Journal of the House

SIXTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, ТОРЕКА, KS, Tuesday, January 16, 2001, 11:00 а.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Glasscock in the chair.

The roll was called with 120 members present.

Reps. Alldritt, Horst, O'Neal, Pottorff and Sloan were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Speaker Glasscock announced the Rev. Canon Helen C. Svoboda-Barber, Grace Episcopal Cathedral, Topeka, will serve as Chaplain of the House for the 2001 session.

Prayer by Chaplain Svoboda-Barber:

A moment of silence was observed for the state trooper who was shot in Pratt. We pray that he may survive and continue his work.

Holy and Gracious God

bless us this day in the remembrance of Martin Luther King.

May we, like him, have the courage to stand up for what is right.

May we, like him, have compassion for the least of those in our society.

And may we, like him, have the voice and the power to move ourselves and others to action for justice, for peace, and to do what is right.

We ask these things in Your name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Wilk.

SPECIAL REMARKS

In observance of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday, Rep. Ballard addressed a few remarks to the members of the House followed by the "I Have A Dream" speech presented by Reps. Ballard, Benlon, Bethell and McKinney which, with no objection, is hereby spread upon the Journal:

I Have a Dream

I say to you today, my friends, that in spite of the difficulties and frustrations of the moment I still have a dream. It is a dream deeply rooted in the American dream.

I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: "We hold these truths to be self-evident; that all men are created equal."

I have a dream that one day on the red hills of Georgia the sons of former slaves and the sons of former slaveowners will be able to sit down together at the table of brotherhood.

I have a dream that one day even the state of Mississippi, a desert state sweltering with the heat of injustice and oppression, will be transformed into an oasis of freedom and justice.

I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character.

I have a dream today.

I have a dream that one day the state of Alabama, whose governor's lips are presently dripping with the words of interposition and nullification, will be transformed into a situation where little black boys and black girls will be able to join hands with little white boys and white girls and walk together as sisters and brothers.

I have a dream today.

I have a dream that one day every valley shall be exalted, every hill and mountain shall be made low, the rough places will be made plains, and the crooked places will be made straight, and the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together.

This is our hope. This is the faith with which I return to the South. With this faith we will be able to hew out of the mountain of despair a stone of hope. With this faith we will be able to transform the jangling discords of our nation into a beautiful symphony of brotherhood. With this faith we will be able to work together, to pray together, to struggle together, to go to jail together, to stand up for freedom together, knowing that we will be free one day.

This will be the day when all of God's children will be able to sing with new meaning, "My country 'tis of thee, sweet land of liberty, of thee I sing. Land where my fathers died, land of the pilgrim's pride, from every mountainside, let freedom ring."

And if America is to be a great nation this must become true. So let freedom ring from the prodigious hilltops of New Hampshire. Let freedom ring from the mighty mountains of New York. Let freedom ring from the heightening Alleghenies of Pennsylvania!

Let freedom ring from the snowcapped Rockies of Colorado!

Let freedom ring from the curvaceous peaks of California!

But not only that; let freedom ring from Stone Mountain of Georgia!

Let freedom ring from Lookout Mountain of Tennessee!

Let freedom ring from every hill and molehill of Mississippi. From every mountainside, let freedom ring.

When we let freedom ring, when we let it ring from every village and every hamlet, from every state and every city, we will be able to speed up that day when all of God's children, black men and white men, Jews and Gentiles, Protestants and Catholics, will be able to join hands and sing in the words of the old Negro spiritual, "Free at last! Free at last! Thank God Almighty, we are free at last!"
