shall hold office for an initial term ending on the second Monday in January following the first general election that occurs after the expiration of 12 months in office.

(2) Not less than 60 days prior to the holding of the general election next preceding the expiration of such justice's term of office, any justice of the supreme court may file in the office of the secretary of state a declaration of candidacy for election to be retained in office. If a declaration is not so filed, the position held by such justice shall be open from the expiration of such justice's term of office. If such declaration is filed, such justice's name shall be submitted at the next general election to the electors of the state on a separate judicial ballot, without party designation, reading substantially as follows:

(3) If a majority of those voting on the question vote against retaining such justice in office, the position or office which such justice holds shall be open upon the expiration of such justice's term of office; otherwise such justice shall, unless removed for cause, remain in office for the regular term of six years from the second Monday in January following such election. At the expiration of each term such justice shall, unless by law such justice is compelled to retire, be eligible for retention in office by election in the manner prescribed in this section.

Any such justice who has not been retained in office pursuant to this section shall not be eligible for nomination or appointment to the office of justice of the supreme court prior to the expiration of six years after the expiration of the justice's term of office.

(d) A nonpartisan nominating commission whose duty it shall be to nominate and submit to the governor the names of persons for appointment to fill vacancies in the office of any justice of the supreme court and any judge of the court of appeals is hereby established, and shall be known as the "supreme court nominating commission." The commission shall be organized as hereinafter provided.

(3) six members appointed by the legislature as follows: Two by the president of the senate; two by the speaker of the house of representatives; one by the minority leader of the senate; and one by the minority leader of the house of representatives.

(f) The terms of office, the procedure for selection and certification of the members of the commission and provision for their compensation or expenses shall be as provided by the legislature.

(g) No member of the supreme court nominating commission shall, while a member, hold any other public office by appointment or any official position in a political party or for six months thereafter be eligible for nomination for the office of justice of the supreme court or judge of the court of appeals. The commission may act only by the concurrence of a majority of its members.

"§ 6. Court of appeals. (a) (1) The court of appeals shall consist of not less than 14 judges. Any vacancy occurring in the office of any judge of the court of appeals and any position to be open on the court of appeals as a result of enlargement of such court, or the retirement or failure of an incumbent to file such judge's declaration of candidacy to be retained in office as hereinafter required, or failure of a judge to be elected to be retained in office, shall be filled by appointment by the governor of one of three persons possessing the qualifications of office who shall be nominated and whose names shall be submitted to the governor by the supreme court nominating commission established by section 5 of this article.

(2) Whenever a vacancy occurs, will occur or position opens on the court of appeals, the clerk of the supreme court shall promptly give notice to the governor.

(3) In event of the failure of the governor to make the appointment within 60 days from the time the names of the nominees are submitted to the governor, the chief justice of the supreme court shall make the appointment from such nominees.

(4) Whenever a vacancy in the office of judge of the court of appeals exists at the time the appointment to fill such vacancy is made pursuant to this section, the appointment shall be effective at the time it is made, but where an appointment is made

(2) Not less than 60 days prior to the holding of the general election next preceding the expiration of such judge's term of office, any judge of the court of appeals may file in the office of the secretary of state a declaration of candidacy for election to be retained in office. If a declaration is not so filed, the position held by such judge shall be open from the expiration of such judge's term of office. "Shall (Here insert name of judge.), Judge of the Court of Appeals, be retained in office?"

(3) If a majority of those voting on the question vote against retaining such judge in office, the position or office which such judge holds shall be open upon the expiration of such judge's term of office; otherwise such judge shall, unless removed for cause, remain in office for the regular term of four years from the second Monday in January following such election. At the expiration of each term such judge shall, unless by law such judge is compelled to retire, be eligible for retention in office by election in the manner prescribed in this section.

The term of office of each judge of the district court shall be four years. District court shall be held at such times and places as may be provided by law. The district judges shall be elected by the electors of the respective judicial districts unless the electors of a judicial district have adopted and not subsequently rejected a method of nonpartisan selection. The legislature shall provide a method of nonpartisan selection of district judges and for the manner of submission and resubmission thereof to the electors of a judicial district. A nonpartisan method of selection of district judges may be adopted, and once adopted may be rejected, only by a majority of electors of a judicial district voting on the question at an election in which the proposition is submitted. Whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of district judge, it shall be filled by appointment by the governor until the next general election that occurs more than 30 days after such vacancy, or as may be provided by such nonpartisan method of selection.

"§ 10. Extension of terms until successor qualified. All judicial officers shall hold their offices until their successors shall have qualified.

"§ 11. Compensation of justices and judges; certain limitation. The justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals and judges of the district courts shall receive for their services such compensation as may be provided by law, which shall not be diminished during their terms of office, unless by general law applicable to all salaried officers of the state. Such justices or judges shall receive no fees or perquisites nor hold any other office of profit or trust under the authority of the state, or the United States, except as may be provided by law, or practice law during their continuance in office.

court, the supreme court nominating commission, the court of appeals, district courts, or any other court, or relating to the justices or judges of such courts, and such statutes shall remain in force and effect until amended or repealed by the legislature."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to place the law concerning the court of appeals into the constitution and to change the membership of the supreme court nominating commission. This amendment would continue in effect the current provision whereby the supreme court nominating commission nominates three persons for the office of the supreme court or court of appeals and the governor appoints one of such persons. Commission membership would change to: Four attorney members, one attorney selected from each congressional district by the resident members of the bar in each such district; five members appointed by the governor as follows: One member from each congressional district; and one member from the state as a whole who shall serve as the non-voting chairperson of the commission; and six members appointed by the legislature as follows: Two by the president of the senate; two by the speaker of the house of representatives; one by the minority leader of the senate; and one by the minority leader of the house of representatives.

"A vote for this proposition would place the law concerning the court of appeals into the constitution and continue in effect the current provision whereby the supreme court nominating commission nominates three persons for the office of the supreme court or court of appeals and the governor appoints one of such persons. Commission membership would change to: Four attorney members, one attorney selected from each congressional district by the resident members of the bar in each such district; five members appointed by the governor, one member from each congressional district and one member from the state as a whole who shall serve as the non-voting chairperson of the commission; and six members appointed by the legislature.

"A vote against this proposition would leave the law concerning the court of appeals in the Kansas statutes and continue in effect the current system in which judges of the court of appeals are appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate. It would also continue in effect the current constitutional provision whereby the supreme court nominating commission nominates three persons for the office of the supreme court or court of appeals and the governor appoints one of such persons. Commission membership would remain: One member, who shall be chairman, chosen from among their number by the members of the bar who are residents of and licensed in Kansas; one member from each congressional district chosen from among their number by the resident members of the bar in each such district; and one member, who is not a lawyer, from each congressional district, appointed by the governor from among the residents of each such district."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2016 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution was introduced and read by title:

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. HR 6012—

By Representatives Todd and Merrick

HR 6012--A RESOLUTION endorsing the twenty-sixth anniversary of sister state relations with the Republic of China (Taiwan), Taiwan's participation in the Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP) and the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) and Taiwan's participation as an observer in the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO).

WHEREAS, On November 14, 1989, the State of Kansas and the Republic of China (Taiwan) entered into a sister state relationship of enduring friendship and international cooperation; and

WHEREAS, Over the past twenty-six years, the bonds of true friendship and steadfast trade partnership between Kansas and Taiwan have been strengthened, resulting in tourism and a strong economic, social and cultural exchange; and

WHEREAS, Every other year, Taiwan has sent an agricultural trade goodwill mission to the U.S. Midwest region, including Kansas, to demonstrate Taiwan's continuing goodwill and willingness to purchase Kansas agricultural products. The Kansas agricultural industry has benefited greatly over the past decades from the sale of beef, wheat and corn to Taiwan; and

WHEREAS, Kansas and Taiwan have enjoyed a long and mutually beneficial relationship and anticipate continuing growth. Taiwan ranks as Kansas' 12th largest export destination with $194.5 million worth of Kansas goods shipped to Taiwan; and

WHEREAS, The United States ranks as Taiwan's third largest trading partner. Taiwan is the tenth largest trading partner of the United States with bilateral trade reaching $63.6 billion; and

WHEREAS, The Trade and Investment Framework Agreement (TIFA) meeting between the United States and Taiwan is laying the groundwork for a Bilateral Investment Agreement (BIA). Negotiation for a BIA is an important step toward further strengthening bilateral trade and paving the way for entering into a free trade agreement between the United States and Taiwan, thereby increasing the exports of Kansas to Taiwan and creating bilateral investment through tariff reduction and other trade facilitation measures; and

WHEREAS, Taiwan, seeking to contribute to greater regional integration in the Asia-Pacific region and promote bilateral investment and trade relations with the United States, applauds the United States' announcement of its intent not only to join the Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP), but to expand TPP membership in the future to include other countries, such as the Republic of China (Taiwan); and

WHEREAS, Taiwan's inclusion in the TPP would contribute substantially to the depth, viability, and quality of the TPP. Taiwan's strong economic weight in the Asia-Pacific and the world, its well-developed knowledge base and highly skilled workforce, its vital position along regional supply chains and value chains and the positive economic and strategic gains for all make Taiwan an ideal candidate economy for the TPP's expansion; and

WHEREAS, Taiwan's absence from the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change has hampered Taiwan's ability to participate in global climate initiatives and respond to natural disasters. Taiwan can be a valuable and constructive partner in the international response to the adverse effects of climate change and severe weather emergencies, as evidenced by Taiwan's speedy and generous response to aid the victims of Typhoon Haiyan in the Philippines, which included donations of approximately $12.22 million; and

WHEREAS, The development of international civil aviation in a safe and orderly manner is the supreme cause of the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO). The ICAO depends to a great extent on multilateral cooperation to achieve the goals of safety, order and sustainable development; and

WHEREAS, Taiwan is an integral part of the global aviation network. With an excellent geographic location, Taiwan is a key aviation hub for regions in Asia and the world; and

WHEREAS, Taiwan Taoyuan International Airport is ranked 16th globally in international passenger traffic by the Airports Council International (ACI), and 58 domestic and foreign airlines connect Taiwan with 117 cities across the world. The Taipei Flight Information Region (FIR) each year provides more than 1.3 million navigation services to aircraft carrying 45 million passengers and over 1.68 million tons of cargo. The large volume of cargo and passenger traffic make Taiwan an important part of the global air transport network; and

WHEREAS, Without Taiwan's participation, international flight plans, regulations and procedures that the ICAO formulates will be incomplete and unsafe; and

WHEREAS, Taiwan's request to participate in the ICAO is fully in line with the United States government's policy of supporting Taiwan's meaningful participation in United Nations specialized agencies: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas:

(1) That Kansas is celebrating the twenty-sixth anniversary of sister state relations with the Republic of China (Taiwan); and

(2) Kansas supports Taiwan's efforts to secure entry into the Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP), and endorses the signing of the Bilateral Investment Agreement (BIA) with the United States; and

(3) Kansas supports Taiwan's appropriate participation in the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) and endorses Taiwan's participation as an observer in the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO).

Be it further resolved: That copies of this resolution are sent to the United States Secretary of State, John F. Kerry, President Ma Ying-jeou of the Republic of China (Taiwan), Secretary General Raymond Benjamin of the International Civil Aviation Organization, Executive Secretary Christiana Figueres of the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change, each member of the Kansas Congressional Delegation and Director General Jack J.C. ## TWENTY-SECOND DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, February 11, 2015, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 122 members present.

Reps. Goico, Hedke and Sawyer were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Almighty God,
Thank you for once again for this day and the opportunity to come before You to pray for these leaders and the decisions that are to be made.
Your Word declares that we can come to You,
the source of wisdom, for wisdom.
I ask that You give these leaders not only the wisdom of humanity, but the wisdom of God.
I pray that You will instruct them and teach them in the way they should go.
Direct their steps, and let their ears be inclined to hear Your voice.
Help them to be quick to hear and listen, slow to speak and slow to anger.
Let their words speak Your truth with wisdom, but in simplicity so that all may understand and benefit by them.
Thank You for Your faithfulness in helping each one.
In Your Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Rooker.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Schroeder are spread upon the Journal:

The aspiration to pursue the Miss Rodeo Kansas crown came during Abbey's reign as Miss Rodeo K-State 2012 and during her time as a college rodeo competitor. She became deeply immersed in a community where the qualities of independence, responsibility and camaraderie were cornerstones. She desired to be a giving part, an ambassador of and for that same community.

The daughter of Jerry and Dixie Pomeroy, she and her three siblings, Jason, Michelle, and Emily, were raised on a farm near Hesston, Kansas. Abbey is a Proud Wildcat and graduated from Kansas State University with a degree in Interior Design. In addition to being part of the rodeo club and competing on the rodeo team, she served as President of the Student Design Group and served as their community wide Fair Trade Marketplace coordinator. She was an active member of the cooperative living house, Alpha of Clovia. Abbey was also a member of her local 4-H Club. When Abbey's not on horseback you are likely to find her creating leather creations or with close friends, rock climbing, canyoneering and exploring the outdoors.

In addition to capturing the Miss Rodeo Kansas title, Abbey earned the Horsemanship, Speech and Modeling awards. As the First Lady of Rodeo for the great state of Kansas, Abbey will travel the state and country promoting the sport and the western way of life. Her reign will conclude in December as she represents the Sunflower State at the Miss Rodeo America Pageant in Las Vegas, Nevada during the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo.

Rep. Schroeder presented Abbey with a framed House certificate.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Todd are spread upon the Journal:

The Republic of China, Taiwan, has long been a strong ally and trade partner of the United States, and of Kansas. Twenty-six years ago Taiwan and Kansas entered into a sister state relationship and I am here to honor that relationship.

Let me highlight some important information about this relationship:

- Taiwan is the 17th largest economy in the world
- Taiwan is the United States 10th largest trade partner
- The United States is Taiwan's 3rd largest trading partner
- Taiwan is Kansas' 12th largest trading destination
- Kansas exports $194.5 million in goods to Taiwan

We can do more.

I had the opportunity to travel to Taiwan as part of a delegation of legislators from the Midwest this last summer. It is a dynamic nation with a striving economy. But, because of it's size and terrain, Taiwan can not produce all of the food that it's population requires. Kansas is an important food source for the nation.

We are also an important source of agricultural research. I had the opportunity to speak with members of agricultural trade groups in Taiwan and they routinely seek out information and consultation from individuals at our own Kansas State University, which is seen as one of the leading agricultural research institutions in the world.

Kansas also has a strong tie to Taiwan with Garmin because the largest subsidiary and main production facility is located in New Taipei City in Taiwan.

I want to welcome Director-General J.C. Yang, from the Taiwan Consulate in Kansas City. He has served his country for 36 years seeking to improve their economic relations around the world.

Please join me in honoring our guest and calling for our governments to strengthen the friendship and economic cooperation between our countries and our people.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

On motion of Rep. Sloan, HR 6010, A RESOLUTION honoring former Representative Forrest Swall., was adopted.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Sloan are spread upon the Journal:

Relatively few Kansans are elected by their neighbors to serve in the Kansas Legislature. Whether we knew them or not, the passing of a legislative colleague should be noted. Former Representative Forrest Swall served the people of Douglas County and Kansas for one term. He was a compassionate and gentle man with a lifelong commitment as an educator, legislator, and citizen to providing people the encouragement, education, and counsel necessary to succeed. He recognized all people as being equal, regardless of their gender, age, race, religion, or preferences. Please join me in honoring a former member of our Legislative Chamber.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

On motion of Rep. Davis, HR 6011, A RESOLUTION recognizing and celebrating National Donate Life Blue and Green Day on April 17, 2015, and National Donate Life Month in Kansas during April, was adopted.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Swanson and Davis are spread upon the Journal.

Remarks by Rep. Swanson:

Thank you for the opportunity to share my story about organ donation with you today.

Three years ago, our neighbor's son, Mike, was in desperate need of a kidney transplant. In 1987, when he was in his mid twenties, both Mike and his twin brother, Steve, were diagnosed with a degenerative kidney disease. Steve was the first to be diagnosed and his mother, Carol, donated a kidney to her son. Steve died of cancer in 2007. Mike had two transplants, one in 1994 which was unsuccessful and another in 2004. Both kidneys were from deceased donors. Two-and-a-half-years later, his new kidney was attacked by a virus which caused it to fail and he had to have the kidney removed. He was, once again, on dialysis. In June of 2011, Mike's condition had become so fragile that it appeared he might not live without a transplant soon.

Even though I was a proponent of deceased organ donation and had signed up with the DMV to be an organ donor, being a living donor was a different matter. The idea had entered my mind but I promptly dismissed it because I was paralyzed with fear at the notion of surgery. I could barely have blood drawn without fainting let alone volunteer to donate an organ.

Through a friend of Mike's nephrologist, he heard about Johns Hopkins incompatible donor program. It is called the Paired Donor Kidney Exchange Program. The program, also called a "kidney swap," is an option for those waiting for a kidney transplant. It is for patients who have a willing, living donor whose kidney is incompatible, usually because of differing blood types or incompatible tissue types. The program helps incompatible pairs find other incompatible pairs who wish to exchange donors. The exchange can involve two or more incompatible pairs. Matches are made using data bases from JHH and the Organ Procurement and Transplantation Network.

Mike needed a living donor who was willing to donate for him, in order to participate in the program. Once his condition became so critical, and I realized that Jim and Carol might lose another son, my fear somehow disappeared and I made the decision to donate a kidney for Mike. His mother, Carol, helped me start the process of becoming a living donor. Early in the evaluation process, which began with a series of blood tests to determine compatibility as well as the general health of the donor, Carol informed me that a friend of Mike's had also volunteered to donate and she was ahead of me in the evaluation process. Even though Mike had a donor, I decided I would continue with the evaluation process in case something unforeseen happened and his friend would not be able to follow through with the donation. I wanted to be a back up. If I was not needed for Mike, then I wanted to donate to anyone who needed a kidney. I didn't actually know Mike. He lived with his wife and two children in Liberal, KS. If I could give to Mike, who I didn't know, I was sure there were other families with the same heart-wrenching stories.

My initial lab work was done in early June and again in August in Clay Center at our local hospital. In November of 2011, my husband and I flew to Baltimore, Maryland and I completed the third phase of the evaluation which included physician and nursing consults and additional testing. Southwest Airlines for supplying us with travel vouchers for the trip.

On February 14, 2012, Mike received his transplant. In early March, his team of doctors determined that the transplant was successful and I was contacted by John's Hopkins asking if I wanted to proceed as a non-directed donor. When connected with existing incompatible donor/recipient pairs, non-directed donors start a domino effect of kidney donations. Because I have a rare blood type, it took five months to find a compatible recipient. The recipient was identified in Aug. 2012 and surgery was scheduled for Oct. 23, 2012.

Again, Southwest Airlines provided my husband and I with vouchers and we flew to Baltimore on Oct. 21. The day of surgery, my kidney was transplanted into Cassie, a woman in her early forties, and her husband, Tom's kidney was given to Eric, a 30 year-old-man. Eric's mother was waiting for a compatible recipient to be located and she would then donate and the chain could continue on. Prior to leaving the hospital, I was able to meet Cassie and her husband and her mother and Eric. That was an amazing and heartwarming experience.

The surgery was laparoscopic. I was in the hospital two days and remained in Baltimore for another week. After a clinic visit and a good report, we returned home on Nov.1. Recovery took about two to three weeks. I resumed all my normal activities and have maintained excellent health since that time. Obviously there are risks involved in any surgery and giving a kidney means that, should something happen to my remaining kidney, I no longer have a back up. That was a risk, I believed, was worth taking and I have had no second thoughts Transplants are a humbling and life changing experience for so many. Employers have healthy employees once again, donors and their families are impacted in positive ways and most importantly, recipients and their families have a whole new life. Whatever can be done to promote organ and tissue donation both deceased and living, is well worth the investment of time and money. It means lives saved.

Thank you for allowing me to share my story.

Remarks by Rep. Davis:

On January 5, 2000, my brother welcomed a baby boy and named him Dakota. Our family was overjoyed by Dakota's arrival; however, the joy of Dakota's birth was soon overshadowed by the terrifying news that Dakota was very ill. Soon after Dakota's birth, the delivery nurses noticed that Dakota was covered with bruises and petechiae, which are little red pin dots. Preliminary tests were run and it was determined that Dakota's platelet levels were gravely low and his blood was unable to clot. Dakota was rushed to KU Med Center where he spent the next six weeks in the Neo Natal Intensive Care Unit. During his stay, the doctors ran many tests to determine the cause of his low platelets. Dakota received platelet transfusions every five to six days and was eventually sent home as besides the puzzling platelet condition, Dakota was a healthy baby.

Dakota continued to receive platelet transfusions every five to seven days for two years. After moving to North Carolina and receiving care from Duke University Hospital, it was determined that Dakota's condition was called Myelodysplastic syndrome, which is a disorder that affects the blood and bone marrow. We learned the cure for Myelodysplastic syndromes was a bone marrow transplant. Hearing this news, our entire family decided to be tested to see if we were a match. Unfortunately, none of our family was a match. However, Dakota was eventually matched with a cord blood donor and in the fall of 2002, Dakota began the arduous process of preparing for the transplant.

Because of the generosity of cord blood donation, my nephew, Dakota, is a healthy 15 year old and a freshman at Olathe Northwest. He has yearly check-ups at Duke University hospital and I'm happy to say, there is no sign of the MDS reoccurring.

With Dakota's successful transplant behind us, I had almost forgotten that in being tested to see if I was a match for Dakota, I was also placed on the National Marrow Donor list. To my surprise in the fall of 2008, I received a phone call telling me that I was a preliminary match for a 15 year old boy who suffered from leukemia. They asked if I would still consider donating bone marrow or stem cells. Unsure of what all that entailed but keenly aware that someone else's generosity saved my nephew's life, I said yes and began a two-month process of blood tests, medical exams, EKG's. Finally, it was determined that not only was I a good match for this young man, I was a nearly perfect match.

In January of 2009, as I prepared to donate bone marrow or stem cells, I began receiving daily injections of a drug that would increase the number of stem cells my body produced. On February 1, 2009, I headed to Denver for the donation, which only took about six hours. Aside from occasionally achy knees, which were a result of the injections, I felt totally normal after the donation. In fact, when the National Marrow nurse called to check up on me, I remember commenting how anticlimactic the entire donation process was for me.

For the 15 year old boy and his family, I know that time was anything but anticlimactic as they first waited in anticipation of the donation and then waited with trepidation to see whether or not the transplant would be a success. I'm happy to report that at last update, my stem cell recipient was a healthy young man and able to enjoy most activities he had enjoyed prior to his diagnosis.

If you are not already on the National Marrow Donor list, I encourage you to do so. You never know, you might Be the Match that saves someone's life.

TWENTY-THIRD DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, February 12, 2015, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 122 members present.

Rep. Rhoades was excused on legislative business.

Reps. Goico and Hedke were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Present later: Rep. Rhoades.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Eternal God,
Thank You for this day You have given us.
May we never take for granted the gift of life
You give to us each day.
Today as I pray for these leaders,
I ask that You help them to speak truthful, but loving.
Your Word admonishes us to speak the truth in love.
Forgive us when we may have spoken truth in ways to win arguments, hurt feelings or even to impress others.
Forgive us when we exaggerate or distort the truth.
When we speak, help us to attack the issues, not people.
Help our words to be simple, tender, truthful and loving.
I ask that Your grace will be shown through the way each one of us speak.
In Your Son's Name I pray,
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Lane.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Highland are spread upon the Journal:

It is an honor and a pleasure for me to acknowledge a great accomplishment. The Rossville High School Football Team, the Bulldawgs, was crowned State 3A Champions in 2014. The football team had an undefeated season, and it was the school's first state football championship.

With us today we have the coaches: Head Coach: Derick Hammes; Assistant Coach: Dan Schneider; Assistant Coach: Jeremy Stephenson; Assistant Coach: Ian Peters; Assistant Coach: Brad Anderson; Athletic Director: Derek Dick; Superintendent: Kerry Lacock; Principal: Toby McCullough; Special Guest: Senator Laura Kelly.

I call your attention to the football team seated in the Gallery along with the team managers and the cinematographer for the team. Would you all please stand. One point of interest for the team was that Paul Steinke, a foreign exchange student from Hamburg, Germany, joined the team upon his arrival in Rossville, and his soccer skills served him and the team well. He set state records for consecutive extra-point kicks, total extra-points, and the most extra-points in one season.

We are proud of the entire team and of their accomplishments and would like to present you as head coach with a certificate from the House of Representatives to mark the occasion of your championship season.

Rep. Highland also introduced the members of the football team and others seated in the gallery:

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. HCR 5014--
By Committee on Federal and State Affairs

HCR 5014--A PROPOSITION to amend section 24 of article 2 of the constitution of the state of Kansas, relating to appropriations.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Section 24 of article 2 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended to read as follows:

"§ 24. Appropriations. No money shall be drawn from the treasury except in pursuance of a specific appropriation made by law. The executive and judicial branches shall have no authority to direct the legislative branch to make any appropriation of money or to redirect the expenditure of funds appropriated by law, except as the legislative branch may provide by law, or as may be required by the Constitution of the United States. Any existing order directing the legislative branch to make an appropriation of money shall be unenforceable as of the date this provision is adopted."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to clarify that the executive and judicial branches shall not direct the legislative branch to make any appropriation of money, nor to redirect the expenditures of funds appropriated by law, except as the legislative branch may provide by law, or as may be required by the Constitution of the United States. Any existing court order which is inconsistent with this amendment is unenforceable.

"A vote for this proposition would clarify that section 24 of article 2 of the constitution of the state of Kansas provides that neither the executive branch nor the judicial branch can force the legislative branch to appropriate money, except as the legislative branch may provide by law, or as may be required by the Constitution of the United States. The amendment would also prohibit the judicial branch from ordering a change in how money is spent after it has been appropriated by the legislative branch, except as the legislative branch may provide by law, or as may be required by the Constitution of the United States. If money is appropriated for a particular purpose the judicial branch could not stop that money from being spent for that purpose. Finally, the amendment would void any current court order directing the legislative branch to make an appropriation of money.

"A vote against this proposition would provide no change to the constitution of the state of Kansas, and any existing orders that direct the legislative branch to make an appropriation of money shall remain in effect."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at a special election to be held on the first Tuesday following 60 calendar days after the approval of this resolution by both the House of Representatives and the Senate of the Kansas legislature.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS

Having voted on the prevailing side, pursuant to House Rule 2303, Rep. Rubin moved that the House reconsider its adverse action in not adopting the conference committee report on HCR 5002 to agree to disagree and that a new conference committee be appointed (see HJ, page 216).

The motion prevailed.

The question then reverted back to the motion of Rep. Barker to adopt the conference committee report.

On motion of Rep. Barker the conference committee report on HCR 5002 to agree to disagree, was adopted.

Speaker Merrick thereupon appointed Reps. Barker, Kahrs and Trimmer as second conferees on the part of the House.

TWENTY-FOURTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Friday, February 13, 2015, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 115 members present.

Reps. Gonzalez and Winn were excused on legislative business.

Reps. Goico, Hedke, Kelley, Peck, Powell, Rhoades, Sawyer, and Suellentrop were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Loving God,
As we finish up the work for this week,
thank You for all that has been accomplished.
With Valentine's Day coming up,
I am reminded of the great love chapter in the Bible which really was written in the context of helping a body of people know how to get along and work together.
I believe the words are appropriate for even this body.
If they speak with human eloquence and angelic ecstasy but don't love, they are nothing but the creaking of a rusty gate.
If they give everything they own to the poor and even go to the stake to be burned as a martyr, but don't love, they have gotten nowhere.
No matter what they say, what they believe, and what they do, they are bankrupt without love.
Love never gives up.
Love cares more for others than for self.
Love doesn't want what it doesn't have.
Love doesn't strut, doesn't have a swelled head, doesn't force itself on others, isn't always 'me first.'
It doesn't fly off the handle, doesn't keep score of the sins of others, doesn't revel when others grovel.
Love takes pleasure in the flowering of truth, puts up with anything, trusts God always, always looks for the best,

 never looks back, but keeps going to the end.
 Give us all grace to live, act and be accordingly.
 I pray in Your Name, Amen.
 (1 Corinthians 13, The Message)

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Grosserode

TWENTY-FIFTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Monday, February 16, 2015, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Mast in the chair.

The roll was called with 115 members present.

Rep. Rubin was excused on verified illness.

Rep. Francis was excused on legislative business.

Reps. Anthimides, Hedke, Huebert, Kelley, Read, Ruiz, Sawyer and Suellentrop were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Eternal God,
Thank You for this new day and week which is a blessing and gift to us.
On this Presidents' Day, we reflect upon the leadership of our early great forefathers.
Today I pray for these leaders a prayer President George Washington prayed for himself:
"...I beseech thee to accept my humble and hearty thanks, that it hath pleased thy great goodness to keep and preserve me... increase my faith in the sweet promises of the gospel...
give me repentance from dead works;
pardon my wanderings, and direct my thoughts... teach me how to live in thy fear, labor in thy service,
and ever to run in the ways of thy commandments;
make me always watchful over my heart... but daily frame me more and more into the likeness of thy son Jesus Christ."
It is for this same spirit in our leaders that I pray for in Your Name,
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Hibbard.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. HCR 5015—

By Committee on Judiciary

HCR 5015-- A PROPOSITION to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas by revising article 3 thereof, relating to the judiciary.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Article 3 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Article 3.—JUDICIAL

"§ 1. Judicial power; seals; rules. The judicial power of this state shall be vested exclusively in one court of justice, which shall be divided into one supreme court, one court of appeals, district courts, and such other courts as are provided by law; and all courts of record shall have a seal. The supreme court shall have general administrative authority over all courts in this state.

"§ 2. Supreme court. The supreme court shall consist of not less than seven justices who shall be selected as provided by this article. All cases shall be heard with not fewer than four justices sitting and the concurrence of a majority of the justices sitting and of not fewer than four justices shall be necessary for a decision. The term of office of the justices shall be six years except as hereinafter provided. The justice who is senior in continuous term of service shall be chief justice, and in case two or more have continuously served during the same period the senior in age of these shall be chief justice. A justice may decline or resign from the office of chief justice without resigning from the court. Upon such declination or resignation, the justice who is next senior in continuous term of service shall become chief justice. During incapacity of a chief justice, the duties, powers and emoluments of the office shall devolve upon the justice who is next senior in continuous service.

"§ 3. Jurisdiction and terms. The supreme court shall have original jurisdiction in proceedings in quo warranto, mandamus, and habeas corpus; and such appellate jurisdiction as may be provided by law. It shall hold one term each year at the seat of government and such other terms at such places as may be provided by law, and its jurisdiction shall be co-extensive with the state.

