Prayer by Chaplain Chamberlain:

Almighty God, from whom all things come, from whom nothing is hidden, for whom we long and in whom we find true comfort, we praise you this day.
We praise you for the Sabbath just completed. We praise you for our opportunity to worship and rest. We praise you for the hope that a new week brings. We praise you for the possibilities that lie before us and the unwritten pages of our lives that we will discover as we walk through each day.
Lead on, O King Eternal. Walk before us as you walked before the Hebrew children. Guide us through the wilderness. Protect us by thy might. And lead us to be a land rich with the promises of freedom, justice, mercy, blessing and opportunity for all your children. Bless those in leadership and power with an abundant measure of the wisdom that comes from on high and the humility to lead according to your will and not human desire. In all things, grant us your grace, for apart from it we are lost. Hear our prayer, great God of Power and Might. Amen.
