§ 2. Senators and representatives.—The number of representatives and senators shall be regulated by law, but shall not exceed one hundred twenty-five representatives and forty senators. Representatives and senators shall be elected from single-member districts prescribed by law. Representatives shall be elected for two year terms. Senators shall be elected for four year terms. The terms of representatives and senators shall commence on the second Monday of January of the year following election.

§ 3. Compensation of members of legislature.—The members of the legislature shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law or such compensation as is determined according to law.

§ 4. Qualifications of members.—During the time that any person is a candidate for nomination or election to the legislature and during the term of each legislator, such candidate or legislator shall be and remain a qualified elector who resides in his or her district.

§ 5. Eligibility and disqualification of members.—No member of congress and no civil officer or employee of the United States or of any department, agency, or instrumentality thereof shall be eligible to be a member of the legislature. Any member of the legislature who accepts any appointment or election contrary to the foregoing shall be disqualified as a member of the legislature.

§ 7. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 8. Organization and sessions.—The legislature shall meet in regular session annually commencing on the second Monday in January, and all sessions shall be held at the state capital. The duration of regular sessions held in even-numbered years shall not exceed ninety calendar days. Such sessions may be extended beyond ninety calendar days by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. Bills and concurrent resolutions under consideration by the legislature upon adjournment of a regular session held in an odd-numbered year may be considered at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year, as if there had been no such adjournment.

The legislature shall be organized concurrently with the terms of representatives except that the senate shall remain organized during the terms of senators. The president of the senate shall preside over the senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives shall preside over the house of representatives. A majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified of the house of representatives or the senate shall constitute a quorum of that house. Neither house, without the consent of the other, shall adjourn for more than two days, Sundays excepted.

Each house shall elect its presiding officer and determine the rules of its proceedings, except that the two houses may adopt joint rules on certain matters and provide for the manner of change thereof. Each house shall provide for the expulsion or censure of members in appropriate cases.

Each house shall be the judge of elections, returns and qualifications of its own members.

§ 9. Vacancies in legislature.—All vacancies occurring in either house shall be filled as provided by law.

§ 10. Journals.—Each house shall publish a journal of its proceedings. The affirmative and negative votes upon the final passage of every bill and every concurrent resolution for amendment of this constitution or ratification of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States shall be entered in the journal. Any member of either house may make written protest against any act or resolution, and the same shall be entered in the journal without delay or alteration.

§ 11. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 12. Origination by either house.—Bills and concurrent resolutions may originate in either house, but may be amended or rejected by the other.

§ 13. Majority for passage of bills.—A majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified of each house, voting in the affirmative, shall be necessary to pass any bill. Two-thirds (2/3) of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, voting in the affirmative, shall be necessary to ratify any amendment to the Constitution of the United States or to make any application for congress to call a convention for proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

§ 14. Approval of bills; vetoes.—(a) Within ten days after passage, every bill shall be signed by the presiding officers and presented to the governor. If the governor approves a bill, he shall sign it. If the governor does not approve a bill, the governor shall veto it by returning the bill, with a veto message of the objections, to the house of origin of the bill. Whenever a veto message is so received, the message shall be entered in the journal and in not more than thirty calendar days (excluding the day received), the house of origin shall reconsider the bill. If two-thirds of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified shall vote to pass the bill, it shall be sent, with the veto message, to the other house, which shall in not more than thirty calendar days (excluding the day received) also reconsider the bill, and if approved by two-thirds of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified, it shall become a law, notwithstanding the governor's veto.

If any bill shall not be returned within ten calendar days (excluding the day presented) after it shall have been presented to the governor, it shall become a law in like manner as if it had been signed by the governor.

JOINT RULES OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
2025-2026

Joint Rule 1. Joint rules; application and date of expiration; adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation.

(a) Joint rules; expiration, adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation; vote required.

Joint rules are adopted under the authority of section 8 of article 2 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas and shall govern matters made subject thereto except when otherwise specifically provided by joint rule. Joint rules shall expire at the conclusion of the terms of representatives. Joint rules shall be adopted, amended, suspended and revoked by concurrent resolution of the two houses of the legislature. Concurrent resolutions adopting joint rules shall receive the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house.

(b) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules; previous notice; vote required.

After one day's previous notice, joint rules may be amended, suspended or revoked by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house. Upon the filing of such notice in either house, a message shall be sent to the other house advising of the filing of such notice and the reading of the message shall constitute notice to the members of such house. If such previous notice is not given, the affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house shall be required for the amendment, suspension or revocation of a joint rule.

(c) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules at commencement of legislative session; vote required; conditions.

Notwithstanding any provision of this rule to the contrary, no notice shall be required for the adoption of a concurrent resolution amending, suspending or revoking any one or more joint rules at the commencement of a legislative session, and adoption of any such concurrent resolution shall require only the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, subject to the following conditions: (1) The concurrent resolution is sponsored by the speaker or the president; and (2) either: (a) A copy thereof is mailed to each member of the legislature by deposit in the United States mails not later than 11:00 p.m. on the Thursday preceding the Monday on which the legislative session is to commence; or (b) in lieu of mailing, copies of the concurrent resolution are made available to members on the first day of the legislative session and final action is taken on a subsequent legislative day.

Joint Rule 2. Joint sessions.

(a) Joint session called by concurrent resolution; vote required; time, place and subject matter.

A joint session of the senate and house of representatives may be called by concurrent resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house of the legislature or as may otherwise be prescribed by law. Any such resolution shall fix the time and place of the joint session, and the subject matter to be considered at the joint session. Joint sessions shall consider only such matters as are prescribed by law or by the concurrent resolution calling such joint session.

(b) Presiding officer at joint sessions; record of joint session; rules applicable.

The speaker of the house of representatives shall preside at all joint sessions of the senate and house of representatives, and the clerk of the house of representatives shall keep a record of the proceedings thereof and shall enter the record of each such session in the journal of the house of representatives. The rules of the house of representatives and the joint rules of the two houses, insofar as the same may be applicable shall be the rules for joint sessions of the two houses.

(c) Votes in joint session; taking; requirements.

All votes in a joint session shall be taken by yeas and nays, and in taking the same it shall be the duty of the secretary of the senate first to call the names of the members of the senate, and after which the clerk of the house of representatives shall in like manner call the names of the members of the house. Each member of the senate and the house of representatives present shall be required to vote on all matters considered in joint session, unless excused by a vote of a majority of the members of both houses present.

Joint Rule 3. Conference committee procedure.

(a) Action by house of origin of bill or concurrent resolution amended by other house.

When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned to the house of origin with amendments by the other house, the house of origin may: (1) Concur in such amendments; (2) refuse to concur in such amendments; or (3) refuse to concur in such amendments and request a conference on the bill or concurrent resolution.

(b) Concurrence by house of origin; concurrence prior to taking action on conference committee report by other house; final action; effect of failure of motion to concur.

The house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution may concur in any amendments made by the other house, except that if the bill or concurrent resolution has been referred to a conference committee such action may only be taken prior to the taking of final action upon the conference committee report upon such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house shall be considered action on the final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has been appointed and action has not been taken upon the report of such committee by the other house and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and the motion to concur may be renewed but not on the same legislative day. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has not been appointed and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(c) Motion to nonconcur; when considered final action; effect of adoption of motion.

A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to nonconcur or to refuse to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house which is not coupled with a request for the appointment of a conference committee shall be considered action on final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal, and the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed killed on the adoption thereof.

(d) House of origin refusal to concur or nonconcur; request for conference; procedure.

When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned by either house to the house of origin with amendments, and the house of origin refuses to concur or to nonconcur therein, a conference may be requested by a majority vote of the members present and voting. Such request shall be transmitted to the other house by message which shall include the names of the conferees on the part of the requesting house. Upon receipt of any such message, the receiving house may, in like manner, approve such conference, and shall thereupon notify the requesting house by message stating the names of its conferees.

(e) Membership; appointment; chairperson; house of origin of substitute or materially changed bill or concurrent resolution; meetings of conference committee.

Each conference committee shall consist of three members of the senate and three members of the house of representatives, unless otherwise fixed by agreement of the president of the senate and speaker of the house. Senate members shall be appointed by the president of the senate and house members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The president or the speaker may replace any conferee previously appointed by such person. Not fewer than one member appointed from each house shall be a member of the minority political party of such house except when such representation for such house is waived by the minority leader of such house. In all cases, the first-named member of the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution assigned to the committee shall be chairperson of the conference committee. The house of origin of a substitute bill or substitute concurrent resolution shall be the house in which the bill or concurrent resolution in its original form was introduced. The chairperson of a conference committee on a bill or concurrent resolution the subject matter of which has been ruled to be materially changed shall be a member of the house which amended the bill or concurrent resolution to materially change the subject matter. Each conference committee shall meet on the call of its chairperson. All meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be adjourned to another time or place in order to subvert such policy.

(f) Conference committee reports; matters which may be included; report not subject to amendment; house which acts first on report; copies of reports; reports considered under any order of business.

Only subject matters which are or have been included in the bill or concurrent resolution in conference or in bills or concurrent resolutions which have been passed or adopted in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution except in any appropriations bill there may be included a proviso relating to any such item of appropriation.

Subject to any limitations imposed under the constitution of the state of Kansas, no more than a total of four additional bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions in conference or bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions which have passed in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution.

A conference committee report shall not be subject to amendment.

The original signed conference committee report shall be submitted to and acted upon first by the house other than the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution. Except when a conference committee report is an agree to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed or is a recommendation to accede to or recede from all amendments of the second house, electronic and paper copies of the report shall be made available to all members of the house considering the report not later than 30 minutes before the time of its consideration, except that if the report is more than six pages in length no paper copies will be required to be distributed to individual members provided that at least 10 paper copies of the report are made available to members at the clerk's or secretary's desk at the front of the respective house. By written notice, the majority leader may direct the clerk or secretary to increase from six pages to some greater number of pages the size of conference committee reports that need not be distributed by paper copies to individual members pursuant to this rule. The affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the house at the time of consideration of the report shall be sufficient to dispense with distribution of copies of the conference committee report to all members of that house. Reports of conference committees may be received and considered under any order of business.

(g) Signatures required on conference committee reports.

All initial conference committee reports other than an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by all of the conferees. All initial conference committee reports which are an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. If a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is not adopted, a subsequent conference committee report shall be signed by all conferees unless a subsequent conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is adopted, in which case a conference committee report subsequent to the adoption of such report shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. All other conference committee reports shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house.

(h) Vote to adopt conference committee report final action; effect of failure of motion to adopt conference committee report.

The vote to adopt the report of a conference committee, other than a report of failure to agree coupled with a recommendation for appointment of a new conference committee, shall be considered final action on the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed. If the motion on a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and remains in conference.

(i) Report of conference committee unable to agree; effect of failure to request new conference committee; effect of failure of motion to adopt report requesting new conference committee.

If a conference committee upon any bill or concurrent resolution is unable to agree, it shall report that fact to both houses. Such report may request that a new conference committee be appointed thereon. If the committee so reports but fails to request the appointment of a new conference committee thereon, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to have been killed upon the adoption by either house of such report. If the motion to adopt a report requesting the appointment of a new conference committee fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(j) Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by conference committees and reports thereof; carryover from odd-numbered to even-numbered year.

Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by a conference committee, or a report of which has been filed but no action taken thereon in either house, at the time of adjournment of a regular session of the legislature held in an odd-numbered year shall remain alive during the interim and may be considered by the committee and legislature as the case may be at the regular session held in the following even-numbered year.

Joint Rule 4. Deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills.

The senate and house of representatives shall observe the following schedule of deadlines in making requests for drafting and in the introduction and consideration of bills.

(a) Bill request deadline for individual members.

Except for bills introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no request to draft bills, except those made by committees, through their respective chairpersons, shall be made to, or accepted by, the office of the revisor of statutes after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on January 27, 2025, during the 2025 regular session and on January 26, 2026, during the 2026 regular session.

(b) Bill introduction deadline for individual members.

Except as provided in (i) of this rule, no bill sponsored by a member or members shall be introduced in either house of the legislature after the hour of adjournment on February 5, 2025, during the 2025 regular session and on February 4, 2026, during the 2026 regular session. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 13th day of January, 2025.

MARLA LUCKERT

Speaker Hawkins addressed the following remarks to the members of the House:

Thank you all for the opportunity to serve another two years as the Kansas House Speaker. It's truly an honor and a privilege. I appreciate all of the love and support from my wife Diane and my two daughters- Hannah and Hayley. My family is truly the reason I'm here today. To my grandkids- your future and the future of all the children of Kansas truly motivates and underscores the work that we do. I must also thank the good people of District 100 who have entrusted me to serve our district for another term. While I serve in House leadership and prioritize our state as a whole, District 100 is and always will be near and dear to my heart. To all of the legislative staff- the Revisors, LAS, research, post audit, the clerk and office staff, sergeant at arms, and security- the legislature functions day to day because of all of you. Thank you for all that you do, behind the scenes with often little credit. We all appreciate you and your contributions to this process.

The trust that all of you have placed in me to serve as House Speaker for another two years is a responsibility that I do not take lightly...and I accept this responsibility with a profound sense of duty- to each of you, to this institution, and the people of this great state. We accomplished much in the last two years, and I'm even more excited about what lies ahead for the next two years- a better way for the people of Kansas.

As I stand here, I'm reminded of our foundational values that must guide that work: faith, family, friends, unity, and civility. These are not abstract ideals; but the bedrock principles that must anchor our leadership as a body in this chamber.

First, Faith-in our Creator, our God most importantly, but also in each other, our intentions, and in the democratic process itself. In everything we do, as a body, let us lead with our faith. Faith calls us to act with humility, integrity, and an unwavering commitment to the greater good. Faith also reminds us that no challenge is insurmountable. When we come together for the purpose of service to the people of Kansas, the possibilities are truly endless.

Second, is Family. I am grateful for the sacrifices my family has made and continues to make so that I can serve in the Kansas House these past 12 years. Family teaches us responsibility, loyalty, and sacrifice. It reminds us that the greatest legacy we leave here is not in what happens day-to-day, but in the long-term improvements we can implement that can truly change people's lives and wellbeing. Let us lead in a way that strengthens not only the families we represent but also those communities across the state.

Third, are Friends. Within our caucuses and across the aisle, friendship reminds us that while we may differ in our views and ideology, we are bound by a shared love of our state and for serving the people of Kansas. While we will have disagreements, let us not see each other as adversaries but as colleagues. I pledge to foster an environment where relationships are built, trust is earned, and respect is paramount.

Fourth, Unity. This Chamber represents the diversity of our state- from rural to urban and everything in between, to our cultural and political differences. It's easy to focus on what divides us, but our strength lies in finding common ground. The challenges we face and the people we serve demand that we rise above partisanship and work together for the good of all Kansans.

Fifth, Civility. And after coming off an especially heated election cycle, this is especially important. Our debates will be spirited, and our disagreements may be sharp but let us remember that how we conduct ourselves matters, both within the statehouse and out. Let us rise above the hateful and divisive political rhetoric. Civility is not a concession; it is a strength. It is the belief that we can disagree passionately without demeaning personally. It is the practice of listening as much as we speak and seeking solutions rather than scoring political points. It is the courage to disagree without hatred, to debate without demeaning, and to listen without dismissing.

To my colleagues, I make this promise: I will strive to be a fair steward of this House and work tirelessly to uphold the integrity of this institution. And to the people of Kansas: We will not lose sight of why we are here.

Our debates, our decisions, and our actions must always reflect our shared commitment to serve the people of Kansas- to protect freedoms, ensure opportunities, and preserve the ideals that make Kansas truly exceptional.

Let us serve with humility, lead with courage, and legislate with hope. Thank you again for this opportunity and may God bless this House and the beautiful state of Kansas.

Speaker Hawkins was presented the gavel by Assistant Secretary of State, Bryan Caskey, and assumed the chair.

Speaker Hawkins announced the the appointemnt of Susan Kannarr as Chief Clerk; Allen Morgan as Sargeant at Arms and L.D. Holmes as House Chaplain of the House of Representatives.

Nominations being in order for speaker pro tem, Rep. K. Williams nominated Rep. Blake Carpenter for Speaker pro tem of the House of Representatives. There being no further nominations, Rep. Amyx moved that the nominations be closed, and that the clerk be instructed to cast a unanimous ballot for Rep. Carpenter as Speaker pro tem of the House of Representatives. The motion prevailed.

Speaker Hawkins requested Rep. Carpenter to approach the well for the oath of office.

Speaker pro tem-elect Carpenter subscribed to the following oath of office, which was administered by Chief Justice Marla Luckert.

State of Kansas, County of Shawnee,ss:

I do solemnly swear that I will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the State of Kansas, and faithfully discharge the duties of the office of Speaker pro tem of the House of Representatives, so help me God.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 13th day of January, 2025.

MARLA LUCKERT

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court

Speaker pro tem Carpenter addressed the following remarks to members of the House:

Colleagues, friends, and fellow Kansans. As the first light of the New Year casts over us, we begin our mission as stewards of the people and ideals of Kansas. Today marks not only the start of a new legislative session but the renewal of our commitment to the ideals that have guided generations of leaders before us.

Kansas has long stood as a testament to the resilience of the human spirit. From the wide expanses of our prairie skies to the concrete roots of this building, we are reminded of who we are—a people who weather storms, plant seeds of hope, and harvest a brighter tomorrow. And like those fields, this chamber is fertile ground for ideas, collaboration, and progress.

As we embark on this legislative session, let us pause to consider the journey ahead. The path before us is not without challenges, but it is paved with possibility. Each of us, regardless of party or perspective, carries within us the ability to spark change and build a legacy of prosperity for the people we serve. Together, we hold the tools to cultivate solutions, craft opportunity, and ensure Kansas remains a beacon of hope and promise in the heart of this great nation.

Let us see our work not as a series of bills and budgets but as brushstrokes on a canvas, painting the future of Kansas. Each debate, each decision, and each vote we cast adds texture and depth to this portrait. What image will we leave behind for future generations to see? Will it be one of division and discord, or will it be a masterpiece of unity and purpose?

We must remind ourselves that the brilliance of a Kansas sunset is not the result of one color, but many, blending together in harmony. Similarly, our strength as a body lies not in uniformity but in the variety of perspectives and ideas we bring to this chamber. When we respect and value those differences, we create a mosaic that reflects the beauty of our state and its people.

In the months ahead, may we approach our work with humility, listening more than we speak and seeking first to understand rather than to be understood. May we embrace the responsibility entrusted to us with courage and conviction, knowing that our decisions ripple far beyond this chamber into the lives of every Kansan—on farms, in classrooms, in businesses, and in homes.

So today, as we stand at the dawn of this new session, let us commit to rising above the noise and distractions of the moment. Let us aim higher, dream bigger, and work harder—not for ourselves, but for those who have entrusted us with this sacred duty.

Together, we have the power to make 2025 a year of unprecedented progress, where we tackle the pressing challenges before us with boldness and wisdom. May our work this session shine as a light that guides Kansas forward, enriching the lives of all who call this state home.

Let us begin with open hearts, determined minds, and a shared vision of a Kansas that grows stronger with each passing day.

Thank you, and may God bless our work and the people of Kansas.

Speaker Hawkins asked for announcements for party caucuses:

Rep. K. Williams stated the majority (Republican) party had met and elected the following:

- Majority leader, Representative Chris Croft
- Assistant Majority Leader, Representative Kyle Hoffman
- Majority Whip, Representative Nick Hoheisel
- Caucus Chairperson, Kristey Williams

Majority Leader Croft addressed the following remarks to members of the House:

Thank you Mr. Speaker,

My day started early...around 2:30 am. My wife told me there was something in her car that I needed to bring in today...it was a picture that my 14-year-old granddaughter drew...if you have time, please take a look at it. What a great way to start the day.

I want to start by thanking my wife, Connie...this year is our 40th anniversary! I'm a fortunate man to have such a wonderful partner in life.

It is great to see so many spouses here today...I'd like to say thank you for the support you provide to your legislator...also, I want you to know about the spouses' club – it is for all spouses, my wife is the current president...they have some great tours and have a good time not talking politics! In early December, each member received a green sheet on their desk when we were here for leadership elections and orientation...the event was earlier today but the contact information is still valid. If you've not seen it, I'll have more copies in office.

I want to thank my constituents in District 8 for trusting me and sending me back here to serve the people. It is an honor to continue my service.

I'd like to reflect for a moment on a life altering event from last year that both sharpened my purpose and perspective. Many of you know I served in the U.S. Army for 30 years. During my time, I served in or was around four of the six Divisions that participated in the Normandy invasion on D-Day. I've heard many stories from veterans that were there. Last year, I went to Normandy on a legislative leadership study. Each morning, we would review different military leaders and their actions. In the afternoon, we would walk the ground of the invasion. On the last day, I was asked to provide some comments at the Omaha Beach cemetery wreath laying ceremony. They told me there would be a few others...it was like 140 extras from all around the world. Across the Normandy region, there is an incredible connection with Kansas. We had a division, a National Guard unit, many citizens, and Kansas' own General Eisenhower orchestrating and overseeing the operation. In fact, in one town square there's a statue of the general and a plaque there that is titled "All Eyes of the World are upon Us" (similar to our plaque in the basement of this building).

After I was asked to speak, one participant asked, all these folks gave so much...how does this relate to our leadership situation as legislators? So, as I walked around the beaches and cemetery it was this question that kept bouncing around in my head.

I was in awe of the sacrifices that were made. I was reminded of the poem...Flanders Fields by John McCrae. It added to the awe and meaning of the sacrifices made there and all around the world.

There amongst the many rows of crosses...we quietly walked and looked at the crosses inscriptions...we found Authur C. Germeroth, PFC, 4th Division, Kansas, July 15, 1944, Kenneth D. Peterson, SSG, 391st Bomb Group, Kansas, June 7th, 1944, Melvin L. Gennette, PVT, 82nd Airborne Division, Kansas, June 8th, 1944, just a few names out of the thousands. Each cross displayed name, rank, unit, state, and a date.

What struck me was there wasn't a dash only a single date...the date of their death. Time meant something different in the context of this resting place... before that date, PFC Germeroth, SSG Peterson, PVT Gennette, and all the others 'felt the chill of the morning dawn, saw glow of the sunset, they felt the love of friends and family and loved others'...and on the date shown on their grave marker, they gave the ultimate sacrifice...they sacrificed all for freedom...for the world.

John McCrae continued in the poem that those that lay here in the cemeteries across the world had carried the torch of freedom and had passed it to the next generation who would pass it along. That torch is carried by the defenders of freedom. A torch that has been carried by so many...a torch carried by John Brown, J.H. Lane, by the others listed on walls of this great chamber and others displayed all throughout the Capitol.

So, in answering the question...how is this relevant to us...the torch of freedom is on a journey. Each generation is asked to carry it high. It is now our turn to do so...to carry that torch and as in the poem to not 'break the faith' with those that have sacrificed so much. We can do so with civility toward each other and to do our work united to create a lasting civic agreement. This is our time, our cherished opportunity to carry the torch of freedom so those that came before can rest easy. And when our time comes to pass the torch, we will expect the same of those that we have set the example.

I know that was a little heavy, but I felt compelled to share that experience. I am so honored to have the opportunity to serve.

Finally, I want to thank the members that gave me another opportunity to serve you and this great team again as the House Majority Leader.

We are...One Team! Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Rep. Ballard stated the minority (Democrat) party had caucused and elected the following officers:

- Minority Leader, Representative Brandon Woodard
- Assistant Minority Leader, Representative Mike Amyx
- Minority Whip, Representative Jo Ella Hoyer
- Agenda Chairperson, Representative Jerry Stogsdill
- Caucus Chairperson, Representative Barbara W. Ballard
- Policy Chairperson, Representative Dan Osman

Minority Leader Woodard addressed the following remarks to the members of the House.

Thank you, Mister Speaker. Let me start by congratulating the Speaker of the House and the Speaker Pro Tem for being elected again. While the Majority and Minority leaders and our leadership teams are chosen by our respective partisan caucuses, our Speaker and Speaker Pro Tem are OUR leaders of the People's House of Representatives. I look forward to working with both of you in this new role.

To the new members who are sitting in this historic chamber for the first time as a representative, please take a moment to soak in the feeling that you are experiencing right now. Look around the room, take in the feeling of being here with your loved ones, your new colleagues, and occupying a space that only 6,000 other Kansans - in the history of our state - have had the honor of sitting in as an elected representative. When the days of your public service feel tough -- and I promise you there will be tough days ahead -- please remember how you feel right now. That feeling, the ability to be present and soak up every moment, each lesson and experience of this job, will get you through even the fiercest debates in this Chamber.

While I stand here as the House Democratic Leader, an honor that I will never be able to express through words alone, I want to invite every member of this Chamber to step outside of your comfort zone, to show up every day with an open mind, and to explore getting to know your colleagues as people before thinking about their politics. In my six years in this building, I have forged life-long friendships and identified legislative solutions with colleagues that I otherwise would have believed I had nothing in common with. The few times when I had a pre-conceived notion about who someone is based on their politics, I have been wrong.

To the members of our Democratic caucus, THANK YOU for believing in the vision of our leadership team and what we can achieve -- together. For the next two years, we have an uphill battle before us. We have a responsibility to offer a different perspective, an outside voice, and to stand up for our morals and ideals. At the same time, I would challenge each of us to approach working with the Republicans in our Chamber to identify the solutions for the People of Kansas. Thank you for trusting me to lead our scrappy and mighty caucus. I'd like to congratulate the members of our leadership team for being selected for their officer positions, including the representative from Lawrence for being selected as our Assistant Minority Leader.

To my friends across the aisle, I appreciate your willingness to work with me, our team, and our caucus on issues that we can find common ground on. And, I know that you can appreciate our role in providing a different perspective when we must. There will be times that we adamantly disagree on policy, but I hope we can conduct our debates with civility, a mutual understanding of listening to one another's point of view, and using these debates -- on even the most divisive policies -- to help inform our decision making process when we choose to vote YES or NO.

It is an honor to serve with each and every one of you. I congratulate Majority Leader Croft and the members of the Republican Leadership Team. I look forward to what we can achieve TOGETHER for the People of Kansas. Let's get to work!

THANK YOU, Mister Speaker.

The roll was called with 125 members present.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father, As we begin this new session for the State of Kansas,
I pray Your blessings on each of these chosen leaders.
They come from the East, West, North and South, from small Counties and large Metropolitan areas to do the work of those who have entrusted them with the power to make Kansas an even better place to live.
May Your goodness, grace, and wisdom be paramount in all that happens in this chamber over the next number of months.
May we keep Your Word central as we work together as colleagues and peers to fulfill the obligations placed before us.
Allow the words of the prophet Isaiah to resonate in our very beings as we step into this, at times, challenging political arena.
“Don't be afraid, I have redeemed you. I've called your name. You're mine.
When you are in over your head, I'll be there with you.
When you're in rough waters, you will not go down.
When you're between a rock and a hard place, it won't be a dead end.”
We pray for the families of each Representative and ask that each would realize how important they are in this legislative process.
Without their support, patience and understanding, the tasks ahead would be so much more difficult.
Thank you for the wonderful support staff which has been assembled to help things run smoothly and with order.
In Jesus Name I pray.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. HC R 5001—

By Representative Sutton

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION making application to the Congress of the United States for a limited national convention for the exclusive purpose of proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States establishing term limits for members of Congress.

WHEREAS, The framers of the Constitution of the United States of America intended that the U.S. House of Representatives and the U.S. Senate of the United States of America should be "dependent on the people alone" (James Madison, Federalist 52); and

WHEREAS, Throughout American history, this dependency has evolved from a dependency on the American people alone to a dependency on powerful special interests, through spending by third-party groups, campaigns or out-of-state donors, which have created a fundamental imbalance in our representative democracy and eroded the people's trust in government; and

WHEREAS, Americans across the political spectrum agree that elections in the United States of America should be free from the disproportional influence of special interests and fair enough that any citizen can be elected into office; and

WHEREAS, The Constitution of the State of Kansas states that "all political power is inherent in the people, and all free governments are founded on their authority, and are instituted for their equal protection and benefit" (Bill of Rights, Section 2); and

WHEREAS, Article V of the Constitution of the United States requires the Congress of the United States to call a convention for proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States upon the application of two-thirds of the legislatures of the several states; and

WHEREAS, The Kansas Legislature perceives the need for a convention in order to ensure balance and integrity in our elections by proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States that will establish term limits for members of Congress to prevent the accumulation of inordinate power in members with longevity who are able to amass high amounts of funds for reelection; and

WHEREAS, A national convention would give the American people an opportunity to come together as a nation, by discussing solutions on how to ensure the integrity of our elections and renew the American people's trust in government; and

WHEREAS, Article V of the Constitution of the United States clearly states that any amendment, whether proposed by the Congress of the United States or by a convention, must be ratified by 75% of the states, presently 38 states, ensuring that only the most reasonable proposals with widespread support shall become part of the Constitution of the United States; and

WHEREAS, Notwithstanding any federal or Kansas law to the contrary, the State of Kansas desires its delegates to such a national convention to be composed equally of individuals currently elected to state and local offices or to be selected by election in each congressional district in Kansas, except that all individuals elected or appointed to federal office, now or in the past, shall be prohibited from serving as Kansas delegates. The State of Kansas intends to retain the ability to enforce the responsibility and conduct of its delegation within the limits herein expressed: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein: That the people of the State of Kansas, speaking through its legislature and pursuant to Article V of the Constitution of the United States, hereby apply to the Congress of the United States to call a convention for the exclusive purpose of proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States to set a limit on the number of terms that a person may be elected as a member of the U.S. House of Representatives and the U.S. Senate; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of State shall send enrolled copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, the Vice President of the United States in the Vice President's capacity as presiding officer of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the Minority Leader of the United States House of Representatives, the President Pro Tempore of the United States Senate, each Senator and Representative from Kansas in the Congress of the United States, with the respectful request that the full and complete text of this resolution be printed in the Congressional Record, the presiding officers of each legislative body of each of the several states, requesting the cooperation of the states in issuing an application compelling the Congress of the United States to call a convention for proposing amendments pursuant to Article V of the Constitution of the United States.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father,

It is with a sense of anticipation and expectation as we look at our work today. We are each keenly aware that You have placed us here for this moment and this day.

It is You whom we look to for wisdom, discernment, and Divine counsel.
Help us to hear Your voice and direction in each piece of legislative work set before us.

In the Book of Proverbs, you tell us
“Like apples of gold in settings of silver, is a word spoken in right circumstances.”
Allow the words we speak to resonate with wisdom derived from right circumstances.

Guard our minds and thoughts that when we do speak, we offer wise and informed words of insight as well as thoughtful consideration.

Today, we lift to You our friends and neighbors who find themselves in troublesome situations not of their own making.

We especially pray for the people of California who are facing the loss of businesses, homes, and in some cases friends.
The California wild fires have destroyed so much hope and caused so much despair.

Oh God, we pray for Your Divine intervention.

We also pray for many of our people here in the State of Kansas who are still struggling to dig out of the recent record snowstorm.

Thank You for Your provisions of safety and protection.

We pray for our National and World leaders.

In these days of challenge and change might Your hand guide them as they strive to make our Nation and World safe and prosperous.

I now pray the Peace of Christ on this legislative body and ask You to bless them, as well as their families.
In Jesus Name I Pray
Amen

STATE OF THE MILITARYJANUARY 15, 2025*ADJUTANT GENERAL MICHAEL VENERDI

Mr. Speaker and Mr. Senate President, thank you for inviting me here. Governor Kelly, cabinet secretaries, elected officials, distinguished members of the legislature, and citizens of the Great State of Kansas, good morning! Thank you for the opportunity to address this body and discuss the great things the Soldiers, Airmen, and civilians of the Kansas National Guard are doing to make our state and nation safe, secure, and free. Before I begin, I want to recognize Speaker Pro Tempore Carpenter and Representative Turk for their service in our Kansas National Guard.

The Kansas National Guard comprises over 7,000 Soldiers, Airmen, and civilians. The National Guard is the primary combat reserve of the Army and Air Force, seamlessly providing forces to fight and win the nation's wars and defend the homeland.

The Guard has evolved from primarily a strategic reserve to an operational force with an expanded role in our modern military and national defense. It is no longer held solely in reserve for large-scale conflicts but is actively engaged in ongoing missions at home and abroad. This shift has positioned the Guard as a critical component of the total force, routinely deploying alongside Active-Duty counterparts for combat missions and peacekeeping operations.

Partnerships...a theme you will hear over and over again because they matter. Community partnerships enhance trust and enable the military to remain connected with the people it serves. This community engagement provides critical support to service members, improving morale and easing transitions during deployments and after service. These deep ties strengthen our shared history and create a more cohesive, resilient society.

Kansas proudly hosts three major federal military installations – Fort Riley, Fort Leavenworth, and McConnell Air Force Base. The Kansas National Guard has deep and enduring partnerships with each of these military installations. These partnerships immensely benefit Kansas, with an annual economic impact exceeding $5.2 billion and a seat at the table when national security decisions are being made. Members of our Congressional delegation sit on key committees and caucuses because of Kansas' prime military and defense resources.

The U.S. Army's First Infantry Division, based at Fort Riley, builds, maintains, and deploys combat-ready forces to conduct Decisive Action and fight and win in complex environments worldwide.

Last year, the Division's Combat Aviation Brigade completed a deployment to Europe in support of Operation Atlantic Resolve. Combat aviation has been a critical component of this operation, showcasing the United States' commitment to deterring aggression and ensuring stability in Europe, particularly in response to Russian activities near NATO borders.

The forward deployment of aviation units, such as Apache and Black Hawk helicopters, has bolstered reconnaissance, air support, and logistical operations, ensuring a swift and coordinated response to potential threats.

By integrating advanced aviation technology with allied cooperation, combat aviation under Operation Atlantic Resolve reinforces NATO's deterrence strategy and underscores the U.S.'s unwavering commitment to European security.

Fort Riley's training ranges host much of our Army National Guard training. This includes long-range fires for units like the 130th Field Artillery Brigade and the 1-635th Armor Regiment.

The U.S. Army's Combined Arms Center at Fort Leavenworth is considered the "Intellectual Center of the Army," and prepares the Army to successfully conduct unified land operations in a joint, inter-agency, inter-governmental, multinational environment.

Its training team produces simulation tools to meet the readiness training requirements of National Guard units. Twelve full-time Army National Guard members work throughout the Combined Arms Center to ensure Active Duty and the National Guard are closely linked to Army transformation efforts.

Fort Leavenworth is investing $89 million to upgrade base housing and quality of life and an additional $37 million to construct a new Child Development Center. This will increase childcare capacity to over 300 children, with a groundbreaking scheduled this spring. These investments ensure that our military personnel have access to critical resources.

The Combined Arms Center has a strong relationship with the National Guard. Fort Leavenworth hosts our 35th Infantry Division, one of only eight divisions in the National Guard and only 18 divisions in the entire U.S. Army.

Finally, McConnell Air Force Base hosts our Air National Guard's 184th Wing, a force of cutting-edge intelligence, cyber security, and battlefield command and control Airmen, nearly 1,400 strong.

Last year, the U.S. Air Force's 22nd Air Refueling Wing at McConnell Air Force Base partnered with the Air Force Reserve's 931st Air Refueling Wing, utilizing the KC-46 Pegasus and KC-135 Stratotanker to deliver global air refueling capabilities, airlift, and aeromedical evacuation to U.S. armed forces, NATO and coalition forces.

Team McConnell had a monumental year, executing the first KC-46 circumnavigation flight. Project Magellan executed a west-bound nonstop flight around the world, taking off and landing at McConnell. This Maximum Endurance Operation enables greater reach over greater distances to surge personnel, supplies, and aircraft anywhere in the world.

Reservists from McConnell also performed extended aeromedical evacuation capabilities, in one instance conducting a mission to Hawaii, Guam, Japan, and back to the United States for seven patients.

Our work depends on our partnerships with our military installations and their leadership teams. The relationships are strong and enduring.

The National Guard is a unique military component with both a state and federal mission, allowing us to apply the personnel, training, and equipment for our wartime missions to our state responses in the homeland. When disaster strikes in the homeland, the National Guard stands ready to deploy and serve at a moment's notice to protect life and property in our communities.

2024 was a significant year for the Kansas National Guard. Nearly 1,200 Soldiers and Airmen were mobilized to support federal missions. The 635th Regional Support Group, headquartered in Wichita, had nearly 500 Soldiers from the Brigade's 1st Battalion, 635th Armor Regiment, deployed to the U.S. Central Command Area of Responsibility last year.

The Armor Regiment, based in Kansas City, operates Abrams tanks and Bradley Infantry Fighting vehicles.

Over their nearly year-long deployment, they conducted missions supporting Operation Spartan Shield and Operation Inherent Resolve across 12 countries in the region. Operation Inherent Resolve is the international coalition's intervention against the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant, commonly referred to as ISIS. Elements of the battalion conducted mounted combat patrols across eastern Syria.

The Battalion provided security for Operation Neptune Solace; a humanitarian mission led by the United States to deliver aid to the people of Gaza via a temporary floating pier. This operation significantly enhanced the delivery of humanitarian aid to Palestinian families in need.

Thanks to the security provided by our Soldiers from ground, sea, and air threats, Neptune Solace delivered over 25,000 tons of aid, the most ever for a humanitarian mission in the Middle East.

Additionally, 117 Soldiers from the Brigade's 242nd Engineer Company in Coffeyville deployed to the Southwest Border in Arizona, supporting U.S. Customs and Border Protection's Tucson Sector. Soldiers assisted in combatting drug trafficking, human smuggling, and other illicit activities that threaten public safety and economic stability.

Leveraging advanced surveillance technology and supporting coordinated Border Patrol operations, our Soldiers mitigated risks associated with terrorism and transnational crime, fostering a more secure and orderly border environment essential for national security and sovereignty.

Last year, the 69th Troop Command, based in Topeka, had 48 Soldiers from its 117th Medical Company deployed to Kuwait and Iraq. The team treated over 1,000 allied and coalition force personnel and managed the immediate area of triage. This is where the most critically wounded patients are initially stabilized, treated, and prioritized for surgery.

Additionally, seven Soldiers from the Brigade's 105th Mobile Public Affairs

Detachment deployed to the U.S. European Command in Poland to support Operation Assure, Deter and Reinforce. In response to Russia's invasion and ongoing military action against Ukraine, NATO forces in the Baltic act as a visible deterrent against expanded Russian aggression and demonstrate NATO's commitment to defending its members, which reinforces its guiding principle of collective defense. The Kansas National Guard Public Affairs Soldiers played a key role in countering Russia's extensive use of disinformation, misinformation, social media manipulation and other unconventional tactics.

The 69th Troop Command's 1st Battalion, 108th Aviation Regiment, deployed 87 Soldiers and their Blackhawk Helicopters to the Washington, D.C. region, where they are currently performing their federal mission. We look forward to their return next month.

The 130th Field Artillery Brigade's 170th Maintenance Company, headquartered in Manhattan, deployed 70 Soldiers to Central Command alongside the Armor Regiment in 2024. As part of Task Force Reaper, they performed over 6,000 hours of maintenance on a fleet of over 500 wheeled and tracked vehicles, allowing seamless operations and the completion of multiple gunnery cycles.

Perhaps nothing in the Kansas National Guard is more of a testament to partnerships than the 35th Infantry Division. We are incredibly fortunate to have this proud and historic headquarters in Kansas, which is one of only eight divisions in the Army National Guard. It has subordinate commands in Oklahoma, Missouri, Arkansas, Texas, and Tennessee. Through coordination, exercises, and partnerships across all the division-aligned states, the 35th stands ready for multi-domain and large-scale combat operations.

