

SPECIAL SESSION

Journal of the Senate

NINTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Friday, July 1, 2005—10:30 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-nine senators present.
Senators Allen, Brungardt, Emler and Wagle were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Last week we started dealing with
The Supreme Court and Education,
The Constitution and the House,
Criticism and Frustration.

We've also had to deal with
Deficits and Deadlines
Gambling and our Conscience,
And getting through on time.

Besides those we've been occupied
With Ultimatums and Accusations,
Conservatives and Moderates,
And Future Ramifications.

And others which have taken time
Are the other party and our Senate,
Leadership and our district,
And everybody in it.

We've also been concerned with
Our Families and Fatigue,
Lobbyists and Reporters
Our Landlords and Colleagues.

And we've had to deal with
The Media and Our Beliefs,
Our Jobs as well as other things
Resulted in some grief.

And during all of these
We've had to deal with Right and Wrong
So it shouldn't be a mystery
Why adjournment takes so long.

And ultimately we need to deal with
 The most important One of all:
 We're accountable to You, O God,
 On You we need to call.

I pray in the name of Jesus Christ,
 AMEN
