MEMORANDUM

To: House Committee on Veterans and Military
From: Office of Revisor of Statutes
Date: February 7, 2023
Subject: HB 2211 – Establishing the office of homeland security within the adjutant general’s office.

House Bill 2211 would establish the office of homeland security within the adjutant general’s office.

HB 2211 authorizes the adjutant general to make expenditures within appropriations for the purpose of homeland security.

HB 2211 requires that the adjutant general’s office provide the facilities, budget and administrative support for the office of homeland security and its employees and maintain all records collected and maintained by the office of homeland security.

This bill would take effect upon publication in the statute book.