In 2024, they conducted a combined command post exercise with the 1st Infantry Division at Fort Riley, which included First Army, the U.S. Army's mobilization, readiness, and training command, as well as the National Guard Bureau's Mission Command Training Support Program.

The Kansas Army National Guard has five Brigade-equivalent commands. One of these, the 35th Division Artillery, is the newest unit in the Kansas National Guard. It was activated and federally recognized last September.

Its activation brings the division into closer parity with active-duty divisions and is a great step toward a fully equipped, deployable division ready for large-scale combat operations.

The Kansas Air National Guard deployed worldwide and at home in 2024. Airmen from the 190th Air Refueling Wing in Topeka deployed to four geographic combatant commands. Operating the KC-135 Stratotanker and providing rapid global mobility air power, the wing deploys expeditionary forces in support of worldwide combat, contingency, and humanitarian operations in addition to maintaining a nuclear deterrence tasking.

The Wing's 117th Air Refueling Squadron has crews supporting U.S. Strategic Command missions, maintaining a combat-ready force capable of deploying worldwide at a moment's notice, providing air refueling to support our nation's nuclear enterprise. Airmen from the 190th participated in eight major exercises primarily focused on the Great Power Competition and conducting air operations in contested environments with minimal support.

Partnering with outside entities to prepare for high-end combat, the Aircrew Training and Tactics section worked with Boeing and Air Mobility Command to validate low-level air refueling operations and introduce the Real Time Information in the Cockpit system. This capability allows the aircraft to receive, process, and display real-time information, including threats, mission updates, and friendly force positions. It significantly improves the aircrew's decision-making, enabling them to adapt to dynamic combat environments and conduct seamless coordination with other forces.

The 184th Wing in Wichita is one of few Air National Guard wings in the country that does not have aircraft. It provides unique capabilities to the Joint Force in cyber security, intelligence, and command and control.

In 2024, it mobilized and deployed almost 400 Airmen around the world and at home to conduct and support global contingency operations.

Smoky Hill Air National Guard Range near Salina, the largest bombing range in the Air National Guard, was host to several training events and exercises. These included multinational exercises with partners like Canada, the Netherlands, and New Zealand, as well as multiple components of the U.S. military, including Special Operations Forces.

The 184th Wing deployed members to Japan for the U.S.–Japanese Bilateral Intelligence Analysis Cell. This critical collaboration enhances regional security and addresses shared threats in the Indo-Pacific.

By combining intelligence resources, expertise, and advanced analytical tools, this partnership enables both nations to recognize emerging challenges, such as Chinese military activities, cyber threats, and regional instability.

While closing the chapter on an incredibly busy 2024, we are turning the page to 2025, where we continue to deploy forces to global combatant commands, modernize our forces, and train and exercise for future deployments.

We must build and maintain our readiness to respond and execute our missions across a spectrum of operations. It encompasses the training, equipment, facilities, personnel, and resources necessary to ensure units can rapidly deploy and perform their assigned duties under any conditions. By building readiness, we deter aggression from those who would harm us, bolstering state and national security.

This year's deployments will commence with the 190th Air Refueling Wing supporting U.S. Indo-Pacific Command. Its air refueling and rapid global mobility capabilities provide power projection and deterrence, enabling extended operational reach for aircraft across the vast expanse of the Pacific region.

By supporting bombers, fighters, airlift, and reconnaissance aircraft, their involvement allows the U.S. and its allies to maintain a persistent presence and respond swiftly to emerging threats. It ensures U.S. forces and allied partners can operate effectively from distant bases, countering the Chinese Communist Party's attempts to restrict access and free flow of commerce in the region through anti-access, area denial strategies.

The 184th Wing's Air Control Squadron will deploy to provide Command and Control of air assets across the U.S. Central Command Area of Responsibility, controlling aircraft and enabling a common air picture for the air component commander in the region. The Air Control Squadron is at the leading edge of integrating command and control with intelligence, surveillance, and reconnaissance, which is a significant initiative of the U.S. Air Force.

With an Air Control Squadron and two Intelligence Squadrons co-located, 184th Airmen are working closely together to become a single source of action against advanced adversaries like Russia and China.

By fusing these functions, the Air Force can achieve real-time situational awareness, enabling faster and more informed decision-making across all domains of warfare.

Our Army National Guard units are continuing preparations for their upcoming deployments. The 130th Field Artillery Brigade will deploy to the U.S. Central Command Area of Responsibility, supporting Operation Spartan Shield and Operation Inherent Resolve.

The Brigade will serve as Army Central Command's Force Field Artillery Headquarters. The brigade will provide theater-level planning and synchronization of long-range, precision artillery fires while conducting theater security training engagements with host nation field artillery forces, building partner nation readiness and lethality.

With a home-station mission, the 235th Regiment provides and facilitates training and accreditation for units from 18 states. In 2025, it will train over 40,000 Soldiers, Airmen, Marines, and first responders.

The Regiment's Officer Candidate School and Warrant Officer Candidate School partner with 14 states to train and commission Officers and Warrant Officers. This rigorous program combines military discipline and intense academic instruction to forge tomorrow's military leaders. Successful candidates emerge ready to lead and troops and adapt to complex, ever-changing operational environments.

As we build readiness, we have two major initiatives we are working on at the federal level. First, the U.S. Army has equipped its Active-Duty Divisions with MQ-1 Gray Eagle unmanned aircraft but did not equip the eight National Guard Divisions. Congress has funded two Guard divisions in recent years, and we are working to make the 35th Infantry Division the third. This is a critical capability as the Army transforms how it fights with a directive that unmanned systems will make first contact with the enemy.

Army National Guard Divisions must be equipped like their Active-Duty counterparts, and we are asking our Congressional delegation to advocate on our behalf to fund this capability.

Second, the 190th Air Refueling Wing is one of seven finalists to receive the KC-46 Pegasus aerial refueling aircraft to replace its aging fleet of KC-135 Stratotankers. The transition to the KC-46 Pegasus represents a significant upgrade in air refueling capabilities, including greater fuel capacity, advanced refueling systems, and increased reliability.

The KC-46's enhanced defensive systems and situational awareness features make it more survivable in contested environments, a critical advantage when operating against near-peer competitors like China and Russia. This modernization ensures that the 190th Air Refueling Wing can sustain global operations, maintain strategic reach, and project global power. It reinforces its ability to deter aggression and respond decisively to threats in an increasingly contested battlespace.

As we compete with six other states for this mission, we will receive a site visit at Forbes Field in March to present our case that Topeka and Kansas are unparalleled in our ability to host and execute this new mission. Kansas is an ideal location for next-generation capabilities due to its central geographic location, which provides strategic national defense and logistics advantages. Our vast open spaces and uncongested airspace are well-suited for aviation operations, integrated training exercises, and testing advanced technologies.

Kansas is second to none when it comes to a strong tradition of military support. Our local communities foster a welcoming environment for service members, affordable cost of living, a strong education system, and Midwest values that embrace the patriotic mission of our military force. We are thankful to have your support as we pursue this new mission for Topeka and for Kansas and expect a decision late this year.

Allow me to transition to a strategic gem in the Department of Defense...the State Partnership Program. Under this program, states conduct military-to-military engagements through the National Guard with a designated foreign nation partner to support defense security goals while leveraging whole-of-government relationships. This facilitates broad interagency cooperation spanning government, economic, education, and social spheres. Since 2003, Kansas has enjoyed a partnership with the Republic of Armenia. Last year was a monumental year for that relationship.

In cooperation with U.S. European Command, we assisted in the establishment of the Armenian Noncommissioned Officer course, focusing on leader development. Our American Noncommissioned Officer Corps is renowned as a highly educated, disciplined enlisted force capable of leading and making decisions at the lowest level.

We participated in Eagle Partner 2024, a bilateral exercise between U.S. Army Europe and Armenia to exercise interoperability during peacekeeping and stability operations.

Additionally, Kansas trained alongside Armenia's 12th Peacekeeping Brigade as it prepared for and passed its NATO evaluation, qualifying it for future NATO missions. Key leader engagements took place throughout 2024, including a visit to Kansas by the honorable Lilit Makunts, the Armenian Ambassador to the United States. She met with Governor Kelly and discussed the whole-of-government relationship between Kansas and Armenia.

Armenia sits at the crossroads of Europe and Asia, making it a critical player in regional and global geopolitics. It shares a border with Turkey, Georgia, Azerbaijan, and Iran and lies near Russia.

This positioning provides Armenia with both opportunities and challenges and serves as a vital link between major energy corridors and trade routes. The State of Kansas and the Kansas National Guard are key partners for continued peace and prosperity in Armenia and the Caucasus. We look forward to many more years in this great partnership.

Unlike any other military service component, the National Guard stands alone in its authority to act in domestic operations. Under the authority of our Commander in Chief, the Kansas Governor, we are available for the state's disaster response and providing support during emergencies.

The National Guard is instrumental in maintaining public safety and supporting local authorities. We work alongside local and state agencies to strengthen the state's resilience and provide resources when needed.

This unique hybrid state and federal military organization has its roots long before the foundation of our country itself. The National Guard's origins date back to December 13, 1636, when the Massachusetts Bay Colony established organized militia units to protect its settlements. Rooted in the concept of a community-based defense force, these early militias were composed of ordinary citizens who took up arms to safeguard their homes and neighbors.

This tradition of citizen-soldiers laid the foundation for what would become the National Guard, embodying the principle that a nation's defense begins at the local level. Over centuries, the Guard has evolved into a dual-purpose force, ready to respond to state emergencies and federal missions while maintaining its deep ties to communities.

Its enduring legacy as America's oldest military organization highlights the unique bond between service members and the civilians they serve. The organization upholds a tradition of readiness, resilience, and patriotism that has lasted nearly 400 years.

The Kansas National Guard responded to multiple events around the state in 2024. Blackhawk helicopters from the 1st Battalion, 108th Aviation Regiment, performed fire suppression missions in Riley, Pottawatomie, Marshall, and Sedgwick Counties, conducting 166 water drops. Cyber personnel supported the Kansas Office of Information Technology Services in response to a cyber incident against the Judicial Branch.

The Kansas National Guard Counterdrug Task Force provided analytical support to ten agencies. They provided analysis and enhanced communication between local, state, and federal agencies. The Task Force's analytical support led to multiple felony arrests and seizures of drugs, cash, weapons, and vehicles, totaling tens of millions of dollars in street value.

The 73rd Civil Support Team is a 22-person unit comprised of personnel drawn from the Kansas Army and Air National Guard. The unit supports civil authorities in chemical, biological, radiological, or nuclear material incidents by identifying substances, assessing current and projected consequences, advising on response measures, and assisting with appropriate requests for additional support.

The 73rd CST conducted two live missions supporting civilian partners by screening a potential bio lab and testing suspicious materials. The 73rd Civil Support Team also conducts standby operations to ensure the safety of public events in Kansas and throughout the United States and its territories.

The team supported state and federal agencies as part of Joint Hazard Assessment Teams at over 20 events, including NASCAR races, Wichita Riverfest, major sporting events, concerts, and the Kansas State Fair. During two external evaluations, they were given exceptional ratings.

Our Guardsmen respond to incidents throughout the state using our armories in the local communities. The Kansas National Guard maintains 38 armories, six field maintenance shops, and additional training and logistical support facilities—admittedly a significant footprint for a state of our size. However, our National Guard armories serve as vital hubs for military readiness and community connection, symbolizing the intersection of defense and local support.

These facilities provide a base for National Guard units to train, prepare, and mobilize for national defense and disaster response missions. Beyond their military function, armories are rooted in the fabric of local communities, often hosting public events, emergency shelters, and civic activities. They serve as a point of pride and resilience, reminding residents of the Guard's dual mission to protect the nation and support neighbors in need.

As the state's needs change, we constantly evaluate the laydown of our forces and armories. A key consideration in these decisions is how we respond to emergencies across the state, our ability to recruit and retain Soldiers at each location, and the strategic alignment of forces. As we look to the future, we will continue to evaluate our force structure and armory footprint to ensure that we are ready to meet any challenge at home or abroad.

Several major construction and renovation projects are underway as we modernize our force for the future fight. A new federally funded Joint Force Headquarters building at Forbes Field in Topeka will be completed in the next few months.

In November, Governor Kelly broke ground on a new headquarters for the Kansas Division of Emergency Management, which will also house the new State Emergency Operations Center. This project is also federally funded, utilizing American Rescue Plan Act funds.

Site preparation is underway in Hays to construct a new armory in a project funded by the state legislature. I want to express my gratitude to you for your investment in that armory.

Additionally, we are renovating and modernizing two armories in Kansas City, including one that was acquired from the Army Reserve and will eventually function as a new brigade headquarters.

Finally, we are competing for a federally funded project on Fort Riley to construct a new headquarters for the 130th Field Artillery Brigade, which we expect to begin around 2030. We strive to build our facilities using the latest technology to be cost-effective and energy- resilient. And that work has carried over to our current facilities.

We have completed significant energy consumption and cost reduction projects by installing technologies such as LED lighting retrofits, high-efficiency HVAC systems, direct digital controls, water line infrastructure improvements, and ground source heat pump technology.

Solar energy projects are underway in Salina and Topeka, with future projects at Fort Leavenworth and Fort Riley. These projects will realize cost efficiency and energy resilience through emergency power generation for two of the state's major concentrations of forces.

Another area of interest for the National Guard is education. By working with our community partners we provide the STARBASE program, an educational initiative designed to inspire and prepare youth, particularly those in underserved communities, for careers in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics.

These hands-on experiences and immersive learning opportunities introduce students to the critical thinking and problem-solving skills essential for STEM fields. This program directly supports U.S. national security by cultivating a patriotic and well-educated workforce capable of innovating and maintaining the advanced technologies that underpin the nation's defense capabilities. STARBASE is our investment in the next generation of Kansas leaders and innovators. We provide this program with an annual federal investment of $2.7 million dollars.

Kansas has the largest STARBASE program in the country, with five primary sites in Kansas City, Manhattan, Salina, Topeka, and Wichita, and a sixth will be a satellite program in the new Hays armory once it opens.

Last year, we provided educational programs, STEM clubs, youth camps, and Junior ROTC outreach to over 14,000 Kansas school children. I want to expressly thank Senators Brenda Dietrich and Elaine Bowers for their leadership on the Kansas STARBASE Board of Directors.

Recruiting and retention is foundational for everything we do in the National Guard.

As a force composed of citizen-Soldiers and Airmen, the Guard relies on recruiting motivated individuals from diverse communities who bring unique skills and perspectives to the organization. Effective recruiting ensures that we remain fully staffed and prepared to respond to emergencies, natural disasters, and military missions at home and abroad.

Retention, on the other hand, preserves institutional knowledge, leadership experience, and operational expertise, which are essential for maintaining unit cohesion and readiness.

The Kansas Army National Guard had a tremendous recruiting year in 2024. Thanks to the extraordinary efforts of our Recruiting and Retention Battalion and your partnership as a legislature in providing benefits to our Soldiers and Airmen, we have 100 more people in our formations than we did a year ago.

The Guard's ability to sustain its ranks depends on providing service members with the right combination of benefits, educational opportunities, and professional development.

It also takes a strong sense of purpose, and support for balancing military and civilian lives. We can't do this on our own, and this is where we look to you for assistance and partnership in building a strong, ready, and resilient force.

Our strong retention numbers are also an indicator of the culture we have built of putting people first. Fostering a culture that prioritizes our people creates an environment where our members feel valued, respected, and supported. Our strong retention numbers show this is happening in Kansas.

Last session, you passed a comprehensive update to modernize the Kansas Code of Military Justice and overhaul the Department's administrative functions. Many of these had been in place since the late 1800s and desperately needed an update.

Our commanders now have the modern tools and guidance to lead and manage their formations. Last session, we also partnered with the Kansas Department of Labor to pass a bill to include National Guardsmen performing State Active Duty in the workers compensation program. This is a tremendous upgrade in providing coverage if our members are injured in the line of duty for our state.

A highly educated military force is essential for maintaining operational effectiveness and addressing the complex challenges of modern warfare. Education enhances critical thinking, decision-making, and adaptability, enabling Guardsmen to assess dynamic situations and develop innovative solutions.

The Educational Masters for Enhanced Readiness and Global Excellence, or EMERGE Act, expanded National Guard scholarships to include Master's Degrees. This important upgrade brought Kansas into parity with 36 other states already offering this to their own National Guardsmen. By investing in the education of its National Guard personnel, Kansas not only enhances readiness and capability but also equips its members to excel in their civilian careers, doubling the return on investment and reinforcing the connection between military service and the state's prosperity.

We continue to make progress on employment initiatives for Guardsmen and their spouses. Many Guardsmen transfer states during their careers, and streamlining employment processes is essential as they and their families navigate the challenges of having both military and civilian careers. It makes Kansas an appealing destination for members looking to transfer.

In 2024, bills were passed to streamline military spouse licensing and enact interstate licensing compacts for dentists, dental hygienists, and social workers. Kansas has now passed about half the interstate employment licensing compacts available.

These compacts streamline the transfer of occupational licenses across state lines, allowing Guardsmen and military spouses to maintain their careers without significant delay or financial strain. We look forward to continuing to work with you on employment initiatives in 2025.

This year, we will continue to work on education initiatives. We are due for a comprehensive update of our education programs, addressing both undergraduate and graduate programs.

As I mentioned earlier, cutting-edge education programs hone and sharpen our force to overcome any challenge. Education benefits are also one of the most powerful tools for recruiting and retaining the highest caliber of service members.

The best part of this initiative is that these programs are already funded adequately, so we are not asking for additional money. All we are looking for is the modernization of the statutes.

Finally, we look forward to support for initiatives that benefit military families. Childcare, especially, remains a challenge for our members. The Kansas Army National Guard participated in a pilot program in 2024 that was a collaborative effort between the Army Reserve, the Army National Guard, and Upwards, the nation's largest childcare network.

This pilot program offered no-cost childcare to eligible military families on drill weekends, which are very difficult times for our members to find childcare. While this is a step in the right direction, it is still only a pilot and does not address the needs of our Air National Guard families.

The strength of our service members is deeply connected to the support of their family. By fostering resilience and stability at home, family programs enhance the morale and focus of the service members and enable them to perform their duties with confidence and peace of mind. The strength of our military families is directly tied to the readiness and effectiveness of our force.

As a professional military force, we are fortunate to work all these issues in a nonpartisan manner and as a nonpartisan institution dedicated to defending our state and nation and upholding treasured constitutional principles.

Such impartiality is vital to maintaining public trust and the integrity of our mission. By focusing on state and national security, we preserve our role as a stabilizing, trusted force. This stance safeguards democracy by ensuring that military power remains subordinate to civilian control and accountable to the collective will of the people.

Thank you for the opportunity to tell the story of our Guardsmen and their families. They are the quiet professionals who seamlessly blend civilian and military careers in Kansas and in the National Guard.

Thank you for your partnership in building readiness and especially in the recruiting and retention initiatives that are critical to building our force. It is the honor of a lifetime to serve as the 36th Adjutant General of the great State of Kansas.

I look forward to working together this legislative session, across the Executive and Legislative branches of our government, to do what I know everyone in this room is here to do – make Kansas safe, secure, free, and the best state in the nation to live, work, and raise a family.

Your unwavering support of the Kansas National Guard makes that possible. May God bless all of us in that endeavor, the state of Kansas, and God Bless the United States of America. Thank you!

AFTERNOON SESSION

The House met pursuant to recess with Speaker Hawkins in the chair.

It being the hour in accordance with HCR 5002 to meet in joint session with the Senate to hear the message of the State of the Judiciary, Reps. Humphries, Laura Williams and Curtis escorted members of the Supreme Court to seats in the House.

Reps. Lewis, Resman and Martinez escorted members of the Senate to seats in the House.

STATE OF THE JUDICIARY JANUARY 15, 2025 CHIEF JUSTICE MARLA LUCKERT

Mr. Speaker, Mr. President, Governor Kelly, legislators, other honored dignitaries, and my fellow Kansans—good afternoon.

Thank you, Speaker Hawkins and President Masterson, for the opportunity to provide a report on the state of the Kansas judiciary.

I want to first congratulate the new members on your election to the Legislature and the returning members on their re-election. And congratulations to all those elected to a leadership position. New members, I look forward to meeting you. You will soon learn, if you don't already know, that I strongly believe we do better leading our great state when we work together.

This is the fourth time I've had the honor of speaking in this beautiful chamber. In contrast to the previous occasions, I won't be talking about how the courts dealt with a disaster that required re-engineering virtually every business process. I am very, very happy to report we had no worldwide pandemic to deal with, and no attack by foreign cybercriminals.

When I told my oldest granddaughter that I would not be talking about cybercriminals like I did last year when she attended my address to you, her immediate response was, "Sounds kind of boring." Still, she came, along with her parents and her grandfather, who are in the gallery. Her presence means a great deal to me for many reasons. Most relevant to today is the fact she inspires me. She, her sister, her cousins, and their friends motivate me to do all I can to ensure we have a strong, accessible, and trusted legal system for them and generations to come. Sadly, if we maintain the status quo, that dream is at risk.

I make that grim prediction because the stark reality is that we have a justice gap in Kansas and across the country—a growing divide between people with the means to access basic legal services and people who need those services but cannot afford them or, even if they can, are unable to find an attorney within a reasonable driving distance to represent them. As the recently retired Chief Justice of Texas told the United States Congress a few months ago, the "justice gap also threatens the integrity of the rule of law itself, suggesting that it applies not to all and not equally, as promised, but only to people of means." It is our duty to protect the rule of law—that core tenet of our democratic society, which President Dwight Eisenhower described as "ensur[ing] justice between man and man however humble the one and however powerful the other."

When I think of this gap, I see the faces of real people in my courtroom when I was a trial judge. The young mother with small children whose spouse moved them to Kansas for a job and then abandoned them, leaving her with no money, no food, no car, no pride, and no support in a community of strangers. The grizzled combat vet overwhelmed by medical debt from his wife's last illness. The list goes on and on and on.

If we are to help these people and avoid an all-out crisis, complacency cannot be our approach. We must all put on our hero capes and work together to find solutions. I'd like to share some thoughts about how we might do that.

Courts can and are doing many things, including working to simplify procedures without sacrificing due process. Our court system and rules of procedure, both civil and criminal, were built to handle complex cases in which the parties are represented by attorneys. For those complex cases, the system works well and fosters just results. But those cases make up only a small part of the 330,000 plus cases Kansas judges handle every year. In the rest of the cases, those procedures slow resolution, are inefficient, and are costly. And in 80 to 90 percent of cases at least one party appears without an attorney.

Our court system is not well-equipped to serve these self-represented litigants, and they face many barriers.

In one study, researchers identified almost 200 discrete tasks that self-represented litigants must perform in even simple cases. Some are straightforward, but others can be complex, requiring the ability to read complicated documents, research, gather evidence, and understand difficult legal principles.

Missing just one step could mean you have to start the process all over again or even cause the case to be dismissed, sometimes without the option to refile. The failure can carry enormous consequences for an individual—a loss of property, a staggering judgment, a loss of home, a division of their family. Plus, study after study shows that those consequences have a rippling, negative impact on communities, other public services, and the economy.

I have had the honor of chairing a national project that developed guidelines to simplify and expedite procedures for cases like evictions, debt collection, and uncomplicated employment and contract cases. The objective is to make the system easier to navigate for litigants who represent themselves, help connect them with community resources, and make the process more efficient for legal aid providers.

Two Kansas courts—Sedgwick and Douglas Counties—that have implemented these procedures in eviction cases were highlighted during a nationwide webinar series conducted as part of this project. Johnson County also has a similar docket.

These courts and the national effort were aided by the work of the Kansas Ad Hoc Committee on Best Practices for Eviction Proceedings. That committee is chaired by Judge Sarah Warner, who became Chief Judge of the Kansas Court of Appeals on Monday. The committee she chaired developed best practice advice and many resources, including a six-video series explaining the Kansas eviction process.

Johnson County is piloting similar innovations in its domestic dockets. It diverts high conflict or complicated cases to one procedural path and less complicated cases to a more streamlined process. Again, the goal is to simplify, expedite, and reduce costs without sacrificing due process and justice.

These efforts supplement the growing body of forms, videos, and resource packets made available on many subjects in courthouses, libraries, and online. And the number of self-help centers and court navigator programs designed to assist the self-represented litigants continue to grow.

We also continue to work on providing more online services to self-represented litigants. In previous addresses, I've mentioned our cutting-edge portal. It allows a victim of abuse, stalking, sexual assault, or human trafficking to complete an application for a protective order using a guided form and other tools that explain the process. It also directs the applicant to both legal and nonlegal resources. In calendar year 2024, more than 60% of all protection order petitions filed statewide were filed through the portal. About 40% of these petitions arrived outside of normal business hours, which shows how online services help us meet public needs.

We are also a member of a national project focused on developing guided e-filing systems for self-represented litigants. Our goal is to build a sustainable, secure, and highly navigable e-filing platform for self-represented litigants in Kansas.

Even with these reforms, justice partners who help self-represented civil litigants are overwhelmed. So we have requested a budget increase to support the growth of our various programs designed to help self-represented litigants and to increase the fund that provides grant support for others' efforts to meet these needs. We respectfully request your support for this funding. Your investment will have impact across Kansas and in your communities.

As to the justice gap in juvenile offender cases, each of the three branches has received the National Juvenile Defense Center's assessment of juvenile defense in Kansas. The report presents us with a call to action after noting current deficiencies in meeting the constitutional obligation to provide effective assistance of counsel. It provides us with a roadmap for reform that deserves discussion, and we look forward to participating in that process.

The Juvenile Defense Center's report highlights that there is no substitute for having an effective attorney by your side when you have legal issues. But judges obligated under the United States and Kansas Constitutions to appoint attorneys increasingly struggle to find attorneys to represent people at both the trial and appellate levels. Even where attorneys are taking these cases, they often have high caseloads that hinder their ability to efficiently provide quality representation.

Like judges, everyday Kansans seeking legal assistance often have trouble finding an attorney because we face a shortage, especially in rural Kansas. Two years ago, I established the Rural Justice Initiative Committee to gather data and make recommendations about how to respond to the attorney shortage. The committee, led by Justice K.J. Wall, includes leaders from across the state with a passion and interest in serving rural Kansas, including Senator Elaine Bowers and Senator (formerly Representative) Tory Blew. The committee reported their findings a few weeks ago on December 20.

Some findings were not surprising: For example, they confirmed we have a shortage of attorneys across all counties. But other data points were startling. For example, there are more active attorneys with a Kansas law license practicing in Kansas City, Missouri than in all our Kansas rural communities combined. And in 98 of the 100 Kansas counties classified as rural, there are two or less active attorneys per 1,000 residents, which is half the number reportedly necessary to meet demand. This shortage impacts Kansans with legal needs. But there are other consequences because attorneys run small businesses, they employ people, and they and their families generally strengthen the fabric of their communities as they often take on leadership roles.

The report includes ten recommendations that address the major barriers to recruiting and retaining rural attorneys. These include asking the Supreme Court to collaborate with the Kansas Legislature and our law schools to establish a rural attorney training program and tuition reimbursement incentives for those who attend a Kansas law school and ultimately practice in rural Kansas. These recommendations are modeled after similar initiatives aimed at addressing other professional shortages in rural Kansas, like doctors and veterinarians. We look forward to introducing that legislation this session.

We also see a justice gap in Child in Need of Care cases. We have already taken steps to help with this problem and, working together, we have made monumental strides thanks to our three-branch child welfare initiative. This initiative is chaired by Justice Melissa Standridge. Last April, more than 700 participants came together at the first Child Welfare Summit to discuss ways to make lasting improvements for children and families navigating our child welfare system.

If you know Justice Standridge, then you know this wasn't a sit-and-get kind of conference. This summit called for leaders at all levels—district judges, child welfare workers, advocates, agencies, and state elected officials—to work collaboratively to identify strategies and best practices.

In the months following the summit, three significant projects have started. The first is being called "Child Welfare Reimagined." It is a legislative project that came about at the direction of House Majority Leader Chris Croft. The project has been led by former Representative Susan Concannon and Representative Jarrod Ousley. The goal is to identify child welfare policy reforms to be initiated over the next three to five years.

The second project is Families Ad Astra, a judicial branch project that brings together local and statewide legal partners to improve court processes and legal advocacy in Kansas child protection cases.

The third project relates to bringing the specialty court model to family court. You may have heard me speak before about our growing use of specialty courts to handle criminal cases in which drug or alcohol abuse or mental illness is detected as an underlying cause of a person's criminal behavior. The Family Treatment Courts use a similar concept when one or more family members have a substance abuse addiction. Like all other specialty courts, family treatment courts use a multidisciplinary team to coordinate services, hold the participants accountable, and provide them support in meeting their goals—all in a non-adversarial environment the parents voluntarily enter. Participants agree to the court's policies and procedures, which include increased court participation, chemical dependency treatment, and intense case management so they can reunite with their children.

In September, three pilot family treatment courts began operating in Miami, Lyon, and Cowley counties. This effort would not have been possible without support from the Department for Children and Families and the Department for Aging and Disability Services. The interbranch collaboration on this project has been amazing, and we are thankful for everyone's hard work.

We also saw more and more other specialty courts. Our district courts operate drug courts, veteran treatment courts, behavioral and mental health courts, and youth courts. What we know, and now have data to support, is that people who graduate from a specialty court program have a better chance of living a stable life without repeat offenses that would bring them back into the court system. Unfortunately, these programs are not available in every judicial district. So we have a gap in access.

But we have taken steps to address this problem through the work of a statutorily created 12-member committee. The committee has already undertaken a variety of projects, including evaluating funding resources and recommending legislation and rules to aid developing specialty courts.

The Specialty Court Funding Advisory Committee includes four legislators: Senator Rick Billinger, Senator Kellie Warren, Senator Ethan Corson, and now-Senator (formerly Representative) Stephen Owens. This year, that committee is recommending the appropriation of $3 million to support the ongoing work of specialty courts.

We look forward to sharing with the Judiciary and Budget committees the work being done by our specialty courts and to explain how they offer a powerful return on investment for Kansas.

As I close, I want to express appreciation for your support. I also want to invite you to listen to arguments before the Supreme Court a week from today at 5:30 p.m. in what was formerly the Supreme Court courtroom on the third floor of this building. The case involves the interpretation of a statute you passed as part of the Kansas Tort Claims Act.

To all in the chamber, thank you for your service, your leadership, and your dedication to the great state of Kansas. And thank you to all judicial branch employees and judges. It's been a trying year in the aftermath of the cyberattack and the completion of our transition to a statewide case management system. Not only have you endured those trials, but it's also your inspiring work that has brought about the innovation and reforms I have discussed.

Together we are making great strides in improving and strengthening our courts and serving our communities. But much work remains to be done. Together, let's do all we can to give future generations a justice system that protects the rule of law and provides access to justice for every Kansan regardless of means or where they live.

May you and our great state be blessed. Thank you.

STATE OF THE STATE
JANUARY 15, 2025
GOVERNOR LAURA KELLY

Mr. Speaker...Mr. President...Madam Chief Justice and the entire Kansas Supreme Court...members of my Cabinet...leaders of the Kansas tribes...and all the constitutional officers and legislators assembled – it is an honor to speak with you tonight.

It is also my honor to welcome Lieutenant Governor David Toland and his family: his wife Beth and their children Caroline and William – along with my family members, especially my granddaughter Rory, who are joining us tonight via live stream.

For much of my time in office, we've been focused on righting the wrongs of the past – getting our state back on the road to prosperity. And that's exactly what we've accomplished together:

We've funded our public schools six years in a row.

We've balanced the state budget six years in a row.

We've closed the Bank of KDOT and invested in our roads, bridges, and broadband.

We've attracted the largest economic development projects in the history of our state.

We've paid down our debt. We've seen our state's financial ratings be upgraded three times.

We've completely axed the tax on groceries.

As of two weeks ago, no Kansan is paying state sales taxes on groceries. It took a while, but we finally got it done.

And there is more tax relief on its way. In total, I've signed into law $2 billion in tax cuts.

It wasn't easy, but together, we made it happen for Kansans.

This April, seniors won't pay any state income tax on their Social Security.

A higher standard deduction will ensure that Kansans pay less when they file their taxes.

And we lowered the tax that everyone hates – the property tax.

In an era that might be defined for its divisiveness at the national level, we've shown that here in Kansas, we can still find common ground and get things done.

We have accomplished so much.

But because of the nature of our challenges, we've often been so focused on whatever's needed immediate fixing – our schools, our infrastructure, our foster care system – that we haven't always spent as much time talking about what lies ahead for Kansas. Not just next year or the year after, but in the decades ahead – the Kansas we'll leave for our children and for our grandchildren.

Since I've been in office, we have built an incredibly strong foundation for our state – Kansas has never been in better financial shape. Responsible, steady governance has earned Kansas recognition nationwide for our economic achievements and for our education system.

And now, it's time to build on that foundation. We're two weeks into 2025 – a quarter of the way through the 21st century.

So tonight, instead of looking back at last year and ahead through the current year, let's think about the rest of the century and how we prepare for it.

As the CEO of the state, I am going to deliver what is, essentially, a quarterly report – outlining how we've reached key metrics over the past 25 years and what we must accomplish over the next 75 years for Kansas to prosper throughout the rest of the 21st century.

When I think back on the year 2000, it's hard to fathom just how much Kansas – and the nation and the world in which we live – has changed.

I wasn't in politics yet; I was across the street as the Executive Director of the Kansas Recreation and Park Association.

In 2000, except for Representatives Ballard and Helgeson and Senator Haley, none of us were here in this chamber.

In 2000, fewer than 5 percent of rural Americans had internet access. A gallon of gas cost $1.50 and the average price of a dozen eggs was 91 cents.

There were no smartphones. Social media was still in its infancy. People actually talked to one another at the dinner table.

Our world has changed in colossal ways. Probably more than in any 25-year period in history.

Everything moves so quickly now. Maybe a little too quickly.

When I talk to Kansans – I hear two things that can be true at once.

First, Kansans are excited about the future. They really are – they see the new educational opportunities and the new innovative companies setting up shop here in Kansas – and they can see bright futures for themselves and for their children.

But I can also hear in people's voices that they're worried – worried that the traditions they grew up with, the way of life they cherish so much – could be slipping away.

I think we can all relate to that – nobody really wants a world where we speak more to computers and AI bots than we do to our neighbors.

Nobody wants a world where it seems like we're always at each other's throats.

And as I think about our state's future, I keep coming back to the same thought: how do we embrace change, how do we embrace opportunity, how do we embrace innovation, but do it the Kansas way?

Where we remain true to our Kansas core values: a place where 'the good life' means getting a great education, working hard, and doing right by our children, our grandchildren, and our neighbors.

Where our common decency always rises above our differences.

As the leaders of our state, we have a responsibility to set this tone – to show Kansans that we, too, have our eye on the future – that we intend to embrace it the Kansas way. Starting right now.

First, let's talk about our very youngest Kansans.

Children born today will live to see the 22nd century.

How we invest in those children now will determine our state's trajectory for the rest of this century.

Research is clear that a child's experiences from birth to age five determine the trajectory of his or her entire life, from social/emotional development to academic achievement to career success.

We've done a lot on this front over the past few years. We've aggressively tackled our child care crisis, recognizing that shortages across the state and skyrocketing costs have handicapped our workforce, our businesses, and hurt our children during their most formative years.

Because of our investments and our work to lift up child care providers, today, more families can access affordable, quality early childhood education and care than ever before.

Even better – we are on track to add more child care capacity in the next two years than we have in the past 15. Families are still struggling with the cost of child care – but we are addressing this issue with the urgency it requires.

But all of this would be so much easier if we eliminated the red tape that makes it so difficult for so many families to access services – and for child care providers to even operate.

Right now, early childhood services are siloed in four different state agencies. If a family is searching for care for a newborn, that family must navigate among three different agencies to figure out which program is the right fit.

If a child care center wants to get off the ground, it must work with one state agency to get licensed, another to receive financial aid and workforce support, and a third to get assistance with start-up costs.

A system overloaded with bureaucracy might be manageable for some parents and for some providers – but it is a nightmare for most families who don't have the time or the resources to plow through the maze of unnecessary paperwork.

And they shouldn't have to.

Thankfully, there's a solution readily available: Let's put the functions of these agencies under one roof – the Office of Early Childhood.

Let's offer a one-stop-shop for young families, for child care providers, and for businesses to access early childhood services. Let's do what Missouri, North Dakota, and Arkansas have already done.

In Kansas, this concept already enjoys bipartisan support: over 700 child care providers, business leaders, and families have spoken out in favor of the one-stop-shop idea. Last session, it passed the House with 110 votes.

Eliminating unnecessary government bureaucracy, cutting red tape, and making it easier for parents and businesses to support our kids isn't a Democratic or a Republican idea – it's a commonsense idea we can all get behind.

So, let's get this done.

But early childhood is just the first step. If we're going to continue to attract new businesses and young families – we must have strong public schools.

It's pretty straightforward: 90 percent of our students go to our public schools. Along with early childhood education and care, the smartest, most effective investment we can make in our next generation is through our public schools.

But even beyond the economic gains, when we talk about protecting the Kansas way of life – our public schools are the heart and soul of so many of our communities.

It's where we come together – particularly in our rural areas – for Friday night football and for school plays.

For carnivals and bake sales – it's where we gather to build strong communities.

So, for both the future we aspire to create and the values we aspire to maintain, we must continue to make our public schools our top priority.

That's why my budget proposal this year will again, for the seventh consecutive year, fully fund our public schools.

Prioritizing our public schools means investing in them. Protecting them. Always fighting to make them better. And never, ever taking taxpayer dollars from our public schools to give to private schools.

Doing so weakens our public school system, particularly in our rural communities. As a state, we just can't afford to do that.

So, simply put, I will continue to reject any attempt, no matter what it looks like, to re-route public taxpayer dollars to private schools.

So, now, back to the quarterly report.

In the last 25 years, high school graduation rates have increased by 11 percent – and today are at an all-time high.

Ten years ago, we were neglecting special education – ignoring state funding requirements and looking away as special education students didn't get the support they needed and are entitled to.

Last year, we invested $75 million into special education, the largest single-year investment in state history, putting our state on track to fully fund special education by the 28-29 school year.

In 2000, only 59 percent of fourth graders were reading at a basic level. We've made modest progress. According to the most recent data, 63 percent of our students have now reached that level. That is not good enough.

In response, last year, Republican and Democratic leaders came together and passed the Blueprint for Literacy. This is an all-hands-on-deck approach to ensure our teachers have the training and the tools they need to bring 90 percent of our students to the reading benchmark by 2033.

The Blueprint for Literacy is an amazing example of what can happen when we think long-term and when we work together.

I'd like to recognize the two people who championed the Blueprint for Literacy effort – former state Senator Molly Baumgardner and Dr. Cynthia Lane, who actually stepped down from her position as a member of the Kansas Board of Regents to direct this new initiative.

Unfortunately, Senator Baumgardner was unable to join us tonight, but Dr. Cynthia Lane, would you please stand and be recognized?

Because we came together, because we funded our public schools, we've gotten ourselves back on track, finally ending decades of litigation and judicial oversight.

We should all take pride in this milestone but we should not take it for granted.

And this is where we talk about taxes.

We cannot risk our state's financial stability by implementing any semblance of the reckless tax experiment that devastated our schools a dozen years ago.