"§ 4. Reporter; clerk. There shall be appointed, by the justices of the supreme court, a reporter and clerk of such court, who shall hold their offices for two years, and whose duties shall be prescribed by law.

"§ 5. Selection of justices of the supreme court. (a) (1) Any vacancy occurring in the office of any justice of the supreme court and any position to be open on the supreme court as a result of enlargement of such court, or the retirement or failure of an incumbent to file such justice's declaration of candidacy to be retained in office as hereinafter required, or failure of a justice to be elected to be retained in office, shall be filled by appointment by the governor, with the consent of the senate, of one of three persons possessing the qualifications of office who shall be nominated and whose names shall be submitted to the governor by the supreme court nominating commission established as hereinafter provided.

(b) Whenever a vacancy occurs, will occur or position opens on the supreme court, the clerk of the supreme court shall promptly give notice to the governor.

(c) No person appointed pursuant to subsection (a) shall assume the office of justice of the supreme court until the senate, by an affirmative vote of the majority of all members of the senate then elected or appointed and qualified, consents to such appointment. The senate shall vote to consent to any such appointment not later than 60 days after such appointment is received by the senate. If the senate is not in session and will not be in session within the 60-day time limitation, the senate shall vote to consent to any such appointment not later than 20 days after the senate begins its next session. In the event a majority of the senate does not vote to consent to the appointment, the governor, within 60 days after the senate vote on the previous appointee, shall appoint another person possessing the qualifications of office, whose name has been submitted to the governor by the supreme court nominating commission, and such subsequent appointment shall be considered by the senate in the same procedure as provided in this article. The same appointment and consent procedure shall be followed until a valid appointment has been made. No person who has been previously appointed but did not receive the consent of the senate shall be appointed again for the same vacancy. If the senate fails to vote on an appointment within the time limitation imposed by this subsection, the senate shall be deemed to have given consent to such appointment.

(d) (1) Each justice of the supreme court appointed pursuant to subsection (a) and consented to pursuant to subsection (c) shall hold office for an initial term ending on the second Monday in January following the first general election that occurs after the expiration of 12 months in office.

If a declaration is not filed as provided in this section, the position held by the justice shall be vacant upon the expiration of the justice's term of office. If such declaration is filed, the justice's name shall be submitted at the next general election to the electors of the state on a separate judicial ballot, without party designation, reading substantially as follows: "Shall (Here insert name of justice.), Justice of the Supreme Court, be retained in office?"

(3) If a majority of those voting on the question vote against retaining the justice in office, the position which the justice holds shall be vacant upon the expiration of the justice's term of office. Otherwise, unless the justice is removed for cause, the justice shall remain in office for the regular term of six years from the second Monday in January following the election. At the expiration of each term, unless by law the justice is compelled to retire, the justice shall be eligible for retention in office by election in the manner prescribed in this section.

(4) If a majority of those voting on the question vote against the justice's retention, the secretary of state, following the final canvass of votes on the question, shall certify the results to the clerk of the supreme court. Any such justice who has not been retained in office pursuant to this section shall not be eligible for appointment to the office of justice of the supreme court prior to the expiration of six years after the expiration of the justice's term of office.

(f) The supreme court nominating commission shall be composed as follows: Five members appointed by the governor; and one member from each congressional district chosen from among their number by the resident members of the bar in each such district. (i) An affirmative vote of  $\frac{2}{3}$  of the members of the supreme court nominating commission shall be required to nominate and submit the name of a person to the governor for the office of justice of the supreme court or the office of judge of the court of appeals.

"§ 6. Court of appeals. (a) (1) The court of appeals shall consist of 14 judges whose positions shall be numbered one to 14. The court of appeals shall be a part of the court of justice in which the judicial power of the state is vested by section 1 of this article and shall be subject to the general administrative authority of the supreme court. The court of appeals shall have such jurisdiction over appeals in civil and criminal cases and from administrative bodies and officers of the state as may be prescribed by law, and shall have such original jurisdiction as may be necessary to the complete determination of any cause on review. During the pendency of any appeal, the court of appeals, on such terms as may be just, may make an order suspending further proceedings in the court below, until the decision of the court of appeals.

(2) Any vacancy occurring in the office of any judge of the court of appeals and any position to be open on the court of appeals as a result of enlargement of such court, or the retirement or failure of an incumbent to file such judge's declaration of candidacy to be retained in office as hereinafter required, or failure of a judge to be elected to be retained in office, shall be filled by appointment by the governor, with the consent of the senate, of one of three persons possessing the qualifications of office who shall be nominated and whose names shall be submitted to the governor by the supreme court nominating commission established by section 5 of this article.

(3) In event of the failure of the governor to make the appointment within 60 days from the time the names of the nominees are submitted to the governor, the chief justice of the supreme court shall make the appointment from such nominees, with the consent of the senate.

(b) Whenever a vacancy occurs, will occur or position opens on the court of appeals, the clerk of the supreme court shall promptly give notice to the governor.

(c) No person appointed pursuant to subsection (a) shall assume the office of judge of the court of appeals until the senate, by an affirmative vote of the majority of all members of the senate then elected or appointed and qualified, consents to such appointment. The senate shall vote to consent to any such appointment not later than 60 days after such appointment is received by the senate. If the senate is not in session and will not be in session within the 60-day time limitation, the senate shall vote to consent to any such appointment not later than 20 days after the senate begins its next session. In the event a majority of the senate does not vote to consent to the appointment, the governor, within 60 days after the senate vote on the previous appointee, shall appoint another person possessing the qualifications of office, whose name has been submitted to the governor by the supreme court nominating commission, and such subsequent appointment shall be considered by the senate in the same procedure as provided in this article. The same appointment and consent procedure shall be followed until a valid appointment has been made. No person who has been previously appointed but did not receive the consent of the senate shall be appointed again for the same vacancy. If the senate fails to vote on an appointment within the time limitation imposed by this subsection, the senate shall be deemed to have given consent to such appointment.

(d) (1) Each judge of the court of appeals appointed pursuant to subsection (a) and consented to pursuant to subsection (c) shall hold office for an initial term ending on the second Monday in January following the first general election that occurs after the expiration of 12 months in office.

(2) Not less than 60 days prior to the holding of the general election next preceding the expiration of the term of any judge of the court of appeals, the judge may file in the office of the secretary of state a declaration of candidacy for retention in office. If a declaration is not filed as provided in this section, the position held by the judge shall be vacant upon the expiration of the judge's term of office. If such declaration is filed, the judge's name shall be submitted at the next general election to the electors of the state on a separate judicial ballot, without party designation, reading substantially as follows: "Shall (Here insert name of judge.), Judge of the Court of Appeals, be retained in office?"

(3) If a majority of those voting on the question vote against retaining the judge in office, the position which the judge holds shall be vacant upon the expiration of the judge's term of office. Otherwise, unless the judge is removed for cause, the judge shall remain in office for the regular term of four years from the second Monday in January following the election. At the expiration of each term, unless by law the judge is compelled to retire, the judge shall be eligible for retention in office by election in the manner prescribed in this section.

(4) If a majority of those voting on the question vote against the judge's retention, the secretary of state, following the final canvass of votes on the question, shall certify the results to the clerk of the supreme court. Any such judge who has not been retained in office pursuant to this section shall not be eligible for appointment to the office of judge of the court of appeals prior to the expiration of four years after the expiration of the judge's term of office.

(e) The supreme court may assign a judge of the court of appeals to serve temporarily on the supreme court.

"§ 7. District courts. (a) The state shall be divided into judicial districts as provided by law. Each judicial district shall have at least one district judge. The term of office of each judge of the district court shall be four years. District court shall be held at such times and places as may be provided by law. The district judges shall be elected by the electors of the respective judicial districts unless the electors of a judicial district have adopted and not subsequently rejected a method of nonpartisan selection. The legislature shall provide a method of nonpartisan selection of district judges and for the manner of submission and resubmission thereof to the electors of a judicial district. A nonpartisan method of selection of district judges may be adopted, and once adopted may be rejected, only by a majority of electors of a judicial district voting on the question at an election in which the proposition is submitted. Whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of district judge, it shall be filled by appointment by the governor until the next general election that occurs more than 30 days after such vacancy, or as may be provided by such nonpartisan method of selection.

(b) The district courts shall have such jurisdiction in their respective districts as may be provided by law.

"§ 9. Prohibition of political activity by justices and certain judges. No justice of the supreme court who is appointed under the procedure of section 5 of this article, nor any judge of the court of appeals who is appointed under the procedure of section 6 of this article, nor any judge of the district court holding office under a nonpartisan method authorized in subsection (a) of section 7 of this article, shall directly or indirectly make any contribution to or hold any office in a political party or organization or take part in any political campaign.

"§ 10. Extension of terms until successor qualified. All judicial officers shall hold their offices until their successors shall have qualified.

"§ 11. "§ 12. Removal of justices and judges; retirement. (a) Justices of the supreme court may be removed from office by impeachment and conviction as prescribed in article 2 of this constitution. In addition to removal by impeachment and conviction, justices may be retired after appropriate hearing, upon certification to the governor, by the supreme court that such justice is so incapacitated as to be unable to perform adequately such justice's duties. Other judges shall be subject to retirement for incapacity, and to discipline, suspension and removal for cause by the supreme court after appropriate hearing.

"§ 13. Savings clause. Nothing contained in this amendment to the constitution shall: (a) Shorten the term of office or abolish the office of any justice of the supreme court, any judge of the court of appeals, any judge of the district court, or any other judge of any other court who is holding office at the time this amendment becomes effective, or who is holding office at the time of adoption, rejection, or resubmission of a nonpartisan method of selection of district judges as provided in subsection (a) of section 7 of this article, and all such justices and judges shall hold their respective offices for the terms for which elected or appointed unless sooner removed in the manner provided by law; (b) repeal any statute of this state relating to the supreme court, the supreme court nominating commission, the court of appeals, district courts, or any other court, or relating to the justices or judges of such courts, and such statutes shall remain in force and effect until amended or repealed by the legislature."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to place the law concerning the court of appeals into the constitution, to change the procedure for selecting supreme court justices and court of appeals judges and to change the membership of the nonpartisan supreme court nominating commission. The gubernatorial appointments to the nonpartisan supreme court nominating commission would be increased from four members to five members. The members of the bar would continue to elect four members of the commission. The commission would continue to nominate three persons for appointment by the governor, but a  $\frac{2}{3}$  majority vote would be required to submit any person's name to the governor. The governor would appoint one of such persons to the office of justice of the supreme court or judge of the court of appeals, and such person's appointment would be required to be consented to by the senate. A procedure is established whereby senate consent would occur within 30 days of receiving the appointment. If the senate does not consent by a majority vote, the governor would then select an appointment which would again go to the senate for consent. The same appointment and consent procedure would be followed until a valid appointment is made. If the senate fails to vote on an appointment within 30 days, it will be considered that the senate has consented to the appointment.

"A vote for this proposition would place the law concerning the court of appeals into the constitution and provide a procedure whereby a modified supreme court nominating commission would nominate three qualified persons to the governor for each vacant office of justice of the supreme court or judge of the court of appeals. The governor or chief justice would appoint one of such persons to the office of justice of the supreme court or judge of the court of appeals and the senate, by majority vote, would consent to the appointment.

"A vote against this proposition would leave the law concerning the court of appeals in the Kansas statutes and continue in effect the current procedure whereby the governor appoints judges of the court of appeals, with the consent of the senate. It would also continue in effect the current procedure whereby the supreme court nominating commission nominates three persons for the office of justice of the supreme court and the governor appoints one of such persons, with no senate consent required."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2016 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

"Sec. 2. K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 82a-1605 is hereby amended to read as follows: 82a-1605. (a) The state may participate with a sponsor in the development, construction or renovation of a class II multipurpose small lake project if the sponsor has a general plan which has been submitted to and approved by the chief engineer in the manner provided by K.S.A. 24-1213 and 24-1214, and amendments thereto. If the Kansas water office determines that additional public water supply storage shall be needed in that area of the state within 20 years from the time such project is to be completed and a water user is not available to finance public water supply storage, the state may include future use public water supply storage in the project. The Kansas water office shall apply for a water appropriation right sufficient to insure a dependable yield from public water supply storage. The Kansas water office shall be exempt from all applicable fees imposed pursuant to K.S.A. 82a-701 et seq., and amendments thereto, for such applications. The Kansas water office shall have authority to adopt rules and regulations relative to the inclusion of public water supply storage in proposed projects under this act and the disposition of state-owned water rights and associated public water supply storage space in such projects.

(b) In a class II project, the state may assume initial financial obligations for public water supply storage in watersheds by entering into long-term contracts with the federal government. In order to provide security to the federal government, the state may grant assignments of water rights, either appropriation rights or water reservation rights; assignments of rights under existing or prospective water purchase contracts; assignments, mortgages or other transfers of interests in real property held by the state and devoted to the specific small lake project for which security is sought; or may provide other security that is permissible under state law and acceptable by the federal government. Instead of contracting to repay costs under long-term contracts, the state may pay all of the required costs of the public water supply storage in a lump sum.

(c) The sponsor of such class II project shall be responsible for acquiring land rights and for the costs of operation and maintenance of such project. The state or federal government may provide up to 50% of the engineering and construction costs and up to 50% of the costs of land rights associated with recreation features. Subject to the provisions of subsection (d), the state may pay up to 100% of the engineering and construction costs of flood control and public water supply storage. All other costs of such project, including land, construction, operation and maintenance shall be paid by the sponsor.

(d) The state shall not participate in the costs of public water supply storage in a renovation project unless the Kansas water office determines that renovation is the most cost effective alternative for such storage. The state shall be authorized to pay only up to 50% of the engineering and construction costs of public water supply storage in such a renovation project.

(e) The Kansas water office may recover the state's costs incurred in providing public water supply storage in such class II project, and interest on such costs, by selling such storage and the associated water rights. Interest on such costs shall be computed at a rate per annum ~~which is equal to the greater of: (1) The average rate of interest earned the past calendar year on repurchase agreements of less than 30 days' duration entered into by the pooled money investment board, less 5%; or (2) four percent equal to the average of the monthly net earnings rate for the pooled money investment portfolio for the preceding calendar year.~~

If public water supply storage is included in the project, the sponsor of such class III project shall pay for 100% of the costs associated with the public water supply storage portion of such project unless the Kansas water office determines that additional public water supply storage shall be needed in that area of the state within 20 years from the time such project is to be completed and a sponsor is not available to finance 100% of the costs associated with the public water supply storage, the state may participate in the future use public water supply storage costs of the project. If the state participates in the public water supply storage costs, the Kansas water office shall apply for a water appropriation right sufficient to insure a dependable yield from public water supply storage. The Kansas water office shall be exempt from all applicable fees imposed pursuant to K.S.A. 82a-701 et seq., and amendments thereto, for such applications. The Kansas water office shall have authority to adopt rules and regulations relative to the inclusion of public water supply storage in proposed projects under this act and the disposition of state-owned water rights and associated public water supply storage space in such projects.

The state may provide up to 50% of the engineering and construction costs and up to 50% of the costs of land rights associated with recreation features. TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, February 18, 2015, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Mast in the chair.

The roll was called with 122 members present.

Rep. Proehl was excused on verified illness.

Reps. Goico and Kelley were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Loving God,
On this Ash Wednesday as we reflect of the great love You have for us, we are reminded of what You did for us through Your Son.
He went forty days alone, a wilderness of thoughts, tempting and inviting thoughts, which could so easily have distracted Him from His task and Your mission.
Yet He emerged, stronger and more attuned to all that had to be done.
We too live in stressful times.
Demands are made of our time, that leave so little time for the important things of life.
We are easily distracted in the wilderness of our lives, by every call to go this way or that,
and do all that would keep us from the truth.
We listen to the voices of this world, and ignore the one who endured all this and so much more, yet emerged triumphant, that we might not have to suffer so.
Forgive us, Father, when we get distracted from our task.
Forgive us those times when we try to be all things to all men, and fail to be anything to anyone.
I pray this in Your Son's Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Carmichael.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Kelly are spread upon the Journal:

It is a pleasure to have with me today the members of the Independence High School Girls 4-A State Championship Tennis Team and their coaches. This Independence Girls team won the 5th Girls State Tennis Championship for their school in October.

Independence Girls Tennis has been a prominent program in Kansas since the first girls state tournament was held in 1971. Independence has qualified girls for the last 41 years in a row and has placed in the tournament the last 14 years, including 5 state championships and two runner-up finishes. In addition, Independence has won the SEK league title 10 of the last 11 years and the regional tournament 8 of the last 9 years.

As a team this year, the girls won 79% of their overall matches and three team members ended their high school careers with over 100 career matches won.

I would like to now introduce the team members that are here today, ending with the 6 girls that won the 4-A team state championship and the team coaches.

Team members include: Sagan Shire; Halei Matthews; Qwynn Marquez; Calisse Papan; Katie Capps; Chelsea Cushing; Emily Wilson; Alex Keller; Kaylee Bryant; Amanda Trout; Clare Bindley.

State Tournament Team: Abbi Groff, with 128 career matches won. She was the state singles runner-up as a sophomore and senior and State Champion as a junior. Also, Caringtyn Julian, Anna Miller, Lyssa Schabel, Kalei Matthews (106 career matches won), and Shalie Matthews (107 career matches won).

The coaches, who have been a team for over two decades, are Assistant Coach, Gina McLenon and Head Coach, Ken Brown.

Before our session today I presented a certificate of congratulations to the 2014 Girls 4-A State Championship team, which reads: "Congratulations to the Independence High School Girls Tennis Team for winning the 2014 State Championship."

I also presented a certificate to Head Coach Ken Brown. Ken was a political science professor at Independence Community College for 40 years and also coached tennis at the college for 23 years. He then decided to make the switch to Independence High School tennis where he has been a Rule 10 coach for over 25 years. During these years Ken coached both boys and girls teams, and in his spare time he has served as the Director of the City Recreation youth summer tennis program for the past 31 years. During these years Ken not only developed the tennis skills of thousands of Independence youth, but he has more importantly, helped develop life and citizenship skills these students will appreciate for the rest of their lives.

At the end of the 2014 season Ken Brown retired as the girl's tennis coach, he had retired as boy's coach two seasons prior. Both retirements followed a State Championship season and just this past week Ken was recognized by the National Federation Coaches Association as the 2014 Kansas Girls Tennis Coach of the year, truly a storybook finish to a storied coaching career.

Ken Brown's certificate reads: Commending Ken Brown for enhancing the Tennis and Life Skills of Independence Youth for over 40 years ... the certificate wording ends with the team motto that Ken has held true to for over 40 years: "Expect the Best, Work the Hardest, and Enjoy the Moment".

Congratulations to the Independence Girls 4-A State Championship Tennis Team their assistant coaches and retiring Head Coach Ken Brown.

WHEREAS, On June 6, 1944, Rudolph "Rudy" Camarena was a 20-year-old soldier assigned to the 6th Engineer Special Brigade that stormed Omaha Beach in the third wave as the invasion of Europe commenced. This invasion was part of Operation Overlord during World War II – the largest amphibious invasion to ever take place; and

Mr. Camarena also had two belts over his shoulder, weighing about 70 pounds, along with rations, grenades, a couple of belts of ammunition and a rifle. With all of this weight, he stormed the beaches of Normandy. His brigade remained on the coast for two months, building an airfield, a bridge and other structures to aid the flood of additional troops and equipment. He would advance all the way to Germany by the time the war ended; and

WHEREAS, Rudy Camarena traveled to France with his son and daughter, Bill and Cathy Hadorn, in 2014, to revisit the beach where Mr. Camarena risked his life in service to his country so many years ago. While there, they discovered a monument honoring his division: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That the Kansas House of Representatives honors Rudy Camarena for service to our country. Thank you for protecting us. # Journal of the House

TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, February 19, 2015, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Mast in the chair.

The roll was called with 122 members present.

Rep. Houston was excused on verified illness.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Dr. Paul E. Barkey, pastor, Ashland Community Church, Manhattan, and guest of Rep. Highland:

Dear God, our Heavenly Father, we are thankful that you have given us another day in which to serve You. May we obey Your charge, "Open your mouth for those who cannot speak, for the rights of the unfortunate. Open your mouth, judge righteously and defend the rights of all the afflicted and needy." Give us a voice for those who cannot speak; the unborn, elderly and infirmed.

Lord you have given us authority and called us as your ministers. Help us to focus on our responsibility to protect our children and youth from false teaching, sexual perversion and those who would do them harm.

Christ stated that it would be better for us to have a heavy millstone tied around our neck and be drowned in the depth of the sea rather than to cause one of His little ones to stumble. Lord, we are prone to stumbling ourselves. Illumine the path for our feet that we may follow you and make the path of righteousness clear for those who follow us.

I bring these petitions to you in the name of my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Highland.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Peck are spread upon the Journal:

It is a great pleasure to stand before you today and introduce the Caney Valley High School Girls Golf Team. The athletes standing before you this morning are the 2014 Golf State Champions in class 3A–2A–1A. On October 20, 2014, these young ladies earned the title of “state champions” with a four-person score of 397 – a full 25 strokes ahead of the second place team. The 397 score tied a record for the lowest score at a state tournament in class 3A–2A–1A.

The 2014 championship for the Caney Valley Lady Bullpups – or as we like to say “THE PUPS” – came one year after finishing the 2013 state tournament as runner-up. But in 2014, coach Oyler and our champions would not settle for anything less than a state championship.

Half way through the long Emporia Municipal Golf Course, which on the tournament day had fast greens, the Lady Pups had jumped out to a nine-stroke lead. On the back nine they didn’t let up and increased their lead, for the 25 stoke victory. The state tournament consisted of 12 teams and 89 golfers.

Four of these ladies finished in the top 20. Cortney Gardner finished the tournament with a round of 90, only one stroke out of first place, earning her a second-place, silver metal. Desiree Nelson earned a 10th place finish, after she won a playoff hole with two other golfers, with a round of 99. Ashlyn Hefley finished 14th shooting a 102, while Kelsey Wyant shot a round of 106 for a 19th place tie. The other two golfers, Paige Price and Jayd Bentley finished 25th and 34th respectively, with scores of 110 and 115.

Joining the team today are Coach Wendy Oyler and assistant coach Ron Oyler. Coach Wendy Oyler received a special honor when she was chosen by her peers as the girls high school golf Coach of the Year.

I congratulate the 2014 class 3A–2A–1A Golf State Champion Caney Valley Lady Bullpups on their accomplishment!

Rep. Peck presented the team with a framed House certificate.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Wilson are spread upon the Journal:

In addition to serving in the Legislature, I work for a national non-profit called the Alliance for a Healthier Generation. Our goal is to reduce the prevalence of childhood obesity in America by improving access to healthy eating and physical activity in the places where young people spend their time, including out-of-school time programs.

Today I am pleased to introduce Kansas Regional Afterschool Ambassadors and a selection of their students representing the French Middle School STEAM afterschool program, Robinson Middle School SWIM afterschool program and Boys & Girls Club of Topeka afterschool programs.

Just 20 percent of a typical student day is spent inside the classroom. Before-school, after- school, and summer programs are designed to support working families by offering their children learning opportunities outside of regular school hours. These programs keep Kansas youth safe, engaged, and learning. Children who attend afterschool programs show higher grades, better school attendance, and improved behavior.

Afterschool programs offer a broad array of services designed to reinforce and complement regular academic studies such as:

- hands-on experiments that excite students about science, technology, engineering, and math,
- promotion of health and wellness, and opportunities for physical activity
- drug and violence prevention programs,
- formal and informal mentoring,
- counseling programs, and
- art, music, and technology education programs.

While more than 70,000 students in Kansas participate in afterschool programs, another 132,000 would participate in a program if one were available.

The Kansas Regional Ambassadors are working hard to create and sustain these wonderful out of school opportunities for youth in their communities. I encourage you to reach out to them to learn more.

Now I would like to recognize the following guest on the floor:

Rachel Willis and Marcia Dvorak, of the Kansas Enrichment Network. The Kansas Enrichment Network is a collaboration of agencies and organizations in Kansas helping to build and expand school-based programs to enhance learning opportunities for students, and providing technical assistance to new and established programs.

Jason Geering, Alliance for a Healthier Generation Out-of-School Time Manager for the State of Kansas.

Brandon Hutton, Ambassador to the Boys & Girls Club of Manhattan.

Kathy Vaughn, Director of the Colby Grade School Afterschool Program.

Venita Large and Tehya Bush, students participating in the SWIM program at Robinson Middle School in Topeka.

I would like to thank all the Kansas Regional Ambassadors for their excellent work, and to congratulate all the students on the floor and in the gallery for participating in their local programs.

TWENTY-NINTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Friday, February 20, 2015, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Mast in the chair.

The roll was called with 119 members present.

Rep. Houston was excused on verified illness.

Reps. Dannebohm, Goico, Kelley, Powell and Suellentrop were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Everlasting God,
Thank You for this day and this week and Your faithfulness to each one of us.
In Your Word of wise proverbs we are taught-- the wise watch their steps and avoid evil;
the hotheaded do things they'll later regret;
hard work always pays off;
the wise accumulate wisdom;
the mark of a good leader is loyal followers;
slowness to anger makes for deep understanding;
diligent work gets a warm commendation.
So my prayer for these leaders today is that they will Be of good courage;
hold fast that which is good; render to no one evil for evil;
strengthen the fainthearted; support the weak;
and honor and respect everyone.
I humbly pray this knowing You desire this of each of us.
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Burroughs.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Schwartz are spread upon the Journal:

During the week of February 21st-28th, the Kansas FFA Association is celebrating 87 years of FFA; chartered in 1928. FFA programs are found in both rural and urban areas of Kansas with FFA members residing in 88 of the 105 counties across Kansas.

Over 87 years, agricultural education, the National FFA Organization and the Kansas

FFA Association have grown and developed with the changing times so as to aid members in continuing to be career ready and successful for a lifetime. Programming continues to be adjusted and developed to remain relevant in today's societal needs by expanding agricultural opportunities encompassing science, business and technology, in addition to production farming.

A quote from the FFA Creed, "I believe in the future of agriculture, with faith born not of words but of deeds-achievements won by the present and past generations of agriculturists; in the promise of better days through better ways, even as the better things we now enjoy have come to us from the struggles of former years".

Fifty-seven years ago my husband, Leo Schwartz, was awarded the first FFA Star Farmer of Kansas Degree. 33 years ago our son, Douglas was recognized as the Regional Star Farmer of America.

Today we welcome the state officer team of the Kansas FFA Association – six students who are all attending Kansas State University with diverse majors ranging from Agronomy, Agricultural Communications and Journalism, Agricultural Economics, Chemistry and Biological Systems Engineering.

THIRTY-FIRST DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, February 24, 2015, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 119 members present.

Rep. Pauls was excused on verified illness.

Rep. Seiwert was excused on legislative business.

Reps. Dannebohm, Kelley, Sawyer and Schwartz were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Dr. Peter A. Luckey, senior pastor, Plymouth Congregational Church, Lawrence, and guest of Rep. Wilson:

O Gracious God, Spirit of all that is Holy and good, as sunlight streams into these chambers so may your spirit shine into our hearts.

May your Light settle upon us, leading us, guiding us.

You place us in this space and time, this moment in history, to govern with fairness, mindful of how You have placed into our hands the well being of all the people of this great state of Kansas.

Therefore, Grant us the gift of wisdom, that we may discern what is good and noble and just.

May we be mindful of all the men and women who have come before us, of every race and background. Those who have tilled the soil, who made the arduous journey to the frontier, and the native peoples who have called this home for thousands of years. Remind us that their labor and sacrifice made possible the freedom and prosperity we experience today.

Even so, Dear God, we recognize how far we have yet to travel on the road that leads to dignity and justice for all.

Therefore, Along with a discerning mind, grant us the gift of a compassionate heart.

We pray this morning for each and every member of this governing body. We are mindful of the fact that every legislator, regardless of party affiliation, has family and loved ones that we entrust to your care.

For everyone this morning whose heart is weighed down by worry, whether it be the health of a loved one, or grief in their family, or anxiety about the future, the concern of a child or grandchild, may you grant your abiding peace, your peace which goes beyond all human understanding, to all our hearts.

Finally, grant us to the gift of courage. Give us the fortitude and perseverance and stamina to do what we have been sent here to do.

We pray this, as people of grateful hearts, in the name of the God who is above all gods. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Wilson.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Waymaster are spread upon the Journal:

Throughout our school years, most of us have had teachers that we will never forget, those who will always continue to teach us and have instilled principles that we carry with us today. However occasionally, we are blessed with an educator who was compelled to not only teach us in the classroom, but also to develop our leadership skills and guide us as a devoted advisor in student government. That is why today I want to recognize that educator who was so instrumental in my own personal leadership development, Melinda Cross, and the honor that she recently received.

While at Russell High School, I had the privilege of serving on the Student Council under Mrs. Cross' leadership as a board member and as Vice President my junior year. I also served with her on a state level when I was selected as a supervisor for the Kansas High School Athletics Association's Summer Student Council Leadership Workshop, where Melinda also served as a senior counselor for 20 years now.

Mrs. Cross directed the Student Council for ten years at Russell High School before becoming a foreign language teacher and Student Council Advisor at Hays High School for the last fifteen years. Amber Klaus, the Hays High School's Student Council President says, "Mrs. Cross is a very caring person who takes an interest in our daily concerns. She is passionate about leadership and what her students gain from it."

Martin Straub, principal of Hays High, states, "She is a detailed-oriented person who knows what needs to be done, identifies necessary resources, organizes it and sees the happening through to a successful completion."

Melinda has always exhibited care for her students and sets a pinnacle for leadership. From her own words, "my work with my student council has been a true gift and highlight of my career in education."

It is my pleasure, as a former student, student council leader, and as a close friend, to recognize the 2014-2015 Dr. Earl Reum Kansas Advisor of the Year, Melinda Cross.

Rep. Waymaster presented a framed House certificate to Mrs. Cross.

LETTER OF RESIGNATION

To: The Honorable Kris Kobach, Secretary of State
24 February 2015

Effective February 24, 2015, I, J. Basil Dannebohm, hereby resign my position as Representative of the 113th District of the Kansas House of Representatives.

J. BASIL DANNEBOHM

The House is temporarily organized with 124 members.

The roll was called with 121 members present.

Rep. Pauls was excused on verified illness.

Rep. Seiwert was excused on legislative business.

