§ 8: Organization and sessions. The legislature shall meet in regular session annually commencing on the second Monday in January, and all sessions shall be held at the state capital. The duration of regular sessions held in even-numbered years shall not exceed ninety calendar days. Such sessions may be extended beyond ninety calendar days by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. Bills and concurrent resolutions under consideration by the legislature upon adjournment of a regular session held in an odd-numbered year may be considered at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year, as if there had been no such adjournment.

The legislature shall be organized concurrently with the terms of representatives except that the senate shall remain organized during the terms of senators. The president of the senate shall preside over the senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives shall preside over the house of representatives. A majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified of the house of representatives or the senate shall constitute a quorum of that house. Neither house, without the consent of the other, shall adjourn for more than two days, Sundays excepted. Each house shall elect its presiding officer and determine the rules of its proceedings, except that the two houses may adopt joint rules on certain matters and provide for the manner of change thereof. Each house shall provide for the expulsion or censure of members in appropriate cases. Each house shall be the judge of elections, returns and qualifications of its own members.

Such statements shall be made either immediately before or immediately after the vote is called but before the result is announced. The question on excusing any Senator from voting shall be taken without debate and a majority of those voting shall be necessary to excuse the Senator. (b) A request for division of question shall be in writing specifying the manner in which the question is to be divided.

(c) The rejection of a motion to strike out and insert one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and insert another proposition, nor prevent a subsequent motion simply to strike out; nor shall the rejection of a motion simply to strike out prevent a subsequent motion to strike out and insert.

Rule 28. Reconsideration of Pending Matters. When a question has been once put and decided it shall be in order for any Senator who voted with the prevailing side to move for a reconsideration thereof, but no motion for reconsideration of any vote shall be in order after the bill, resolution, message, report, amendment or motion, upon which the vote was taken, shall have gone out of the possession of the Senate, nor shall any motion for reconsideration be in order unless made on the same day on which the vote was taken or the next legislative day. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

Rule 29. Previous Questions. Ten Senators shall have the right to move the previous question on any bill, resolution, message, report, amendment, or motion. If the previous question is decided in the affirmative by a majority vote of those present, the main question shall be put without further amendment or debate. If amendments are pending a motion for the previous question shall concern only the last amendment that is pending on which, if the previous question is adopted, the debate will be closed only upon such amendment. Each bill or resolution appearing on the Consent Calendar shall remain thereon for at least two full legislative days before being considered under the order of business Final Action. At any time prior to the call for the vote under the order of business Final Action on a bill or resolution on the Consent Calendar, any member may object to the same as being controversial and the same shall be stricken from the Consent Calendar and take its place on General Orders in the usual order. If no such objection is made prior to the call for such vote on the bill or resolution, it shall be voted upon with other bills and resolutions under the order of business Final Action but before consideration of other bills or resolutions appearing on the calendar under such order of business.

Rule 34. Final Action on Bills and Concurrent Resolutions. On final action on any bill or concurrent resolution, the reading clerk shall read the title, except citations to

Rules 14

No debate shall be allowed, and no motion shall be in order except the motion for a call of the Senate, unless in case where a bill has been ordered to be placed on final action subject to amendment, or to amendment and debate or unless by the unanimous consent of the Senate, amendments may be made and considered. Like procedure shall apply to concurrent resolutions except that the question put shall be: "Shall the resolution be adopted?" On final action, bills and resolutions may be bulked together for roll call unless objection be made by any Senator.

Rule 35. Final Passage by Yeas and Nays. The question upon the final passage of a bill and every concurrent resolution for amendment of the constitution of Kansas or ratification of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States shall be taken by a roll call vote of the yeas and nays, which shall be entered on the Journal, and unless the bill or concurrent resolution receives the number of votes required by the constitution to pass it, it shall be declared lost, except in cases provided for in Rule 36 (relating to the absence of a quorum).

If the committee report is not adopted, the bill or resolution, without committee amendments, shall be considered section by section, and as each section is considered amendments from the floor are in order to that section. After a section has been considered, no amendment thereto shall be in order until the whole bill or resolution has been read through. After the original bill or resolution, together with standing committee amendments, has been considered section by section the chairperson shall announce "Amendments to the bill (or resolution) generally are in order," and amendments not before offered may be made to any part of the bill or resolution. A motion to amend the bill or resolution shall not be in order while a motion to strike the enacting clause or resolving clause is pending.

Rule 43. Amendments. (1) Amendments to bills shall be germane to the subject of the bill being amended, and the fact that an amendment is to a section in the same chapter of the Kansas Statutes Annotated as an existing section in the bill shall not automatically render the amendment germane. Whenever the House adopts amendments to a Senate bill or senate concurrent resolution which materially changes its subject, upon return of such bill or resolution to the Senate, the title of such bill or resolution shall be read in the manner prescribed for the introduction of bills or resolutions and such bill or resolution shall be referred as provided in Rule 32 (reference of bills and resolutions).

Rule 74. Determination of When Subject of Bill or Resolution Materially Changed. The President may determine when a bill or resolution is subject to Rule 72 (subject matter of bill or resolution materially changed by senate amendment) or Rule 73 (subject matter of senate bill or senate concurrent resolution materially changed by house amendment). The President's determination under this rule, that a bill or resolution has been materially changed is subject to an appeal to the Senate by any member. A 2/3 vote of the members of the Senate present and voting shall be required to overturn the ruling of the chair. The vote on an appeal to the Senate under this rule shall not be a roll call vote. Every appeal under this rule shall be taken without debate.

Rule 75. Executive Reorganization Orders. When an executive reorganization order is received from the Governor, it shall be referred to an appropriate committee by the President. The committee to which an executive reorganization order is referred shall report its recommendations thereon, by recommending adoption of a Senate resolution, not later than the 60th calendar day of any regular session and not later than 30 calendar days after it has received such referral whichever occurs first. In such event, the President shall appoint a select committee for consideration thereof composed of five Senators, no more than three of whom shall be members of the same political party, and none of whom shall have signed the complaint to be considered. The select committee may dismiss the complaint after inquiry or may set the matter for hearing. Reasonable notice and an opportunity to appear shall be afforded the Senator against whom a complaint has been filed. Select committees meeting under authority of this section shall be authorized to meet and exercise compulsory process without further authorization, subject only to the limitations and conditions prescribed in article 10 of chapter 46 of Kansas Statutes Annotated. Upon completing its hearing and deliberations thereon the select committee may dismiss the complaint or may submit a recommendation to the full Senate for censure or expulsion, and upon receiving such report the Senate may without further hearing or investigation censure or expel the member against whom the complaint was filed. Censure or expulsion of a Senator under this rule shall require a 2/3 majority vote of those members elected (or appointed) and qualified.

JOINT RULES OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES 2025-2026

Joint Rule 1. Joint rules; application and date of expiration; adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation.

Joint rules are adopted under the authority of section 8 of article 2 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas and shall govern matters made subject thereto except when otherwise specifically provided by joint rule. Joint rules shall expire at the conclusion of the terms of representatives. Joint rules shall be adopted, amended, suspended and revoked by concurrent resolution of the two houses of the legislature. Concurrent resolutions adopting joint rules shall receive the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house.

After one day's previous notice, joint rules may be amended, suspended or revoked by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house. Upon the filing of such notice in either house, a message shall be sent to the other house advising of the filing of such notice and the reading of the message shall constitute notice to the members of such house. If such previous notice is not given, the affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house shall be required for the amendment, suspension or revocation of a joint rule.

(c) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules at commencement of legislative session; vote required; conditions.

Notwithstanding any provision of this rule to the contrary, no notice shall be required for the adoption of a concurrent resolution amending, suspending or revoking any one or more joint rules at the commencement of a legislative session, and adoption of any such concurrent resolution shall require only the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, subject to the following conditions: (1) The concurrent resolution is sponsored by the speaker or the president; and (2) either: (a) A copy thereof is mailed to each member of the legislature by deposit in the United States mails not later than 11:00 p.m. on the Thursday preceding the Monday on which the legislative session is to commence; or (b) in lieu of mailing, copies of the concurrent resolution are made available to members on the first day of the legislative session and final action is taken on a subsequent legislative day.

Joint Rule 2. Joint sessions.

(a) Joint session called by concurrent resolution; vote required; time, place and subject matter.

A joint session of the senate and house of representatives may be called by concurrent resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house of the legislature or as may otherwise be prescribed by law. Any such resolution shall fix the time and place of the joint session, and the subject matter to be considered at the joint session. Joint sessions shall consider only such matters as are prescribed by law or by the concurrent resolution calling such joint session.

The speaker of the house of representatives shall preside at all joint sessions of the senate and house of representatives, and the clerk of the house of representatives shall keep a record of the proceedings thereof and shall enter the record of each such session in the journal of the house of representatives. The rules of the house of representatives and the joint rules of the two houses, insofar as the same may be applicable shall be the rules for joint sessions of the two houses.

(c) Votes in joint session; taking; requirements.

All votes in a joint session shall be taken by yeas and nays, and in taking the same it shall be the duty of the secretary of the senate first to call the names of the members of the senate, and after which the clerk of the house of representatives shall in like manner call the names of the members of the house. Each member of the senate and the house of representatives present shall be required to vote on all matters considered in joint session, unless excused by a vote of a majority of the members of both houses present.

Joint Rule 3. Conference committee procedure.

(a) Action by house of origin of bill or concurrent resolution amended by other house.

When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned to the house of origin with amendments by the other house, the house of origin may: (1) Concur in such amendments; (2) refuse to concur in such amendments; or (3) refuse to concur in such amendments and request a conference on the bill or concurrent resolution.

(b) Concurrence by house of origin; concurrence prior to taking action on conference committee report by other house; final action; effect of failure of motion to concur.

The house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution may concur in any amendments made by the other house, except that if the bill or concurrent resolution has been referred to a conference committee such action may only be taken prior to the taking of final action upon the conference committee report upon such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house shall be considered action on the final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has been appointed and action has not been taken upon the report of such committee by the other house and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and the motion to concur may be renewed but not on the same legislative day. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has not been appointed and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(c) Motion to nonconcur; when considered final action; effect of adoption of motion.

A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to nonconcur or to refuse to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house which is not coupled with a request for the appointment of a conference committee shall be considered action on final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal, and the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed killed on the adoption thereof.

When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned by either house to the house of origin with amendments, and the house of origin refuses to concur or to nonconcur therein, a conference may be requested by a majority vote of the members present and voting. Such request shall be transmitted to the other house by message which shall include the names of the conferees on the part of the requesting house. Upon receipt of any such message, the receiving house may, in like manner, approve such conference, and shall thereupon notify the requesting house by message stating the names of its conferees.

(e) Membership; appointment; chairperson; house of origin of substitute or materially changed bill or concurrent resolution; meetings of conference committee.

Each conference committee shall consist of three members of the senate and three members of the house of representatives, unless otherwise fixed by agreement of the president of the senate and speaker of the house. Senate members shall be appointed by the president of the senate and house members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The president or the speaker may replace any conferee previously appointed by such person. Not fewer than one member appointed from each house shall be a member of the minority political party of such house except when such representation for such house is waived by the minority leader of such house. In all cases, the first-named member of the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution assigned to the committee shall be chairperson of the conference committee. The house of origin of a substitute bill or substitute concurrent resolution shall be the house in which the bill or concurrent resolution in its original form was introduced. The chairperson of a conference committee on a bill or concurrent resolution the subject matter of which has been ruled to be materially changed shall be a member of the house which amended the bill or concurrent resolution to materially change the subject matter. Each conference committee shall meet on the call of its chairperson. All meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be adjourned to another time or place in order to subvert such policy.

(f) Conference committee reports; matters which may be included; report not subject to amendment; house which acts first on report; copies of reports; reports considered under any order of business.

Only subject matters which are or have been included in the bill or concurrent resolution in conference or in bills or concurrent resolutions which have been passed or adopted in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution except in any appropriations bill there may be included a proviso relating to any such item of appropriation.

Subject to any limitations imposed under the constitution of the state of Kansas, no more than a total of four additional bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions in conference or bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions which have passed in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution.

A conference committee report shall not be subject to amendment.

The original signed conference committee report shall be submitted to and acted upon first by the house other than the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution. Except when a conference committee report is an agree to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed or is a recommendation to accede to or recede from all amendments of the second house, electronic and paper copies of the report shall be made available to all members of the house considering the report not later than 30 minutes before the time of its consideration, except that if the report is more than six pages in length no paper copies will be required to be distributed to individual members provided that at least 10 paper copies of the report are made available to members at the clerk's or secretary's desk at the front of the respective house. By written notice, the majority leader may direct the clerk or secretary to increase from six pages to some greater number of pages the size of conference committee reports that need not be distributed by paper copies to individual members pursuant to this rule. The affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the house at the time of consideration of the report shall be sufficient to dispense with distribution of copies of the conference committee report to all members of that house. Reports of conference committees may be received and considered under any order of business.

(g) Signatures required on conference committee reports.

All initial conference committee reports other than an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by all of the conferees. All initial conference committee reports which are an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. If a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is not adopted, a subsequent conference committee report shall be signed by all conferees unless a subsequent conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is adopted, in which case a conference committee report subsequent to the adoption of such report shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. All other conference committee reports shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house.

(h) Vote to adopt conference committee report final action; effect of failure of motion to adopt conference committee report.

The vote to adopt the report of a conference committee, other than a report of failure to agree coupled with a recommendation for appointment of a new conference committee, shall be considered final action on the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed. If the motion on a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and remains in conference.

(i) Report of conference committee unable to agree; effect of failure to request new conference committee; effect of failure of motion to adopt report requesting new conference committee.

If a conference committee upon any bill or concurrent resolution is unable to agree, it shall report that fact to both houses. Such report may request that a new conference committee be appointed thereon. If the committee so reports but fails to request the appointment of a new conference committee thereon, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to have been killed upon the adoption by either house of such report. If the motion to adopt a report requesting the appointment of a new conference committee fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(j) Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by conference committees and reports thereof; carryover from odd-numbered to even-numbered year.

Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by a conference committee, or a report of which has been filed but no action taken thereon in either house, at the time of adjournment of a regular session of the legislature held in an odd-numbered year shall remain alive during the interim and may be considered by the committee and legislature as the case may be at the regular session held in the following even-numbered year.

FIRST DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, January 13, 2025, 2:00 p.m.

In accordance with the provisions of the Constitution of the State of Kansas and KSA 46-142(d), the 2025 Session of the Kansas Legislature was called to order by Secretary of State, Scott Schwab.

The roll was called from the certified list of members-elect, with forty members-elect present.

The Secretary recognized Doug Henkle, to deliver the invocation.

Heavenly Father, as this legislative session begins, I lift up to You the Kansas Senate of 2025. I thank You for each member of this distinguished body. Every senator is here by Your Divine hand in order to accomplish Your perfect plan for the people of Kansas. Each member has a critical role to play as the task is addressed.

You've blessed them with all they need to accomplish that which You have called them to do. In Your Word You guide us saying, "Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight." Lord, we tend to trust ourselves rather than You, to rely on our own abilities and good intentions instead of Your sovereign goodness and loving care. Remind us to trust in You alone.

For You are sovereign and have total, clear perspective. You never make a mistake. You possess the ability to bring everything to a purposeful conclusion and an ultimate goal. What a blessing to rest in Your warm embrace and to know that You love us and care about every detail of our lives. Thank You for personally caring about those things that concern us. Thank You for caring about them even more than we do.

As we face challenging times in our state and nation, we know, Lord, that You are our rock. I especially pray for those in California who have lost their earthly possessions to fires and for those fighting the fires. Protect them and hold them close. Remind them that, despite the circumstances, they are still Your personal concern and that they never disappear from Your radar screen.

We trust our state to Your loving care, Lord. Send Your Spirit to touch the hearts of each of our state's leaders. I thank You that You can be their standard. I pray that You would be the mark toward which they strive. Give them the wisdom to know what is right, and the courage to do it.

Father, give our governor Your wisdom as she leads the executive branch of our state government. I lift up to You President Masterson, Vice President Shallenburger, Majority Leader Blasi and Minority Leader Sykes. Give them Your direction as together, they lead this chamber through the 2025 legislative session. In Jesus' Name, Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Secretary Schwab.

Secretary Schwab appointed Corey Carnahan to serve as temporary Secretary of the Senate until such time as a permanent Secretary is appointed.

Secretary Schwab requested the reader to call the roll of the Senate from the certified list of members-elect as submitted by the Secretary of State and recorded in the preorganizational meeting on December 2, 2024.

Forty members-elect were present.

TY MASTERSON

DAN BILES
Justice of the Supreme Court

REMARKS FROM THE PRESIDENT

Thank you for your confidence in me to serve as your Senate President. It is a tremendous honor to lead this body once again. Every four years, we are blessed with this unique opportunity to begin anew, to focus on policy rather than politics, to come together and build a better future for all Kansans.

I also want to congratulate each and every one of you for being elected to represent the people of your individual district as leaders within this beautiful and historic chamber. Each of us has a unique story, and those stories form unique perspectives which will bring critical value to our deliberations.

Of course, we also have varying levels of experience here in the State Capitol. Some of us have been here for several terms, some are arriving from across the rotunda, and several are completely brand new to the process. The people of Kansas will be well served by this diverse expertise and experience. The Kansas Senate is a deliberative body that thrives when we listen to one another, spend time with one another, and even if we disagree, seek to understand where the other is coming from. This approach to service enriches us and the people we serve. I also want to thank my family. I love all of you dearly and simply would not be in this seat today if not for your incredible support every step of the way. They are all very familiar with the campaign trail, even from a young age, and have had to be my defender. I have watched each of them face and overcome a significant life challenge with courage and I am so proud of each one.

A debt of gratitude must be extended to ALL of our families who are in attendance today or watching and listening online. We would simply not be able to do the jobs we do here if not for your love and support. Thank you. I'm also thankful for our staff, both leadership staff as well as our Senate secretary and our clerks, and our Sargeant-of-Arms and his team, all of our administrative assistants and everyone who makes this building function from revisors to research to even those in the cafe. Please get to know them and take time to thank them!

Every four years, we're also reminded of our traditions that make our state and nation thrive. Our Constitutions, both federal and state. This beautiful State Capitol and the absolute honor it is to work here. The peaceful transfer of power and the rich traditions which we should never take for granted. The ability to engage in respectful and passionate debates about the issues that come before us. And most of all, the people whom we serve, in every corner of our state, who simply want to know their government is putting them first. Make no mistake, our debates will sometimes be passionate, and they should be. We are making important decisions that impact the lives of the people we serve. There will be tough debates, difficult votes, and moments we disagree. Four years ago, I asked the body to think of several words as we embark on our work: Wisdom. Discernment. Respect. Prudence. Civility. Integrity. Humility. If we remember these important attributes as we debate, it will serve us well and serve Kansans well.