As Kansans know, I'm all for tax cuts. To date, I've already signed over $2 billion in tax cuts – but going forward, I will not support any proposal that robs our schools of the funds they need to teach our children.

For instance, there was a proposal to slash the state corporate income tax to zero. That is a non-starter. We've seen that movie before. We know how it ends. We know what happened to our schools, to our roads, and to our reputation.

We must stay on the path to prosperity as we move through the rest of the 21st century.

With all that said, let me add a caveat: While I would prefer that we postpone discussions about taxes until next session, when we'll have a better handle on the full impact of the tax cuts we passed last year, I will consider proposals to modify our tax structure that pay for themselves and don't threaten our state's long-term financial health.

Speaking about long-term health issues – and, no, I am not going to talk about Medicaid Expansion, for now anyway... instead, I want to talk about childhood hunger.

Roughly 49 percent of Kansas kids live in low-income households. We know these kids cannot afford to pay for school lunches.

That's why my budget proposal this year will provide free school lunches to over 35,000 Kansas students, many of them in our rural areas.

When it comes to eliminating childhood hunger, we have advocates all over this state doing all they can to ensure our kids don't go to bed hungry and that they don't go to school hungry.

Let me introduce you to one of them.

Connie Vogts is the Director of Nutrition Services for USD 480 in Liberal. She is also the president of the Kansas School Nutrition Association. She knows firsthand how difficult it is for children to learn or even behave when they're hungry. Connie also knows how many hardworking families struggle to put food on the table.

Currently, 87 percent of students in USD 480 qualify for reduced or free lunch. That's the highest percentage anywhere in Kansas.

By eliminating this burden, we can reduce childhood hunger, we can reduce the stigma our low-income students face in our school cafeterias, and we can increase academic success.

In addition, we can streamline administrative nightmares for our school districts and for professionals like Connie.

Connie, thank you for what you do. Could you please stand and be recognized?

Let's do this for our children. Work with me to pass this budget and make sure no Kansas child goes hungry.

When I imagine the end of this century and the state our youngest Kansans will inherit, I see so many good things on the horizon.

But there is one thing that is seriously concerning: our dwindling water supply. Forget making it 75 years down the road – some parts of western Kansas don't have the groundwater to last another 25 years.

And without that water, the agricultural industry that fuels our economy and sustains our rural way of life cannot survive.

No one knows that better than Joe Ferguson. Joe is a soldier in the Kansas Army National Guard and a senior studying sustainable agriculture at Fort Hays State University.

After Joe graduates, he will return to Kensington, Kansas, as the fourth generation in his family to work their wheat, corn, and hay fields.

Even though he's only 23, Joe is already thinking about succession plans for his farm. What will he leave for that next generation? Will there be anything left for the next generation?

Joe's generation of family farmers are depending upon our generation of state leaders to secure the water supply.

Farmers like Joe are the backbone of our state – and the tradition of family farming is core to who we are. We owe it to Joe and other young farmers across the state and those who come after – to act now – before it's too late.

Joe, will you please stand and be recognized?

I'm so grateful to those of you in the legislature and beyond who have been working with me to change decades of inaction on our water supply. The Kansas Water Authority has gone all over the state, listening to farmers, crop insurers, feedlot owners, and bankers – over 1,500 stakeholders.

As a result, we've set a goal: From now on, each generation will work to protect our water supply for the next two generations that follow. We're calling it the multigenerational promise.

It may look different in different areas of the state, but the fundamentals are the same: stabilize the Ogallala Aquifer, maximize the capacity of our reservoirs, and ensure all Kansans have access to clean, sustainable water.

That requires us to attack this issue on two fronts:

First, we have to develop a better water management system.

Right now, water faces many of the same issues I described with early childhood: it's managed by 14 different agencies, making it very difficult, if not impossible, to align efforts around policy, planning, and investment.

If this is going to work, that's got to change – let's create an Office of Natural Resources.

Let's streamline our systems to make our work so much more efficient and effective.

Second, to deliver on that multigenerational promise, we need to invest more resources.

Last year, the legislature came together and provided $35 million additional dollars every year for the next five years.

In my budget tomorrow, I will propose another additional $30 million above what the legislature added two years ago to safeguard our water supply – bringing our overall investment to $90 million every single year.

In addition to enhanced resources, it is imperative that we develop a comprehensive, long-term, and sustainable strategy to ensure that Kansans have the water supply they need to exist, much less to thrive, for generations to come.

Over three and a half decades ago, the Kansas Legislature understood that to create a transportation system that would effectively serve our citizens, support commerce, and ensure public safety, we needed to have a strategic plan that included a dedicated funding source. And thus, the legislature created the first of now four comprehensive transportation plans.

That innovative, visionary thinking is exactly what Kansas needs now to ensure that people like Joe, his children, his grandchildren have the water needed to farm their land, preserve their communities and their way of life.

No doubt this is a tough task. Perhaps even more challenging than the one faced by the legislative task force that overhauled our transportation plan in 2018.

But it is one to which my office and so many of you are deeply committed.

We have already invested substantial resources in time, money, and political capital. We stand ready to support the legislature's efforts in any way we can to solve our state's most pressing problem.

If I'm presenting the Kansas quarterly report, I think it's fair to say that the first quarter brought us our share of challenges. In the last 25 years, Kansas has endured two historic recessions, a devastating tax experiment, a once-in-a-century pandemic, and then, global inflation. At times, we were dangerously close to collapse.

Given all that, it's amazing how we've brought our state back from the brink.

Since I've come into office, we have brought over $20 billion in new business investment to every corner of the state, created and retained more than 70,000 jobs, created the largest budget surplus and the largest rainy day fund Kansas has ever seen, and did it all while cutting taxes for veterans, for seniors, for homeowners, for businesses, and for our farmers and ranchers.

Long gone are the days of Kansas making headlines for failure and mismanagement. Now, we're attracting companies bringing in $4 billion and 4,000 jobs to De Soto, nearly $2 billion and 2,000 jobs to Wichita, and over $1 billion and 1,000 jobs to Dodge City.

We're winning award after award for economic development – just stop by David Toland's office sometime. There's barely space for all the trophies.

Now, I would like to introduce you to the Segraves family.

Two years ago, Mike Segraves, his wife Cassie, and their two children, Landon and Layne, moved to Independence, Kansas, from North Carolina.

Since then, they have welcomed their third child, Leigh, who was born in 2023 and thus is a Kansas native.

Mike is the Associate Vice President of Soy Processing for Bartlett Grain in Cherryvale, while Cassie works as a therapist providing much-needed mental health services for people in the community.

Their two older children are enrolled in public school at USD 446 in Independence, and their youngest just started daycare. Mike and Cassie have even formed a little league baseball team so Landon can continue to play his favorite sport.

They have been warmly welcomed by the community, and they are making significant contributions through Mike's work at Barlett Grain and Cassie's work in mental health.

Over the course of my administration, we have created a modern economy that's attracting cutting-edge companies and families like the Segraves.

Segraves family, please stand and be recognized.

You know, when you are able to recruit from Tarheel and Blue Devil country to Jayhawk and Wildcat country – I can't tell you how satisfying that is.

And when it comes to making Kansas a place more families want to call home, trust that I continue to be laser-focused.

We must keep supporting our home-grown businesses while working around the clock to bring new, innovative companies to Kansas – they're not just job creators, they're career creators.

And these are careers not just for people with four-year degrees.

I want a future where our economy is fueled by people in every corner of our state – where there are educational opportunities, be it an apprenticeship, an internship, a certificate, a two or four-year degree.

No matter where you're from or where you live – our cities, our suburbs, our rural communities – you need a career for which you are prepared, on which you can support a family, and for which you are passionate.

Let's agree right here, right now, that Kansas must continue to aggressively pursue innovative business opportunities, both domestic and overseas.

Speaking of opportunities, here's another idea: Medicaid expansion.

Now, I've proposed this the last six years, and I will propose it again this year.

Let's be honest: the only reason we haven't expanded Medicaid is partisan politics.

Over the past six years, all the horror myths around Medicaid expansion have been debunked, and all of our surrounding states have expanded.

The one myth that continues to linger here in Kansas is that expansion is too expensive. That is patently false.

In fact, it actually costs us money not to expand Medicaid.

In 2022, the cost to Kansas taxpayers was $68.5 million. In 2023, $71.5 million. In 2024, $61.8 million.

And if we don't expand Medicaid this year, 2025, it will cost Kansas taxpayers another $78.3 million.

In total we've wasted over $280 million Kansas taxpayer dollars holding on to an ideological falsehood.

Imagine the property tax relief we could have given Kansans.

And that doesn't count the $7.6 billion in Kansas taxpayer dollars that has been left on the table in Washington, D.C.

Imagine any CEO of any business rejecting nearly $700 million every year just to score a political point.

It just wouldn't happen in the real world.

If we can strip away partisan politics and just look at the numbers, we will expand Medicaid this year.

I'll end on this tonight: So often, it's easy to get lost in the day-to-day rough and tumble around here. How do we score points on him? How do we out-manuever her?

It's easy to forget that we aren't playing some kind of game here. We have real power. The decisions we make in this building touch every aspect of the lives of the people we work for.

And here's the truth – the Kansas our grandkids will inherit is up to us right now.

Is our agricultural economy booming because we preserved our water for farmers like Joe, or is rural Kansas dried up and deserted? That's up to us.

Are we turning out the best and brightest workers because we have made it a priority to ensure Kansas has superior public schools? That's up to us.

Is Kansas going to be an economic powerhouse in the center of our country – where young families, like the Segraves, move to build a life? That's up to us.

Will Kansas be a place where we hold on to the small-town traditions we cherish while also embracing the future with a sense of optimism and energy? That's up to us.

It only happens if we put partisanship aside and put Kansas and Kansans first.

The only way we'll move forward on any of the challenges facing us is if we recognize that both parties have brought good, commonsense ideas to the table. And, both parties have also brought some pretty wacky ideas to the table.

Our job is to lift up the commonsense, smart, reasonable ideas that will help Kansans – and then meet in the middle to get them done.

I'm not asking you not to love your political party – I'm just asking you to love your state a little more.

That's the only way we build that future we all want for Kansas.

Ad Astra Per Aspera. Thank you, and good night.

On motion on Rep. Croft, the House adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Thursday, January 16, 2025.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father,

Thank You for each Representative gathered in this chamber of debate and decision making.

May the wisdom of The God of the Universe provide direction and unusual insight as they work together to help every Kansas citizen to prosper in peace and harmony.

Let the words of Peter from the New Testament guide our thoughts and intents as we seek direction. He tells us to “supply moral excellence, and in your moral excellence, knowledge:

and in your knowledge, self control, and in your self control, perseverance, and in your perseverance, godliness, and in your godliness, brotherly kindness, and in your brotherly kindness, love.

For if these qualities are yours, and are increasing they render you neither useless or unfaithful.”

Help us, oh God, to be people of integrity and truthfulness.

Keep deceit from our lips and destructive manipulation from our actions.

Help us to always treat one another in the same way we ourselves want to be treated.

I thank you today for all our First Responders, who continue to meet the immediate needs of our communities.

Their willful reliability is a source of comfort to each of us.

Their desire to serve others in times of trauma and chaos is so appreciated.

Now, may the peace of God The Father, rest upon each one of these Representatives who have dedicated this period of their lives to making a difference in our daily lives as well as our future well being.

In Jesus Name I pray

Amen

By Representatives Hawkins, Croft and Woodard

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION adopting joint rules for the Senate and the House of Representatives for the 2025-2026 biennium.

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring therein: That the following joint rules shall be the joint rules of the Senate and House of Representatives for the 2025-2026 biennium.

JOINT RULES OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES 2025-2026

Joint Rule 1. Joint rules; application and date of expiration; adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation. (a) Joint rules; expiration, adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation; vote required. Joint rules are adopted under the authority of section 8 of article 2 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas and shall govern matters made subject thereto except when otherwise specifically provided by joint rule. Joint rules shall expire at the conclusion of the terms of representatives. Joint rules shall be adopted, amended, suspended and revoked by concurrent resolution of the two houses of the legislature. Concurrent resolutions adopting joint rules shall receive the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house.

(b) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules; previous notice; vote required. After one day's previous notice, joint rules may be amended, suspended or revoked by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house. Upon the filing of such notice in either house, a message shall be sent to the other house advising of the filing of such notice and the reading of the message shall constitute notice to the members of such house. If such previous notice is not given, the affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house shall be required for the amendment, suspension or revocation of a joint rule.

(c) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules at commencement of legislative session; vote required; conditions. Notwithstanding any provision of this rule to the contrary, no notice shall be required for the adoption of a concurrent resolution amending, suspending or revoking any one or more joint rules at the commencement of a legislative session, and adoption of any such concurrent resolution shall require only the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, subject to the following conditions: (1) The concurrent resolution is sponsored by the speaker or the president; and (2) either: (a) A copy thereof is mailed to each member of the legislature by deposit in the United States mails not later than 11:00 p.m. on the Thursday preceding the Monday on which the legislative session is to commence; or (b) in lieu of mailing, copies of the concurrent resolution are made available to members on the first day of the legislative session and final action is taken on a subsequent legislative day.

Joint Rule 2. Joint sessions. (a) Joint session called by concurrent resolution; vote required; time, place and subject matter. A joint session of the senate and house of representatives may be called by concurrent resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house of the legislature or as may otherwise be prescribed by law. Any such resolution shall fix the time and place of the joint session, and the subject matter to be considered at the joint session. Joint sessions shall consider only such matters as are prescribed by law or by the concurrent resolution calling such joint session.

(b) Presiding officer at joint sessions; record of joint session; rules applicable. The speaker of the house of representatives shall preside at all joint sessions of the senate and house of representatives, and the clerk of the house of representatives shall keep a record of the proceedings thereof and shall enter the record of each such session in the journal of the house of representatives. The rules of the house of representatives and the joint rules of the two houses, insofar as the same may be applicable shall be the rules for joint sessions of the two houses.

(c) Votes in joint session; taking; requirements. All votes in a joint session shall be taken by yeas and nays, and in taking the same it shall be the duty of the secretary of the senate first to call the names of the members of the senate, and after which the clerk of the house of representatives shall in like manner call the names of the members of the house. Each member of the senate and the house of representatives present shall be required to vote on all matters considered in joint session, unless excused by a vote of a majority of the members of both houses present.

Joint Rule 3. Conference committee procedure. (a) Action by house of origin of bill or concurrent resolution amended by other house. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned to the house of origin with amendments by the other house, the house of origin may: (1) Concur in such amendments; (2) refuse to concur in such amendments; or (3) refuse to concur in such amendments and request a conference on the bill or concurrent resolution.

(b) Concurrence by house of origin; concurrence prior to taking action on conference committee report by other house; final action; effect of failure of motion to concur. The house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution may concur in any amendments made by the other house, except that if the bill or concurrent resolution has been referred to a conference committee such action may only be taken prior to the taking of final action upon the conference committee report upon such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house shall be considered action on the final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has been appointed and action has not been taken upon the report of such committee by the other house and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and the motion to concur may be renewed but not on the same legislative day. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has not been appointed and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(c) Motion to nonconcur; when considered final action; effect of adoption of motion. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to nonconcur or to refuse to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house which is not coupled with a request for the appointment of a conference committee shall be considered action on final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal, and the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed killed on the adoption thereof.

(d) House of origin refusal to concur or nonconcur; request for conference; procedure. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned by either house to the house of origin with amendments, and the house of origin refuses to concur or to nonconcur therein, a conference may be requested by a majority vote of the members present and voting. Such request shall be transmitted to the other house by message which shall include the names of the conferees on the part of the requesting house. Upon receipt of any such message, the receiving house may, in like manner, approve such conference, and shall thereupon notify the requesting house by message stating the names of its conferees.

(e) Membership; appointment; chairperson; house of origin of substitute or materially changed bill or concurrent resolution; meetings of conference committee. Each conference committee shall consist of three members of the senate and three members of the house of representatives, unless otherwise fixed by agreement of the president of the senate and speaker of the house. Senate members shall be appointed by the president of the senate and house members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The president or the speaker may replace any conferee previously appointed by such person. Not fewer than one member appointed from each house shall be a member of the minority political party of such house except when such representation for such house is waived by the minority leader of such house. In all cases, the first-named member of the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution assigned to the committee shall be chairperson of the conference committee. The house of origin of a substitute bill or substitute concurrent resolution shall be the house in which the bill or concurrent resolution in its original form was introduced. The chairperson of a conference committee on a bill or concurrent resolution the subject matter of which has been ruled to be materially changed shall be a member of the house which amended the bill or concurrent resolution to materially change the subject matter. Each conference committee shall meet on the call of its chairperson. All meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be adjourned to another time or place in order to subvert such policy.

(f) Conference committee reports; matters which may be included; report not subject to amendment; house which acts first on report; copies of reports; reports considered under any order of business. Only subject matters which are or have been included in the bill or concurrent resolution in conference or in bills or concurrent resolutions which have been passed or adopted in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution except in any appropriations bill there may be included a proviso relating to any such item of appropriation. Subject to any limitations imposed under the constitution of the state of Kansas, no more than a total of four additional bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions in conference or bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions which have passed in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution, except that reports of conference committees on any taxation bill are not subject to the limitation contained in this provision. A conference committee report shall not be subject to amendment. The original signed conference committee report shall be submitted to and acted upon first by the house other than the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution. Except when a conference committee report is an agree to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed or is a recommendation to accede to or recede from all amendments of the second house, electronic and paper copies of the report shall be made available to all members of the house considering the report not later than 30 minutes before the time of its consideration, except that if the report is more than six pages in length no paper copies will be required to be distributed to individual members provided that at least 10 paper copies of the report are made available to members at the clerk's or secretary's desk at the front of the respective house. By written notice, the majority leader may direct the clerk or secretary to increase from six pages to some greater number of pages the size of conference committee reports that need not be distributed by paper copies to individual members pursuant to this rule. The affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the house at the time of consideration of the report shall be sufficient to dispense with distribution of copies of the conference committee report to all members of that house. Reports of conference committees may be received and considered under any order of business.

(g) Signatures required on conference committee reports. All initial conference committee reports other than an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by all of the conferees. All initial conference committee reports which are an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. If a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is not adopted, a subsequent conference committee report shall be signed by all conferees unless a subsequent conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is adopted, in which case a conference committee report subsequent to the adoption of such report shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. All other conference committee reports shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house.

(h) Vote to adopt conference committee report final action; effect of failure of motion to adopt conference committee report. The vote to adopt the report of a conference committee, other than a report of failure to agree coupled with a recommendation for appointment of a new conference committee, shall be considered final action on the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed. If the motion on a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and remains in conference.

(i) Report of conference committee unable to agree; effect of failure to request new conference committee; effect of failure of motion to adopt report requesting new conference committee. If a conference committee upon any bill or concurrent resolution is unable to agree, it shall report that fact to both houses. Such report may request that a new conference committee be appointed thereon. If the committee so reports but fails to request the appointment of a new conference committee thereon, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to have been killed upon the adoption by either house of such report. If the motion to adopt a report requesting the appointment of a new conference committee fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(j) Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by conference committees and reports thereof; carryover from odd-numbered to even-numbered year. Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by a conference committee, or a report of which has been filed but no action taken thereon in either house, at the time of adjournment of a regular session of the legislature held in an odd-numbered year shall remain alive during the interim and may be considered by the committee and legislature as the case may be at the regular session held in the following even-numbered year.

Joint Rule 4. Deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills. The senate and house of representatives shall observe the following schedule of deadlines in making requests for drafting and in the introduction and consideration of bills.

(a) Bill request deadline for individual members. Except for bills introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no request to draft bills, except those made by committees, through their respective chairpersons, shall be made to, or accepted by, the office of the revisor of statutes after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on January 27, 2025, during the 2025 regular session and on January 26, 2026, during the 2026 regular session.

(b) Bill introduction deadline for individual members. Except as provided in (i) of this rule, no bill sponsored by a member or members shall be introduced in either house of the legislature after the hour of adjournment on February 5, 2025, during the 2025 regular session and on February 4, 2026, during the 2026 regular session. Such deadline for the introduction of bills by individual members may be changed to an earlier date in either house at any time by resolution duly adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in such house.

(c) Bill request deadline for certain committees. Except for bills to be introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no committee except the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall make a request to the office of the revisor of statutes for any bill to be drafted for sponsorship by such committee after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on February 3, 2025, during the 2025 regular session and on February 2, 2026, during the 2026 regular session.

(d) Bill introduction deadline for certain committees. Except as provided in (i) of this rule, no bill sponsored by any committee of either house of the legislature, except the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be introduced in either house after the hour of adjournment on February 7, 2025, during the 2025 regular session and on February 6, 2026, during the 2026 regular session.

(e) House of origin bill consideration deadline. No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered in the house in which such bill originated after the hour of adjournment on February 20, 2025, during the 2025 regular session and on February 19, 2026, during the 2026 regular session.

ARTICLE 21. AMENDMENT OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS

Rule 2101. Germaneness. Amendments to bills and resolutions shall be germane to the subject of the bill or resolution. The principal test of whether an amendment is germane shall be its relationship to the subject of the bill or resolution, rather than to wording of the title thereof. The amendment, including any amendment from the floor to strike all of the substantive provisions of a bill or resolution and insert other provisions, must be relevant, appropriate, and have some relation to or involve the same subject as the bill or resolution to be amended. For the purposes of this rule the subject matter of any appropriation bill is the spending and appropriating of money and any amendment which changes the amount of money spent in any state agency or program is germane to any appropriation bill.

Rule 2102. Form of Amendment Motions. Motions to amend bills and resolutions shall specify the page and line number, as shown on the printed bill or resolution, and shall be in writing on a form provided by the House or a form substantially similar. Rule 2104. Motions to Amend Motions. A motion to amend a motion to amend a bill or resolution shall not be in order.

Rule 2105. Dividing Amendments. (a) When any motion to amend a bill or resolution contains distinct propositions, it shall be divided by the presiding officer at the request of any member. The division by the presiding officer shall be made in accordance with the following:

(1) A motion to strike out and insert words of less than a sentence shall be indivisible;

(2) the distinct propositions shall be only in the form submitted in the motion to amend;

(3) each proposition must be so distinct that, one being removed, the remainder may stand entirely on their own; and

(4) those portions of a motion to amend a bill as described in Rule 2110 shall be indivisible.

(b) Upon a request to divide a motion to amend a bill or resolution, the presiding officer shall inquire as to whether there is a request for a ruling on germaneness of the motion to amend. If such a request is made, the issue of germaneness shall be determined prior to dividing the motion.

If no request for a ruling on germaneness of the motion to amend is made, the presiding officer shall proceed to divide the motion to amend in accordance with this rule, and no subsequent request for a ruling on germaneness of any distinct proposition of the motion so divided shall be in order.

(c) The presiding officer, or any member, may request that the member requesting the division make the request in writing specifying the manner in which the motion to amend should be divided.

(d) The division of the motion to amend shall be in accordance with the rules of the House and with items (1) to (4), inclusive, of subsection (a). The ruling of the chairperson of the Committee on Rules and Journal, or in the chairperson's absence the vice chairperson of the Committee, on how to divide the motion to amend shall not be subject to appeal except that any member may appeal the ruling of the chairperson, or vice chairperson, on the grounds that the division is not in accordance with a rule of the House including the provisions of items (1), (2), (3) or (4) of subsection (a), or any combination thereof.

(b) The Speaker may determine when a bill is subject to subsection (a). An affirmative vote of 70 members shall be required to sustain a challenge to the Speaker's determination hereunder.

Rule 2108. Motions to Strike Out and Insert. The rejection of a motion to amend a bill or resolution by striking out and inserting one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and insert another proposition, nor prevent a subsequent motion simply to strike out; nor shall the rejection of a motion simply to strike out prevent a subsequent motion to strike out and insert.

Rule 2109. Identical Motions. Except upon the unanimous consent of the House, an identical motion to amend a bill or resolution shall not be made a second time on the same legislative day.

Rule 2110. Floor Amendments to Bills Making Appropriations. Unless by majority consent to correct an error in drafting, no floor amendment to increase the amount of expenditures that would be authorized in a provision of an appropriations bill shall be in order unless the amendment contains a provision reducing, by a like or greater amount, expenditures that would be authorized in another provision of such appropriations bill.

Rule 2301. Order of Motions. When a question is under consideration, no motion shall be received except as specified under the Rules of the House, which motions shall have precedence in the following order:

Rule 2302. Motion to Adjourn. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except while a vote is being taken and until announced, or when a member has the floor, or when the previous question is pending; but a motion to recess is not equivalent to a motion to adjourn.

Rule 2303. Motion to Reconsider. A motion to reconsider shall take precedence of all other questions except the motion to adjourn.

No motion for reconsideration of any vote shall be in order, unless made on the same day or the legislative day following that on which the decision to be reconsidered took place, nor unless a member voting with the prevailing side shall move such reconsideration.

A motion for reconsideration, being put and lost, shall not be renewed, nor shall any subject or vote be a second time reconsidered without unanimous consent, but this provision shall not be construed as preventing the introduction of a bill on the same subject.

The member moving for reconsideration shall be allowed not more than two minutes for stating the reasons in support of the motion. Such motion shall be subject to debate by any member, stating reasons in support or opposition to the motion. Each of such members shall be allowed not more than one minute for the purpose of such debate.

Such motion shall require the affirmative vote of members equal in number to that required to take the action proposed to be reconsidered.

A motion to reconsider any final action of the House shall be in order at any time prior to the time at which the message of the House thereon is read into the record of the Senate. A motion to reconsider any final action of the House may be made after the time at which the message of the House thereon is read into the report of the Senate but any action taken pursuant thereto will be contingent upon the return of the measure to the House by the Senate.

Rule 2304. Previous Question. The "previous question" shall be: "Shall the main question be now put?" and until it is decided shall preclude all amendments or debate. When voting on the previous question, the House decides that the main question shall not now be put, the main question shall be considered as still remaining under debate. The main question shall be on the passage of the bill, resolution or other matter under consideration. When amendments are pending, a vote shall first be taken upon such amendments in their order without further debate or amendment. A majority vote of the members present shall order the previous question.

Rule 2305. Motions Not Subject to Debate. All questions relating to priority of business shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn, to change the order of consideration of a bill, for a call of the House, and to lay on the table shall be decided without amendment or debate. The several motions to postpone or commit shall preclude all debate on the main question.

Rule 2306. Motion to Refer Bills or Resolutions to Committee When Not in Committee of the Whole. When not in the Committee of the Whole, a motion to refer a bill or resolution from the Calendar to a standing committee shall be in order only when the body is meeting as the House of Representatives and shall be authorized only when offered by the Majority Leader, or in the absence of the Majority Leader, by the Assistant Majority Leader. Such motion shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House.

Rule 2307. Motion to Strike Bills and Resolutions from Calendar When Not in Committee of the Whole. When not in the Committee of the Whole, a motion to strike a bill or resolution from the Calendar shall be in order only when the body is meeting as the House of Representatives and shall be authorized only when offered by the Majority Leader, or in the absence of the Majority Leader, by the Assistant Majority Leader. Such motion shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House.

Rule 2308. Stating Question. Every motion shall be first stated by the presiding officer or read by the chief clerk, before debate, and again immediately before putting the question.

Rule 2309. Dividing Motion. If any motion, other than a motion under Rule 2105, contains distinct propositions, it shall be divided by the presiding officer at the request of any member. Motions under Rule 2105 shall be divided in accordance with that rule.

Rule 2310. When Motions to be in Writing. Every motion, except those specified in Rules 2301 and 2303, shall be in writing if the Speaker or any member desires it. All motions to amend a bill or resolution and all resolutions shall be in writing.

Rule 2311. Suspension of Rules of the House. (a) No rule of the House shall be suspended except by unanimous consent or by an affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House, subject to the following exceptions:

(1) A motion to suspend the rules, and to declare an emergency and to advance a bill to the order of business Final Action, as contemplated in article 2, section 15 of the Constitution shall require an affirmative vote of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members present in the House.

(2) A motion to suspend the rules and to permit amendment and debate of a bill under the order of business Final Action shall require an affirmative vote of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members present in the House.

(b) When under the rules of the House a motion, question or action requires a vote of a majority greater than a majority of the members present, the majority specified for such motion, question or action shall be required to suspend the rules for the purpose of such motion, question or action. When under the rules of the House notice of a motion reduces the required majority for adoption of the motion, the required majority shall not be reduced if the notice is disposed of by suspension of the rules.

(c) Suspension of the rules or unanimous consent shall not reduce the majority required under subpart (1) of subsection (a) of this rule.

Rule 2312. Mason's Manual; When Applicable. (a) In any case where rules of the House or the joint rules of the Senate and House do not apply, Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure (2020 edition), with the exception of section 4, paragraph 2, shall govern.

(b) Rules of legislative procedure are derived from several sources and take precedence in the order listed below. For the Kansas House of Representatives, the principal sources are as follows: (a) Constitutional provisions; (b) statutory provisions; (c) adopted rules; (d) adopted parliamentary authority; (e) custom, usage and precedents.

Rule 2501. Control and Use of Voting System. The electronic voting system shall be under the control of the Speaker or other presiding officer and shall be operated by the chief clerk. The electronic voting system shall be used to record the vote whenever a roll call vote is taken on any question and may be used for ascertaining the vote upon any measure upon which a division of the House has been called. In the event that the system is not operating properly, roll call votes may be taken by calling the roll.

Rule 2502. Procedure for Taking a Roll Call Vote. When a roll call vote is taken, the presiding officer shall state the question and instruct the members to proceed to vote. When sufficient time has been allowed the members to vote, the presiding officer shall inquire: "Has every member had an opportunity to vote?" After a short pause the presiding officer shall direct the chief clerk to close the roll. After the roll has been closed, when Rule 2505 applies, the presiding officer shall inquire: "Does any member desire to explain his or her vote?" and any member so desiring may give such explanation when recognized by the presiding officer. The presiding officer shall inquire: "Does any member desire to change his or her vote?" If any member does desire to change his or her vote, such member when recognized by the presiding officer, shall advise how they desire to change such vote and the presiding officer shall then instruct the chief clerk to make the appropriate change. Such member shall advise how they wish to vote and the presiding officer shall then instruct the chief clerk to record such vote. In addition to such penalties as may be prescribed by law, any member who votes or attempts to vote for another member shall be subject to Article 49 of these rules. If a person not a member votes or attempts to vote for any member, such person shall be barred from the floor of the House for the remainder of the session, and, in addition to penalties prescribed by law, may be punished further as the House determines.

(c) The Speaker shall not be compelled to vote except in case of a tie.

Rule 2505. Explaining Vote. Any member may, when a roll call vote is being taken on the passage or adoption of any bill or resolution, explain their vote. Such member shall be allowed not more than one minute for such explanation. Such explanation, if furnished in writing and signed, with printed name and district number, by such member by 3:00 p.m. upon the day the vote is taken or, if the vote is taken subsequent to 2:30 p.m., within one-half hour after the adjournment of the House on that day, shall be entered in the Journal, provided it does not contain more than 100 words. Such submission should also be submitted in electronic format to the chief clerk under the same time deadline.

Rule 2506. Copies of Voting Records. (a) Unless otherwise ordered, the chief clerk shall record each roll call vote and make copies available for the use of the news media. No record shall be made of the vote of any member voting upon any measure upon which a division of the House has been called.

(b) When a roll call vote is taken, it shall be recorded in the Journal by a statement of the names and total number voting in the affirmative, the names and total number voting in the negative, names and total number indicating presence but not voting and the names and total number absent or not voting, except that the provisions of this section shall not permit a member to fail to vote in violation of Rule 2508.

Rule 2507. When Roll Call Vote to be Taken. (a) A roll call vote shall be taken for the passage of any bill.

(b) A roll call vote shall be taken for the adoption of any concurrent resolution to amend the Constitution of the state of Kansas, to call a Kansas constitutional convention, to extend a session of the Legislature in even-numbered years, to ratify any amendment of the Constitution of the United States, to make any application for Congress to call a convention for proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States and when required by the joint rules of the House and Senate. A roll call vote is not required for adoption of concurrent resolutions pertaining to commendations or acknowledgments, unless required under subsection (c) of Rule 2507.

(c) A roll call vote shall be taken for the adoption of any House resolution to adopt, amend or revoke any rule of the House or to reject any executive reorganization order.

(d) A roll call vote shall be taken to concur in Senate amendments to any bill or concurrent resolution or to adopt any conference committee report other than a report agreeing to disagree.

(e) A roll call vote shall be taken on any question on demand of 15 members, unless a roll call vote is already pending.

Rule 2508. Call of the House. (a) A call of the House shall be ordered on the demand of any 10 members at any stage of the voting previous to the announcing of the vote or, if the voting system is used, prior to recording the vote. This Rule 2508 shall apply to the taking of a vote upon the final passage of any bill or final adoption of any resolution whether under the order of business Final Action or under any order of business. Also, this Rule 2508 shall apply to the taking of a vote on a motion to strike the enacting clause of a bill and the resolving clause of a resolution and on a motion to strike all after the enacting clause or resolving clause, except when the House is in the Committee of the Whole.

When the call of the House is invoked, the doors to the House chamber shall be secured and all members shall be required to be in their seats unless excused by the Speaker.

All members present during the call shall be required to vote before the call is raised.

The call of the House shall not be raised (so long as 10 members continue the demand) until a reasonable effort, as determined by the Speaker, has been exerted to secure absentees.

(b) Any member, who is directly interested in a question, may be excused from voting, when there is a call of the House. The member, who is requesting to be excused from voting, shall state the reasons therefor, occupying not more than five minutes. The question on excusing such member from voting shall be taken without debate and a $\frac{2}{3}$ majority of members present shall be necessary to excuse such member. If a member refuses to vote, when not excused, such refusal shall constitute grounds for reprimand, censure or expulsion under Article 49 of the Rules of the House.

Rule 2509. Voice Vote; Division of the House. Except when a roll call vote is required, a voice vote shall be taken on all questions. Any member may call for a division of the House to determine the vote by the voting system.

ARTICLE 27. FINAL ACTION

Rule 2701. Description and Function. Subject to Rule 2705, bills and resolutions reported favorably by the Committee of the Whole shall constitute the order of business Final Action of the House. Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father.

It seems right to ask Your blessings upon all our National and State leaders.

I Pray for our new President and his staff that you would grant them unusual wisdom as they begin to lead our Nation.

I also ask Your blessings upon our Governor and her staff as they lead our State into even better years ahead.

In Psalms 127 we read "Behold Children are a gift of the Lord;
Like arrows in the hand of a warrior, so are the children of one's youth.
How blessed is the man whose quiver is full of them."

We thank you today for two proud fathers in our midst.

Blake Carpenter and Patrick Penn, who have recently been blessed with a new child to their family.

Father, would you bless these men and their good wives as they strive to raise their families in a manner which brings joy and happiness to all.

I ask for Your blessings and strength for our Representative Ron Bryce in the recent passing of his father.

May he know Your peace and comfort in these difficult days.

I thank You in advance for the wisdom

You will bestow upon each Representative assembled here, as they do the work assigned to them.

May Your peace and goodness rest upon each as they share their time and talents for the common good.

I ask this in Jesus Name, Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Kristey Williams.

SEVENTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, January 22, 2025, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Carpenter in the chair.

The roll was called with 121 members present.

Rep. Bohi was excused on verified illness.

Rep. Seiwert was excused on legislative business.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve the people of Kansas.

They have given each Representative the awesome task of making Kansas an even better place to live, work and raise a family.

Bestow upon each a vision of seeing our great State as a beacon of hope, prosperity, and resourcefulness.

As the prophet Isaiah directs

“Do not call to mind the former things, or ponder things of the past.

Behold, I will do something new, Now it will spring forth;

Will you not be aware of it?

I will even make a roadway in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.”

Allow these gathered in this chamber to see things that could be;

Things rich in promise and hope;

Things where compassion for the downtrodden are lifted up and not marginalized.

Things which will bless the whole and not just the part.

Help them to see new things, better things, vibrant things, and and allow them to lean on You as they strive to “spring forth” these new opportunities. Where there is no path to follow, give courage to even blaze a new trail if necessary.

I now ask Your blessing upon their endeavors today.

In Jesus Name I pray Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Winn.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Carpenter in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father.

Thank you for each Representative gathered in this room.

They are each leaders, elected by the people and blessed by You.

Thank You for our Speaker, Dan Hawkins, our Majority leader Chris Croft, and our Minority leader Brandon Woodard.

Each have accepted a large responsibility.

Bless them with wisdom, unique insight, and sharp minds as they lead this body of decision makers.

In the Book of Proverbs we find wise counsel;

“Take my instruction and not silver. And knowledge rather than choicest gold.
For wisdom is better than jewels; and all desirable things cannot compare with her.

I, wisdom, dwell with prudence, and I find knowledge and discretion.

The fear of the Lord is to hate evil, pride and arrogance and the evil way.”
Bless each of our Representatives with knowledge as well as discretion in all things.

Push us away from any temptation of pride, and arrogance and any evil way.

Help us to protect the mission of helping the helpless and providing hope for those who see no hope.

I pray for the families of each Representative.

Even though many may be miles away, they never stray far from our minds and love.

I pray this in Jesus Name Amen.

A PROPOSITION to amend section 4 of the bill of rights of the constitution of the state of Kansas to recognize the right to bear arms as a natural and fundamental right; clarifying that such right includes the possession and use of ammunition, firearm accessories and firearm components; making restrictions on such right subject to strict scrutiny.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Section 4 of the bill of rights of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended to read as follows:

"§ 4. Individual right to bear arms; armies. (a) A person has the right to keep and bear arms for the defense of self, family, home and state, for lawful hunting and recreational use, and for any other lawful purpose, and such right includes the possession and use of ammunition, firearm accessories and firearm components; but standing armies, in time of peace, are dangerous to liberty, and shall not be tolerated, and the military shall be in strict subordination to the civil power.

(b) The right to keep and bear arms is a natural and fundamental right. This right shall not be infringed. Any restriction of such right shall be subject to the strict scrutiny standard."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. This amendment recognizes that the right of the people of Kansas to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed and clarifies that the right includes the possession and use of ammunition, firearm accessories and firearm components. This amendment further recognizes that the right to keep and bear arms is a natural and fundamental right deserving the highest protection. Any restriction of the right to keep and bear arms shall be subject to the strict scrutiny standard.

"A vote against this proposition would make no changes to the constitution of the state of Kansas with respect to the right to keep and bear arms."

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Article 2 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 31. Legislative oversight of administrative rules and regulations. (a) In accordance with the legislature's power to authorize the adoption of administrative rules and regulations, the legislature shall oversee the adoption of such rules and regulations. The legislature may provide by law for the legislature to approve proposed rules and regulations and proposed amendments to existing rules and regulations prior to their becoming effective.

(b) The legislature may revoke or suspend any rules and regulations, or any portion thereof, by adoption of a concurrent resolution if the legislature finds that such rules and regulations, or any portion thereof, are:

- (1) Obsolete;
- (2) not enforced by the executive branch agency or official charged with such enforcement;
- (3) not in compliance with the legislative intent of the authorizing statute;
- (4) in conflict with state law or with federal law or regulations;
- (5) a cause of harm to public safety or the economy during an emergency;
- (6) overly burdensome;
- (7) an unnecessary infringement on individual rights;
- (8) duplicative of existing requirements under state law or federal law or regulations; or
- (9) in the sole discretion of the legislature, not beneficial to the public good."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to protect the people of Kansas from burdensome rules and regulations and to promote accountability and transparency by providing legislative oversight of rules and regulations adopted by executive branch agencies and officials. This amendment authorizes the legislature to provide for legislative approval of rules and regulations and for legislative revocation or suspension of rules and regulations that are unnecessary, burdensome or otherwise not beneficial to the public good.

