

Journal of the Senate

TWENTY-SECOND DAY

---

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, February 11, 2004—2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Dave Kerr.
The roll was called with forty senators present.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

When Senators are first elected,
They hope that they will find
A way to make a difference
For a portion of mankind.

But they soon discover
That their one and only vote
Is filtered through so many screens
Its chances are remote.

Their vote is only one
Of a hundred and sixty-five:
One of forty in the Senate,
Plus a hundred and twenty five.

If their bill survives committee,
They will find to their surprise
So many amendments have been added,
It's hard to recognize!

Just when they think it has a chance,
Behold! A conference committee.
And when they are through with it,
It looks like anything but pretty.

The next filter's on the second floor
Where every bill must go
And face a little four letter word:
The ever-dreaded VETO.

Sometimes both houses override,
And the authors celebrate.
Only to find across the street
Another filter waits.

Much to the Senators dismay
The Supreme Court's contribution
Decides that their precious bill
Violates the Constitution!

This prayer is much too long, O God,
 And so I'll sign off now,
 And complete this tragic story
 I hope real soon...some-how.

I pray in the Name of Jesus,

AMEN