Rep. Sawyer was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Loving God,
Thank You for the privilege of coming to You today to ask that You be with our leaders as they face the tough decisions that need to be made.
Remind them in the heat of decision-making,
to remain peaceful, optimistic and focused.
Give them an alert awareness to hear what is really being said; confidence and boldness to speak their thoughts and ideas kindly;
and understanding and empathy to hear the other thoughts.
Help them to maintain their integrity and accountability.
All of this isn't easy when emotions are riding high and there are major differences of opinions.
Help them to keep in mind Your word,
"A gentle response defuses anger, but a sharp tongue kindles a temper-fire."
In Your Name I pray,
Amen
(Proverbs 15:1, MSG)

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Patton.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. W. Carpenter are spread upon the Journal:

I am here before you today to recognize a great organization and their 26 years of service to our County. I can remember when this program was started... I was about 6, maybe 7 years old... By developing servant leaders through education and example, Leadership Butler provides people with tools and confidence to make their organizations and Butler County a place where we live well and laugh often.

- Primary focus is community leadership development for adults and youth.
- Leadership Butler Adult program began in 1988.
  - 480 Adult Graduates - 89% still live in Kansas - 78% in the Butler County area.
- Youth Program began in 1993.
  - 400 Youth Graduates - harder to track but 30% live in the Butler County area.
  - The Big Brothers Big Sister program in Butler County was started with the help of this youth program.
- Through the Alumni Association they offer opportunities for education on community issues facing Butler County - like coming to Topeka.
- Offer continuing education in leadership development.
- 3 Youth Leadership Butler students have been awarded large scholarships through WSU - they attribute this to their participation in Youth Leadership Butler – (2 - $45,000) and (1 - $35,000).
- Help participants of both programs to further their education by offering scholarship recommendations - send out over 40 each year.

As usual, in the many times that I have been to the Well, I could talk for hours but I won't today. Thank you Leadership Butler for making a difference in our community!

Father in Heaven,

Glory to your Name. We recognize that we wouldn't have anything unless you gave it to us, thank you! Thank you for these men and women in this house. Protect them and their families. Give them wisdom so when they debate the issues they are able to make the right decisions. Give them courage so they won't compromise, give them faithfulness so they won't say one thing and do another. Give them boldness to fear you and not be intimidated, give them sure footedness so they are able to stand on the truth and not waver. Thank you for all the resources you have given to Kansans. These who have been elected to this responsibility are guardians of those resources. Give them a watchful eye so they will avoid waste and fraud and will appropriate funds to that which honors you and benefits the families of this great State. ## EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: Sub HB 2159 does not change Kansas' penalties for DUI. It is also the case that the prosecution would still be able to look back on the expunged diversion or conviction to enhance the severity level and penalties in the case of a subsequent offense. This bill gives a second chance to the individual who learns from a DUI mistake. I believe that a good job is one of the best deterrents to reoffending. Seven years is too long for the person who has learned from his or her mistake to have to wait to move on with a productive life. I vote YES on Sub HB 2159. — JACK THIMESCH, STEVE HUEBERT, KYLE HOFFMAN, JOE SEIWERT, TROY L. WAYMASTER, GENE SUELLENTROP, JAN PAULS

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

God in Heaven,
Thank You for the brief – but needed – break the past few days.
Hopefully everyone had time to rest up, decompress, chill, and just relax!
As they have returned to now consider the Senate bills,
I pray that when they feel rushed, that You will still them.
When they are frightened, reassure them.
When people start pushing them, will You lead them?
When they are confused, enlighten them.
When they begin to feel the stress, please calm them.
When they get discouraged, encourage them.
And when they begin worrying – well, perhaps they should be worried – bring comfort to them nevertheless.
This I ask in Your Son's Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Houston.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Almighty God,
Thank You for this day and the privileges and responsibilities that it offers to all of us.
Yesterday, over forty bills from the Senate were read in and have been sent to committees for discussion and contest.
Some will require little or no debate while others are anticipated to bring much heated debate.
The committee rooms will no doubt be packed with people advocating on both sides of the vote.
As our leaders seek wisdom and direction there will be many voices clamoring for their attention.
The voices of lobbyists, party members and constituents may come through like a mighty wind, shaking earthquake or burning fire.
But it is the gentle whisper of Your voice and wisdom that I pray they will hear and respond to accordingly.
Lord, I come to you on behalf of Representative Ballard whose sister is very ill and has been placed in hospice.

THIRTY-SEVENTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 118 members present.

Reps. Edmonds, Kelley, Ruiz, Sawyer and Schwab were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by the Rev. Michael John Schmidt, pastor, First Lutheran Church, Plainville, and guest of Rep. Couture-Lovelady:

In the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit! AMEN

Almighty God, from You comes all rule and authority over the nations of the world for the punishment of evildoers and for the praise of those who do well. Graciously regard these your servants of the Kansas House of Representatives, who make, administer, and judge the laws of this state. Grant that all who receive the sword as Your servants may bear it according to Your command. Lead them to protect life from conception to natural death. Guide them to make decisions that will benefit all citizens of this state. And in all matters of deliberation, give them open ears and understanding hearts.

Enlighten and defend these your servants and grant them wisdom and understanding that under their peaceable governance Your people may be guarded and directed in righteousness, quietness, and unity. Protect and prolong their lives that we with them may show forth the praise of Your name.

We also pray that you would grant the citizens of this state wisdom and patience, that we may honor those whom You have set over us as your servants, praying that in all things Your will would be done; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. AMEN.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Finch.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Schwartz are spread upon the Journal:

Today, I would like to recognize two people who have given more than a combined 40 years of their lives to the service of Kansas agriculture and the farmers and ranchers of the state of Kansas – Dee Likes for his 30 years of service as CEO of the Kansas Livestock Association and Steve Baccus for his 12 years of service as President of the Kansas Farm Bureau.

Dee Likes has served the Kansas Livestock Association since 1976 and became CEO in 1984. Key state legislative victories under Dee’s leadership include:

- Adoption of use-value appraisal for calculating property taxes on agricultural land;
- Exemption of farm machinery, replacement parts and labor from sales tax; and
- Removal of farm machinery and livestock from the property tax rolls.

At the national level, Dee played a part in helping create the national $1.00-per-head beef check-off in 1985 and worked behind the scenes during the 1996 merger between the National Cattlemen’s Association and the Beef Industry Council of the National Live Stock and Meat Board. The merger was the beginning of NCBA, an organization that has helped unify the beef industry and move it forward. The state of Kansas has benefited from Dee’s passion, commitment and leadership.

Steve Baccus has been president of Kansas Farm Bureau for 12 years; served on the Kansas Farm Bureau of directors for 17 years; currently serves on the board of directors for the American Farm Bureau board of directors; and is Chairman of the Farm Bureau Mutual company board.

One of his great accomplishments was the work done to achieve a workable and effective crop insurance program for Kansas farmers. The crop insurance program has been key to providing a safety net for family farms, especially in light of the recent droughts that plagued much of the state.

Steve revived a focus on consumer education to offer credible – farmer based – perspectives on where food comes from. (It’s interesting to note that years ago, much younger Steve Baccus was featured on “A Day on A Farm in Kansas” – the original episode was produced on Baccus Farms, featuring Steve talking about what farmers do to educate others about how their food is produced.)

In addition, Steve brought Kansas’ diverse commodity and Ag organizations together to coordinate resources and efforts on consumer promotion and education through the Kansas Farm Food Connection.

Please assist me in thanking these two Kansans for their work in promoting Agriculture in Kansas.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Doll are spread upon the Journal:

Dianna Deniston of Garden City, USD #457, was named the 2015 Janet Sims Teacher of the Year by the Kansas Foundation for Agriculture in the Classroom. She was presented this award at the Bookmark Art and Teacher of the Year Celebration this morning.

Dianna is the Instructional Math coach at Victor Ornelas Elementary School. She won this award for integrating agriculture into the elementary school in an idea that eventually became "Ag Math Harvest Day." She invited local farmers and ag-business owners to come to their school and provide the kids with a "Day on the Farm." There were presentations ranging from farm equipment to animal husbandry and each presentation incorporated math, giving the kids a chance to apply their mathematical knowledge to everyday farm life.

In attendance today with Dianna are members of her family, Challie Metzger, Dylan Metzger, McKenzie Metzger, Drew Metzger and Drake Metzger.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 118 members present.

Reps. Bridges, Lane and Tietze were excused on verified illness.

Rep. Rhoades was excused on legislative business.

Reps. Sawyer and Schwab were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Eternal God,
Thank You for this day.
Help us to make the most of it and not fail to be thankful for such a beautiful Spring day.
As our nation turns their interest to conference tournament games this week,
I am reminded of an athlete's prayer that very well could be prayed for these legislators.
So I pray this prayer to You for them today:
"God, let me play well but fairly.
Help me to learn something that matters once the session is over.
Let opposition make me strong but never hostile.
Always let me help my opponent up.
Never catch me rejoicing in the adversity of others.
If I know victory, allow me to be happy;
if I am denied, keep me from envy.
If through the legislature I set an example, let it be a good one."
In Christ's Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Lusker.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Hill are spread upon the Journal:

Today we once again have the opportunity to recognize Kansas Small Business Development Center's emerging and existing 2015 businesses of the year. These sixteen businesses represent economic vitality and human vibrancy and growth potential in the communities they serve. These businesses have achieved major accomplishments: established growing businesses, demonstrated vision, problem solving and exemplary corporate citizenship. Entrepreneurship is one of the most powerful drivers of growth and prosperity in our Kansas economy. It is the primary source of job creation and economic competitiveness. Challenging economic times have proven to be good times to launch a new business. Last year our Small Business Development Centers helped more than 11,500 small business owners, decision makers, entrepreneurs and aspiring business owners reach their goals through effective one-on-one consulting at no cost to the business as well as low-cost, high-impact training and vital requests for resources and information. It is the priority of KSBDC to reach as many potential entrepreneurs as possible and provide tools and services for Kansans in all parts of the state. We are pleased today to acknowledge the entrepreneurial spirit and energy represented by those we recognize today and thank them for the examples they provide as a source of encouragement and optimism.

I would like to recognize the 2015 SBDC existing businesses of the year – from Garden City, Garden City Propane LLC (Dennis and Risa DeVaney) , from Bird City, GS Gas Inc. ## THIRTY-NINTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 119 members present.

Reps. Burroughs, Goico, Ruiz and Todd were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Dear Lord,

For this beautiful day and the privilege we have to live and enjoy it, we thank You.

It's decision time – both in the basketball arena and here in the House arena.

Like some teams, some bills and resolutions will hit the floor with a thud, others will hit the floor with a good fight.

Some bills will be approved by one or two votes, others will win by a slam dunk.

Some bills will foul out, some won't miss a shot.

Some will have a strong defense, others a strong offense.

What is really important and what will make THE difference, is that those voting on the bill will play fair and with good sportsmanship, and work together for a win/win outcome for all Kansans.

In Your Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Gallagher.

WHEREAS, Garden City Community College, Garden City, Kansas, has been honored as College of the Year for 2014 by the Rural Community College Alliance. Rural Community College Alliance serves as the voice and the national organization for the nation's 600 rural community and technical colleges. At the recognition ceremony for Garden City Community College, which was held on February 11, 2015, in the U.S. Department of Agriculture building in Washington D.C., U.S. Senator Pat Roberts and U.S. Representative Tim Huelskamp presented the award to Dr. Herbert Swender, President of Garden City Community College; and

WHEREAS, Garden City Community College was selected as the rural college of the year due to its excellence in economic and workforce development, student achievement, financial management, entrepreneurship, student services and impact to the community. In addition, the award was given in honor of Garden City Community College's contribution toward the Pell Grant studies for Kansas and rural America. This is the first study conducted that measured the impact of Pell Grants in rural America; and

WHEREAS, Garden City Community College was established in 1919 and is the longest- serving community college in Kansas. It experienced the largest enrollment increase in Kansas for community colleges in 2014 with a 7% increase; and

WHEREAS, Garden City Community College has earned many accolades over the past three years. It was named to Aspen Institute's top 10% of community colleges in America for 2015, ranked among the top 24 community colleges in the nation by CNN Money Magazine, named "Military Friendly" in 2014 by Military Advanced Education for the third year in a row and was ranked 13th by affordablecolleges.com in its list of the 50 most affordable community colleges in America: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: We congratulate and commend Garden City Community College for being named College of the Year for 2014 by the Rural Community College Alliance. Garden City Community College serves as an example and a model to rural colleges across the United States for its excellence in all areas of operation; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to Representative Hineman.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

On emergency motion of Rep. Finney, HR 6016, by Rep. Finney, as follows, was introduced and adopted:

HR 6016—A RESOLUTION designating March 11, 2015, as Kansas Lupus Awareness Day.

WHEREAS, Lupus is an acute and chronic autoimmune disease in which the immune system effectively loses its way and, instead of warding off foreign invaders like viruses and bacteria, the immune system attacks healthy cells, causing inflammation and pain and leading to permanent damage; and

WHEREAS, Lupus can affect any part of the body, including the skin, lungs, heart, kidneys and brain; causing seizures, strokes, heart attacks, miscarriages and organ failure; and

WHEREAS, Lupus has no cure or known cause and despite the current treatment and available medications, many lupus patients have symptoms that cannot be managed well enough for patients to lead normal lives, complete their education and maintain employment; and

WHEREAS, Nine out of 10 people with lupus are women, and 80% of new cases are diagnosed among women between 15 and 44 years of age, with a majority of new cases seen in women in their late teens and early 20s; and

WHEREAS, Despite striking mostly women of childbearing age, no one is safe from lupus. African-Americans, Hispanics, Asians and Native Americans are two to three times more likely to develop lupus – a disparity that remains unexplained; and

WHEREAS, Lupus can be particularly difficult to diagnose because its symptoms are similar to those of many other illnesses, and major gaps exist in understanding the causes and consequences of lupus. Symptoms, such as fatigue, skin rashes, joint pain and hair loss mimic other conditions and appear differently in different people. More than half of all people with lupus take four or more years and visit three or more doctors before obtaining a correct diagnosis since there is no single test to diagnose lupus; and

WHEREAS, A late diagnosis of lupus contributes to significant disability and death. If left untreated, the health consequences of lupus can be devastating and potentially fatal. People with lupus suffer tremendous emotional and physical pain, one in four are permanently disabled and thousands die each year from lupus complications; and

WHEREAS, The awareness of lupus is extremely low, since only one in five Americans is aware of lupus symptoms and health effects. Young women aged 18 to 34 are least aware of lupus, yet they are the group most often affected, and nearly all Americans lack the understanding of the serious and life-threatening complications of lupus; and

WHEREAS, Recent medical advances in the treatment of lupus have been recently announced and signify the potential for an improvement in the standard of treatment for this dreaded disease: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we designate March 11, 2015, as Kansas Lupus Awareness Day and we urge all Kansans to observe this day by educating themselves on the symptoms and impact of lupus, and join the Lupus Foundation of America in supporting programs of research, education and community service; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to Representative Finney.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Finney are spread upon the Journal:

Thank you Mr. Chairman for the this opportunity to introduce this resolution to acknowledge and celebrate "Kansas Lupus Awareness Day" in the House of Representatives. As indicated in the resolution read by our clerk, lupus is an acute and chronic autoimmune disease that has no known cure despite the current treatments available and it can possibly cause death.

For those of you who that know me, know that I have passionately advocated awareness for Lupus for several years now, particularly because I am a Lupus patient and because I believe it is important to educate the public about the potential symptoms and possibly help someone that may experience the devastation that Lupus may cause a patient, family member, or a friend. And I am sure, each of you have probably received several packets of different flavors of Tic-Tac candy from the Lupus Foundation of America (LFA) - Kansas Chapter. The LFA will also be providing once again, their delicious dessert bar on the second floor in the north rotunda.

Today, I have with me the President of the chapter Mr. Earl Mundy and Ms. Cecilia Meitzner the Advocacy Chair of the Kansas Chapter. Also, in the balcony we have several Lupus supporters joining us wearing their beautiful purple t-shirts honoring this special day. Please join my in recognizing their efforts to to promote and advocate for Lupus Awareness in Kansas.

FORTIETH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, March 12, 2015, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 121 members present.

Reps. Goico, Kelley and Todd were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Present later: Rep. Kelley.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Heavenly Father,
This is the day You have created,
help us to rejoice and be glad in it.
God, several people have told me I really need to pray hard today –
so I pray You are listening hard as well.
Your Word tells us that you number our hairs and determine our days;
You hang the stars and feed the sparrows;
You open doors no one can shut.
Surely, we can trust you as the time has come for making big and difficult decisions.
Help us to trust You for generous wisdom, straight paths and peaceful hearts.
We will plan, but we trust You to order our steps.
We will seek counsel, but count on You to overrule misguided or incomplete input.
Free us from the paralysis of analysis—wanting to make the right decision more than we want to be righteous people.
All this I pray in Christ's Name,
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Hemsley.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Swanson are spread upon the Journal:

Six schools in Kansas are among 337 schools nationwide named as 2014 National Blue Ribbon Schools. This award, one of the most prestigious education awards in the country, distinguishes and honors both public and private elementary, middle and high schools for helping students achieve at high levels and for showing significant improvement in levels of achievement.

“The Blue Ribbon program recognizes schools in one of two performance categories: Exemplary High Performing and Exemplary Achievement Gap Closing.” Four schools were recognized as Exemplary High Performing Schools: Oatville Elementary School USD 261 in Haysville, St. Patrick Catholic School in Wichita, Valley Falls Elementary School USD 338 in Valley Falls and West Bourbon Elementary School USD 235 in Uniontown. Two schools were recognized for Exemplary Achievement Gap Closing: Ogden Elementary School USD 383 from Manhattan-Ogden and Marais Des Cygnes Valley Elementary USD 456 in Marais Des Cygnes Valley.

Today we have with us Jim Armendariz, Principal of the Ogden Elementary Panthers and teachers Eric Farwell and Megan Morgan. Every day Ogden parents send their best children to his school. Ogden Elementary School may be the most unique school in the state. Nearly half of the students have parents serving in the military at Fort Riley, and three out of four students are eligible for free or reduced-priced meals. Turnover of students may reach as high as nearly 60 percent per year.

When Mr. Armaendariz came to Ogden Elementary School in 2002, students were at a 69% proficiency level in Math and Reading. Last year Ogden elementary students achieved 96% proficiency in Math and 97% in Reading.

Ogden Elementary delivers the best education with dynamic educators, committed students and community stakeholders. Its professional teams strive to stay abreast of cutting-edge educational research to support relationship-driven results of student growth and achievement. As a hub to the entire community of mostly Ft. Riley military personnel, family and community engagement strategies deliver a team approach as a true learning community. The school focus is positive human relationships among and between all stakeholders and students. All teachers prepare students, not for the next grade, but for long-term life skills. Thus, Ogden’s mission to balance academic, character, personal, and social skills ensures future success for each learner with relationships, rigor, relevance, results, and a responsive culture. Positive relationships are built through engaging instruction, presented through the integration of technology. Students become self-guided learners eager to share their learning and expertise with the world. Teachers collaborate to improve high-level thinking skills, embedded and sharpened through student created, STEM-integrated, project-based learning presentations and content skills like computer coding. HR 6018— A RESOLUTION commemorating the 90th Anniversary of the Junior League of Wichita.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Bridges are spread upon the Journal:

This morning it is my pleasure to recognize the Junior League of Wichita on its 90th anniversary.

Junior League of Wichita began in 1925 with 31 members and today has over 800 new, active and sustaining members. The League has stayed contemporary, evolving from a select group of young matrons to an inclusive group of women who want to improve their leadership skills while providing countless volunteer hours to the community.

Among Junior League's contributions to Wichita are: a marionette show, started in 1937 which became the Wichita Children's Theatre, established two Ronald McDonald houses in Wichita, with Wichita continuing to be one of a handful of cities with two houses, started the Wichita Susan G. Komen Race for the Cancer Cure in Wichita, and in honor of the League's 75th anniversary donated $1.5 million to the Sedgwick County Zoo to build the "Pride of the Plains" exhibit which houses lions, meerkats and warthogs.

In 2011, the League voted to become issue-focused and chose Child Abuse Prevention as its goal. The League presents a puppet show in area schools to third and fourth graders to teach them about physical and sexual abuse. To date, over 3400 students have seen this entertaining and informative puppet show.

Junior League of Wichita finances these projects through a four day shopping extravaganza held in October each year. Since its inception 12 years ago, the League has raised over $1 million dollars from Holiday Galleria.

I would like to introduce three members who stand here today. Incoming President Martha Linsner, President-elect Patty Armstrong and my favorite Junior League member, my daughter Julie Buth.

With that, Mr. Speaker, I congratulate Junior League of Wichita on 90 years of community service and move my resolution.

FORTY-FIRST DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Friday, March 13, 2015, 8:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Mast in the chair.

The roll was called with 120 members present.

Reps. Ballard, Bridges, Peck and Todd were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Present later: Rep. Todd.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Lord God,
Thank You for this day You have given us.
The last couple of days have been rough.
Many discussions, debates, arguments and agreements have occurred.
Some of our legislators may feel tired, discouraged, weary, frustrated, and maybe even mad.
I ask that You be especially near to each one today.
There is a big final vote today, Lord.
Your word says—
“If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given him.”
I ask today that You give each and everyone YOUR wisdom.
There is another passage that most may be familiar with that says—“Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding;
in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight.”
The Message version of this Scripture words it a bit differently – perhaps more appropriately for us.
“Trust GOD from the bottom of your heart;
don’t try to figure out everything on your own.
Listen for GOD’s voice in everything you do, everywhere you go;
he’s the one who will keep you on track.
Don’t assume that you know it all.”
It is this wisdom for which I pray in Christ’s Name,
Amen.
(James 1:5; Proverbs 3:5-6)

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Whipple.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: This legislation backtracks any progress made last year in addressing the Supreme Court's ruling that school funding be made more equitable. In the long run, this will result in dramatically higher property taxes and major wealth disparities between districts. That is unfair to Kansas schools and bad for the Kansas economy.

Most Kansas districts will be forced to absorb millions in cuts under this proposal, in addition to the millions they have already been forced to endure in recent years. We are cutting funding to our public schools at a time when we should be investing in our children and their futures. It is for these reasons that I am voting no on H Sub for SB 7.

— GAIL FINNEY, VALDENIA WINN, ANNIE TIETZE

MR. SPEAKER: The constitution that I swore to uphold charges our schools with continuous improvement and our legislature with providing suitable provision for the finance of public education. This bill allows for neither. It provides certainty for the legislature by locking down the budget and ignoring the changing needs of our students. However, our public schools face a very uncertain future. I heard from hundreds of my constituents this week - the taxpayers who pay for our schools - and their message is clear: vote no on this bill, fix our revenue problem and adequately fund our schools. I vote NO on H Sub for SB 7. — MELISSA ROOKER, BARBARA BOLLIER, DIANA DIERKS

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on H Sub for SB 7. I have discovered that this bill, on page 52, line 40, obligates the state to pay school districts for virtual students who are not Kansas residents. That troubling fact should have been made clear to the body. What other surprises lurk in the 100 pages of this bill? Let's not pass it to learn what is in it. A bill which directs the expenditure of half of the state general fund merits extensive and careful deliberation. This is much too fast. I vote no on H Sub for SB 7. – DON HINEMAN, RUSS JENNINGS

MR. SPEAKER: I strongly support the re-working of the school finance formula. But I cannot put my name on this bill. The process to create the bill was much too hasty. K-12 is around half of the state's general fund. The Kansas Legislature has one function, and that is to be good, solid, responsible stewards of the taxpayers' money. When handling The People's funds, the legislature should be calm, measured, and should engage all voices in the process. That did not happen with this bill. We can do better than this. I vote no on H Sub for SB 7. – STEPHANIE CLAYTON

MR. SPEAKER: It has taken three years for us to fully comprehend how ill-advised the tax bill of 2012 is. It will take far less time for the Block Grant legislation to be recognized as equally, if not more, irresponsible. K-12 funding will be cut, those districts which have contingency reserve funds will spend them down, property taxes will go up, the rich will get richer and the poor will get poorer. Equitable funding will be a casualty and suitable provision for education funding will be in peril. We will be a greater risk of losing in court. I vote no on H Sub for SB 7. – DON HILL, LINDA GALLAGHER

MR. SPEAKER: I am pleased to support a bill that increases funding for schools and provides the opportunity to create a new school finance formula that is fair, equitable, flexible, and restores local control to the school boards and administrators. We should begin the process immediately. It is unacceptable that we have a finance formula that creates tension between rural and urban, and rich and poor districts. I vote yes on H Sub for SB 7. – MARVIN KLEEB

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on H Sub for SB 7 because, just as the tax bill three years ago benefited the wealthiest Kansans, this bill benefits the wealthiest school districts, at the expense of districts like my own. For this and many other reasons, I vote no on H Sub for SB 7. – JOHN CARMICHAEL

MR. SPEAKER: I voted "NO" on H Sub for SB 7 because I feel it, along with the income tax bill of 2012, will deny schools any opportunity to advance in the education process. The almighty dollar appears to be more important than quality education.

The winners on the vote are the ultra-conservative think tanks and the people they manipulate. The losers are the boys and girls of Kansas. – LARRY HIBBARD

MR. SPEAKER: It is with great certainty that I vote against this bill, H Sub for SB 7, which exacerbates inequalities amongst districts and inadequately funds our public education system. This legislation creates inequalities in schools across the state by pitting poor districts against wealthy districts and urban districts against rural districts. It also caps funding and forces public schools to absorb more cuts at a time when we should be investing more funding in education.

It is time for the Legislature to make fair and adequate funding a priority. The future of Kansas deserves better. – HAROLD LANE, KATHY WOLFE MOORE, PONKA-WE VICTORS, PAM CURTIS, STAN FROWNELTER, BRODERICK HENDERSON, RODERICK HOUSTON, JOHN ALCALA, SYDNEY CARLIN, TOM BURROUGHS, BRANDON WHIPPLE, ED TRIMMER, LOUIS E. RUIZ.

MR. SPEAKER: Fairness should be the center piece of any legislation. H Sub for SB 7 doesn't fix anything but rather compounds the inequity. In fact by its nature H Sub for SB 7 creates immediate inequity, an immediate judicial void, adds to our budget shortfall and creates immediate uncertainty for those school districts which have fluctuating enrollment.

We are only in this uncomfortable position when our leaders pick a position which is at odds with our constituents. And now, once again, just like when the bankrupting 2012 tax bill was shoved upon this body, they are saying "Trust Me." Vote no and be with your constituents. – TOM MOXLEY

MR. SPEAKER: I'm voting against H Sub for SB 7 because it ignores the needs of our local school districts and Kansas students. It inadequately funds public education, and as a result inflicts untold damage to an entire generation of Kansans. Our schools are already underfunded, and this bill only exacerbates the problem.

This bill freezes funding to public schools and forces schools to make cuts to cover the cost. Schools are still operating at recession-era levels of funding. Parents and educators who have been begging the Legislature to restore school funding for the last four years will be forced to wait to get any more dollars into the classroom. – JOHN WILSON, NANCY LUSK

MR. SPEAKER: The school finance formula in Kansas is broken and dysfunctional. It has not served the needs of our students, schools, or taxpayers for many years. H Sub for SB 7 paves the way for the construction of a new, modern school finance formula. It restores local control and certainty to education and will empower communities to do what is best for their schools. That's why I vote yes on H Sub for SB 7. – WILLIE DOVE, STEVEN ANTHIMIDES, KEITH ESAU, KRISTEY WILLIAMS, WILL CARPENTER, KEVIN JONES, TONY BARTON, LES MASON, JOHN WHITMER, MARC RHOADES, MARK KAHS, JOSEPH SCAPA

MR. SPEAKER: Rural schools that are the lifeblood of their community have been treated unfairly by the current school finance formula. The old formula classifies rural schools as wealthy while categorizing bigger schools with more population as impoverished. This bill gives rural schools the authority and the flexibility to meet the unique needs of areas with declining populations and gives local school boards certainty in their budgets. It provides a bridge to a new funding formula that will help equip rural schools with the tools they need to help students succeed. That's why I vote YES on H Sub for SB 7. – KYLE HOFFMAN, RON RYCKMAN, JOE SEIWERT, SHARON SCHWARTZ, SUE BOLDRÁ, CHARLES SMITH, TRAVIS COUTURE-LOVELADY, JACK THIMESCH, BUD ESTES, JOHN BARKER, RANDY GARBER

MR. SPEAKER: The current school finance formula propagates unintended consequences harmful to our students: over 10 years of lawsuits, a choice costing millions that could have been better spent in the classroom; historically higher levels of K-12 spending every year without better student outcomes; soaring administrative costs while teachers and pupils do without; and hundreds of millions of appropriated taxpayers' dollars remaining unspent in segregated "silos." So the formula must go.

Our priority is and should always be our children and the classrooms where they learn, and more local control for their schools. This bill accomplishes that. I enthusiastically vote "Aye" on H Sub for SB 7. — JOHN RUBIN

MR. SPEAKER: Change is required to end years-long litigation over a much-debated formula that can be manipulated and is not equally applied. Being mired in the destructive diversion of litigation and thus focused on quantity over quality takes energy, creativity and devotion away from educational opportunity and thwarts an innovative fast-adapting system designed for ALL students.

Around 40,000 students are relegated to the lowest-performing schools in our state. The formula and system have failed them. Through maximum fiscal freedom and increased local oversight, we step toward greater innovation and equality in education for all students. I vote yes on H Sub for SB 7. n-- KASHA KELLEY

MR. SPEAKER: The children are the real winners today. I vote yes on H Sub for SB 7. -- RAY MERRICK

FORTY-SECOND DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Monday, March 16, 2015, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 118 members present.

Rep. Sawyer was excused on verified illness.

Rep. Victors was excused on legislative business.

Reps. Ballard, Swanson and Todd were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Rep. Kelley was absent.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Everett Schultz, First Mennonite Church, Pretty Prairie, and guest of Rep. Seiwert:

Our Father in Heaven,

We come before Thee this morning praising You and thanking you for Your many blessings. We have so much in our land, and we acknowledge that it is from Your Hand. I thank you Father that this great Hall still opens its sessions in prayer. You are the creator of this land, and we are privileged to live in it because of Your grace and mercy upon us. So I thank you that prayer is still observed in this Hall.

Dear Father, please give the people in this room wisdom and guidance. Rule and overrule in their decisions. May Your will be done. Help them to realize that they are dealing with all Kansans' futures. Both those who are older, and those who are just getting started. Help them to realize that we must take care of the economy and not leave a debt so large that we cannot repay it. Help them to be able to deal with the issues and stand up to aggressive constituents, special interest groups, the news media, and their own ambitions, and help them to do the right things for all Kansans. Father, Your word says that "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." Your word also states that "if any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that gives to all men liberally and without reproach; and it will be given him." Therefore, Father, I ask that you will give wisdom and understanding. I pray that these people will be able to make decisions that meet the needs of this great state not only for us today, but also for our children and grand-children.