Thank you again for the trust you have placed in me and I look forward to working together for the citizens of our great state. God bless you all.—SENATOR MASTERSON

REMARKS FROM THE MINORITY LEADER

Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, staff, members of the press, and my fellow Kansans: we gather again to serve our neighbors as we start the 2025 legislative session. Mr. President, on behalf of the Senate Democratic Caucus, congratulations on your re-election as President of the Kansas Senate. Congratulations to the other Senate Republicans representing your caucus in their positions of leadership.

To my fellow Democratic Senators: thank you for trusting me to lead the caucus over the next four years. Welcome to the new members of the Kansas Senate. I'm pleased to welcome our new Democratic Senator, Patrick Schmidt: we look forward to you joining in the proud tradition of service. Welcome to my new Republican colleagues. I look forward to learning your stories and understanding what motivates you to work together for all the people of Kansas.

To our families and friends joining us in person or watching online, thank you for your support. Thank you especially to my family for your love and support. Jeffrey, William, and Tyler: we've walked down this path together since my first run for office. I know the sacrifices we've all made to serve our neighbors. I'm deeply thankful for each of you. As a moment of personal pride, Congratulations to William for graduating from college (a semester early) this past December.

Today, we celebrate the hard-working people of Kansas. We are a people who work hard to provide a better future for our children. We are a people who believe in the opportunity for each of us to take our God-given talents and develop them to build a strong future for families and our communities. We are a people who, given a chance; take that opportunity and make a difference.

Like many other states in our great nation, we face challenges. While we work hard, often that hard work benefits shareholders and corporations leaving workers and their families behind. Senate Democrats support policies that generate good jobs that provide wages that allow families to get ahead. I look forward to collaborating on policies that reward workers and help them put food on the table and care for their families.

I'm proud of how Kansans understand that families thrive in communities. Kansans show up for each other. We all know what it is like to help a neighbor. We cheer on each other's kids. We celebrate the examples of leaders like President Jimmy Carter who embodied a faith that valued every person as neighbor: both close to home and across the world. He dedicated his life to making the United States live up to our ideals of justice and equality.

Justice and equality is allowing every person the opportunity to meet their God-given potential. We know that starts with the very earliest days of each child's life. Investing early in developing a child's potential pays dividends for a lifetime. Our children are our most valuable resource.

Beyond those early days, Kansans understand the critical role education plays in our children's lives. It is so important to us as a state that we put it in our constitution. We know the community pride we have around our public schools that are often the anchor of our communities. That importance isn't a rural, urban, or even a suburban issue. As we look to support strong educational outcomes, we must choose policies that help every single Kansas child.

We must support our educators and ensure they have what they need as they invest their lives in our children. We've worked to bring funding for education to constitutionally acceptable levels. That work is not yet finished. We must not turn back now, and we must fully fund special education.

Together, those of us elected by voters, have an opportunity to address issues that make a real difference in people's lives. We could be distracted by culture wars, but doing that only divides us. Kansans want us to partner together to make this state the best place to live, work, and raise a family.

Mr. President, my Senate colleagues, the issues Kansas faces are not red, or blue. We must honor the people who sent us here. They expect us to roll up our sleeves, check our egos at the door and work to make things better for all residents of our state.

Senate Democrats are ready to set aside ideological agendas to serve the needs of every Kansan. We hope you will join us in that honest and honorable work.—SENATOR SYKES

SECOND DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, January 14, 2025, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Ty Masterson.

The roll was called with 39 senators present.

Senator J.R. Claeys was excused.

President Masterson introduced guest chaplain, Doug Henkle who delivered the following invocation:

Almighty God, I come before Your throne this afternoon on behalf of our brother, Chaplain Cecil Washington. Lord, grant him relief from the pain caused by a herniated disc. Give those caring for him wisdom. May their treatment be successful, that he would return to service in this chamber soon.

Father, thank You for the warm rich time with family and friends yesterday as members were sworn in and this body was organized and prepared to conduct the business of our state. I ask that the spirit of goodwill and cooperation realized on day one would continue through day ninety despite political and legislative differences.

Thank You for each Senator here today. Lord, I ask that You build and strengthen this chamber with relationships that honor You. I pray that You would cause a bond of common purpose to unite this body. Keep us from quarrels and angry disputes, injuring otherwise friendly relations. May we not think more of ourselves than we ought.

I pray that You would bless the committee chairs, vice-chairs and ranking minorities as their work has begun. Give them clarity of mind and Your direction as they lead their committees. As hearings are held, I pray for each conferee offering testimony before each committee. I ask that their testimony be clear, concise, and accurate and that it would lead to sound decisions that would honor You, blessing all Kansans.

At the end of the day, cause us to reflect not on what we gained or lost personally, but by what we accomplished for the people of Kansas in this legislative body, the Kansas Senate. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Masterson.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Tim Shallenburger.

The roll was called with 38 senators present.

Senators J.R. Claeys and Titus were excused.

Vice President Shallenburger introduced guest chaplain, Doug Henkle who delivered the following invocation:

Lord God, I ask that You fill this chamber with Your spirit of hope in anticipation of what You will do in this 2025 legislative session in and through the Kansas Senate for Your glory and the betterment of all Kansans.

Cause these Senators to value the days together and the opportunity for relationships developed here, within the caucuses and across the aisle, despite differing perspectives regarding the matters at hand. Give each Senator an appreciation for the uniqueness of one another and for the different approaches to the legislation before them.

Heavenly Father, You care about the debate that will occur on the floor of this chamber in the weeks ahead. I pray that You would cause a bond of common purpose, the welfare of the citizens of Kansas, to unite this body and that Your peace, which is far beyond our understanding, would be over the Kansas Senate today and in the days ahead. Cause these senators to argue strongly held, differing positions in a diplomatic and honorable way to the best of their ability, striving for mutually satisfactory resolution.

I, again, lift up Chaplain Washington to You. Father, please heal his body and ease his pain. I pray for President Masterson, Vice President Shallenburger, Majority Leader Blasi and Minority Leader Sykes. Give them Your wisdom, insight, and direction as they lead this chamber.

SIXTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, January 21, 2025, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Ty Masterson.
The roll was called with 37 senators present.
Senators J.R. Claeys, Clifford and Schmidt were excused.
President Masterson introduced guest chaplain, Doug Henkle who delivered the following invocation:

Father God, please remind us today that this is the day that You have made. Cause us to rejoice and be glad in it. Lord Jesus, fill this chamber with Your peace as we embrace the opportunity to meet the challenges of the day. Thank You that You are the Prince of Peace.

Heavenly Father, we know that peace doesn't mean "easy." You never promised easy; You promised help. In fact, You told us to expect tribulation and trials. You also said that, if we called on You, that You would give us the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension. Peace, which is the spiritual harmony brought about by our reconciliation with You through Jesus.

In a world filled with war and violence, it's difficult to see how You could be the all-powerful God who acts in human history and are the embodiment of peace. But physical safety and political harmony don't necessarily reflect the kind of peace Your Son, Jesus, talked about. He told us, "Peace I leave with you; My peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you." Jesus, fill us this session, to the brim with Your peace. Peace with You and peace with one another.

Father, thank You for the orderly and peaceful change of administrations yesterday. I bring before Your throne this afternoon our new president. Bless him. Give him tremendous wisdom, discernment, and peace as he leads our nation. Hold our former president close. Guide him as he moves into a new phase of life. Give our governor Your direction as she leads the executive branch of our government and use her, that Your Devine will for our state would be accomplished. I pray for President Masterson, Vice President Shallenburger, Majority Leader Blasi, and Minority Leader Sykes as they lead this chamber. Give them Your peace, Your wisdom and discernment. In Jesus' Name Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Masterson.

Rule 36. No Quorum on Final Vote – Effect. If, on taking the vote on final action on a bill or concurrent resolution, it shall appear that a quorum is not present, then the bill or concurrent resolution shall retain its place on the Calendar and shall again be considered for final action when that order of business is again taken up by the Senate.

Rule 38. Call of Senate – When Made – How Enforced. When a call is demanded, the President shall order the doors of the Senate to be closed and all members to be in their seats unless excused by the President. The President shall direct the Secretary to call the roll of the Senators and note the absentees, after which the names of the absentees shall be again called, and those for whose absence no sufficient excuse is given may be sent for and taken into custody by the Sergeant at Arms, or by Assistant Sergeants at Arms appointed for the purpose, and brought before the bar of the Senate, where unless excused by a majority of the Senators present, they shall be reprovved by the President for the neglect of duty.

If the committee report is not adopted, the bill or resolution, without committee amendments, shall be considered section by section, and as each section is considered amendments from the floor are in order to that section. After a section has been considered, no amendment thereto shall be in order until the whole bill or resolution has been read through. After the original bill or resolution, together with standing committee amendments, has been considered section by section the chairperson shall announce "Amendments to the bill (or resolution) generally are in order," and amendments not before offered may be made to any part of the bill or resolution. A motion to amend the bill or resolution shall not be in order while a motion to strike the enacting clause or resolving clause is pending.

Rule 43. Amendments. (1) Amendments to bills shall be germane to the subject of the bill being amended, and the fact that an amendment is to a section in the same chapter of the Kansas Statutes Annotated as an existing section in the bill shall not automatically render the amendment germane. Those portions of a motion to amend a bill as described in this subsection shall be indivisible.

Rule 44. Report of Committee of the Whole Subject to Amendment – Time for. The report of the Committee of the Whole is subject to amendment to correctly reflect what has occurred in the Committee of the Whole by motions made at the time the report is offered for adoption by the Senate. Journal of the Senate

SEVENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, January 22, 2025, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Ty Masterson.

The roll was called with 39 senators present.

J.R. Claeys was excused.

President Masterson introduced guest chaplain, Doug Henkle who delivered the following invocation:

Jesus, so often we talk about the "power of prayer," not perceiving that the power is not in the prayer but in the One to Whom we pray and in Whose Name we pray, Yours. Jesus, You taught Your disciples to pray and the prayer You taught them has been recited billions of times over the centuries. Lord, often we struggle to apply the words of Your prayer to the daily challenges we face in life's journey and I wonder:

Can we say OUR if our lives don't have room for others and their needs?

Can we say FATHER if we don't live out that relationship in our daily lives?

Can we say WHO ART IN HEAVEN if our interests and commitments are on earthly things?

Can we say HALLOWED BE THY NAME if our lives don't honor and glorify You?

Can we say THY KINGDOM COME if we don't have Your kingdom growing in our hearts, our lives, and in our homes, state and nation?

Can we say THY WILL BE DONE if we are unwilling to have Your will manifested in our lives?

Can we say ON EARTH AS IT IS IN HEAVEN unless we are truly willing to bring You everything in our lives today?

Can we say GIVE US THIS DAY OUR DAILY BREAD when we are ignoring the needs of our brothers and sisters? Can we say FORGIVE US OUR TRESPASSES AS WE FORGIVE THOSE WHO TRESPASS AGAINST US if we harbor a grudge toward anyone?

Can we say LEAD US NOT INTO TEMPTATION if we deliberately choose to remain in situations that tempt us?

Can we say DELIVER US FROM EVIL if we are not willing to fight evil with the weapons of the Word and prayer?

Can we say THINE IS THE KINGDOM if we are not willing to be the King's loyal subjects?

Can we say THINE IS THE POWER if we fear what those around us will say or do?

Can we say THINE IS THE GLORY if we seek our own glory above Yours?

Can we say FOREVER AND EVER if we are anxious about the affairs of each day?

Can we say AMEN unless we can agree that, whatever the cost to our lives, this is our prayer? Show us, Dear Jesus, Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Masterson.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 1605—

By Committee on Federal and State Affairs

A PROPOSITION to amend article 9 of the constitution of the state of Kansas by adding a new section thereto; concerning the power of home rule for counties.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Article 9 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 6. Counties' power of home rule. (a) Counties are hereby empowered to determine their local affairs and government including the levying of taxes, excises, fees, charges and other exactions, except when and as the levying of any tax, excise, fee, charge or other exaction is limited or prohibited by enactment of the legislature applicable uniformly to all counties of the same class. The legislature may establish not to exceed four classes of counties for the purpose of imposing all such limitations or prohibitions. Counties shall exercise such determination by resolution passed by the governing body with referendums only in such cases as prescribed by the legislature, subject only to enactments of the legislature of statewide concern applicable uniformly to all counties, to other enactments of the legislature applicable uniformly to all counties, to enactments of the legislature applicable uniformly to all counties of the same class limiting or prohibiting the levying of any tax, excise, fee, charge or other exaction and to enactments of the legislature prescribing limits of indebtedness. All enactments relating to counties now in effect or hereafter enacted and as later amended and until repealed shall govern counties, except as counties shall exempt themselves by charter resolutions as herein provided for in subsection (b).

(b) (1) Any county may by charter resolution elect in the manner prescribed in this section that the whole or any part of any enactment of the legislature applying to such county, other than enactments of statewide concern applicable uniformly to all counties, other enactments applicable uniformly to all counties, and enactments prescribing limits of indebtedness, shall not apply to such county.

(2) A charter resolution is a resolution which exempts a county from the whole or any part of any enactment of the legislature as referred to in this section and which may provide substitute and additional provisions on the same subject. Such charter resolution shall be so titled, shall designate specifically the enactment of the legislature or part thereof made inapplicable to such county by the adoption of such resolution and contain the substitute and additional provisions, if any, and shall require a two-thirds vote of the members-elect of the governing body of such county. Every charter resolution shall be published once each week for two consecutive weeks in the official county newspaper or, if there is none, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county.

(3) No charter resolution shall take effect until 60 days after its final publication. If, within 60 days of its final publication, a petition signed by a number of electors of the county equal to not less than 10% of the number of electors who voted at the last preceding regular county election shall be filed in the office of the clerk of such county demanding that such resolution be submitted to a vote of the electors, it shall not take effect until submitted to a referendum and approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon. An election, if called, shall be called within 30 days and held within 90 days after the filing of the petition. The governing body shall pass a resolution calling the election and fixing the date, which resolution shall be published once each week for three consecutive weeks in the official county newspaper or, if there is none, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, and the election shall be conducted as elections for officers and by the officers handling such elections. The proposition shall be: "Shall charter resolution No. _____, entitled (title of resolution) take effect?" The governing body may submit any charter resolution to a referendum without petition by the same publication of the charter resolution, and the same publication of the resolution calling the election as for resolutions upon petition and such charter resolution shall then become effective when approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon. Each charter resolution becoming effective shall be recorded by the county clerk in a book maintained for that purpose with a statement of the manner of adoption, and a certified copy shall be filed with the secretary of state, who shall keep an index of the same.

(4) Each charter resolution enacted shall control and prevail over any prior or subsequent act of the governing body of the county, and may be repealed or amended only by charter resolution or by enactments of the legislature applicable to all counties.

(c) Powers and authority granted to counties pursuant to this section shall be liberally construed for the purpose of giving to counties the largest measure of self-government.

(d) This amendment shall be effective on and after July 1, 2027."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. This amendment would provide a constitutional basis for county home rule, which is currently enshrined only in statutory law. Counties could pass home rule resolutions to legislate locally on matters not covered by state law. A county could enact a charter resolution to exempt itself from non-uniform state laws that apply to the county and provide substitute or additional provisions to that law. The legislature could preempt counties from exercising home rule powers by enacting state laws that apply uniformly to all counties, or to all counties of the same class, as defined by statute.

"A vote for this proposition would empower counties to determine their local affairs and government with a constitutional grant of power that could only be preempted by enactments of the legislature that apply uniformly to all counties, or to all counties of the same class, as defined by statute.

"A vote against this proposition would retain the current statutory authority of counties to determine their local affairs and government, but such authority could continue to be removed or restricted by enactments of the legislature, regardless of uniformity."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2026, unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case the proposed amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

EIGHTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, January 23, 2025, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Ty Masterson.

The roll was called with 40 senators present.

President Masterson introduced guest chaplain, Doug Henkle, who delivered the invocation:

Gracious Lord, it is such a blessing, this afternoon, to see these forty men and women who are here to serve the people of Kansas. I pray that You would cause them to work in harmony to achieve the best for our state. I pray that each would offer astute and insightful reasoning for the legislation they are advancing and creative alternatives to that which they oppose.

Lord, you created us out of the laughter of the Trinity. We weren't made to be an army of one. You made us relational beings. Despite our high-tech world and efficient procedures, people remain the essential ingredient of life as You intended. A glib "Hi, how are ya?" must be replaced with genuine concern. Lord, I ask that You build and strengthen this chamber with relationships that honor You. Cause a bond of common purpose and concern for one another to unite this body as they pursue the best for our state.

I, again, lift up Chaplain Washington to You. Father, please ease his pain and heal his body. Bless him as he continues to care for his wife who is in failing health.

I pray for President Masterson, Vice President Shallenburger, Majority Leader Blasi and Minority Leader Sykes. Give them Your clear vision for all You want to accomplish in the Kansas Senate during this 2025 session. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Masterson.

The roll was called with 36 senators present.

Senators Holscher, Shallenburger, Shane and Titus were excused.

President Masterson introduced guest chaplain, Doug Henkle, who delivered the following invocation:

Precious Jesus, real prayer, the kind of prayer You spoke about and modeled, is realistic, down-to-earth communication with the living God that results in a relief of personal anxiety and a calm assurance that our Heavenly Father is in full control of our circumstances.

Jesus, thank You for having prepared for us in advance every detail of our needs today. It is tremendously encouraging to know that You care about the smallest details of each of our lives. Thank You that, no matter how thick the darkness clouding our vision, no matter how devoid of answers we may be, no matter how distant consensus may seem, You always are able to speak exactly the right word to bring clarity of vision and refreshing direction.

Jesus, You have already planned for every detail personally, relationally and legislatively. All needed provision is already "in You" and has been since the beginning of time. Cause us to be quiet enough to hear what You are saying and then to trust in You.

And Jesus, we trust You to hold close and care for Chaplain Cecil Washington and his wife, Audrey, as he cares for her in the hospital. We ask that Your healing hands would be on her. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Father God, this building is filled today with people concerned about issues regarding the young people of our state. But none care more about them than You. Thank You so much for all the young folks in our state. We pray You would show us, in this chamber, all You would have us do to protect and encourage them, that they would grow to be the men and women You created them to be. I pray You would keep them healthy and cause them to thrive. I thank You that You know every hair on their head. You know exactly when they rise and when they fall. Watch over the young folks of our state in every area of their lives and keep them safe.

