Testimony re: SB 102
Submitted by Ronald R. Hein

Madame Chairman and Members of the Committee:

I am appearing this morning on behalf of Hein Law Firm, Chartered, and further on behalf of the multiple clients that we represent.

I oppose SB 102 as it was introduced, but many of my concerns have been addressed by the revised fee schedule discussed by Senate Ways and Means. I still have concerns about the large increase in the individual lobbying client fee, which would be tripled from $35 to $100 under the Senate Ways and Means plan.

The other lobby fee adjustments, as set out by Ways and Means, are more appropriate than original SB 102.

However, I do want to point out that the statewide candidates pay only $500, Ways and Means version $750, but such fee is to cover four years of the campaign, at least for the Primary election. There is a great deal of Governmental Ethics Commission oversight expected of such large reports, for that fee, considering the fees paid by political committees who are paying their fee every year, or by comparison with lobbying fees being paid every year.

I represent one client pro bono and the fee being proposed for such clients can still be burdensome on such smaller lobbying clients, although I recognize the difficulty of defining large vs. small lobbying clients.

Lastly, the fee for the catch up, for those lobbying entities who determine that they will spend in excess of $1,000, should equal the total fee for such lobbying entity provided earlier in the section on page 4 of the bill. I note that the original law provided for different fees for those spending more than $1,000, depending upon when they made the determination to do so.

I appreciate the opportunity to present this testimony today, and I would be happy to yield for any questions.
