

My testimony for Marvin Robinson Memorial Highway

- Marvin his life in service to others:
 - Youth he help prepare Sunday School literature for shipping
 - Help maintain his church – lawn care, snow removal and cleaning
 - In his early teens began to help local politicians in their campaigns passing out flyers
 - During his Junior and High School years he added his school participation
 - After high school he began higher education journey at Emporia State University and Princeton University involvement in Black Students Union. Where he became aware of the Harriet Tubman, The Underground Railroad, and the sufferings of escape slaves into the area of Quindaro. His family personal connection to that suffering.
 - Marvin was a Honorably Discharged Veterans of The United States Navy . After his service to our Great Nation, he returned to the Quindaro area.
- A.) Helping:
- B.) senior citizens protect and maintain their homes
- C.) The inappropriately place landfills
- D.) Veteran secure their VA benefits. He was a real advocate for veterans.

But Marvin's heart was The Quindaro Ruins.

From Parkville, MO. Thru Welborn, from The Kanas Indian Tribes throughout the the Midwest and beyond. From the historic Nicodemmus, Kansas and back to historic Leavenworth, Kansas. Representative Marvin S. Robinson's Contribution to the preservation and economic development of Quindaro and Kansas City, Kansas is priceless. He everything he had plus.