SPECIAL REMARKS

Education is a keystone to the success of our communities, our great state, and our country. I am honored to be able to share and highlight the accomplishments of “the teacher of the year” with this senate. Our “teacher of the year” is Mrs. Elizabeth Anstine. Her path to education is notable. She spent nearly two decades in senior corporate marketing roles and volunteered with Junior Achievement in Kansas City's inner-city schools. Following her corporate career, she dedicated herself to extensively volunteering in the Olathe, Kansas School District, where her children attended. She assisted in Blue Ribbon applications, initiated a 'Battle of the Books' district-wide competition, established mentoring programs, provided booster club leadership, and participated in site councils. Anstine's educational journey is a testament to her commitment to lifelong learning. For over a decade, she substitute taught across districts, crediting teachers with inspiring her. She earned a Bachelor of Science in business education from Fort Hays State University and a Master's in curriculum and instruction from the University of Kansas, further enhancing her qualifications and approach to teaching. Mrs. Anstine's influence is felt through mentorship and leadership roles at Leavenworth High School, Leavenworth, Kansas. She teaches business marketing, entrepreneurship, and finance courses and is best known for her leadership. Mrs. Anstine serves as DECA advisor, cultivating an inclusive program that consistently produces internationally ranked students. She sponsors Interact to foster global understanding and plays a pivotal role on the Building Leadership Team, developing strategies to enhance student achievement. Mrs. Anstine's accomplishments include securing more than $500,000 in grant funding for her business programs and school-wide initiatives, establishing three additional school-based enterprises, and her ability to connect with students from diverse backgrounds. Her commitment to enhancing public education stems from her experiences and a profound desire to impact her students' lives positively. Mrs. Anstine has already left an indelible mark on Leavenworth High School. Her students say, "Mrs. Anstine pushes beyond the limits of her job description, giving us the freedom to learn, create, and grow. She is a changemaker, deeply admired for her immeasurable sense of caring and ability to see potential in each of us. Every student deserves a teacher like Mrs. Anstine." It is an honor to highlight Mrs. Anstine's accomplishments. I humbly request that we stand in solidarity to recognize Mrs. Anstine and the rest of the finalists for a job exceptionally done.—JEFF KLEMP

The bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I vote "NO" on SB 10. I agree that a few of the exemptions for personal property taxes in this bill should be passed – in particular, exempting electric personal assistive mobility devices and motorized wheelchairs – however, I believe Kansas taxes must be equitable. Many of these exemptions will be given to those individuals who can afford golf carts, off-road vehicles, marine equipment, and aircraft. I am especially concerned because I know the interest in reducing the property tax burden for our constituents. The approximately $3 million cost in state general funds does not include additional impacts on local government revenues. Quoting from the fiscal note: "Local Governments that levy a property tax would also receive less revenue; however, the amount of reduced property tax revenues was not estimated by the Department." I need a better understanding of how this will affect my communities – those with golf courses, lakes, reservoirs or airport hangars may be especially affected - and also how those revenues might be replaced. Taking revenue away from our local governments without replacing those funds is going in the wrong direction.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I vote “NO” on SCR 1602. I had hoped that the Senate would add the amendment that I offered to focus on those illegal immigrants who have committed a criminal act while in the United States in addition to the act of entering the country illegally. Without that focus, this resolution does not discriminate between those illegal immigrants who have otherwise been law abiding and contributing to our communities from those who have committed additional crimes and have brought harm.—MARCI FRANCISCO

Journal of the Senate

THIRTEENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, January 30, 2025, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Tim Shallenburger.

The roll was called with 39 senators present.

Senator J.R. Claeys was excused.

Vice President Shallenburger introduced guest chaplain, Doug Henkle, who delivered the following invocation:

Loving Heavenly Father, our hearts are heavy today for the families and loved ones of those who perished in the collision of American flight 5342 and the military helicopter. I pray that You would hold them close in Your warm embrace. Certainly, the sudden loss and grief is overwhelming. Comfort them as only You can.

Thank You for those who sprang into action, with little regard for their own personal comfort and safety, as they attempted rescue. Bless them and give them favor in the recovery operation as now the lengthy process of closure begins for so many.

Lord, this tragedy reminds us of the uncertainty of life and can cause us to reflect our own mortality. Make us mindful of the certainty we can have in You and the peace and comfort that You can give us.

Jesus, we ask that You hold Chaplain Washington close as he continues to care for his wife, Audrey, in the hospital. Give him Your direction as he considers the next step in her care and recovery process.

I pray for President Masterson, Vice President Shallenburger, Majority Leader Blasi and Minority Leader Sykes. Give them, each, Your wisdom, Your insight and direction, Your Grace as they lead the Kansas Senate. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

The National Anthem was sung by Haylie Bagwell, guest of Senator Tyson.

SPECIAL REMARKS

In District 26, I have the honor of representing our state's largest and busiest airport, Eisenhower National Airport. Last night, a devastating tragedy struck our community as 64 souls departed Wichita for our nation's capital. Among them were participants returning from the US National Figure Skating Championship, an event we were privileged to host last week for the first time. As we come to grips with the heart-wrenching news that an Army Blackhawk helicopter carrying three soldiers collided with the aircraft, we are reminded how life is so delicate. Many of us have taken that flight numerous times since its inaugural journey in January of 2024, making this incident all the more personal and sobering. I believe I speak for the entire Senate when I offer my gratitude to the hundreds of emergency responders who swiftly responded to this tragedy in search for Kansans and all passengers. While the passengers on Flight 5342 never reached their destination, they have landed in a place better than we know, with God. In the face of this unimaginable sorrow, may we find solace in our faith and the enduring strength of our community and state. Our prayers are with the families and friends of the victims who lost loved ones, and we stand united in our shared grief and resolve to support one another through this challenging time.—CHASE BLASI

Senators Alley, Argabright, Billinger, Blew, Bowers, Bowser, Joseph Claeys, Clifford, Corson, Dietrich, Erickson, Faust Goudeau, Francisco, Klemp, Masterson, Murphy, Owens, Petersen, Rose, Ryckman, Schmidt, Shallenburger, Starnes, Sykes, Thompson, Tyson, Ware and Warren requested to join the remarks offered by Senator Blasi.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Ryckman rose on a Point of Personal Privilege and delivered the following remarks: Mr. Vice President, it is my honor and privilege to introduce to the Senate a fine young group of 14 student visitors from my 38th District, all 7th and 8th graders from Montezuma Mennonite School. They are here today in conjunction with their study of history and government in our State, hopefully to learn how the Legislature works! Seated in the VIP gallery to the left of the dais - and I will ask each to stand as his or her name is called - are Dillon and Blake Nichols; Dema Yost; Brooklyn Hibbs; Jarett Salisbury; and all with the same last name “Koehn,” which is very popular and familiar out there: Landon; Russell; Parker; Morgan; Keela; Holly; Rilla; Tynan; and Tate. They are led by their organizer, Bryan Koehn, and accompanied by 23 parents and mentors watching from overhead in the Visitor’s Gallery behind me. Would you parents please stand as well and be recognized as we join in welcoming you all to our Chamber today? Thank you for making the long trip to be here!

Journal of the Senate

SEVENTEENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, February 5, 2025, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Ty Masterson.

The roll was called with 39 senators present.

Senator Shane was excused.

President Masterson introduced guest chaplain, Doug Henkle, who delivered the following invocation:

Heavenly Father, it's a blessing to understand that You know each of us intimately, that You are cognizant of every detail of our lives. As this body has come together from across our state for this legislative session, the focus of senators and staff turns from matters of personal business, home, family, and hometown relationships to relationships within this building and to issues of significance for our entire state. Yet, the concerns and joys of life outside of this building remain.

I pray that concerns could be shared with colleagues here and that the burden would be lightened by an encouraging word, a prayer together or a heartfelt embrace. And Father, I ask that the joys from home would be shared as well and found to be a blessing and encouragement.

Please give each senator here the wisdom and grace to find the peaceful balance between legislative duties and responsibilities and being the spouse, the parent, the friend or colleague You've called them to be.

Jesus, cause a common bond of service to our state to draw us together despite political differences and contrasting legislative approaches to issues of the day. Keep us from quarrels and angry disputes, injuring otherwise friendly relations. Before we speak, remind us that our words have consequences, that death words destroy, hurt, and create humiliating feelings, but life words build and increase strength of character. Cause us, as Your Word admonishes us to do, to speak the truth in love. Lord, I lift up each senator here to You today. Bless them with Your wisdom, Your grace, and Your peace. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Masterson.

I rise in support of Ms. Kathy Wolfe-Moore's nomination. The Mission of the Kansas Board of Regents is to pursue measurable continuous improvement in the quality and effectiveness of the public post secondary educational system in Kansas, while expanding participation for all qualified Kansans. To achieve that mission, the Board will demand accountability, focus resources, and advocate powerfully. Ms. Wolfe-Moore's nearly three decades of dedicated service to our communities reflect her commitment to improving the lives of Kansans. Having spoken with constituents, consulted with both current and former House and Senate members, and engaged in personal conversations with Ms. Wolfe-Moore, it is clear that she possesses the qualifications and desire necessary for this role. I urge Mrs. Wolfe-Moore to champion fiscally responsible decisions while fostering an environment that encourages freedom of thought on our campuses. EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I vote No on SB 14. The legislature's one constitutional obligation is to make appropriations to pass a budget. This bill is setting us up to abdicate that duty. Senator Pettey requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Sykes on SB 14.

A two-thirds constitutional majority having voted in favor of the resolution, SCR 1603 was adopted as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I vote No on Senate Concurrent Resolution 1603 because this Constitutional Amendment is not the vehicle which will solve the problem of rapidly increasing property taxes. I am more than happy to be on record as voting against a Valuation Cap which will not provide a permanent solution. I know that this is not the last train out of town, and I look forward to future productive debates and legislation which will guarantee our constituents true property tax relief.—WILLIAM CLIFFORD

Senators Fagg and Holscher request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Clifford on SCR 1603.

I vote "No" on SCR 1603. I, along with many other members of the Senate, hope to address the three-legged "tax" stool that has become lopsided because of significant increases in property taxes. This constitutional amendment would limit increases in property tax valuations, but there could still be substantial increases in property taxes because those valuations are multiplied against the mill levies adopted by local entities. I appreciate the amendment made by the Senate Committee eliminating the concern that valuations would increase when a property is sold. I remain concerned that these limitations on valuation increases will create differences between the valuations of existing properties and those newly constructed or improved. The amendment passed in this body could significantly exacerbate any such difference since the increase in valuations would be limited to a total of 3% during the four years since 2022; the higher valuations of all properties constructed or improved after that year will likely be multiplied against higher mill levies required to deliver promised municipal services. A property owner should not be unfairly taxed if their property was built or improved after 2022 and have those differences in tax valuations continue to increase over the years.—

MARCI FRANCISCO

Senators Fagg and Holscher request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Francisco on SCR 1603.

I vote "No" on SCR 1603. Voting to amend the constitution of the State of Kansas should be a thorough and deliberative process where all ideas are considered and only the best is voted on. Supporting an amendment such as this that leads the taxpayers to believe their taxes will only be raised 3% per year without any proof it will, that has been proven to distort markets, that has been proven to shift property tax burdens and have been proven to de-incentivize home selling and buying is not an amendment I can support. We can and must do better for the people of Kansas and deliver on the property tax reform that ACTUALLY accomplishes tax relief, not just purports to do so.—

STEPHEN OWENS

Senators Fagg, Holscher, Pettey and Sykes request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Owens on SCR 1603.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 1611—

By Committee on Federal and State Affairs

A PROPOSITION to amend sections 5, 8 and 15 of article 3 of the constitution of the state of Kansas; relating to the supreme court; providing for direct election of justices; abolishing the supreme court nominating commission; permitting justices to make contributions to and hold office in a political party or organization and take part in political campaigns.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Sections 5, 8 and 15 of article 3 of the constitution of the state of Kansas are hereby amended to read as follows:

"§ 5. Selection of justices of the supreme court. The citizens of Kansas who are qualified electors shall have the right to elect the justices of the supreme court. The rules applicable for such elections and the designation of position numbers shall be provided by law. Justice positions 1, 2 and 3 shall be elected at the general election in November of 2028, justice positions 4 and 5 in November of 2030 and justice positions 6 and 7 in November of 2032, and every six years thereafter, respectively. Any vacancy occurring on the supreme court for an unexpired term shall be filled at the next even-year election for the remainder of such term. ~~(a) Any vacancy occurring in the office of any justice of the supreme court and any~~ position to be open thereon as a result of enlargement of the court, or the retirement or failure of an incumbent to file his declaration of candidacy to succeed himself as hereinafter required, or failure of a justice to be elected to succeed himself, shall be filled by appointment by the governor of one of three persons possessing the qualifications of office who shall be nominated and whose names shall be submitted to the governor by the supreme court nominating commission established as hereinafter provided.

(b) In event of the failure of the governor to make the appointment within sixty days from the time the names of the nominees are submitted to him, the chief justice of the supreme court shall make the appointment from such nominees.

(c) Each justice of the supreme court appointed pursuant to provisions of subsection (a) of this section shall hold office for an initial term ending on the second Monday in January following the first general election that occurs after the expiration of twelve months in office. Not less than sixty days prior to the holding of the general election next preceding the expiration of his term of office, any justice of the supreme court may file in the office of the secretary of state a declaration of candidacy for election to succeed himself. If a declaration is not so filed, the position held by such justice shall be open from the expiration of his term of office. If such declaration is filed, his name shall be submitted at the next general election to the electors of the state on a separate judicial ballot, without party designation, reading substantially as follows:

(Here insert name of justice.)

be retained in office?"

If a majority of those voting on the question vote against retaining him in office, the position or office which he holds shall be open upon the expiration of his term of office; otherwise he shall, unless removed for cause, remain in office for the regular term of six years from the second Monday in January following such election. At the expiration of each term he shall, unless by law he is compelled to retire, be eligible for retention in office by election in the manner prescribed in this section.

(d) A nonpartisan nominating commission whose duty it shall be to nominate and submit to the governor the names of persons for appointment to fill vacancies in the office of any justice of the supreme court is hereby established, and shall be known as the "supreme court nominating commission." Said commission shall be organized as hereinafter provided.

(e) The supreme court nominating commission shall be composed as follows: One member, who shall be chairman, chosen from among their number by the members of the bar who are residents of and licensed in Kansas; one member from each congressional district chosen from among their number by the resident members of the bar in each such district; and one member, who is not a lawyer, from each congressional district, appointed by the governor from among the residents of each such district.

(f) ~~The terms of office, the procedure for selection and certification of the members of the commission and provision for their compensation or expenses shall be as provided by the legislature.~~

(g) ~~No member of the supreme court nominating commission shall, while he is a member, hold any other public office by appointment or any official position in a political party or for six months thereafter be eligible for nomination for the office of justice of the supreme court. The commission may act only by the concurrence of a majority of its members."~~

"§ 8. Prohibition of political activity by justices and certain judges.

~~No justice of the supreme court who is appointed or retained under the procedure of section 5 of this article, nor any judge of the district court holding office under a nonpartisan method authorized in subsection (a) of section 6 of this article; shall directly or indirectly make any contribution to or hold any office in a political party or organization or take part in any political campaign."~~

"§ 15. Removal of justices and judges. Justices of the supreme court may be removed from office by impeachment and conviction as prescribed in article 2 of this constitution. In addition to removal by impeachment and conviction, justices may be retired after appropriate hearing, upon certification to the governor, by the supreme court ~~nominating commission~~ that such justice is so incapacitated as to be unable to perform adequately his duties. Other judges shall be subject to retirement for incapacity, and to discipline, suspension and removal for cause by the supreme court after appropriate hearing."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. This amendment gives the voters the right to elect the justices of the Kansas supreme court. The justices shall serve terms of six years, with the elections of justice positions 1, 2 and 3 to occur in 2028, positions 4 and 5 to occur in 2030 and positions 6 and 7 to occur in 2032, and every six years thereafter. The rules applicable for such elections and the designation of position numbers shall be provided by law. Any vacancy on the court for an unexpired term shall be filled at the next even-year election for the remainder of that term.

"A vote for this proposition would give Kansas citizens the right to elect Kansas supreme court justices as provided by law. Justices will hold office for terms of six years. The Kansas supreme court nominating commission, whose membership consists of a majority of lawyers, would be abolished.

"A vote against this proposition would continue the current system in which the Kansas supreme court nominating commission, whose membership consists of a majority of lawyers, provides the governor a list of three individuals to choose from for vacancies on the Kansas supreme court. Justices hold office for a term of six years and retain their offices if they win a retention election in which they do not face an opponent.

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. TWENTIETH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, February 10, 2025, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Ty Masterson.

The roll was called with 38 senators present.

Senators J. R. Claeys and Faust Goudeau were excused.

Dear Father, everyone in this chamber has a very real sense of the responsibility placed upon them by the people of Kansas. It is You who have blessed them with intelligence, wisdom and a desire to serve. I thank You for calling each one to this moment and hour. Pour Your goodness and grace into them.

Remind us Father that You have said, “Woe to those who call evil good and good evil. Who substitute darkness for light and light for darkness. Who substitute bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter. Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes, and clever in their own sight”.

I pray each in this room would guard themselves from any temptation to change Your will for their will. Protect each one from those who might attempt to use them for selfish purposes or personal gain.

For those wrestling with personal issues, which seem to have no adequate answers, I pray for Your illuminating Spirit to show them the path to take. For those in our midst who are just tired and need new strength to carry on, I pray, “as their days are, their strength might be also.”

I pray for the lost and broken in our spheres of influence, that their brokenness would not define them. Allow us to realize it is You, O God, who has created all mankind and it is only You who can lead into better days.

Bless our families as we are away from them and keep them safe from any harm.

And now Lord, engage our hearts and minds with unusual insight as we undertake the tasks set before us. I ask this In Jesus' Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Masterson.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 1612—

By Committee on Ways and Means

A PROPOSITION to amend article 11 of the constitution of the state of Kansas by adding a new section thereto; concerning the power of the legislature to contract public debt and pledges to the payment thereof the full faith, credit and taxing power of the state.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Article 11 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 14. Power to contract public debt. Notwithstanding any provision of article 11 of the constitution of the state of Kansas to the contrary, commencing with the 2026 regular session of the legislature, the legislature may contract public debt and pledges to the payment thereof the full faith, credit and taxing power of the state. Every such debt shall be authorized by law for the purpose specified in such law and upon a declaration of the legislature in such law that such debt is appropriate after considering the cost-effectiveness and debt service efficiency for the state. The legislature shall establish by law all matters concerning the contracting of public debt pursuant to this section, including, but not limited to, the kinds of notes, general obligation bonds, revenue bonds or other evidence of public debt that may be issued by the state."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. This amendment would modernize the 1861 public debt law for the purpose of reducing the interest rate paid by the state on new and refunded debt obligations, to allow the legislature to contract for public debt, including issuing general obligation bonds, revenue bonds or other evidence of public debt backed by the full faith, credit and taxing power of the state after considering the cost-effectiveness and debt service efficiency for the state, and would provide the legislature authority over all matters relating to such public debt.

"A vote for this proposition would allow the legislature to contract for public debt and pledge the full faith, credit and taxing power of the state for the payment of such debt and give the legislature authority over all matters concerning the contracting of public debt of the state.

"A vote against this proposition would provide no change to the Kansas constitution."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the primary election in August in the year 2025, unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case the proposed amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

TWENTY-SECOND DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, February 13, 2025, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Tim Shallenburger.

The roll was called with 37 senators present.