"A vote for this proposition would authorize the legislature to provide for legislative approval of rules and regulations and for legislative revocation or suspension of rules and regulations that are unnecessary, burdensome or otherwise not beneficial to the public good.

"A vote against this proposition would allow executive branch agencies and officials to continue adopting rules and regulations that have the force and effect of law without oversight from the elected representatives to directly approve, revoke or suspend such rules and regulations."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at a special election, which is hereby called on August 4, 2026, pursuant to section 1 of article 14 of the constitution of the state of Kansas, to be held in conjunction with the primary election held on such date.

TWELFTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, January 29, 2025, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tempore Carpenter in the chair.

The roll was called with 115 members present.

Reps. Alcala, Collins, Helgerson, Johnson, Lewis, Neelly, Roeser and Simmons were excused on verified illness.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father.

Thank You for giving these Representatives the opportunity, strength, and vision to wisely weave good things into the fabric of Kansas.

Would you remind them, there is no challenge to great, no setback to disappointing and no opposition to strong when they corporately work together.

O God, form a bond between these in this chamber, so they can move together into good days, yes, even better days, than they can think or imagine.

We read in the Book of Proverbs,

“A person will be satisfied with good by the fruit of their words.

And the deeds of their hands will return to them.

The way of a fool is right in their own eyes,
but a wise person listens to counsel.”

Give each the courage to ask the tough questions, and the humility to accept the fact they cannot always be right.

And Father when the day is over and each review their deeds might they be satisfied because they have done well.

We lift our Governor to You today and ask that you would bestow wise counselors in her midst as she leads our State.

We pray for the President of this great land called America.

Might You also surround him with wise counselors as he makes decisions for our Country.
 I pray this in Jesus Name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. White.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Penn are spread upon the Journal:

Today, the Kansas State Legislature mourns the loss of our esteemed colleague, Representative Marvin S. Robinson II, who leaves behind a legacy of unwavering service and dedication to the People of Kansas.

I am joined down front by members of Representative Robinson's family and church, to include his prelate, Bishop L.F. Thuston, Overseer Reverend David Flournoy, his siblings: Pastor Harold C. Dwight & Mrs. Peggy Dwight, Delisa E. Nunley, and Tyszu (Tasha) D. Coggs, as well as his cousin: Former Kansas State Representative Broderick Henderson, and close family friends, Johndalyn Holley, and Carolyn V. Chambers.

Mr. Speaker, with your permission, I would like to acknowledge a few other distinguished guests in the East Gallery that worked with and help tell the beautiful backstory of Representative Robinson.

Those guests include: representing the United States Congress and Congressman Derek Schmidt (KS-2), Ms. Fran Oleen / Mr. Eric Montgomery; representing Emporia State University, President Ken Hush with their Legislative Director Mr. Greg Schneider; representing Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., Mr. Alonzo Harrison of Topeka; representing the surviving students of the historic Brown v. Board decision, Mr. Foster Chisolm and Mrs. Carolyn Campbell, and representing the Kansas Black Legislative Delegation, Ms. Carmen Jackson.

Representative Robinson's journey was one defined by service, learning, and a rock-solid commitment to his community. Born in Kansas City, Kansas, on April 15th, 1957, he remained a lifelong advocate for the place he called home, "The Dot." He graduated from Emporia State University, where he also crossed the burning sands to forge lasting bonds as a "Son of Blood & Thunder" in his beloved Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc.

In 1978, Marvin enlisted to serve the nation with distinction at the U.S. Navy Training Command Operations as a Specialist, further honing his leadership skills and strengthening his resolve. Upon receiving an Honorable Discharge, he then attended Temple University in Pennsylvania, focusing on Journalism.

Representative Robinson's legacy is deeply intertwined with the preservation of the Quindaro Ruins / Townsite. In May of 1987, he embarked on an absolutely remarkable 37-year journey dedicated to safeguarding this vital piece of Kansas and American history. His relentless determination ensured its rightful placement on the National Registry of Historic Places in 2002. His deep and profound commitment to preserving his Community's rich heritage while simultaneously carving its path to future economic development earned Representative Robinson the affectionate title of "Mayor of Quindaro," a testament to the deep respect and admiration he garnered from every soul who truly knew him. For this reason, it is wholly appropriate that the Legislature pass HB2029, which will rename a portion of the KS-5 Highway in front of the Quindaro Ruins after Rep. Robinson.

A lifelong public servant, Representative Robinson dedicated himself to the betterment of his KCK Community both through elected office and tireless advocacy. Marvin served on the Board of Economic Opportunity Foundation, resolved to improve the lives of others. In 2022, Robinson overwhelmingly won both his Primary and General elections. This unassuming statesman quietly arrived in Topeka to bring, until his untimely passing, a large voice and huge impact to Kansas and his 35th House District— with deep intelligence, humble grace, true grit, and courage that seemed boundless.

His commitment to legislative action is evident in the significant body of legislation he sponsored, including bills to:

- Declare Juneteenth to be a legal public holiday in Kansas.
- Restore local government control over wages, compensation and benefits for construction projects.
- And resolutions to:
- Commend the United States African-American Burial Grounds Preservation Program.
- Commemorate the 70th anniversary of Brown v. Board of Education.

5 House Bills:

- HB 2341 - Declaring Juneteenth National Independence Day to be a legal public holiday and closing state offices for certain legal public holidays.
- HB 2348 - Restoring local government control over wages, compensation and benefits for construction projects.
- HB 2162 - Providing for sales tax exemption for hygiene products.
- HB 2349 - Abolishing the death penalty and creating the crime of aggravated murder.
- HB 2363 - Releasing any person convicted of a drug offense involving marijuana from such person's sentence and providing for the expungement of any associated records.

8 House Concurrent Resolutions:

- HR 6014 - Commending the United States African-American Burial Grounds Preservation Program.
- HR 6047 - Commemorating the 70th anniversary of Brown v. Board of Education.
- HCR 5009 - Proposing to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas to decrease the assessed value for real property used for residential purposes to 9%.
- HCR 5020 - Proposing a constitutional amendment to amend section 4 of the Kansas bill of rights to recognize the right to bear arms as a fundamental right that includes the possession and use of ammunition, firearm accessories and

- firearm components, and that any restrictions on such right are subject to the strict scrutiny standard.
- HR 6006 - Congratulating and commending the 2023 Kansas Teacher of the Year team.
- HR 6031 - Supporting the strengthening of Kansas' trade partnership with Ireland.
- HR 6035 - Affirming state sovereignty and supporting Texas in its efforts to combat illegal immigration.
- HR 6044 - Commemorating the celebration of St. Patrick's Day.

All these bills and resolutions reflect this Gladiator's unyielding dedication to address the diverse needs of his District and the State. Marvin approached the work with an inquisitiveness, an independence, and a spirit of hopefulness that garnered the legislator both respect and results...when some short-sightedly said he deserves neither.

Marvin Robinson was a patriotic Navy man, committed to Country and Community. A true gentleman in every sense of the word. A gentleman of kind manners and deportment, he was a gentle man who humbly faced extreme friction and vicious opposition with a quiet grace that concealed the strength of his will.

A unifying force, a Servant Leader, and a force multiplier, Marvin was also the embodiment of the poem "IF" by Rudyard Kipling, which I've shared with each of you on your desks.

This day, dear friends, we remember how Rep. Robinson left this world so much better than he found it. He was surrounded by the appreciation of his Community, the respect of his peers, partners, and colleagues, and the love of his wonderful family.

With deepest gratitude, and on behalf of the grateful State of Kansas, we say "Thank You" to Marvin's family, as we present our Official Certificate and State Flag certified as flown in the Capitol. I want to also thank Speaker Dan Hawkins for directing this commemoration and and Majority Leader Chris Croft for securing the flag honors.

Colleagues, friends, and citizens:

Representative Marvin S. Robinson, II.

He was a faithful Man of God.

He was a dear family man who was a Son, a Brother, and a Cousin.

He was the most humble of public servants.

He was my friend.

He was a Son of Kansas.

Honor him.

THIRTEENTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, January 30, 2025, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Hawkins in the chair.

The roll was called with 119 members present.

Reps. Alcala, Carmichael, Collins, Simmons and Weigel were excused on verified illness.

Rep. Ohaebosim was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Excused later: Rep. White.

Prior to the prayer, Chaplain Homes led a moment of silence in memory of those lost in the Jan 29th plane crash of AA flight 5342.

Father.

Our hearts are sad today as we pray for individuals and families who are grieving the loss of a friend or loved one, who perished last night on American Airlines flight 5342 out of Wichita.

I pray Your grace and comfort upon all who are suffering losses too great to make sense of or even begin to understand.

Walk beside each one Father and pour your strength into every minute of their day.

There are times when words cannot adequately convey our feelings.

Today is one of those days. When our wisdom and words fail, and we do not know what to say, or even how to pray, we humbly turn to You.

Indeed, it is at times like this when Your Word is what we want to hear.

Jesus, You said, our Father knows what we need, before we ask Him. Because we do not know what to ask or say, and we do not know how to pray, we turn to You and the prayer You taught us to pray:

“Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we have also forgiven our debtors. And do not lead us into temptation but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever.”

Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Waymaster.

FOURTEENTH DAY

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tempore Carpenter in the chair.

The roll was called with 117 members present.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father.

Today we gather in this Chamber of hope, with a common desire to do our absolute best with the unique and individual skill sets

You have provided. Because there are always more questions than answers, give us necessary insight as we look for the best path to follow.

Help us to see differing opinions, not as barriers, but rather as opportunities we have yet to explore.

Give us the discipline to ignore the distracting phone messages, the e-mail alerts, and the ping of apps which hinders our concentration on the work set before us.

Where there may be cultural or background barriers, help us to be action oriented and not emotionally driven.

When we encounter individuals with different thoughts and personal goals divergent of our own, remind us, those we are looking at also see us as different.

Give us patience with one another, as You are so patient with each of us.

I ask Your blessing on all the work and decisions which will be brought before this body today. Your Word teaches, “you have not because we ask not, or you ask with wrong motives.”

So today, I ask that You give divine direction and pure motives.

Bless and protect our families as we are away from them.

Remind us, they are much more important than any laws we might pass.

I pray all this in Jesus Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Vaughn.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I'm not sure when I first learned the term "Gender Assigned at Birth." My guess would be it was when I first got to Topeka in 2021. I basically agree with the term, but I think more accurately it should be "Gender Assigned at Conception.” So, who does the assigning? It’s not the attending physician, a nurse or other medical personnel. My faith teaches me it has to be the Creator of all of us, God.

If you accept that, it means you accept the existence of an all loving and all powerful God. And if you accept that, you have to realize God can NOT make a mistake. Voting “No” to “Help Not Harm” would mean you think God did make a mistake. Therefore, I vote “Yes” on SB 63 – CLARKE SANDERS, CHARLES E. SMITH , KEVIN SCHWERTFEGER

MR. SPEAKER: If protecting the children is the goal and a child is not an adult until 18 then allow legislation that demonstrates that. Give a hearing to the bill that protects all children in all circumstances up to the age of 18. Bring it to the floor and show us that at least 85 republicans believe in what they say and aren’t just prejudice to certain groups of people. You control the opportunity to prove me wrong, I don’t believe you will and that’s why I voted no to this horrible prejudicial bill, SB 63 – FORD CARR, ANGELA MARTINEZ

MR. SPEAKER: I don’t believe this bill is about protecting children. I do believe many in this body are still upset that this bill was defeated last session. This bill is sacrificing trans kids as a way to get back at the Governor and everyone who voted to defeat it. I believe many of you feel in your heart that you are protecting kids, you are misguided. To the young trans community in KS We tried to find ways to make this bill less harmful. We didn’t succeed. I’m sorry that you have been used as unwilling actors in the political theatre. I vote No on SB 63 – SUSAN RUIZ

MR. SPEAKER: In all 4 of my Committees, I hear that we should all be opposed to Government overreach. SB 63 is a Bill that in my opinion is exactly that. These are decisions that should be made between the individual, their family and their doctor. WE DO NOT BELONG IN THIS SPACE. For that reason, I vote NO on SB 63. – LYNN MELTON

MR SPEAKER: I oppose SB 63. Today, we could be working on ways to reduce suicide and unintentional shootings by children. We could be working on childhood hunger and helping seniors in need. We could be working on meaningful ways to help Kansas families cope with today’s tough economic times. Instead, the first bill to come to the floor grossly interferes with parental rights and our constitutional rights to bodily autonomy. I will not be part of this process that will do real harm to my constituents. – LINDA FEATHERSTON

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on SB 63 because health care is a fundamental human right. People should be able to access the care they need, when they need it, without interference from politicians. The State of Kansas should not be involved in personal health care decisions that have no impact on public health. This bill discriminates against one group of children and prevents health care providers from practicing within their scope of practice. SB 63 is extreme government overreach that puts children at risk. – SUZANNE WIKLE, KIRK HASKINS, NIKKI McDONALD

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on SB 63 because it is not about healthcare or medical procedures—it is an unjust attack on a small, vulnerable group of Kansans. The bill’s extremely vague language threatens doctors, therapists, and teachers, undermines a parent’s right to make informed decisions for their child, and puts Kansan’s lives at risk. This legislation does not reflect the will of the people of Kansas. Despite the misleading framing, the truth is clear: the majority of Kansans oppose discrimination against transgender individuals. We should advocate for equality and respect, not for harm disguised as policy. — BRANDON WOODARD, SYDNEY CARLIN, TOBIAS SCHLINGENSIEPEN, JOHN CARMICHAEL, JERRY STOGSDILL, HEATHER MEYER, LINDSAY VAUGHN, MIKE AMYX, TOM SAWYER, JO ELLA HOYE, BROOKLYNNE MOSLEY, SILAS MILLER, STEPHANIE SAWYER CLAYTON, VIRGIL WEIGEL, BARBARA BALLARD, CINDY NEIGHBOR

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on Senate Bill 63 because I stand with the healthcare providers in the state of Kansas. To the LGTBQ + community under the age of 18, I see you I hear you and I stand with you. You still have advocates at the State House. MELISSA OROPEZA

MR. SPEAKER: In August 2022, Kansans overwhelmingly voted to keep politicians out of their families' private medical decisions. SB 63 strips Kansas parents of their fundamental right to make medical decisions for their own children. House District 20 constituents have overwhelmingly voiced their objection to SB 63 and I vote NO accordingly. — MARI LYNN POSKIN

MR. SPEAKER: I vote Yes on SB 63. You are cared about. You are stronger and more resilient than life's disappointments and disagreements. Your identity is greater than your gender and you are more than any label you will find in the world. Walk your unique path into adulthood knowing that there is nothing accidental, there is no mistake in who you are. You have been fearfully and wonderfully made. I am excited about who you will become and what you will do. — REBECCA SCHMOE, CARRIE BARTH, PAUL WAGGONER, SUSAN HUMPHRIES, ADAM SMITH

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father.

I ask Your blessing on these men and women gathered in this chamber of decision making.

Some have been dealing with sickness.

Would You bring healing and strength to their bodies.

Some have met personal difficulties;

would You grant them unusual wisdom, as they seek the right path to follow.

Some have recently lost loved ones;

would you bestow peace and comfort upon them.

All gathered here are single minded in doing the best for the people of Kansas.

We thank You for their commitment and dedication.

Help us too always look to You for wisdom, direction, and spiritual affirmation.

Your word teaches us “woe to those who call evil good, and good evil.

Who substitute darkness for light and light for darkness.

Who substitute bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter.

Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes, and cleaver in their own sight.”

Father, help us keep our eyes on the needs of those who have entrusted us with this tremendous responsibility.

When we have differences of opinion, give us patience with one another.

Help us keep our emotions in check and our minds fully engaged on the matters at hand.

Bless all our National and State leaders as they carry out the will of the people.

In Jesus Name I pray

Amen

Prayer by guest chaplain, Father Mike Leiker, St. Peter and Paul Catholic Church, Clay Center, and guest of Rep. Bloom:

Heavenly Father,

We thank you for bringing us to this day, and the many blessings you bestow upon us. We ask that you send your spirit upon these representatives of the great state of Kansas and inspire them to work for the people they represent.

We also ask that you bless our fields, crops, and livestock with good weather that will produce much fruit to share with the rest of the world.

Show your love and mercy to those struggling to make ends meet, those around the world who have experienced tragedy from fires, natural disasters, the recent air accidents, and those suffering from every disease and illness. Bless their care givers and the relief workers who are instruments of peace and comfort.

Bless our military, law enforcement and first responders, that they may return safely home.

We pause in silence to add our own personal intentions...

We ask all this through Christ our Lord.

The Pledge of Allegiance was said by Rep. Pickert.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Poskin are spread upon the Journal:

I just learned an awe-inspiring fact. By the time we finish this legislative biennium, nearly 70,000 babies will have been born in Kansas. Those littlest Kansans will be in the midst of the most important period of development of their lives. This is a unique time in which the brain is being wired at an astonishing rate of nearly one million new neural connections per second. This is why, as a mom of seven, I've been so active in the Early Childhood caucus since the day I stepped into this building.

Widely accepted findings from decades of brain science research provide compelling evidence that relationships with caregivers, experiences early in life, and environmental exposure significantly influence the well-being of children.

The brains we develop as young children are the same brains we take with us into adulthood. What happens to us as children has consequences for physical and mental health, future relationships, and our ability to work and engage with our communities.

These facts guide the work of thousands of child care providers, home visitors, health care providers, parents, and other early childhood professionals who care for Kansas children. And today, nearly 200 of them are in the Statehouse for Early Childhood Advocacy Day. Up here with me today are:

- Jen Pishny, Kansas Child Care Training Opportunities
- Annell Harmon, Harmon & Harmon Family Child Care
- Angie Carnes, Child Care Provider Coalition of Kansas
- Heather Schrotberger, Kansas Head Start Association
- Gail Cozadd, Kansas Children's Service League
- Paula Neth, The Family Conservancy
- Christi Smith, Child Care Aware of Kansas
- Tanya Bullock, Child Start

All are members of the Partnership for Early Success, a coalition of early childhood organizations, local chambers of commerce, and other advocates working to strengthen the early childhood system in Kansas.

They are here to make sure that we understand how important it is to invest in young children; to invest in child care providers; to invest in evidence-based home visiting programs; to invest in parents. They hope you will feel their passion for the work they do every day, despite low wages and long hours.

Many of you will have the opportunity to meet with these advocates one-on-one today. But in case you don't, they wanted me to remind you of some simple facts about the science of early childhood development:

1. Just like a house, our brains require a solid foundation and wiring to support all future development and learning. Genes and life experiences shape the wiring of the brain—which means there isn't a question anymore of whether it's "nature vs. nurture"—it's both.

2. Responsive, caring, and supportive relationships between a child and her caregivers are essential to building a strong brain.

3. Sturdy brain architecture and support from caring adults leads to the development of executive function skills. Executive function skills help us prioritize, juggle multiple tasks, organize, and focus. These skills, as well as an ability to self-regulate, are critical to healthy development well into young adulthood.

4. Excessive stress and a lack of positive relationships can derail healthy development.

5. If a child does not have safe, stable, and supportive caregivers and environments, then the stress response can be long-lasting and extreme. We call this toxic stress because it damages the developing brain and can have lifelong consequences.

Please keep these simple truths in mind as you go about your work in the Legislature. Regardless of your committee assignments, you're going to be making decisions that impact young children in Kansas, because so many factors contribute to their development. Transportation, Agriculture, Tax, Appropriations, Insurance, Child Welfare, Health—all of it matters to children.

As I close, please join me in thanking early childhood professionals in the gallery, in the building, and around the state who cannot be here today. Their work is essential to creating a state where every child can grow up healthy and thrive.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTES

MR. SPEAKER: I VOTE NO ON HCR 5004. This Constitutional Amendment might make sense to my constituents and me, at face value. It might seem harmless in the Kansas political atmosphere to reiterate that citizenship is a requirement to vote, but, when the headlines read, "The White House begins migrant flights to Guantanamo Bay," I worry that this ballot measure will be used to send antagonistic messages about immigrants in the next election cycle. Kansans must stand against rhetoric that we know puts immigrants in danger. Given that this amendment isn't really needed and tensions are already high among immigrant communities; I VOTE NO. — JO ELLA HOYE

MR. SPEAKER: I VOTE NO ON HCR 5004. This is not a good use of taxpayer dollars. It comes with a $50,000 price tag that would change nothing. It's already clear that only American Citizens are able to vote. This is political grandstanding and I will not be a part of this political theater. — NIKKI McDONALD

By Representatives Williams, K., Bloom, Brantley, Bryce, Buehler, B. Carpenter, Chauncey, Corbet, Croft, Delperdang, Francis, Goetz, Howell, Howerton, James, T. Johnson, Kessler, Neelly, Reavis, Schmoee, Smith, A., Smith, C., Sutton, Tarwater, Waggoner, Ward, Wasinger and Wilborn

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION supporting the full authorization and funding of the public safety autonomous technologies research, testing, certification and commercialization program and supporting the passage of the national defense authorization act for fiscal year 2025.

WHEREAS, The public safety autonomous technologies research, testing, certification and commercialization program is a potential research grant awarded by the United States department of commerce; and

WHEREAS, The mission of the program is to research, create prototypes and develop new innovations for small uncrewed aerial systems (UAS) and catalyze such efforts in Kansas, if a Kansas research institute is chosen for the program; and

WHEREAS, Evidence has shown an urgent need to advance affordable UAS without adversarial foreign influences by promoting and developing innovations created in the United States and supporting supply chains that provide operational enhancement designs that would serve state and local public safety missions; and

WHEREAS, The urgent need to rapidly develop United States UAS capabilities to counter the Chinese CCP DJI drone threat that has captured more than 90% of the commercial and public safety markets has become clear to Kansans: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas, the Senate concurring therein: That we support the full authorization and funding of the public safety autonomous technologies research, testing, certification and commercialization program by the United States department of commerce to support the innovation and development of UAS in the United States; and

Be it further resolved: That we also support the national defense authorization act (NDAA) for fiscal year 2025, which bans the acquisition and operation of CCP DJI drones by the United States federal government and United States grant recipients; and

Be it further resolved: That we also support section 162 of the NDAA, which requires the United States department of defense to make a determination within one year of enactment of the unacceptable risks posed by the Chinese CCP DJI drone and, upon making such determination, ban the DJI drone in the United States. The possibility of such prohibition has created a stronger sense of urgency within state and local public safety agencies to work with industries and universities to solve this problem without sacrificing performance and affordability; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of State shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to Representative Kristey Williams.

Journal of the House

EIGHTEENTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tempore Carpenter in the chair.

The roll was called with 117 members present.

Reps. Ohaebosim and Willcott were excused on legislative business.

Rep. Corbet was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Dear Father.

Help us to use discretion and wisdom today as we work for the good people of the State of Kansas. Our backgrounds, personal beliefs, and values, though important, are secondary to doing what is right and good.

Many are juggling agendas as they strive to do all the work set before them.

Allow wisdom to have its full sway as situations present themselves which causes differing views to arise.

Give precise vision through the fog of the unseen and the unknown.

In the 15th division of the Book of Psalms we read

“O Lord who may abide in Thy tent? Who may dwell on Thy holy hill? They who walk with integrity, and work righteousness, and speaks truth in their hearts. They do not slander with their tongue, nor does evil to their neighbor.”

May we always strive to walk with integrity in every situation where we find ourselves. Take the veil from our eyes and allow us to see clearly where we can do works of righteousness.

O Lord, help us to always speak truth to ourselves.

Indeed, keep us from being the last person we try to fool.

In a sense we are living in glass bowls. People listen when we speak, and notice our actions, be they good or bad.

Remind us we are far from being perfect and invite Your intercession on our behalf.

When we are criticized, might the criticism originate from differing opinions and not character fault.

Bless our Governor, our Speaker of the House, and our Majority and Minority leaders as they give direction to this body of Representatives.

We ask You to bless those who have been put around these decisions makers to help make their load lighter.

Thank You for our Chief Clerk and her cadre of dedicated workers.
I ask this In Jesus Name
Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Stogsdill.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote yes on HB 2020 out of principal. That said, our unemployment system has been hacked, our courts have been hacked, and our schools have even had data breaches. Will we continue to be a sanctuary state by allowing in-state tuition for illegal aliens and have no requirement for e-verify for government employment. – SAMANTHA POETTER PARSHALL

Journal of the House

NINETEENTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Friday, February 7, 2025, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tempore Carpenter in the chair.

The roll was called with 114 members present.

Reps. Huebert, Poetter Parshall and Winn were excused on verified illness.

Reps. Barth, Droge, Haskins, Hoffman, Ohaebosim, Reavis, Roth and L. Williams were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Excused later: Reps. James, Oropeza and Wilborn.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father.

You alone are all knowing, and we are not.

We need your divine intercession today as we try to do our best for those who have chosen us to this place of debate and truth seeking.

Your word says, "you shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free."

Help us to pursue truth in every action and inter-action we meet today.

Give us freedom in our spirits to speak truth in all debate and decision making.

Free us from any self-condemnation imposed by others.

Your Word says, "a new commandment I give to you, that you love one another, even as I have loved you, that you also love one another.

" Father, there are times when it is difficult to love some people. Their actions and sometimes questionable attitudes just make us want to push them away and ignore them. Help us to be big enough to look beyond their actions and attitudes and see someone You created and love. And when our actions and attitudes are less than stellar, might we experience people that extend grace and love to us.

Perhaps that is what You meant when You said, "as you sow so shall you reap."

Make us good sowers of the things that make life, vibrant, alive and an adventure to live.

We pray today for those who are homeless and at times even helpless.

Give us eyes of The Master as we meet these who have not been as blessed as we have been.

Help us to see them, and at the very least offer a smile and a kind word.

And if You want us to do more, make that clear to us also.

Bless our families as we are away from them today.

I pray this in Jesus Name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. King.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: I vote no on HB 2042. This bill increases the surety bond amount for title insurance agents to $100,000. Currently, in counties that have a population of 20,000 or less, the surety bond amount is $25,000. Generally, insurance agents have to pay 3% of the total bond amount in order to be able to do business in our state. This would mean that for the small counties, insurance agents would have to pay a fee of $750 to do business. Under this bill, insurance agents in small counties would have to pay a fee of $3000. In my opinion this is a significant fee increase. – Brett Fairchild

HB 2043, AN ACT concerning insurance; relating to unfair and deceptive acts or practices; requiring agents and insurers to respond to inquiries from the commissioner of insurance within 14 calendar days; authorizing certain rebate pilot programs to exceed one year in duration; amending K.S.A. 2024 Supp. 40-2404 and 40-4909 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

A PROPOSITION to amend section 1 of article 11 of the constitution of the state of Kansas; relating to property taxation; valuing residential real property based on the fair market value or average fair market value of the residential portion.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Section 1 of article 11 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended to read as follows:

"§ 1. System of taxation; classification; exemption. (a) The provisions of this subsection shall govern the assessment and taxation of property on and after

January 1, ~~2013~~ 2027, and each year thereafter. Except as otherwise hereinafter specifically provided, the legislature shall provide for a uniform and equal basis of valuation and rate of taxation of all property subject to taxation. The legislature may provide for the classification and the taxation uniformly as to class of recreational vehicles and watercraft, as defined by the legislature, or may exempt such class from property taxation and impose taxes upon another basis in lieu thereof. The provisions of this subsection shall not be applicable to the taxation of motor vehicles, except as otherwise hereinafter specifically provided, mineral products, money, mortgages, notes and other evidence of debt and grain.

The taxable valuation of real property used for residential purposes including multi-family residential real property and real property necessary to accommodate a residential community of mobile or manufactured homes including the real property upon which such homes are located, classified for property tax purposes pursuant to subclass (1) of class 1 shall be determined based on the lesser of the fair market value or the average fair market value of the residential portion, as defined by law. The legislature may provide for and establish by law the number of years in determining the average fair market value of the residential portion and valuation adjustments by law for new construction or improvements, changes in property use, property that is listed as escaped or omitted property, changes to the description of the land, lot or parcel.

Property shall be classified into the following classes for the purpose of assessment and assessed at the percentage of value prescribed therefor:

Class 1 shall consist of real property. Real property shall be further classified into seven subclasses. Such property shall be defined by law for the purpose of subclassification and assessed uniformly as to subclass at the following percentages of value:

(1) Real property used for residential purposes including multi-family residential real property and real property necessary to accommodate a residential community of mobile or manufactured homes including the real property upon which such homes are located 11½%

(2) Land devoted to agricultural use which shall be valued upon the basis of its agricultural income or agricultural productivity pursuant to section 12 of article 11 of the constitution 30%

(3) Vacant lots 12%

(4) Real property which is owned and operated by a not-for-profit organization not subject to federal income taxation pursuant to section 501 of the federal internal revenue code, and which is included in this subclass by law 12%

(5) Public utility real property, except railroad real property which shall be assessed at the average rate that all other commercial and industrial property is assessed 33%

(6) Real property used for commercial and industrial purposes and buildings and other improvements located upon land devoted to agricultural use 25%

(7) All other urban and rural real property not otherwise specifically subclassified 30%

Class 2 shall consist of tangible personal property. Such tangible personal property shall be further classified into six subclasses, shall be defined by law for the purpose of subclassification and assessed uniformly as to subclass at the following percentages of value:

- (1) Mobile homes used for residential purposes 11½%
- (2) Mineral leasehold interests except oil leasehold interests the average daily production from which is five barrels or less, and natural gas leasehold interests the average daily production from which is 100 mcf or less, which shall be assessed at 25% 30%
- (3) Public utility tangible personal property including inventories thereof, except railroad personal property including inventories thereof, which shall be assessed at the average rate all other commercial and industrial property is assessed 33%
- (4) All categories of motor vehicles not defined and specifically valued and taxed pursuant to law enacted prior to January 1, 1985 30%
- (5) Commercial and industrial machinery and equipment which, if its economic life is seven years or more, shall be valued at its retail cost when new less seven-year straight-line depreciation, or which, if its economic life is less than seven years, shall be valued at its retail cost when new less straight-line depreciation over its economic life, except that, the value so obtained for such property, notwithstanding its economic life and as long as such property is being used, shall not be less than 20% of the retail cost when new of such property 25%
- (6) All other tangible personal property not otherwise specifically classified 30%
- (b) All property used exclusively for state, county, municipal, literary, educational, scientific, religious, benevolent and charitable purposes, farm machinery and equipment, merchants' and manufacturers' inventories, other than public utility inventories included in subclass (3) of class 2, livestock, and all household goods and personal effects not used for the production of income, shall be exempted from property taxation."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. This amendment would value real property used for residential purposes provided under section 1 of article 11 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas in subclass (1) of class 1 based on the lesser of the fair market value or the average fair market value of the residential portion. The amendment would also authorize the legislature to establish by law the number of years in determining the average fair market value of the residential portion and provide valuation adjustments by law in certain circumstances.

"A vote for this proposition would value parcels of real property used for residential purposes including multi-family residential real property and real property necessary to accommodate a residential community of mobile or manufactured homes including the real property upon which such homes are located based on the lesser of the fair market value or the average fair market value of the residential portion. The amendment would also authorize the legislature to establish by law the number of years in determining the average fair market value of the residential portion and provide valuation adjustments for new construction or improvements, changes in property use, property that is listed as escaped or omitted property, changes to the description of the land, lot or parcel and property that lacks established valuations.

"A vote against this proposition would provide no change to the Kansas Constitution."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at a special election, which is hereby called on November 4, 2025, pursuant to section 1 of article 14 of the constitution of the state of Kansas, to be held in conjunction with the general election held on such date.

Journal of the House

TWENTY-FIRST DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, February 11, 2025, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Hawkins in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.

Reps. Collins and VanHouden were excused on verified illness.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father;

You have given us another day to do good work. Thank you for the unique abilities

You have bestowed upon each of these Representatives gathered in this room.

Some have been dealing with personal and family sickness.

Bring health and healing to their bodies I pray.

For those weighed down with difficulties too sensitive or private to speak of, grant peace to their spirits, and then let wisdom proceed from that peace which You only can provide.

Remind us of Paul's New Testament instruction to Timothy when he said,

"Instruct those who are rich in this present world not to be conceited or to fix their hope on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly supplies us with all things to enjoy. Instruct them to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share."

We really want to do good works, our problem is at times, seeing someone else's work as good.

Often it seems as if what some are calling good works is simply foolishness.

Help us to be generous in our patience toward one another, especially with those who entertain differing opinions.

And when others might see our good works as foolishness, help them to also be generous in their thoughts, actions and yes even in their comments.

We pray for our Nation, and its elected leaders.

We don't always understand everything that is transpiring, and pray they are listening to good counsel and to your quiet voice.

Now, as we enter the work set before us, might we be guided by the mandate of doing good works for the people of Kansas.

In Jesus Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Waggoner.

A RESOLUTION supporting the Kansas Air National Guard's 190th Air Refueling Wing based at Forbes Field Air National Guard Base on being a recipient finalist for a KC-46A Pegasus mission and accompanying aircraft.

WHEREAS, The Kansas Air National Guard's 190th Air Refueling Wing, based at Forbes Field Air National Guard Base in Topeka, Kansas, currently flies the KC-135R Stratotanker and provides significant contributions to our national defense; and

WHEREAS, The 190th Air Refueling Wing has critical homeland defense missions in conjunction with the United States Strategic Command and the United States Northern Command, for which the 190th Air Refueling Wing is uniquely qualified based on geographic location and decades of experience; and

WHEREAS, The KC-135R Stratotanker aircraft that the 190th Air Refueling Wing uses for these critical national security missions is more than 60 years old; and

WHEREAS, The 190th Air Refueling Wing is a recipient finalist for a KC-46A Pegasus mission and new aircraft from the United States Air Force, which would replace its aging KC-135R Stratotanker fleet; and

WHEREAS, The 190th Air Refueling Wing is uniquely suited to perform the Pegasus mission using the new KC-46A Pegasus aircraft due to its strategic geographic location, exceptional facilities, ample uncongested airspace and training areas, available land and air space for expansion, flexibility to adapt to evolving mission requirements and exceptionally experienced personnel: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That the Legislature strongly supports the Kansas Air National Guard's 190th Air Refueling Wing, with the Forbes Field Air National Guard Base as the location of choice on being a recipient finalist for a KC-46A Pegasus mission and accompanying aircraft; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to Representative Turk.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Turk are spread upon the Journal:

The 190th air refueling, wing has been my second home for over 20 years. The mission, at Forbes Field Topeka Kansas is a mystery to most but, for those that know they are a crucial step in our national defense. Air refueling is what separates us from the adversary. It makes- it propels our power across the globe. Our strategic mission in support of the nuclear triad is critical. Over time though our airframes age our mission changes, and its pivotal that the state of Kansas supports our unit during this change. The air refueling mission in Kansas has been with us for decades. The KC 135 is over half a century old and the future is right here in our face, and it's our opportunity to lead. This resolution isn't just any other resolution. This resolution will serve as a variable in the decision making process within the DOD to renew that mission. So you guys that helped co-sponsor, you are a factor, and we'll be able to take this resolution to our federal partners and they will be able to advocate for us. And for that you have my gratitude.

Journal of the House

TWENTY-SECOND DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, February 13, 2025, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Hawkins in the chair.

The roll was called with 121 members present.

Reps. Brownlee Paige, Seiwert and Winn were excused on verified illness.

Rep. Droge was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Dear Father. Your Word proclaims

“This is the day The Lord has made, I will rejoice and be glad in it.”

I know You meant regardless if it was snow and ice, or warm temperatures and soft breezes, but if You would give us a little more of the warm breezes and a bit less of the freezing wind we would be so appreciative!

Regardless, we want to say Thank You for safe travels and warm comfortable surroundings.

We have joined together for the single purpose of serving the people of our great State.

Thank you for the opportunities we have received to make a positive difference in the lives of all our constituents.

Keep us vitally aware of the responsibilities we bear, as we approach the work of legislation.

Remind us of the Words of Jesus, when He said,

”And I say to you, that every careless word that men (and women) shall speak, they shall render account of it in the day of judgment. For by your words you shall be justified and by your words you shall be condemned.”

Help us to think before we speak, and when we do make proclamations, remind us, we own our words. Allow our speech to always be filled with truth, integrity and grace.

Might the dignity of the office we have been placed always be at the forefront of all the words we speak. Keep careless words from our mouths.

We pray for our loved ones as they manage the responsibilities of the home while we are away. I pray they are aware of how appreciative we are of them.

I now pray Your blessings upon each Representative, as they embrace the work set before them

I ask this in Jesus Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Schlingensiepen

TWENTY-THIRD DAY

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tempore Carpenter in the chair.

The roll was called with 118 members present.

Reps. Barrett, Corbet, Droge and Wasinger were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Good Morning Father.

Today is the day we call Valentine's Day!

It draws our thoughts and actions into the realm of love.

Your Word has much to say about the subject.

St. Paul reminds us

“If I speak with the tongues of men and angels, but do not have love, I have become a noisy gong or clanging cymbal. And If I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. And if I give all my possessions to feed the poor, and if I deliver my body to be burned, but do not have love, it profits me nothing. Love is patient, love is kind and is not jealous; love does not brag and is not arrogant, does not act unbecomingly, it does not seek its own, is not provoked, does not take into account a wrong suffered, does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth; bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails.”

Father, I really don't know what I can add to this, other than to say, help us to live this out in our daily lives.

In Jesus Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Turner

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: Anyone that knows me knows I am a big supporter of all Public Safety, with strong ties to Law Enforcement. I have given this Bill a lot of thought and listened to both pros and cons. It is very concerning to me that cameras may be placed without the need to obtain a warrant, no timeframes of how long they can be left and more importantly the storage of the data is not locked down-secured. I support the positive things this Bill could do but just cannot support in its current drafting - for those reasons I vote no on HB 2109. — LYNN MELTON, JOHN CARMICHAEL, PAM CURTIS, ANGELA MARTINEZ

(a) (1) No person shall operate a public water supply system within the state without a public water supply system permit from the secretary. An application for a public water supply system permit shall be submitted for review and approval prior to construction and shall include:

(A) A copy of the plans and specifications for the construction of the public water supply system or the extension thereof;

(B) a description of the source from which the water supply is to be derived;

(C) the proposed manner of storage, purification or treatment for the supply; and

(D) such other data and information as required by the secretary of health and environment. No source of water supply in substitution for or in addition to the source described in the application or in any subsequent application for which a public water supply system permit is issued shall be used by a public water supply system, nor shall any change be made in the manner of storage, purification or treatment of the water supply without an additional public water supply system permit obtained in a manner similar to that prescribed by this section from the secretary.

(2) Whenever application is made to the secretary for a public water supply system permit under the provisions of this section, it shall be the duty of the secretary to examine the application without delay and, as soon as possible thereafter, to grant or deny the public water supply system permit subject to any conditions that may be imposed by the secretary to protect the public health and welfare.

(3) The secretary may adopt rules and regulations establishing a program of annual certification by public water supply systems that have staff qualified to approve the extension of distribution systems or the replacement of segments of distribution systems without the necessity of securing an additional permit for the extension or replacement provided the plans for the extension or replacement are prepared by a professional engineer as defined by K.S.A. 74-7003, and amendments thereto.

