

SPECIAL SESSION

Journal of the Senate

TENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Saturday, July 2, 2005—11:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty senators present.
Senators Allen, Barnett, Betts, Brownlee, Brungardt, Emler, Palmer, Steineger, Wagle and Wysong were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

At the beginning of almost every annual session legislators have approached me shaking their heads and saying, "This is really going to be a tough one."

Personally, I have thought that they weren't much different from the previous sessions. But, I have to admit this one is unique. I've been through two special sessions, but I don't recall anything like this one, Lord.

"Politics is the art of compromise" has, as long as I remember, been a recognized legislative maxim. But you know, Lord, that in my prayers I have insisted that there are some issues on which people draw the line, saying, "This is as far as I will go."

The obvious problem has been that there are people on the opposite sides drawing the line, and so we are still here and crossing the line the Supreme Court has drawn.

Let me humbly repeat, Lord, that if You have a solution please reveal it to the leadership on both sides. I have a feeling that all of them would say, "Amen."

And I close by thanking You in advance for however You choose to end this session, and praying in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

On motion of Senator D. Schmidt, the Senate recessed until 5:00 p.m.

EVENING SESSION

The Senate met pursuant to recess with President Morris in the chair.