Senators J. R. Claeys, Masterson and Ware were excused.

Vice President Shallenburger introduced guest chaplain, Doug Henkle, who delivered the following invocation:

Sovereign Lord, thank You for the beauty of the recent snowfall and the minimal effect it had on our safety. But Father, bitter cold has come with it. I ask that You would protect and sustain the farmers and ranchers in our state as they break ice and feed hay, caring for their livestock in the harsh winter weather this week and the week ahead.

And Lord, I pray that You would protect the homeless through the single digit days and the sub-zero nights now and in the coming week. Direct them to warming shelters before the temperatures take their toll, I ask that You would provide all the workers that are needed to serve in the warming shelters, as so many of them are ill at this time. Father, please don't let us take for granted our warm homes and all the wonderful ways in which we are cared for.

As turn-around approaches next week, Father, give each senator peace and direction and a sense of priority. Show them what can be and ought to be done and how to achieve it. I ask that each comment offered, every question asked, each vote cast would be for the betterment of our beloved state and to Your glory.

I rejoice with President Masterson as he celebrates the birth of a new grandson. I lift up Vice President Shallenburger, Majority Leader Blasi, and Minority Leader Sykes to You today. Give them Your insight, Your wisdom and discernment.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Shallenburger.

TWENTY-FOURTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, February 17, 2025, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Tim Shallenburger.

The roll was called with 36 senators present.

Senators J. R. Claeys, Joseph Claeys, Masterson and Schmidt were excused.

Vice President Shallenburger introduced guest chaplain, Doug Henkle, who delivered the following invocation:

Jesus, Prince of Peace, we come to You today, at the beginning of a very full week. There is much to be accomplished in the next few days, much information to be digested and acted upon as the work of the committees is presented to the entire body for action. Lord, I ask that You give every senator crystal clear insight and understanding into every bill debated. Cause the issues to be sharp and ordered in their minds. Cause each senator to argue strongly held, often differing, positions in a diplomatic and honorable way to the best of their ability, striving for a mutually satisfactory resolution.

Jesus, in giving us peace, You didn't mean easy. You never promised easy. You only promised help. In fact, You told us to expect tribulation and trials. But You also said that, if we called on You, You would give us the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension. And so right now we call on You. Please give us Your peace. Fill the Kansas Senate today and throughout the week with Your peace, Your wisdom and order as work on behalf of all Kansans is conducted.

I pray for President Masterson, Vice President Shallenburger, Majority Leader Blasi and Minority Leader Sykes. Bless them as they lead this chamber to a beneficial conclusion this week. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Shallenburger.

(i) All facility owner licenses and facility manager licenses shall be reviewed annually by the commission to determine if the licensee is complying with the provisions of this act and rules and regulations of the commission and following such proposed plans and operating procedures as were approved by the commission. The commission may review a facility owner license or facility manager license more often than annually upon its own initiative or upon the request of any interested party. The commission shall require each facility owner licensee and each facility manager licensee to file annually with the commission a certified financial audit of the licensee by an independent certified public accountant, which audit shall be open to inspection by the public, and may require any such licensee to provide any other information necessary for the commission to conduct the annual or periodic review.

section or any other provision of this act or any rule and regulation of the commission.

~~(j)~~(k) Prior to suspension or revocation of a license pursuant to subsection ~~(i)~~(j), the commission shall give written notice of the reason therefor to the licensee and all other interested parties. The licensee shall have 30 days from receipt of the notice to cure the alleged failure or violation, if it can be cured. If the commission finds that the failure or violation has not been cured upon expiration of the 30 days or upon a later deadline granted by the commission, or if the alleged violation is of such a nature that it cannot be cured, the commission may proceed to suspend or revoke the licensee's license pursuant to subsection ~~(i)~~(j). Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to preclude the commission from imposing a fine pursuant to subsection ~~(i)~~(j) even if the violation is cured within 30 days or such other period as provided by the commission.

~~(k)~~(l) If an applicant for a facility owner license proposes to construct a racetrack facility and the commission determines that such license should be issued to the applicant, the commission shall issue to the applicant a facility owner license conditioned on the submission by the licensee to the commission, within a period of time prescribed by the commission, of a commitment for financing the construction of the racetrack facility by a financial institution or other source, subject to approval by the commission. If such commitment is not submitted within the period of time originally prescribed by the commission or such additional time as authorized by the commission, the license shall expire at the end of such period.

~~(l)~~(m) If a facility owner licensee's license authorizes the construction of a dual racetrack facility, such license shall be conditioned on the completion of such facility within a time specified by the commission. If, within the time specified by the commission, the licensee has not constructed a dual racetrack facility in accordance with the plans submitted to the commission pursuant to subsection (e), the commission, in accordance with the Kansas administrative procedure act, shall:

(1) Impose upon the licensee a civil fine equal to 5% of the total parimutuel pools for all races held at the licensee's facility on and after the date that racing with parimutuel wagering is first conducted at such facility and until the date that construction of the dual racetrack facility is completed and horse racing has begun; and

~~(n)~~(o) The grant or denial of an original facility owner license or facility manager license shall not be subject to the Kansas administrative procedure act. Such grant or denial shall be a matter to be determined in the sole discretion of the commission, whose decision shall be final upon the grant of a license to one of two or more competing applicants without the necessity of a hearing on the denial of a license to each other competing applicant. Any action for judicial review of such decision shall be by appeal to the supreme court in accordance with the Kansas judicial review act, except that the scope of review shall be limited to whether the action of the commission was arbitrary or capricious or constituted an abuse of discretion. All competing applicants for the facility owner license or facility manager license shall be parties to such appeal. Any such appeal shall have priority over other cases except those having statutory priority.

Journal of the Senate

TWENTY-FIFTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, February 18, 2025, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Ty Masterson.

The roll was called with 40 senators present.

Dear Father, in the Book of Psalms we read, “In Thee O Lord I have taken refuge: Let me never be ashamed. In Thy righteousness deliver me, and rescue me; Incline Thine ear to me and save me. Be Thou to me a rock of habitation, to which I may continually come; Thou hast given commandment to save me, for Thou art my rock and my fortress. Rescue me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the grasp of the wrong doer and ruthless man.”

Today as we look at the myriad of things facing us, we truly want to find a refuge in You. In just a few moments we will be entering into debate and deliberation. When the votes are recorded, and we look back, help us to have voted and acted in such a way as to not be ashamed. I pray for every discussion which takes place in this chamber to have been sifted through with correct information and wise counsel.

Sharpen our minds, O God, as we look closely at that which will be put before us as legislation. Allow integrity, truth and righteousness to prevail. Give us patience with those who do not see things through our prism of understanding, and remind us, we have all been created in Your wonderful pattern. Might our satisfaction come from knowing that You know our hearts, and why we do what we do.

I pray for the sick and vulnerable in our individual communities. Father, would You bring resources, and those who can facilitate those resources together to relieve the harshness of those living with little hope.

With the difficult weather we are experiencing, I pray Your hand of protection upon each one in this room, as well as their families. I ask this in Jesus' Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Masterson.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNORREGARDING SENATE BILL 63

Right now, the Legislature should be focused on ways to help Kansans cope with rising prices. That is the most important issue for Kansans. That is where my focus is. Infringing on parental rights is not appropriate, nor is it a Kansas value. As I've said before, it is not the job of politicians to stand between a parent and a child who needs medical care of any kind. This legislation will also drive families, businesses, and health care workers out of our state, stifling our economy and exacerbating our workforce shortage issue. It is disappointing that the Legislature continues to push for government interference in Kansans' private medical decisions instead of focusing on issues that improve all Kansans' lives. Therefore, under Article 2, Section 14(a) of the Constitution, I hereby veto Senate Bill 63.

LAURA KELLY, Governor (February 11, 2025)

SB 63, AN ACT concerning children and minors; relating to healthcare of minors; enacting the help not harm act; prohibiting healthcare providers from treating a child whose gender identity is inconsistent with the child's sex; authorizing a civil cause of action against healthcare providers for providing such treatments; restricting use of state funds to promote gender transitioning; prohibiting professional liability insurance from covering damages for healthcare providers that provide gender transition treatment to children; requiring professional discipline against a healthcare provider who performs such treatments; adding violation of the act to the definition of unprofessional conduct for physicians; amending K.S.A. 65-2837 and repealing the existing section.

ACTIONS ON VETO MESSAGE

A motion was made by Senator Gossage that SB 63 be passed notwithstanding the Governor's veto.

SB 63, AN ACT concerning children and minors; relating to healthcare of minors; enacting the help not harm act; prohibiting healthcare providers from treating a child whose gender identity is inconsistent with the child's sex; authorizing a civil cause of action against healthcare providers for providing such treatments; restricting use of state funds to promote gender transitioning; prohibiting professional liability insurance from covering damages for healthcare providers that provide gender transition treatment to children; requiring professional discipline against a healthcare provider who performs such treatments; adding violation of the act to the definition of unprofessional conduct for physicians; amending K.S.A. 65-2837 and repealing the existing section.

Upon the showing of five hands a Call of the Senate was requested.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 31; Nays 9; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Yeas: Alley, Argabright, Billinger, Blasi, Blew, Bowers, Bowser, J.R. Claeys, Joseph Claeys, Clifford, Dietrich, Erickson, Fagg, Gossage, Klemp, Kloos, Masterson, Murphy, Owens, Peck, Petersen, Rose, Ryckman, Shallenburger, Shane, Starnes, Thomas, Thompson, Titus, Tyson, Warren.

Nays: Corson, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Haley, Holscher, Pettey, Schmidt, Sykes, Ware.

A two-thirds constitutional majority having voted in favor of overriding the Governor's veto, the motion prevailed and the bill passed.

The call was lifted.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Although I prefer to PASS on the Veto Override; with this new, somewhat illogical if you ask me, trend by freshmen to force Final Action votes to Yea or Nay, I'm now compelled (against the dictates of conscious) to weigh-in when I may be "50/50"; and where, at some point subsequent, I, or others, may have a genuine neutrality or conflict. Succinctly, 31 affirmative votes have already been cast on the override which only requires 27 to be enacted so my vote does not make a difference in the outcome here anyway. I believe honoring this new procedural habit is both juvenile and even a bit disrespectful. I trust the Senate will return at some point to the comity and civility of our more honorable traditions. Here as a Senator in the Kansas Senate far longer than all of you now, watching upstart shenanigans as newly elected test infant "muscles" is too often an "ordinary" part of this process. Likewise, having served with more Governors than anyone in the Kansas Legislature, I can attest that Governor Laura Kelly exhibits instincts for which measures and policies are in the best interests of Kansas and Kansans with extreme aplomb. Accordingly, having to go one way or another, even in a vote that "won't count," I vote NO so as to sustain a usually competent and insightful Governor's Veto of a measure that, without question, can go both ways.—DAVID HALEY

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Announcing the House here with transmits a certificate of action by the House of Representatives on SB 63, AN ACT concerning children and minors; relating to healthcare of minors; enacting the help not harm act; prohibiting healthcare providers from treating a child whose gender identity is inconsistent with the child's sex; authorizing a civil cause of action against healthcare providers for providing such treatments; restricting use of state funds to promote gender transitioning; prohibiting professional liability insurance from covering damages for healthcare providers that provide gender transition treatment to children; requiring professional discipline against a healthcare provider who performs such treatments; adding violation of the act to the definition of unprofessional conduct for physicians; amending K.S.A. 65-2837 and repealing the existing section.

The veto message from the Governor having been received, a motion was made that not withstanding the Governor's objection to SB 63, the bill be passed. Journal of the Senate

TWENTY-SIXTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, February 19, 2025, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Ty Masterson.

The roll was called with 40 senators present.

President Masterson introduced guest chaplain, Reverend L. D. Holmes, who delivered the following invocation:

Dear Father, it's cold outside, but our hearts are warmed by the knowledge of Your presence in our lives. Thank You for never giving up on helping us to become the person You created us to be. Please use the gifts and graces imparted to each one to be used in a constructive and positive way.

Your Word proclaims "Now for this very reason also, applying all diligence, in your faith, supply moral excellence. And in your moral excellence, Knowledge, and in your knowledge, self control, and in your self control, perseverance, and in your perseverance, godliness, and in your godliness brotherly kindness and in your brotherly kindness love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they render you neither useless nor unfruitful."

Father, help us to live and work in such a way that the positive attributes we find the Apostle Peter teaching about, are mirrored in our thoughts and actions. It is so easy to get caught up in things that really don't matter and ignore the important things which do matter. Give us Divine discernment, that we might be found faithful and prudent in all the truly important issues of life.

We pray for the homeless and marginalized in our midst. Most, if not all, feel they are never seen and their needs seldom met. You have uniquely placed each one in this chamber, in a powerful position to make a difference in the lives of many who are living with little or no hope. Give these senators the eyes of our Creator, that they might see individuals as You see them, O God. And in the quietness of our own souls remind us, "except for the grace of God, there go I."

I pray and intercede for the families of those gathered here. Many are having to take on new and added responsibilities. Give them strength for the day and patience for the hour.

I pray this in Jesus' Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Masterson.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

As the first Kansas Senator, alone no less, to bring the concept of legalizing and regulating medicinal marijuana to this Legislature (2009), I strongly support this amendment. Back then, the U.S. had just two States with cannabis legalization. Today, U.S. citizens in all but ten States (sadly of which, Kansas is yet one) have access to cannabis use ; for medicinal and, often, recreational consumption, as well. Kansans are less free than the 83% of Americans who may opt to imbibe with a natural, well-regulated and taxed plant which is a far healthier alternative to opiates and often dangerous chemicals and compounds. Further, a recent study shows more Americans choose to consume marijuana daily than consume an alcoholic beverage daily. If consistent polling is correct, I predict that the majority in each of our Senate districts would support this amendment's passing and that we would join the options available on marijuana use available to the overwhelming majority of our fellow countrymen and women. Accordingly, I vote AYE on this amendment.—DAVID HALEY

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I vote YES on Senate Bill 67 to honor my commitment to the agreement negotiated between the involved parties, but I have a cautionary note for the proponents. As a Physician and State Senator I serve to protect patients, and I feel obligated to warn CRNAs who will be newly enabled to prescribe opioids if this bill passes the House and is signed by the Governor. Prescribing opioids for chronic pain management has an extremely high risk of addiction. Never forget that Opioid Addiction is an insidious disease that has the potential to ruin patients, families and communities.—WILLIAM CLIFFORD

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I stand in the gap for the less fortunate who happen to find themselves in a situation to ask for public assistance to eat (SNAP). Mr. President, I vote NO on SB 79.—OLETHA FAUST-GOUDEAU

After diligent contemplation, I vote AYE on SB 79; which will request a waiver from the supplemental nutrition assistance program (“SNAP”) to allow Kansas to prohibit purchase of candy and soft drinks with food assistance (aka “electronic benefit transfers” or “EBT” or formerly “food stamps”). As one who lives, and grocery shops, in a “food desert”, every week or so I witness full grocery carts of what is easy to presume are family-based groceries. Too often those carts are laden with candy, sugary drinks, chips and other filler, arguably completely non-nutritional, “foods.” Often masquerading as staples to daily meals, the consumers, often disproportionately children, ingest these foods, once characterized as “junk foods” disproportionately and, sadly, with little if any food or foods with counterbalancing nutritional value. Where, in previous generations, mere concerns for tooth decay or cavities posed concerns, too often in this generation the deeper concerns of the onset of childhood obesity and/or diabetes has become the societal ripple effect. Further, the implementation of the amendment offered, but rejected, to add prepared, or “hot”, foods to the list of purchasable foods would have made good sense in combating the lack of nutritional foods now consumed by those with assistance with EBT or food stamps. Many parents in today’s society simply don’t take the time to cook or even know how to prepare healthy meals. If this waiver is granted, many options will remain for our children to acquire and consume candy and pop in our communities. But instead of being an easy part of daily consumption, often practically a dangerous staple, parents will more diligently shop and prepare meals that bring more nutritional value to their young minds and bodies. With a practical love of our children and my hope for my communities’ children’s healthier futures, I vote AYE on SB 79.—DAVID HALEY

Citizens are listening and restricting assistance under the guise of making sure low-income individuals are “healthy” strips them of their dignity, of their humanity. A poor heavy child isn’t big because they are poor but having a lack of food can create and unhealthy relationship with food. Do we want Kansans to feel devalued because of their economic status? Families in poverty face enough challenges but what they chose to eat should not be legislated. I vote No on SB 79.—PAT PETTEY

While we do want to entice new business in Kansas to grow opportunities, we have to be smart about how we do it going forward. For too long we have been offering massive tax incentives to large out of state corporations subsidized on the backs of ordinary Kansans. Consider this: SB 51 bill comes at the same time that another Senate committee was considering a bill that would prohibit reduced electric rates for data centers that don't employ enough people. The taxpayer watchdog group Good Jobs First issued a report in 2016 that examined 11 data center "megadeals" in which more than $2 billion in state and local incentives were awarded. The study found the deals cost $1.95 million per job, and only one employed more than 200 people. The rest employed 175 people or fewer. If we are serious about cutting the state budget, and providing meaningful tax relief to ALL Kansans, we must stop picking winners and losers with targeted tax relief for a few. Instead, we should level the playing field for all our residents and businesses so they can share in the economic benefits. I vote No.—MIKE THOMPSON

I vote no on Senate Bill 51 due to concerns about our electric power grid's ability to provide adequate power supply in the future for both a potential influx of data centers and other economic development opportunities that provide more employment opportunities. While the future of applications such as artificial intelligence may offer many benefits, data centers are unlike other projects because we really can't estimate today how much their future power usage may increase. It could be exponential. Given that our power grid is not keeping up with current demand in some parts of the state, I cannot support this bill without some type of protections or planning requirements before awarding the sales tax exemption.—KENNY TITUS

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I voted no on SB 76. While I understand the bill's intent, I'm concerned that Section 1(e) creates new legal liabilities that could punish educators for simple mistakes in addressing students. It's my hope that as this bill moves to the House, it will be amended to hold teachers harmless for inadvertent name or pronoun usage, making it a true free speech bill as stated in its preamble. That's the kind of balanced legislation I could support.—JOSEPH CLAEYS

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I completely understand the logic and reason for this bill and empathize with those who are desperate for a cure for a loved one whose life is in jeopardy. However, this bill provides a dangerous opportunity for easy implementation of legalized marijuana in Kansas. Legalized marijuana brings drug cartels, human and sex trafficking, a massive increase in emergency room visits for marijuana related hyperemesis, psychosis, schizophrenia, suicide and underage use of illicit drugs. Recent studies show that underage use of marijuana causes brain development issues, lowering of IQ, and irreversible mental problems. It has also been shown that using marijuana ostensibly for treatment on PTSD invariably hinders the recovery process and harms veterans who have been led to believe marijuana is a miracle drug. So far, Kansans have been smart enough to understand the myriad of ills marijuana would unleash in this state. I would love to support this bill...but given the potential that it could be easily amended in the future to allow a pathway for the myriad problems with legalizing marijuana to metastasize here in Kansas...I cannot in good conscience support it. I vote "no".—MIKE THOMPSON

Senator Peck requests the record to show he concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Thompson on SB 250.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Francisco rose on a Point of Personal Privilege and delivered the following remarks: Sharing news that my mother, Jean Knablein Francisco, passed away peacefully this past Saturday at age 103. She grew up in Erie, Pennsylvania. At age 21 she enlisted in the U.S. Navy as a WAVE (Women Accepted for Volunteer Emergency Service), serving at the Seattle Naval Hospital, where she met Dr. W. David Francisco who became my dad. They married on the 9th of August, 1947, and made their home in Prairie Village throughout their 58-year marriage. My mom was a great cook, a generous hostess, a talented seamstress and an avid gardener. She and my dad were charter members of the Village Presbyterian Church and the Society of Fellows at the Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art. They both enjoyed traveling; she accompanied my dad when he served with Health Volunteers Overseas in Eastern Nigeria (Biafra), the Dominican Republic, and twice in Umtata, South Africa. He passed away in 2006; she has been living independently at Lakeview Village in Lenexa the last ten years. My brother, sister, and her four grandchildren were all able to join us Thursday on Zoom; the Village Church minister stopped by. I appreciated having time last week to spend with my mom. Knox event, the Leavenworth Raiders won their 6th National Championship. Both Leavenworth male, and female teams placed 1st, plus the top 2 female cadets won the Ultimate Raider Challenge on the National stage. This is unprecedented. These champions were. Cadet Elisabeth Howell and Cadet Katherine Schwennesen, Also the male Ultimate Raiders were Cadet Purvis and Cadet Kaminski. They finished third in the event, but they cemented the victory for the male team. Just as an FYI - The one-rope bridge is one of the most competitive and exhilarating events within the competition. It involves constructing a rope traverse between two trees, moving six cadets safely across the rope, and tearing it down all while being timed. Penalties are assessed so time and precision are keys to success in this event. Another event is the gauntlet it is run with a 45-pound rucksack one mile up a hill, and one mile down a hill. Competitions last for an average of ten hours. Teams have little downtime between events. At the end of the competition, each team member has run an average of 12 miles and carried an average of 40 pounds. I ask that the Senate rise and acknowledge our 2024 National Champions, the Leavenworth Raiders for a job well done.