(b) (1) Whenever a complaint is made to the secretary by any city of the state, by a local health officer, or by a county or joint board of health concerning the sanitary quality of any water supplied to the public within the county in which the city, local health officer or county or joint board of health is located, the secretary shall investigate the public water supply system about which the complaint is made. Whenever the secretary has reason to believe that a public water supply system within the state is being operated in violation of an applicable state law or an applicable rule and regulation of the secretary, the secretary may investigate the public water supply system.

(2) Whenever an investigation of any public water supply system is undertaken by the secretary, it shall be the duty of the supplier of water under investigation to furnish to the secretary information to determine the sanitary quality of the water supplied to the public and to determine compliance with applicable state laws and rules and regulations. The secretary may issue an order requiring changes in the source or sources of the public water supply system or in the manner of storage, purification or treatment utilized by the public water supply system before delivery to consumers, or distribution facilities, collectively or individually, as may in the secretary's judgment be necessary to safeguard the sanitary quality of the water and bring about compliance with applicable state law and rules and regulations. The supplier of water shall comply with the order of the secretary.

(c) (1) As used in this subsection, "municipal water treatment residues" means any solid, semisolid or liquid residue generated during the treatment of water in a public water supply system treatment works.

(2) A public water supply system may place or store municipal water treatment residues resulting from sedimentation, coagulation or softening treatment processes in basins on land under the ownership and control of the public water supply system operator provided that such storage or placement is approved and permitted by the secretary under this section as part of the public water supply system.

(3) The secretary shall adopt uniform and comprehensive rules and regulations for the location, design and operation of such basins. Such rules and regulations shall require permit applications by the public water suppliers for such basins to include a copy of the plans and specifications for the location and construction of each basin, the means of conveyance of the treatment residues to such basins, the content of treatment residues, the proposed method of basin operation and closure, the method of any anticipated expansion and any other data and information required by the secretary.

(4) Whenever complaint is made to the secretary by the mayor of any city of the state, by a local health officer or by a county or joint board of health, or whenever an investigation is undertaken at the initiative of the secretary, relating to any alleged violation of the provisions of the permit for placement or storage of municipal water treatment residues in such basins, the public water supply system operator shall furnish all information the secretary requires. If the secretary finds that there is any violation of the terms of the permit, that the means of placement and storage exceed the terms of the permit or that any other condition exists by reason of the means of placement and storage that may be detrimental to the health of any inhabitants of the state or to the environment, the secretary shall have the authority to issue an order amending the permit or otherwise requiring the operator to perform remedial measures to curtail or prevent such detrimental conditions.

(d) Orders of the secretary under this section, and hearings thereon, shall be subject to the provisions of the Kansas administrative procedure act. Any action of the secretary pursuant to this section is subject to review in accordance with the Kansas judicial review act. The court on review shall hear the case without delay.

(e) The secretary shall establish by rule and regulation a system of fees for the inspection and regulation of public water supplies. No such fee shall exceed $.002 per 1,000 gallons of water sold at retail by a public water supply system. All such fees shall be paid quarterly in the manner provided for fees imposed on retail sales by public water supply systems pursuant to K.S.A. 82a-954, and amendments thereto. TWENTY-FOURTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Monday, February 17, 2025, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Hawkins in the chair.

The roll was called with 119 members present.

Reps. Awerkamp, Poetter Parshall and Tarwater were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Good Morning Father.

Thank You for the rest and comfort of this past weekend.

With refreshed minds and rested bodies we embrace a new week.

For those in our midst who have found the last few days to be less than refreshing, let us remember the words of Isaiah, when he said “Have you not heard?

The everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, does not become weary or tired. His understanding is inscrutable .

He gives strength to the weary, and to him who lacks might,

He increases power. Though youths grow weary and tired, and vigorous young men stumble badly,

Yet those who wait for the Lord will gain new strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they will run and not get tired, they will walk and not become weary.”

Give us patience O Lord, with You, and with our colleagues and families.

We are thankful You never get tired of hearing from us!

Thank You for your understanding which is so far beyond our own!

I pray for the weary today, and ask that You might provide new strength.

For the one wrestling with health issues, I pray for Your healing touch.

For those who have stumbled, and are experiencing self recrimination,

I pray You would forgive and restore.

Thank You for every leader in this chamber, as they seek to do their very best for the people of Kansas.

Give clarity of thought and purpose as new bills are introduced and debated.

Help us to be patient with one another, as You are patient with us.

And, when we are short of patience, help us to display grace and understanding.

I ask this in Jesus Name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Turk

Journal of the House

TWENTY-FIFTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, February 18, 2025, 9:30 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tempore Carpenter in the chair.

The roll was called with 119 members present.

Reps. Alcala, Helgerson, L. Ruiz, Stogsdill and Wilborn were excused on verified illness.

Excused later: Rep. Poetter Parshall

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father.

The weather is cold outside, but our spirits are warmed by the knowledge of Your presence in our lives. Thank You for never walking away from us, even though at times we are undeserving of Your grace and mercy.

We could have differing opinions about some things today.

Our background, experience and values testifies to the rightness of the decisions we make.

There are times when we just don't understand why everyone does not see things as we do. Remind us, if You would, that not everyone has had the same experiences or life journey as we have.

Your Word teaches

“When a man’s ways are pleasing to the Lord, he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.”

So today, we pray for peace with those we might disagree with.

Allow patience to prevail in all which occurs in this chamber over the next few hours.

Your Word also says, “The wise in heart will be called discerning, and sweetness of speech increases persuasiveness.”

Allow our speech to be ordered and commended by You. Give us,

I pray, discerning “sweetness of speech,” that those whom we address might hear truth based of the reality of what is best for the people of Kansas.

I pray for our speaker of the House Dan Hawkins, for our Majority leader Chris Croft and our Minority leader Brandon Woodard, as they give direction to the business of the day.

Thank you for their commitment to the decorum of all that transpires in this chamber.

I pray this in Jesus Name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Tarwater

MR. SPEAKER: "When will this end?" Everyone's going to want one!" Words uttered yesterday when 11 Republicans tanked the Ruby Bridges' Bill. Yet, today they ALL voted for this. Ruby Bridges, who's embodied as the national icon for desegregation in Norman Rockwell's "The Problem We All Live With," "the fruit of Kansas' Brown v Board- living history and example for our children, whose invitation to come to Kansas for its 70th anniversary year she accepted, and enthralled audiences across the state. I won't be silent and I vote NO on HB 2170, a most worthy bill, in protest of Ruby Bridge's treatment in this chamber. — MARI-LYNN POSKIN, SUZANNE WIKLE, LINDA FEATHERSTON, HEATHER MEYER, VIRGIL WEIGEL, NIKKI McDONALD, WANDA BROWNLEE PAIGE, SYDNEY CARLIN, JO ELLA HOYE, CINDY NEIGHBOR, KIRK HASKINS, TOBIAS SCHLINGENSIEPEN, FORD CARR, ANGELA MARTINEZ, MELISSA OROPEZA, STEPHANIE SAWYER CLAYTON, SILAS MILLER, VALDENIA WINN, JARROD OUSLEY, BROOKLYNNE MOSLEY, LINDSAY VAUGHN, SUSAN RUIZ, KC OHAEBOSIM

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2185. I certainly support our national guard, and I'm thankful for the service of everyone who serves in the military. However, I'm not in favor of providing free, taxpayer funded college to anyone, especially when it comes to advanced degrees like Masters' Degrees and Doctorate Degrees. I don't believe that taxpayers should be forced to pay full tuition costs for any individual. I think that everyone should at least have to pay for part of their college education, rather than requiring taxpayers to pay for full tuition. – BRETT FAIRCHILD “Right now, the Legislature should be focused on ways to help Kansans cope with rising prices. That is the most important issue for Kansans. That is where my focus is.

Infringing on parental rights is not appropriate, nor is it a Kansas value. As I've said before, it is not the job of politicians to stand between a parent and a child who needs medical care of any kind. This legislation will also drive families, businesses, and health care workers out of our state, stifling our economy and exacerbating our workforce shortage issue.

It is disappointing that the Legislature continues to push for government interference in Kansans' private medical decisions instead of focusing on issues that improve all Kansans' lives.

Therefore, under Article 2, Section 14(a) of the Constitution, I hereby veto Senate Bill 63.”

A motion was made that SB 63 be passed notwithstanding the Governor's veto. By vote of 31 Yeas and 9 Nays, the motion having received the required two-thirds constitutional majority of the members elected or appointed to the Senate, voting in the affirmative, the bill passed.

CONSIDERATION OF VETO

On motion of Rep. Rep. Bryce the House proceeded to reconsider SB 63 AN ACT concerning children and minors; relating to healthcare of minors; enacting the help not harm act; prohibiting healthcare providers from treating a child whose gender identity is inconsistent with the child's sex; authorizing a civil cause of action against healthcare providers for providing such treatments; restricting use of state funds to promote gender transitioning; prohibiting professional liability insurance from covering damages for healthcare providers that provide gender transition treatment to children; requiring professional discipline against a healthcare provider who performs such treatments; adding violation of the act to the definition of unprofessional conduct for physicians; amending K.S.A. 65-2837 and repealing the existing section..

The Governor's objection to SB 63 having been read (HJ Page 276) question being shall the bill be passed not withstanding the Governor's veto?

On roll call, the vote was: Passed

A two-thirds majority of the members elected to the House having voted in favor of the bill over the Governor's veto, the motion did prevail, the bill did pass.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 85; Nays 34; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 6.

TWENTY-SIXTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, February 19, 2025, 9:30 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Hawkins in the chair.

The roll was called with 119 members present.

Reps. Helgerson, Stogsdill, Wilborn and Winn were excused on verified illness.

Reps. Meyer and Penn were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Present later: Reps. Meyer, Penn, Wilborn and Winn.

Excused later: Reps. Chauncey, Poetter Parshall and Poskin.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father. Thank You for Your goodness to us.

The weather is less than optimal, but Your grace is abundant, and for that we give You praise.

Your Word proclaims, "Truly my soul finds rest in God."

We would indeed appreciate some rest today, but there is work yet to be done.

I pray You would give strength where weakness prevails.

Heal bodies which have been afflicted with sickness.

In the Book of Psalms we read

"In Thee O Lord I have taken refuge: Let me never be ashamed. In Thy righteousness deliver me, and rescue me. Incline Thine ear to me and save me. Be Thou to me a rock of habitation, to which I may continually come; Thou hast given commandment to save me, for Thou art my rock and fortress. Rescue me, O God, our of the hand of the wicked, out of the grasp of the wrong doer and ruthless man."

Today as we look at the myriad of things facing us, we truly want to find a refuge in You.

In a few moments we will be entering into deliberation and debate. I pray for every decision which is made in this chamber today will have been sifted through good information and wise council.

Sharpen our minds O God, as we look closely at that which will be put forth as legislation.

Allow truth, righteousness and wisdom to prevail in all we put our hands to.

Give us, I pray, patience with one another, especially those who do not see things as we do.

Remind us, if You will, we have all been created in your wonderful pattern, and your love has been given equally to all.

I now pray Your blessings upon each of these Representatives as they enter into the work of the hour.

In Jesus Name I pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Sawyer Clayton

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2007. Holding the EBT Summer Program, which provides vital food assistance to low-income children during the summer, hostage until the Secretary of DCF seeks a waiver to impose further restrictions on SNAP benefits is both unjust and harmful. This approach is an unacceptable attempt to ‘shame’ those in need. Additionally, imposing an additional 1.5% cut to an already lean state agency budget is irresponsible. It is unfair to suggest that children in special education should bear the burden of budgetary cuts. This approach sends the wrong message and fails to recognize the importance of supporting those who need it most – JARROD OUSLEY, BARBARA BALLARD, MIKE AMYX, TOBIAS SCHLINGENSIEPEN, NIKKI McDONALD, LINDA FEATHERSTON, MARI-LYNN POSKIN, SUZANNE WIKLE, CINDY NEIGHBOR, VIRGIL WEIGEL, SUSAN RUIZ, FORD CARR, JOHN ALCALA, ANGELA MARTINEZ, LYNN MELTON, MELISSA OROPEZA, SILAS MILLER, STEPHANIE SAWYER CLAYTON, WANDA BROWNLEE PAIGE, JOHN CARMICHAEL, BROOKLYNNE MOSLEY, LINDSAY VAUGHN, JO ELLA HOYE, TOM SAWYER

MR. SPEAKER: While I’m grateful for the adoption of my amendment to invest $3.3 million in Washburn University—an essential economic and academic institution in my district and across Kansas—I cannot support HB 2007. The budget was crafted without a clear understanding of tax revenue projections, making it financially unsound. Additionally, the bill was pushed through too quickly, leaving critical gaps and unanswered questions. It also neglects key areas like special education and workforce development, failing to deliver meaningful benefits to Kansans. – KIRK HASKINS

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2062. This legislation is an underhanded attempt to advance an agenda that denies women the right to bodily autonomy. Designed to lay the groundwork for “fetal personhood,” HB 2062 is just the latest attempt to criminalize any behavior deemed to threaten a pregnancy. The rights of a fetus or embryo should never be placed above the rights of a pregnant person. In addition, because of the ambiguity in the poorly written text of this bill, it will inevitably result in unnecessary confusion and future lawsuits. — NIKKI McDONALD, TOBIAS SCHLINGENSIEPEN, KIRK HASKINS, ALEXIS SIMMONS, HEATHER, MEYER, FORD CARR, JOHN CARMICHAEL

HB 2075, AN ACT concerning minors; relating to the revised Kansas code for care of children; requiring that a permanency hearing for a child in custody of the secretary be held within nine months of such child's removal from such child's home and subsequent hearings be held every six months thereafter; amending K.S.A. 2024 Supp. 38-2264 and repealing the existing section, was considered on final action.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: My constituents have spoken loud and clear that they see this legislation as an incentive for their local municipalities to build energy storage systems in their backyards today to serve as a potential revenue cash cow in ten years. While they appreciate the attempt to eventually tax this equipment under the new designation, as they acknowledge that all similar existing equipment should already be subject to property tax, they are firmly against incentivizing the building of these systems in their community through such legislation. — REBECCA SCHMOE, CARRIE BARTH

TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tempore Carpenter in the chair.

The roll was called with 121 members present.

Excused later: Barth.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father.

We thank You for another day to work for the people of Kansas.

We are grateful for their confidence in us, and pray we would always be found making decisions based upon Your righteousness.

You have said in Your Word, "Righteousness guards the one whose way is blameless." Allow us to walk in such a way as to find favor with You, especially when we fail to please others.

Your Word proclaims

"Come unto me all you who are weary and burdened and I will give you rest."

We really do need some rest Father, yet there is work which must be done.
Give strength where weakness prevails. Heal bodies which have encountered sickness.

Let patience have its full sway in all deliberations.

Give insight into that which seems difficult to understand.

Allow reasonableness and good decision making to be manifested in all we say and do.

And, might transparency be woven into all we encounter, as we do this unique work.

I pray for our National leaders.

Grant them the ability to make decisions which will be good for all the people.

I pray for our State leaders. The Governor and her staff.

The President of The Senate, and his staff, and our own Speaker of the House and his fine staff.

Before time began, You knew about today.

You knew about all we would encounter and the decisions we would need to make.
Allow Your wisdom to flow abundantly as we work to discern the correct path to follow.

I pray this in Jesus Name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Hoffman.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote “No” on House Bill 2172. I cannot support this bill because it fails to address the root cause of the water scarcity issue, which is overuse. Our state has had a department tasked with water conservation and quality since the 1940s, and we are well aware of the challenges we face. The problem is the unsustainable number of water permits being issued. Let me reiterate, it is not the irrigators or the farmer’s fault, because they are unable to use that water without a permit issued by the GMD’s, DWR, and Water Authorities, who control the water in the state of Kansas. — JOSEPH SEIWERT, RONALD ELLIS, DALE HELWIG, LEO DELPERDANG

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I reached out to my Sheriff, 2 active Police Chiefs, 2 Retired Police Chiefs as well as the FOP to discuss this Bill. They all did point out to me this doesn’t address the internal policies of a pursuit - when to stop or start - Only increases the penalty for those that flee or attempt to elude. For those reasons I support HB 2177. — LYNN MELTON, TIMOTHY JOHNSON

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: The idea that politicians control DCF's ability to act in the best interests of children is a clear violation of our scope of government – politicians don't decide placement. HB 2311 will ensure that LGBTQ+ youth live with compatible families. We have an opportunity to protect available and qualified family-based foster homes who are qualified and willing to help, and no family should be discriminated against based on values that are shared in and out of religious groups. This bill will help achieve timely legal placement for foster children by increasing the number of foster families – a clear win for Kansas. – ANGEL ROESER, PATRICK PENN, ADAM TURK, JASON GOETZ, ANGELA STIENS, STEVEN HOWE, DAWN WOLF, DOUG BLEX, SANDY PICKERT, LAUREN BOHI, ROBYN ESSEX, BOB LEWIS, DALE HELWIG, CARRIE BARTH, TIMOTHY JOHNSON, SCOTT HILL, BARB WASINGER, DAVID BUEHLER, SHERRI BRANTLEY, CHIP VANHOUDEN, NATE BUTLER, LON PISHNY, EMIL BERGQUIST, JILL WARD, JOHN RESMAN, JOE SEIWER, DUANE DROGE, DAN GODDARD, RICK WILBORN

MR. SPEAKER: The almost 6000 children in foster care in Kansas need a wide array, a diverse range, of qualified adoptive and foster homes. All races, religions, beliefs, and locations as long as they are willing, qualified, and stable. HB 2311 preserves the best interest of the child standard in placement decisions, and it also preserves the right of citizens to exercise their first amendment right in the public square. I vote yes on HB 2311 because no qualified person or family should be excluded from participating in our child welfare system because of their religious or moral beliefs. – SUSAN HUMPHRIES, KRISTEY WILLIAMS, PAUL WAGGONER, LISA MOSER

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2311. Allowing state sanctioned discrimination against the LGBTQ+ population is not the right approach to alleviate stress within the child welfare system. Rather, we should focus on reducing the number of children in foster care by helping families access the supports they need to provide for their families. – SUZANNE WIKLE, SILAS MILLER, TOBIAS SCHLINGENSIEPEN, MARI-LYNN POSKIN, LINDA FEATHERSTON, SUSAN RUIZ, RUI XU, ALEXIS SIMMONS, HEATHER MEYER, NIKKI McDONALD, KIRK HASKINS, SYDNEY CARLIN, MELISSA OROPEZA, LYNN MELTON, JOHN ALCALA, ANGELA MARTINEZ, FORD CARR, WANDA BROWNLEE PAIGE, VALDENIA WINN, LOUIS RUIZ, KC OHAEBOSIM, JO ELLA HOYE, CINDY NEIGHBOR, DAN OSMAN

MR. SPEAKER: The right of religious freedom of potential foster or adoptive parents being reinforced in statute - while of course considering what is in the best of each child - is a reminder of just how important this freedom is, therefore I vote yes on HB 2311. – CHARLOTTE ESAU

HB 2312, AN ACT concerning crimes, punishment and criminal procedure; relating to certified drug abuse treatment programs; excluding certain offenders convicted of a nonperson felony from participation in such programs; authorizing community correctional services officers to complete criminal risk-need assessments for divertees who are committed to such programs; amending K.S.A. 21-6824 and K.S.A. 2024 Supp. 75-52,144 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: When people purchase a home, they look at the neighborhood and they are expecting neighbors and not businesses. While I am not opposed to some home-based businesses that are regulated within the city/county in which they are located. I am opposed to removing the voice of the community and the local government, i.e. circumventing Home Rule. This removes the voices of the local communities as well as from Local Elected Officials-Commissioners/City Council lose the power to represent their Districts. I am strongly opposed to the unintended consequences this bill brings. For those reasons I vote NO on HB 2343. — LYNN MELTON, NIKKI McDONALD

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2240. I cannot support HB 2240 in its final form. I understand the DD community's frustration with KDADs regarding policy updates but as written, this bill reaches far beyond those impacted by the DD waiver and their ongoing negotiations with KDADs. This bill will cause unnecessary bottlenecks and delays when timely changes need to be made to the Medicaid program. — SUZANNE WIKLE, ALEXIS SIMMONS, MARI-LYNN POSKIN, LINDA FEATHERSTON, HEATHER MEYER, SUSAN RUIZ, FORD CARR, JOHN ALCALA, ANGELA MARTINEZ, LYNN MELTON, MELISSA OROPEZA, SILAS MILLER, JARROD OUSLEY, VALDENIA WINN, WANDA BROWNLEE PAIGE, BROOKLYNNE MOSLEY, SYDNEY CARLIN, RUI XU, LINDSAY VAUGHN, CINDY NEIGHBOR, VIRGIL WEIGEL, JO ELLA HOYE, BARBARA BALLARD, MIKE AMYX

Our Great God in Heaven, Let us Pray

God, I am reminded of Your Word to “Let every soul be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and the authorities that exist are appointed by God.” (Romans 13:1 NKJV)

Lord, will You grant each leader Your wisdom and the infinite understanding to serve with a true, pure vision. May each individual from the Governor, Legislators, clerks, aids and down through the support staff draw upon the knowledge spoken through Your gentle small voice into their heart and mind that collectively will build a better future for all Kansans.

May they foster mutual respect and understanding, without differences for the common good of all mankind that the citizens of Kansas can sense their wisdom, integrity and compassion to bring about hope and change as well as foster encouragement to follow their leading.

God, I thank You for the leaders' service and the good they have done. Lord, for their efforts, I pray You bless each one, their families, friends and the communities they serve as they dedicate their time, resources and love to foster a better life and future for the people of Kansas and beyond.

Lord, I pray for those who are experiencing personal difficulties, or sickness in their person or family, whether present or absent. Lord, touch each situation with an abundance of Your grace, healing, and a knowledge that You are close beside interceding on their behalf.

God, I pray Your blessings upon each individual as they now proceed into the duties of the day, and into the future.

In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, AMEN.

TWENTY-NINTH DAY

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Poskin are spread upon the Journal:

I invite you to join me in recognizing an outstanding group of youngsters up here who are here to share their message with you on Mental Health Advocacy Day. I encourage you to go out of your way to take a moment from your busy day to speak to them about the work they do with Zero Reasons Why, a teen led, grassroots campaign focusing on removing the stigma around mental health and preventing youth suicide.

This issue is near and dear to my heart. As the mother of seven children, I've been to too many childrens' funerals...I also know the outsize influence that teens can have on each other, the power behind these teens' work. My constituent, Julia, was one of the first Ambassadors for Zero Reasons Why, after she lost her brother and my son's classmate, Teddy, to suicide. In 2019, she said, “I hope that by sharing my story, people will feel more comfortable sharing theirs and seeking help. There are #ZeroReasonsWhy teens can't work together to make a change.”

Congratulations to these teens, working so hard together, on continuing to BE the change, leading with empathy and kindness. And they are: Brodie Selfridge, Brady Reif, Josh Kim, Norah Ewy, Noah Noyes, Adison Kamman, Marly Brewer, Sofia Simic, Kassie Linser and Mallory Helm and others in the gallery.

Rep. Poskin presented her guests with a framed House certificate in honor of their work in preventing youth suicide.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Haskins are spread upon the Journal:

Colleagues, they say history is written by the victors, but I believe it is created by those willing to tell it. It is my honor to recognize a special constituent of House District 53, Mr. Larry Wills, for his 25 years of service as the “singing” tour guide at the Kansas State Capitol.

In the gallery are Larry’s family and many friends. On the floor, we are joined by his wife, Doris; daughter, Anne, and her husband, Jim; son, Howard, and his wife, Meredith; and grandchildren Grayden, Emma, Maryn, Paul, and Audrey.

Scholarship and service—with a touch of showmanship—define Larry Wills, or as my family calls him, “Uncle Larry.” He and “Aunt Doris” have been best friends with my parents, also in the gallery, since he moved to Topeka in 1962 to teach music at Curtis Junior High and became my father’s roommate, a math teacher at the school.

A lifelong educator, Larry began his career in 1959, teaching band in his hometown of Beloit, Kansas. Over time, he transitioned to teaching social science, took on school administration, and eventually retired as an ESL teacher in 1999.

Retirement didn’t quite suit Larry. He wasn’t a golfer and didn’t care for woodworking, so in 2000, he applied for seasonal work at the Capitol, hoping to be an office assistant. Instead, to his delight, he landed the perfect position—as a tour guide.

What started as a temporary job quickly became his passion. From January to May, five days a week, he led thousands of visitors—always on foot, never the elevator—sharing history with energy and flair. He kept going until 2024, when he scaled back to just a few tours a month.

Kansas tour guides do more than lead visitors—they preserve our state’s history and safeguard this symbol of democracy. Early on, Larry realized Kansas history wasn’t just meant to be told—it was meant to be sung. With classics like John Brown’s Body, The Chisholm Trail, and, of course, Home on the Range, he brought history to life, inviting tour groups to join him in song. His unique way of connecting with audiences spread quickly, making him one of the most requested and popular Capitol tour guides.

Larry’s 25 years of service remind us that history lives through those who dedicate themselves to telling its story. Through his special showmanship, he ensured Kansas’ story stays alive for future generations. Today, by recognizing him, we secure Larry Wills’ rightful place in our state’s history through the Kansas Journal.

Colleagues, I ask that you rise and, if he is up to it, please allow our Capitol minstrel to lead us in one verse of Home on the Range.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Poetter Parshall are spread upon the Journal:

Thank you, I would like to take a brief moment to recognize the members of the Paola High School Spirit Squad.

The Paola Panther spirit squad is the winner the 2024 Class 4A Kansas State High School Activities Association Spirit Game Day competition. This latest victory marks the third win in the last four years.

Not only did Paola advance, the spirit squad took an unheard of 10-point lead into the finals. Teams are usually separated by a point or two in these competitions. The Paola Panthers Spirit Squad ended up winning the state title by nearly seven points. The Paola Panther spirit squad won back-to-back state titles in 2021 and 2022.

These girls and their coaches are proof that with hard work and determination your possibilities are endless.

Rep. Poetter Parshall presented the members of the Paola Spirit Squad with a framed House Certificate in honor of their dedication and accomplishments.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Resman are spread upon the Journal:

With me on the floor today are the members of the Olathe West Girls' Cross Country Team. The Olathe West Girls' Cross Country team secured their fifth consecutive Class 6A State Championship in a dramatic turn of events.

Due to poor cell reception results of the competition were delayed, which caused confusion in the standings. Initially, head coach Kelsey Carbajo believed they had lost by one point, delivering a somber speech about the importance of every point.

However, updated results later revealed that Olathe West had actually tied their nearest opponent with 80 points and won the tiebreaker with their sixth runner. The victory was particularly meaningful because this year's team was largely new, with only one returning scorer from last year's championship squad.

Everyone on the team agreed that they didn't want to be the team that broke the streak. Despite challenges, including illness affecting a key runner and the tough, muddy conditions at Rim Rock Farm, the Owls persevered. Their depth ultimately secured the win, with standout performances from seniors Lily Brewer and Liz Browning, and a crucial contribution from freshman Adyson Burton.

The emotional roller coaster of thinking they had lost, then realizing they had won, made the celebration even sweeter.

The team had been determined to uphold the program's high standards, knowing the difficulty of maintaining a championship streak. Their resilience and teamwork paid off, reinforcing the value of pushing through adversity.

Joining me on the floor today are Coach Kelsy Carbajo, Adyson Burton, Jasmine Stiede, Brooklyn White, Audra Gonzales, Laynie Clements, McKenna Taldo, Liz Browning, Katelyn Wolcott, and Lily Brewer.

Please join me in congratulating the Olathe West Girls Cross Country Team on their fifth consecutive Class 6A State Championship.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. K. Williams, Poetter Parshall, Butler and Chauncey are spread upon the Journal:

Representative Williams began, Members of the House, we would like to take a brief moment to recognize four exemplary elementary schools in our state who have received designation as National Blue Ribbon Schools.

Representative Poetter Parshall continued, There are 356 schools across the country who have been designated 2024 Blue Ribbon Schools and we are proud to introduce our four Kansas schools who have shown substantial progress in helping close achievement gaps among our children.”

Representative Butler continued, The Blue Ribbon program recognizes public and private schools in the category of Exemplary High Performing Schools on the State Assessment.

Representative Chauncey introduced the representatives from the Blue Ribbon schools:

- Representing Garfield Elementary, USD 402, of Augusta, congratulations to Trever Lockamy, Principal and Diane Rhoten, teacher.
- Representing Lincoln Elementary, Geary County USD 475, congratulations to Daniel Dinkel, Principal and Dr. Eggleston, Superintendent.
- Representing Herington Elementary School, USD 487, congratulations to Nicholas Morgan, Principal and DeAnn Knopp, Library/Media Specialist.
- Representing Sunflower Elementary School, Paola USD 368; congratulations to Matthew Meek, Superintendent and Staci Wokutch, Principal.

Representative Williams concluded, It’s our honor to congratulate our schools, including administration, staff, and students, for their outstanding performance in education. Also, we want to acknowledge and pray for our colleague Rep. Scott Hill who could not recognize his school, Herington, today due to surgery. Each school representative was presented with a framed House certificate in honor of them being recognized as a National Blue Ribbon School.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Proctor are spread upon the Journal:

Today I have with me—here at the well and in the balcony--the Leavenworth High School JROTC Raider team. With me at the well are Coaches; 1SG Wayne Cogdill and Gina Edwards and also Cadets; Schwennesen, Mowery, Purvis, Kaminski, Howell, Gilman, Morgado, and Kussulke.

A couple months ago, at Fort Knox, Kentucky, the Leavenworth High School JROTC Raiders won an unprecedented sixth Raider National Champions in six years. This is a grueling, three-day competition, which includes a physical training test, a 5K run, and the one-rope bridge. They beat over 90 other teams from across the country to win this Championship.

You might be asking yourself how a small city like Leavenworth could so consistently defeat so many teams from bigger cities from across the nation. It is definitely a testament to these kids, their hard work and determination to excel. But it is also about these coaches who sacrifice so much to inspire these kids to go a little bit faster, a little bit longer. And it is a testament to the parents of each one of these kids, who sacrifice so much of their time and money to make this teamwork day in and day out. And, finally, it is about the entire community of Leavenworth, Fort Leavenworth, and Lansing, that give so much of their time and treasure to support this team and give them the resources they need to achieve and win these Championships year after year.

But it is also about setting high expectations and standards for our kids. The success of this JROTC program--whether the Raider Team, the armed or unarmed drill teams, or the color guard—is squarely a result of the cadre of this program setting high standards, not compromising those standards, and inspiring these kids to rise to meet and exceed them. Kids thrive when we expect more from them than they think they are capable of achieving. And this achievement we are recognizing today reflects that fact.

And so, on behalf of the Kansas House of Representatives, I am honored to present this tribute to the Leavenworth High School JROTC Raiders. Your hard work, dedication, and commitment to excellence reflect great credit on your team, Leavenworth High School JROTC, the City of Leavenworth, and the State of Kansas.

Rep. Proctor presented his guests with a framed House certificate in honor of their many achievements.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Butler are spread upon the Journal:

Members of the House, Representative Chauncey and I would like to take a moment to recognize Linden Pickler, 2024, Girls 6-A, Cross Country State Champion. As a freshman at Junction City High School, USD 475, Linden ran an 18:37 5000M race to take the coveted first place. Linden's fasted time this past season was 18:15.

Linden is accompanied by her parents Amy Pickler and Col. Jeffery Pickler, Commander 1st Division Artillery. Unfortunately, Linden's family will be moving to their next duty station this summer. We wish them well.

Linden is also joined here with her coaching staff, Coach Tim Testa, Coach Mandi Zimmerman, Coach Brooke Atkins. Linden's mom and dad have expressed their appreciation for the efforts and exceptional coaching skills of these three amazing coaches.

It's our honor to congratulate these amazing individuals. Body, will you join me in recognizing these recipients?

Rep. Butler presented each of his guests with a House certificate in honor of their accomplishments.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Buehler and Melton are spread upon the Journal:

The House of Representatives is honored to recognize the outstanding work and contribution of Michael Young, a talented artist and proud Kansas native.

Michael Young is the visionary behind the remarkable Brown vs. Board of Education mural, one of the most admired artworks on the Kansas State Capitol tour. Through his creativity and dedication, Michael has brilliantly captured the significance of this pivotal moment in history, reminding us of Kansas' commitment to justice and equality. Michael's mural serves as a striking visual representation of progress and a powerful tool to spark meaningful conversations.

Brown vs. Board of Education stands as a landmark Supreme court decision that declared racial segregation in public schools unconstitutional. This 1954 ruling became a monumental step in the fight for civil rights, highlighting the inherent inequality of segregated educational systems and affirming that segregation violated the Equal Protection Clause of the 14th Amendment.

Kansas has been a leading voice in the struggle for civil rights since it entered the Union as a "free state" in 1861.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on HB 2291. There may be unintended consequences if health and safety regulations are waived through this proposed office. I'm concerned that this bill would put the state at odds with the Nuclear Regulatory Commission and cause us to lose federal funding, because KDHE could not enforce regulations required by the NRC. It's unclear whether the bill's provisions apply to Medicaid eligibility and provider regulations. The bill grows the Attorney General's Office by 6 FTE and would require an increase of $913,806 to the State General Fund that is not currently funded in our budget. This is risky and costly. I vote NO. - Jo ELLA HOYE

Rep. Bob Lewis (Chair), Rep. Susan Humphries, Rep. Shannon Francis, Rep. Mike Amyx, Rep. Barbara Ballard, Rep. Dan Osman

Pursuant to House Rule 4902(b), the select committee shall constitute an investigating committee and shall have the powers thereof under Article 10 of chapter 46 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated.

"I, Representative Ford Carr would like to launch a formal complaint against Representative Nick Hoheisel for his actions taken on the floor of the Kansas Statehouse 2/20/2025 at or near 11:00 a.m.

His actions were uncalled for, inappropriate and in direct violation of the rules of the House as detailed in Mason's Manual chapter 12 section 122 among others.

Summary:

At or near 11:00 a.m. Thursday February 20, 2025 I observed Representative Nick Hoheisel walking from the front of the House Chamber behind the Speaker of the House and proceeded to walk down the main isle nearest my floor seat. He stopped short of my direct isle and paused to have a conversation with Representative Rui Xu. After a brief conversation he exited that isle and returned to the main isle, continued in his previous direction not returning from the way he came and immediately began yelling profanity. He repeatedly yelled 'bullshit'. Upon reaching my seat he stopped, leaned over, rose his hand and put a finger in my face while yelling "Representative Carr that's Bullshit. Don't you ever talk about any of my colleagues that way." At this point I was unclear what he was talking about and more unclear why he had stopped at me. At this time several witnesses attempted to intervene, pushed him away and asked him to leave. He did.

These visual witnesses include but are not limited to: Representatives John Alcala, Angela Martinez, Kirk Haskins, Brooklyn Mosley Nikki McDonald and Heather Meyer. It was further audibly observed by Representative John Carmicheal.

Representative Haskins stood and orated a resounding point of order as Representative Hoheisel exited to the rear of the chamber.” REPRESENTATIVE FORD CARR

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Good Morning Father. You are indeed a good and gracious God, bestowing goodness on all Your people according to Your loving kindness.
We are continually grateful for the security we find in a personal relationship with You.
We live in interesting days.

Some things are changing which tends to make us a bit uncomfortable at times.

We face challenges never before thought of, yet

You were aware before they even occurred.

As we embrace some of these new challenges, we are going to lean heavenly upon You for guidance.

You see clearly, what we can only see in obscurity.

Would You give us Your eyes, Your compassion,
Your direction and Your wisdom as we navigate our way through what we cannot clearly see?

Jeremiah 32:13 says, "Ah Lord God! Behold Thou hast made the heavens and the earth by thine outstretched arm! Nothing is too difficult for Thee."

It is with this sound assurance that we surrender any differences we might have to you, and trust You for the opportunity to mirror Your love and compassion to all of our colleagues.

I invite Your intercession into the lives of each of these Representatives.

I pray the peace of God might prevail upon this deliberative body of policy makers.

Renew, their desire to serve with distinction and fortitude.

Remind them, if You would, how much they are loved and respected by so many of the people of Kansas.

I invoke Your blessings and comfort upon those who are experiencing sickness of body.

I would also ask Your blessings upon those who may have recently experienced the trauma of disquieting news.

May Your peace prevail in their lives in a mighty way.
In the Name of The One who was, and Is, and Is to come I pray.
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Schreiber.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Hawkins in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.

Reps. Barth and Butler were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father. There is so much going on in our lives outside of what is happening today in this chamber of decisions.

In the next number of hours we will need Your help to concentrate of the business at hand. Give us quick minds and steadfast spirits as we negotiate the various opportunities which are before us.

Allow us to be open to Your Spirit guiding our thoughts and the direction You deem as best and necessary.

In Jeremiah 23:23 we read,

“I am a God who is near, declares the Lord, and not a God far off.”

Because of that nearness we seek Your intercession in our lives.

I pray for peace of mind and spirit as only You can provide.

Father, would you give us the courage to admit we may have been wrong at times in some directions we have taken.

If we have let our emotions make decisions before we measured the consequences, help us to be humble enough to ask forgiveness to any which may have been injured by our words or actions. Your Word declares, “A false balance is an abomination to the Lord, but a just weight is His delight. When pride comes, then comes dishonor. But with the humble is wisdom. The integrity of the upright will guide them, but the falseness of the treacherous will destroy them.”

O God, help each of us to live these words in a way which pleases

You and brings delight to those we interact with.

And, at the end of the day, as we look back, might we observe Your approval upon our lives.

We ask Your blessing now upon these Representatives as they enter into the work of the day.

I ask this in the Name of the one who gave His life that all may inherit eternal life.

Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Sawyer.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: As an ardent supporter of the 1st Amendment the expansion of donation limits in HB 2054 is a welcome counter to inflation. The limitless growth of the political parties that are a collection of many voices is problematic, however for two reasons: First, it allows the unlimited voice of those controlling the party to essentially force their speech onto any that are dissenting within the party. Second, it allows major contributors of the party to control the voice of the party by their financial influence. For those two reasons I vote no on HB 2054. — SCOTT HILL, BILL RHILEY

MR. SPEAKER: I vote in strong opposition to HB 2054, the "Incumbent Protection Act of 2025." By removing contribution limits to party committees, this bill allows wealthy donors to gain undue influence, undermining democratic principles and voter trust. Research shows that contribution limits promote competition, giving challengers a fair shot. This bill entrenches incumbents, stifles grassroots candidates, suppresses votes, and prioritizes the wealthy over every day Kansans. We should focus on legislation that protects democracy and ensures every Kansan's voice is heard—not bills that benefit the privileged few. — KIRK HASKINS, TOM SAWYER, JO ELLA HOYE, CINDY NEIGHBOR, BROOKLYNNE MOSLEY, LYNN MELTON, JERRY STOGSDILL, MIKE AMYX, NIKKI McDONALD, BARBARA W. Journal of the House

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, March 5, 2025, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Hawkins in the chair.

The roll was called with 118 members present.

Reps. Brownlee Paige, Butler, Sawyer and Winn were excused on verified illness.

Reps. Barth, Poetter Parshall and Waggoner were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Good Morning Father. We read in Psalm 103:2-4

“Bless the Lord O my soul, and forget none of His benefits. Who pardons all your iniquities; Who heals all your diseases; Who redeems your life from the pit; Who crowns you with loving kindness and compassion.”

Thank You for the wonderful benefit of being called a child of God.

