Chairman Hoy introduced Rep. Bill Bunten, Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee and the Interim Committee that drafted  $\underline{\text{HB 2635}}$ . Rep. Bunten briefly described the Interim Committee's study of the Firemen's Relief Act which was passed in 1895, and briefly explained  $\underline{\text{HB 2635}}$ . There were questions from the committee, which were answered by Rep. Bunten.

Wayne Morris, of Legislative Research, then went through  $\underline{HB\ 2635}$  and explained it, section by section. There were questions of Mr. Morris also, and some committee discussion.

m HB}$  2614 was then explained by Wayne Morris. This bill was also introduced as a result of an Interim Committee study, and is on the same subject as  ${
m Sub.}$  2111, which was studied by the committee last year. This bill concerns furnishing proof of motor vehicle liability insurance.

Chairman Hoy announced meetings on Monday and Wednesday of the week of January 23rd to discuss three bills that were introduced last year and held over in the committee, and hearings on  $\underline{HB\ 2614.}$

The meeting adjourned at 4:20 PM.