Father, I realize there are many different viewpoints in this room. But there is only one state of Kansas. Help them to see their way to unifying with each other, regardless of political party or area of the state, so that the good of the entire state is done, and not their own desires and purposes. Work in each one's heart here today Father. I ask that you cause them to do Your will, and not their own, and make all the decisions the correct decisions for Your glory and for the betterment of the state of Kansas.

“Now the God of peace, who brought up from the dead the great Shepherd of the sheep through the blood of the eternal covenant, even Jesus our Lord,<sup>21</sup> equip you in every thing to do His will, working in us that which is pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.”

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Seiwert.

Such report shall be made available to the public and transmitted by the board to the members of the Kansas legislature.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (d)(4), a seller's or landlord's agent is not required to disclose to a client or customer information relating to the physical condition of the property if a written report regarding the physical condition of the property has been prepared by a qualified third party and provided to the client or customer.

FORTY-FOURTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, March 18, 2015, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 121 members present.

Rep. Victors was excused on legislative business.

Reps. W. Carpenter and Kelley were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Our Heavenly Father,
We begin today's session pausing to thank You for the gift of life and this day.
As our leaders continue their work on the various bills,
I pray that as leaders they will bring people together – not cause more division; dare to take risks – not settle for the path of least resistance.
May they encourage questions – not resent them.
May they keep an open mind – not be reticent in their thinking.
Help them to lead by example and motivate with respect.
Help them harness their zeal to make a difference so as not to be antagonistic.
Help them to value everyone's input as much as they value their own.
And God, I ask that they seek first Your wisdom,
Your will and Your truth—
For as Your Word tells us,
“...the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.”
This I pray in Christ's Name,
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Carlin.

(h) The chief engineer shall adopt rules and regulations to effectuate and administer the provisions of this section.

Sec. 3. K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 82a-736 is hereby amended to read as follows: 82a-736.

(a) It is hereby recognized that an opportunity exists to improve water management by enabling multi-year flexibility in the use of water authorized to be diverted under a groundwater water right, provided, that such flexibility neither impairs existing water rights, nor increases the total amount of water diverted, so that such flexibility has no long-term negative effect on the source of supply. It is therefore declared necessary and advisable to permit the establishment of multi-year flex accounts for groundwater water rights, together with commensurate protections for existing water rights and their source of supply.

(b) As used in this section:

(1) "Base water right" means a water right under which an applicant applies to the chief engineer to establish a multi-year flex account and where all of the following conditions exist:

(A) The authorized source of supply is groundwater; and

(B) the water right has not been the subject of a change approval to implement the provisions of K.A.R. 5-5-9(a)(2), K.A.R. 5-5-11(b)(2) or K.A.R. 5-5-11(b)(3), in effect upon the effective date of this act.

(2) "Multi-year flex account" means a term permit which suspends a base water right during its term, except when the term permit may be no longer exercised because of an order of the chief engineer, and is subject to the terms and conditions as provided in subsection (e).

(3) "Base average usage" means: (A) The average amount of water actually diverted for a beneficial use under the base water right during calendar years 2000 through 2009, excluding any amount diverted in any such year that exceeded the maximum annual quantity of water authorized by the base water right; or (B) if the holder of the base water right shows to the satisfaction of the chief engineer that water conservation reduced water use under the base water right during calendar years 2000 through 2009, then the average amount of water actually diverted for a beneficial use under the base water right during the five calendar years immediately before the calendar year when water conservation began, excluding any amount used in any such year that exceeded the amount authorized by the base water right.

(4) "Chief engineer" means the chief engineer of the division of water resources of the department of agriculture.

(5) "Flex account acreage" means the maximum number of acres lawfully irrigated during a calendar year when no term, condition or limitation of the base water right has been violated and either of the following conditions is met:

(A) The calendar year is 2000 through 2009; or

(B) if water conservation reduced water use under the base water right during calendar years 2000 through 2009, the calendar year is a year within the five calendar years immediately prior to the calendar year when water conservation began.

(6) "Net irrigation requirement" means the net irrigation requirement for 50% chance rainfall of the county that corresponds with the location of the authorized place of use of the base water right as provided in K.A.R. 5-5-12, on the effective date of this act.

(c) (1) Any holder of a base water right that has not been deposited or placed in a safe deposit account in a chartered water bank may establish a multi-year flex account where the holder may deposit, in advance, the authorized quantity of water from such water right for any five consecutive calendar years, subject to all of the following:

(A) The water right must be vested or shall have been issued a certificate of appropriation;

(B) the withdrawal of water pursuant to the water right shall be properly and adequately metered;

(C) the water right is not deemed abandoned and is in compliance with the terms and conditions of its certificate of appropriation, all applicable provisions of law and orders of the chief engineer;

(D) the amount of water deposited in the multi-year flex account shall not exceed the greatest of the following:

(i) 500% of the base average usage;

(ii) 500% of the product of the annual net irrigation requirement multiplied by the flex account acreage, multiplied by 110%, but not greater than five times the maximum annual quantity authorized by the base water right; ~~or~~

(iii) if the authorized place of use is located wholly within the boundaries of a groundwater management district, an amount that shall not increase the long-term average use of the groundwater right as specified by rule or regulation promulgated pursuant to ~~subsection (e) of~~ K.S.A. 82a-1028(o), and amendments thereto; ~~and or~~

(iv) pursuant to subparagraph (E), the amount computed in (i), (ii) or (iii) plus any deposited water remaining in a multi-year flex account up to 100% of the base average usage;

(E) any deposited water remaining in a multi-year flex account up to 100% of the base average usage may be added to the deposit amount calculated in subparagraph (D) if the base water right is enrolled in another multi-year flex account during the calendar year in which the existing multi-year flex account expires. The total amount of water deposited in any multi-year flex account shall not exceed 500% of the authorized quantity of the base water right; and

(F) notwithstanding any other provisions of this subsection, except when the base water right is suspended due to the issuance of a two-year term permit in a designated drought emergency area for 2011 and 2012, the quantity of water deposited into a multi-year flex account shall be reduced by the quantity of water used in excess of the maximum annual quantity of the base water right during 2011 if the application for a multi-year flex account is filed with the chief engineer on or before July 15, 2012.

(2) The provisions of K.A.R. 5-5-11 are limited to changes in annual authorized quantity and shall not apply to this subsection.

(d) The chief engineer shall implement a program providing for the issuance of term permits to holders of groundwater water rights who have established flex accounts in accordance with this section. Such term permits shall authorize the use of water in a flex account at any time during the five consecutive calendar years for which the application for the term permit authorizing a multi-year flex account is made, without annual limits on such use.

(e) Term permits provided for by this section shall be subject to the following:

(1) A separate term permit shall be required for each point of diversion authorized by the base water right.

(2) The quantity of water authorized for diversion shall be limited to the amount deposited pursuant to subsection (c)(1)(D).

(3) The rate of diversion for each point of diversion authorized under the term permit shall not exceed the rate of diversion for each point of diversion authorized under the base water right.

(4) The authorized place of use shall be the place of use or a subdivision of the place of use for the base water right.

(5) The point of diversion authorized by the term permit shall be specified by referencing one point of diversion authorized by the base water right at the time the multi-year flex account term permit application is filed with the chief engineer or at the time any approvals changing such referenced point of diversion of the base water right are approved during the multi-year flex account period. For a base water right with multiple points of diversion, each point of diversion authorized by a term permit shall receive a specific assignment of a maximum authorized quantity of water, assigned proportionately to the authorized annual quantities of the respective points of diversion under the base water right.

(6) The chief engineer may establish, by rules and regulations, criteria for such term permits.

(7) Except as explicitly provided for by this section, such term permits shall be subject to all provisions of the Kansas water appropriation act, and rules and regulations adopted under such act, and nothing in this section shall authorize impairment of any vested right or prior appropriation right by the exercise of such term permit.

(f) An application for a multi-year flex account shall be filed with the chief engineer on or before October 1 of the first year of the multi-year flex account term for which the application is being made.

(g) All costs of administration of this section shall be paid from fees for term permits provided for by this section. Any appropriation or transfer from any fund other than the water appropriation certification fund for the purpose of paying such costs shall be repaid to the fund from which such appropriation or transfer is made. At the time of repayment, the secretary of agriculture shall certify to the director of accounts and reports the amount to be repaid and the fund to be repaid. Upon receipt of such certification, the director of accounts and reports shall promptly transfer the amount certified to the specified fund.

(h) The fee for a multi-year flex account term permit shall be the same as specified for other term permits in K.S.A. 82a-708c, and amendments thereto, except as follows:

(1) If the base water right is currently suspended due to the issuance of a two-year term permit in a designated drought emergency area for 2011 and 2012, then a holder of such term permit shall be subject to a $200 application fee for a multi-year flex account term permit if the application is filed on or before July 15, 2012; or

(2) if water use under the authority of the base water right exceeded the maximum annual quantity authorized by the base water right during 2011 and the holder of the base water right files an application for approval of a multi-year flex account term permit on or before July 15, 2012, then the application fee shall be $600.

(i) The chief engineer shall have full authority pursuant to K.S.A. 82a-706c, and amendments thereto, to require any additional measuring devices and any additional reporting of water use for term permits issued pursuant to this section. Failure to comply with any measuring or reporting requirement may result in a penalty, up to and including the revocation of the term permit and the suspension of the base water right for the duration of the term permit period.

(j) The chief engineer shall submit a written report on the implementation of this section to the house standing committee on agriculture and natural resources and the senate standing committee on natural resources on or before February 1 of each year.

(k) This section shall be part of and supplemental to the Kansas water appropriation act.

Sec. 4. K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 82a-1041 is hereby amended to read as follows: 82a-1041. (a) Whenever a groundwater management district recommends the approval of a local enhanced management plan within the district to address any of the conditions set forth in ~~subsections (a) through (d)~~ of K.S.A. 82a-1036 (a) through (d), and amendments thereto, the chief engineer shall review the local enhanced management plan submitted by the groundwater management district. The chief engineer's review shall be limited to whether the plan:

- (1) Proposes clear geographic boundaries;
- (2) pertains to an area wholly within the groundwater management district;
- (3) proposes goals and corrective control provisions as provided in subsection (f) adequate to meet the stated goals;
- (4) gives due consideration to water users who already have implemented reductions in water use resulting in voluntary conservation measures;
- (5) includes a compliance monitoring and enforcement element; and
- ~~(5)~~(6) is consistent with state law.

If, based on such review, the chief engineer finds that the local enhanced management plan is acceptable for consideration, the chief engineer shall initiate, as soon as practicable thereafter, proceedings to designate a local enhanced management area.

(b) In any case where proceedings to designate a local enhanced management area are initiated, the chief engineer shall conduct an initial public hearing on the question of designating such an area as a local enhanced management area according to the local enhanced management plan. The initial public hearing shall resolve the following findings of fact:

(1) Whether one or more of the circumstances specified in ~~subsection (a) through (d)~~ of K.S.A. 82a-1036 (a) through (d), and amendments thereto, exist;

(2) whether the public interest of K.S.A. 82a-1020, and amendments thereto, requires that one or more corrective control provisions be adopted; and

(3) whether the geographic boundaries are reasonable.

The chief engineer shall conduct a subsequent hearing or hearings only if the initial public hearing is favorable on all three issues of fact and the expansion of geographic boundaries is not recommended. At least 30 days prior to the date set for any hearing, written notice of such hearing shall be given to every person holding a water right of record within the area in question and by one publication in any newspaper of general circulation within the area in question. The notice shall state the question and shall denote the time and place of the hearing. At every such hearing, documentary and oral evidence shall be taken and a complete record of the same shall be kept.

(c) The subject matter of the hearing or hearings set forth in subsection (b) shall be limited to the local enhanced management plan that the chief engineer previously reviewed pursuant to subsection (a) and set for hearing.

(d) Within 120 days of the conclusion of the final public hearing set forth in subsections (b) and (c), the chief engineer shall issue an order of decision:

(1) Accepting the local enhanced management plan as sufficient to address any of the conditions set forth in ~~subsections (a) through (d)~~ of K.S.A. 82a-1036 (a) through (d), and amendments thereto;

(2) rejecting the local enhanced management plan as insufficient to address any of the conditions set forth in ~~subsections (a) through (d)~~ of K.S.A. 82a-1036 (a) through (d), and amendments thereto;

(3) returning the local enhanced management plan to the groundwater management district, giving reasons for the return and providing the district with the opportunity to resubmit a revised plan for public hearing within 90 days of the return of the deficient plan; or

(4) returning the local enhanced management plan to the groundwater management district and proposing modifications to the plan, based on testimony at the hearing or hearings, that will improve the administration of the plan, but will not impose reductions in groundwater withdrawals that exceed those contained in the plan. If the groundwater management district approves of the modifications proposed by the chief engineer, the district shall notify the chief engineer within 90 days of receipt of return of the plan. Upon receipt of the groundwater management district's approval of the modifications, the chief engineer shall accept the modified local management plan. If the groundwater management district does not approve of the modifications proposed by the chief engineer, the local management plan shall not be accepted.

(e) In any case where the chief engineer issues an order of decision accepting the local enhanced management plan pursuant to subsection (d), the chief engineer, within a reasonable time, shall issue an order of designation that designates the area in question

(f) The order of designation shall define the boundaries of the local enhanced management area and shall indicate the circumstances upon which the findings of the chief engineer are made. The order of designation may include any of the following corrective control provisions set forth in the local enhanced management plan:

(1) Closing the local enhanced management area to any further appropriation of groundwater. In which event, the chief engineer shall thereafter refuse to accept any application for a permit to appropriate groundwater located within such area;

(2) determining the permissible total withdrawal of groundwater in the local enhanced management area each day, month or year, and, insofar as may be reasonably done, the chief engineer shall apportion such permissible total withdrawal among the valid groundwater right holders in such area in accordance with the relative dates of priority of such rights;

(3) reducing the permissible withdrawal of groundwater by any one or more appropriators thereof, or by wells in the local enhanced management area;

(4) requiring and specifying a system of rotation of groundwater use in the local enhanced management area; or

(5) any other provisions making such additional requirements as are necessary to protect the public interest.

The chief engineer is hereby authorized to delegate the enforcement of any corrective control provisions ordered for a local enhanced management area to the groundwater management district in which that area is located, upon written request by the district.

(g) The order of designation shall follow, insofar as may be reasonably done, the geographical boundaries recommended by the local enhanced management plan.

(h) Except as provided in subsection (f), the order of designation of a local enhanced management area shall be in full force and effect from the date of its entry in the records of the chief engineer's office unless and until its operation shall be stayed by an appeal from an order entered on review of the chief engineer's order pursuant to K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 82a-1901, and amendments thereto, and in accordance with the provisions of the Kansas judicial review act. The chief engineer upon request shall deliver a copy of such order to any interested person who is affected by such order and shall file a copy of the same with the register of deeds of any county within which any part of the local enhanced management area lies.

(i) If the holder of a groundwater right within the local enhanced management area applies for review of the order of designation pursuant to K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 82a-1901, and amendments thereto, the provisions of the order with respect to the inclusion of the holder's water right within the area may be stayed in accordance with the Kansas administrative procedure act.

(j) Unless otherwise specified in the proposed enhanced management plan and included in the order of designation, a public hearing to review the designation of a local enhanced management area shall be conducted by the chief engineer within seven years after the order of designation is final. A subsequent review of the designation shall occur within 10 years after the previous public review hearing or more frequently as determined by the chief engineer. Upon the request of a petition signed by at least 10% of the affected water users in a local enhanced management area, a public review hearing to review the designation shall be conducted by the chief engineer. This requested public review hearing shall not be conducted more frequently than every four

(k) The chief engineer shall adopt rules and regulations to effectuate and administer the provisions of this section.

(l) The provisions of this section shall be part of and supplemental to the provisions of K.S.A. 82a-1020 through K.S.A. 82a-1040, and amendments thereto.

New Sec. 5. (a) The chief engineer shall give due consideration to water management or conservation measures previously implemented by a water right holder when implementing any further limitations on a water right pursuant to any program established or implemented on and after July 1, 2015. The chief engineer shall take into account reductions in water use, changes in water management practices and other measures undertaken by such water right holder.

(a) For the purpose of preventing surface and subsurface water pollution and soil pollution detrimental to public health or to the plant, animal and aquatic life of the state, and to protect designated uses of the waters of the state and to require the treatment of sewage predicated upon technologically based effluent limitations, the secretary of health and environment shall make such rules and regulations, including registration of potential sources of pollution, as may in the secretary's judgment be necessary to: (1) Protect the soil and waters of the state from pollution resulting from underground storage of liquid petroleum gas and hydrocarbons, other than underground porosity storage of natural gas; (2) control the disposal, discharge or escape of sewage as defined in K.S.A. 65-164, and amendments thereto, by or from municipalities, corporations, companies, institutions, state agencies, federal agencies or individuals and any plants, works or facilities owned or operated, or both, by them; and (3) establish water quality standards for the waters of the state to protect their designated uses, including establishment of water quality standards variances that may apply to specified pollutants, permittees, or waterbody segments that reflect the highest attainable condition during the specified time period for the variance. In no event shall the secretary's authority be interpreted to include authority over the beneficial use of water, water quantity allocations, protection against water use impairment of a beneficial use, or any other function or authority under the jurisdiction of the Kansas water appropriation act, K.S.A. 82a-701, and amendments thereto.

(b) The secretary of health and environment may adopt by reference any regulation relating to water quality and effluent standards promulgated by the federal government pursuant to the provisions of the federal clean water act, and amendments thereto, as in effect on January 1, 1989, which the secretary is otherwise authorized by law to adopt.

(c) For the purposes of this act, including K.S.A. 65-161 through 65-171h and K.S.A. 65-1,178 through 65-1,198, and amendments thereto, and rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto:

(1) "Pollution" means: (A) Such contamination or other alteration of the physical, chemical or biological properties of any waters of the state as will or is likely to create a nuisance or render such waters harmful, detrimental or injurious to public health, safety or welfare, or to the plant, animal or aquatic life of the state or to other designated uses; or (B) such discharge as will or is likely to exceed state effluent standards predicated upon technologically based effluent limitations.

(2) "Confined feeding facility" means any lot, pen, pool or pond: (A) Which is used for the confined feeding of animals or fowl for food, fur or pleasure purposes; (B) which is not normally used for raising crops; and (C) in which no vegetation intended for animal food is growing.

(3) "Animal unit" means a unit of measurement calculated by adding the following numbers: The number of beef cattle weighing more than 700 pounds multiplied by 1.0; plus the number of cattle weighing less than 700 pounds multiplied by 0.5; plus the number of mature dairy cattle multiplied by 1.4; plus the number of swine weighing more than 55 pounds multiplied by 0.4; plus the number of swine weighing 55 pounds or less multiplied by 0.1; plus the number of sheep or lambs multiplied by 0.1; plus the number of horses multiplied by 2.0; plus the number of turkeys multiplied by 0.018; plus the number of laying hens or broilers, if the facility has continuous overflow watering, multiplied by 0.01; plus the number of laying hens or broilers, if the facility has a liquid manure system, multiplied by 0.033; plus the number of ducks multiplied by 0.2. However, each head of cattle will be counted as one full animal unit for the purpose of determining the need for a federal permit. "Animal unit" also includes the number of swine weighing 55 pounds or less multiplied by 0.1 for the purpose of determining applicable requirements for new construction of a confined feeding facility for which a permit or registration has not been issued before January 1, 1998, and for which an application for a permit or registration and plans have not been filed with the secretary of health and environment before January 1, 1998, or for the purpose of determining applicable requirements for expansion of such facility. Except as otherwise provided, animal units for public livestock markets shall be determined by using the average annual animal units sold by the market during the past five calendar years divided by 365. Such animal unit determination may be adjusted by the department if the public livestock market submits documentation that demonstrates that such adjustment is appropriate based on the amount of time in 24-hour increments or partials thereof that animals are at the market.

(4) "Animal unit capacity" means the maximum number of animal units which a confined feeding facility is designed to accommodate at any one time.

(d) In adopting rules and regulations, the secretary of health and environment, taking into account the varying conditions that are probable for each source of sewage and its possible place of disposal, discharge or escape, may provide for varying the control measures required in each case to those the secretary finds to be necessary to prevent pollution. If a freshwater reservoir or farm pond is privately owned and where complete ownership of land bordering the reservoir or pond is under common private ownership, such freshwater reservoir or farm pond shall be exempt from water quality standards except as it relates to water discharge or seepage from the reservoir or pond to waters of the state, either surface or groundwater, or as it relates to the public health of persons using the reservoir or pond or waters therefrom.

(e) (1) Whenever the secretary of health and environment or the secretary's duly authorized agents find that storage or disposal of salt water not regulated by the state corporation commission or refuse in any surface pond not regulated by the state corporation commission is causing or is likely to cause pollution of soil or waters of the state, the secretary or the secretary's duly authorized agents shall issue an order prohibiting such storage or disposal of salt water or refuse. Any person aggrieved by such order may within 15 days of service of the order request in writing a hearing on the order.

(2) Upon receipt of a timely request, a hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Kansas administrative procedure act.

(2) Upon petition by the registrant, the secretary may extend the application period, by no more than an additional 18 months, if the secretary believes such an extension is reasonable under the circumstances.

(3) Within 30 days of receipt of an application, the secretary shall notify the registrant of whether the application is complete or incomplete. If the application is incomplete, such notice shall state the reasons why such application is incomplete. Once such registrant submits an application properly addressing each reason listed as a basis for the determination that the application is incomplete, the secretary shall issue an acknowledgment of receipt of the completed application within 30 days of properly addressing such reasons.

(k) (1) The separation distance requirements of subsections (j)(1) and (2) shall not apply if the registrant obtains a written agreement from all owners of habitable structures which are within the separation distance stating such owners are aware of the construction or expansion and have no objections to such construction or expansion. The written agreement shall be filed in the register of deeds office of the county in which the habitable structure is located.

God help us in this great time of need for our nation, for our state and for our families.

God direct our hearts, not for what we want but for others and for Your glory. God remind us that You have placed us here not to be served but to serve.

We ask for Your wisdom to make God honoring decisions for those we serve. We ask for the strength and boldness to do what is right in Your eyes. Teach us Lord to be humble as You have called us to be. Show us how to bless those around us with Your Divine love and mercy.

Lord help us to be compassionate to those who are in need, to be a voice for the voiceless, to be strong and defend the weak. God give us the courage to follow through with the commitments we have made to You.

In Jesus' Holy Name, Amen.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Winn are spread upon the Journal:

Today I have the distinct honor and privilege of welcoming members of the Kansas chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority as they participate in Delta Day at the Capitol.

The Day is sponsored by the African American Commission and the individual sponsors include Ms. Trudy Baker, Wichita, Ms. Daphne Maxwell – the KAACC from District 1 and Ms. Donna Douglas.

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority was founded in January 1913 by 22 collegiate women at Howard University. These pioneering female students wanted to use their collective strength to promote academic excellence and to provide assistance to persons in need.

The first public act performed by the Delta Founders involved their participation in the Women's Suffrage march in Washington D.C. in March 1913. Delta Sigma Theta was then incorporated in 1930. Since it's founding more than 200,000 women have joined its organization. The sorority now has over 1000 collegiate and alumni chapters located in the United States, England, Japan, Germany, Virgin Island, Bermuda, Bahamas, Jamaica and the Rep. of Korea. Needless to say, today, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority is the largest African American Greek lettered sorority in the world.

Today they commit their energies to community service, leadership, educating the youth, promoting physical and mental health, political awareness and involvement and strengthening the African American family.

In many ways they are Like the Big Red 1 – they are soldiers in the fight for justice all over the world.

Please join me in a sincere welcome to the Kansas members of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

Committee on Agriculture and Natural Resources recommends SB 156 be amended on page 1, following line 5, by inserting:

"New Section 1. (a) Any water right owner or a group of water right owners in a designated area may enter into a consent agreement and order with the chief engineer to establish a water conservation area. The water right owner or group of water right owners shall submit a management plan to the chief engineer. Such management plan shall be the basis of the consent agreement and order designating a water conservation area and shall:

- (1) Include clear geographic boundaries;
- (2) include the written consent of all participating water right owners within the geographic boundaries described in paragraph (1) to enter into the consent agreement and order;
- (3) include a finding or findings that one or more of the circumstances specified in K.S.A. 82a-1036(a) through (d), and amendments thereto, exist;
- (4) include provisions regarding the proposed duration of the water conservation area and any process by which water right owners may request to be added or removed from the water conservation area;

- (6) give due consideration to water users who have previously implemented reductions in water use resulting in voluntary conservation measures;
- (7) include compliance monitoring and enforcement; and
- (8) be consistent with state law.

(b) A consent agreement and order of designation of a water conservation area pursuant to this section shall define the boundaries of the water conservation area and may include any of the following corrective control provisions:

- (1) Closing the water conservation area to any further appropriation of groundwater. In which event, the chief engineer shall thereafter refuse to accept any application for a permit to appropriate groundwater located within such area;

- (4) requiring and specifying a system of rotation of groundwater use in the water conservation area; and
- (5) any other provisions necessary to effectuate agreed-upon water conservation goals consistent with the public interest.

The chief engineer shall be responsible for the monitoring and enforcement of any corrective control provisions ordered for a water conservation area.

(c) The order of designation shall be in full force and effect from the date of its entry in the records of the chief engineer's office. The chief engineer upon request shall deliver a copy of such order to any interested person who is affected by such order and shall file a copy of the same with the register of deeds of any county within which any part of the water conservation area lies.

(d) If any corrective control provisions of a water conservation area conflict with rules and regulations of a groundwater management district or requirements of a local enhanced management plan or intensive groundwater use control area that result in greater overall conservation of water resources within which a participating water right is situated, the chief engineer is authorized to amend the provisions of the water conservation area to conform to any rules and regulations or requirements that result in greater conservation of water resources, as determined by the chief engineer. As part of the consent agreement and order of designation, the chief engineer may authorize single-year or multi-year term permits for water right owners to effectuate the water conservation area's conservation goals in accordance with the management plan.

(e) Prior to execution of a proposed water conservation area consent agreement and order of designation pursuant to this section, the chief engineer shall notify in writing the groundwater management district within which any participating water right is situated. Such groundwater management district shall be given an opportunity to provide a written recommendation regarding the proposed water conservation area and management plan within 45 days of notification by the chief engineer. The review period may be extended by up to 30 days upon approval by the chief engineer. Subject to subsection (d), any participating water right in a water conservation area shall continue to be subject to all applicable rules and regulations and management plans of the groundwater management district in which the water right is situated.

(f) The consent agreement and order of designation shall provide for periodic review of the consent agreement and order, which may be initiated by the chief engineer or upon request of the water right owners in the water conservation area. The consent agreement and order shall specify the frequency of such periodic review, but a review shall be conducted at least once every 10 years.

(g) (1) The chief engineer may, with the consent of all participating water right owners, amend a consent agreement and order of designation in order to:

- (A) Modify corrective control provisions or the boundaries of the designated area;
- (B) add or remove water rights upon request of such water right owners;
- (C) terminate a water conservation area upon the request of the water right owners in the designated area; or
- (D) make other changes the water right owners may request.

(2) Any amendments to a consent agreement and order of designation, except amendments that remove a water right upon request of the owner so long as the consent of all participating water right owners is not required pursuant to the management plan, shall be consented to by all participating water right owners within the designated area and the chief engineer and shall be based upon a revised management plan submitted by the participating water right owners.

(h) The chief engineer shall adopt rules and regulations to effectuate and administer the provisions of this section.

"Sec. 4. K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 44-706 is hereby amended to read as follows: 44-706. The secretary shall examine whether an individual has separated from employment for each week claimed. The secretary shall apply the provisions of this section to the individual's most recent employment prior to the week claimed. An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

(a) If the individual left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the work or the employer, subject to the other provisions of this subsection. For purposes of this subsection, "good cause" is cause of such gravity that would impel a reasonable, not supersensitive, individual exercising ordinary common sense to leave employment. Good cause requires a showing of good faith of the individual leaving work, including the presence of a genuine desire to work. Failure to return to work after expiration of approved personal or medical leave, or both, shall be considered a voluntary resignation. After a temporary job assignment, failure of an individual to affirmatively request an additional assignment on the next succeeding workday, if required by the employment agreement, after completion of a given work assignment, shall constitute leaving work voluntarily. The disqualification shall begin the day following the separation and shall continue until after the individual has become reemployed and has had earnings from insured work of at least three times the individual's weekly benefit amount. An individual shall not be disqualified under this subsection if:

(1) The individual was forced to leave work because of illness or injury upon the advice of a licensed and practicing health care provider and, upon learning of the necessity for absence, immediately notified the employer thereof, or the employer consented to the absence, and after recovery from the illness or injury, when recovery was certified by a practicing health care provider, the individual returned to the employer and offered to perform services and the individual's regular work or comparable and suitable work was not available. As used in this paragraph "health care provider" means any person licensed by the proper licensing authority of any state to engage in the practice of medicine and surgery, osteopathy, chiropractic, dentistry, optometry, podiatry or psychology;

(2) the individual left temporary work to return to the regular employer;

(3) the individual left work to enlist in the armed forces of the United States, but was rejected or delayed from entry;

(4) the spouse of an individual who is a member of the armed forces of the United States who left work because of the voluntary or involuntary transfer of the individual's spouse from one job to another job, which is for the same employer or for a different employer, at a geographic location which makes it unreasonable for the individual to continue work at the individual's job. For the purposes of this provision the term "armed forces" means active duty in the army, navy, marine corps, air force, coast guard or any branch of the military reserves of the United States;

(5) the individual left work because of hazardous working conditions; in determining whether or not working conditions are hazardous for an individual, the degree of risk involved to the individual's health, safety and morals, the individual's physical fitness and prior training and the working conditions of workers engaged in the same or similar work for the same and other employers in the locality shall be considered; as used in this paragraph, "hazardous working conditions" means working conditions that could result in a danger to the physical or mental well-being of the individual; each determination as to whether hazardous working conditions exist shall include, but shall not be limited to, a consideration of: (A) The safety measures used or the lack thereof; and (B) the condition of equipment or lack of proper equipment; no work shall be considered hazardous if the working conditions surrounding the individual's work are the same or substantially the same as the working conditions generally prevailing among individuals performing the same or similar work for other employers engaged in the same or similar type of activity;

(6) the individual left work to enter training approved under section 236(a)(1) of the federal trade act of 1974, provided the work left is not of a substantially equal or higher skill level than the individual's past adversely affected employment, as defined for purposes of the federal trade act of 1974, and wages for such work are not less than 80% of the individual's average weekly wage as determined for the purposes of the federal trade act of 1974;

(7) the individual left work because of unwelcome harassment of the individual by the employer or another employee of which the employing unit had knowledge and that would impel the average worker to give up such worker's employment;

(8) the individual left work to accept better work; each determination as to whether or not the work accepted is better work shall include, but shall not be limited to, consideration of: (A) The rate of pay, the hours of work and the probable permanency of the work left as compared to the work accepted; (B) the cost to the individual of getting to the work left in comparison to the cost of getting to the work accepted; and (C) the distance from the individual's place of residence to the work accepted in comparison to the distance from the individual's residence to the work left;

(9) the individual left work as a result of being instructed or requested by the employer, a supervisor or a fellow employee to perform a service or commit an act in the scope of official job duties which is in violation of an ordinance or statute;

(10) the individual left work because of a substantial violation of the work agreement by the employing unit and, before the individual left, the individual had exhausted all remedies provided in such agreement for the settlement of disputes before terminating. For the purposes of this paragraph, a demotion based on performance does not constitute a violation of the work agreement;

(11) after making reasonable efforts to preserve the work, the individual left work due to a personal emergency of such nature and compelling urgency that it would be contrary to good conscience to impose a disqualification; or

(12) (A) the individual left work due to circumstances resulting from domestic violence, including:

(i) The individual's reasonable fear of future domestic violence at or en route to or from the individual's place of employment;

(ii) the individual's need to relocate to another geographic area in order to avoid future domestic violence;

(iii) the individual's need to address the physical, psychological and legal impacts of domestic violence;

(iv) the individual's need to leave employment as a condition of receiving services or shelter from an agency which provides support services or shelter to victims of domestic violence; or

(v) the individual's reasonable belief that termination of employment is necessary to avoid other situations which may cause domestic violence and to provide for the future safety of the individual or the individual's family.

