

Journal of the House

TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, February 19, 2003, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Mays in the chair.
The roll was called with 123 members present.
Rep. Toelkes was excused on verified illness.
Rep. Sawyer was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Chamberlain:

Almighty God, Creator of all that we survey and of the boundless expanse of space that lies beyond our seeing. In the midst of the vastness of creation, your love reaches out and focuses on the people of this small planet, for you Lord are the God of all things great and small.

We are not lost to you against the backdrop of infinite space. Our struggles, griefs, pains and needs are not too small to escape your care and blessing. Our hopes, dreams and prayers are not too small to go unnoticed or unanswered.

Lord, help us to see the great things in the small things. Help us to see the blessing in our challenges and your grace in our moments of failure. Let us, with you, celebrate all of your creation and all of its people, for in it and them we glimpse your divine love and our hope. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. McLeland.

SPECIAL REMARKS

There being no objection, the following remarks by Rep. Wilson are spread upon the Journal:

Thank you Mr. Speaker. Today, in conjunction with Representatives Gatewood, Grant, Feuerborn, Light, Tafanelli, J. Williams and Speaker Mays, all alumni of Pittsburg State University, I am pleased to welcome to the Hall of Representatives five distinguished guests.

Joining us today are representatives of each facet of University life in Pittsburg: Dr. Tom Bryant, the President of Pittsburg State University; Janelle Huppe, the President of the PSU

Student Government Association; Dr. Ellen Carson, the president of the University faculty senate; Kathy Bernard, the president of the University Classified Employee Senate; and Major General Retired Jack Strukel of Topeka and formerly of Girard representing the alumni of the University.

Mr. Speaker, these five distinguished guests join us today to commemorate the 100 year birthday of our University in southeastern Kansas. Kansas, and in particular the southeastern part of the state, was given a great and lasting gift by this legislative body a hundred years ago when enabling legislation was passed to form what is recognized today as Pittsburg State University.

Pitt State has been through many changes over the years, and the alumni of our university have achieved in great measure. Southeast Kansas has grown and our economy stabilized thanks to the University...in fact, Pittsburg State University is often referred to as the engine that drives the economic train in southeastern Kansas.

Mr. Speaker, these alumni are here today to thank us on behalf of our predecessors for their foresight in creating Pittsburg State University. I think it only appropriate for our House to thank them for their hard work and dedication to the youth of this state and nation by passing the resolution before us today.