THIRTIETH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, February 27, 2025, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Ty Masterson.

The roll was called with 40 senators present.

President Masterson introduced guest chaplain, Floyd Yoder, who delivered the following invocation:

Dear Heavenly Father, We bow our heads together in humility as we beseech the throne of Grace for what You alone can give. The leaders of this great state of Kansas within this house that produce laws and regulations for its people require the divine hand of God. Each one is in desperate need of wisdom, guidance, and direction. May they have the humility to make their personal request, may they have the desire to seek wisdom from its source, an Almighty God, and may You bless them for it.

We often pray that “God would bless this state or nation,” but, Lord, may we be in the position to be blessed! Forgive our sins and offenses against your laws. Take away the spirit of division and discontentment. Let no personal ambition blind these dear leaders of the greater good. Grant them divine common sense and a selflessness towards service and not of personal gain.

It is in Jesus our Lord’s precious name I pray, Amen.

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1711—

A RESOLUTION honoring Michael Young for his outstanding work and contribution to our state as a talented artist and proud Kansas native.

WHEREAS, Michael Young is the visionary behind the remarkable Brown v. Board of Education mural, one of the most admired artworks on the Kansas Capitol tour; and

WHEREAS, Through his creativity and dedication, Michael Young brilliantly captured the significance of this pivotal moment in history, reminding us of Kansas' commitment to justice and equality; and

WHEREAS, The mural serves as a striking visual representation of progress and a powerful tool to spark meaningful conversations about civil rights; and

WHEREAS, Brown v. Board of Education of Topeka, Kansas, stands as a landmark United States Supreme Court case that declared racial segregation in public schools unconstitutional and affirmed that segregation violates the Equal Protection Clause of the 14th Amendment of the Constitution of the United States; and

WHEREAS, The Brown v. Board of Education landmark decision in 1954 became a monumental step in the fight for civil rights; and

WHEREAS, Kansas has been a leading voice in the struggle for civil rights since it entered the Union as a "free state" in 1861: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we honor Michael Young for his outstanding work and contribution to our state as a talented artist and proud Kansas native; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send enrolled copies of this resolution to Michael Young and Senator Klemp.

On emergency motion of Senator Klemp SR 1711 was adopted by voice vote.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

The Topeka statehouse mural's portrayal of a racist figure wearing an NRA shirt is both historically inaccurate and deeply offensive. The National Rifle Association has advocated for the Second Amendment rights of all Americans since 1871, making it one of America's oldest civil rights organizations. This artistic mischaracterization unfairly tarnishes millions of law-abiding NRA members and distorts our state's history. The irony is striking—a mural supposedly celebrating civil rights simultaneously demonizes one of America's oldest civil rights organizations. This artist smugly inserted his political agenda by portraying NRA members as racists. This self-righteous sanctimony masquerading as art doesn't belong in our statehouse. When artists use public spaces to smear millions of law-abiding citizens, they've abandoned artistry for activism. Kansas deserves better than this transparent attempt to demonize those the artist personally dislikes. Art should illuminate truth, not perpetuate false narratives.—JOSEPH CLAEYS

I want to thank the good Senator from Sedgwick for bringing attention to the inclusion of the term “NRA” within the Brown v. Board of Education mural. While some might instinctively associate it with the National Rifle Association, it’s important to consider alternative historical contexts, such as the National Recovery Administration, an emblematic part of the New Deal policy in the 1930s. However, we must remember the layered complexities of history—while the National Recovery Administration aimed to address economic struggles during the Great Depression, it also faced criticisms for failing to include agricultural and domestic workers, many of whom were African Americans, and for perpetuating wage disparities. I am not sure of the artist’s intent with the inclusion, but it does create conversation. This mural, displayed in our halls since 2018, is a poignant reminder of how art encapsulates historical struggles and triumphs. It represents more than symbolic imagery; it represents a transformational moment of Brown v. Board of Education, which dismantled the entrenched doctrine of “separate but equal” and fundamentally shifted the course of civil rights in America. Art’s role as a catalyst for reflection and dialogue is undeniable—it forces us to grapple with our past while envisioning the future. This mural embodies not only the struggle for equality but the ongoing effort to confront and understand the multifaceted nature of history. While I am a staunch supporter of the NRA, a member, a strong financial supporter of friends of the NRA, and proudly hold a right-to-carry card alongside my wife, I believe it is essential to recognize and celebrate pivotal moments that have shaped the direction of our country.—JEFF KLEMP

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

The Founding Fathers knew there would be moments in the history of the nation when the states would need to initiate amendments to the Constitution. Senate Concurrent Resolution 1604 is necessary to provide future generations the same opportunities of liberty and prosperity our forefathers gave us. The concept of a Convention of States was included in the United States Constitution without dissent. Today, the fears the Founding Fathers had when they included a Convention of States in the Constitution have become reality. The federal government has usurped power from the states. Today, federal overreach stifles liberty. The $36 trillion national debt is unsustainable and threatens our future prosperity. Congressional term limits are necessary to reestablish effective representation of the people. Additionally, it is obvious Congress is not going to reign in the federal government's control over the states. Therefore, it is incumbent upon the states to legitimately restore the constitutional principles which grant us the liberty and prosperity we cherish. The Founding Fathers would not be surprised at the current state of the federal government, but they would be surprised the people allow the excesses to continue by neglecting to use the constitutional means to correct the improprieties. The rules of the convention would be consistent with the dozens of interstate conventions in American history. Article V does not allow for a new Constitution to be written, only amendments. Thirty eight states or three-fourths of the states must ratify a proposal in order to amend the Constitution, indeed a high-bar preventing any threat of a runaway convention. Proposed amendments would be restricted to amendments providing fiscal restraints, limiting the power and jurisdiction of the federal government, and setting term limits for federal officials. Any other topics would not be germane to the convention. Polling shows Americans overwhelmingly support these three issues. An Article V Convention of States is the legitimate constitutional means to accomplish these objectives and an effective method to give our grandchildren a nation in which freedom rings.—TJ ROSE

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, March 5, 2025, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Ty Masterson.

The roll was called with 39 senators present.

Senator J. R. Claeys was excused.

President Masterson introduced guest chaplain, Doug Henkle, who delivered the following invocation:

Gracious Father, I thank You for the sunshine this afternoon and the persistence of the coming spring, despite the winter weather overnight and the blustery day. Your word tells us that Your plans are to prosper us, to give us a future and a hope. Father, I thank You for the hope we have in Jesus. Thank You for the promise of Your gracious goodness and the assurance that Your heart is always good toward us. Fill the Kansas Senate with Your peace and Your insight.

As many of us observe Ash Wednesday, preparing our hearts and minds for the joyous celebration of Easter Sunday, we are reminded of your calling to repent, to change our thinking, to have the mind of Christ. Give this body Your mind and Your wisdom as the critical issues of the day are debated. Cause each senator to argue strongly held, often differing, positions in a gracious and honorable way, ultimately bringing about a resolution honoring You and blessing all Kansans.

I pray for President Masterson, Vice President Shallenburger, Majority Leader Blasi and Minority Leader Sykes, the committee chairs and ranking minorities and each senator. Bless them with Your wisdom and Your grace.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

THIRTY-FIFTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, March 6, 2025, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Tim Shallenburger.

The roll was called with 40 senators present.

Vice President Shallenburger introduced guest chaplain, Doug Henkle, who delivered the following invocation:

Dear Jesus, You have called each Senator to the office they hold and to this chamber now. I ask that You would keep, fresh in their minds, Your calling on their lives, even as the responsibilities of the waning weeks of this session may seem to loom large. I ask that You give them clear focus as the issues of this session are decided. I pray that they might trust You to provide all they need to accomplish Your calling.

Remind us that we needn't carry a burden of things You never intended us to carry. Keep us, each one, from a prideful mind and heart, set on doing things our own way. But rather, cause us to lay our heavy burdens at Your feet, taking up instead Your easy yoke. Thank You, Lord, that this very good exchange is possible.

Father, thank You for our form of government and that the citizens of our state are welcome to observe our elected representatives debating and voting on potential laws of our state. Thank You for each guest in this chamber today and for their interest in viewing our legislative process in action

I ask that You continue to give President Masterson, Vice President Shallenburger, Majority Leader Blasi, and Minority Leader Sykes Your divine wisdom and insight as they lead this chamber through the challenges of the legislative process. EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I voted against SCR 1611 because, while I acknowledge that the current method of selecting judicial candidates through a nominating committee is not without its flaws, this resolution does not offer a sound alternative. I have previously supported a system that more closely mirrors the federal model (Senate confirmation) but SCR 1611 fails to establish essential safeguards for judicial selection. One of my concerns is the lack of parameters for candidacy. The judiciary requires expertise, impartiality, and a deep understanding of the law, and SCR 1611 does not ensure that these critical qualities are upheld in the selection process. A Senate confirmation process in Kansas would allow for more thorough vetting of a candidate. Additionally, I am concerned about the impact this resolution would have on rural representation. Larger population centers, with greater resources and voting power, would have the ability to dominate the selection of Supreme Court justices, leaving rural communities with little to no voice in the process. Ensuring a fair and balanced judiciary requires a system that protects representation for all Kansans, not just those in high-population areas.—ELAINE BOWERS

Senators Argabright, Clifford and Dietrich request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Bowers on SCR 1611.

The opposition has raised concerns about judicial elections being "for sale" to the highest bidder. This argument fundamentally misunderstands both voters and democracy itself. Elections aren't auctions where voters go to the highest bidder. This cynical view insults the intelligence and integrity of everyday citizens. When we claim elections can be "bought," we're really saying voters are too easily manipulated—too gullible or disengaged to see through campaign spending and make independent judgments. The data tells a different story. For every well-funded candidate who wins, another loses despite overwhelming financial advantages. Campaign finance certainly matters, but its influence is vastly overstated. Voters consistently demonstrate the ability to evaluate candidates on their merits regardless of advertising budgets. Moreover, merit selection doesn't eliminate money from judicial selection—it simply redirects its influence to less transparent channels. Instead of campaign contributions that must be disclosed, we get lobbying of nominating commissions behind closed doors. When we claim judicial elections are "for sale," we imply that voters are incapable of selecting qualified judges. Yet these same voters are trusted to elect governors, legislators, and presidents who make decisions of equal or greater consequence. The real question isn't whether money plays a role in elections—it's whether we trust citizens to navigate that reality. Merit selection answers that question with a resounding "no," removing power from voters and handing it to bar associations and political appointees. Elected judges remain accountable to the people they serve, not just during campaigns but throughout their tenure. An elected judge knows their decisions will eventually face the most important review of all: the judgment of their community at the ballot box. I vote to put judicial selection where it belongs—in the hands of voters, not committees meeting behind closed doors.—JOSEPH CLAEYS

Senator Gossage requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Joseph Claeys on SCR 1611.

I vote NO on SCR 1611. If enacted, judicial elections would unleash on Kansas a raft of special interest and dark money the likes of which our state has never seen. The voices of average Kansans would be drowned out in favor of the narrow concerns of the biggest funders. Unsuccessful litigants before the Kansas Supreme Court would be left wondering if their loss was due to the merits of their legal arguments or the number of zeroes on their opponent's campaign check. Instead of consulting the law books before rendering a decision, Justices would consult their pollsters, effectively becoming politicians in robes. The best and brightest attorneys would not participate in what will inevitably become a circus-like process, and the rural perspective, which is so desperately needed in a state like Kansas, would be lost. For these reasons, and many others, I vote NO on SCR 1611.—ETHAN CORSON

Senators Francisco, Haley, Sykes and Ware request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Corson on SCR 1611.

I vote "NO" on SCR 1611. I, and many of my constituents who have contacted me, believe the current merit selection system for selecting judges should be maintained rather than changing it to an elected office. I recognize that this resolution would put the question to the voters. That being the case, I believe it is imperative that this measure includes an explanatory statement that for the ballot that fairly presents the arguments for and against. I offered an amendment to more accurately describe the membership of the Kansas supreme court nominating commission as consisting of five attorneys, four of whom represent each congressional district, and four non-lawyers who represent each congressional district in contrast to saying whose membership consists of a majority of lawyers. That amendment failed. We owe a more complete explanation to the voters of Kansas when we are asking them to make this important decision.—MARCI FRANCISCO

Senator Ware requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Francisco on SCR 1611.

Kansas currently stands alone as the only state in the union that enshrines the power to decide who sits on our highest court to a commission controlled by five lawyers selected by other lawyers. This outlier system has failed, producing an often-overturned court that has no real accountability to the people. Rather than a system that consolidates authority in the hands of an elite society of super voters, it's time to restore that power to all Kansans.—TY MASTERSON

Senators Erickson, Kloos, Murphy, Peck and Thompson request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Masterson on SCR 1611.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Tim Shallenburger.

The roll was called with 37 senators present.

"Holy Mystery who is known in acts of Justice and Love, we gather here this day with a sense of purpose. We gather in the name of the people of Kansas.

We ask that you would bless these men and women of the Senate, empower them to do the people's work, give them courage to let the voice of the people be heard; in their deliberations, in their committees, in their votes on the floor. Let them work in such a way that the state of Kansas is strengthened; let them come together in such a way that the people of Kansas – all people of Kansas, the farmers, the bankers, the students, and those who teach, the wealthy, the poor, people of all sexual orientations and gender identities, races and ethnicities, and faith traditions, that all these people of Kansas are served. May they remember that in serving these people the interests of this fine state are served well.

And because we are human, and because there will be honest, heart-felt disagreements, I pray for grace for each of these leaders. Grace to acknowledge when they got it wrong and then to make a different choice, grace to forgive when offended by others, and grace to acknowledge different ways of seeing an issue in unity of purpose. In this great land of bounty where we provide food for the table, may these Senators also work in such a way to ensure there is room at the table for all.

It's a new day; the door of possibilities for greater justice, equity, and prosperity stands wide open. May each of these women and men in the Kansas State Senate, indeed may each of us, walk through this door boldly and with great hope for creating a better tomorrow. In your many names, and in the name of all that is holy, we pray. Amen."

SECTION 1—PURPOSE

In order to strengthen access to medical services and in recognition of the advances in the delivery of medical services, the participating states of the PA licensure compact have allied in common purpose to develop a comprehensive process that complements the existing authority of state licensing boards to license and discipline PAs and seeks to enhance the portability of a license to practice as a PA while safeguarding the safety of patients. This compact allows medical services to be provided by PAs, via the mutual recognition of the licensee's qualifying license by other compact-participating states. This compact also adopts the prevailing standard for PA licensure and affirms that the practice and delivery of medical services by the PA occurs where the patient is located at the time of the patient encounter and, therefore, requires the PA to be under the jurisdiction of the state licensing board where the patient is located. State licensing boards that participate in this compact retain the jurisdiction to impose adverse action against a compact privilege in that state issued to a PA through the procedures of this compact. The PA licensure compact will alleviate burdens for military families by allowing active duty military personnel and their spouses to obtain a compact privilege based on having an unrestricted license in good standing from a participating state.

SECTION 2—DEFINITIONS

As used in this compact:

(a) "Adverse action" means any administrative, civil, equitable or criminal action permitted by a state's laws that is imposed by a licensing board or other authority against a PA license, application for licensure or compact privilege such as license denial, censure, revocation, suspension, probation, monitoring of the licensee or restriction on the licensee's practice.

(b) "Compact privilege" means the authorization granted by a remote state to allow a licensee from another participating state to practice as a PA to provide medical services and other licensed activity to a patient located in the remote state under the remote state's laws and regulations.

(c) "Conviction" means a finding by a court that an individual is guilty of a felony or misdemeanor offense through adjudication or entry of a guilty plea or no contest to the charge by the offender.

(d) "Criminal background check" means the submission of fingerprints or other biometric-based information for an applicant for licensure for the purpose of obtaining that applicant's criminal history record information, as defined in 28 C.F.R. § 20.3(d), from the state's criminal history record repository as defined in 28 C.F.R. § 20.3(f).

(e) "Data system" means the repository of information concerning licensees, including, but not limited to, license status and adverse actions, that is created and administered under the terms of this compact.

(f) "Executive committee" means a group of directors and ex officio individuals elected or appointed pursuant to section 7(f)(2).

(g) "Impaired practitioner" means a PA whose practice is adversely affected by a health-related condition that impacts such PA's ability to practice.

(h) "Investigative information" means information, records or documents received or generated by a licensing board pursuant to an investigation.

(i) "Jurisprudence requirement" means the assessment of an individual's knowledge of the laws and rules governing the practice of a PA in a state.

(j) "License" means current authorization by a state, other than authorization pursuant to a compact privilege, for a PA to provide medical services that would be unlawful without current authorization.

(k) "Licensee" means an individual who holds a license from a state to provide medical services as a PA.