We are so appreciative that our iniquities can be pardoned.

We especially thank You for your healing of our infirmities.

You are indeed our healer. Today, as we begin the work of legislation, we would ask You to heal our eyes, that we might see things as You see them. Unstop our ears that we might hear things which brings clarity to our thinking.

Quicken our minds, so we might think clearly and judge accurately all which comes before us.

Open our hearts that we might extend compassion in a way which honors You.

Touch our tired bodies with your invigorating strength, and help us to forge ahead with a renewed vitality.

We ask You to bless those who are less fortunate than we are. Those who have no good place to lay their head at night, or secure place to rest. Bless those who are living moment by moment, because each moment is all they have the strength to navigate.

Help us, who have been blessed with so much to not forget those who have so little. Indeed, give us the eyes of Jesus as we seek to extend help to those who are often helpless.

We pray for our families, especially those who are far from us because of responsibilities we have accepted.

Might they never forget they are much more important than anything we could ever do for the State of Kansas.

Now, I ask Your presence and blessing on these Kansas servants as they seek to make our State an even better place to live and raise a family.

In Jesus Name I pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Sanders.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Ballard are spread upon the Journal:

Black History Month is celebrated in February, but really we celebrate Black History all year long. It began in 1863 when President Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation freeing the American slaves. But Lincoln knew that a proclamation would not be enough leading to the creation of the 13th Amendment. The 13th Amendment, which formally abolished slavery, was officially approved on February 1, 1865.

This year to celebrate Black History Month, I want to share unknown black inventors whose technologies and patents we still rely on today.

Garrett Morgan was an inventor who patented the first three position signal traffic light in 1923. Previous lights did not include a yellow caution signal, so Morgan improved the design. This invention was a precursor to traffic lights used today. He also designed masks that became the model for gas masks used in WWI.

Alexander Miles was an African American inventor and businessman, who in 1887 received the first patent for automatically opening and closing elevator doors. This was a huge safety feature that we take for granted now. Prior to mechanical opening/closing mechanism, elevator shaft doors could be left open or with gaps that people could fall in. He was inspired to do this after his daughter Grace fell down an elevator shaft, almost ending her life.

Marie Van Brittan Brown was the inventor of the first home security system and the first closed circuit television. She filed her patent in 1966, influenced by the security risks that her home faced in the neighborhood where she lived. Even when police responded to home situations, they were often extremely slow to respond, so she needed to alert them as soon as possible.

Frederick McKinley Jones invented portable refrigeration equipment used to transport food, blood, and medicines during World War II. During his career he received more than 60 patents, and the company he founded still exists today (Thermo King). In 1991, President George HW Bush awarded the National Medal of Technology posthumously to Jones' family, becoming the first black American to receive this award. And in 2007, Jones was inducted into the National Inventors Hall of Fame.

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send five enrolled copies of this resolution to Representative B. Carpenter.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Speaker pro tempore Carpenter are spread upon the Journal:

I rise today to reaffirm the strong and enduring friendship between the State of Kansas and Taiwan. For 36 years, our sister-state relationship has been built on the values we both hold dear—freedom, democracy, and the rule of law. Taiwan is not just an economic partner; it is an ally and a friend to Kansas.

Our economic ties continue to grow, with Taiwan ranking as Kansas' 6th largest import country and 12th largest export destination. Kansas farmers, manufacturers, and small businesses benefit from this relationship, and we must continue to strengthen these ties. Taiwan's commitment to fair trade and investment makes it a key partner in ensuring economic opportunity for our state.

Beyond trade, Taiwan has been a steadfast friend in times of need. When disasters strike, Taiwan has stepped up time and again to provide aid and relief to communities across the world. This generosity is not just a reflection of Taiwan's government but of its people—a people who believe in service, in cooperation, and in helping those in need.

I would be remiss if I did not take a moment to recognize the contributions of my friend and former colleague, Representative Les Mason. For years, Les was a champion of this resolution, carrying it forward with dedication and conviction. Before his passing, he entrusted me with this responsibility, and I am honored to continue his work. His steadfast support of Taiwan did not go unnoticed—last year, after his passing, the country of Taiwan honored him with the Friend of Foreign Service medal for his many years of advocacy and friendship toward their nation. This recognition is a testament to the impact he had, and it is only fitting that we continue his legacy by reaffirming our commitment to Taiwan today.

Taiwan's resilience is something we should all admire. In the face of ongoing geopolitical challenges, Taiwan has stood strong, defending its democracy and its way of life. That is why Kansas must continue to show our support. Standing with Taiwan is not just about policy—it is about standing with a people who share our values and our commitment to freedom.

As we recognize 36 years of this important partnership, let us look forward to even greater cooperation—whether in trade, security, or disaster relief. Our bond with Taiwan is strong, and today, we reaffirm that it will remain so in the years to come.

"Sec. 4. K.S.A. 2024 Supp. 38-2391 is hereby amended to read as follows: 38-2391. (a) Upon adjudication as a juvenile offender pursuant to K.S.A. 38-2356, and amendments thereto, modification of sentence pursuant to K.S.A. 38-2367, and amendments thereto, or violation of a condition of sentence pursuant to K.S.A. 38-2368, and amendments thereto, the court may impose one or more of the sentencing alternatives under K.S.A. 38-2361, and amendments thereto, for a period of time pursuant to this section and K.S.A. 38-2369, and amendments thereto. The period of time ordered by the court shall not exceed the overall case length limit.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c), the overall case length limit shall be calculated based on the adjudicated offense and the results of a risk and needs assessment, as follows:

(1) Offenders adjudicated for a misdemeanor may remain under the jurisdiction of the court for up to 12 months;

(2) low-risk and moderate-risk offenders adjudicated for a felony may remain under court jurisdiction for up to 15 months; and

(3) high-risk offenders adjudicated for a felony may remain under court jurisdiction for up to 18 months.

(c) There shall be no overall case length limit for a juvenile adjudicated for a felony which, if committed by an adult, would constitute an off-grid felony or a nondrug severity level 1 through 4 person felony.

(d) When a juvenile is adjudicated for multiple counts, the maximum overall case length shall be calculated based on the most severe adjudicated count or any other adjudicated count at the court's discretion. The court shall not run multiple adjudicated counts consecutively.

(e) When the juvenile is adjudicated for multiple cases simultaneously, the court shall run such cases concurrently.

(f) Upon expiration of the overall case length limit as defined in subsection (b), the court's jurisdiction terminates and shall not be extended, except as provided in subsection (g)(2).

(g) (1) For the purposes of placing juvenile offenders on probation pursuant to K.S.A. 38-2361, and amendments thereto, the court shall establish a specific term of probation as specified in this subsection based on the most serious adjudicated count in combination with the results of a risk and needs assessment, as follows, except that the term of probation shall not exceed the overall case length limit:

(A) Low-risk and moderate-risk offenders adjudicated for a misdemeanor and low-risk offenders adjudicated for a felony may be placed on probation for a term up to six months;

(B) high-risk offenders adjudicated for a misdemeanor and moderate-risk offenders adjudicated for a felony may be placed on probation for a term up to nine months; and

(C) high-risk offenders adjudicated for a felony may be placed on probation for a term up to 12 months.

(2) The court may extend the term of probation if a juvenile needs time to complete an evidence-based program as determined to be necessary based on the results of a validated risk and needs assessment and, if necessary, may extend the overall case length limit to allow for completion of such program when failure to complete such program is due to a repeated, intentional effort to delay by the juvenile as reported by the evidence-based services provider. The court may also extend the term of probation for good cause shown for one month for low-risk offenders, three months for moderate-risk offenders and six months for high-risk offenders. Prior to extension of the initial probationary term, the court shall find and enter into the written record the criteria permitting extension of probation. Extensions of probation and the overall case length limit shall only be granted incrementally. When the court extends the term of probation for a juvenile offender, the court services officer or community correctional services officer responsible for monitoring such juvenile offender shall record the reason given for extending probation. Court services officers shall report such records to the office of judicial administration, and community correctional services officers shall report such records to the department of corrections. The office of judicial administration and the department of corrections shall report such recorded data to the Kansas juvenile justice oversight committee on a quarterly basis.

(3) The probation term limits do not apply to those offenders adjudicated for an offense which, if committed by an adult, would constitute an off-grid crime, rape as defined in K.S.A. 21-5503(a)(1), and amendments thereto, aggravated criminal sodomy as defined in K.S.A. 21-5504(b)(3), and amendments thereto, or murder in the second degree as defined in K.S.A. 21-5403, and amendments thereto. Such offenders may be placed on probation for a term consistent with the overall case length limit.

(4) The probation term limits and overall case length limits provided in this section shall be tolled during any time that the offender has absconded from supervision while on probation, and the time on such limits shall not start to run again until the offender is located and brought back to the jurisdiction.

(h) For the purpose of placing juvenile offenders in detention pursuant to K.S.A. 38-2361 and 38-2369, and amendments thereto, the court shall establish a specific term of detention. The term of detention shall not exceed the overall case length limit or the cumulative detention limit. Cumulative detention use shall be limited to a maximum of ~~45~~ 90 days over the course of the juvenile offender's case, except that there shall be no limit on cumulative detention for juvenile offenders adjudicated for a felony which, if committed by an adult, would constitute an off-grid felony or a nondrug severity level 1 through 4 person felony.

(i) The provisions of this section shall apply upon disposition or 15 days after adjudication, whichever is sooner, unless the juvenile fails to appear for such juvenile's dispositional hearing. If a juvenile fails to appear at such juvenile's dispositional hearing, the probation term limits and overall case length limits provided in this section shall not apply until the juvenile is brought before the court for disposition in such juvenile's case.

(j) This section shall be a part of and supplemental to the revised Kansas juvenile justice code.";

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, records, reports and information obtained as a part of the juvenile intake and assessment process shall not be admitted into evidence in any proceeding and shall not be used in a child in need of care proceeding or a juvenile offender proceeding.

(1) Such records, reports and information may be used in a child in need of care proceeding for diagnostic and referral purposes and by the court in considering dispositional alternatives. If the records, reports or information are in regard to abuse or neglect, which is required to be reported under K.S.A. 38-2223, and amendments thereto, such records, reports or information may then be used for any purpose in a child in need of care proceeding pursuant to the revised Kansas code for care of children.

Such override must be documented, include a written explanation and receive approval from the director of the intake and assessment center or the court.

In such an instance, the juvenile intake and assessment worker or the court shall place such juvenile in a juvenile detention facility.

(4) If a juvenile meets one or more eligibility criteria for detention or referral to a community-based alternative to detention, the person with authority to detain shall maintain discretion to release the juvenile if other less restrictive measures would be adequate.

(g) Parents, guardians and juveniles may access the juvenile intake and assessment programs on a voluntary basis. The parent or guardian shall be responsible for the costs of any such program utilized.

Journal of the House

THIRTY-FIFTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, March 6, 2025, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tempore Carpenter in the chair.

The roll was called with 122 members present.

Reps. Martinez, Sawyer and Schlingenspiepen were excused on verified illness.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father.

We thank and praise You for the opportunities which You have prepared for us today.

We may very well be surprised by some of the things which transpire in this chamber, but we know You will not be.

You have already prepared resources which will assist us in making right choices.

Thank You for the leadership gifts assembled in this room.

I pray for a united spirit as future laws and regulations are debated and formulated into the policy.

In the book of Proverbs we read,

“Do not let kindness and truth leave you. Bind them around your neck. Write them on the tablet of your heart. So you will find favor and good repute, in the sight of God and man. Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding.

In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight.”

As we enter into the work of the day, might kindness and truth lead us through all the issues we will be dealing with.

We are going to trust You to guide our thoughts and actions in every debate and decision we encounter.

Father, I pray each one vested with power in this room will stay sensitive to the needs of those they represent. Many of these good Representatives will never meet those who have entrusted them with thoughtful confidence.

Might we always remain faithful to the high calling of serving, and even though we may not recognize their faces, keep us keenly aware of their needs and desires.

Bless all those in our State which consistently give of themselves in serving others.

Our first responders, on call physicians and nurses and those charged with the responsibility of protecting us.

Thank You for their commitment to service.

I pray this in Jesus Name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Roth.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on HB 2028. When the originating bill was heard in the Agriculture and Natural Resources committee, there was concern about defunding the Kansas Department of Wildlife and Parks. As the department is largely fee funded and has recently had $4.2 million stricken from their portion of the Economic Development Initiative Fund, I still have these concerns. Kansas Department of Wildlife and Parks has worked hard to increase accessibility to and participation in the Kansas wildlife sector. I would not want to impede their good work by jeopardizing fee based or federal funding. — LINDA FEATHERSTON, MARI-LYNN POSKIN, SUZANNE WIKLE, HEATHER MEYER, JOHN CARMICHAEL

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: My NO vote on Sub SB 45 reflects my concern for the legislative branch of government once again attempting to usurp the authority of the duly elected State Board of Education. Accreditation is under the purview of the Department of Education, which is overseen by and directed by the State Board of Education. They alone should be setting policy regarding graduation requirements, accreditation and curriculum. — NIKKI McDONALD, JERRY STOGSDILL, FORD CARR, LINDA FEATHERSTON, ALEXIS SIMMONS, MARI-LYNN POSKIN, CINDY NEIGHBOR, LYNN MELTON, SUZANNE WIKLE, HEATHER MEYER, KIRK HASKINS, JOHN CARMICHAEL

Journal of the House

THIRTY-SIXTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Friday, March 7, 2025, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tempore Carpenter in the chair.

The roll was called with 122 members present.
Reps. Borjon, and Martinez were excused on verified illness.
Rep. Meyer was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.
Excused later: Rep. Wolf.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father. I pray Your blessing upon all gathered in this chamber today.
May Your goodness and protection be wonderfully evident in all which transpires in the ensuing hours.
As we contemplate the work set before us,
I pray for Your peace and unity to prevail in all discussion and debate.
May we choose our words carefully, so as to communicate clearly a wise and prudent direction to follow.
Your Word declares in Psalm 139:23-24
“Search me O God, and know my heart; Try me and know my anxious thoughts;
And see if their be any hurtful way in me, and lead me in the everlasting way.”
You know more about each of us than we even know about ourselves.
You know the things which keeps us from doing our best,
as well as the things which make us a positive addition to all we encounter.
Grant each one the desire to find new depths within themselves as they pursue what is best for all whom they represent.
I pray for all of our National and State leaders.
Give them the ability to reach a little higher, to stretch a little further, and to work a little longer in helping our Nation and State continue to be a beacon of hope and prosperity.
I pray for those experiencing sickness in body or spirit.
I ask You to bring help and healing to them, as only You can.
Allow new vigor and strength to flow into their lives as they give themselves to the legislative work of the hour.
I pray this in The Name of the One who taught us to pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Susan Ruiz

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: We are all here today because we told our constituents at the door, local town-halls, and in the grocery store aisle that we were going to work hard to give them tax relief they could feel in their family budget. This bill does not go far enough to give true relief. However, it is one more step in that direction. I am voting yes on HB 2396, with the acknowledgment that we have more work to do both on tax relief as well as budget cuts to make that tax relief tangible for my constituents. — REBECCA SCHMOE, CARRIE BARTH, LAUREN BOHI, SCOTT HILL, CHARLES SMITH

MR. SPEAKER: HB 2396 is one of those bills that sounds good on the surface, but if you dig in, you will see it is written in a way that tilts the scales in favor of county governments. The taxpayers have no personal notification of the county budget and the possibility of an appeal. The number of signatures is too high and the time frame is too short. I support policies that benefit the individual taxpayer, not enriching local units of government. Therefore, I vote No. — KEN CORBET, SAMANTHA POETTER PARSHALL

SB 20, AN ACT concerning insurance; reducing the number of board members appointed by the commissioner on certain insurance-related boards and the frequency of the meetings of the committee on surety bonds and insurance; amending K.S.A. 40-2102, 40-2109, 40-3116, 40-3413 and 75-4101 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

O God, our Creator and Redeemer, we give you thanks and praise for the many and manifold gifts you have bestowed upon us and our nation and our state. Bless our president and his cabinet, our governor and mayors, our representatives and senators.

We hold up for your protection and care, elected and appointed officials and judges at every level. Give them the gifts of knowledge and understanding, wisdom and good counsel. May they always know and put into practice the true common good, being particularly concerned and caring for those on the margins and those whose lives and livelihoods are threatened.

You have revealed to us in many ways your preferential option for the poor and the needy, even identifying yourself with the hungry and the thirsty; the sick and the alien; the naked and the imprisoned. May we imitate in every way possible your care and concern, your love and your mercy.

We ask this in your Holy Name. Amen.

Journal of the House

THIRTY-EIGHTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, March 11, 2025, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tempore Carpenter in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.

Rep. Martinez was excused on verified illness.

Rep. Simmons was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Rev. Doug Henkle, Garden City.

Heavenly Father,

Thank you for bringing us together here this morning. Remind each representative that they have come together here, in this chamber, to serve the people of Kansas who elected them. I pray for Your peace in this chamber and in this building.

Keep us from quarrels and angry disputes, injuring otherwise friendly relations. Remind us that death words destroy, hurt, create humiliating feelings. Life words build and increase strength of character. They center on the truth, and therefore they set the other person free. Cause us to ask ourselves: Are our words accurate or exaggerated? Necessary or needless? Wholesome or vile? Cause us, as Your Word admonishes us to do, to speak the truth in love.

Heavenly Father, you care about the debate that will occur on the floor of this chamber today and in the days ahead. I pray that you would cause a bond of common purpose, the welfare of the citizens of Kansas, to unite this body and that Your peace, which is far beyond our understanding, would be over the Kansas House today and in the days ahead.

I pray for Speaker Hawkins, Speaker Pro-Tem Carpenter, Majority Leader Croft and Minority Leader Woodard. Give them Your wisdom, insight, and direction as they lead this chamber.

In Jesus Mighty Name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Rhiley.

HR 6012—A RESOLUTION recognizing the 40th year of operation at Wolf Creek Nuclear Generating Station.

A RESOLUTION recognizing the 40th year of operations of the Wolf Creek Nuclear Generating Station in Burlington, Kansas.

WHEREAS, The United States Nuclear Regulatory Commission approved the Wolf Creek Nuclear Generating Station's (Wolf Creek) license to operate at its Burlington, Kansas, location on March 11, 1985; and

WHEREAS, Wolf Creek began commercial operations on September 3, 1985, after reaching criticality on May 22, 1985, following more than a decade of construction; and

WHEREAS, Wolf Creek is Kansas' only operational nuclear power plant and has generated more than 345 million megawatt hours of power from July 1, 1985, through December 31, 2024; and

WHEREAS, Wolf Creek is 96% owned by Evergy and 6% owned by Kansas Electric Power Cooperatives, and it generates 20.7% of Kansas' electricity and 36% of its emission-free electricity; and

WHEREAS, More than 800,000 Kansas homes benefit from Wolf Creek's energy output, and 89 of the state's 105 counties receive power from Wolf Creek; and

WHEREAS, Wolf Creek generates approximately 1,250 megawatts of electricity and is licensed to operate until March 11, 2045; and

WHEREAS, Wolf Creek contributes to the economic vitality of Coffey County and the surrounding counties, effectuating more than $165,000,000 in economic impact via payroll, taxes and purchases: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we recognize and congratulate the employees and owners of Wolf Creek for their outstanding service, dedication and leadership and providing safe and reliable power to thousands of Kansans, thereby strengthening the energy security of Kansas; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send three enrolled copies of this resolution to Representative Schreiber.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Schreiber and Barrett are spread upon the Journal:

Rep. Barrett read HR 6012 recognizing the 40th year of operations of the Wolf Creek Generating Station in Burlington, Kansas.

Rep. Schreiber continued, When I started at Wolf Creek in May 1979, the site was much like any other large construction site. Steel was being placed, dirt moved and concrete poured. The commitment and dedication to quality moved the plant to commercial operation in 1985 and for the last 40 years the Wolf Creek power plant has operated safely and reliably.

But the keystone to its success has to be the partnership that developed between Coffey County, the State of Kansas, and the plant. Through this partnership they addressed the only contention in the plant being granted an operating license, which was the status of the emergency plans of the state, Coffey County, and the plant.

They successfully demonstrated to the NRC and FEMA, they could protect the health and safety of the public. This partnership continues to be important to its ongoing success.

I am proud of the Wolf Creek staff I worked with and look forward to another 20 years of reliable operation of Wolf Creek generation.

Today we have members of Evergy's senior management in the gallery. We thank them for their dedication to successfully operating Kansas' only nuclear power plant.

CONSENT CALENDAR

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote Nay on SB 14. The Kansas Constitution requires the Governor to present a budget to the Legislature annually. The Legislature must pass a budget annually. The Legislature has always accomplished this, including this year with a new Legislative Budget process, compressed time schedule, and shortened calendar session. This Senate legislation is unnecessary, given that we have always passed a budget. SB 14 will do nothing but give legislative leadership an incentive to fail to pass a budget for the State of Kansas. We cannot support this legislation and vote NO – BARBARA BALLARD, JERRY STOGSDILL, MIKE AMYX, JO ELLA HOYE, LOUIS RUIZ, KC OHAEBOSIM, BROOKLYNNE MOSLEY, TOBIAS SCHLINGENSIEPEN, KIRK HASKINS, HEATHER MEYER, LINDA FEATHERSTON, MARI-LYNN POSKIN, VIRGIL WEIGEL, SUSAN RUIZ, TOM SAWYER, SYDNEY CARLIN, STEPHANIE SAWYER CLAYTON, LYNN MELTON, JOHN ALCALA, FORD CARR, WANDA BROWNLEE PAIGE, NIKKI McDONALD, SUZANNE WIKLE, CINDY NEIGHBOR, DAN OSMAN, RUI XU, JOHN CARMICHAEL, SILAS MILLER, LINDSAY VAUGHN

SB 105, AN ACT concerning the offices of United States senator, state treasurer and the commissioner of insurance; relating to the filling of vacancies in such offices; requiring the appointment of a person of the same political party as the incumbent; requiring the legislature to nominate three persons for consideration for such appointment and that the governor appoint one of the nominated persons; establishing the joint committee on vacancy appointments; amending K.S.A. 25-101b and 40-106 and repealing the existing sections; also repealing K.S.A. 25-318, was considered on final action.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Rhiley are spread upon the Journal:

Today, we recognize the accomplishments of the 2024 Cowley County Community College Volleyball team. The Lady Tigers will go down as one of the most dominant volleyball teams in the history of NJCAA DII volleyball.

It is a Tradition of Excellence that the Cowley County Community College Volleyball program has stood for in its 49-year history.

The 2024 team continued that tradition by winning the National Junior College Athletic Association NJCAA Division II national championship with a perfect 40-0 record.

The national championship gives the program four national championships in their program history and also back to back 2023, 2024, undefeated national championships resulting in a NJCAA winning streak record with 81 straight victories. The Cowley College Volleyball team dropped only five sets the entire 2024 season.

We need to note that the team also captured district and conference titles prior to winning the national championship.

The Cowley College Volleyball team, had five All-American selections led by Laura Bonomi, AVCA Two-Year College Player of the Year, NCAA DII Player of the Year, Conference Most Valuable Player, and NJCAA Tournament Most Valuable Player.

- Hanna Darvas was named KJCCC Setter of the Year and was also named Freshman of the Year.
- Jessi Ritchhart was named KJCCC Libero of the Year.
- Laura Bonomi, Hanna Darvas, and Sara Puskas were named NJCAA All-Tournament team
- Josci Buckley – was selected Kansas Player/All-Conference, All-District player of the year
- Valarie Luna – was selected Kansas Player / All-Conference

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Borjon are spread upon the Journal:

Greetings colleagues! I rise before the body to recognize a momentous occasion for the Hayden High School Ladies Tennis Team this past Fall. Joining me on the floor are:

- Coaches Christy Sheetz and Lynn Bishop
- Hayden Ladies Tennis players Emily Sheetz, Ainzley Zulueta, Avery O'Bray, Izzy Glotzbach, Grace Funk and Sophia Wichman.

Last October, Hayden hosted the Class 4A state championship at Kossover Tennis Center here in Topeka.. Through hard work and determination, the Hayden Ladies Tennis Team clinched the team title with 40 points, winning the 4A State Championship. Senior Ainzley Zulueta took home first place in the 4A bracket for Hayden. Zulueta won her third Class 4A state singles title with 6-0, 6-0 win over Buhler. Additionally, and this is quite impressive, she had a perfect record of 24-0 and didn't lose one single game during the postseason run.

- Senior Emily Sheetz and freshman Sophia Wichman earned a runner-up 4A double finish.
- Junior Grace Funk placed ninth in singles.
- And Juniors Izzy Glotzbach and Avery O'Bray finished 11th in doubles.

Overall, it was an incredible performance by the Hayden Ladies Tennis Team! Topeka, as well as Kansas, could not be prouder of them. We wish all of you much success and luck and eagerly look forward to your next season. Please join me in recognizing this outstanding group of lady athletes.

Rep. Borjon presented the team with a framed House certificate in honor of their accomplishments.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Collins are spread upon the Journal:

On May 24" of last year, the Raiders of the Frontenac High School Softball team coached by Cassie Rhuems and assisted by Scott Fields and Hope Zafuta clenched the 2024 Class 3A state title with a hard fought 3-0 victory over Silver Lake.

It was a bittersweet victory for the Raiders in that less than two months prior they lost a man who had served as an assistant coach, an avid supporter and in the case of Coach Rhuems, her dad. Francis Buche, or as he was known to many of us as Francie.

Francie was a positive influence in the lives of not only Coach Cassie but on the entire team. As the 2024 season progressed the hashtag p4f meaning "play for Francie" was a common sight on social media posts not only in the members of the Frontenac community but from other well wishers in the Southeast Kansas/Southwest Missouri area and beyond. In his memory, please join me in congratulating the Frontenac Raiders 2024 Kansas State High School Activities Association Class 3A Softball State Champions.

Rep. Collins presented the team with a framed House certificate in honor of their championship.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Osman are spread upon the Journal:

I'm joined at the podium by members of the Kansas Miss Amazing. Miss Amazing provides opportunities for girls and women with disabilities across Kansas to build self-esteem. The options available to girls with disabilities should reflect their boundless potential. But because of widely-held myths about their capabilities, girls with disabilities are often held back from taking risks that could enrich their personal development. They are deprived of opportunities to make friends and granted less access to resources.

Miss Amazing Inc. was established in 2007 to help combat that. In 2018, Kansas created its own state organization to work on local issues that girls and women with disabilities face in our state.

Kansas Miss Amazing's mission is to provide unique leadership, self-esteem and self-advocacy opportunities to assist in the building of those skills. These skills are important to girls and women with disabilities because currently the need for female leaders with disabilities is great. How else can the changes needed be created without the voice of those who have been there and know? The options for girls and women with disabilities should reflect their limitless potential.

I'm joined on the dais by some, frankly, amazing women and girls. They are:

- Kirstanna Guerrero State Director, Kansas Miss Amazing
- Tatianna Legitt Kansas Miss Amazing Teen
- Elizabeth Jane Varelman Kansas Miss Amazing Jr. Miss
- Jessica Brundige Kansas Miss Amazing Miss
- Erin Bowser Kansas Miss Amazing Sr. Miss
- Tiara Hensley Kansas Miss Amazing Mentor

Thank you all for coming to the Capitol today and the best of luck representing Kansas in the national conference in July.

Rep. Osman presented his guests with House certificates in honor of their accomplishments.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Tarwater are spread upon the Journal:

It is my Honor to introduce the Heros of Kansas Task Force 1. In anticipation of Hurricane Helene, Kansas Task Force 1 was put on standby several days in advance.

On September 24, 2024, the task force rallied in Olathe and Wichita, KS and headed to Florida, taking shifts and driving though the night, a trip that would normally take 14 hours. They drove straight through for 20 hours before arriving in Pensacola Florida, where they were able to rest.

The convoy faced heavy rains from the initial bands of the Hurricane, two tire failures and heavy traffic. On September 26, 2024, Hurricane Helene made landfall as a powerful Category 4 storm, unleashing widespread destruction and claiming more than 230 lives. On that same day, TASK FORCE 1 was directed to Orlando, again facing traffic and the storm. Once they arrived, they underwent "JUST IN TIME" training.

On September 27th the Task Force was sent to Dunelin, FL to rescue people in the water. From 4 am to 10 am they searched over 600 locations for human life, pet life and structural assessments. Next they were assigned to search and rescue operations in the barrier islands and then search and rescue in Treasure Island FL, a barrier island.

On September 30th, their work in Florida was complete and they were demobilized by Florida. On October 1st while on their way home, at 5am, TF1 was reassigned/redeployed to North Carolina. They set up a tent and a field hospital, searched the very hilly and rugged terrain in areas of Burnsville, North Carolina. On October 3rd they worked with a National Guard unit doing search and rescue in Yancey County, North Carolina.

In some cases, TF1 was the first to arrive in these areas and make human contact with residents. They used star link to communicate because there was very little communication infrastructure left.

On October 10th, the TF1 was assigned to an extensive search up the mountain to the river. They identified and marked possible targets for Human Remains Detection canines to search for recovery of human remains. They conducted search and rescue for the remaining time in North Carolina.

Finally on October 7th and 8th, TF1 departed from North Carolina and TF 2 was deployed from KS to continue the search and rescue operations.

Rep. Tarwater introduced the following Task Force 1 Heroes:

Toby Aldridge	Shawn Hayes	Tyler Ross
Shawn Alexander	Randy Hill	Kody Songs
Caleb Berger	Frank Hogan	Daryl Strain
Tyler Brenneman	Kendall Johnson	Evan Swanson
Josh Chaney	Laurie Kerns	Drew Taylor

Cameron Dietsch	Adam McIntosh	Luke Wiebe
Krystle Escobar	Jackie Miller	Chad Winton

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I am voting NO on HB 2217. I am strongly opposed to granting the Inspector General any broadened powers, increased staff or additional funds. This bill would unnecessarily grow government during a time of fiscal austerity in Kansas. This bill is unnecessary, wasteful and, duplicative. This bill is simply a power grab by the Inspector General and the Attorney General. I will not be complicit in any fiscally irresponsible budgetary decisions while everyday Kansans are struggling to pay their bills. Our priority should be focusing on pragmatic ways to give Kansans meaningful tax relief—NIKKI McDONALD, BARBARA BALLARD, JERRY STOGSDILL, MIKE AMYX, LOUIS RUIZ, BROOKLYNNE MOSLEY, TOBIAS SCHLINGENSIEPEN, KIRK HASKINS, LINDA FEATHERSTON, MARI-LYNN POSKIN, VIRGIL WEIGEL, SUSAN RUIZ, TOM SAWYER, SYDNEY CARLIN, STEPHANIE SAWYER CLAYTON, LYNN MELTON, FORD CARR, WANDA BROWNLEE PAIGE, SUZANNE WICKLE, CINDY NEIGHBOR, MELISSA OROPEZA, BRANDON WOODARD, VALDENIA WINN, JOHN CARMICHAEL, SILAS MILLER, LINDSAY VAUGHN, ANGELA MARTINEZ

Journal of the House

FORTIETH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, March 13, 2025, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tempore Carpenter in the chair.

The roll was called with 122 members present.

Rep. Hill was excused on verified illness.

Reps. Simmons and VanHouden were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Present later: Rep. Hill.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Pastor Dave DePue.

Almighty God, this legislative chamber is filled with men and women who you empower to represent the people of Kansas. Each session day they listen to a word from you and act on truths that are shared. This is the message of 1st Samuel chapter two verse twenty six. The boy Samuel continued to grow in stature and in favor with God and with the people.

LORD, elected officials live in what seems a glass house, always in the public eye. We claim your promise in the Book of Psalms, Chapter five, verse twelve, Surely O Lord, you bless those that do right in your eyes, you surround them with Your favor as with a shield.

LORD, these representatives strive to be honest, have integrity, and revere God. In the book of Job, chapter one, we read that Satan accused God of showing favor to Job. Saying "Have you not made a hedge around him, around his household, and around all that he has on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have greatly increased in the land."

LORD, please take note of these faithful public servants. Put Your hedge of protection around each, around their households, and all that they have. Please bless their work here, in this chamber, in the committees, and in their home communities. Increase their possessions and their favor with You and with people.

I pray all this in the name of Jesus, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Proctor.

HR 6015—A RESOLUTION supporting Irish-Kansas trade partnership.

A RESOLUTION supporting the strengthening of Kansas' trade partnership with Ireland to create a more prosperous future for all.

WHEREAS, According to the United States Census Bureau, 11.2% of Kansans are of Irish ancestry compared to the national average of 9.6%; and

WHEREAS, Irish immigrants in the United States helped form the cultural foundation of the nation; and

WHEREAS, The ties that bind Ireland and Kansas are deep and lasting; and

WHEREAS, Thanks to those close ties, both Ireland and Kansas have benefited from deep and extensive cultural and commercial exchanges; and

WHEREAS, Ireland currently ranks 38th of Kansas exports, illustrating a need to create a stronger trade partnership; and

WHEREAS, It is in the best interest of Kansas and Ireland to support efforts to strengthen our relationship: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we support the strengthening of Kansas' trade partnership with Ireland to create a more prosperous future for all; and

Be it further resolved: That we recognize the deputy chairman of the Irish Senate, Mark Daly, for his efforts to promote trade; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send enrolled copies of this resolution to Deputy Chairman of the Irish Senate Mark Daly and Representative Tarwater.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Tarwater are spread upon the Journal:

Today, I rise in support of HR 6015 to recognize and strengthen Kansas' trade partnership with Ireland. This resolution also represents our warm welcome to Chairman Mark Daly of the Irish Senate – someone who has been and continues to be a champion of American-Irish trade.

Currently, Ireland ranks 38th among Kansas' export destinations with a real potential for growth. By strengthening this trade partnership, we can expand opportunities for Kansas farmers, businesses, and manufacturers to access Irish markets, fostering economic growth on both sides of the Atlantic.

This resolution, as mentioned, recognizes Chairman Daly, whose dedicated efforts have been instrumental in advancing trade relations. Chairman Daly has built a distinguished record through the following qualities:

- Legislative Innovation: Spearheading key reforms in economic development, public welfare, and environmental sustainability.
- International Collaboration: Establishing robust cross-border partnerships and by founding the American Irish Caucus
- Economic Leadership: Creating policies that stimulate growth and job creation.
- Award-Winning Public Service: Earning national and international accolades for transparency and ethical governance.

In fact, Chairman Daly was just recently re-elected as the Senate's chairman for a second term. Chairman Daly is only the second person to achieve this honor in Ireland's history.

His efforts to bridge America and Ireland also include initiating the Irish American Legislative Summit – with the next summit being held August 20-23 prior to the K-State-Iowa State FARMAGEDDON Football Game. It goes without saying that Chairman Daly would love to have his Kansas friends come visit Ireland.

By passing this resolution, we affirm our commitment to creating new economic opportunities, strengthening cultural ties and personal relationships, and building a more prosperous future for generations to come. I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting this resolution.

Prior to session, a bagpiper played a traditional Irish song in honor of Chairman Daly.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on SB 18. License plate fundraisers allow groups to increase public awareness and earn revenue. Kansas does not have criteria, standards, or audit requirements to participate. The legislature still owes it to the taxpayers to scrutinize every request. Hunter Nation, Inc. is a 501(c)(4) and Section 527 Super PAC that can make direct campaign contributions to members of the Kansas House of Representatives. They can also make hidden independent expenditures supporting or opposing us. We should not collect and distribute funds to dark money organizations that can donate the dollars back to our campaigns. I vote NO. — JO ELLA HOYE

The provisions of this subparagraph shall only be used to redact and shall not be used to seal affidavits or sworn testimony.

(5) Within five business days after receiving proposed redactions or a motion to seal from the defendant, the defendant's counsel or the prosecutor, or within 10 business days after receiving notice of a request for disclosure, whichever is earlier, the magistrate shall either:

(A) Order disclosure of the affidavits or sworn testimony with appropriate redactions, if any; or

(B) order the affidavits or sworn testimony sealed and not subject to public disclosure.

(6) (A) If the magistrate orders disclosure of the affidavits or sworn testimony with appropriate redactions, if any, to any person in accordance with the requirements of this subsection, then such affidavits or sworn testimony shall become part of the court record and shall be accessible to the public.

(1) "Compensated surety" means any person who or entity that is organized under the laws of the state of Kansas that, as surety, issues appearance bonds for compensation, posts bail for four or more persons in a calendar year, is responsible for any forfeiture and is liable for appearance bonds written by such person's or entity's authorized agents. A "compensated surety" is either an insurance agent surety, a property surety or a bail agent.

(2) "Insurance agent surety" means a compensated surety licensed by the insurance commissioner to issue surety bonds or appearance bonds in this state and who represents an authorized insurance company. An "insurance agent surety" may have other insurance agent sureties working with or for such surety.

(4) "Bail agent" means a person authorized by a compensated surety to execute surety bail bonds on such surety's behalf.

(5) "Appearance bond premium" means the fee charged by a compensated surety for posting an appearance bond.

(b) Every compensated surety shall submit an application to the chief judge of the judicial district, or the chief judge's designee, in each judicial district where such surety seeks to act as a surety. A compensated surety shall not act as a surety in such judicial district prior to approval of such application.

(1) The application shall include, but is not limited to, the following information for each insurance agent surety, property surety or bail agent:

(A) A copy of the applicant's Kansas driver's license or nondriver's identification card;

(B) a statement, made under penalty of perjury, that the applicant is a resident of this state and is not prohibited by K.S.A. 22-2809a(c), and amendments thereto, from acting as a surety; and

(B) an affidavit describing the property by which such property surety proposes to justify its obligations and the encumbrances thereon, and all such surety's other liabilities. The description shall include a valuation of the property described therein. If the valuation is not readily evident, an appraisal of the property may be required and, if required, shall be incorporated into the affidavit.

(4) The chief judge of the judicial district may require, as a qualification for initial or continued authorization in the judicial district, a compensated surety to submit to a state and national criminal history record check. The fingerprints shall be used to identify the individual and to determine whether the individual has a record of criminal history in this state or any other jurisdiction. The chief judge or the chief judge's designee is authorized to submit the fingerprints to the Kansas bureau of investigation and the federal bureau of investigation for a state and national criminal history record check. The chief judge or the chief judge's designee may use the information obtained from fingerprinting and the criminal history record check for purposes of verifying the identification of the individual and for making an official determination of the qualifications for authorization in the judicial district. Disclosure or use of any information received by the chief judge or the chief judge's designee for any purpose other than the purposes provided for in this paragraph shall be a class A nonperson misdemeanor. The Kansas bureau of investigation may charge a reasonable fee for conducting a criminal history record check, and the individual seeking initial or continued authorization under this section shall pay the costs of fingerprinting and the state and national criminal history record check.

(c) A property surety authorized to act as a surety in a judicial district pursuant to subsection (b) shall be allowed outstanding appearance bonds in the state of Kansas not to exceed an aggregate amount that is 15 times the valuation of the property described in subsection (b)(3). Such property surety shall not write any single appearance bond that exceeds 35% of the total valuation of the property described in subsection (b)(3).

(d) (1) A compensated surety shall:

(A) Charge a minimum appearance bond premium of 10% of the face amount of the appearance bond;

(e) (1) Each judicial district may, by local rule, require additional information from any compensated surety and establish what property is acceptable for bonding purposes under subsection (b)(3).

(2) A judicial district shall not require any compensated surety to apply for authorization in such judicial district more than once per year, but may require additional reporting from any compensated surety in its discretion. If the judicial district does not require an annual application, each compensated surety or bail agent shall provide a certificate of continuing education compliance in accordance with subsection (g) to the judicial district each year.