(B) An individual may prove the existence of domestic violence by providing one of the following:

(i) A restraining order or other documentation of equitable relief by a court of competent jurisdiction;

(ii) a police record documenting the abuse;

(iii) documentation that the abuser has been convicted of one or more of the offenses enumerated in articles 34 and 35 of chapter 21 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, prior to their repeal, or articles 54 or 55 of chapter 21 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, or K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 21-6104, 21-6325, 21-6326 or 21-6418 through 21-6421, and amendments thereto, where the victim was a family or household member;

(iv) medical documentation of the abuse;

(v) a statement provided by a counselor, social worker, health care provider, clergy, shelter worker, legal advocate, domestic violence or sexual assault advocate or other professional who has assisted the individual in dealing with the effects of abuse on the individual or the individual's family; or

(vi) a sworn statement from the individual attesting to the abuse.

(C) No evidence of domestic violence experienced by an individual, including the individual's statement and corroborating evidence, shall be disclosed by the department of labor unless consent for disclosure is given by the individual.

(b) If the individual has been discharged or suspended for misconduct connected with the individual's work. The disqualification shall begin the day following the separation and shall continue until after the individual becomes reemployed and in cases where the disqualification is due to discharge for misconduct has had earnings from insured work of at least three times the individual's determined weekly benefit amount, except that if an individual is discharged for gross misconduct connected with the individual's work, such individual shall be disqualified for benefits until such individual again becomes employed and has had earnings from insured work of at least eight times such individual's determined weekly benefit amount. In addition, all wage credits attributable to the employment from which the individual was discharged for gross misconduct connected with the individual's work shall be canceled. No such cancellation of wage credits shall affect prior payments made as a result of a prior separation.

(1) For the purposes of this subsection, "misconduct" is defined as a violation of a duty or obligation reasonably owed the employer as a condition of employment including, but not limited to, a violation of a company rule, including a safety rule, if: (A) The individual knew or should have known about the rule; (B) the rule was lawful and reasonably related to the job; and (C) the rule was fairly and consistently enforced.

(2) (A) Failure of the employee to notify the employer of an absence and an individual's leaving work prior to the end of such individual's assigned work period without permission shall be considered prima facie evidence of a violation of a duty or obligation reasonably owed the employer as a condition of employment.

(B) For the purposes of this subsection, misconduct shall include, but not be limited to, violation of the employer's reasonable attendance expectations if the facts show:

(i) The individual was absent or tardy without good cause;

(ii) the individual had knowledge of the employer's attendance expectation; and

(iii) the employer gave notice to the individual that future absence or tardiness may or will result in discharge.

(C) For the purposes of this subsection, if an employee disputes being absent or tardy without good cause, the employee shall present evidence that a majority of the employee's absences or tardiness were for good cause. If the employee alleges that the employee's repeated absences or tardiness were the result of health related issues, such evidence shall include documentation from a licensed and practicing health care provider as defined in subsection (a)(1).

(3) (A) The term "gross misconduct" as used in this subsection shall be construed to mean conduct evincing extreme, willful or wanton misconduct as defined by this subsection. Gross misconduct shall include, but not be limited to: (i) Theft; (ii) fraud; (iii) intentional damage to property; (iv) intentional infliction of personal injury; or (v) any conduct that constitutes a felony.

(3) requested pursuant to a written policy of the employer of which the employee had knowledge and was a required condition of employment;

(4) required by law and the test constituted a required condition of employment for the individual's job; or

(5) there was reasonable suspicion to believe that the individual used, had possession of, or was impaired by alcoholic liquor, cereal malt beverage or a nonprescribed controlled substance while working;

(b) the test sample was collected either:

(1) As prescribed by the drug free workplace act, 41 U.S.C. § 701 et seq.;

(d) the chemical test was performed by a laboratory approved by the United States department of health and human services or licensed by the department of health and environment, except that a blood sample may be tested for alcohol content by a laboratory commonly used for that purpose by state law enforcement agencies;

(e) the chemical test was confirmed by gas chromatography, gas chromatography-mass spectroscopy or other comparably reliable analytical method, except that no such confirmation is required for a blood alcohol sample or a breath alcohol test;

(f) the breath alcohol test was administered by an individual trained to perform breath tests, the breath testing instrument used was certified and operated strictly according to a description provided by the manufacturers and the reliability of the instrument performance was assured by testing with alcohol standards; and

(g) the foundation evidence establishes, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the test results were from the sample taken from the individual;

(iv) an individual's refusal to submit to a chemical test or breath alcohol test, provided:

(a) The test meets the standards of the drug free workplace act, 41 U.S.C. § 701 et seq.;

(b) the test was administered as part of an employee assistance program or other drug or alcohol treatment program in which the employee was participating voluntarily or as a condition of further employment;

(c) the test was otherwise required by law and the test constituted a required condition of employment for the individual's job;

(d) the test was requested pursuant to a written policy of the employer of which the employee had knowledge and was a required condition of employment; or

(e) there was reasonable suspicion to believe that the individual used, possessed or was impaired by alcoholic liquor, cereal malt beverage or a nonprescribed controlled substance while working;

(v) an individual's dilution or other tampering of a chemical test.

(C) For purposes of this subsection:

(i) "Alcohol concentration" means the number of grams of alcohol per 210 liters of breath;

(4) An individual shall not be disqualified under this subsection if the individual is discharged under the following circumstances:

(A) The employer discharged the individual after learning the individual was seeking other work or when the individual gave notice of future intent to quit, except that the individual shall be disqualified after the time at which such individual intended to quit and any individual who commits misconduct after such individual gives notice to such individual's intent to quit shall be disqualified;

(B) the individual was making a good-faith effort to do the assigned work but was discharged due to: (i) Inefficiency; (ii) unsatisfactory performance due to inability, incapacity or lack of training or experience; (iii) isolated instances of ordinary negligence or inadvertence; (iv) good-faith errors in judgment or discretion; or (v) unsatisfactory work or conduct due to circumstances beyond the individual's control; or

(C) the individual's refusal to perform work in excess of the contract of hire.

(c) If the individual has failed, without good cause, to either apply for suitable work when so directed by the employment office of the secretary of labor, or to accept suitable work when offered to the individual by the employment office, the secretary of labor, or an employer, such disqualification shall begin with the week in which such failure occurred and shall continue until the individual becomes reemployed and has had earnings from insured work of at least three times such individual's determined weekly benefit amount. In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the secretary of labor, or a person or persons designated by the secretary, shall consider the degree of risk involved to health, safety and morals, physical fitness and prior training, experience and prior earnings, length of unemployment and prospects for securing local work in the individual's customary occupation or work for which the individual is reasonably fitted by training or experience, and the distance of the available work from the individual's residence. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this act, an otherwise eligible individual shall not be disqualified for refusing an offer of suitable employment, or failing to apply for suitable employment when notified by an employment office, or for leaving the individual's most recent work accepted during approved training, including training approved under section 236(a)(1) of the trade act of 1974, if the acceptance of or applying for suitable employment or continuing such work would require the individual to terminate approved training and no work shall be deemed suitable and benefits shall not be denied under this act to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following conditions: (1) If the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lockout or other labor dispute; (2) if the remuneration, hours or other conditions of the work offered are substantially less favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar work in the locality; (3) if as a condition of being employed, the individual would be required to join or to resign from or refrain from joining any labor organization; and (4) if the individual left employment as a result of domestic violence, and the position offered does not reasonably accommodate the individual's physical, psychological, safety, or legal needs relating to such domestic violence.

(d) For any week with respect to which the secretary of labor, or a person or persons designated by the secretary, finds that the individual's unemployment is due to a stoppage of work which exists because of a labor dispute or there would have been a work stoppage had normal operations not been maintained with other personnel previously and currently employed by the same employer at the factory, establishment or other premises at which the individual is or was last employed, except that this subsection (d) shall not apply if it is shown to the satisfaction of the secretary of labor, or a person or persons designated by the secretary, that: (1) The individual is not participating in or financing or directly interested in the labor dispute which caused the stoppage of work; and (2) the individual does not belong to a grade or class of workers of which, immediately before the commencement of the stoppage, there were members employed at the premises at which the stoppage occurs any of whom are participating in or financing or directly interested in the dispute. If in any case separate branches of work which are commonly conducted as separate businesses in separate premises are conducted in separate departments of the same premises, each such department shall, for the purpose of this subsection be deemed to be a separate factory, establishment or other premises. For the purposes of this subsection, failure or refusal to cross a picket line or refusal for any reason during the continuance of such labor dispute to accept the individual's available and customary work at the factory, establishment or other premises where the individual is or was last employed shall be considered as participation and interest in the labor dispute.

(e) For any week with respect to which or a part of which the individual has received or is seeking unemployment benefits under the unemployment compensation law of any other state or of the United States, except that if the appropriate agency of such other state or the United States finally determines that the individual is not entitled to such unemployment benefits, this disqualification shall not apply.

(f) For any week with respect to which the individual is entitled to receive any unemployment allowance or compensation granted by the United States under an act of congress to ex-service men and women in recognition of former service with the military or naval services of the United States.

(g) For the period of five years beginning with the first day following the last week of unemployment for which the individual received benefits, or for five years from the date the act was committed, whichever is the later, if the individual, or another in such individual's behalf with the knowledge of the individual, has knowingly made a false statement or representation, or has knowingly failed to disclose a material fact to obtain or increase benefits under this act or any other unemployment compensation law administered by the secretary of labor. In addition to the penalties set forth in K.S.A. 44-719, and amendments thereto, an individual who has knowingly made a false statement or representation or who has knowingly failed to disclose a material fact to obtain or increase benefits under this act or any other unemployment compensation law administered by the secretary of labor shall be liable for a penalty in the amount equal to 25% of the amount of benefits unlawfully received. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, such penalty shall be deposited into the employment security trust fund.

(h) For any week with respect to which the individual is receiving compensation for temporary total disability or permanent total disability under the workmen's compensation law of any state or under a similar law of the United States.

(i) For any week of unemployment on the basis of service in an instructional, research or principal administrative capacity for an educational institution as defined in ~~subsection (v) of K.S.A. 44-703(v)~~, and amendments thereto, if such week begins during the period between two successive academic years or terms or, when an agreement provides instead for a similar period between two regular but not successive terms during such period or during a period of paid sabbatical leave provided for in the individual's contract, if the individual performs such services in the first of such academic years or terms and there is a contract or a reasonable assurance that such individual will perform services in any such capacity for any educational institution in the second of such academic years or terms.

(j) For any week of unemployment on the basis of service in any capacity other than service in an instructional, research, or administrative capacity in an educational institution, as defined in ~~subsection (v) of K.S.A. 44-703(v)~~, and amendments thereto, if such week begins during the period between two successive academic years or terms if the individual performs such services in the first of such academic years or terms and there is a reasonable assurance that the individual will perform such services in the second of such academic years or terms, except that if benefits are denied to the individual under this subsection and the individual was not offered an opportunity to perform such services for the educational institution for the second of such academic years or terms, such individual shall be entitled to a retroactive payment of benefits for each week for which the individual filed a timely claim for benefits and for which benefits were denied solely by reason of this subsection.

(k) For any week of unemployment on the basis of service in any capacity for an educational institution as defined in ~~subsection (v) of K.S.A. 44-703(v)~~, and amendments thereto, if such week begins during an established and customary vacation period or holiday recess, if the individual performs services in the period immediately before such vacation period or holiday recess and there is a reasonable assurance that such individual will perform such services in the period immediately following such vacation period or holiday recess.

(l) For any week of unemployment on the basis of any services, substantially all of which consist of participating in sports or athletic events or training or preparing to so participate, if such week begins during the period between two successive sport seasons or similar period if such individual performed services in the first of such seasons or similar periods and there is a reasonable assurance that such individual will perform such services in the later of such seasons or similar periods.

(m) For any week on the basis of services performed by an alien unless such alien is an individual who was lawfully admitted for permanent residence at the time such services were performed, was lawfully present for purposes of performing such services, or was permanently residing in the United States under color of law at the time such services were performed, including an alien who was lawfully present in the United States as a result of the application of the provisions of section 212(d)(5) of the federal immigration and nationality act. Any data or information required of individuals applying for benefits to determine whether benefits are not payable to them because of their alien status shall be uniformly required from all applicants for benefits. In the case of an individual whose application for benefits would otherwise be approved, no determination that benefits to such individual are not payable because of such individual's alien status shall be made except upon a preponderance of the evidence.

(n) For any week in which an individual is receiving a governmental or other pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity or other similar periodic payment under a plan maintained by a base period employer and to which the entire contributions were provided by such employer, except that: (1) If the entire contributions to such plan were provided by the base period employer but such individual's weekly benefit amount exceeds such governmental or other pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity or other similar periodic payment attributable to such week, the weekly benefit amount payable to the individual shall be reduced, but not below zero, by an amount equal to the amount of such pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity or other similar periodic payment which is attributable to such week; or (2) if only a portion of contributions to such plan were provided by the base period employer, the weekly benefit amount payable to such individual for such week shall be reduced, but not below zero, by the prorated weekly amount of the pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity or other similar periodic payment after deduction of that portion of the pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity or other similar periodic payment that is directly attributable to the percentage of the contributions made to the plan by such individual; or (3) if the entire contributions to the plan were provided by such individual, or by the individual and an employer, or any person or organization, who is not a base period employer, no reduction in the weekly benefit amount payable to the individual for such week shall be made under this subsection; or (4) whatever portion of contributions to such plan were provided by the base period employer, if the services performed for the employer by such individual during the base period, or remuneration received for the services, did not affect the individual's eligibility for, or increased the amount of, such pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity or other similar periodic payment, no reduction in the weekly benefit amount payable to the individual for such week shall be made under this subsection. No reduction shall be made for payments made under the social security act or railroad retirement act of 1974.

(o) For any week of unemployment on the basis of services performed in any capacity and under any of the circumstances described in subsection (i), (j) or (k) which an individual performed in an educational institution while in the employ of an educational service agency. For the purposes of this subsection, the term "educational service agency" means a governmental agency or entity which is established and operated exclusively for the purpose of providing such services to one or more educational institutions.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other statute, a decision of an examiner or special examiner shall be final unless the claimant or the most recent employing unit of the claimant files an appeal from the decision as provided in subsection (c), except that the time limit for appeal may be waived or extended by the referee or board of review if a timely response was impossible due to excusable neglect. The appeal must be filed within 16 calendar days after the mailing of notice to the last known addresses of the claimant and employing unit or, if notice is not by mail, within 16 calendar days after the delivery of the notice to the parties.

(c) Appeals. Unless the appeal is withdrawn, a referee, after affording the parties reasonable opportunity for fair hearing, shall affirm or modify the findings of fact and decision of the examiner or special examiner. The board shall permit such further appeal by any of the parties interested in a decision of a referee which overrules or modifies the decision of an examiner. The board may remove to itself the proceedings on any claim pending before a referee. Any proceedings so removed to the board shall be heard in accordance with the requirements of subsection (c). The board shall promptly notify the interested parties of its findings and decision.

(8) Two members of the employment security board of review shall constitute a quorum and no action of the board shall be valid unless it has the concurrence of at least two members. No bond shall be required for commencing an action for such review. ~~In the absence of an action for such review, the action of such board shall become final 16 calendar days after the date of the mailing of the decision.~~ In addition to those persons having standing pursuant to K.S.A. 77-611, and amendments thereto, the examiner shall have standing to obtain judicial review of an action of such board. The review proceeding, and the questions of law certified, shall be heard in a summary manner and shall be given precedence over all other civil cases except cases arising under the workers compensation act.

(j) Any finding of fact or law, judgment, determination, conclusion or final order made by the employment security board of review or any examiner, special examiner, referee or other person with authority to make findings of fact or law pursuant to the employment security law is not admissible or binding in any separate or subsequent action or proceeding, between a person and a present or previous employer brought before an arbitrator, court or judge of the state or the United States, regardless of whether the prior action was between the same or related parties or involved the same facts.

of such contributions and the actual earnings thereon as the secretary finds will be fair and reasonable as to all affected interests;

(B) reimbursements paid from the fund pursuant to subsection (j)(4) ~~of this section~~ shall be deemed to be benefits for the purpose of K.S.A. 44-704 and 44-712, and amendments thereto; the secretary is authorized to make to other state or federal agencies, and to receive from such other state or federal agencies, reimbursements from or to the fund, in accordance with arrangements entered into pursuant to the provisions of this section or any other section of the employment security law;

(C) the administration of this act and of other state and federal unemployment compensation and public employment service laws will be promoted by cooperation between this state and such other states and the appropriate federal agencies in exchanging services and in making available facilities and information; the secretary is therefore authorized to make such investigations, secure and transmit such information, make available such services and facilities and exercise such of the other powers provided herein with respect to the administration of this act as the secretary deems necessary or appropriate to facilitate the administration of any such unemployment compensation or public employment service law and, in like manner, to accept and utilize information, service and facilities made available to this state by the agency charged with the administration of any such other unemployment compensation or public employment service law; and

(D) to the extent permissible under the laws and constitution of the United States, the secretary is authorized to enter into or cooperate in arrangements whereby facilities and services provided under this act and facilities and services provided under the unemployment compensation law of any foreign government may be utilized for the taking of claims and the payment of benefits under the employment security law of this state or under a similar law of such government.

(k) Records available. The secretary may furnish the railroad retirement board, at the expense of such board, such copies of the records as the railroad retirement board deems necessary for its purposes.

(l) Destruction of records, reproduction and disposition. The secretary may provide for the destruction, reproduction, temporary or permanent retention, and disposition of records, reports and claims in the secretary's possession pursuant to the administration of the employment security law provided that prior to any destruction of such records, reports or claims the secretary shall comply with K.S.A. 75-3501 to 75-3514, inclusive, and amendments thereto.

(m) Federal cooperation. The secretary may afford reasonable cooperation with every agency of the United States charged with administration of any unemployment insurance law.

All moneys received from fees charged for copies of such documents shall be remitted to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the state treasury to the credit of the employment security administration fund. No such fees shall be charged or collected for copies of documents that are made pursuant to a statute which requires such copies to be furnished without expense.

Sec. 7. K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 44-717 is hereby amended to read as follows: 44-717. (a) (1) Penalties on past-due reports, interest on past-due contributions, payments in lieu of contributions, benefit cost payments and interest assessments made under K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto. Any employer or any officer or agent of an employer, who fails to file any wage report or contribution return by the last day of the month following the close of each calendar quarter to which they are related shall pay a penalty as provided by this subsection for each month or fraction of a month until the report or return is received by the secretary of labor except that for calendar years 2010 and 2011 an employer or any officer or agent of the employer shall have up to 90 days past the due date for any of the first three calendar quarters in a calendar year to pay such employer's contribution without being charged any interest, however, when the 90 day period has passed, the provisions of this section shall apply. The penalty for each month or fraction of a month shall be an amount equal to .05% of the total wages paid by the employer during the quarter, except that no penalty shall be less than $25 nor more than $200 for each such report or return not timely filed. Contributions, benefit cost payments and interest assessments made pursuant to K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, unpaid by the last day of the month following the last calendar quarter to which they are related and payments in lieu of contributions unpaid 30 days after the mailing of the statement of benefit charges, shall bear interest at the rate of 1% per month or fraction of a month until payment is received by the secretary of labor except that an employing unit, which is not theretofore subject to this law and which becomes an employer and does not refuse to make the reports, returns and contributions, payments in lieu of contributions and benefit cost payments required under this law, shall not be liable for such penalty or interest if the wage reports and contribution returns required are filed and the contributions, payments in lieu of contributions or benefit cost payments required are paid within 10 days following notification by the secretary of labor that a determination has been made fixing its status as an employer subject to this law. Upon written request and good cause shown, the secretary of labor may abate any penalty or interest or portion thereof provided for by this subsection. Interest amounting to less than $5 shall be waived by the secretary of labor and shall not be collected. Penalties and interest collected pursuant to this subsection shall be paid into the special employment security fund. For all purposes under this section, amounts assessed as surcharges under subsection (j) or under K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, shall be considered to be contributions and shall be subject to penalties and interest imposed under this section and to collection in the manner provided by this section. For all purposes under this section, amounts assessed under K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, shall be subject to penalties and interest imposed under this section and to collection in the manner provided in this section. For purposes of this subsection, a wage report, a contribution return, a contribution, a payment in lieu of contribution, a benefit cost payment or an interest assessment made pursuant to K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, is deemed to be filed or paid as of the date it is placed in the United States mail.

(2) Notices of payment and reporting delinquency to Indian tribes or their tribal units shall include information that failure to make full payment within the prescribed time frame:

(i) Will cause the Indian tribe to be liable for taxes under FUTA;
 (ii) will cause the Indian tribe to lose the option to make payments in lieu of contributions;

(iii) could cause the Indian tribe to be excepted from the definition of "employer," as provided in ~~paragraph (h)(3)~~ of K.S.A. 44-703(h)(3), and amendments thereto, and services in the employ of the Indian tribe, as provided in ~~paragraph (i)(3)(E)~~ of K.S.A. 44-703(i)(3)(E), and amendments thereto, to be excepted from "employment."

(b) Collection. (1) If, after due notice, any employer defaults in payment of any penalty, contributions, payments in lieu of contributions, benefit cost payments, interest assessments made pursuant to K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, or interest thereon the amount due may be collected by civil action in the name of the secretary of labor and the employer adjudged in default shall pay the cost of such action. Civil actions brought under this section to collect contributions, payments in lieu of contributions, benefit cost payments, interest assessments made pursuant to K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, penalties, or interest thereon from an employer shall be heard by the district court at the earliest possible date and shall be entitled to preference upon the calendar of the court over all other civil actions except petitions for judicial review under this act and cases arising under the workmen's compensation act. All liability determinations of contributions due, payments in lieu of contributions, benefit cost payments and interest assessments made pursuant to K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, due shall be made within a period of five years from the date such contributions, payments in lieu of contributions, benefit cost payments and interest assessments made pursuant to K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, were due except such determinations may be made for any time when an employer has filed fraudulent reports with intent to evade liability.

(2) Any employing unit which is not a resident of this state and which exercises the privilege of having one or more individuals perform service for it within this state and any resident employing unit which exercises that privilege and thereafter removes from this state, shall be deemed thereby to appoint the secretary of state as its agent and attorney for the acceptance of process in any civil action under this subsection. In instituting such an action against any such employing unit the secretary of labor shall cause such process or notice to be filed with the secretary of state and such service shall be sufficient service upon such employing unit and shall be of the same force and validity as if served upon it personally within this state. The secretary of labor shall send notice immediately of the service of such process or notice, together with a copy thereof, by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, to such employing unit at its last-known address and such return receipt, the affidavit of compliance of the secretary of labor with the provisions of this section, and a copy of the notice of service, shall be appended to the original of the process filed in the court in which such civil action is pending.

(3) The district courts of this state shall entertain, in the manner provided in subsections (b)(1) and (b)(2), actions to collect contributions, payments in lieu of contributions, interest assessments made pursuant to K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, and other amounts owed including interest thereon for which liability has accrued under the employment security law of any other state or of the federal government.

(c) Priorities under legal dissolutions or distributions. In the event of any distribution of employer's assets pursuant to an order of any court under the laws of this state, including but not limited to any probate proceeding, interpleader, receivership, assignment for benefit of creditors, adjudicated insolvency, composition or similar proceedings, contributions payments in lieu of contributions or interest assessments made under K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, then or thereafter due shall be paid in full from the moneys which shall first come into the estate, prior to all other claims, except claims for wages of not more than $250 to each claimant, earned within six months of the commencement of the proceedings. In the event of an employer's adjudication in bankruptcy, judicially confirmed extension proposal, or composition, under the federal bankruptcy act of 1898, as amended, contributions then or thereafter due shall be entitled to such priority as is provided in that act for taxes due any state of the United States.

(d) Assessments. If any employer fails to file a report or return required by the secretary of labor for the determination of contributions, or payments in lieu of contributions, or benefit cost payments, the secretary of labor may make such reports or returns or cause the same to be made, on the basis of such information as the secretary may be able to obtain and shall collect the contributions, payments in lieu of contributions or benefit cost payments as determined together with any interest due under this act. The secretary of labor shall immediately forward to the employer a copy of the assessment by registered or certified mail to the employer's address as it appears on the records of the agency, and such assessment shall be final unless the employer protests such assessment and files a corrected report or return for the period covered by the assessment within 15 days after the mailing of the copy of assessment. Failure to receive such notice shall not invalidate the assessment. Notice in writing shall be presumed to have been given when deposited as certified or registered matter in the United States mail, addressed to the person to be charged with notice at such person's address as it appears on the records of the agency.

(e) (1) Lien. If any employer or person who is liable to pay contributions, payments in lieu of contributions, benefit cost payments and interest assessments made pursuant to K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, neglects or refuses to pay the same after demand, the amount, including interest and penalty, shall be a lien in favor of the state of Kansas, secretary of labor, upon all property and rights to property, whether real or personal, belonging to such employer or person. Such lien shall not be valid as against any mortgagee, pledgee, purchaser or judgment creditor until notice thereof has been filed by the secretary of labor in the office of register of deeds in any county in the state of Kansas, in which such property is located, and when so filed shall be notice to all persons claiming an interest in the property of the employer or person against whom filed. The register of deeds shall enter such notices in the financing statement record and shall also record the same in full in miscellaneous record and index the same against the name of the delinquent employer. The register of deeds shall accept, file, and record such notice without prepayment of any fee, but lawful fees shall be added to the amount of such lien and collected when satisfaction is presented for entry. Such lien shall be satisfied of record upon the presentation of a certificate of discharge by the state of Kansas, secretary of labor. Nothing contained in this subsection shall be construed as an invalidation of any lien or notice filed in the name of the unemployment compensation division or the employment security division and such liens shall be and remain in full force and effect until satisfied as provided by this subsection.

(2) Authority of secretary or authorized representative. If any employer or person who is liable to pay any contributions, payments in lieu of contributions, benefit cost payments and interest assessments made pursuant to K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, including interest and penalty, neglects or refuses to pay the same within 10 days after notice and demand therefor, the secretary or the secretary's authorized representative may collect such contributions, payments in lieu of contributions, benefit cost payments and interest assessments made pursuant to K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, including interest and penalty, and such further amount as is sufficient to cover the expenses of the levy, by levy upon all property and rights to property which belong to the employer or person or which have a lien created thereon by this subsection for the payment of such contributions, payments in lieu of contributions, benefit cost payments and interest assessments made pursuant to K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, including interest and penalty. As used in this subsection, "property" includes all real property and personal property, whether tangible or intangible, except such property which is exempt under K.S.A. 60-2301 et seq., and amendments thereto. Levy may be made upon the accrued salary or wages of any officer, employee or elected official of any state or local governmental entity which is subject to K.S.A. 60-723, and amendments thereto, by serving a notice of levy as provided in ~~subsection (d) of~~ K.S.A. 60-304(d), and amendments thereto. If the secretary or the secretary's authorized representative makes a finding that the collection of the amount of such contributions, payments in lieu of contributions, benefit cost payments and interest assessments made pursuant to K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, including interest and penalty, is in jeopardy, notice and demand for immediate payment of such amount may be made by the secretary or the secretary's authorized representative and, upon failure or refusal to pay such amount, immediate collection of such amount by levy shall be lawful without regard to the 10-day period provided in this subsection.

(3) Seizure and sale of property. The authority to levy granted under this subsection includes the power of seizure by any means. A levy shall extend only to property possessed and obligations existing at the time thereof. In any case in which the secretary or the secretary's authorized representative may levy upon property or rights to property, the secretary or the secretary's authorized representative may seize and sell such property or rights to property.

(4) Successive seizures. Whenever any property or right to property upon which levy has been made under this subsection is not sufficient to satisfy the claim of the secretary for which levy is made, the secretary or the secretary's authorized representative may proceed thereafter and as often as may be necessary, to levy in like manner upon any other property or rights to property which belongs to the employer or person against whom such claim exists or upon which a lien is created by this subsection until the amount due from the employer or person, together with all expenses, is fully paid.

(f) Warrant. In addition or as an alternative to any other remedy provided by this section and provided that no appeal or other proceeding for review permitted by this law shall then be pending and the time for taking thereof shall have expired, the secretary of labor or an authorized representative of the secretary may issue a warrant certifying the amount of contributions, payments in lieu of contributions, benefit cost payments, interest or penalty, and the name of the employer liable for same after giving

~~15 days-days'~~ prior notice. Upon request, service of final notices shall be made by the sheriff within the sheriff's county, by the sheriff's deputy or some person specially appointed by the secretary for that purpose, or by the secretary's designee. A person specially appointed by the secretary or the secretary's designee to serve final notices may make service any place in the state. Final notices shall be served as follows:

(1) Individual. Service upon an individual, other than a minor or incapacitated person, shall be made by delivering a copy of the final notice to the individual personally or by leaving a copy at such individual's dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then residing therein, by leaving a copy at the business establishment of the employer with an officer or employee of the establishment, or by delivering a copy to an agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process, but if the agent is one designated by a statute to receive service, such further notice as the statute requires shall be given. If service as prescribed above cannot be made with due diligence, the secretary or the secretary's designee may order service to be made by leaving a copy of the final notice at the employer's dwelling house, usual place of abode or business establishment.