(l) "Licensing board" means any state entity authorized to license and otherwise regulate PAs.

(m) "Medical services" means healthcare services provided for the diagnosis, prevention, treatment, cure or relief of a health condition, injury or disease, as defined by a state's laws and regulations.

(n) "Model compact" means the model for the PA licensure compact on file with the council of state governments or other entity as designated by the commission.

(o) "PA" means an individual who is licensed as a physician assistant in a state. For purposes of this compact, any other title or status adopted by a state to replace the term "physician assistant" shall be deemed synonymous with "physician assistant" and shall confer the same rights and responsibilities to the licensee under the provisions of this compact at the time of its enactment.

(p) "PA licensure compact commission," "compact commission" or "commission" means the national administrative body created pursuant to section 7(a).

(q) "Participating state" means a state that has enacted this compact.

(r) "Qualifying license" means an unrestricted license issued by a participating state to provide medical services as a PA.

(s) "Remote state" means a participating state where a licensee who is not licensed as a PA is exercising or seeking to exercise the compact privilege.

(t) "Rule" means any rule or regulation adopted by an entity that has the force and effect of law.

(u) "Significant investigative information" means investigative information that a licensing board, after an inquiry or investigation that includes notification and an opportunity for the PA to respond if required by state law, has reason to believe is not groundless and, if proven true, would indicate more than a minor infraction.

(v) "State" means any state, commonwealth, district or territory of the United States.

SECTION 3—STATE PARTICIPATION IN THIS COMPACT

(a) To participate in this compact, a participating state shall:

(3) have a mechanism in place for receiving and investigating complaints against licensees and applicants for licensure;

(4) notify the commission, in compliance with the terms of this compact and commission rules, of any adverse action against a licensee or applicant for licensure and the existence of significant investigative information regarding a licensee or applicant for licensure;

(7) utilize passage of a recognized national examination such as the NCCPA PANCE as a requirement for PA licensure; and

(8) grant the compact privilege to a holder of a qualifying license in a participating state.

(b) Nothing in this compact shall be construed to prohibit a participating state from charging a fee for granting the compact privilege.

SECTION 4—COMPACT PRIVILEGE

(a) To exercise the compact privilege, a licensee shall:

(1) Have graduated from a PA program accredited by the accreditation review commission on education for the physician assistant, inc., or other programs authorized by commission rule;

(2) hold current NCCPA certification;

(3) have no felony or misdemeanor convictions;

(4) have never had a controlled substance license, permit or registration suspended or revoked by a state or by the United States drug enforcement administration;

(5) have a unique identifier as determined by commission rule;

(6) hold a qualifying license;

(7) have had no revocation of a license or limitation or restriction on any license currently held due to an adverse action;

(A) if a licensee has had a limitation or restriction on a license or compact privilege due to an adverse action, two years shall have elapsed from the date on which the license or compact privilege is no longer limited or restricted due to the adverse action;

(B) if a compact privilege has been revoked or is limited or restricted in a participating state for conduct that would not be a basis for disciplinary action in a participating state in which the licensee is practicing or applying to practice under a compact privilege, that participating state shall have the discretion not to consider such action as an adverse action requiring the denial or removal of a compact privilege in that state;

(8) notify the compact commission that the licensee is seeking the compact privilege in a remote state;

(9) meet any jurisprudence requirement of a remote state in which the licensee is seeking to practice under the compact privilege and pay any fees applicable to satisfying the jurisprudence requirement; and

(10) report to the commission any adverse action taken by a nonparticipating state within 30 days after such adverse action is taken.

(b) The compact privilege shall be valid until the expiration or revocation of the qualifying license unless terminated pursuant to an adverse action. The licensee shall comply with the requirements of subsection (a) to maintain the compact privilege in a remote state. If the participating state takes adverse action against a qualifying license, the licensee shall lose the compact privilege in any remote state in which the licensee has a compact privilege until the licensee meets the following conditions:

- (1) The license is no longer limited or restricted; and
- (2) two years have elapsed from the date on which the license is no longer limited or restricted due to the adverse action.

(c) Once a restricted or limited license satisfies the requirements of subsection (b), the licensee shall meet the requirements of subsection (a) to obtain a compact privilege in any remote state.

(d) For each remote state in which a PA seeks authority to prescribe controlled substances, the PA shall satisfy all the requirements imposed by such state in granting or renewing such authority.

SECTION 5—DESIGNATION OF THE STATE FROM WHICH THE LICENSEE IS APPLYING FOR A COMPACT PRIVILEGE

Upon a licensee's application for a compact privilege, the licensee shall identify to the commission the participating state from which the licensee is applying, in accordance with applicable rules adopted by the commission and subject to the following requirements:

(a) When applying for a compact privilege, the licensee shall provide the commission with the address of the licensee's primary residence and, thereafter, shall immediately report to the commission any change in the address of the licensee's primary residence; and

(b) when applying for a compact privilege, the licensee is required to consent to accept service of process by mail at the licensee's primary residence on file with the commission with respect to any action brought against the licensee by the commission or a participating state, including a subpoena, with respect to any action brought or investigation conducted by the commission or a participating state.

SECTION 6—ADVERSE ACTIONS

(a) A participating state in which a licensee is licensed shall have exclusive power to impose adverse action against the qualifying license issued by that participating state.

(b) In addition to the other powers conferred by state law, a remote state shall have the authority, in accordance with existing state due process law, to:

(1) Take adverse action against a PA's compact privilege within that state to remove a licensee's compact privilege or take other action necessary under applicable law to protect the health and safety of its citizens; and

(2) issue subpoenas for both hearings and investigations that require the attendance and testimony of witnesses as well as the production of evidence. Subpoenas issued by a licensing board in a participating state for the attendance and testimony of witnesses or the production of evidence from another participating state shall be enforced in the latter state by any court of competent jurisdiction, according to the practice and procedure of such court applicable to subpoenas issued in proceedings pending before it. The issuing authority shall pay any witness fees, travel expenses, mileage and other fees required by the service statutes of the state in which the witnesses or evidence is located.

(c) Notwithstanding subsection (b)(2), subpoenas shall not be issued by a participating state to gather evidence of conduct in another state that is lawful in such other state for the purpose of taking adverse action against a licensee's compact privilege or application for a compact privilege in the participating state.

(d) Nothing in this compact shall be deemed to authorize a participating state to impose discipline against a PA's compact privilege or to deny an application for a compact privilege in that participating state for the individual's otherwise lawful practice in another state.

(e) For purposes of taking adverse action, the participating state that issued the qualifying license shall give the same priority and effect to reported conduct received from any other participating state as it would if the conduct had occurred within the participating state that issued the qualifying license. The participating state shall apply its own state laws to determine appropriate action.

(f) A participating state, if otherwise permitted by state law, may recover from the affected PA the costs of investigations and disposition of cases resulting from any adverse action taken against that PA.

(g) A participating state may take adverse action based on the factual findings of a remote state if the participating state follows its own procedures for taking the adverse action.

(1) In addition to the authority granted to a participating state by such state's PA laws and regulations or other applicable state law, any participating state may participate with other participating states in joint investigations of licensees.

(2) Participating states shall share any investigative, litigation or compliance materials in furtherance of any joint or individual investigation initiated under this compact.

(i) If an adverse action is taken against a PA's qualifying license, the PA's compact privilege in all remote states shall be deactivated until two years have elapsed after all restrictions have been removed from the state license. All disciplinary orders by the participating state that issued the qualifying license that impose adverse action against a PA's license shall include a statement that the PA's compact privilege is deactivated in all participating states during the pendency of the order.

(j) If any participating state takes adverse action, it promptly shall notify the administrator of the data system.

SECTION 7—ESTABLISHMENT OF THE PA LICENSURE COMPACT COMMISSION

(a) The participating states hereby create and establish a joint government agency and national administrative body known as the PA licensure compact commission. The commission is an instrumentality of the compact states acting jointly and not an instrumentality of any one state. The commission shall come into existence on or after the effective date of the compact as set forth in section 11(a).

(b) Membership, voting and meetings.

(1) Each participating state shall have and be limited to one delegate selected by such participating state's licensing board or, if such participating state has more than one licensing board, selected collectively by the participating state's licensing boards.

(2) A delegate shall be either:

(A) A current PA, physician or public member of a licensing board or PA council or committee; or

(B) an administrator of a licensing board.

(3) Any delegate may be removed or suspended from office as provided by the laws of the state from which the delegate is appointed.

A delegate shall vote in person or by such other means as provided in the bylaws. The bylaws may provide for delegates' participation in meetings by telecommunications, video conference or other means of communication.

(6) The commission shall meet at least once during each calendar year. Additional meetings shall be held as set forth in this compact and the bylaws.

(7) The commission shall establish by rule a term of office for delegates.

(c) The commission shall have the following powers and duties:

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (d)(1), the commission may convene a public meeting by providing at least 24 hours' prior notice on the commission's website and any other means as provided in the commission's rules for any of the reasons it may dispense, with notice of proposed rulemaking under section 9(1).

(3) The commission may convene in a closed, nonpublic meeting or nonpublic part of a public meeting to receive legal advice or to discuss:

(A) Noncompliance of a participating state with its obligations under this compact;

(B) the employment, compensation, discipline or other matters, practices or procedures related to specific employees or other matters related to the commission's internal personnel practices and procedures;

(2) The commission may accept any and all appropriate revenue sources, donations and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials and services.

(3) The commission may levy on and collect an annual assessment from each participating state and may impose compact privilege fees on licensees of participating states to which a compact privilege is granted to cover the cost of the operations and activities of the commission and its staff. Such assessment shall be in a total amount sufficient to cover the commission's annual budget as approved by the commission each year for which revenue is not provided by other sources. The aggregate annual assessment amount levied on participating states shall be allocated based upon a formula to be determined by commission rule. Compact privileges and such compact privilege's associated fees shall be governed as follows:

(A) A compact privilege expires when the licensee's qualifying license in the participating state from which the licensee applied for the compact privilege expires; and

(B) if the licensee terminates the qualifying license through which the licensee applied for the compact privilege before its scheduled expiration and the licensee has a qualifying license in another participating state, the licensee shall inform the commission that it is changing to that participating state through which it applies for a compact privilege to that participating state and pay to the commission any compact privilege fee required by commission rule.

(4) The commission shall not incur obligations of any kind prior to securing the funds adequate to meet such obligations, nor shall the commission pledge the credit of any of the participating states, except by and with the authority of the participating state.

(2) The executive committee shall be composed of nine members described as follows:

(A) Seven voting members who are elected by the commission from the current membership of the commission;

(B)(i)(a) one ex officio, nonvoting member from a recognized national PA professional association; and

(H) perform other duties as provided in the commission's rules or bylaws.

(6) All meetings of the executive committee at which it votes or plans to vote on matters in exercising the powers and duties of the commission shall be open to the public and public notice of such meetings shall be given as public meetings of the commission are given.

(7) The executive committee may convene in a closed, nonpublic meeting for the same reasons that the commission may convene in a nonpublic meeting as set forth in subsection (d)(3), and shall announce the closed meeting as the commission is required to do under subsection (d)(4) and keep minutes of the closed meeting as the commission is required to do under subsection (d)(5).

(g) Qualified immunity, defense and indemnification.

(1) The members, officers, executive director, employees and representatives of the commission shall be immune from suit and liability, both personally and in their official capacity, for any claim for damage to or loss of property or personal injury or other civil liability caused by or arising out of any actual or alleged act, error or omission that occurred or that the individual against whom the claim is made had a reasonable basis for believing occurred within the scope of commission employment, duties or responsibilities. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to protect any such individual from suit or liability for any damage, loss, injury or liability caused by the intentional or willful or wanton misconduct of such individual. The procurement of insurance of any type by the commission shall not in any way compromise or limit the immunity granted hereunder.

(2) The commission shall defend any member, officer, executive director, employee, and representative of the commission in any civil action seeking to impose liability arising out of any actual or alleged act, error or omission that occurred within the scope of commission employment, duties or responsibilities or as determined by the commission that the individual against whom the claim is made had a reasonable basis for believing occurred within the scope of commission employment, duties or responsibilities. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit such individual from retaining such individual's own counsel at the individual's own expense or that the actual or alleged act, error or omission did not result from the individual's intentional, willful or wanton misconduct.

(3) The commission shall indemnify and hold harmless any member, officer, executive director, employee or representative of the commission for the amount of any settlement or judgment obtained against that individual arising out of any actual or alleged act, error or omission that occurred within the scope of commission employment, duties or responsibilities or that such individual had a reasonable basis for believing occurred within the scope of commission employment, duties or responsibilities, if the actual or alleged act, error or omission did not result from the intentional or willful or wanton misconduct of that individual.

(4) Venue is proper and judicial proceedings by or against the commission shall be brought solely and exclusively in a court of competent jurisdiction where the principal office of the commission is located. The commission may waive venue and jurisdictional defenses in any proceedings as authorized by commission rules.

(5) Nothing herein shall be construed as a limitation on the liability of any licensee for professional malpractice or misconduct, which shall be governed solely by any other applicable state laws.

(6) Nothing herein shall be construed to designate the venue or jurisdiction to bring actions for alleged acts of malpractice, professional misconduct, negligence or other such civil action pertaining to the practice of a PA. All such matters shall be determined exclusively by state law other than this compact.

(7) Nothing in this compact shall be interpreted to waive or otherwise abrogate a participating state's state action immunity or state action affirmative defense with respect to antitrust claims under the Sherman act, Clayton act or any other state or federal antitrust or anticompetitive law or regulation.

(8) Nothing in this compact shall be construed to be a waiver of sovereign immunity by the participating states or by the commission.

SECTION 8—DATA SYSTEM

(a) The commission shall provide for the development, maintenance, operation and utilization of a coordinated data and reporting system containing licensure, adverse action and the reporting of the existence of significant investigative information on all licensed PAs and applicants that are denied a license in participating states.

(b) Notwithstanding any other state law to the contrary, a participating state shall submit a uniform data set to the data system on all PAs to whom this compact is applicable, utilizing a unique identifier, as required by the rules of the commission, including:

- (1) Identifying information;
- (2) licensure data;
- (3) adverse actions against a license or compact privilege;
- (4) any denial of application for licensure and the reason for such denial, excluding the reporting of any criminal history record information where such reporting is prohibited by law;

(5) the existence of significant investigative information; and

(6) other information that may facilitate the administration of this compact, as determined by the rules of the commission.

(c) Significant investigative information pertaining to a licensee in any participating state shall only be available to other participating states.

(d) The commission shall promptly notify all participating states of any adverse action taken against a licensee or an individual applying for a license that has been reported to such commission. Such adverse action information shall be available to any other participating state.

(e) Participating states contributing information to the data system may, in accordance with state or federal law, designate information that shall not be shared with the public without the express permission of the contributing state. Notwithstanding any such designation, such information shall be reported to the commission through the data system.

(f) Any information submitted to the data system that is subsequently expunged pursuant to federal law or the laws of the participating state contributing the information shall be removed from the data system upon reporting of such by the participating state to the commission.

(g) The records and information provided to a participating state pursuant to this compact or through the data system, when certified by the commission or an agent thereof, shall constitute the authenticated business records of the commission and shall be entitled to any associated hearsay exception in any relevant judicial, quasi-judicial or administrative proceedings in a participating state.

SECTION 9—RULEMAKING

(a) The commission shall exercise its rulemaking powers pursuant to the criteria set forth in this section and the rules adopted thereunder. Commission rules shall become binding as of the date specified by the commission for each rule.

(b) The commission shall adopt reasonable rules in order to effectively and efficiently implement and administer this compact and achieve its purposes. A commission rule shall be invalid and have no force or effect only if a court of competent jurisdiction holds that the rule is invalid because the commission exercised its rulemaking authority in a manner that is beyond the scope of the purposes of this compact, the powers granted hereunder or based upon another applicable standard of review.

(c) The rules of the commission shall have the force of law in each participating state, except that where the rules of the commission conflict with the laws of the participating state that establish the medical services, a PA may perform in the participating state, as held by a court of competent jurisdiction, and the rules of the commission shall be ineffective in that state to the extent of the conflict.

(d) If a majority of the legislatures of the participating states rejects a commission rule, by enactment of a statute or resolution in the same manner used to adopt this compact within four years of the date of adoption of the rule, then such rule shall have no further force and effect in any participating state or to any state applying to participate in the compact.

(e) Commission rules shall be adopted at a regular or special meeting of the commission.

(f) Prior to promulgation and adoption of a final rule by the commission and at least 30 days in advance of the meeting at which the rule will be considered and voted upon, the commission shall file a notice of proposed rulemaking:

(1) On the commission's website or other publicly accessible platform;
(2) to persons who have requested notice of the commission's notices of proposed rulemaking; and

(3) in such other ways as the commission may specify by rule.

(g) The notice of proposed rulemaking shall include:

(1) The time, date and location of the public hearing on the proposed rule and the proposed time, date and location of the meeting in which the proposed rule will be considered and voted upon;

(2) the text of and the reason for the proposed rule;

(3) a request for comments on the proposed rule from any interested person and the date by which written comments must be received; and

(4) the manner in which interested persons may submit notice to the commission of their intention to attend the public hearing or provide any written comments.

(h) Prior to adoption of a proposed rule, the commission shall allow persons to submit written data, facts, opinions and arguments, which shall be made available to the public.

(i) If the hearing is to be held via electronic means, the commission shall publish the mechanism for access to the electronic hearing.

(1) All persons wishing to be heard at the hearing shall, as directed in the notice of proposed rulemaking published not less than five business days before the scheduled date of the hearing, notify the commission of their desire to appear and testify at the hearing.

(2) Hearings shall be conducted in a manner that provides each person who wishes to comment a fair and reasonable opportunity to comment orally or in writing.

(3) All hearings shall be recorded. A copy of the recording and the written comments, data, facts, opinions and arguments received in response to the proposed rulemaking shall be made available to a person upon request.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring a separate hearing on each proposed rule. Proposed rules may be grouped for the convenience of the commission at hearings required by this section.

(j) Following the public hearing, the commission shall consider all written and oral comments timely received.

(k) The commission shall, by majority vote of all delegates, take final action on the proposed rule and shall determine the effective date of the rule, if adopted, based on the rulemaking record and the full text of the rule.

(1) If adopted, the rule shall be posted on the commission's website.

(2) The commission may adopt changes to the proposed rule if the changes do not expand the original purpose of the proposed rule.

(3) The commission shall provide an explanation on its website of the reasons for any substantive changes made to the proposed rule as well as reasons for any substantive changes not made that were recommended by commenters.

(4) The commission shall determine a reasonable effective date for the rule. Except for an emergency as provided in subsection (l), the effective date of the rule shall be not sooner than 30 days after the commission issued the notice that it adopted the rule.