(3) A judicial district shall not decline authorization for a compensated surety solely on the basis of type of compensated surety.

(f) (1) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the chief judge of the judicial district, or the chief judge's designee, to authorize any compensated surety to act as a surety in such judicial district if the judge or designee finds, in such person's discretion, that such authorization is not warranted.

(2) (A) If such authorization is granted, the chief judge of the judicial district, or the chief judge's designee, may terminate or suspend the authorization at any time. Reasons for terminating or suspending such authorization include, but are not limited to:

- (i) Filing false statements with the court;

- (iv) paying a fee or rebate or giving or promising anything of value, other than reward payments for information relating to the apprehension of fugitives, to an inmate in exchange for a business referral;
- (v) requiring or accepting anything of value from a principal other than the appearance bond premium, except that the compensated surety may accept collateral security or other indemnity to secure the face amount of the bond;
- (vi) intentionally failing to promptly return collateral security to the principal when the principal is entitled to return of such security;
- (vii) knowingly employing or otherwise compensating for any appearance bond related work, any person who has been convicted of a felony unless such conviction has been expunged, other than reward payments for information relating to the apprehension of fugitives; or
- (viii) failing to pay any forfeiture judgment within 30 days of the filing of the journal entry of judgment.

(B) The judge or the judge's designee may investigate claims of violations described in subparagraph (A). If the chief judge makes a finding that a violation has occurred, the chief judge may suspend or terminate the authorization of the compensated surety.

(C) If the authorization is suspended for 30 days or more, the chief judge shall make a record describing the length of the suspension and the underlying cause and provide such record to the surety. Such surety, upon request, shall be entitled to a hearing within 30 days after the suspension is ordered.

(D) If the authorization is terminated, the chief judge shall make a record describing the underlying cause and provide such record to the surety. Such surety, upon request, shall be entitled to a hearing within 30 days after the termination is ordered.

(3) If an authorized compensated surety does not comply with the continuing education requirements in subsection (g), the chief judge of the judicial district, or the chief judge's designee, may allow a conditional authorization to continue acting as a surety for 90 days. If such compensated surety does not comply with the continuing education requirements in subsection (g) within 90 days, such conditional authorization shall be terminated and such compensated surety shall not act as a surety in such judicial district.

(g) (1) Every compensated surety shall obtain at least eight hours of continuing education credits during each 12-month period.

(2) The Kansas bail agents association shall either provide or contract for a minimum of eight hours of continuing education classes to be held at least once annually in each congressional district and may provide additional classes in its discretion. The chief judge in each judicial district may provide a list of topics to be covered during the continuing education classes. A schedule of such classes shall be publicly available. The association shall not charge more than $300 annually for the eight hours of continuing education classes, and the cost of any class with less than eight hours of continuing education may be prorated accordingly. Any fee charged for attending continuing education classes shall not be increased or decreased based upon a compensated surety's membership or lack of membership in the association.

(3) Upon completion of at least eight hours of continuing education credits during each 12-month period by a compensated surety, the Kansas bail agents association shall issue a certificate of continuing education compliance to such surety. The certificate shall be prepared and delivered to the compensated surety within 30 days of such surety's completion of the continuing education requirements. The certificate shall show in detail the dates and hours of each course attended, along with the signature of the Kansas bail agents association official attesting that all continuing education requirements have been completed.

(4) Any continuing education credits used to comply with conditional authorization pursuant to subsection (f)(3) shall not be applied towards compliance in the current 12-month period or any subsequent 12-month period.";

A RESOLUTION denouncing the planned satanic worship ritual, the so-called "black mass," on the grounds of the Kansas state capitol, scheduled to take place on March 28, 2025.

WHEREAS, The United States of America is one nation under God, founded upon principles that recognize the importance of faith, morality and the common good; and Prayer by guest chaplain, Rev. Doug Henkle, Garden City.

Heavenly Father

Thank You for all You've done for us. You've blessed us with all we need, even today and in this chamber as the matters at hand are debated. In Your Word You guide us saying "Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to You, and You will make your paths straight." Lord, we tend to trust ourselves rather than You, to rely on our own abilities and good intentions instead of Your sovereign goodness and loving care. Cause us to rely on You!

Lord, people are often unreasonable, irrational, and self-centered. I pray that we would forgive them anyway. If we're kind, people may accuse us of having selfish, ulterior motives. Cause us to be kind anyway. As we're honest and sincere people may doubt us. I pray we would be honest and sincere anyway. As we find serenity and joy, some may be jealous. Give us Your joy anyway. Lord, the good we do today may soon be forgotten. I pray we would be about doing good anyway.

Often, we tend to allow others and our concern for their response to cause us to miss the mark. Jesus, I thank You that You can be our standard. That you can be the mark toward which we strive.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Resman.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

The following concurrent resolution was introduced and read by title:

By Committee on Taxation

A PROPOSITION to amend article 11 of the constitution of the state of Kansas by adding a new section thereto; establishing the freedom from taxes fund; establishing the Kansas citizens freedom review board; authorizing the board to review tax exemptions and approve or eliminate such exemptions; eliminating the state-imposed property taxes, income and privilege taxes.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Article 11 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 14. Freedom from taxes section. (a) There is hereby established the freedom from taxes fund. There shall be two sub-funds within the freedom from taxes fund:

(1) The state property tax elimination fund, which shall be solely dedicated to the elimination of state-imposed property taxes; and

(2) the state income and privilege tax elimination fund, which shall be solely dedicated to the elimination of state-imposed income and privilege taxes.

(b) The freedom from taxes fund and any sub-funds within such fund shall be administered by the state treasurer. All expenditures from the freedom from taxes fund shall be solely for the elimination of state-imposed property and income and privilege taxes and only expended under the provisions of this section. All moneys received by the state treasurer that are identified as moneys collected by the state of Kansas as a result of the elimination, in whole or in part, of the state sales and compensating use tax exemptions, hereafter referred to as tax exemptions, and interest earnings on such moneys shall be deposited in and credited to the freedom from taxes fund.

(c) All moneys received by the state treasurer that are identified as moneys collected by the state of Kansas as a result of the elimination, in whole or in part, of the state tax exemptions including all moneys identified as principal in the freedom from taxes fund shall remain intact and inviolate and shall not be appropriated, transferred, encumbered, borrowed against or otherwise diminished for any purpose whatsoever. Only the interest earnings on the freedom from taxes fund may be expended or transferred as provided for under the provisions of this section.

(d) All moneys in the freedom from taxes fund shall be invested and reinvested by the state treasurer in a prudent and reasonable manner in accordance with investment policies provided by law.

(e) (1) There is hereby established the Kansas citizens freedom review board, which shall exist for the limited purposes as provided for in this section.

(2) The composition, qualifications and manner of appointment for the board shall be prescribed by law.

(3) The board shall review and approve or eliminate, in whole or in part, any existing state tax exemptions to go into effect for the next ensuing tax year.

(4) Upon completion of the review and issuance of the determinations on all existing tax exemptions, the board shall issue and submit a final report to the governor, the state treasurer and the legislature not later than one year following the effective date of the law to carry out the purposes of this section. On the date of the submission of the final report, the board shall be dissolved.

(f) (1) Following the elimination of such tax exemptions, the state treasurer shall annually identify in each tax year the amount of moneys collected in the state treasury that are collected because of the elimination of such tax exemptions.

(2) Annually, the state treasurer shall transfer the amount of such moneys to the state property tax elimination fund of the freedom from taxes fund. Except as provided further, the interest earnings on the state property tax elimination fund shall be retained in such fund. The state treasurer shall present an annual report to the legislature on the balance of the state property tax elimination fund identified by principal and interest earnings.

(3) When the state treasurer determines that the amount of moneys identified as projected interest earnings in the state property tax elimination fund is an amount greater than the amount of moneys needed to eliminate state-mandated property tax levies and state-imposed property taxes, such property taxes shall be eliminated in the next ensuing tax year. In such year, the state treasurer shall transfer from the state property tax elimination fund to the state general fund interest earnings in the amount equal to the amount of moneys not collected because of the elimination of state-mandated property tax levies and state-imposed property taxes. The state treasurer shall certify the amount of such transfer. In the ensuing tax years thereafter, the amount transferred to the state general fund shall not exceed an amount equal to the amount of moneys transferred from the state property tax elimination fund in the immediately preceding tax year multiplied by 3%.

(4) When the state treasurer makes the determination as provided in subsection (f)(3), the legislature shall not levy a state-mandated property tax or state-imposed property tax on any property in this state.

(5) Upon the elimination of state-mandated property tax levies and state-imposed property taxes, annually, the state treasurer shall transfer the amount of such moneys that continue to be collected because of the elimination of such tax exemptions to the state income and privilege tax elimination fund of the freedom from taxes fund. Except as provided further, the interest earnings on the state income and privilege tax elimination fund shall be retained in such fund. The state treasurer shall present an annual report to the legislature on the balance of the state income and privilege tax elimination fund identified by principal and interest earnings.

(6) When the state treasurer determines that the amount of moneys that are identified as projected interest earnings in the state income and privilege tax elimination fund is an amount greater than the amount of moneys needed to eliminate state income and privilege tax, state income tax and state privilege tax shall be eliminated in the next ensuing tax year. In such year, the state treasurer shall transfer from the state income and privilege tax elimination fund to the state general fund interest earnings in the amount equal to the amount of moneys not collected because of the elimination of state income and privilege taxes. The state treasurer shall certify the amount of such transfer. In the ensuing tax years thereafter, the amount transferred to the state general fund shall not exceed an amount equal to the amount of moneys transferred from the state income and privilege tax elimination fund in the immediately preceding tax year multiplied by 3%.

(7) When the state treasurer makes the determination as provided in subsection (f)(6), the legislature shall not levy a state income tax on any income earned in this state or privilege tax on net income on national banking associations, banks, trust companies, federally chartered savings banks and savings and loan associations in this state.

(g) (1) If the Kansas citizens freedom review board eliminates, in whole or in part, any existing state tax exemptions, the legislature may enact new, identical or similar tax exemptions during any following regular session of the legislature. If the legislature enacts any state tax exemptions, such tax exemptions shall expire at the end of the tax year that is five years from the date of enactment.

(2) If the Kansas citizens freedom review board approves, in whole or in part, any existing state tax exemptions, such tax exemptions shall expire at the end of the tax year that is five years from the date of the submission of the final report.

(3) The legislature shall not consider renewing any eliminated or expired tax exemption until the regular legislative session immediately prior to such elimination or expiration.

(4) If the legislature enacts a law to eliminate, in whole or in part, any existing state tax exemptions or any existing state tax exemptions are allowed to expire, all moneys received by the state treasurer that are identified as moneys collected by the state of Kansas as a result of such elimination or expiration of any state tax exemption shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the freedom from taxes fund as provided for in this section.

(5) If the legislature enacts a law to transfer or deposit moneys into the freedom from taxes fund, such funds shall be transferred or deposited pursuant to such law until repealed. The legislature shall not suspend such transfer or deposit through an appropriation bill.

(h) Upon the date that the state treasurer determines that the state property tax elimination fund and the state income and privilege tax elimination fund are fully funded in order for the interest earnings from each such fund to reimburse the state general fund for the lost revenue as a result of eliminating the state property tax and the state income and privilege taxes, during any ensuing regular session of the legislature, the legislature may:

(1) Determine, by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, whether to deposit the amount of moneys that are identified as moneys collected by the state of Kansas as a result of the elimination, in whole or in part, of the state tax exemptions in the state general fund; or

(2) propose to the citizens of Kansas a constitutional amendment to eliminate other forms of taxes.

(i) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any federal exemptions established by the constitution of the United States or federal law.

(j) The legislature may enact laws to carry out the purposes of this section.

(k) This amendment shall be effective on and after January 1, 2027."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. This amendment would establish the freedom from taxes fund, which would lead to the eventual elimination of state-imposed property taxes and income and privilege taxes. The Kansas citizens freedom review board would be created, and they would review tax exemptions and approve or eliminate them. The money provided from such eliminations would be deposited into the freedom from taxes fund, to be used to eliminate state-imposed property tax and state income and privilege taxes. Any future tax exemptions would not be allowed to exceed five years without further enactment by the legislature.

"A vote for this proposition would lead to the future elimination of state-imposed property taxes and state income and privilege taxes. The Kansas citizens freedom review board would be established to review all current tax exemptions for their approval or elimination. Future tax exemptions would be limited to a duration of not to exceed five years without further enactment by the legislature.

"A vote against this proposition means the state of Kansas will continue to levy property taxes, income and privilege taxes and sales taxes to fund government operations, with no changes made to the state constitution."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2026, unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case the proposed amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

FORTY-SECOND DAY

Excused later: Reps. Penn and A. Smith.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Rev. Doug Henkle, Garden City.

Lord God,

Please remind us today that this is the day that You have made. Cause us to rejoice and be glad in it. Lord Jesus, fill this chamber with Your peace as we embrace the opportunity to meet the challenges of the week ahead. Thank You that You are the Prince of Peace.

Jesus, we know that peace doesn't mean "easy." You never promised easy; You promised help. In fact, You told us to expect tribulation and trials. You also said that, if we called on You, that You would give us the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension. Peace, which is the spiritual harmony brought about by our reconciliation with You, God, through Jesus.

In a world filled with war and violence, it's difficult to see how You could be the all-powerful God who acts in human history and are the embodiment of peace. But physical safety and political harmony don't necessarily reflect the kind of peace Your Son, Jesus, talked about. He told us, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you." Jesus, fill this chamber, to the brim, with Your peace. Peace with You and peace with one another.

I pray for Speaker Hawkins, Speaker pro tem Carpenter, Majority Leader Croft and Minority Leader Woodard. Give them Your peace, wisdom, and insight, as they lead this chamber this week.

In Jesus Name, Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Poetter Parshall.

Journal of the House

FORTY-FOURTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, March 19, 2025, 9:30 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Hawkins in the chair.

The roll was called with 124 members present.
Rep. L. Ruiz was excused on verified illness.
Excused later: Rep. Poetter Parshall.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Rev. Doug Henkle, Garden City.

Heavenly Father,

Thank you for the privilege it is to come before Your throne this morning. I thank You for Your amazing love for each member of this chamber. I ask that You bestow Your Divine favor upon this body, collectively and individually. Give them Your perspective and Your wisdom as they study and debate the, often challenging, matters before them.

Father, I pray that we would each be peacemakers. Peacemakers who release tension rather than intensify it, who seek solutions and find no delight in arguments. Peacemakers who calm the waters rather than trouble them, who generate more light than heat.

I ask that you give each member a positive attitude. May their goal be Your best for the people of Kansas. I pray that You would fill this chamber with Your spirit of hope and peace in anticipation of what You will do in and through this body in the waning days of this 2025 legislative session, for Your glory and the betterment of all Kansans.

In Jesus Name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Rahjes

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Moser are spread upon the Journal:

Please imagine if you will, an additional two coaches, two more student athletes, and two more state trophies to my left.

The Twin Valley League is composed of 11 Schools-Axtell, Blue Valley Randolph, Centralia, Clifton-Clyde, Frankfort, Hanover, Highland-Doniphan West, Linn, Onaga, Valley Heights, Washington.

Four Schools in District 106, and all in the Twin Valley League, have won 7 State Championships in the past 11 months.

1. Washington County High Schools Girl's Track and Field– 2024 – Class IA: In 2024, they repeated as back-to-back Class IA champions at the Kansas State Track & Field Championships, winning in 2023 as well. Every young lady who competed for Washington County placed in the top 8 in at least one of their events to contribute points to the team score. Coach Jerry Baker and student athlete Kiersten Tholstrup are representing the team on the floor today.
2. Hanover High School Volleyball – 2024 – Class IA Division II: 42 – 1, only dropping three sets all season long. The Wildcats were TVL regular season and tournament champs. They beat Lebo for the 2024 State Championship, having played them 4 years in a row in the championship match. Coach Melissa Holle was named coach of the year. This was her 3rd year receiving the honor. Melissa Holle and Anna Jueneman would be here at the well were it not for the weather situation northwest of Topeka.
3. Hanover High School Girls' Basketball – 2025 – Class IA Division II: This was the third straight title for the Lady Wildcats. They won in the championship game 46-35 over another Twin Valley team, the Linn Bulldogs. Coach Kim Lohse and student athlete Hannah Zarybnicky would be the coach and student athlete here today, again if not for the weather.

The Axtell Eagles Boys Athletic Teams accomplished a trifecta of state championships from May 2024 through March 15, 2025.

4. Axtell High School Boys' Track and Field – 2024 – Class IA: 2024 was the second straight track and field title for the Axtell Eagles. Scoring 90 points, the guys were untouchable in IA. Their win tallied the most points scored in Class IA since KSHSAA changed scoring to include all 8 placers starting in 2013. They might just reach a 3-peat this coming May in Wichita.
5. Axtell High School Football – 2024 – Eight Man Division II: The Marysville Advocate, the local paper's headline read, "Simply the Best – Axtell Snares 4th Football Title, Wins 52 Straight," after the Eagles clinched their 4th state title. They were golden in their 50 – 0 championship win over Victoria. This win culminated a 6-year undefeated streak for the senior class. Winning 4 consecutive state championships was a first in 8-man Division II Kansas history and the 52-game winning streak is the longest active one in Kansas among all classes. Offensive player of the year went to Eagles Q-Back Brandon Schmelzle, while his cousin, Eli Broxterman was named defensive player of the year. Coach Eric Detweiler and assistant coach Dale Buessing were also honored. Both have coached the Eagles since 2013.

6. Axtell High School Boys' Basketball – 2025 – Class IA Division II: The Eagles defeated defending state champion Cunningham 57-39. In each of the last two seasons, the boys were knocking at the door of the championship game, only to fall in the semifinals. Two 1,000-point scorers-Brandon Schmelzle and Eli Broxterman will graduate this May. Since 2021, the Eagles have brought home 4 state football titles, 2 state track and field titles and 1 basketball title. Coach Jayson Tynon and players Gavin Shaughnessy, Colin Shaughnessy, and Eli Broxterman join me on the floor today representing the schools three championship teams.

Frankfort High School Girls' Basketball – 2024 – Class IA Division I: This was a first ever state championship for the Frankfort Lady Wildcats. The team was here late in the 2024 session for recognition.

The Lady Panthers of Centralia, also a TVL team but not in my district, won State Basketball a couple of weeks ago.

Hard work, dedication and a winning attitude exhibited by the athletes, coaches, parents and each of these small rural communities have been the formula for success, and it is a privilege to represent them here in Topeka. Please join me in congratulating these teams, along with additional team athletes in the gallery.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Lewis are spread upon the Journal:

Rep. Lewis was joined by Rep. Pishny at the well for his presentation.

This morning, I am pleased and very proud to stand before you to ask unanimous consent for a House commendation to be paid to Paisley Powers for her extraordinary achievement in gymnastics. Last summer, Paisely, at the age of 10, competed against 320 girls 8 to 18 years old in the AAU Junior Olympics in Greensboro, North Carolina. Paisley competed in four events (beams, vault, bars and floor.) After two days of competition, she was the only competitor to advance to the finals in all four events.

Paisley finished 2nd in the beam and floor and fifth on vault and bars. At the end of the competition, she had an overall score of 37.675 and was named the best overall gymnast in the entire competition.

Paisley is a 5th grader at Bernadine Sitts intermediate school in Garden City. She is a good student and wants to study Business at K-State and perhaps go to law school.

She is still competing in gymnastics. Paisley also finished 7th in the 100 pound weight class at a state wrestling competition for 10 and under last week.

Paisley accomplishment and her opportunity to compete in such a high level competition is a testament to the extraordinary growth in girls sports in the last 50 years which was brought about by the passage of Title IX. Please join me in applauding Paisley's achievements.

Rep. Lewis presented Paisley with a framed House certificate in honor of her accomplishments.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Bloom are spread upon the Journal:

Gabbi Koppes started wrestling at age 4 in the USA kids wrestling program where she was an 8 time champion. She has a GPA of 3.95 and record 126-0 including 110 pins. She has never been pinned in her H.S. career. She was 2023, 2024, and 2025 4A regional wrestler of the year and 2025 4A regional wrestler of the year and 2025 4A senior of the year. She is the first female champion in the Clay Center program and first 4 time undefeated state champion.

Since Kansas girls wrestling was sanctioned in 2021, she is the first Kansas girl to be a 4 times undefeated wrestler. She will attend Baker University this fall competing in womens' wrestling and track. Let's give Gabbi a big hand.

Rep. Bloom presented Gabbi with a framed House certificate in honor of her accomplishments.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Johnson and King are spread upon the Journal:

It is our honor as representatives to recognize two separate high schools who united in academic competition to become 2025 Kansas State VEX Robotics Champions at the recent tournament in Wichita. Basehor-Linwood High School earned the Excellence Award for engineering process and on-field success. Hesston High School received individual recognition as Robot Skills Champions. Both Basehor-Linwood High School and Hesston High School combined to earn the Tournament Champions Award.

The Bobcats have competed for the last seven years in VEX Robotics and this is their second year sending their teams to the World Championships. With me from Basehor-Linwood High School are Lane Lamping, Zane Keefover, Blake Kite, Alan Morey, Andrew Schmidling and their Coach Molly Gomes.

Rep. King continued: Hesston robotics just finished up their 13th year in VEX Robotics with over 50 schools participating, most of which are 5A and 6A, whereas Hesston is a 3A school and has won 10 previous state championships.

Hesston has achieved a high level of success in competitions over the years, thanks in large part to hard-working students, a very supportive Board of Education, and an equally supportive public, Robotics is held in very high regard in Hesston.

Tim van Bergeijk and Isaac Swartzendruber, two juniors, along with their friends from Basehor-Linwood, were able to capture the school's 11th state championship, Tim comes from a long line of accomplished robotics competitors, with his sister, Laura, winning the Build Award at the CREATE U.S. Open robotics tournament in 2019. Isaac's commitment to the Engineering Notebook and programming their bot is exceptional. Together, they have earned 10 trophies this year and have qualified for the CREATE U.S. Open (National Robotics Competition) in late March and the World Championships in early May.

Tim and Isaac both plan to continue their education and pursue a career in the STEM field. VEX Robotics as a whole and the Hesston robotics program will greatly benefit them towards their future success.

Framed House certificates were presented to each group in honor of their accomplishments.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: We vote NO on HCR 5001. There is a great reason why there is bipartisan opposition to calling for a Convention of States year after year in this chamber. If the required number of States pass an Article V resolution, it will be Congress who calls the convention and makes the rules, not the states. Constitutional scholars cannot even agree on how it will work, leaving too many uncertainties, particularly in these uncertain and chaotic times. We are unwilling to bet our US Constitution to find out. — KEN COLLINS, MARI-LYNN POSKIN, CINDY NEIGHBOR

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: To be transparent, I don't support SCR 1611 because of the input that I received from my district. Regardless of my personal opinions., I stand firmly in my principle of being an accurate representation of the people who elected me. I voted NO to SCR 1611 because I have confidence that my district made their position on this very clear; they believe in our current system and are trusting me to uphold my ability to vote my district accurately as a representative in Topeka. — ANGEL ROESER

MR. SPEAKER: I vote Yes on SCR 1611. Direct election of Supreme Court justices is a time-tested process used by states from all political persuasions. From Oregon, Minnesota and Illinois to Ohio, Texas and North Carolina the voters get the final say. Kansas had this very same system up until 1958. It is infinitely preferable to our current lawyer heavy nine-person nominating committee. Our current system is quite flawed. No one, and I mean NO ONE, if forming a new government in a new state would choose the Kansas model. We can do better, and SCR1611 gives us that chance.

"Section 1. K.S.A. 21-6810 is hereby amended to read as follows: 21-6810. (a) Criminal history categories contained in the sentencing guidelines grids are based on the following types of prior convictions: Person felony adult convictions, nonperson felony adult convictions, person felony juvenile adjudications, nonperson felony juvenile adjudications, person misdemeanor adult convictions, nonperson class A misdemeanor adult convictions, person misdemeanor juvenile adjudications, nonperson class A misdemeanor juvenile adjudications, select class B nonperson misdemeanor adult convictions, select class B nonperson misdemeanor juvenile adjudications and convictions and adjudications for violations of municipal ordinances or county resolutions—~~which that~~ are comparable to any crime classified under the state law of Kansas as a person misdemeanor, select nonperson class B misdemeanor or nonperson class A misdemeanor. A prior conviction is any conviction, other than another count in the current case, ~~which that~~ was brought in the same information or complaint or ~~which~~ was joined for trial with other counts in the current case pursuant to K.S.A. 22-3203, and amendments thereto, ~~which that~~ occurred prior to sentencing in the current case, regardless of whether the offense that led to the prior conviction occurred before or after the current offense or the conviction in the current case.

(b) A class B nonperson select misdemeanor is a special classification established for weapons violations. Such classification shall be considered and scored in determining an offender's criminal history classification.

(c) Except as otherwise provided, all convictions, whether sentenced consecutively or concurrently, shall be counted separately in the offender's criminal history.

(d) Except as provided in K.S.A. 21-6815, and amendments thereto, the following are applicable to determining an offender's criminal history classification:

(1) Only verified convictions will be considered and scored.

(2) All prior adult felony convictions, including expungements, will be considered and scored. Prior adult felony convictions for offenses that were committed before July 1, 1993, shall be scored as a person or nonperson crime using a comparable offense under the Kansas criminal code in effect on the date the current crime of conviction was committed.

(3) There will be no decay factor applicable for:

(A) Adult convictions;

(B) a juvenile adjudication for an offense committed before July 1, 1993, which would have been a class A, B or C felony, if committed by an adult. Prior juvenile adjudications for offenses that were committed before July 1, 1993, shall be scored as a person or nonperson crime using a comparable offense under the Kansas criminal code in effect on the date the current crime of conviction was committed; or

(C) a juvenile adjudication for an offense committed on or after July 1, 1993, which would be an off-grid felony or a nondrug severity level 1 through 4 felony, if committed by an adult.

(4) Except as otherwise provided, a juvenile adjudication will decay if the current crime of conviction is committed after the offender reaches the age of 25, and the juvenile adjudication is for an offense:

(A) Committed before July 1, 1993, which would have been a class D or E felony, if committed by an adult;

(B) committed on or after July 1, 1993, which would be a nondrug severity level 5 through 10 felony, a nongrid felony or any drug felony, if committed by an adult; or

(C) which would be a misdemeanor, if committed by an adult.

(5) A juvenile adjudication will not be considered and scored if:

(A) The current crime of conviction is committed at least five years after the date of the prior adjudication;

(B) the offender has no new adjudications or convictions during such five-year period; and

(C) the juvenile adjudication is for an offense that would be a nondrug severity level 5 through 10 felony, drug felony, nongrid felony or misdemeanor, if committed by an adult.

(6) All person misdemeanors, class A nonperson misdemeanors and class B select nonperson misdemeanors, and all municipal ordinance and county resolution violations comparable to such misdemeanors, shall be considered and scored. Prior misdemeanors for offenses that were committed before July 1, 1993, shall be scored as a person or nonperson crime using a comparable offense under the Kansas criminal code in effect on the date the current crime of conviction was committed.

(7) Unless otherwise provided by law, unclassified felonies and misdemeanors, shall be considered and scored as nonperson crimes for the purpose of determining criminal history.

(8) Prior convictions of a crime defined by a statute that has since been repealed shall be scored using the classification assigned at the time of such conviction.

(9) Prior convictions of a crime defined by a statute that has since been determined unconstitutional by an appellate court shall not be used for criminal history scoring purposes unless the basis of the determination of unconstitutionality by the appellate court is later overruled or reversed by an order or opinion of the supreme court of the state of Kansas or the United States supreme court.

(10) Prior convictions of any crime shall not be counted in determining the criminal history category if they enhance the severity level, elevate the classification from misdemeanor to felony, or are elements of the present crime of conviction. Except as otherwise provided, all other prior convictions will be considered and scored.

(e) The amendments made to this section by section 1 of chapter 5 of the 2015 Session Laws of Kansas are procedural in nature and shall be construed and applied retroactively.";

On page 3, following line 34, by inserting:

"Sec. 3. K.S.A. 22-2802 is hereby amended to read as follows: 22-2802. ~~(4)~~(a) Any person charged with a crime shall, at the person's first appearance before a magistrate, be ordered released pending preliminary examination or trial upon the execution of an appearance bond in an amount specified by the magistrate and sufficient to assure the appearance of such person before the magistrate when ordered and to assure the public safety. If the person is being bound over for a felony, the bond shall also be conditioned on the person's appearance in the district court or by way of a two-way electronic audio-video communication as provided in subsection ~~(14)~~ (n) at the time required by the court to answer the charge against such person and at any time thereafter that the court requires. Unless the magistrate makes a specific finding otherwise, if the person is being bonded out for a person felony or a person misdemeanor, the bond shall be conditioned on the person being prohibited from having any contact with the alleged victim of such offense for a period of at least 72 hours. The magistrate may impose such of the following additional conditions of release as will reasonably assure the appearance of the person for preliminary examination or trial:

~~(a)~~(1) Place the person in the custody of a designated person or organization agreeing to supervise such person;

~~(b)~~(2) place restrictions on the travel, association or place of abode of the person during the period of release;

~~(c)~~(3) impose any other condition deemed reasonably necessary to assure appearance as required, including a condition requiring that the person return to custody during specified hours;

~~(d)~~(4) place the person under a house arrest program pursuant to K.S.A. 21-6609, and amendments thereto; or ~~(e)~~(5) place the person under the supervision of a court services officer responsible for monitoring the person's compliance with any conditions of release ordered by the magistrate. The magistrate may order the person to pay for any costs associated with the supervision provided by the court services department in an amount not to exceed $15 per week of such supervision. The magistrate may also order the person to pay for all other costs associated with the supervision and conditions for compliance in addition to the $15 per week.

~~(2)~~(b) In addition to any conditions of release provided in subsection~~(1)~~(a), for any person charged with a felony, the magistrate may order such person to submit to a drug and alcohol abuse examination and evaluation in a public or private treatment facility or state institution and, if determined by the head of such facility or institution that such person is a drug or alcohol abuser or is incapacitated by drugs or alcohol, to submit to treatment for such drug or alcohol abuse, as a condition of release.

~~(3)~~(c) The appearance bond shall be executed with sufficient solvent sureties who are residents of the state of Kansas, unless the magistrate determines, in the exercise of such magistrate's discretion, that requiring sureties is not necessary to assure the appearance of the person at the time ordered.

~~(4)~~(d) A deposit of cash in the amount of the bond may be made in lieu of the execution of the bond pursuant to subsection~~(3)~~(c). Except as provided in subsection~~(5)~~(e), such deposit shall be in the full amount of the bond and in no event shall a deposit of cash in less than the full amount of bond be permitted. Any person charged with a crime who is released on a cash bond shall be entitled to a refund of all moneys paid for the cash bond, after deduction of any outstanding restitution, costs, fines and fees, after the final disposition of the criminal case if the person complies with all requirements to appear in court. The court may not exclude the option of posting bond pursuant to subsection~~(3)~~(c).

~~(5)~~(e) Except as provided further, the amount of the appearance bond shall be the same whether executed as described in subsection~~(3)~~(c) or posted with a deposit of cash as described in subsection~~(4)~~(d). When the appearance bond has been set at $2,500 or less and the most serious charge against the person is a misdemeanor, a severity level 8, 9 or 10 nonperson felony, a drug severity level 4 felony committed prior to July 1, 2012, a drug severity level 5 felony committed on or after July 1, 2012, or a violation of K.S.A. 8-1567, and amendments thereto, the magistrate may allow the person to deposit cash with the clerk in the amount of 10% of the bond, provided the person meets at least the following qualifications:

- ~~(A)~~(1) Is a resident of the state of Kansas;
- ~~(B)~~(2) has a criminal history score category of G, H or I;
- ~~(C)~~(3) has no prior history of failure to appear for any court appearances;
- ~~(D)~~(4) has no detainer or hold from any other jurisdiction;
- ~~(E)~~(5) has not been extradited from, and is not awaiting extradition to, another state; and

- ~~(F)~~(6) has not been detained for an alleged violation of probation.

~~(6)~~(f) In the discretion of the court, a person charged with a crime may be released upon the person's own recognizance by guaranteeing payment of the amount of the bond for the person's failure to comply with all requirements to appear in court. The release of a person charged with a crime upon the person's own recognizance shall not require the deposit of any cash by the person.

~~(7)~~(g) The court shall not impose any administrative fee.

~~(8)~~(h) In determining which conditions of release will reasonably assure appearance and the public safety, the magistrate shall, on the basis of available information, take into account the nature and circumstances of the crime charged; the weight of the evidence against the defendant; whether the defendant is lawfully present in the United States; the defendant's family ties, employment, financial resources, character, mental condition, length of residence in the community, record of convictions, record of appearance or failure to appear at court proceedings or of flight to avoid prosecution; the likelihood or propensity of the defendant to commit crimes while on release, including whether the defendant will be likely to threaten, harass or cause injury to the victim of the crime or any witnesses thereto; and whether the defendant is on probation or parole from a previous offense at the time of the alleged commission of the subsequent offense.

~~(9)~~(i) The appearance bond shall set forth all of the conditions of release.

~~(10)~~(j) A person for whom conditions of release are imposed and who continues to be detained as a result of the person's inability to meet the conditions of release shall be entitled, upon application, to have the conditions reviewed without unnecessary delay by the magistrate who imposed them. If the magistrate who imposed conditions of release is not available, any other magistrate in the county may review such conditions.

~~(11)~~(k) A magistrate ordering the release of a person on any conditions specified in this section may at any time amend the order to impose additional or different conditions of release. If the imposition of additional or different conditions results in the detention of the person, the provisions of subsection-~~(10)~~(j) shall apply.

~~(12)~~(l) Statements or information offered in determining the conditions of release need not conform to the rules of evidence. No statement or admission of the defendant made at such a proceeding shall be received as evidence in any subsequent proceeding against the defendant.

~~(13)~~(m) The appearance bond and any security required as a condition of the defendant's release shall be deposited in the office of the magistrate or the clerk of the court where the release is ordered. If the defendant is bound to appear before a magistrate or court other than the one ordering the release, the order of release, together with the bond and security shall be transmitted to the magistrate or clerk of the court before whom the defendant is bound to appear.

FORTY-FIFTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tempore Carpenter in the chair.

The roll was called with 122 members present.
Reps. Howerton and L. Ruiz were excused on verified illness.
Rep. Ellis was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.
Excused later: Reps. Blex, Bohi, Haskins, Hill, Poetter Parshall, Poskin and Roth.
Present later: Reps. Bohi, Hill, and Howerton.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father. Thank You for loving and caring for us so unconditionally.
When we are at our worst, You still love and care.
When we are at our best, You love and care.
When we even neglect to acknowledge Your love and care,
You still invest love and care into us.
The days are getting a bit longer and our patience a bit shorter.
Help us to find that second breath of strength and optimism to push through to a job well done.
Teach us to pace ourselves in a way that gives time and attention to the things which are of true importance and significance.

Your word teaches “A wise person is strong, and a person of knowledge increases power. For by wise guidance, you shall wage war, and in an abundance of counselors there is victory.”

Give each of these Representatives knowledge beyond what would naturally be theirs.

Allow their minds to grasp, what others would think past.

Give them ears to hear clearly when their colleagues are speaking wise counsel.

Help each to reach their true potential you have created them with and for.

When their season to represent the people of Kansas ends, and they look back on these days, might they know truth and integrity was the path they always chose to follow.

In closing, allow each one to remember the words of one of our Nations first lawmakers when he said, “Remember not only to say the right thing, in the right place, but far more difficult still,

to leave unsaid the wrong thing at the tempting moment.”

In Jesus Name I Pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Penn.

MULTISTATE TAX COMPACT

ARTICLE I.—Purposes

The purposes of this compact are to:

- (1) Facilitate proper determination of state and local tax liability of multistate taxpayers, including the equitable apportionment of tax bases and settlement of apportionment disputes.
- (2) Promote uniformity or compatibility in significant components of tax systems.

- (4) Avoid duplicative taxation.

ARTICLE II.—Definitions

As used in this compact:

- (2) "Subdivision" means any governmental unit or special district of a state.

- (4) "Income tax" means a tax imposed on or measured by net income including any tax imposed on or measured by an amount arrived at by deducting expenses from gross income, one or more forms of which expenses are not specifically and directly related to particular transactions.
- (5) "Capital stock tax" means a tax measured in any way by the capital of a corporation considered in its entirety.
- (6) "Gross receipts tax" means a tax, other than a sales tax, which is imposed on or measured by the gross volume of business, in terms of gross receipts or in other terms, and in the determination of which no deduction is allowed which would constitute the tax an income tax.
- (7) "Sales tax" means a tax imposed with respect to the transfer for a consideration of ownership, possession or custody of tangible personal property or the rendering of services measured by the price of the tangible personal property transferred or services rendered and which is required by state or local law to be separately stated from the sales price by the seller, or which is customarily separately stated from the sales price, but does not include a tax imposed exclusively on the sale of a specifically identified commodity or article or class of commodities or articles.

(8) "Use tax" means a nonrecurring tax, other than a sales tax, which (a) is imposed on or with respect to the exercise or enjoyment of any right or power over tangible personal property incident to the ownership, possession or custody of that property or the leasing of that property from another including any consumption, keeping, retention, or other use of tangible personal property and (b) is complimentary to a sales tax.

ARTICLE III.—Elements of Income Tax Laws

(1) Taxpayer option, state and local taxes. Any taxpayer subject to an income tax whose income is subject to apportionment and allocation for tax purposes pursuant to the laws of a party state or pursuant to the laws of subdivisions in two or more party states may elect to apportion and allocate his income in the manner provided by the laws of such state or by the laws of such states and subdivisions without reference to this compact, or may elect to apportion and allocate in accordance with article IV, except that for tax years commencing on or after January 1, 2027, any taxpayer subject to the tax imposed by K.S.A. 79-32,110(c), and amendments thereto, shall apportion and allocate in accordance with article 32 of chapter 79 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto, and shall not apportion or allocate in accordance with article IV. This election for any tax year may be made in all party states or subdivisions thereof or in any one or more of the party states or subdivisions thereof without reference to the election made in the others. For the purposes of this paragraph, taxes imposed by subdivisions shall be considered separately from state taxes and the apportionment and allocation also may be applied to the entire tax base. In no instance wherein article IV is employed for all subdivisions of a state may the sum of all apportionments and allocations to subdivisions within a state be greater than the apportionment and allocation that would be assignable to that state if the apportionment or allocation were being made with respect to a state income tax.

(2) Taxpayer option, short form. Each party state or any subdivision thereof which imposes an income tax shall provide by law that any taxpayer required to file a return, whose only activities within the taxing jurisdiction consist of sales and do not include owning or renting real estate or tangible personal property, and whose dollar volume of gross sales made during the tax year within the state or subdivision, as the case may be, is not in excess of $100,000 may elect to report and pay any tax due on the basis of a percentage of such volume, and shall adopt rates which shall produce a tax which reasonably approximates the tax otherwise due. The multistate tax commission, not more than once in five years, may adjust the $100,000 figure in order to reflect such changes as may occur in the real value of the dollar, and such adjusted figure, upon adoption by the commission, shall replace the $100,000 figure specifically provided herein. Each party state and subdivision thereof may make the same election available to taxpayers additional to those specified in this paragraph.

(3) Coverage. Nothing in this article relates to the reporting or payment of any tax other than in income tax.