(2) Corporations and partnerships. Service upon a domestic or foreign corporation or upon a partnership or other unincorporated association, when by law it may be sued as such, shall be made by delivering a copy of the final notice to an officer, partner or resident managing or general agent thereof by leaving a copy at any business office of the employer with the person having charge thereof or by delivering a copy to any other agent authorized by appointment or required by law to receive service of process, if the agent is one authorized by law to receive service and, if the law so requires, by also mailing a copy to the employer.

(3) Refusal to accept service. In all cases when the person to be served, or an agent authorized by such person to accept service of petitions and summonses, shall refuse to receive copies of the final notice, the offer of the duly authorized process server to deliver copies thereof and such refusal shall be sufficient service of such notice.

(4) Proof of service. (A) Every officer to whom a final notice or other process shall be delivered for service within or without the state, shall make return thereof in writing stating the time, place and manner of service of such writ, and shall sign such officer's name to such return.

(B) If service of the notice is made by a person appointed by the secretary or the secretary's designee to make service, such person shall make an affidavit as to the time, place and manner of service thereof in a form prescribed by the secretary or the secretary's designee.

(5) Time for return. The officer or other person receiving a final notice shall make a return of service promptly and shall send such return to the secretary or the secretary's designee in any event within 10 days after the service is effected. If the final notice cannot be served it shall be returned to the secretary or the secretary's designee within 30 days after the date of issue with a statement of the reason for the failure to serve the same. The original return shall be attached to and filed with any warrant thereafter filed.

(6) Service by mail. (A) Upon direction of the secretary or the secretary's designee, service by mail may be effected by forwarding a copy of the notice to the employer by registered or certified mail to the employer's address as it appears on the records of the agency. A copy of the return receipt shall be attached to and filed with any warrant thereafter filed.

(B) The secretary of labor or an authorized representative of the secretary may file the warrant for record in the office of the clerk of the district court in the county in which the employer owing such contributions, payments in lieu of contributions, benefit cost payments, interest assessments made pursuant to K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, interest, or penalty has business property. The warrant shall certify the amount of contributions, payments in lieu of contributions, benefit cost payments, interest and penalty due, and the name of the employer liable for such amount. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the district court to file such warrant of record and enter the warrant in the records of the district court for judgment and decrees under the procedure prescribed for filing transcripts of judgment.

(C) The clerk shall enter, on the day the warrant is filed, the case on the appearance docket, together with the amount and the time of filing the warrant. From the time of filing such warrant, the amount of the contributions, payments in lieu of contributions, benefit cost payments, interest assessments made pursuant to K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, interest, and penalty, certified therein, shall have the force and effect of a judgment of the district court until the same is satisfied by the secretary of labor or an authorized representative or attorney for the secretary. Execution shall be issuable at the request of the secretary of labor, an authorized representative or attorney for the secretary, as is provided in the case of other judgments.

(D) Postjudgment procedures shall be the same as for judgments according to the code of civil procedure.

(E) Warrants shall be satisfied of record by payment to the clerk of the district court of the contributions, payments in lieu of contributions, benefit cost payments, interest assessments made pursuant to K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, penalty, interest to date, and court costs. Warrants may also be satisfied of record by payment to the clerk of the district court of all court costs accrued in the case and by filing a certificate by the secretary of labor, certifying that the contributions, payments in lieu of contributions, benefit cost payments, interest assessments made pursuant to K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, interest and penalty have been paid.

(g) Remedies cumulative. The foregoing remedies shall be cumulative and no action taken shall be construed as an election on the part of the state or any of its officers to pursue any remedy or action under this section to the exclusion of any other remedy or action for which provision is made.

(h) Refunds. If any individual, governmental entity or organization makes application for refund or adjustment of any amount paid as contributions, benefit cost payments, interest assessments made pursuant to K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, or interest under this law and the secretary of labor determines that such amount or any portion thereof was erroneously collected, except for amounts less than $5, the secretary of labor shall allow such individual or organization to make an adjustment thereof, in connection with subsequent contribution payments, or if such adjustment cannot be made the secretary of labor shall refund the amount, except for amounts less than $5, from the employment security fund, except that all interest erroneously collected which has been paid into the special employment security fund shall be refunded out of the special employment security fund. No adjustment or refund shall be allowed with respect to a payment as contributions, interest assessments made pursuant to K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, or interest unless an application therefor is made on or before whichever of the following dates is later: (1) One year from the date on which such payment was made; or (2) three years from the last day of the period with respect to which such payment was made. For like cause and within the same period adjustment or refund may be so made on the secretary's own initiative. The secretary of labor shall not be required to refund any contributions, payments in lieu of contributions or benefit cost payments based upon wages paid which have been used as base-period wages in a determination of a claimant's benefit rights when justifiable and correct payments have been made to the claimant as the result of such determination. For all taxable years commencing after December 31, 1997, interest at the rate prescribed in K.S.A. 79-2968, and amendments thereto, shall be allowed on a contribution or benefit cost payment which the secretary has determined was erroneously collected pursuant to this section.

(i) (1) Cash deposit or bond. If any contributing employer is delinquent in making payments under the employment security law during any two quarters of the most recent four-quarter period, the secretary or the secretary's authorized representative shall have the discretionary power to require such contributing employer either to deposit cash or to file a bond with sufficient sureties to guarantee the payment of contributions, interest assessments made pursuant to K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, penalty and interest owed by such employer.

(2) The amount of such cash deposit or bond shall be not less than the largest total amount of contributions, interest assessments made pursuant to K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, penalty and interest reported by the employer in two of the four calendar quarters preceding any delinquency. Such cash deposit or bond shall be required until the employer has shown timely filing of reports and payment of contributions and interest assessments made pursuant to K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, for four consecutive calendar quarters.

(3) Failure to file such cash deposit or bond shall subject the employer to a surcharge of 2.0% which shall be in addition to the rate of contributions assigned to the employer under K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto. Contributions paid as a result of this surcharge shall not be credited to the employer's experience rating account. This surcharge shall be effective during the next full calendar year after its imposition and during each full calendar year thereafter until the employer has filed the required cash deposit or bond or has shown timely filing of reports and payment of contributions for four consecutive calendar quarters.

(j) Any officer, major stockholder or other person who has charge of the affairs of an employer, which is an employing unit described in section 501(c)(3) of the federal internal revenue code of 1954 or which is any other corporate organization or association, or any member or manager of a limited liability company, or any public official, who willfully fails to pay the amount of contributions, payments in lieu of contributions, benefit cost payments and interest assessments made pursuant to K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, required to be paid under the employment security law on the date on which such amount becomes delinquent, shall be personally liable for the total amount of the contributions, payments in lieu of contributions, benefit cost payments and interest assessments made pursuant to K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, and any penalties and interest due and unpaid by such employing unit. The secretary or the secretary's authorized representative may assess such person for the total amount of contributions, payments in lieu of contributions, benefit cost payments and interest assessments made pursuant to K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto, and any penalties, and interest computed as due and owing. With respect to such persons and such amounts assessed, the secretary shall have available all of the collection remedies authorized or provided by this section.

(k) Electronic filing of wage report and contribution return and electronic payment of contributions, benefit cost payments, reimbursing payments or interest assessments under K.S.A. 44-710a, and amendments thereto. The following employers or third party administrators shall file all wage reports and contribution returns and make payment of contributions, benefit cost payments or reimbursing payments electronically as follows:

"Sec. 2. K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 75-719 is hereby amended to read as follows: 75-719.

(a) ~~The attorney general~~ judicial administrator is authorized to enter into contracts in accordance with this section for collection services for debts owed to courts or restitution owed under an order of restitution. On and after July 1, 1999, the cost of collection shall be paid by the defendant as an additional court cost in all criminal, traffic and juvenile offender cases where the defendant fails to pay any amount ordered by the court and the court utilizes the services of a contracting agent pursuant to this section. The cost of collection shall be deemed an administrative fee to pay the actual costs of collection made necessary by the defendant's failure to pay court debt and restitution.

(b) As used in this section:

(1) "Beneficiary under an order of restitution" means the victim or victims of a crime to whom a district court has ordered restitution be paid;

(2) "contracting agent" means a person, firm, agency or other entity who contracts hereunder to provide collection services;

(3) "cost of collection" means the fee specified in contracts hereunder to be paid to or retained by a contracting agent for collection services. Cost of collection also includes any filing fee required under K.S.A. 60-4303, and amendments thereto, or administrative costs prescribed by ~~the attorney general pursuant to rules and regulations~~ rules of the supreme court; and

(4) "debts owed to courts" means any assessment of court costs, fines, fees, moneys expended by the state in providing counsel and other defense services to indigent defendants or other charges which a district court judgment has ordered to be paid to the court, and which remain unpaid in whole or in part, and includes any interest or penalties on such unpaid amounts as provided for in the judgment or by law. "Debts owed to courts" also includes: (A) The cost of collection when collection services of a contracting agent hereunder are utilized; and (B) court costs, fines, fees or other charges arising from failure to comply with a traffic citation within 30 days from the date of the mailing of the notice pursuant to K.S.A. 8-2110(b)(1), and amendments thereto.

(c) (1) Contracts authorized by this section may be entered into with state or federal agencies or political subdivisions of the state of Kansas, including contracts for participation in the collection program authorized by K.S.A. 75-6201 et seq., and amendments thereto. Such contracts also may be entered into with private firms or individuals selected by a procurement negotiation committee in accordance with K.S.A. 75-37,102, and amendments thereto, except that the ~~attorney general~~ judicial administrator shall designate a representative to serve as the chief administrative officer member of such committee and that the other two members of such committee shall be designated by the director of purchases and the judicial administrator.

(2) Prior to negotiating any contract for collection services, this procurement negotiation committee shall advertise for proposals, negotiate with firms and individuals submitting proposals and select among those submitting such proposals the party or parties to contract with for the purpose of collection services.

(3) The ~~attorney general~~ supreme court may adopt rules ~~and regulations~~ as deemed appropriate for the administration of this section, including procedures to be used in the negotiation and execution of contracts pursuant to this section and procedures to be followed by those who utilize collection services under such contracts.

(4) For purposes of this section, the agencies, firms or individuals with whom contracts are entered under this section shall be known as contracting agents. The ~~attorney general~~ judicial administrator shall publish a list of the contracting agents for use by courts or beneficiaries under orders of restitution who desire to utilize the collection services of such agents.

(5) Each contract entered pursuant to this section shall provide for a fee to be paid to or retained by the contracting agent for collection services. Such fee shall be designated as the cost of collection hereunder, and shall not exceed 33% of the amount collected. The cost of collection shall be paid from the amount collected, but shall not be deducted from the debts owed to courts or restitution. If a contracting agent uses the debt setoff procedures pursuant to K.S.A. 75-6202 et seq., and amendments thereto, to recover debts owed to the courts, the contracting agent's cost of collection for debt recovered through that program shall be the amount established by contract minus the collection assistance fee imposed by the director of accounts and reports of the department of administration pursuant to K.S.A. 75-6210, and amendments thereto.

(d) Judicial districts of the state of Kansas are authorized to utilize the collection services of contracting agents pursuant to this section for the purpose of collecting all outstanding debts owed to courts. Subject to rules and orders of the Kansas supreme court, each judicial district may establish by local rule guidelines for the compromise of court costs, fines, attorney fees and other charges assessed in district court cases.

(e) Any beneficiary under an order of restitution entered by a court after this section takes effect is authorized to utilize the collection services of contracting agents pursuant to this section for the purpose of collecting all outstanding amounts owed under such order of restitution.

(f) Contracts entered hereunder shall provide for the payment of any amounts collected to the clerk of the district court for the court in which the debt being collected originated, after first deducting the collection fee. In accounting for amounts collected from any person pursuant to this section, the district court clerk shall credit the person's amount owed in the amount of the net proceeds collected and shall not reduce the amount owed by any person by that portion of any payment which constitutes the cost of collection pursuant to this section.

(g) With the appropriate cost of collection paid to the contracting agent as agreed upon in the contract hereunder, the clerk shall then distribute amounts collected hereunder as follows:

(1) When collection services are utilized pursuant to subsection (d), all amounts shall be applied against the debts owed to the court as specified in the original judgment creating the debt;

(2) when collection services are utilized pursuant to subsection (e), all amounts shall be paid to the beneficiary under the order of restitution designated to receive such restitution, except where that beneficiary has received recovery from the Kansas crime victims compensation board and such board has subrogation rights pursuant to K.S.A. 74-7312, and amendments thereto, in which case all amounts shall be paid to the board until its subrogation lien is satisfied.

(h) Whenever collection services are being utilized against the same debtor pursuant to both subsections (d) and (e), any amounts collected by a contracting agent shall be first applied to satisfy subsection (e) debts, debts pursuant to an order of restitution. Upon satisfaction of all such debts, amounts received from the same debtor shall then be applied to satisfy subsection (d) debts, debts owed to courts.

The debtor may request an opportunity for hearing in regard to any further setoff in subsequent pay periods by making a written request therefor to the director. Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Almighty Lord and God,
we thank You for this another great day to live and serve the people of Kansas.
It's March Madness time again—both in basketball and in the legislature.
I am sure some are thankful for the early start today for they might be able to watch their team play later.
In basketball, for some of us, our brackets have already been blown.
But we have hope that today both our Kansas teams will come through with victories.
That is what really matters to us.
In the legislature, for some, their bills have already been defeated, but in the work they have yet to do,
there is hope they will come through for the people of Kansas.
That is really what matters to us.
In both arenas today, be with all players—give wisdom, strength to use the gifts and skills
You have given to each one, and may everything be played and accomplished for Your honor and glory.
In Christ's Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Boldra.

I, KRIS KOBACH, Secretary of State of the State of Kansas, do hereby certify that Gregory Lewis was appointed by the Governor effective March 23, 2015, for the unexpired term One-Hundred Thirteenth District of the Kansas House of Representatives, to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Basil Dannebohm, and was administered the following oath of office on March 23, 2015.

State of Kansas
County of Shawnee}SS.

I, Gregory Lewis, do solemnly swear, or affirm, that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of Kansas, and will faithfully discharge the duties of the office of Kansas House of Representatives, District 113, so help me God.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name and cause to be affixed my official seal this 23rd day of March, A.D. 2015.

The roll was called with 124 members present.
Rep. Kelley was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

God in heaven,
 Thank You for this beautiful day and a new week that promises to be a busy one.
 May we not be shocked at what lies ahead nor shocked by potential controversy.
 In all our discussion and debate help us to speak kind words and avoid harsh words that may shock others.
 Help us to be encouraging to one another, not shocking or provoking.
 Help us to work together to keep composure.
 None of us are shocked about the decisions that are to be made.
 Nor will we be shocked when You grant wisdom, direction and common sense to each one.
 May we not be shocked at the outcome of our work as some may have been shocked of the outcome of a game yesterday.
 Lord, I know this prayer does not come as a shock to You, nor is it shocking to You that I would pray this in Your Name,
 Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Curtis.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Hibbard are spread upon the Journal:

I have with me today the 2015 Class 2A State Scholars Bowl Champions from Yates Center. This is the second year in a row that the Wildcats have brought home the championship trophy from the state meet. Members of the team are: Rhett Stratman, Andrew Pringle, Drake Busted, Hayden Splechter, Charles Hess, Mikey Bruner, and their teacher and coach, Collette Jacobs.

I feel very positive about the quality of education we are providing in the 13th District. There is no doubt that every teacher and administrator these young people have been in contact with throughout their academic upbringing have had a part in making this award possible.

Congratulations to this team and to the Yates Center School District.

Rep. Hibbard presented a framed House certificate to the team and coach.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Rooker are spread upon the Journal:

Today I am proud to recognize the Boys 6A High School State Football Champions, the Shawnee Mission East Lancers. With me today are Head Coach Dustin Delaney, Assistant Coach Chip Ufford, Senior Team Members Gunnar England, Clark Doerr, Will Oakley, Alec Dean, Jackson Gossick, Sam Huffman, Kyle Ball, Sam Pottenger, James Wooldridge, Tyler Maxwell, Jackson Lovelace, and Principal John McKinney. I am pleased to recognize the team for bringing home the first state football championship in our 56-year school history. This achievement is a testament not just to skill on the gridiron, but also the many benefits of high school activities have on character development. Among this group we have 22 academic honor award winners, and 9 Eagle Scouts. The team engaged in a variety of community service projects such as landscape work for Hope House, working at the Harvesters Food Pantry and reading to elementary school students in our district. Through it all they learned the value of teamwork, grit and determination. Their run at the championship began last year when they made it to the final game based on a season of improbable Hail Mary plays, and late conversions. They learned never to give up on themselves, and to believe in the power of perseverance. This year, their 13-0 championship season hinged on a gutsy double overtime 2 point conversion in the semi-final game. Please join me in honoring the 2014 6A State Football Champion Shawnee Mission East Lancers.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Swanson are spread upon the Journal:

Today I would like to introduce Robert Moran, head coach of the Clay Center High School Tigers volleyball team as well as high school Counselor and Athletic Director. Coach Vince Lombardi once said, "The quality of a person's life is in direct proportion to their commitment to excellence, regardless of their chosen field of endeavor. Coach Moran is a quality coach, a quality counselor and a quality person but today we are recognizing him as the 2014 class 4A division 2 Volleyball Coach of the Year. His coaching career spans 20 years, 15 at the high school level with a record of 371 wins and 170 losses. Coach Moran attributed a hard-working core of senior girls who played together through middle school and high school as the key to winning the class 4A -Division 2 State Volleyball Championship.

Accompanying Coach Moran are Seniors Macey Dieckman, Emily Ebert, Mack Edmundson, Macy Franson, Kelsey Jones, Amanda Roth and Lorren Williams, Juniors Courtney Hammel, and Hannah Swihart and Sophomores Megan Blake, Samantha Carson, Taylor Humphrey, and Lauren Lane. The hard work and discipline these girls demonstrate on the court is also evident in the classroom. The cumulative grade point average of these 13 young ladies is 3.84. Incidentally many (all) of these girls were also members of the CCCHS basketball team which placed third at the State Tournament this year.

Please join me in congratulating Kansas Coach of the Year, Robert Moran, and the Clay Center Community High School State Volleyball Championship team.

Rep. Swanson presented a framed House certificate to the team and coach.

FORTY-EIGHTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, March 24, 2015, 10:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Mast in the chair.
The roll was called with 125 members present.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Lord God,
Once again we come before You and thank You for the good day You have given us.
Help us all to redeem our time and appreciate deeply the good You provide.
Lord, as we enter into the last few days before break and the work load and decisions that are to be made increase, remind our leaders that the tasks ahead of them are never as great as the power behind them.
As they work together,
help them to lean on each other's strengths, and forgive each other's weaknesses.
Remind each one that freedom is not the right to do as they please, but the liberty to do as they ought.
And help them to realize that when they have done all what they can,
You will do what they can't.
In Christ's Name I pray,
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Concannon.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: Kansas has a moral obligation to support its citizens when they have fallen on hard times. I oppose SB 154 because it abandons that obligation by limiting the maximum weekly unemployment insurance benefit available to a Kansas worker. Instead of prioritizing the needs of Kansas families, it prioritizes profits and a result the Employment Security Trust Fund will be depleted by more than $165 million over the next year. I strongly oppose the bill because it devalues and demeans the dignity of Kansans worked hard and have fallen on hard times. – TOM BURROUGHS

MR. SPEAKER: I was elected to protect the well-being of the state and it is for that reason that I cannot, in good conscience, vote in favor SB 154. A reduction of employers' contributions to the Employment Security Trust Fund will reduce the fund by more than $165 million over the next year. In the event of a financial crisis, it exposes Kansas to fiscal distress and there are no mechanisms to recover such funds. This was proven true In 2009, when the state was forced to borrow money from the federal government, and will prove, true again if the number of unemployment claims rises. – RODERICK HOUSTON, CAROLYN BRIDGES, BRODERICK HENDERSON, HAROLD LANE, JOHN ALCALA, GAIL FINNEY, KATHY WOLFE MOORE, BARBARA BALLARD, NANCY LUSK, STAN FROWN FELTER, PAM CURTIS, LOUIS RUIZ, JOHN WILSON, ED TRIMMER

MR. SPEAKER: I am voting against SB 154 because it harms Kansas families when they are most vulnerable. It limits the ability of Kansans, who have lost their jobs due to unfortunate circumstances, to provide for their family by setting a maximum weekly unemployment insurance benefit. The cap does not account for an individual's weekly salary or increase with the cost of living. This makes it clear that hard working Kansans are not a priority and I will not support the bill. – ANNIE KUETHER, VALDENIA WINN, ANNIE TIETZE, TOM SAWYER, PONKA-WE VICTORS

Journal of the House

FORTY-NINTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, March 25, 2015, 8:30 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Mast in the chair.

The roll was called with 124 members present.

Rep. Kelley was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Present later: Rep. Kelley.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Sean A. Phillips, Chaplain (Major), US Army, First Infantry Division, Fort Riley:

As your faith permits, I invite you to pray with me. Almighty God, my heart is filled with gratitude for this opportunity to call upon you while representing this humble, yet august gathering of legislators. While we who bravely fight and decisively win our nation's battles do so in austere conditions, these men and women labor no less bravely under conditions few dare to engage.

Their responsibilities seem enormous to me – to discern right from wrong and good from evil, bringing a sense of fairness and justice to nearly three million Kansans. Their task is to make Kansas the best state in the nation to call home. So I humbly ask for personal courage to step boldly into their various roles; for harmony in their families and relationships as they endure the stressors of public service; and for constituents who support their noble efforts.

Walk closely with them today, O God. May we all know your loving presence, for in these tasks there is no mission too difficult and no sacrifice too great. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Doll.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I am voting no on HB 2391 because the state of Kansas cannot afford the consequences. Several of the grants the state receives from the federal government require the state employees administering them to be classified. Declassifying such employees risks losing vitally necessary federal funds during a time when Kansas is facing one the largest budget deficits in its history. — PONKA-WE VICTORS, JOHN ALCALA, BRODERICK HENDERSON

MR. SPEAKER: It is with great certainty that I vote NO on HB 2391. The needs of Kansans are not partisan, and its employment practices shouldn't be either. By nature, classified employees are insulated from partisan and political pressures. Changing their classified status removes such protections and risks reverting state employment practices to a political patronage system rather than a merit-based system. The state deserves the best possible employees, regardless of their political affiliation or beliefs.-- TOM SAWYER, STAN FROWNVELTER, ED TRIMMER, KATHY WOLFE MOORE, PAM CURTIS, JOHN WILSON, BARBARA BALLARD, TOM BURROUGHS

MR. SPEAKER: A hundred years ago the Republican Party led the campaign to eradicate corruption, cronyism, nepotism and favoritism from state employment and fought for a merit-based civil service system. Today we take the first step in dismantling the legacy of honest, open government that has been left to us by our predecessors. I regret that we have taken one more step in our long march back to the nineteenth century. I vote no on HB 2391. — DENNIS “BOOG” HIGHBERGER, JIM WARD, CAROLYN BRIDGES, JOHN CARMICHAEL, JARROD OUSLEY

MR. SPEAKER: The conversion from classified to unclassified positions in the Regents system took place on each campus independently after the employees had months to deliberate and then vote on whether their campus would make the change. As the effects of these changes have been evaluated reviews are mixed but encouraging. HB2391 takes a different approach to conversion which I believe is heavy handed and basically unfair. At a time when we should be affirming dedicated state employees this bill does the opposite. I vote no on HB 2391. — DON HILL

H Sub for SB 36, AN ACT concerning the department of health and environment; creating the local conservation lending program, was considered on final action.

"New Sec. 15. (a) Sections 15 through 20 shall be known and may be cited as the gun violence restraining order act.

(b) As used in the gun violence restraining order act:

(1) "Gun seizure warrant" means a court order regarding a person who is subject to a gun violence restraining order and who is known to own or possess one or more firearms, rifles or shotguns that directs a law enforcement officer to seize any firearms, rifles or shotguns in the possession of the person and to bring the unloaded firearms, rifles or shotguns before the judge issuing the order; and

(2) "gun violence restraining order" means a court order prohibiting a person from purchasing, owning, possessing or controlling a firearm, rifle or shotgun for a period of up to one year.

New Sec. 16. (a) Any person may file a petition with the court setting forth the facts and circumstances necessitating the issuance of a gun violence restraining order. The court may prescribe the manner and form of the petition. A gun violence restraining order shall be issued to prohibit a person from possessing a firearm, rifle or shotgun if an affidavit, signed by the petitioner under oath, and any additional information provided to the court demonstrates to the satisfaction of the court that the person poses a significant risk of personal injury to himself or others by possessing a firearm, rifle or shotgun.

(b) In determining whether to issue a gun violence restraining order, the court may examine under oath the petitioner and any witnesses the petitioner produces. In determining whether grounds for a gun violence restraining order exists, the court shall consider all of the following:

- (1) Any recent threat or act of violence by the person directed toward others;
- (2) any recent threat or act of violence by the person directed toward himself;
- (3) any recent violation of a restraining order; and
- (4) any conviction for a crime involving a weapon under the Kansas criminal code.

(c) In determining whether grounds for a gun violence restraining order exists, the court may consider any of the following:

- (1) The reckless use, display or brandishing of a firearm, rifle or shotgun by the person;
- (2) the history of use, attempted use or threatened use of physical force by the person against another person;
- (3) any prior arrest of the person for a felony offense;
- (4) any history of a violation by the person of a protection order issued under the protection from abuse act, K.S.A. 60-3101 et seq., and amendments thereto;
- (5) evidence of recent or ongoing abuse of alcohol or a controlled substance or controlled substance analog, as such terms are defined in K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 21-5701, and amendments thereto; or
- (6) evidence of recent acquisition of a firearm, rifle, shotgun or other deadly weapon.

(d) The affidavit shall set forth the facts establishing the grounds of the petition or probable cause for believing that such grounds exist. In lieu of a written affidavit, the court may take an oral statement under oath. If the court finds that the grounds of the petition exist or that there is probable cause to believe in its existence, the court shall issue a gun violence restraining order.

- (e) A gun violence restraining order shall include:
  - (1) A statement of the grounds asserted for the order;
  - (2) the date and time the order expires;
  - (3) the address of the court for the county in which the restrained party resides;
- and
  - (4) a statement to the restrained person stating:
    - (A) The time and date that the order expires;
    - (B) that the person shall not own, possess, purchase or receive or attempt to purchase or receive a firearm, rifle or shotgun while such order is in effect;
    - (C) that the person is entitled to submit one written request for a hearing at any time during the effective period of the order for an order permitting the person to own, possess, purchase, or receive a firearm, rifle or shotgun;
    - (D) that the person may seek legal advice from an attorney as to any matter connected with the order; and
    - (E) that if legal advice is sought, the attorney should be consulted promptly so that the attorney may assist the person in any matter connected with the order.
  - (f) When serving a gun violence restraining order, the law enforcement officer shall inform the person that such person may submit one written request for a hearing pursuant to section 18, and amendments thereto, at any time during the effective period of the order and provide such person with a form to request the hearing.

New Sec. 17. (a) If there is probable cause to believe that a person who has been issued a gun violence restraining order possesses or owns a firearm, rifle or shotgun, the court shall issue a gun seizure warrant to the appropriate law enforcement officer directing the officer to seize any specified firearm, rifle or shotgun and to retain such firearm, rifle or shotgun subject to the order of the court. A gun seizure warrant shall be issued upon probable cause, supported by an affidavit, naming or describing with reasonable specificity the facts and circumstances justifying the court order and listing any firearm, rifle or shotgun to be seized under the court order. A firearm, rifle or shotgun described in the gun seizure warrant may be taken from any place or from any person in whose possession the firearm, rifle or shotgun may be.

(b) When a law enforcement officer takes property under a gun seizure warrant, the officer shall give a receipt for the property taken, specifying such property in detail, to the person from whom the property was taken. In the absence of such person, the officer shall leave the receipt in the place where the property was found. If the location to be searched during the execution of a gun seizure warrant is jointly occupied by multiple parties, and a firearm, rifle or shotgun located during the execution of a gun seizure warrant is owned by a person other than the person in the gun seizure warrant, the firearm, rifle or shotgun shall not be seized if such firearm, rifle or shotgun is stored in a manner such that the person named in the gun seizure warrant does not have access to or control of the firearm, rifle or shotgun, and there is no evidence of unlawful possession of the firearm, rifle or shotgun by the owner.

(c) If the location to be searched during the execution of a gun seizure warrant is jointly occupied by multiple parties, and a gun safe owned by a person other than the person named in the gun seizure warrant is located therein, the contents of the gun safe shall not be searched, except in the owner's presence or with the owner's consent, or unless a valid search warrant has been obtained.

New Sec. 18. (a) Except as provided in subsection (c), no later than 14 days after the execution of a gun violence restraining order and a gun seizure warrant, if applicable, the court that issued the gun violence restraining order and gun seizure warrant shall hold a hearing to determine whether the person who is the subject of the order may possess, own, purchase or receive a firearm, rifle or shotgun and, when applicable, whether a seized firearm, rifle or shotgun shall be returned to the person named in the warrant.

(b) At the hearing, the state shall have the burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence that the person poses a significant risk of personal injury to themselves or others by owning or possessing a firearm, rifle or shotgun. If, at the hearing, the person is found to pose a significant risk of personal injury to themselves or others by purchasing, owning, possessing or controlling a firearm, rifle or shotgun, such firearm, rifle or shotgun seized under the gun seizure warrant shall be retained by the law enforcement agency for a period not to exceed one year. The person shall be prohibited from purchasing, owning, possessing or controlling a firearm, rifle or shotgun for a period not to exceed one year. If the court finds that the state has not met the required standard of proof, the firearm, rifle or shotgun seized under the gun seizure warrant shall be returned to the person. If the person is prohibited by law from purchasing, owning, possessing or controlling a firearm, rifle or shotgun for a period of one year or more by any other provision of state or federal law, a hearing under this section shall not be required and the court shall issue an order to hold the firearm, rifle or shotgun until either the person is no longer prohibited from owning a firearm, rifle or shotgun or the law enforcement agency disposes of the firearm, rifle or shotgun to a properly licensed federal firearms dealer. If any other person claims title to a firearm, rifle or shotgun seized under the gun seizure warrant, the firearm, rifle or shotgun shall be returned to the lawful owner.

(c) A person who is the subject of a court order under this section may submit one written request at any time during the effective period of the order for a hearing for an order permitting the person to possess, own, purchase or receive a firearm, rifle or shotgun. The request shall be submitted in a form and manner as prescribed by the court.

New Sec. 19. (a) If a law enforcement agency has probable cause to believe that a person subject to a gun violence restraining order continues to pose a significant risk of personal injury to themselves or others by purchasing, owning, possessing or controlling a firearm, rifle or shotgun, the law enforcement agency may initiate a request for a renewal of the order, setting forth the facts and circumstances necessitating the request. The request shall be submitted in a form and manner as prescribed by the court.