(l) Upon the determination that an emergency exists, the commission may consider and adopt an emergency rule with 24 hours' prior notice, without the opportunity for comment or hearing, except that the usual rulemaking procedures provided in this compact and in this section shall be retroactively applied to the rule as soon as reasonably possible but in no event later than 90 days after the effective date of the rule. For the purposes of this provision, an emergency rule is one that shall be adopted immediately by the commission in order to:

- (1) Address an imminent threat to public health, safety or welfare;
- (2) prevent a loss of commission or participating state funds;
- (3) meet a deadline for the promulgation of a commission rule that is established by federal law or rule; or
- (4) protect public health and safety.

(m) The commission, or an authorized committee of the commission, may direct revisions to a previously adopted commission rule for purposes of correcting typographical errors, errors in format, errors in consistency or grammatical errors. Public notice of any revisions shall be posted on the commission's website. The revision shall be subject to challenge by any person for a period of 30 days after posting. The revision may be challenged only on grounds that the revision results in a material change to a rule. A challenge shall be made as set forth in the notice of revisions and delivered to the commission prior to the end of the notice period. If no challenge is made, the revision shall take effect without further action. If the revision is challenged, the revision shall not take effect without the approval of the commission.

(n) No participating state's rulemaking requirements shall apply under this compact.

SECTION 10—OVERSIGHT, DISPUTE RESOLUTION AND ENFORCEMENT

(1) The executive and judicial branches of state government in each participating state shall enforce this compact and take all actions necessary and appropriate to implement the compact.

(2) Venue is proper and judicial proceedings by or against the commission shall be brought solely and exclusively in a court of competent jurisdiction where the principal office of the commission is located. The commission may waive venue and jurisdictional defenses to the extent that it adopts or consents to participate in alternative dispute resolution proceedings. Nothing herein shall affect or limit the selection or propriety of venue in any action against a licensee for professional malpractice, misconduct or any such similar matter.

(3) The commission shall be entitled to receive service of process in any proceeding regarding the enforcement or interpretation of the compact or the commission's rules and shall have standing to intervene in such a proceeding for all purposes. Failure to provide the commission with service of process shall render a judgment or order in such proceeding void as to the commission, this compact or commission rules.

(b) Default, technical assistance and termination.

(1) If the commission determines that a participating state has defaulted in the performance of its obligations or responsibilities under this compact or the commission rules, the commission shall provide written notice to the defaulting state and other participating states. The notice shall describe the default, the proposed means of curing the default and any other action that the commission may take and shall offer remedial training and specific technical assistance regarding the default.

(2) If a state in default fails to cure the default, the defaulting state may be terminated from this compact upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the delegates of the participating states, and all rights, privileges and benefits conferred by this compact upon such state may be terminated on the effective date of termination. A cure of the default shall not relieve the offending state of obligations or liabilities incurred during the period of default.

(3) Termination of participation in this compact shall be imposed only after all other means of securing compliance have been exhausted. Notice of intent to suspend or terminate shall be given by the commission to the governor, the majority and minority leaders of the defaulting state's legislature and to the licensing board of each of the participating states.

(4) A state that has been terminated is responsible for all assessments, obligations and liabilities incurred through the effective date of termination, including obligations that extend beyond the effective date of termination.

(5) The commission shall not bear any costs related to a state that is found to be in default or that has been terminated from this compact, unless agreed upon in writing between the commission and the defaulting state.

(6) The defaulting state may appeal its termination from the compact by the commission by petitioning the United States district court for the District of Columbia or the federal district where the commission has its principal offices. The prevailing member shall be awarded all costs of such litigation, including reasonable attorney fees.

(7) Upon the termination of a state's participation in the compact, the state shall immediately provide notice to all licensees within that state of such termination:

(A) Licensees who have been granted a compact privilege in that state shall retain the compact privilege for 180 days following the effective date of such termination; and

(B) licensees who are licensed in that state who have been granted a compact privilege in a participating state shall retain the compact privilege for 180 days unless the licensee also has a qualifying license in a participating state or obtains a qualifying license in a participating state before the 180-day period ends, in which case, the compact privilege shall continue.

(c) Dispute resolution.

(1) Upon request by a participating state, the commission shall attempt to resolve disputes related to this compact that arise among participating states and between participating and nonparticipating states.

(2) The commission shall adopt a rule providing for both mediation and binding dispute resolution for disputes as appropriate.

(1) The commission, in the reasonable exercise of its discretion, shall enforce the provisions of this compact and rules of the commission.

(2) If compliance is not secured after all means to secure compliance have been exhausted, by majority vote, the commission may initiate legal action in the United States district court for the District of Columbia or the federal district where the commission has its principal offices against a participating state in default to enforce compliance with the provisions of this compact and the commission's adopted rules and bylaws. The relief sought may include both injunctive relief and damages. In the event that judicial enforcement is necessary, the prevailing party shall be awarded all costs of such litigation, including reasonable attorney fees.

(3) The remedies herein shall not be the exclusive remedies of the commission. The commission may pursue any other remedies available under federal or state law.

(e) Legal action against the commission.

(1) A participating state may initiate legal action against the commission in the United States district court for the District of Columbia or the federal district where the commission has its principal offices to enforce compliance with the provisions of the compact and its rules. The relief sought may include both injunctive relief and damages. In the event that judicial enforcement is necessary, the prevailing party shall be awarded all costs of such litigation, including reasonable attorney fees.

(2) No person other than a participating state shall enforce this compact against the commission.

SECTION 11—DATE OF IMPLEMENTATION OF THE PA LICENSURE COMPACT COMMISSION

(a) This compact shall come into effect on the date that this compact statute is enacted into law in the seventh participating state.

(1) On or after the effective date of the compact, the commission shall convene and review the enactment of each of the states that enacted the compact prior to the commission convening, called charter-participating states, to determine if the statute enacted by each such charter-participating state is materially different than the model compact.

(A) A charter-participating state whose enactment is found to be materially different from the model compact shall be entitled to the default process set forth in section 10(b).

(B) If any participating state later withdraws from the compact or its participation is terminated, the commission shall remain in existence and the compact shall remain in effect even if the number of participating states should be fewer than seven. Participating states enacting the compact subsequent to the commission convening shall be subject to the process set forth in section 7(c)(21) to determine if their enactments are materially different from the model compact and whether they qualify for participation in the compact.

(2) Participating states enacting the compact subsequent to the seven initial charter-participating states shall be subject to the process set forth in section 7(c)(21) to determine if their enactments are materially different from the model compact and whether they qualify for participation in the compact.

(3) All actions taken for the benefit of the commission or in furtherance of the purposes of the administration of the compact prior to the effective date of the compact or the commission coming into existence shall be considered to be actions of the commission unless specifically repudiated by the commission.

(b) Any state that joins this compact shall be subject to the commission's rules and bylaws as they exist on the date that this compact becomes law in that state. Any rule that has been previously adopted by the commission shall have the full force and effect of law on the day that this compact becomes law in that state.

(c) Any participating state may withdraw from this compact by enacting a statute repealing the same.

(1) A participating state's withdrawal shall not take effect until 180 days after enactment of the repealing statute. During the 180-day period, all compact privileges that were in effect in the withdrawing state and were granted to licensees licensed in the withdrawing state shall remain in effect. If any licensee licensed in the withdrawing state is also licensed in another participating state or obtains a license in another participating state within the 180 days, the licensee's compact privileges in other participating states shall not be affected by the passage of the 180 days.

(2) Withdrawal shall not affect the continuing requirement of the state licensing board of the withdrawing state to comply with the investigative and adverse action reporting requirements of this compact prior to the effective date of withdrawal.

(3) Upon the enactment of a statute withdrawing a state from this compact, the state shall immediately provide notice of such withdrawal to all licensees within that state. Such withdrawing state shall continue to recognize all licenses granted pursuant to this compact for a minimum of 180 days after the date of such notice of withdrawal.

(d) Nothing contained in this compact shall be construed to invalidate or prevent any PA licensure agreement or other cooperative arrangement between participating states and between a participating state and nonparticipating state that does not conflict with the provisions of this compact.

(e) This compact may be amended by the participating states. No amendment to this compact shall become effective and binding upon any participating state until it is enacted materially in the same manner into the laws of all participating states as determined by the commission.

SECTION 12—CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

(a) This compact and the commission's rulemaking authority shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes and the implementation and administration of the compact. Provisions of the compact expressly authorizing or requiring the adoption of rules shall not be construed to limit the commission's rulemaking authority solely for those purposes.

(b) The provisions of this compact shall be severable, and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be contrary to the constitution of any participating state, a state seeking participation in the compact or of the United States, or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held to be unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any other government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection or subsection (b), the commission may deny a state's participation in the compact or, in accordance with the requirements of section 10(b), terminate a participating state's participation in the compact, if it determines that a constitutional requirement of a participating state is, or would be with respect to a state seeking to participate in the compact, a material departure from the compact. Otherwise, if this compact shall be held to be contrary to the constitution of any participating state, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining participating states and in full force and effect as to the participating state affected as to all severable matters.

SECTION 13—BINDING EFFECT OF COMPACT

(a) Nothing herein prevents the enforcement of any other law of a participating state that is not inconsistent with this compact.

(b) Any laws in a participating state in conflict with this compact are superseded to the extent of the conflict.

(c) All agreements between the commission and the participating states are binding in accordance with their terms.";

SECTION 6—ACTIVE MILITARY MEMBERS OR THEIR SPOUSES

An active military member, or their spouse, shall designate a home state where the individual has a current license in good standing. The individual may retain the home state designation during the period the service member is on active duty.

SECTION 7—ADVERSE ACTIONS

(a) In addition to the other powers conferred by state law, a remote state shall have the authority, in accordance with existing state due process law, to:

(2) issue subpoenas for both hearings and investigations that require the attendance and testimony of witnesses as well as the production of evidence. Subpoenas issued by a licensing authority in a member state for the attendance and testimony of witnesses or the production of evidence from another member state shall be enforced in the latter state by any court of competent jurisdiction, according to the practice and procedure applicable to subpoenas issued in proceedings pending before that court. (b) Only the home state shall have the power to take adverse action against a licensee's home state license.

(c) For purposes of taking adverse action, the home state shall give the same priority and effect to reported conduct received from a member state as it would if the conduct had occurred within the home state. In so doing, the home state shall apply its own state laws to determine appropriate action.

(d) The home state shall complete any pending investigations of a licensee who changes home states during the course of the investigations. The home state shall also have authority to take appropriate action and promptly report the conclusions of the investigations to the administrator of the data system. The administrator of the data system shall promptly notify the new home state of any adverse actions.

(e) A member state, if otherwise permitted by state law, may recover from the affected licensee the costs of investigations and dispositions of cases resulting from any adverse action taken against that licensee.

(2) Member states shall share any investigative, litigation or compliance materials in furtherance of any joint investigation initiated under the compact.

(h) If adverse action is taken by the home state against a licensee's home state license resulting in an encumbrance on the home state license, the licensee's compact privilege in all other member states shall be revoked until all encumbrances have been removed from the home state license. All home state disciplinary orders that impose adverse action against a licensee shall include a statement that the licensee's compact privileges are revoked in all member states during the pendency of the order.

(i) Once an encumbered license in the home state is restored to an unencumbered license as certified by the home state's licensing authority, the licensee shall meet the requirements of section 4(a) and follow the administrative requirements to reapply to obtain a compact privilege in any remote state.

(j) If a member state takes adverse action, such state shall promptly notify the administrator of the data system. The administrator of the data system shall promptly notify the other member states state of any adverse actions.

The procurement of insurance of any type by the compact commission shall not in any way compromise or limit the immunity granted hereunder.

(2) The compact commission shall defend any member, officer, executive director, employee and representative of the compact commission in any civil action seeking to impose liability arising out of any actual or alleged act, error or omission that occurred within the scope of compact commission employment, duties or responsibilities or as determined by the compact commission that the person against whom the claim is made had a reasonable basis for believing occurred within the scope of compact commission employment, duties or responsibilities, except that nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit that person from retaining their own counsel at their own expense and that the actual or alleged act, error or omission did not result from that person's intentional or willful or wanton misconduct.

(g) Member states contributing information to the data system may designate information that shall not be shared with the public without the express permission of the contributing state.

(h) Any information submitted to the data system that is subsequently expunged pursuant to federal law or the laws of the member state contributing the information shall be removed from the data system.

SECTION 10—RULEMAKING

(a) The compact commission shall promulgate reasonable rules in order to effectively and efficiently implement and administer the purposes and provisions of the compact. A rule shall be invalid and have no force or effect only if a court of competent jurisdiction holds that the rule is invalid because the compact commission exercised its rulemaking authority in a manner that is beyond the scope and purposes of the compact, or the powers granted hereunder, or based upon another applicable standard of review.

(b) The rules of the compact commission shall have the force of law in each member state, except that where the rules conflict with the laws or regulations of a member state that relate to the procedures, actions and processes a licensed dietitian is permitted to undertake in that state and the circumstances under which they may do so, as held by a court of competent jurisdiction, the rules of the compact commission shall be ineffective in that state to the extent of the conflict.

(c) The compact commission shall exercise its rulemaking powers pursuant to the criteria set forth in this section and the rules adopted thereunder. Rules shall become binding on the day following adoption or as of the date specified in the rule or amendment, whichever is later.

(d) If a majority of the legislatures of the member states rejects a rule or portion of a rule, by enactment of a statute or resolution in the same manner used to adopt the compact within four years of the date of adoption of the rule, then such rule shall have no further force and effect in any member state.

(e) Rules shall be adopted at a regular or special meeting of the compact commission.

(f) Prior to adoption of a proposed rule, the compact commission shall hold a public hearing and allow persons to provide oral and written comments, data, facts, opinions and arguments.

(g) Prior to adoption of a proposed rule by the compact commission and at least 30 days in advance of the meeting at which the compact commission will hold a public hearing on the proposed rule, the compact commission shall provide a notice of proposed rulemaking:

(1) On the website of the compact commission or other publicly accessible platform;

(2) to persons who have requested notice of the compact commission's notices of proposed rulemaking; and

(3) in such other way as the compact commission may by rule specify.

(h) The notice of proposed rulemaking shall include:

(1) The time, date and location of the public hearing at which the compact commission will hear public comments on the proposed rule and, if different, the time, date and location of the meeting where the compact commission will consider and vote on the proposed rule;

(2) if the hearing is held via telecommunication, video conference or other means of communication, the compact commission shall include the mechanism for access to the hearing in the notice of proposed rulemaking;

(3) the text of the proposed rule and the reason therefor;

(4) a request for comments on the proposed rule from any interested person; and

(5) the manner in which interested persons may submit written comments.

(i) All hearings shall be recorded. A copy of the recording and all written comments and documents received by the compact commission in response to the proposed rule shall be available to the public.

(j) Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring a separate hearing on each rule. Rules may be grouped for the convenience of the compact commission at hearings required by this section.

(k) The compact commission shall, by majority vote of all members, take final action on the proposed rule based on the rulemaking record and the full text of the rule.

(1) The compact commission may adopt changes to the proposed rule if the changes do not enlarge the original purpose of the proposed rule.

(2) The compact commission shall provide an explanation of the reasons for substantive changes made to the proposed rule as well as reasons for substantive changes not made that were recommended by commenters.

(3) The compact commission shall determine a reasonable effective date for the rule. Except for an emergency as provided in subsection (l), the effective date of the rule shall be not sooner than 30 days after issuing the notice that it adopted or amended the rule.

(l) Upon determination that an emergency exists, the compact commission may consider and adopt an emergency rule with 24 hours' notice, with an opportunity to comment, except that the usual rulemaking procedures provided in the compact and this section shall be retroactively applied to the rule as soon as reasonably possible but not later than 90 days after the effective date of the rule. For the purposes of this provision, an emergency rule is one that shall be adopted immediately in order to:

- (1) Meet an imminent threat to public health, safety or welfare;
- (2) prevent a loss of compact commission or member state funds;
- (3) meet a deadline for the promulgation of a rule that is established by federal law or rule; or
- (4) protect public health and safety.

(m) The compact commission or an authorized committee of the compact commission may direct revision to a previously adopted rule for purposes of correcting typographical errors, errors in format, errors in consistency or grammatical errors. Public notice of any revision shall be posted on the website of the compact commission. The revision shall be subject to challenge by any person for a period of 30 days after posting. The revision may be challenged only on grounds that the revision results in a material change to a rule. A challenge shall be made in writing and delivered to the compact commission prior to the end of the notice period. If no challenge is made, the revision shall take effect without further action. If the revision is challenged, the revision may not take effect without the approval of the compact commission.

(n) No member state's rulemaking requirements shall apply under this compact.

SECTION 11—OVERSIGHT, DISPUTE RESOLUTION AND ENFORCEMENT

(1) The executive and judicial branches of state government in each member state shall enforce this compact and take all actions necessary and appropriate to implement this compact.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this compact, venue is proper and judicial proceedings by or against the compact commission shall be brought solely and exclusively in a court of competent jurisdiction where the principal office of the compact commission is located. The compact commission may waive venue and jurisdictional defenses to the extent it adopts or consents to participate in alternative dispute resolution proceedings. Nothing herein shall affect or limit the selection or propriety of venue in any action against a licensee for professional malpractice, misconduct or any such similar matter.

(3) The compact commission shall be entitled to receive service of process in any proceeding regarding the enforcement or interpretation of the compact and shall have standing to intervene in such a proceeding for all purposes. Failure to provide the compact commission service of process shall render a judgment or order void as to the compact commission, this compact or promulgated rules.

(b) Default, technical assistance and termination.

(1) If the compact commission determines that a member state has defaulted in the performance of its obligations or responsibilities under this compact or the promulgated rules, the compact commission shall provide written notice to the defaulting state. The notice of default shall describe the default, the proposed means of curing the default and any other action that the compact commission may take and shall offer training and specific technical assistance regarding the default.

(2) The compact commission shall provide a copy of the notice of default to the other member states.

(c) If a state in default fails to cure the default, the defaulting state may be terminated from the compact upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the delegates of the member states, and all rights, privileges and benefits conferred on that state by this compact may be terminated on the effective date of termination. A cure of the default does not relieve the offending state of obligations or liabilities incurred during the period of default.

(d) Termination of membership in the compact shall be imposed only after all other means of securing compliance have been exhausted. Notice of intent to suspend or terminate shall be given by the compact commission to the governor, the majority and minority leaders of the defaulting state's legislature, the defaulting state's licensing authority and each of the member states' licensing authority.

(e) A state that has been terminated is responsible for all assessments, obligations and liabilities incurred through the effective date of termination, including obligations that extend beyond the effective date of termination.

(f) Upon the termination of a state's membership from this compact, that state shall immediately provide notice to all licensees within that state of such termination. The terminated state shall continue to recognize all compact privileges granted pursuant to this compact for a minimum of six months after the date of said notice of termination.

(g) The compact commission shall not bear any costs related to a state that is found to be in default or that has been terminated from the compact, unless agreed upon in writing between the compact commission and the defaulting state.

(h) The defaulting state may appeal the action of the compact commission by petitioning the United States district court for the District of Columbia or the federal district where the compact commission has its principal offices. The prevailing party shall be awarded all costs of such litigation, including reasonable attorney fees.

