To: Senate Committee on Government Efficiency

From: Office of Revisor of Statutes

Date: February 5, 2025

Senate Bill No. 77 requires state agencies prior to revoking rules and regulations to provide written notice to businesses, local governmental units and members of the public known to the agency to be affected by proposed revocation. The bill also removes certain abolished or inactive agencies from the five-year agency review of rules and regulations requirement.

The bill becomes effective upon publication in the Kansas register.