(b) A hearing held under this section shall be held in the same court that issued the initial order to determine if a request for renewal of the order shall be issued. The person named in the gun violence restraining order shall be given written notice and an opportunity to be heard.

(c) The court may, upon its own motion or upon request of another person, issue a renewal of a gun violence restraining order when there is probable cause to believe that a person subject to the order continues to pose a significant risk of personal injury to themselves or others by purchasing, owning, possessing or controlling a firearm, rifle or shotgun after written notice to the person named in the restraining order and after the person was given an opportunity for a hearing.

New Sec. 20. (a) When a law enforcement officer is at the scene of a domestic violence incident involving a threat to human life or a physical assault, is serving a protection from abuse order issued under the protection from abuse act, K.S.A. 60-3101 et seq., and amendments thereto, or is serving a gun violence restraining order under the gun violence restraining order act, section 15 et seq., and amendments thereto, such officer shall take temporary custody of any firearm or other deadly weapon in plain sight or discovered under a consensual or other lawful search as necessary for the protection of the law enforcement officer or other persons present if the law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that an act of domestic violence has occurred.

(1) Provide to the owner of the firearm or other deadly weapon information on the process for retaking possession of the firearm or other deadly weapon; and

(2) provide for the safe storage of the firearm or other deadly weapon during the pendency of any proceeding related to the alleged act of domestic violence.

(c) Within 14 days of the conclusion of a proceeding on the alleged act of domestic violence, the owner of the firearm or other deadly weapon may retake possession of the firearm or other deadly weapon unless otherwise ordered under law to surrender the firearm or other deadly weapon.

27 of chapter 23 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto, or K.S.A. 38-1101 et seq., and amendments thereto. Orders previously issued in an action filed pursuant to K.S.A. 60-1601 et seq., prior to their transfer or repeal, or article 22 or 27 of chapter 23 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto, or K.S.A. 38-1101 et seq., and amendments thereto, shall be subject to modification under the protection from abuse act only as to those matters subject to modification by the terms of K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 23-3201 through 23-3207 and 23-3218 and article 27 of chapter 23 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto, and on sworn testimony to support a showing of good cause. Any inconsistent order entered pursuant to this subsection shall be specific in its terms, reference the protection from abuse order and parts thereof being modified and a copy thereof shall be filed in both actions. The court shall consider whether the actions should be consolidated in accordance with K.S.A. 60-242, and amendments thereto. Any custody or parenting time order, or order relating to the best interests of a child, issued pursuant to the revised Kansas code for care of children or the revised Kansas juvenile justice code, shall be binding and shall take precedence over any such custody or parenting order involving the same child issued under the protection from abuse act, until jurisdiction under the revised Kansas code for care of children or the revised Kansas juvenile justice code is terminated. Any inconsistent custody or parenting order issued in the revised Kansas code for care of children case or the revised Kansas juvenile justice code case shall be specific in its terms, reference any preexisting protection from abuse order and the custody being modified, and a copy of such order shall be filed in the preexisting protection from abuse case.

(d) If the parties to an action under the protection from abuse act are not married to each other and one party owns the residence or household, the court shall not have the authority to grant possession of the residence or household under subsection (a)(2) to the exclusion of the party who owns it.

(e) Subject to the provisions of subsections (b), (c) and (d), a protective order or approved consent agreement shall remain in effect until modified or dismissed by the court and shall be for a fixed period of time not to exceed one year, except as provided in subsection (e)(1) and (e)(2).

(1) Upon motion of the plaintiff, such period may be extended for one additional year.

(2) Upon verified motion of the plaintiff and after the defendant has been personally served with a copy of the motion and has had an opportunity to present evidence and cross-examine witnesses at a hearing on the motion, if the court determines by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant has violated a valid protection order or (A) has previously violated a valid protection order, or (B) has been convicted of a person felony or any conspiracy, criminal solicitation or attempt thereof, under the laws of Kansas or the laws of any other jurisdiction which are substantially similar to such person felony, committed against the plaintiff or any member of the plaintiff's household, the court shall extend a protective order for not less than two additional years and may extend the protective order up to the lifetime of the defendant. No service fee shall be required for a motion filed pursuant to this subsection.

(f) The court may amend its order or agreement at any time upon motion filed by either party.

(g) Any order entered under the protection from abuse act shall include notice to the defendant that section 16, and amendments thereto, prohibits the defendant from possession of a firearm for the duration of the protective order.

~~(g)~~ (h) No order or agreement under the protection from abuse act shall in any manner affect title to any real property.

~~(h)~~ (i) If a person enters or remains on premises or property violating an order issued pursuant to subsection (a)(2), such violation shall constitute criminal trespass as defined in ~~subsection (a)(1)(C) of~~ K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 21-5808(a)(1)(C), and amendments thereto, and violation of a protective order as defined in K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 21-5924, and amendments thereto. The bill passed.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on SB 95. Our focus on abortion today and over the past decade is the wrong focus. We need to put our time, energy, and focus on preventing unintended pregnancies. A focus on abortion is easy. A focus on prevention is harder – but worth it. What would the state look like if the same groups pushing this bill directed their time, talent, money and members towards policies that are proven to reduce unintended pregnancies and policies that give kids what they need to become happy, healthy, and successful adults. – JOHN WILSON

MR. SPEAKER: I vote yes on SB 95. However, to be frank, it leaves a foul smell in my nostrils, a bitter taste in my mouth and a queasy feeling in my stomach. I object to only passing incremental legislation which sends a subliminal message, that it is okay to kill an unborn human being, just don't do it this way. I look forward to the day we end the killing of the unborn and appeal to all pro-life organizations to either support a PERSONHOOD constitutional amendment or at the least remain neutral as other pro-lifers attempt to end abortion. – RANDY GARBER, PETE DEGRAAF, KEVIN JONES, VIRGIL PECK, JR., TONY BARTON, MIKE KIEGERL, RANDY POWELL, JOHN BRADFORD, WILLIE DOVE

MR. SPEAKER: Abortion is a legal medical procedure in Kansas with the intent that it be well-regulated and safe. SB 95 takes away a physician's right to choose what is often deemed the safest procedure to terminate a pregnancy during the second trimester. Putting a woman at risk for infection, uterine rupture, and possible death is a tragic overreach in an attempt to impose one moral ideology on all women. As a physician, I vote NO on SB 95. – BARBARA BOLLIER

MR. SPEAKER: Kansas already has the most restrictive policies on abortions, and this bill would further regulate a woman's right to make independent decisions about her body. I am voting NO on SB 95 because it places unnecessary constraints on women's healthcare, and limits a doctor's ability to provide safe abortions. By prohibiting this procedure, Kansas will remove a scientifically proven means of terminating a pregnancy that are proven to be one of the safest options for women. – CAROLYN BRIDGES

MR. SPEAKER: Abortion is a choice best made between a woman, her doctor, and her

God. I am voting NO on SB 95 because it unnecessarily places the government between a woman and her right to make an independent healthcare decision. I am also gravely concerned about the consequences of the bill because there are no exceptions for rape and incest. It is for these reasons that I vote NO on SB 95. – GAIL FINNEY, HAROLD LANE, JARROD OUSLEY, PONKA-WE VICTORS

MR. SPEAKER: SB 95 establishes a dangerous legal precedent in the state of Kansas, and therefore I am voting NO. The bill risks unnecessarily criminalizing Kansas healthcare providers and exposing them to baseless or politically motivated prosecution. This bill also raises serious constitutional concerns and will likely be challenged, forcing the state to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars in court costs. In a time when Kansas faces a several million dollar revenue shortfall taxpayers need us to prioritize fiscal solutions, rather than exposing the state to the legal consequences of this bill. – TOM SAWYER, BARBARA BALLARD, BRODERICK HENDERSON, DENNIS “BOOG” HIGHBERGER, RODERICK HOUSTON, SYDNEY CARLIN, PAM CURTIS, LOUIS RUIZ

Mr. Speaker: Yesterday, we talked about the horrible method of putting animals down with carbon dioxide. Some of the animals cry, cough, and bleed. We heard it is “inhumane”. Today I have to ask is it “humane” to rip apart babies? Jeremiah 1:5 says, “Before I formed you in the womb I knew you.” We have heard very little about the babies. And that is what they are, “babies”. I want to speak for the babies today. I voted and supported SB 95, but we should also be working to protect all “little persons” and pass a personhood amendment to our constitution. – Joseph B. Scapa

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: I vote no on HB 2087 because the bill is poorly drawn and arguably allows Federal Firearm Licensees to disregard laws applicable to other businesses, such as zoning laws. I support neither favoritism towards, nor discrimination against, gun dealers and believe they should be subject to the same laws applicable to any other business. I therefore reluctantly vote no on HB 2087. – JOHN CARMICHAEL

SB 45, AN ACT concerning firearms; relating to the carrying of concealed firearms; relating to the personal and family protection act; amending K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 21-5914, 21-6301, 21-6302, 21-6308, 21-6309, 32-1002, 75-7c01, 75-7c03, 75-7c04, 75-7c05, 75-7c10, 75-7c17, 75-7c20 and 75-7c21 and repealing the existing sections; also repealing K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 75-7c19, was considered on final action.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on SB 45 because as a gun owner, and concealed carry permit holder, I strongly support the right to keep and bear arms; but rights carry responsibilities, the responsibility to learn and practice gun safety and to learn and know the laws regarding use of deadly force. The bill endangers Kansas law enforcement officers who in the dark of night, often alone, confront armed individuals with concealed weapons. Without a concealed carry permit officers must treat these individuals as criminals until proven otherwise. Because the bill endangers the public safety I vote no on SB 45. – JOHN CARMICHAEL

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on SB 45, not because I believe most gun owners are a risk to society, but because the training currently required to receive a concealed carry permit prepares people to safely handle their weapon, especially in a crisis situation; educates about existing self-defense laws; and permits law enforcement officers to add an additional charge against criminals. I supported unsuccessful amendments to reduce the cost of permits, thereby encouraging more people to take the training, and, with a court order, for law enforcement officers to temporarily remove firearms from suicidal persons and persons threatening violence against another. – TOM SLOAN, BARBARA BOLLIER, MELISSA ROOKER, STEPHANIE CLAYTON, DON HILL, TOM MOXLEY, SUSIE SWANSON, LINDA GALLAGHER

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on SB 45 because concealed carry licenses ensure that certain core public safety standards are preserved when people are carrying hidden, loaded guns in public places. Local law enforcement officials have urged this body to oppose the measure because it eliminates such standards and allows almost anyone to carry a concealed gun. The current licensing process is responsible public policy that provides the necessary training and background checks—we should not abolish it. – HAROLD LANE, TOM BURROUGHS, MIKE KIEGERL

MR. SPEAKER: I'm voting NO on SB 45 because it dismantles Kansas' permit requirement for concealed carry. As a proponent of the Second Amendment I am in favor of common sense gun laws, but allowing anyone to carry a gun without adequate training or a background check threatens the safety of our communities. SB 45 would weaken restrictions on who can carry a concealed, loaded gun under Kansas law—to include people with criminal histories and people who have never handled a handgun before. Removing permit requirements is bad public policy, and I do not support it. – ED TRIMMER, VALDENIA WINN, ANNIE TIETZE, GAIL FINNEY, BRODERICK HENDERSON, CAROLYN BRIDGES, SYDNEY CARLIN, JARROD OUSLEY, PAM CURTIS

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on SB 45 because this bill goes too far and too fast in removing important and well-considered concealed carry gun policies. I hope we will join West Virginia, Minnesota, Mississippi & Utah in rejecting this type of bill. It will allow people who have never handled a gun before to carry hidden, loaded firearms in public without any training or background check. Supporting the second amendment isn't enough. We must commit to preventing gun violence and promoting gun safety—issues on which we should all be able to agree. – JOHN WILSON

MR. SPEAKER: As legislators, we have taken an oath to uphold the constitution of Kansas and the United States. SB 45 helps to re-align our constitutional rights to keep and bear arms, a right that is not to be infringed. Unfortunately, we have become conditioned to accept licensing, fees, mandatory classes, and other such restrictions. Government must trust law abiding and responsible citizens. This right does carry great personal responsibility. My strong exhortation to those choosing to exercise this right is to responsibly learn how to use this tool when availing yourself of your constitutional right to keep and bear arms. I vote yes on SB 45. – STEVEN R. BRUNK, JOSEPH SCAPA

MR. SPEAKER: My vote in opposition to SB 45 is not a vote against the second amendment. It is a vote in support of our law enforcement and the job they do. I respect their willingness to protect and to serve. The second amendment deals with a well-regulated militia as well as the right to bear arms. I believe having sensible regulations to carry concealed gives a little more safety to our law enforcement who are willing to put their life on the line for others. They deserve our respect. I vote no on SB 45. – PEGGY MAST

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on SB 45 because as a gun owner, and concealed carry permit holder, I strongly support the right to keep and bear arms; but rights carry responsibilities, the responsibility to learn and practice gun safety and to learn and know the laws regarding use of deadly force. The bill endangers Kansas law enforcement officers who in the dark of night, often alone, confront armed individuals with concealed weapons. Without a concealed carry permit officers must treat these individuals as criminals until proven otherwise. Because the bill endangers the public safety, I vote no on SB 45. – CHUCK SMITH

MR. SPEAKER: In 2010, voters overwhelmingly underscored the basic personal unalienable right guaranteed under the state and federal constitutions, that individuals have the right to bear arms for the defense of self, family, home and state and any other lawful purpose. Law abiding Kansans should not require permission from their government to exercise this Constitutional freedom. Government must trust its citizens to exercise personal responsibility while Kansans that choose to carry concealed without a license are accountable for their actions. I vote yes on SB 45. – MARK A. KAHR

MR. SPEAKER: I vote yes on SB 45. Law-abiding citizens who carry firearms are exercising their constitutional right to bear arms and their natural right to defend themselves and their families. In 2006, Kansas passed Conceal and Carry and our citizens have proven trustworthy with no incidences related to this legislation. In addition, the empirical evidence provided by other states with either no training or limited training requirements indicates similar success. Therefore Kansans, like numerous other states' citizenry, are both ready and capable of responsibly handling the benefits provided by Constitutional Carry. – KRISTEY WILLIAMS, STEVEN ANTHIMIDES

SB 252, AN ACT concerning crimes and punishment; relating to unlawful abuse of toxic vapors; amending K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 21-5712 and repealing the existing section, was considered on final action.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on HB 2095. Borrowing and creating new debt to cover old debt is not fiscally responsible and does not resolve the state's systemic revenue problem. Inevitably Kansas will have to invest more money to meet its obligations to future retirees. Additionally, lowering the actuarial liability threatens the solvency of the system. It is time that Kansas makes common sense fiscal policies a priority and it starts by voting against HB 2095. – SYDNEY CARLIN, BRODERICK HENDERSON, CAROLYN BRIDGES, LOUIS RUIZ.

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on HB 2095 because it will cause long term damage to KPERS. Issuing bonds to cover such a large debt makes as much financial sense as using one credit card to pay off another. This will help cover the budget deficit in the short term, but eventually the debt will have to be paid off with interest. Kansas' public employees deserve better from this body, so I vote no. — PAM CURTIS, STAN FROWNFELTER, DENNIS “BOOG” HIGHBERGER, JARROD OUSLEY, RODERICK HOUSTON, JOHN ALCALA, HAROLD LANE

MR. SPEAKER: This bill is proposed as a way to move KPERS towards actuarial soundness. However the Governor's Budget Report states that “under the proposal, proceeds of the bonds would be used to help reduce future employer contribution rates.” That does nothing to help KPERS. Having maxed out the KDOT credit card we are now applying for a new KPERS credit card. That is neither conservative nor responsible government. We continue to deceive ourselves and the people of Kansas about the true cost of state government and push that cost off on future legislatures and Kansas citizens. I vote no on HB 2095. — DON HINEMAN, BARBARA BOLLIER, RUSS JENNINGS, LINDA GALLAGHER, MELISSA ROOKER, STEPHANIE CLAYTON, TOM SLOAN, JOHN DOLL, STEVEN R. BECKER, TOM MOXLEY

MR. SPEAKER: I vote No to HB 2095. Placing an additional 1,500,000,000.00 ($1.5 billion) of debt on current and future Kansans is unconscionable. We already have a plan in place to cover the unfunded liability. We should stay the course with that plan and not kick the can down the road.

The $89 million annual payment over the next 30 years will total over $2.65 Billion, which is $1.15 billion above the original amount bonded. — VIRGIL PECK, JR., KEVIN JONES

SB 240, AN ACT concerning the banking code; relating to the state bank commissioner; amending K.S.A. 9-519, 9-520, 9-536, 9-542, 9-701, 9-801, 9-802, 9-803, 9-804, 9-806, 9-808, 9-809, 9-811, 9-812, 9-901a, 9-902, 9-903, 9-904, 9-905, 9-906, 9-907, 9-908, 9-909, 9-910, 9-911, 9-912, 9-1101a, 9-1102, 9-1107, 9-1111b, 9-1112, 9-1116, 9-1119, 9-1122, 9-1123, 9-1124, 9-1125, 9-1127a, 9-1127b, 9-1127c, 9-1130, 9-1132, 9-1133, 9-1137, 9-1138, 9-1201, 9-1204, 9-1205, 9-1207, 9-1213, 9-1214, 9-1301, 9-1304, 9-1403, 9-1405, 9-1501, 9-1502, 9-1503, 9-1504, 9-1505, 9-1506, 9-1602, 9-1603, 9-1604, 9-1607, 9-1609, 9-1611, 9-1612, 9-1701, 9-1708, 9-1709, 9-1712, 9-1714, 9-1715, 9-1716, 9-1717, 9-1719, 9-1720, 9-1724, 9-1807, 9-1901, 9-1902, 9-1902a, 9-1903, 9-1905, 9-1906, 9-1907, 9-1908, 9-1909, 9-1910, 9-1915, 9-1916, 9-2001, 9-2002, 9-2005, 9-2006, 9-2007, 9-2008, 9-2010, 9-2011, 9-2012, 9-2013, 9-2014, 9-2016, 9-2018, 9-2101, 9-2102, 9-2103 and 9-2104 and K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 9-532, 9-533, 9-534, 9-535, 9-1101, 9-1104, 9-1111, 9-1114, 9-1140, 9-1215, 9-1401, 9-1402, 9-1407, 9-1408, 9-1601, 9-1702, 9-1703, 9-1704, 9-1713, 9-1721, 9-1722, 9-1805, 9-2004, 9-2107, 9-2108, 9-2111, 39-709 and 44-314 and repealing the existing sections; also repealing K.S.A. 9-514, 9-515, 9-516, 9-517, 9-518, 9-523, 9-538, 9-539, 9-702, 9-703, 9-807, 9-810, 9-813, 9-1101b, 9-1103, 9-1105, 9-1106, 9-1108, 9-1109, 9-1110, 9-1111d, 9-1113, 9-1301a, 9-1507, 9-1605, 9-1606, 9-1608, 9-1610, 9-1705, 9-1710, 9-1711, 9-1718, 9-1723, 9-1802, 9-1803, 9-1808, 9-1904, 9-1912, 9-1914, 9-1914a, 9-2003, 9-2009, 9-2015, 9-2017 and 9-2105 and K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 9-805, 9-1118, 9-1135, 9-1139, 9-1216, 9-1303, 9-1706, 9-1707, 9-1801, 9-1804 and 9-2106, was considered on final action.

FIFTIETH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Monday, March 30, 2015, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 119 members present.

Reps. Edmonds and Sutton were excused on verified illness.

Reps. Anthimides, Estes, Hedke and Kelley were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Loving God,
Thank You for this beautiful Spring day and the privilege we have to enjoy it.
Today we begin what promises to be a very busy week as our leaders finish considering all the bills for this session.
For many, it is also Holy Week, a time when we contemplate and remember the way Your love played out for us.
On this Monday of Holy Week,
Your Word tells us that Jesus cursed the fig tree which had the pretense of fruit, but bore no fruit.
In other words, the tree gave promise without performance.
In all the decisions that need to be made today and the rest of the week, help our leaders to work hard and diligently so as to bear fruit, not just show a pretense of fruit, and to perform on their promises to their constituents.
To do this, they need Your guidance, strength, wisdom and grace.
In Christ's Name I pray,
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Frownfelter.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Lewis O. Smith, Sr., pastor, Manhattan First Free Methodist Church, and guest of Rep. Barker:

Gracious Father, I come before your throne of grace, mercy, love, forgiveness and salvation giving thanks, praise and glory unto your Holy name.

I thank you God for these dedicated men and women who are willing to serve on behalf of the people of this great State of Kansas and I pray that as they make decisions concerning the health, welfare and safety of the people of Kansas that they will seek your guidance and wisdom Lord.

Father God, I pray that you will surround our Governor, our State Senators and our State Representatives. Bestow upon each of them wisdom to make the right decision that indeed comes from you Gracious Father.

Gracious Father, throughout the years you have given us the strength and resources to build nice towns and cities throughout this great State unto which these men and women of this legislative body represent. Grant us the humility and wisdom to acknowledge that we cannot build enduringly unless we give honor, praise and glory to your Holy name Father God.

Give unto each of these State Senators, State Representatives and Governor of the State of Kansas an awareness of the many people in all walks of life who rely upon them to serve the common welfare of the people of this State, who trust them to do what is right and beneficial for the people throughout the State of Kansas.

Share with us the vision that God has given these men and women who are dedicated to serving God and their respective communities.

Let not the still, small voice of conscience be stifled by the loud demands of the selfish, nor by the harsh utterance of the heartless. Save us God from violence, discord, and confusion, from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way.

Father God may these men and women who have been elected to serve defend our liberties. Let our strength become a blessing to the weak, and let our resources be at the command of all who are worthy, regardless of class, creed, race, sexual orientation and national origin.

May we labor together that all may see our faces as set toward thee Lord as brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus.

We ask this in the Name of Christ Jesus, who presence is in every street, in every home and in all our affairs. In Jesus' precious and glorious name. Amen.

FIFTY-SECOND DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, April 1, 2015, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 120 members present.

Rep. Edmonds was excused on verified illness.

Reps. Claeys, Goico, Sloan and Winn were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

God in Heaven,
Thank You for this day and Your new mercies that You give to us each new day.
In dealing with finances, Proverbs cautions us “to be sure we know the condition of our flocks, and to give careful attention to our herds;
for riches do not endure forever, and a crown is not secure for all generations.”
We are also reminded in Your Word “that if we want to build a tower, we should sit down first and estimate the cost to see if we have enough money to complete it.”
During this time of budget deliberations, give our leaders wisdom and an accurate understanding of the needs of the people of this state.
And teach all of us to use our talents and abilities in ways that are honorable, just and of benefit to others.
I pray this in Christ’s Name,
Amen.
(Proverbs 27:23-24; Luke 14:28)

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Waymaster.

(a) For the purpose of financing a portion of the unfunded actuarial pension liability of the Kansas public employees retirement system, the Kansas development finance authority is hereby authorized to issue one or more series of revenue bonds under the Kansas development finance authority act in an amount necessary to provide a deposit or deposits to the Kansas public employees retirement system in a total amount not to exceed $1,000,000,000 plus all amounts required to pay the costs of issuance of the bonds, including any credit enhancement, interest costs and to provide any required reserves for the bonds. No bonds shall be issued until such issuance has been approved by a resolution of the state finance council. The principal amount, interest rates and final maturity of such revenue bonds and any bonds issued to refund such bonds or parameters for such principal amount, interest rates and final maturity shall be approved by a resolution of the state finance council, except that, for any one or more series of revenue bonds issued pursuant to this section, such interest rate, all inclusive cost, shall not exceed 5%. The bonds, and interest thereon, issued pursuant to this section shall be payable from moneys appropriated by the state for such purpose. The bonds, and interest thereon, issued pursuant to this section shall be obligations only of the authority and in no event shall such bonds constitute an indebtedness or obligation of the Kansas public employees retirement system or an indebtedness or obligation for which the faith and credit or any assets of the system are pledged. Neither the state nor the department of administration shall have the power to pledge the full faith and credit or taxing power of the state for debt service on any bonds issued pursuant to this section, and any payment by the department for such purpose shall be subject to and dependent on appropriations by the legislature. Any obligation of the state or the department for payment of debt service on bonds issued pursuant to this section shall not be considered a debt or obligation of the state for the purpose of section 6 of article 11 of the constitution of the state of Kansas.

(b) As used in this section, "unfunded actuarial pension liability" means the unfunded actuarially accrued liability of the state for the state of Kansas' and participating employers', under K.S.A. 74-4931, and amendments thereto, portion of such liability of the Kansas public employees retirement system, determined as of the later of December 31, 2013, or the end of the most recent calendar year for which an actuarial valuation report is available and certified to the Kansas development finance authority by the executive director of the Kansas public employees retirement system.

(c) (1) The authority may pledge the contract or contracts authorized in subsection (d), or any part thereof, for the payment or redemption of the bonds, and covenant as to the use and disposition of moneys available to the authority for payment of the bonds. The authority is authorized to enter into any agreements necessary or desirable to effectuate the purposes of this section.

(2) The proceeds from the sale of the bonds, other than refunding bonds, issued pursuant to this section, after payment of any costs related to the issuance of such bonds, shall be paid by the authority to the Kansas public employees retirement system to be applied to the payment, in full or in part, of the unfunded accrued pension liability as directed by the Kansas public employees retirement system.

(3) The state hereby pledges and covenants with the holders of any bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of this section that it will not limit or alter the rights or powers vested in the authority by this section, nor limit or alter the rights or powers of the authority, the department of administration or the Kansas public employees retirement system, in any manner which would jeopardize the interest of the holders or any trustee of such holders or inhibit or prevent performance or fulfillment by the authority, the department of administration or the Kansas public employees retirement system with respect to the terms of any agreement made with the holders of the bonds or agreements made pursuant to this section, except that the failure of the legislature to appropriate moneys for any purpose shall not be deemed a violation of this pledge and covenant. The department of administration is hereby specifically authorized to include this pledge and covenant in any agreement with the authority. The authority is hereby specifically authorized to include this pledge and covenant in any bond resolution, trust indenture or agreement for the benefit of holders of the bonds.

(4) Revenue bonds may be issued pursuant to this section without obtaining the consent of any department, division, commission, board or agency of the state, other than the approvals of the state finance council required by this section, and without any other proceedings or the occurrence of any other conditions or other things other than those proceedings, conditions or things which are specifically required by the Kansas development finance authority act.

(d) The department of administration and the authority are authorized to enter into one or more contracts to implement the payment arrangement that is provided for in this section. The contract or contracts shall provide for payment of the amounts required to be paid pursuant to this section and shall set forth the procedure for the transfer of moneys for the purpose of paying such moneys. The contract or contracts shall contain such terms and conditions, including principal amount, interest rates and final maturity, as shall be approved by resolution of the state finance council and shall include, but not be limited to, terms and conditions necessary or desirable to provide for repayment of and to secure any bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this section.

(e) The approvals by the state finance council required by subsections (a) and (d) are hereby characterized as matters of legislative delegation and subject to the guidelines prescribed in K.S.A. 75-3711(c), and amendments thereto. Such approvals may be given by the state finance council when the legislature is in session.

Sec. 2. K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 74-4914d is hereby amended to read as follows: 74-4914d. Any additional cost resulting from the normal retirement date and retirement before such normal retirement date for security officers as provided in K.S.A. 74-4914c, and amendments thereto, and disability benefits as provided in K.S.A. 74-4914e, and amendments thereto, shall be added to the employer rate of contribution for the department of corrections as otherwise determined under K.S.A. 74-4920, and amendments thereto, except that the employer rate of contribution for the department of corrections including any such additional cost added to such employer rate of contribution pursuant to this section shall in no event exceed the employer rate of contribution for the department of corrections for the immediately preceding fiscal year by more than the following amounts expressed as a percentage of compensation upon which security officers contribute during the period: (a) For the fiscal year commencing in calendar years 2010 through 2012, an amount not to exceed more than 0.6% of the amount of the immediately preceding fiscal year; (b) for the fiscal year commencing in calendar year 2013, an amount not to exceed more than 0.9% of the amount of the immediately preceding fiscal year; (c) for the fiscal year commencing in calendar year 2014, an amount not to exceed more than 1% of the amount of the immediately preceding fiscal year; (d) for the fiscal year commencing in calendar year 2015, the employer rate of contribution shall be 10.91%, except that if bonds issued pursuant to section 1, and amendments thereto, have debt service payments that are fully or partially financed through the use of capitalized interest, or have capitalized interest-only debt service payments, the employer rate of contribution shall be an amount not to exceed more than 1.1% of the amount of the immediately preceding fiscal year; and (e) for the fiscal year commencing in calendar year 2016, the employer rate of contribution shall be 10.81%, except that if bonds issued pursuant to section 1, and amendments thereto, have debt service payments that are fully or partially financed through the use of capitalized interest, or have capitalized interest-only debt service payments, the employer rate of contribution shall be an amount not to exceed more than 1.2% of the amount of the immediately preceding fiscal year; and (f) in each subsequent calendar year, an amount not to exceed more than 1.2% of the amount of the immediately preceding fiscal year. As used in this section, "capitalized interest" means interest payments on the bonds that are pre-funded or financed from bond proceeds as part of the issue for a specified period of time in order to offset one or more initial debt service payments.

Sec. 3. K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 74-4920 is hereby amended to read as follows: 74-4920. (1) (a) Upon the basis of each annual actuarial valuation and appraisal as provided for in ~~subsection (3)(a) of~~ K.S.A. 74-4908(3)(a), and amendments thereto, the board shall certify, on or before July 15 of each year, to the division of the budget in the case of the state and to the agent for each other participating employer an actuarially determined estimate of the rate of contribution which will be required, together with all accumulated contributions and other assets of the system, to be paid by each such participating employer to pay all liabilities which shall exist or accrue under the system, including amortization of the actuarial accrued liability as determined by the board. The board shall determine the actuarial cost method to be used in annual actuarial valuations, to determine the employer contribution rates that shall be certified by the board. Such certified rate of contribution, amortization methods and periods and actuarial cost method shall be based on the standards set forth in ~~subsection (3)(a) of~~ K.S.A. 74-4908(3)(a), and amendments thereto, and shall not be based on any other purpose outside of the needs of the system.

(b) (i) For employers affiliating on and after January 1, 1999, upon the basis of an annual actuarial valuation and appraisal of the system conducted in the manner provided for in K.S.A. 74-4908, and amendments thereto, the board shall certify, on or before July 15 of each year to each such employer an actuarially determined estimate of the rate of contribution which shall be required to be paid by each such employer to pay all of the liabilities which shall accrue under the system from and after the entry date as determined by the board, upon recommendation of the actuary. Such rate shall be termed the employer's participating service contribution and shall be uniform for all participating employers. Such additional liability shall be amortized as determined by the board. For all participating employers described in this section, the board shall determine the actuarial cost method to be used in annual actuarial valuations to determine the employer contribution rates that shall be certified by the board.

