

Journal of the House

TWELFTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, January 28, 2004, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Mays in the chair.
The roll was called with 125 members present.

Prayer by Chaplain Chamberlain:

God of wisdom and love, we acknowledge our faith and our trust in you as we stand before you today. There are so many needs before us. There are so many ways in which our communities and our state could live more fully in your will. There are so many hard choices to be made with so many unseen and unintended consequences. Were it not for our confidence in your guidance and in the providence of your will, we would fear doing anything.

Lord, guide us as we decide today which roads we will take, which choices we will make and which votes we will cast. Grant us your wisdom to know when to act and when to refrain from acting, when to listen and when to shake the dust from our feet and move on and when to speak and when to remain silent. May our every action this day meet the high standard of your calling upon us and may we experience the joy of walking in your will as we listen, speak and act together. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Ostmeyer.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution was introduced and read by title:

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 6011—

By Representatives Mays and McKinney

A RESOLUTION celebrating the 50th anniversary of the United State Supreme Court's decision in Brown v. Board of Education.

WHEREAS, On May 17, 1954, in an unanimous order the United States Supreme Court issued its decision overturning the earlier doctrine of "separate but equal" schools in Plessy v. Ferguson and declared that "in the field of public education 'Separate but Equal' has no place. Separate educational facilities are inherently unequal." On May 17, 2004, the 50th anniversary of this decision, the National Park Service will have its grand opening of the new Brown v. Board of Education National Historic Site located in the former Monroe School in Topeka; and

WHEREAS, It is indeed ironic that 100 years before this historic decision the Kansas Territory, which became known as Bleeding Kansas because of the struggle which ultimately saw Kansas enter the union as a free state, would be the forum for the integration of African-Americans in our public schools; and

WHEREAS, The Brown case was initiated and organized by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) who recruited African-American parents in Topeka for a class action against the local school board. At that time Topeka had four segregated schools as permitted by state law for cities of more than 15,000 inhabitants. Oliver Brown, pastor of the St. Mark A.M.E. Church in Topeka, was one of the original 13 plaintiffs in the case, and as the only male plaintiff was listed first in the case. The Kansas case was consolidated with four other cases from Delaware, South Carolina, Virginia and the District of Columbia; and

WHEREAS, Attorneys of note involved in the litigation were Charles Scott, Legal Counsel for the Topeka NAACP, Charles Houston, former Dean of the Howard University School of Law and counsel for the NAACP, and Thurgood Marshall, who was hired by Dean Houston to represent the NAACP and who argued the case before the Supreme Court; and

WHEREAS, In 1988 the family of the late Oliver Brown established the Brown Foundation for Educational Equity, Excellence and Research in Topeka. Through the untiring efforts of the members of this organization, and with the support of members of the Kansas legislative delegation, the Monroe School was saved from demolition, was purchased by the federal government and in December 1993 was transferred to the National Park Service to be the new Brown v. Board of Education National Historic Site and the first unit of the National Park Service to be named after a court case: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we join with the nation in celebrating the 50th anniversary of the United States Supreme Court's decision in Brown v. Board of Education; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives provide an enrolled copy of this resolution to Cheryl Brown Henderson, President, Brown Foundation, P.O. Box 4862, Topeka, KS 66604.

FINAL ACTION ON BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

Sub. HB 2049. An act concerning district attorneys; relating to the creation of the office of district attorney in certain judicial districts; amending K.S.A. 22a-106 and K.S.A. 2003

Supp. 22a-105 and 22a-107 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

The following resolutions were introduced and read by title:

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 6012—

By Representative Kuether

A RESOLUTION memorializing the Congress of the United States regarding the ongoing problem of identity theft.

WHEREAS, In this technological age more and more citizens are victims of identity theft, an activity in which one individual obtains identifying information about another person and uses it for the financial or other benefit of the deceitful person. Such identifying information may be a person's social security number, bank account numbers or credit card numbers, or information of a personal nature such as date of birth, current address and telephone number; and

WHEREAS, Identity theft ruins lives. People whose identities are stolen may be denied loans, housing, education, job opportunities and may be arrested for crimes they did not commit; and

WHEREAS, A recent survey by the Federal Trade Commission found that 4.6 percent of those surveyed had discovered they had been victims of identity theft of some type, suggesting that in the past year nearly 10 million Americans found they were victims of identity theft. Unfortunately, the victims of identity theft are required to spend considerable time, money and emotional trauma to recover their identity; and

WHEREAS, The various state legislatures, with the assistance and support of the National Conference of State Legislatures, are individually addressing this insidious problem, as has the federal government. Individuals can be more protective of sensitive personal information, and the states may increase penalties and prosecute more cases, but a national initiative is required to abate this cancer in our technological environment: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we memorialize the Congress of the United States to take all necessary steps to reduce the incidents of identity theft; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives provide an enrolled copy of this resolution to the President of the United States, the President pro tem of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives and to each member of the Kansas legislative delegation.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 6013—

By Representatives Lane, Carlin and Kuether

A RESOLUTION memorializing the Congress of the United States to continue to maintain Kansas' military installations.

WHEREAS, We live in a perilous age in which our liberty and that of the free world depends on the ability of the military forces of this nation to thwart those who would destroy our way of life; and

WHEREAS, As the mission of our military has shifted from preparing to fight large land mass battles to stopping world terrorism, the facilities needed to support our military forces are being evaluated to determine those best suited to support the dynamic mission of our military forces; and

WHEREAS, Kansas has long been home to three major military installations, Fort Leavenworth, Fort Riley and McConnell Air Force Base, plus significant reserve and national guard facilities, such as at Forbes Field; and

WHEREAS, Kansans have provided exemplary and invaluable service to our country, and through these activities frequently demonstrating innovation, creativity and commitment of the highest caliber, as was demonstrated by the operation of the B-1 bomber fleet and security force in Bosnia; and

WHEREAS, Without these facilities it would be much more difficult for our country to garner the excellent service of the Kansas citizens who serve in the guard and reserve; and

WHEREAS, Fort Leavenworth, which provides support for the Army's Command and General Staff College, has annual expenditures in excess of 200 million dollars; Fort Riley, home of the 24th Infantry Division, spends over 800 million dollars annually to provide necessary services; and McConnell Air Force Base, home of the 22nd Air Refueling Wing, provides a total impact for the Wichita community of about 350 million dollars annually; and

WHEREAS, In providing military capability for our nation, over 8,000 Kansans are members of the Kansas National Guard, have a total economic impact in Kansas of over 450 millions dollars, and the 190th Air Refueling Wing located at Forbes Field, with capital assets valued at nearly ½ billion dollars, is continually involved in supporting our air capabilities in Iraq and other volatile areas of the world; and

WHEREAS, Kansas not only derives considerable income from these institutions but provides the necessary support and services, including many valuable civilian employees, for these facilities: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we memorialize the Congress of the United States to maintain in continuing existence the military installations in this state; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives provide an enrolled copy of this resolution to the President of the United States, the President pro tem of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the Secretary of the United States Department of Defense and each member of the Kansas legislative delegation.
