Confirmation Hearing on the Appointment of Robin Jennison, Secretary of Wildlife and Parks

Chairman Ostmeyer opened the Confirmation Hearing on the Appointment of Robin Jennison, Secretary of Wildlife and Parks.

Robin Jennison provided testimony that included his education and experience. He attended Kansas State University and Fort Hays State University where he studied Animal Science at both. He has served in the Kansas House of Representatives as Chair of Appropriations, House Majority Leader and Speaker of the House. He has served as President of Jennison Government Services, a consulting service and has worked in ranching and range management capacities as well as managing people. He mentioned there were broad aspects of the department in the diverse opportunities in hunting and fishing and all other outdoor activities. He stood for questions.

There being no further discussion, Chairman Ostmeyer called for final action. Senator Love made a motion, seconded by Senator Abrams, to pass out favorably the Appointment of Robin Jennison, Secretary of Wildlife and Parks.

The meeting was adjourned at 2:08 p.m.