(ii) The board shall determine for each such employer separately an amount sufficient to amortize all liabilities for prior service costs which shall have accrued at the time of entry into the system. On the basis of such determination the board shall annually certify to each such employer separately an actuarially determined estimate of the rate of contribution which shall be required to be paid by that employer to pay all of the liabilities for such prior service costs. Such rate shall be termed the employer's prior service contribution.

(2) The division of the budget and the governor shall include in the budget and in the budget request for appropriations for personal services the sum required to satisfy the state's obligation under this act as certified by the board and shall present the same to the legislature for allowance and appropriation.

(3) Each other participating employer shall appropriate and pay to the system a sum sufficient to satisfy the obligation under this act as certified by the board.

(4) Each participating employer is hereby authorized to pay the employer's contribution from the same fund that the compensation for which such contribution is made is paid from or from any other funds available to it for such purpose. In lieu of levying the tax authorized in this subsection, any taxing subdivision may pay such costs from any employee benefits contribution fund established pursuant to K.S.A. 12-16,102, and amendments thereto. Each participating employer which is not by law authorized to levy taxes as described above, but which prepares a budget for its expenses for the ensuing year and presents the same to a governing body which is authorized by law to levy taxes as described above, may include in its budget an amount sufficient to make its contributions under this act which may be in addition to all other taxes authorized by law. Such governing body to which the budget is submitted for approval, may levy a tax sufficient to allow the participating employer to make its contributions under this act, which tax, together with any other fund available, shall be sufficient to enable the participating employer to make the contributions required by this act.

(5) (a) The rate of contribution certified to a participating employer as provided in this section shall apply during the fiscal year of the participating employer which begins in the second calendar year following the year of the actuarial valuation.

(b) (i) Except as specifically provided in this section, for fiscal years commencing in calendar year 1996 and in each subsequent calendar year, the rate of contribution certified to the state of Kansas shall in no event exceed the state's contribution rate for the immediately preceding fiscal year by more than 0.2% of the amount of compensation upon which members contribute during the period.

(ii) Except as specifically provided in this subsection, for the fiscal years commencing in the following calendar years, the rate of contribution certified to the state of Kansas and to the participating employers under K.S.A. 74-4931, and amendments thereto, shall in no event exceed the state's contribution rate for the immediately preceding fiscal year by more than the following amounts expressed as a percentage of compensation upon which members contribute during the period: (A) For the fiscal year commencing in calendar years 2010 through 2012, an amount not to exceed more than 0.6% of the amount of the immediately preceding fiscal year; (B) for the fiscal year commencing in calendar year 2013, an amount not to exceed more than 0.9% of the amount of the immediately preceding fiscal year; (C) for the fiscal year commencing in calendar year 2014, an amount not to exceed more than 1% of the amount of the immediately preceding fiscal year; (D) for the fiscal year commencing in calendar year 2015, the employer rate of contribution shall be 10.91%, except that if bonds issued pursuant to section 1, and amendments thereto, have debt service payments that are fully or partially financed through the use of capitalized interest, or have capitalized interest-only debt service payments, the employer rate of contribution shall be an amount not to exceed more than 1.1% of the amount of the immediately preceding fiscal year; ~~and~~ (E) for the fiscal year commencing in calendar year 2016, the employer rate of contribution shall be 10.81%, except that if bonds issued pursuant to section 1, and amendments thereto, have debt service payments that are fully or partially financed through the use of capitalized interest, or have capitalized interest-only debt service payments, the employer rate of contribution shall be an amount not to exceed more than 1.2% of the amount of the immediately preceding fiscal year; and (F) in each subsequent calendar year, an amount not to exceed more than 1.2% of the amount of the immediately preceding fiscal year. As used in this subsection, "capitalized interest" means interest payments on the bonds that are pre-funded or financed from bond proceeds as part of the issue for a specified period of time in order to offset one or more initial debt service payments.

(14) The board with the advice of the actuary may fix the contribution rates for participating employers joining the system after one year from the first entry date or for employers who exercise the option contained in K.S.A. 74-4912, and amendments thereto, at rates different from the rate fixed for employers joining within one year of the first entry date.

(15) Employer contributions shall in no way be limited by any other act which now or in the future establishes or limits the compensation of any member.

(16) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, each participating employer shall remit quarterly, or as the board may otherwise provide, all employee deductions and required employer contributions to the executive director for credit to the Kansas public employees retirement fund within three days after the end of the period covered by the remittance by electronic funds transfer. #### EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on SB 228. This body has repeatedly been warned that bonding a portion of KPERS is a bad financial investment, and yet we are ignoring those warnings and voting to do so. This bill pushes the cost of KPERS onto future generations of Kansans as a means to fill a revenue hole that was created when this House voted in favor of the Governor's economic experiment. The legislature has already nearly bankrupted KDOT, and I fear that KPERS may face the same future.

— CAROLYN BRIDGES, TOM SAWYER, JOHN WILSON

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on SB 228. Borrowing and creating new debt to cover old debt is not sound fiscal policy and does not solve the state's systemic revenue problem. Bonding over $1 billion of the unfunded actuarial liability of KPERS is the equivalent of gambling with state employee's pensions – there is no guarantee that the risk will pay off. State employees work hard for our state, and it past time that this body make them a priority. — TOM BURROUGHS, HAROLD LANE, JOHN ALCALA, GAIL FINNEY, NANCY LUSK, BRANDON WHIPPLE, PAM CURTIS, ED TRIMMER

FIFTY-THIRD DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, April 2, 2015, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Mast in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.

Rep. Edmonds was excused on verified illness.

Rep. Sloan was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Rep. Kleeb was excused later in the day on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Dan Rhoades, senior pastor, First Baptist Church, Louisburg, and guest of Rep. Vickrey:

Almighty God, As we gather here today we thank you for the privilege of living in this country and in the great state of Kansas. We thank you for the beauty of a Kansas sunset, the waving wheat fields, the rolling flint hills, and the vast prairies of western Kansas. We have some beautiful sites in this place we call home, but what really makes Kansas great is the people that live here.

We thank you for all the men and women who have dedicated themselves to serving our state. We thank you for those who serve others: our state representatives, senators, governor and lieutenant governor, our US Congress and Senate representatives, our police departments, sheriff departments, highway patrol; for those serving our great state in the Armed Services, our fire departments; our teachers and all involved in education; and the medical personnel who are there in some of our greatest times of need. Thank you for those who serve in positions that we forget to say thank you to... our workers who keep our roadways safe from the sign holder to the snow plow driver. Help us to be grateful for this great state that we call home and for all of our neighbors.

Today as decisions are being made for our state, we pray that you will grant wisdom to our leaders. We thank you for these, our leaders, who are representing the ordinary citizen. Help them to seek that which is best for our state. Be with all who are here today. Be the light in the darkness, strength when we are weak, and our hope in the midst of despair. May the burdens of each be lightened as they share their workload together. May they experience personal peace and joy from this work that they have been commissioned to perform.

Bless our leaders. I ask all of this in Jesus' Name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Ruiz.

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send five enrolled copies of this resolution to Representative Patton.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Patton and Finney are spread upon the Journal:

Remarks of Rep. Patton:

Parkinson's Disease Awareness Month was first proclaimed by the Kansas House in 2013. Celebrating its third consecutive year, it is my honor, along with Representative Finney, to sponsor this important resolution.

Each year, the resolution has been coordinated by J. Basil Dannebohm. In the summer of 2012, Dannebohm was diagnosed with Young Onset Parkinson's Disease. Since that time, he has been an advocate for Parkinson's disease research, treatment and awareness. In 2015, he briefly served in the Kansas House of Representatives, representing the 113th District, until such time as he resigned due to health complications. Former Representative Dannebohm joins us here today and I am happy to welcome him back to the Capitol.

Also joining us is Lisa Reser from Ellinwood, Kansas. Mrs. Reser is a fifth grade teacher suffering from Parkinson's disease. Though she faces the daily challenges of living with the disease, from the time she started her career as a child care provider to the present day as an educator, Lisa has been committed to the well-being of Kansas children for more than 25 years.

Our final guest is my mother-in-law, Bobbie Sowards, who suffers from Parkinson's disease. It is my sincere honor to have her attend today as we bring attention to this awful disease.

Remarks of Rep. Finney:

Parkinson's disease is a progressive neurological disorder that affects nearly one million people in the United States. In 2005, an estimated 5,500 Kansans suffered from Parkinson's Disease. By 2012, that number had increased to an estimated 9,000 Kansans. Although promising research is being conducted, there is currently no cure for or definitive cause of Parkinson's disease.

We are mindful of those who struggle and pledge our support and encouragement to them in their fight against this terrible disease. On behalf of Representative Patton and myself, I'd like to thank this legislative body for your support of Parkinson's Disease Awareness Month.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

On emergency motion of Rep. Houston, HR 6023, by Reps. Houston and Finney, as follows, was introduced and adopted:

HR 6023—A RESOLUTION recognizing Storytime Village, Inc. for its work to give young Kansas children the opportunity for a better future through literacy.

A RESOLUTION recognizing Storytime Village, Inc. for its work to give young Kansas children the opportunity for a better future through literacy.

WHEREAS, Storytime Village, Inc. has worked since 2009 to help Kansas children from birth to age eight thrive through partnerships that provide early childhood development, family engagement around reading and access to books; and reading level, while 80% of Hispanic children and 83% of African-American fourth graders in Kansas scored below the "proficient" reading level. With the support of parents and the help of many dedicated volunteers, Storytime Village, Inc. inspires children, regardless of their socioeconomic background, race or gender to read by providing them with free books and literacy resources. Storytime Village, Inc. is currently the only nonprofit organization based in Kansas that focuses exclusively on children's literacy: Now, therefore,

WHEREAS, According to a 2013 study conducted by the National Kids Count Data Center, 56% of Caucasian fourth graders in Kansas scored below the "proficient"

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we recognize Storytime Village, Inc. for its work to give young Kansas children the opportunity for a better future through literacy; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send enrolled copies of this resolution to Prisca Barnes, Founder and CEO of Storytime Village, Inc., Representative Houston and Representative Finney.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Houston are spread upon the Journal:

Today is Literacy Day at the Capitol and Rep. Finney and myself are here today with a two-fold purpose: One is to celebrate International Children's Book Day, which is an annual event held on April 2: which is also the birth date of Hans Christian Andersen, the famous author who wrote some classic fairytales such as the "Little Mermaid," "The Snow Queen," "The Ugly Duckling," "The Nightingale" and many more. The celebration is sponsored by the International Board on Books for Young People (IBBY) with the goal to "inspire a love of reading and to call attention to children's books."

I think we would all agree that books open new worlds of possibilities for children and taking the time and making the investment into our children's education ,when they are young helps them to be more prepared for what the future will bring to them.

Also, we want to welcome Storytime Village, Inc., who with the support of parents and the community, are fostering a lifelong love of reading in underserved Kansas children from birth to age 8." Standing on the ancient African proverb "it takes a village to raise a child", they strive to give every child in Kansas, regardless of their socioeconomic background, race, and/or gender the opportunity for a better future through literacy. Since its inception in 2009, Storytime Village has been dedicated to helping the youngest in our communities thrive through partnerships that provide early childhood development, family engagement fostered through reading, and better access to books.

We would ask that you join me in congratulating Storytime Village, Inc. for their great efforts in reaching out to our communities and helping children through this great program.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on S Sub for HB 2258. In a time when childhood poverty and homelessness is on the rise in Kansas it is not prudent to restrict one of the only lifelines available to combat poverty. Kansans who are receiving assistance have fallen on hard times and are using these programs as a means to merely make ends meet. This legislation only makes it more difficult for Kansans to lift themselves out of poverty. I cannot in good conscience vote for this bill. – CAROLYN BRIDGES, BRODERICK HENDERSON, HAROLD LANE, JOHN ALCALA, GAIL FINNEY, VALDENIA WINN, RODERICK HOUSTON, JARROD OUSLEY, DENNIS “BOOG” HIGHBERGER, STAN FROWNFELETER, PAM CURTIS, ED TRIMMER, TOM BURROUGHS, LOUIS RUIZ, SYDNEY CARLIN, PONKA-WE VICTORS, JOHN WILSON

On motion of Rep. Houser to concur in Senate amendments to HB 2003, Rep. Alcalá offered a substitute motion to nonconcur in Senate amendments and that a conference committee be appointed. The substitute motion prevailed.

Speaker pro tem Mast thereupon appointed Reps. Huebert, Phillips and Alcalá as conferees on the part of the House.

On motion of Rep. Goico, the House nonconcurrred in Senate amendments to HB 2154 and asked for a conference.

Speaker pro tem Mast thereupon appointed Reps. Goico, Osterman and Lane as conferees on the part of the House.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: Everyone who works hard deserves the right to get ahead, which is why I am voting NO on SB 154. This legislation decreases the employer contributions to the Unemployment Insurance Trust Fund and simultaneously limits the maximum weekly unemployment insurance benefit available to a Kansas worker. In doing so, it prioritizes the interests of big business over the needs of middle class and working families. For these reasons, I am voting NO on this unfair and damaging piece of legislation. – CAROLYN BRIDGES, BRODERICK HENDERSON, HAROLD LANE, JOHN ALCALA, GAIL FINNEY, PAM CURTIS, ED TRIMMER, KATHY WOLFE MOORE, DENNIS “BOOG” HIGHBERGER

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Hineman are spread upon the Journal:

We frequently recognize sports teams but seldom do we have the opportunity to recognize a team from far western Kansas due to the travel time involved. So when a team travels four hours to Topeka to be recognized you can be assured there are special circumstances.

This spring the Hoxie High School women’s basketball team won the Kansas State High School Athletics Association Class 1A State Championship for the fourth time in a row. The team is currently riding a win streak of 95 consecutive wins, eclipsing the previous state record of 91 consecutive wins established by Little River from 1995 to 1998. Last fall the University of Connecticut women’s basketball team and the Hoxie High School women’s basketball team both began the 2015-2016 season with identical consecutive win streaks of 73. Connecticut women lost their first game and their streak ended at 73. The Hoxie women went through the season undefeated and carry their remarkable string forward into 2015-2016.

USA Today awarded the Hoxie team the title of Best Women's Basketball Program for 2015, beating out Louisiana's Friendship Capitol and Oklahoma's Deer Creek.

These accomplishments are truly special but perhaps the most impressive of their accomplishments is this: the team gpa is 3.87!

The following team members have received numerous league honors as well as recognition by Wichita Eagle and Topeka Capital Journal: seniors Carly Heim and Lexi Schamberger, junior Terran Hoyt, and sophomores Erin Carter and Brynn Niblock. Other team members are juniors Lara Stephens, Serena McCown, and Kelsey Geerdes, sophomores Nicole Heim, and freshmen Rebekah Castle, Lilly Schamberger, and Brooke Dorencamp.

Coach of the team is Shelly Hoyt and assistant coach is Emily Bogue. Coach Hoyt has also achieved individual honors, having received Coach of the Year recognition from Wichita Eagle, Topeka Capital Journal, Kansas Basketball Coaches Association, and Sports in Kansas.

Please join me in congratulating this team of remarkable student-athletes.

Rep. Hineman presented the team with a House certificate.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Becker are spread upon the Journal:

It is my honor this afternoon to introduce to my legislative family some special students from my school district Buhler USD 313. Joining me at the well is the Buhler Special Olympics basketball team with its volunteer coach and sponsors. Earlier this month the team traveled to the state tournament in Hays, America. The team returned to Buhler with the Special Olympics, Kansas, Level 3-Senior State Basketball Championship.

I would like to recognize the individual team members: Lexi Haugsness, Riley Kloepfner, Haden Nickell, Cormac Pittman, Elizabeth Pittman and Luke Starkey. The coach and sponsors are: Shirleen Augustine, Ray Augustine and Teresa Enneking.

I have invited them to join us this evening for our charity shrimp peel and auction, but regretfully they cannot. Therefore I suggest that during our festivities this evening as we bid and purchase we keep these faces in our collective mind and in our heart. Please join me in making these students feel welcome in our House.

Rep. Becker presented a framed House certificate to Coach Augustine.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Francis are spread upon the Journal:

Today I have left on your desk a blue Pinwheel for Prevention, which is a reminder that April is Child Abuse Prevention Month. As I look around this room I know there are many opinions out there but the one that we all can agree on is that we want Kansas Children to grow up safe and happy. Although April is just about over, I hope you will wear this pin as a reminder that Kansas children need our continued support not just in April but every day.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Whipple are spread upon the Journal:

Members of the body, colleagues, and friends, it is an honor to welcome back to the Kansas State House chambers the Lady Titans of Wichita South High School. In addition to this athletic accomplishment, the team has an cumulative GPA of 3.25 and every senior has the opportunity to continue their education at no cost.

The members of this year's championship team are Kendrian Elliott, Krissandra Pollard, Trezure Jobe, Mauri Scales, Kyra Ivy, Ericka Mattingly, Destiny Pittman, Kyla Callins, Kirea Rogers, Patriece Dodson, Sydni James and Deionne White. Rep. Whipple presented the coach, players and principal with framed House certificates.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Merrick are spread upon the Journal:

Charlene Swanson is completing her 40th session working for the Kansas state legislature. She started as one of the original Senate File Clerks in the 1976 session and moved to the House Clerk's office the next year. She has performed several functions over the years, but is most recognized as the Chief Journal Clerk, a position she has held for many sessions. She has seen many changes to the way the legislature does business—from typewriters, carbon paper, scissors and tape to full computerization and real time electronic publication. And she keeps me straight when I'm in the chair.

We congratulate and commend Charlene Swanson and thank her for her dedicated service.

On page 1, in line 26, before "allow" by inserting "within the rattlesnake creek subbasin located in hydrologic unit code 11030009,";

On page 11, following line 26, by inserting the following:

"Sec. 6. K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 82a-1604 is hereby amended to read as follows: 82a-1604. (a) The state may participate with a sponsor in the development, construction or renovation of a class I multipurpose small lake project if the sponsor has a general plan which has been submitted to and approved by the chief engineer in the manner provided by K.S.A. 24-1213 and 24-1214, and amendments thereto. If the Kansas water office determines that additional public water supply storage shall be needed in that area of the state within 20 years from the time such project is to be completed and a water user is not available to finance public water supply storage, the state may include future use public water supply storage in the project. The Kansas water office shall apply for a water appropriation right sufficient to insure a dependable yield from the public water supply storage. The Kansas water office shall be exempt from all applicable fees imposed pursuant to K.S.A. 82a-701 et seq., and amendments thereto, for such applications. The Kansas water office shall have authority to adopt rules and regulations relative to the inclusion of public water supply storage in proposed projects under this act and the disposition of state-owned water rights and associated public water supply storage space in such projects.

(b) The sponsor of such class I project shall be responsible for acquiring land rights and for the costs of operation and maintenance of such project. The state may provide up to 50% of the engineering and construction costs and up to 50% of the costs of land rights associated with recreation features. Subject to the provisions of subsections (a) and (c), the state may pay up to 100% of the engineering and construction costs of flood control and public water supply storage. All other costs of such project, including land, construction, operation and maintenance shall be paid by the sponsor.

(c) The state shall not participate in the costs of public water supply storage in a renovation project unless the Kansas water office determines that renovation is the most cost effective alternative for such storage. The state shall be authorized to pay only up to 50% of the engineering and construction costs of public water supply storage in such a renovation project.

(d) The Kansas water office may recover the state's costs incurred in providing public water supply storage in such class I project, and interest on such costs, by selling such storage and the associated water rights. Interest on such costs shall be computed at

~~a rate per annum which is equal to the greater of: (1) The average rate of interest earned the past calendar year on repurchase agreements of less than 30 days' duration entered into by the pooled money investment board, less 5%; or (2) four percent equal to the average of the monthly net earnings rate for the pooled money investment portfolio for the preceding calendar year for each year of storage.~~

Sec. 7. K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 82a-1605 is hereby amended to read as follows: 82a-1605. In order to provide security to the federal government, the state may grant assignments of water rights, either appropriation rights or water reservation rights; assignments of rights under existing or prospective water purchase contracts; assignments, mortgages or other transfers of interests in real property held by the state and devoted to the specific small lake project for which security is sought; or may provide other security that is permissible under state law and acceptable by the federal government. Instead of contracting to repay costs under long-term contracts, the state may pay all of the required costs of the public water supply storage in a lump sum.

(c) The sponsor of such class II project shall be responsible for acquiring land rights and for the costs of operation and maintenance of such project. The state or federal government may provide up to 50% of the engineering and construction costs and up to 50% of the costs of land rights associated with recreation features. If public water supply storage is included in the project, the sponsor of such class III project shall pay for 100% of the costs associated with the public water supply storage portion of such project unless the Kansas water office determines that additional public water supply storage shall be needed in that area of the state within 20 years from the time such project is to be completed and a sponsor is not available to finance 100% of the costs associated with the public water supply storage, the state may participate in the future use public water supply storage costs of the project. (2) a medical condition where the time frame for completion of a standard external review would seriously jeopardize the life or health of the insured or would jeopardize the insured's ability to regain maximum function; or

(3) a medical condition for which coverage has been denied based on a determination that the recommended or requested health care service or treatment is experimental or investigational, if the insured's treating physician certifies, in writing, that the recommended or requested health care service or treatment for the medical condition would be significantly less effective if not promptly initiated.

(c) "External review organization" means an entity that conducts independent external reviews of adverse decisions pursuant to a contract with the commissioner. Such entity shall ~~have experience serving as the external quality review organization in health programs administered by the state of Kansas, or~~ be a nationally accredited external review organization which utilizes health care providers actively engaged in the practice of their profession in the state of Kansas who are qualified and credentialed with respect to the health care service review. In the event the entity has no Kansas providers available who are qualified and credentialed with respect to the review of any case, the external review organization shall have the discretion to employ health care providers who actively engage in such health care provider's practice outside the state of Kansas.

Sec. 6. K.S.A. 40-2203 is hereby amended to read as follows: 40-2203. (A) Required provisions. Except as provided in paragraph (C) of this section every such policy delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this state shall contain the provisions specified in this subsection in the words in which the same appear in this section, but the insurer, at its option, may substitute for one or more of such provisions corresponding provisions of different wording approved by the commissioner of insurance which are in each instance not less favorable in any respect to the insured or the beneficiary. Such provisions shall be preceded individually by the caption appearing in this subsection or at the option of the insurer, by such appropriate individual or group captions or subcaptions as the commissioner of insurance may approve.

(1) A provision as follows: "Entire contract; changes: This policy, including the endorsement and the attached papers, if any, constitutes the entire contract of insurance. No change in this policy shall be valid until approved by an executive officer of the insurer and unless such approval be endorsed hereon or attached hereto. No agent has authority to change this policy or to waive any of its provisions."

(2) A provision as follows: "Time limit on certain defenses: (a) After two years from the date of issue of this policy no misstatements, except fraudulent misstatement, made by the applicant in the application for such policy shall be used to void the policy or to deny a claim for loss incurred or disability (as defined in the policy) commencing after the expiration of such two-year period."

The foregoing policy provision shall not be so construed as to affect any legal requirement for avoidance of a policy or denial of a claim during such initial two year period, nor to limit the application of subsections (B) (1), (2), (3), (4) and (5) in the event of misstatement with respect to age or occupation or other insurance.

A policy which the insured has the right to continue in force subject to its terms by the timely payment of premium (1) until at least age 50, or (2) in the case of a policy issued after age 44, for at least five years from its date of issue, may contain in lieu of the foregoing the following provision (from which the clause in parentheses may be omitted at the insurer's option) under the caption "Incontestable": "After this policy has been in force for a period of two years during the lifetime of the insured (excluding any period during which the insured is disabled), it shall become incontestable as to the statements contained in the application.

(b) "No claim for loss incurred or disability (as defined in the policy) commencing after two years from the date of issue of this policy shall be reduced or denied on the ground that a disease or physical condition not excluded from coverage by name or specific description effective on the date of loss has existed prior to the effective date of coverage of this policy."

(3) A provision as follows: "Grace period: A grace period of _____" (insert a number not less than "7" for weekly premium policies, "10" for monthly premium policies and "31" for all other policies) "days will be granted for the payment of each premium falling due after the first premium, during which grace period the policy shall continue in force." A policy which contains a cancellation provision may add, at the end of the above provision, "subject to the right of the insurer to cancel in accordance with the cancellation provision hereof." A policy in which the insurer reserves the right to refuse any renewal shall have, at the beginning of the above provision, "Unless not less than five days prior to the premium due date the insurer has delivered to the insured or has mailed to the last address as shown by the records of the insurer written notice of its intention not to renew this policy beyond the period for which the premium has been accepted."

(4) A provision as follows: "Reinstatement: If any renewal premium be not paid within the time granted the insured for payment, a subsequent acceptance of premium by the insurer or by any agent duly authorized by the insurer to accept such premium without requiring in connection therewith an application for reinstatement shall reinstate the policy. If the insurer or such agent requires an application for reinstatement and issues a conditional receipt for the premium tendered, the policy will be reinstated upon approval of such application by the insurer or, lacking such approval, upon the 45th day following the date such conditional receipt unless the insurer has previously notified the insured in writing of its disapproval of such application. The reinstated policy shall cover only loss resulting from such accidental injury as may be sustained after the date of reinstatement and loss due to such sickness as may begin more than ten days after such date. In all other respects the insured and insurer shall have the same rights thereunder as they had under the policy immediately before the due date of the defaulted premium, subject to any provisions endorsed hereon or attached hereto in connection with the reinstatement. Any premium accepted in connection with a reinstatement shall be applied to a period for which premium has not been previously paid, but not to any period more than 60 days prior to the date of reinstatement." The last sentence of the above provision may be omitted from any policy which the insured has the right to continue in force subject to its terms by the timely payment of premiums (1) until at least age 50 or, (2) in the case of a policy issued after age 44, for at least five years from its date of issue.

(5) A provision as follows: "Notice of claim: Written notice of claim must be given to the insurer within 20 days after the occurrence or commencement of any loss covered by the policy, or as soon thereafter as is reasonably possible. Notice given by or on behalf of the insured or the beneficiary to the insurer at _____" (insert the location of such office as the insurer may designate for the purpose), "or to any authorized agent of the insurer, with information sufficient to identify the insured, shall be deemed notice to the insurer." In a policy providing a loss-of-time benefit which may be payable for at least two years, an insurer may at its option insert the following between the first and second sentences of the above provisions: "Subject to the qualification set forth below, if the insured suffers loss of time on account of disability for which indemnity may be payable for at least two years, he shall, at least once in every six months after having given notice of claim, give to the insurer notice of continuance of said disability, except in the event of legal incapacity. The period of six months following any filing of proof by the insured or any payment by the insurer on account of such claim or any denial of liability in whole or in part by the insurer shall be excluded in applying this provision. Delay in the giving of such notice shall not impair the insured's right to any indemnity which would otherwise have accrued during the period of six months preceding the date on which such notice is actually given.

(6) A provision as follows: "Claim forms: The insurer, upon receipt of a notice of claim, will furnish to the claimant such forms as are usually furnished by it for filing proofs of loss. If such forms are not furnished within 15 days after the giving of such notice the claimant shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of this policy as to proof of loss upon submitting within the time fixed in the policy for filing proofs of loss, written proof covering the occurrence, the character and the extent of the loss for which claim is made."

(7) A provision as follows: "Proofs of loss: Written proof of loss must be furnished to the insurer at its said office in case of claim for loss for which this policy provides any periodic payment contingent upon continuing loss within 90 days after the termination of the period for which the insurer is liable and in case of claim for any other loss within 90 days after the date of such loss. Failure to furnish such proof within the time required shall not invalidate nor reduce any claim if it was not reasonably possible to give proof within such time, provided such proof is furnished as soon as reasonably possible and in no event, except in the absence of legal capacity, later than one year from the time proof is otherwise required."

(8) A provision as follows: "Time of payment of claims: Indemnities payable under this policy for any loss other than loss for which this policy provides any periodic payment will be paid immediately upon receipt of due written proof of such loss. Subject to due written proof of loss, all accrued indemnities for loss for which this policy provides periodic payment will be paid _____" (insert period for payment which must not be less frequently than monthly) "and any balance remaining unpaid upon the termination of liability will be paid immediately upon receipt of due written proof."

(9) A provision as follows: "Payment of claims: Indemnity for loss of life will be payable in accordance with the beneficiary designation and the provisions respecting such payment which may be prescribed herein and effective at the time of payment. If no such designation or provision is then effective, such indemnity shall be payable to the estate of the insured. Any other accrued indemnities unpaid at the insured's death, at the option of the insurer, may be paid either to such beneficiary or to such estate. All other indemnities will be payable to the insured." The following provisions, or either of them, may be included with the foregoing provision at the option of the insurer: "If any indemnity of this policy shall be payable to the estate of the insured, or to an insured or beneficiary who is a minor or otherwise not competent to give a valid release, the insurer may pay such indemnity, up to an amount not exceeding $_____" (insert an amount which shall not exceed $1,000), "to any relative by blood or connection by marriage of the insured or beneficiary who is deemed by the insurer to be equitably entitled thereto. Any payment made by the insurer in good faith pursuant to this provision shall fully discharge the insurer to the extent of such payment. Subject to any written direction of the insured in the application or otherwise all or a portion of any indemnities provided by this policy on account of hospital, nursing, medical, or surgical services may, at the insurer's option and unless the insured requests otherwise in writing not later than the time of filing proofs of such loss, be paid directly to the hospital or person rendering such services; but it is not required that the service be rendered by a particular hospital or person."

(10) A provision as follows: "Physical examinations and autopsy: The insurer at its own expense shall have the right and opportunity to examine the person of the insured when and as often as it may reasonably require during the pendency of a claim hereunder and to make an autopsy in case of death where it is not forbidden by law."

(11) A provision as follows: "Legal actions: No action at law or in equity shall be brought to recover on this policy prior to the expiration of 60 days after written proof of loss has been furnished in accordance with the requirements of this policy. No such action shall be brought after the expiration of five years after the time written proof of loss is required to be furnished."

(12) A provision as follows: "Change of beneficiary: Unless the insured makes an irrevocable designation of beneficiary, the right to change of beneficiary is reserved to the insured and the consent of the beneficiary or beneficiaries shall not be requisite to surrender or assignment of this policy or to any change of beneficiary or beneficiaries, or to any other changes in this policy."

The first clause of this provision, relating to the irrevocable designation of beneficiary, may be omitted at the insurer's option.