ARTICLE IV.—Division of Income

(1) As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Business income" means income arising from transactions and activity in the regular course of the taxpayer's trade or business and includes income from tangible and intangible property if the acquisition, management, and disposition of the property constitute integral parts of the taxpayer's regular trade or business operations.

(b) "Commercial domicile" means the principal place from which the trade or business of the taxpayer is directed or managed.

(c) "Compensation" means wages, salaries, commissions and any other form of remuneration paid to employees for personal services.

(d) "Financial organization" means any bank, trust company, savings bank, industrial bank, land bank, safe deposit company, private banker, savings and loan association, credit union, cooperative bank, small loan company, sales finance company, investment company, or any type of insurance company.

(e) "Nonbusiness income" means all income other than business income.

(f) "Public utility" means any business entity (1) which owns or operates any plant, equipment, property, franchise, or license for the transmission of communications, transportation of goods or persons, except by pipeline, or the production, transmission, sale, delivery, or furnishing of electricity, water or steam; and (2) whose rates of charges for goods or services have been established or approved by a federal, state or local government or governmental agency.

(g) "Sales" means all gross receipts of the taxpayer not allocated under paragraphs of this article.

(h) "State" means any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, any territory or possession of the United States, and any foreign country or political subdivision thereof.

(i) "This state" means the state in which the relevant tax return is filed or, in the case of application of this article to the apportionment and allocation of income for local tax purposes, the subdivision or local taxing district in which the relevant tax return is filed.

(2) Any taxpayer having income from business activity which is taxable both within and without this state, other than activity as a financial organization or public utility or the rendering of purely personal services by an individual, shall allocate and apportion his net income as provided in this article. If a taxpayer has income from business activity as a public utility but derives the greater percentage of his income from activities subject to this article, the taxpayer may elect to allocate and apportion his entire net income as provided in this article.

(3) For purposes of allocation and apportionment of income under this article, a taxpayer is taxable in another state if (1) in that state he is subject to a net income tax, a franchise tax measured by net income, a franchise tax for the privilege of doing business, or a corporate stock tax, or (2) that state has jurisdiction to subject the taxpayer to a net income tax regardless of whether, in fact, the state does or does not.

(4) Rents and royalties from real or tangible personal property, capital gains, interest, dividends or patent or copyright royalties, to the extent that they constitute nonbusiness income, shall be allocated as provided in paragraphs 5 through 8 of this article.

(5) (a) Net rents and royalties from real property located in this state are allocable to this state.

(b) Net rents and royalties from tangible personal property are allocable to this state: (1) If and to the extent that the property is utilized in this state, or (2) in their entirety if the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state and the taxpayer is not organized under the laws of or taxable in the state in which the property is utilized.

(c) The extent of utilization of tangible personal property in a state is determined by multiplying the rents and royalties by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days of physical location of the property in the state during the rental or royalty period in the taxable year and the denominator of which is the number of days of physical location of the property everywhere during all rental or royalty periods in the taxable year. If the physical location of the property during the rental or royalty period is unknown or unascertainable by the taxpayer, tangible personal property is utilized in the state in which the property was located at the time the rental or royalty payer obtained possession.

(6) (a) Capital gains and losses from sales of real property located in this state are allocable to this state.

(b) Capital gains and losses from sales of tangible personal property are allocable to this state if (1) the property had a situs in this state at the time of the sale, or (2) the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state and the taxpayer is not taxable in the state in which the property had a situs.

(c) Capital gains and losses from sales of intangible personal property are allocable to this state if the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state.

(7) Interest and dividends are allocable to this state if the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state.

(8) (a) Patent and copyright royalties are allocable to this state: (1) If and to the extent that the patent or copyright is utilized by the payer in this state, or (2) if and to the extent that the patent copyright is utilized by the payer in a state in which the taxpayer is not taxable and the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state.

(b) A patent is utilized in a state to the extent that it is employed in production, fabrication, manufacturing, or other processing in the state or to the extent that a patented product is produced in the state. If the basis of receipts from patent royalties does not permit allocation to states or if the accounting procedures do not reflect states of utilization, the patent is utilized in the state in which the taxpayer's commercial domicile is located.

(c) A copyright is utilized in a state to the extent that printing or other publication originates in the state. If the basis of receipts from copyright royalties does not permit allocation to states or if the accounting procedures do not reflect states of utilization, the copyright is utilized in the state in which the taxpayer's commercial domicile is located.

(9) All business income shall be apportioned to this state by multiplying the income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor plus the sales factor, and the denominator of which is three.

(10) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state during the tax period and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used during the tax period.

(11) Property owned by the taxpayer is valued at its original cost. Property rented by the taxpayer is valued at eight times the net annual rental rate. Net annual rental rate is the annual rental rate paid by the taxpayer less any annual rental rate received by the taxpayer from subrentals.

(12) The average value of property shall be determined by averaging the values at the beginning and ending of the tax period but the tax administrator may require the averaging of monthly values during the tax period if reasonably required to reflect properly the average value of the taxpayer's property.

(13) The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid in this state during the tax period by the taxpayer for compensation and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid everywhere during the tax period.

(14) Compensation is paid in this state if:

(a) The individual's service is performed entirely within the state;

(b) The individual's service is performed both within and without the state, but the service performed without the state is incidental to the individual's service within the state; or

(c) Some of the service is performed in the state and (1) the base of operations or, if there is no base of operations, the place from which the service is directed or controlled is in the state, or (2) the base of operations or the place from which the service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed, but the individual's residence is in this state.

(15) The sales factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer in this state during the tax period, and the denominator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer everywhere during the tax period.

(16) Sales of tangible personal property are in this state if:

(a) The property is delivered or shipped to a purchaser, other than the United States government, within this state regardless of the f.o.b. point or other conditions of the sale; or

(b) The property is shipped from an office, store, warehouse, factory, or other place of storage in this state and (1) the purchaser is the United States government or (2) the taxpayer is not taxable in the state of the purchaser.

(17) Sales, other than sales of tangible personal property, are in this state if:

(a) The income-producing activity is performed in this state; or

(b) The income-producing activity is performed both in and outside this state and a greater proportion of the income-producing activity is performed in this state than in any other state, based on costs of performance.

(18) If the allocation and apportionment provisions of this article do not fairly represent the extent of the taxpayer's business activity in this state, the taxpayer may petition for or the tax administrator may require, in respect to all or any part of the taxpayer's business activity, if reasonable:

(a) Separate accounting;

(b) The exclusion of any one or more of the factors;

(c) The inclusion of one or more additional factors which will fairly represent the taxpayer's business activity in this state; or

(d) The employment of any other method to effectuate an equitable allocation and apportionment of the taxpayer's income.

ARTICLE V.—Elements of Sales and Use Tax Laws

(1) Tax credit. Each purchaser liable for a use tax on tangible personal property shall be entitled to full credit for the combined amount or amounts of legally imposed sales or use taxes paid by him with respect to the same property to another state and any subdivision thereof. The credit shall be applied first against the amount of any use tax due the state, and any unused portion of the credit shall then be applied against the amount of any use tax due a subdivision.

(2) Exemption certificates, vendors may rely. Whenever a vendor receives and accepts in good faith from a purchaser a resale or other exemption certificate or other written evidence of exemption authorized by the appropriate state or subdivision taxing authority, the vendor shall be relieved of liability for a sales or use tax with respect to the transaction.

ARTICLE VI.—The Commission

(1) Organization and management. (a) The multistate tax commission is hereby established. It shall be composed of one "member" from each party state who shall be the head of the state agency charged with the administration of the types of taxes to which this compact applies. If there is more than one such agency the state shall provide by law for the selection of the commission member from the heads of the relevant agencies. State law may provide that a member of the commission be represented by an alternate but only if there is on file with the commission written notification of the designation and identity of the alternate. The attorney general of each party state or his designee, or other counsel if the laws of the party state specifically provide, shall be entitled to attend the meetings of the commission, but shall not vote. Such attorneys general, designees, or other counsel shall receive all notices of meetings required under paragraph (1) (e) of this article.

(b) Each party state shall provide by law for the selection of representatives from its subdivisions affected by this compact to consult with the commission member from that state.

(c) Each member shall be entitled to one vote. The commission shall not act unless a majority of the members are present, and no action shall be binding unless approved by a majority of the total number of members.

(d) The commission shall adopt an official seal to be used as it may provide.

(e) The commission shall hold an annual meeting and such other regular meetings as its bylaws may provide and such special meetings as its executive committee may determine. The commission bylaws shall specify the dates of the annual and any other regular meetings, and shall provide for the giving of notice of annual, regular and special meetings. Notices of special meetings shall include the reasons therefor and an agenda of the items to be considered.

(f) The commission shall elect annually, from among its members, a chairman, a vice-chairman and a treasurer. The commission shall appoint an executive director who shall serve at its pleasure, and it shall fix his duties and compensation. The executive director shall be secretary of the commission. The commission shall make provision for the bonding of such of its officers and employees as it may deem appropriate.

(g) Irrespective of the civil service, personnel or other merit system laws of any party state, the executive director shall appoint or discharge such personnel as may be necessary for the performance of the functions of the commission and shall fix their duties and compensation. The commission bylaws shall provide for personnel policies and programs.

(h) The commission may borrow, accept or contract for the services of personnel from any state, the United States, or any other governmental entity.

(i) The commission may accept for any of its purposes and functions any and all donations and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials and services, conditional or otherwise, from any governmental entity, and may utilize and dispose of the same.

(j) The commission may establish one or more offices for the transacting of its business.

(k) The commission shall adopt bylaws for the conduct of its business. The commission shall publish its bylaws in convenient form, and shall file a copy of the bylaws and any amendments thereto with the appropriate agency or officer in each of the party states.

(l) The commission annually shall make to the governor and legislature of each party state a report covering its activities for the preceding year. Any donation or grant accepted by the commission or services borrowed shall be reported in the annual report of the commission, and shall include the nature, amount and conditions, if any, of the donation, gift, grant or services borrowed and the identity of the donor or lender. The commission may make additional reports as it may deem desirable.

(2) Committees. (a) To assist in the conduct of its business when the full commission is not meeting, the commission shall have an executive committee of seven members, including the chairman, vice-chairman, treasurer and four other members elected annually by the commission. The executive committee, subject to the provisions of this compact and consistent with the policies of the commission, shall function as provided in the laws of the commission.

(b) The commission may establish advisory and technical committees, membership on which may include private persons and public officials, in furthering any of its activities. Such committees may consider any matter of concern to the commission, including problems of special interest to any party state and problems dealing with particular types of taxes.

(c) The commission may establish such additional committees as its bylaws may provide.

(3) Powers. In addition to powers conferred elsewhere in this compact, the commission shall have power to:

(a) Study state and local tax systems and particular types of state and local taxes.

(b) Develop and recommend proposals for an increase in uniformity or compatibility of state and local tax laws with a view toward encouraging the simplification and improvement of state and local tax law and administration.

(c) Compile and publish information as in its judgment would assist the party states in implementation of the compact and taxpayers in complying with state and local tax laws.

(d) Do all things necessary and incidental to the administration of its functions pursuant to this compact.

(4) Finance. (a) The commission shall submit to the governor or designated officer or officers of each party state a budget of its estimated expenditures for such period as may be required by the laws of that state for presentation to the legislature thereof.

(b) Each of the commission's budget of estimated expenditures shall contain specific recommendations of the amounts to be appropriated by each of the party states. The total amount of appropriations requested under any such budget shall be apportioned among the party states as follows: One-tenth in equal shares; and the remainder in proportion of the amount of revenue collected by each party state and its subdivisions from income taxes, capital stock taxes, gross receipts taxes, sales and use taxes. In determining such amounts, the commission shall employ such available public sources of information as, in its judgment, present the most equitable and accurate comparisons among the party states. Each of the commission's budgets of estimated expenditures and requests for appropriations shall indicate the sources used in obtaining information employed in applying the formula contained in this paragraph.

(c) The commission shall not pledge the credit of any party state. The commission may meet any of its obligations in whole or in part with funds available to it under paragraph (1) (i) of this article: Provided, That the commission takes specific action setting aside such funds prior to incurring any obligation to be met in whole or in part in such manner. Except where the commission makes use of funds available to it under paragraph (1) (i), the commission shall not incur any obligation prior to the allotment of funds by the party states adequate to meet the same.

(d) The commission shall keep accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements. The receipts and disbursements of the commission shall be subject to the audit and accounting procedures established under its bylaws. All receipts and disbursements of funds handled by the commission shall be audited yearly by a certified or licensed public accountant and the report of the audit shall be included in and become part of the annual report of the commission.

(e) The accounts of the commission shall be open at any reasonable time for inspection by duly constituted officers of the party states and by any persons authorized by the commission.

(f) Nothing contained in this article shall be construed to prevent commission compliance with laws relating to audit or inspection of accounts by or on behalf of any government contributing to the support of the commission.

ARTICLE VII.—Uniform Regulations and Forms

(1) Whenever any two or more party states, or subdivisions of party states, have uniform or similar provisions of law relating to an income tax, capital stock tax, gross receipts tax, sales or use tax, the commission may adopt uniform regulations for any phase of the administration of such law, including assertion of jurisdiction to tax, or prescribing uniform tax forms. The commission may also act with respect to the provisions of article IV of this compact.

(2) Prior to the adoption of any regulation, the commission shall:

(a) As provided in its bylaws, hold at least one public hearing on due notice to all affected party states and subdivisions thereof and to all taxpayers and other persons who have made timely request of the commission for advance notice of its regulation-making proceedings.

(b) Afford all affected party states and subdivisions and interested persons an opportunity to submit relevant written data and views, which shall be considered fully by the commission.

(3) The commission shall submit any regulations adopted by it to the appropriate officials of all party states and subdivisions to which they might apply. Each such state and subdivision shall consider any such regulation for adoption in accordance with its own laws and procedures.

ARTICLE VIII.—Interstate Audits

(1) This article shall be in force only in those party states that specifically provide therefor by statute.

(2) Any party state or subdivision thereof desiring to make or participate in an audit of any accounts, books, papers, records or other documents may request the commission to perform the audit on its behalf. In responding to the request, the commission shall have access to and may examine, at any reasonable time, such accounts, books, papers, records, and other documents and any relevant property or stock of merchandise. The commission may enter into agreements with party states or their subdivisions for assistance in performance of the audit. The commission shall make charges, to be paid by the state or local government or governments for which it performs the service, for any audits performed by it in order to reimburse itself for the actual costs incurred in making the audit.

(3) The commission may require the attendance of any person within the state where it is conducting an audit or part thereof at a time and place fixed by it within such state for the purpose of giving testimony with respect to any account, book, paper, document, other record, property or stock of merchandise being examined in connection with the audit. If the person is not within the jurisdiction, he may be required to attend for such purpose at any time and place fixed by the commission within the state of which he is a resident: Provided, That such state has adopted this article.

(4) The commission may apply to any court having power to issue compulsory process for orders in aid of its powers and responsibilities pursuant to this article and any and all such courts shall have jurisdiction to issue such orders. Failure of any person to obey any such order shall be punishable as contempt of the issuing court. If the party or subject matter on account of which the commission seeks an order is within the jurisdiction of the court to which application is made, such application may be to a court in the state or subdivision on behalf of which the audit is being made or a court in the state in which the object of the order being sought is situated. The provisions of this paragraph apply only to courts in a state that has adopted this article.

(5) The commission may decline to perform any audit requested if it finds that its available personnel or other resources are insufficient for the purpose or that, in the terms requested, the audit is impracticable of satisfactory performance. If the commission, on the basis of its experience, has reason to believe that an audit of a particular taxpayer, either at a particular time or on a particular schedule, would be of interest to a number of party states or their subdivisions, it may offer to make the audit or audits, the offer to be contingent on sufficient participation therein as determined by the commission.

(6) Information obtained by any audit pursuant to this article shall be confidential and available only for tax purposes to party states, their subdivisions or the United States. Availability of information shall be in accordance with the laws of the states or subdivisions on whose account the commission performs the audit, and only through the appropriate agencies or officers of such states or subdivisions. Nothing in this article shall be construed to require any taxpayer to keep records for any period not otherwise required by law.

(7) Other arrangements made or authorized pursuant to law for cooperative audit by or on behalf of the party states or any of their subdivisions are not superseded or invalidated by this article.

(8) In no event shall the commission make any charge against a taxpayer for an audit.

(9) As used in this article, "tax," in addition to the meaning ascribed to it in article II, means any tax or license fee imposed in whole or in part for revenue purposes.

ARTICLE IX.—Arbitration

(1) Whenever the commission finds a need for settling disputes concerning apportionments and allocations by arbitration, it may adopt a regulation placing this article in effect, notwithstanding the provisions of article VII.

(2) The commission shall select and maintain an arbitration panel composed of officers and employees of state and local governments and private persons who shall be knowledgeable and experienced in matters of tax law and administration.

(3) Whenever a taxpayer who has elected to employ article IV, or whenever the laws of the party state or subdivision thereof are substantially identical with the relevant provisions of article IV, the taxpayer, by written notice to the commission and to each party state or subdivision thereof that would be affected, may secure arbitration of an apportionment or allocation, if he is dissatisfied with the final administrative determination of the tax agency of the state or subdivision with respect thereto on the ground that it would subject him to double or multiple taxation by two or more party states or subdivisions thereof. Each party state and subdivision thereof hereby consents to the arbitration as provided herein, and agrees to be bound thereby.

(4) The arbitration board shall be composed of one person selected by the taxpayer, one by the agency or agencies involved, and one member of the commission's arbitration panel. If the agencies involved are unable to agree on the person to be selected by them, such person shall be selected by lot from the total membership of the arbitration panel. The two persons selected for the board in the manner provided by the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall jointly select the third member of the board. If they are unable to agree on the selection, the third member shall be selected by lot from among the total membership of the arbitration panel. No member of a board selected by lot shall be qualified to serve if he is an officer or employee or is otherwise affiliated with any party to the arbitration proceeding. Residence within the jurisdiction of a party to the arbitration proceeding shall not constitute affiliation within the meaning of this paragraph.

(5) The board may sit in any state or subdivision party to the proceeding, in the state of the taxpayer's incorporation, residence or domicile, in any state where the taxpayer does business, or in any place that it finds most appropriate for gaining access to evidence relevant to the matter before it.

(6) The board shall give due notice of the times and places of its hearings. The parties shall be entitled to be heard, to present evidence, and to examine and cross-examine witnesses. The board shall act by majority vote.

(7) The board shall have power to administer oaths, take testimony, subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and the production of accounts, books, papers, records, and other documents, and issue commissions to take testimony. Subpoenas may be signed by any member of the board. In case of failure to obey a subpoena, and upon application by the board, any judge of a court of competent jurisdiction of the state in which the board is sitting or in which the person to whom the subpoena is directed may be found may make an order requiring compliance with the subpoena, and the court may punish failure to obey the order as a contempt. The provisions of this paragraph apply only in states that have adopted this article.

(8) Unless the parties otherwise agree the expenses and other costs of the arbitration shall be assessed and allocated among the parties by the board in such manner as it may determine. The commission shall fix a schedule of compensation for members of arbitration boards and of other allowable expenses and costs. No officer or employee of a state or local government who serves as a member of a board shall be entitled to compensation therefor unless he is required on account of his service to forego the regular compensation attaching to his public employment, but any such board member shall be entitled to expenses.

(9) The board shall determine the disputed apportionment or allocation and any matters necessary thereto. The determinations of the board shall be final for purposes of making the apportionment or allocation, but for no other purpose.

(10) The board shall file with the commission and with each tax agency represented in the proceeding: The determination of the board; the board's written statement of its reasons therefor; the record of the board's proceedings; and any other documents required by the arbitration rules of the commission to be filed.

(11) The commission shall publish the determinations of boards together with the statements of the reasons therefor.

(12) The commission shall adopt and publish rules of procedure and practice and shall file a copy of such rules and of any amendment thereto with the appropriate agency or officer in each of the party states.

(13) Nothing contained herein shall prevent at any time a written compromise of any matter or matters in dispute, if otherwise lawful, by the parties to the arbitration proceeding.

ARTICLE X.—Entry Into Force and Withdrawal

(1) This compact shall enter into force when enacted into law by any seven states. Thereafter, this compact shall become effective as to any other state upon its enactment thereof. The commission shall arrange for notification of all party states whenever there is a new enactment of the compact.

(2) Any party state may withdraw from this compact by enacting a statute repealing the same. No withdrawal shall affect any liability already incurred by or chargeable to a party state prior to the time of such withdrawal.

(3) No proceeding commenced before an arbitration board prior to the withdrawal of a state and to which the withdrawing state or any subdivision thereof is a party shall be discontinued or terminated by the withdrawal, nor shall the board thereby lose jurisdiction over any of the parties to the proceeding necessary to make a binding determination therein.

ARTICLE XI.—Effect on Other Laws and Jurisdiction

Nothing in this compact shall be construed to:

(a) Affect the power of any state or subdivision thereof to fix rates of taxation, except that a party state shall be obligated to implement article III (2) of this compact.

(b) Apply to any tax or fixed fee imposed for the registration of a motor vehicle or any tax on motor fuel, other than a sales tax: Provided, That the definition of "tax" in article VIII (9) may apply for the purposes of that article and the commission's powers of study and recommendation pursuant to article VI (3) may apply.

(c) Withdraw or limit the jurisdiction of any state or local court or administrative officer or body with respect to any person, corporation or other entity or subject matter, except to the extent that such jurisdiction is expressly conferred by or pursuant to this compact upon another agency or body.

(d) Supersede or limit the jurisdiction of any court of the United States.

ARTICLE XII.—Construction and Severability

This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining party states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.";

After applying all available credits towards the qualified taxpayer's tax delinquency, the department of revenue shall reduce the amount of outstanding delinquent tax owed by the qualified taxpayer. If any credits remain after satisfying all income, privilege, premium, sales or compensating use tax delinquencies, the remaining credits shall be issued to the qualified taxpayer. INTRODUCTION OF SENATE BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

The following Senate bills were thereupon introduced and read by title:

SB 146.

On motion of Rep. Croft, the House recessed until 1:20 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The House met pursuant to recess with Speaker pro tempore Carpenter in the chair.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

The following concurrent resolution was introduced and read by title:

By Committee on Federal and State Affairs

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION urging the Kansas Attorney General to join the efforts of other states to uphold the Constitution of the United States of America, the founding principles of Separation of Powers and the Appointments Clause and hold Elon Musk accountable for unlawful executive action.

WHEREAS, The Constitution of the United States of America provides legislative powers to a Congress, consisting of a Senate and a House of Representatives, a guiding principle that has withstood centuries since our nation's founding; and

WHEREAS, The Constitution of the United States of America states that the President "shall nominate, and by and with the Advice and Consent of the Senate, shall appoint Ambassadors, other public Ministers and Consuls, Judges of the supreme Court, and all other Officers of the United States, whose Appointments are not herein otherwise provided for, and which shall be established by Law: but the Congress may by Law vest the Appointment of such inferior Officers, as they think proper, in the President alone, in the Courts of Law, or in the Heads of Departments"; and

WHEREAS, On January 20, 2025, President Trump issued an executive order renaming the United States Digital Services to the United States Department of Government Efficiency and granted the agency expansive powers; and

WHEREAS, Since January 2025, Elon Musk, without Senate confirmation or legal appointment, has continued to exercise unprecedented executive authority by eliminating or reducing the size of federal agencies, terminating or placing federal employees on leave, canceling, freezing or pausing federal contracts, grants and other federal funding, obtaining access to, use of or making changes to federal databases and data systems and accessing confidential and classified information; and

WHEREAS, Without lawful appointment to an executive position that requires Senate confirmation, Musk has violated the Appointments Clause, and therefore, actions taken by Musk are unconstitutional; and

WHEREAS, President Trump has unilaterally vested executive powers not checked by the legislative branch of government—a founding principle of Separation of Powers—to Musk, an unelected individual; and

WHEREAS, On February 13, 2025, the attorney generals of New Mexico and 13 other states have stepped up to seek a judicial declaration that Musk's role and actions are unconstitutional, Musk should be prevented from issuing orders through federal agencies and all previous actions by Musk shall be rendered null and void; and

WHEREAS, It is in the interest of the state of Kansas and all Kansans that all actions taken at the level of federal government shall be held constitutional; and

WHEREAS, Therefore, Kansas needs to make it clear that we stand united with the other states in our nation in support of holding such actions accountable and upholding the Constitution: Now Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas, the Senate concurring therein: That the legislature strongly urges the Kansas Attorney General to join the efforts of other states to uphold the Constitution of the United States of America, the founding principles of Separation of Powers and the Appointments Clause and hold Elon Musk accountable for unlawful executive action.

A protest petition contesting the increase in property tax revenues for the taxing jurisdiction may be submitted to the county clerk within 30 days, or the next business day after if the 30th day falls on a weekend or county holiday, following the date that the governing body of a taxing jurisdiction certifies to the county clerk the amount of ad valorem tax to be levied pursuant to K.S.A. 79-1801, and amendments thereto. If a taxing jurisdiction fails to timely certify the amount of ad valorem tax to be levied pursuant to K.S.A. 79-1801, and amendments thereto, the taxing jurisdiction shall be limited to funding by property tax revenues at the maximum amount provided in subsection (b).

(2) The county clerk shall notify the county treasurer of all taxing jurisdictions that approve any appropriation or budget that provides for funding by property tax revenues in excess of the amount provided in subsection (b). The county treasurer's office shall post on the county website and social media, if such website or social media exists, and post in the county treasurer's office whether any protest petitions are available for any taxing jurisdiction within the county. The county treasurer shall also make available in

In the event that a protest petition is signed by at least 10% of the qualified voters of the votes cast for the office of president of the United States at the last general election in such taxing jurisdiction, and is filed within 30 days with the county clerk of the county, the taxing jurisdiction shall be limited to funding by property tax revenues at the maximum amount provided in subsection (b). Upon the finding that a petition protesting the increase in funding by property tax revenues was signed by less than the required number of voters, the taxing jurisdiction shall proceed with the increases in funding by property tax revenues. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply in the event the transfer provided in section 2(b), and amendments thereto, is not provided.

(3) A majority vote of the governing body, by the adoption of a resolution or ordinance to approve exceeding the funding by property tax revenues in excess of the amount provided in subsection (b), shall be required prior to adoption of a proposed budget that will result in an increase in property tax revenues for the taxing jurisdiction in excess of the amount provided in subsection (b). Such vote of the governing body shall be conducted at a public hearing and shall be a roll call vote. A copy of the resolution or ordinance to approve an increase in property tax revenues for the taxing jurisdiction in excess of the amount provided in subsection (b) and a certified copy of any roll call vote reporting, at a minimum, the name and vote of each member of the governing body shall be published on the website of the department of administration.

The county clerk shall transmit the notice to each taxpayer by mail directed to the taxpayer's last known address or by electronic means if such taxpayer and county clerk have consented in writing to service by electronic means. The notice shall be in a format prescribed by the director of accounts and reports. The notice shall include:

Such costs shall be shared proportionately by all such taxing jurisdictions that were included on the same notice based on the total property tax levied by each taxing jurisdiction. Payment of such costs shall be due to the county clerk by December 31.

(3) (A) For calendar years 2025 and 2026, if a county clerk has printing or postage costs pursuant to paragraph (1), the county clerk shall notify and provide documentation of such costs to the secretary of revenue. All transfers made in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be considered to be demand transfers from the state general fund. Commencing with the transfer on July 15, 2026, the amount to be transferred pursuant to this subsection shall be increased by 2% from the prior year's transfer.

(c) The state treasurer shall calculate the apportionment for each county based on the following: (1) 65% of the amount to be distributed shall be apportioned on the basis of the population figures of the counties certified to the secretary of state pursuant to K.S.A. 11-201, and amendments thereto, on July 1 of the preceding year; and (2) 35% of such amount shall be apportioned on the basis of the equalized assessed tangible valuations on the tax rolls of the counties on November 1 of the preceding year as certified by the director of property valuation. The county and each city contained therein, if eligible pursuant to subsection (d), shall receive a proportion of such apportionment based on the total assessed valuations used to calculate such county's and each city's ad valorem property taxes in the preceding year. The state treasurer shall send notice to every county and city by August 1 with the maximum amount of ad valorem tax to be levied to qualify pursuant to section 1(b), and amendments thereto, and the amount of payment from the acknowledging stewardship of tax revenue and appropriations (ASTRA) fund. (e) On or before January 15th following the transfer provided in subsection (b), the state treasurer shall pay the amount specified in subsection (c) to each eligible county and city. Such funds shall only be used for services, including, but not limited to, roads and bridges, law enforcement, elections, public health and safety or any other services mandated by law.

(f) If it is determined a county or city received payment and was not entitled to the payment, the county or city shall return or remit such payment to the state treasurer. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the state treasury to the credit of the state general fund.

(g) Any amounts that are not transferred because a city or county did not comply with the provisions of this act shall be deposited by the state treasurer in the state treasury to the credit of the state general fund.

(h) The state treasurer shall provide to the house committee on taxation and the senate committee on assessment and taxation on or before January 31 of each year the list of cities and counties that received a transfer from the acknowledging stewardship

"Sec. 2. K.S.A. 2024 Supp. 45-229 is hereby amended to read as follows: 45-229.
(a) It is the intent of the legislature that exceptions to disclosure under the open records act shall be created or maintained only if:

- (1) The public record is of a sensitive or personal nature concerning individuals;
- (2) the public record is necessary for the effective and efficient administration of a governmental program; or

- (3) the public record affects confidential information.

The maintenance or creation of an exception to disclosure ~~must~~ shall be compelled as measured by these criteria. Further, the legislature finds that the public has a right to have access to public records unless the criteria in this section for restricting such access to a public record are met and the criteria are considered during legislative review in connection with the particular exception to disclosure to be significant enough to override the strong public policy of open government. To strengthen the policy of open government, the legislature shall consider the criteria in this section before enacting an exception to disclosure.

(b) Subject to the provisions of subsections (g) and (h), any new exception to disclosure or substantial amendment of an existing exception shall expire on July 1 of the fifth year after enactment of the new exception or substantial amendment, unless the legislature acts to continue the exception. A law that enacts a new exception or substantially amends an existing exception shall state that the exception expires at the end of five years and that the exception shall be reviewed by the legislature before the scheduled date.

(c) For purposes of this section, an exception is substantially amended if the amendment expands the scope of the exception to include more records or information. An exception is not substantially amended if the amendment narrows the scope of the exception.

(d) This section is not intended to repeal an exception that has been amended following legislative review before the scheduled repeal of the exception if the exception is not substantially amended as a result of the review.

(e) In the year before the expiration of an exception, the revisor of statutes shall certify to the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives, by July 15, the language and statutory citation of each exception that will expire in the following year that meets the criteria of an exception as defined in this section. Any exception that is not identified and certified to the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives is not subject to legislative review and shall not expire. If the revisor of statutes fails to certify an exception that the revisor subsequently determines should have been certified, the revisor shall include the exception in the following year's certification after that determination.

(f) "Exception" means any provision of law that creates an exception to disclosure or limits disclosure under the open records act pursuant to K.S.A. 45-221, and amendments thereto, or pursuant to any other provision of law.

(g) A provision of law that creates or amends an exception to disclosure under the open records law shall not be subject to review and expiration under this act if such provision:

- (1) Is required by federal law;
- (2) applies solely to the legislature or to the state court system;
- (3) has been reviewed and continued in existence twice by the legislature;
- (4) has been reviewed and continued in existence by the legislature during the 2013 legislative session and thereafter; ~~or~~

(5) is a report of the results of an audit conducted by the United States cybersecurity and infrastructure security agency; or

- (6) is contained in the following statute: section 1(b).

(h) (1) The legislature shall review the exception before its scheduled expiration and consider as part of the review process the following:

- (A) What specific records are affected by the exception;
- (B) whom does the exception uniquely affect, as opposed to the general public;
- (C) what is the identifiable public purpose or goal of the exception;
- (D) whether the information contained in the records may be obtained readily by alternative means and how it may be obtained;

(2) an exception may be created or maintained only if it serves an identifiable public purpose and may be no broader than is necessary to meet the public purpose it serves. An identifiable public purpose is served if the legislature finds that the purpose is sufficiently compelling to override the strong public policy of open government and cannot be accomplished without the exception and if the exception:

(A) Allows the effective and efficient administration of a governmental program that would be significantly impaired without the exception;

(B) protects information of a sensitive personal nature concerning individuals, the release of such information would be defamatory to such individuals or cause unwarranted damage to the good name or reputation of such individuals or would jeopardize the safety of such individuals. Only information that would identify the individuals may be excepted under this paragraph; or

(C) protects information of a confidential nature concerning entities, including, but not limited to, a formula, pattern, device, combination of devices, or compilation of information that is used to protect or further a business advantage over those who do not know or use it, if the disclosure of such information would injure the affected entity in the marketplace.

(3) Records made before the date of the expiration of an exception shall be subject to disclosure as otherwise provided by law. In deciding whether the records shall be made public, the legislature shall consider whether the damage or loss to persons or entities uniquely affected by the exception of the type specified in paragraph (2)(B) or (2)(C) would occur if the records were made public.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: We vote "Yes" on HR 6016. We stand in total support of God, Catholics, all Christians and others of the same will against this sacrilegious and blasphemous event. Satanists specifically state this event is meant to mock the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, the highest form of Catholic worship. Desecrating a consecrated host, which Catholics believe is the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus. No Christian faith is respected or protected by this heinous action. We respectfully submit our support for this resolution. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. — RON BRYCE, BRAD BARRETT, RICK WILBORN, DAN GODDARD, DUANE DROGE, JOE SEIWERT, DALE HELWIG, ROBYN ESSEX, DOUG BLEX, LISA MOSER, KYLE McNORTON, SHERRI BRANTLEY, ANGELA STIENS, CARL TURNER, REBECCA SCHMOE, WILL CARPENTER, CHIP VANHOUDEN, DAVID BUEHLER, CARRIE BARTH, MIKE THOMPSON, CHARLES E. SMITH, MEGAN D. STEELE, FRANCIS AWERKAMP, SCOTT HILL, MARTY LONG, JESSE BORJON, GARY WHITE, JIM MINNIX, KRISTEY WILLIAMS, BRETT FAIRCHILD, PAT PROCTOR, BLAKE CARPENTER, NICK HOHEISEL, ADAM SMITH, BARB WASINGER, ANGEL ROESER, KEN CORBET, BILL BLOOM, TIM JOHNSON, RICK JAMES, BRIAN BERGKAMP, LANCE NEELLY, KEN COLLINS, CLARKE SANDERS, SHAWN CHAUNCEY, ALLEN REAVIS, SEAN WILLCOTT, SAMANTHA POETTER PARSHALL, PAUL WAGGONER, FRED GARDNER, KEN RAHJES, SUSAN ESTES

MR. SPEAKER: I rise in support of HR 6016. Above all, I vote yes out of love and reverence for our creator God, creator of all things. And for the only Son of God who shed his lifeblood for the sins of his creation, having no sin himself. He offered his mercy and grace to all who receive him, for the remission of sin. Jesus said, "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." Please vote yes on HR 6016. Thank you Mr. Speaker. — EMIL BERGQUIST, PAT PROCTOR, JILL WARD, DAWN WOLF, DAVE BUEHLER, MIKE THOMPSON, LON PISHNEY, JASON GOETZ, SUSAN HUMPHRIES

MR. SPEAKER: With freedom comes great responsibility. Unfortunately, some people take license with their freedoms and try and hide behind the First Amendment to justify their illegal and immoral acts. Theft, vandalism and the destruction of property is not speech. The Word of God tells us that we should fear, love and trust in God above all things. Additionally, we should fear and love God so that we do not curse, swear, use satanic arts, lie, or deceive by His name, but call upon it in every trouble, pray, praise, and give thanks. I vote Yea on HR 6016. — STEVEN HOWE, KEVIN SCHWERTFEGER.

MR. SPEAKER: I fully support our Constitutional First Amendment rights. I affirm the right of any group, religious or otherwise to express their views. That said, I do not condone one group mocking the fundamental beliefs and rituals of another for mockery's sake. It is distasteful, hurtful and demeaning. I will always stand in solidarity with those who are mocked and demeaned, whether they belong to a large or small group, thus I vote YES on HR 6016. — NIKKI McDONALD, SUZANNE WIKLE

MR. SPEAKER I vote YES on HR 6016: I STRONGLY support the right of this group or anyone else to protest and exercise their first amendment rights. This resolution in no way denies their right to do so. But this doesn't mean that I agree or like what they are saying or doing; no group should mock the sacred beliefs and practices of another. While they have the 1st Amendment right to do so, I stand in solidarity with Roman Catholics, as I will stand with the adherents of any other religious or other group similarly mocked. — TOM SAWYER, TOBIAS SCHLINGENSIEPEN, KIRK HASKINS

MR. SPEAKER I vote NO on HB 2318: We should be cutting property taxes not going to a flat income tax. We already cut income taxes by over $200 million last year. Our constituents want us to cut property taxes. Passage of this bill will make it impossible for us to cut property taxes for many years. – TOM SAWYER

MR. SPEAKER: I vote No on HB 2318. The hardest thing I ever had to do in this body is to cut budgets year after year due to the 2012 tax experiment which drastically cut corporate tax rates. We delayed payments to KPERS through KSDE, increased cigarette and sales taxes, transferred millions from the highway plan, borrowed every year from the PMIB, ruined our credit rating, eliminated state employees, cut the departments of Commerce and Agriculture, and took hundreds of millions in Annual Certificates of Indebtedness. We cut TANF eligibility and left the federal payments in the state general fund. The public took charge and elected new members that would vote to repeal that tax experiment and brought us back to financial health, raised our credit rating and allowed us to restore our state to financial health. Now we need to give back to the everyday Kansans. – SYDNEY CARLIN

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on Senate Bill 44. The Kansas Promise Scholarship Program is an important program that I fully support. I cannot support the expansion of the program to include for-profit institution because this change stands to divert dollars from our public institutions. For profit institutions often charge substantially more for the same education, certification, and degrees that our public universities offer for less money. I vote no on this expansion to profit institutions.—SUZANNE WIKLE, NIKKI McDONALD, ALEXIS SIMMONS, HENRY HELGERSON

FORTY-SEVENTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Hawkins in the chair.

Present later: Rep. Poetter Parshall.

Excused later: Reps. Bloom and Poetter Parshall.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father. We welcome a new day with new opportunities of service.

Help us to be good stewards of all events, situations and service opportunities which come our way. Open our minds to new and fresh ways of processing the legislative duties which we will undertake today.

As each of our colleagues do the same, give us O Lord,

I pray, a spirit of cooperation and respect for divergent views.

In the Old Testament Book of Deuteronomy we read,

” And now, what does The Lord your God require of you, but to fear the Lord your God, to walk in all His ways and love Him, and to serve the Lord your God with all your heart and all your soul.”

We have gathered in this chamber of debate and legislation, because we have felt and answered the call of service.

Remind us, O Lord, when we serve others, we are in reality serving everyone of Your creation.

When we recognize and assist the downtrodden, the less fortunate, the homeless and the hopeless, we are indeed serving all the People of Kansas, regardless of political persuasion.

Yes Lord, when we reach out to those who are hurting in our midst, and give credence to their plight,

we are not only serving Your creation but also serving You.

And if we notice and pay attention to those others look beyond, we are many times looking into Your face. Once again, help us to be good stewards of the position and responsibilities placed before us.

Allow Your peace to guide all their decisions.

I ask this in Jesus Name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Osman.