(i) Dispute resolution.

(1) Upon request by a member state, the compact commission shall attempt to resolve disputes related to the compact that arise among member states and among member and nonmember states.

(2) The compact commission shall promulgate a rule providing for both mediation and binding dispute resolution for disputes as appropriate.

(j) Enforcement.

(1) By supermajority vote, the compact commission may initiate legal action against a member state in default in the United States district court for the District of Columbia or the federal district where the compact commission has its principal offices to enforce compliance with the provisions of the compact and its promulgated rules. The relief sought may include both injunctive relief and damages. In the event that judicial enforcement is necessary, the prevailing party shall be awarded all costs of such litigation, including reasonable attorney fees. The remedies herein shall not be the exclusive remedies of the compact commission. The compact commission may pursue any other remedies available under federal or the defaulting member state's law.

(2) A member state may initiate legal action against the compact commission in the United States district court for the District of Columbia or the federal district where the compact commission has its principal offices to enforce compliance with the provisions of the compact and its promulgated rules. The relief sought may include both injunctive relief and damages. In the event that judicial enforcement is necessary, the prevailing party shall be awarded all costs of such litigation, including reasonable attorney fees.

(3) No party other than a member state shall enforce this compact against the compact commission.

SECTION 12—EFFECTIVE DATE, WITHDRAWAL AND AMENDMENT

(a) The compact shall come into effect on the date that the compact statute is enacted into law in the seventh member state.

(1) On or after the effective date of the compact, the compact commission shall convene and review the enactment of each of the first seven member states, "charter member states," to determine if the statute enacted by each such charter member state is materially different than the model compact statute.

(A) A charter member state whose enactment is found to be materially different from the model compact statute shall be entitled to the default process set forth in section 11.

(B) If any member state is later found to be in default, or is terminated or withdraws from the compact, the compact commission shall remain in existence and the compact shall remain in effect even if the number of member states should be fewer than seven.

(2) Member states enacting the compact subsequent to the seven initial charter member states shall be subject to the process set forth in section 8(c)(21) to determine if their enactments are materially different from the model compact statute and whether they qualify for participation in the compact.

(3) All actions taken for the benefit of the compact commission or in furtherance of the purposes of the administration of the compact prior to the effective date of the compact or the compact commission coming into existence shall be considered to be actions of the compact commission unless specifically repudiated by the compact commission.

(4) Any state that joins the compact subsequent to the compact commission's initial adoption of the rules and bylaws shall be subject to the rules and bylaws as they exist on the date that the compact becomes law in that state. Any rule that has been previously adopted by the compact commission shall have the full force and effect of law on the day the compact becomes law in that state.

(b) Any member state may withdraw from this compact by enacting a statute repealing such compact.

(1) A member state's withdrawal shall not take effect until 180 days after enactment of the repealing statute.

(2) Withdrawal shall not affect the continuing requirement of the withdrawing state's licensing authority to comply with the investigative and adverse action reporting requirements of this compact prior to the effective date of withdrawal.

(3) Upon the enactment of a statute withdrawing from this compact, a state shall immediately provide notice of such withdrawal to all licensees within that state. Notwithstanding any subsequent statutory enactment to the contrary, such withdrawing state shall continue to recognize all compact privileges granted pursuant to this compact for a minimum of 180 days after the date of such notice of withdrawal.

(c) Nothing contained in this compact shall be construed to invalidate or prevent any licensure agreement or other cooperative arrangement between a member state and a nonmember state that does not conflict with the provisions of this compact.

(d) This compact may be amended by the member states. No amendment to this compact shall become effective and binding upon any member state until it is enacted into the laws of all member states.

SECTION 13—CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

(a) This compact and the compact commission's rulemaking authority shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes and the implementation and administration of the compact. Provisions of the compact expressly authorizing or requiring the promulgation of rules shall not be construed to limit the compact commission's rulemaking authority solely for those purposes.

(b) The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be contrary to the constitution of any member state, a state seeking participation in the compact or of the United States, or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held to be unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any other government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby.

(c) Notwithstanding subsection (b), the compact commission may deny a state's participation in the compact or, in accordance with the requirements of section 11(b), terminate a member state's participation in the compact if it determines that a constitutional requirement of a member state is a material departure from the compact. If this compact shall be held to be contrary to the constitution of any member state, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining member states and in full force and effect as to the member state affected as to all severable matters.

SECTION 14—CONSISTENT EFFECT AND CONFLICT WITH OTHER STATE LAWS

(a) Nothing in this compact shall prevent or inhibit the enforcement of any other law of a member state that is not inconsistent with the compact.

(b) Any laws, statutes, rules and regulations or other legal requirements in a member state in conflict with the compact are superseded to the extent of the conflict.

(c) All permissible agreements between the compact commission and the member states are binding in accordance with their terms.";

THIRTY-EIGHTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, March 11, 2025, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Ty Masterson.
The roll was called with 37 senators present.
Senators J.R. Claeys, Erickson and Thompson were excused.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

The Naked Emperor
Proverbs 29:19

Heavenly Father, You tell us in proverbs 29:18 that where there is no vision, no enlightenment coming from You through Your Word, that people are out of control. It's also translated that people perish. Young's Literal Translation says that people are made naked.

Lord, it reminds me of the emperor who thought he was all dressed up in fancy, brand new clothes, when in reality he was completely uncovered; just as naked as a J Bird.

Lord, help us to see ourselves through Your eyes. And then clothe us with humility, with kindness and with Godliness. Help us put on character qualities that are becoming to You and appealing to others.

Master, bless and give wisdom to all that sit in these legislative seats. And bless all members of the supporting staff.

Now Lord, I want to thank You for the volume of prayers that have been offered for my wife and me. And in like manner, we offer a multitude of prayers for L.D. Holmes.

I come to You Lord, in the precious Name of Jesus, Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Masterson.

THIRTY-NINTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, March 12, 2025, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Ty Masterson.

The roll was called with 39 senators present.

Senator Thompson was excused.

President Masterson introduced guest chaplain, Doug Henkle, who delivered the following invocation:

Father God, in Your word You instruct us to fix our thoughts on what is true, and honorable, and right and pure and lovely, and admirable. You admonish us to think about things that are excellent and worthy of praise. Father, cause us to fix our attention on things that are not unreal, far-fetched dreams, but things that are true; not cheap, flippant, superficial things, but things that are honorable; not things that are wrong and unjust, but that which is right; not things that promote arguments and defense in others, but those that are agreeable; not slander, gossip, and put-downs, but information of good report, the kind that builds up and causes grace to flow. May we consider what our thoughts are fixed on today.

Father, You care about all the details of our lives including the issues before this legislative body this afternoon. You care about every word spoken. Cause this body to strive for resolution where there's conflict, to know when to give way and when to hold the line, to listen twice as much as they speak and may they listen well.

I pray for Your peace today which is far beyond our understanding. I ask that You give each Senator wisdom as they argue their position. I lift up President Masterson, Vice President Shallenburger, Majority Leader Blasi and Minority Leader Sykes to You, Give them Your direction as they lead this chamber.

I pray that at the end of the day the deliberations in this chamber would lead to sound decisions that would honor You, blessing all Kansans. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Masterson.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I vote no on HB 2062. While presented as a child support bill, its true intent is far more insidious: establishing fetal personhood in law. This bill grants legal recognition to a fetus as a separate person, even providing a state tax ID number, which could have sweeping consequences beyond financial support. This bill is not about helping women - Instead, it lays the groundwork for future attacks on reproductive rights. Similar laws in other states are used to restrict abortion access, criminalize pregnancy outcomes, and create legal confusion around medical care. Kansans overwhelmingly voted in 2022 to protect abortion rights, yet this bill disregards that mandate by pushing a backdoor strategy to undermine those rights. If a fetus is considered a legal person for financial matters - like taxes - what stops the next step - using that recognition to restrict reproductive healthcare or even prosecute pregnancy losses? This bill opens the door to unintended consequences that could put women at legal risk. Real support for pregnancies doesn't come from political maneuvers. If we truly cared about supporting families, we would put our money where our mouth is and pass a comprehensive child tax credit for all children birth to age 18.—DINAH SYKES

(a) Except as otherwise provided by subsection (b), (d) or (h), all revenue received by the director of taxation from a countywide retailers' sales tax shall be apportioned among the county and each city located in such county in the following manner:

(1) $\frac{1}{2}$ of all revenue received by the director of taxation shall be apportioned among the county and each city located in such county in the proportion that the total tangible property tax levies made in such county in the preceding year for all funds of each such governmental unit bear to the total of all such levies made in the preceding year; and

(2) $\frac{1}{2}$ of all revenue received by the director of taxation from such countywide retailers' sales tax shall be apportioned among the county and each city located in such county, first to the county that portion of the revenue equal to the proportion that the population of the county residing in the unincorporated area of the county bears to the total population of the county, and second to the cities in the proportion that the population of each city bears to the total population of the county, except that no persons residing within the Fort Riley military reservation shall be included in the determination of the population of any city located within Riley county.

All revenue apportioned to a county shall be paid to its county treasurer and shall be credited to the general fund of the county.

(b) (1) In lieu of the apportionment formula provided in subsection (a), all revenue received by the director of taxation from a countywide retailers' sales tax imposed within Johnson county at the rate of 0.75%, 1% or 1.25% after July 1, 2007, shall be apportioned among the county and each city located in such county in the following manner:

(A) The revenue received from the first 0.5% rate of tax shall be apportioned in the manner prescribed by subsection (a); and

(B) the revenue received from the rate of tax exceeding 0.5% shall be apportioned as follows:

(i) $\frac{1}{4}$ shall be apportioned among the county and each city located in such county in the proportion that the total tangible property tax levies made in such county in the preceding year for all funds of each such governmental unit bear to the total of all such levies made in the preceding year;

(ii) $\frac{1}{4}$ shall be apportioned among the county and each city located in such county, first to the county that portion of the revenue equal to the proportion that the population of the county residing in the unincorporated area of the county bears to the total population of the county, and second to the cities in the proportion that the population of each city bears to the total population of the county; and

(iii) $\frac{1}{2}$ shall be retained by the county for its sole use and benefit.

(2) In lieu of the apportionment formula provided in subsection (a), all money received by the director of taxation from a countywide sales tax imposed within Montgomery county pursuant to the election held on November 8, 1994, shall be remitted to and shall be retained by the county and expended only for the purpose for which the revenue received from the tax was pledged. All revenue apportioned and paid from the imposition of such tax to the treasurer of any city prior to the effective date of this act shall be remitted to the county treasurer and expended only for the purpose for which the revenue received from the tax was pledged.

(3) In lieu of the apportionment formula provided in subsection (a), on and after the effective date of this act, all moneys received by the director of taxation from a countywide retailers' sales tax imposed within Phillips county pursuant to the election held on September 20, 2005, shall be remitted to and shall be retained by the county and expended only for the purpose for which the revenue received from the tax was pledged.

(c) (1) Except as otherwise provided by paragraph (2) of this subsection, for purposes of subsections (a) and (b), the term "total tangible property tax levies" means the aggregate dollar amount of tax revenue derived from ad valorem tax levies applicable to all tangible property located within each such city or county. The ad valorem property tax levy of any county or city district entity or subdivision shall be included within this term if the levy of any such district entity or subdivision is applicable to all tangible property located within each such city or county.

(2) For the purposes of subsections (a) and (b), any ad valorem property tax levied on property located in a city in Johnson county for the purpose of providing fire protection service in such city shall be included within the term "total tangible property tax levies" for such city regardless of its applicability to all tangible property located within each such city. If the tax is levied by a district which extends across city boundaries, for purposes of this computation, the amount of such levy shall be apportioned among each city in which such district extends in the proportion that such tax levied within each city bears to the total tax levied by the district.

(d) (1) All revenue received from a countywide retailers' sales tax imposed pursuant to K.S.A. 12-187(b)(2), (3)(C), (3)(F), (3)(G), (3)(I), (6), (7), (8), (9), (12), (14), (15), (16), (17), (18), (19), (20), (22), (23), (25), (27), (28), (29), (30), (31), (32), (33), (34), (35), (36), (37) ~~and~~, (38) ~~and~~ (39), and amendments thereto, shall be remitted to and shall be retained by the county and expended only for the purpose for which the revenue received from the tax was pledged.

(3) All revenue received from a countywide retailers' sales tax imposed pursuant to K.S.A. 12-187(b)(26), and amendments thereto, shall be remitted to and shall be retained by the county and expended only for the purpose for which the revenue received from the tax was pledged unless the question of imposing a countywide retailers' sales tax authorized by K.S.A. 12-187(b)(26), and amendments thereto, includes the apportionment of revenue prescribed in subsection (a).

(e) All revenue apportioned to the several cities of the county shall be paid to the respective treasurers thereof and deposited in the general fund of the city. Whenever the territory of any city is located in two or more counties and any one or more of such counties do not levy a countywide retailers' sales tax, or whenever such counties do not levy countywide retailers' sales taxes at a uniform rate, the revenue received by such city from the proceeds of the countywide retailers' sales tax, as an alternative to depositing the same in the general fund, may be used for the purpose of reducing the tax levies of such city upon the taxable tangible property located within the county levying such countywide retailers' sales tax.

(f) Prior to March 1 of each year, the secretary of revenue shall advise each county treasurer of the revenue collected in such county from the state retailers' sales tax for the preceding calendar year.

(g) Prior to December 31 of each year, the clerk of every county imposing a countywide retailers' sales tax shall provide such information deemed necessary by the secretary of revenue to apportion and remit revenue to the counties and cities pursuant to this section.

(h) The provisions of subsections (a) and (b) for the apportionment of countywide retailers' sales tax shall not apply to any revenues received pursuant to a county or countywide retailers' sales tax levied or collected under K.S.A. 74-8929, and amendments thereto. All such revenue collected under K.S.A. 74-8929, and amendments thereto, shall be deposited into the redevelopment bond fund established by K.S.A. 74-8927, and amendments thereto, for the period of time set forth in K.S.A. 74-8927, and amendments thereto.";

Journal of the Senate

FORTY-SECOND DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, March 17, 2025, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Tim Shallenburger.

The roll was called with 40 senators present.

Vice President Shallenburger introduced guest chaplain, Doug Henkle, who delivered the following invocation:

Please remind us today that this is the day that You have made. Cause us to rejoice and be glad in it. Lord Jesus, fill this chamber with Your peace as we embrace the opportunity to meet the challenges of the week ahead. Thank You that You are the Prince of Peace.

Jesus, we know that peace doesn't mean easy. You never promised easy, You promised help. In fact, You told us to expect tribulation and trials. You also said that if we called on You, that You would give us the peace of God which surpasses all comprehension; peace, which is the spiritual harmony brought about by our reconciliation with You, God, through Jesus.

In a world filled with war and violence, it's difficult to see how You could be the all-powerful God who acts in human history and are the embodiment of peace. But physical safety and political harmony don't necessarily reflect the kind of peace Your Son, Jesus, talked about. He told us, "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you." Jesus, fill this chamber to the brim with Your peace. Peace with You and peace with one another.

In Jesus' Name, Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Shallenburger.

Journal of the Senate

FORTY-THIRD DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, March 18, 2025, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Ty Masterson.

The roll was called with 40 senators present.

The President introduced guest chaplain, Rev. Ben Ockree, guest of Senator Titus, who delivered the following invocation:

Almighty and everlasting God, You rule all things in heaven and earth. We come before You today, seeking Your wisdom, guidance, and grace as we begin this session of the Kansas State Senate. You have called these leaders to serve the people of this great state. Grant them discernment to make decisions that uphold justice, promote peace, and care for the most vulnerable among us.

Lord, in a world filled with division, let this chamber be a place where truth and integrity prevail. Give our senators hearts that seek the common good, minds that pursue wisdom, and words that build up rather than tear down. May their service reflect humility, compassion, and a steadfast commitment to righteousness.

Bless the people of Kansas, O Lord, its families, workers, farmers, educators, and all who call this land home. May we all seek to love our neighbors as ourselves and walk in Your ways of mercy and truth. May all here do what is right in Your eyes, and in all things, may Your will be done.

We pray in the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Masterson.

Journal of the Senate

FORTY-FOURTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, March 19, 2025, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Ty Masterson.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, Can We Talk
Isaiah 6:1-9

Lord, You are the Almighty God of Heaven and earth. There is no person and nothing created that is on Your level. But Lord, can we just talk? Would you allow a feeble, fumbling, sometimes failing creation of Yours to approach You today? Can we talk? There have been times when Your holiness was so real that it seemed impossible to cross the threshold into Your presence. How can a Holy and totally righteous God be receptive to one so lowly? But then You gave us that Isaiah moment. In Isaiah 6:1-9 he had a vision that contrasted Your holiness with his unholiness, considering Your majesty brought about his modesty.

He saw that he was not worthy to come and talk to You. So, in Your love and mercy, You came to him. His unholiness was forgiven. You touched his mouth and allowed him to talk to You. You even permitted him to talk for You. In a like manner, Lord, touch us with Your love and mercy. Forgive our unholiness and remind us that we can talk to You ... that You do hear our prayers. And from time to time, as You provide the opportunity, prompt us to talk for You. Help us to talk to You and talk for You more often.

In the precious name of Jesus, Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Masterson.

SB 69 incentivizes with taxpayer dollars moving a single Kansas resident from North Spring Hill in Johnson County just a few blocks to South Spring Hill in Miami County. It incentivizes moving from west Manhattan to east Manhattan. It incentivizes moving a Kansas resident from Salina to Abilene, Leavenworth to Atchison, Hutchinson to Newton, or Riley county to Junction City. There is zero benefit to the state of Kansas to incentivize such moves with taxpayer dollars, therefore I vote no on SB 69.—J.R.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

The Legislature needs to respect local control. This bill gets us out of our lane where our oversight is least needed...community planning and zoning. We need to respect the local knowledge of our municipalities and counties as they guide their communities to prosperity.—WILLIAM CLIFFORD

I vote “NO” on HB 2088. A proponent testified that this bill would streamline local permits and help lower costs for families face rising home prices but gave no evidence. Rather they admitted that it doesn’t do anything to overhaul local permitting systems but simply sets a deadline for local governments to process building permits for residential homes. This bill does not account for requirements for public notice, complicated applications, unexpected interruptions or when approval is required from a historic preservation committee or an agency outside of a city. Building permits are the purview of our municipalities; we should respect home rule.—MARC FRANCISCO

FORTY-FIFTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, March 20, 2025, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Tim Shallenburger.

The roll was called with 40 senators present.

Vice President Shallenburger introduced guest chaplain, Doug Henkle, who delivered the following invocation:

Heavenly Father, Thank You for the privilege it is to come before Your throne this morning. I thank You for your amazing love for each Senator. I ask that You bestow Your Divine favor upon this body, collectively and individually. Give them Your perspective and Your wisdom as they study and debate the challenging, matters before them.

Father, I pray that we would each be peacemakers. Peacemakers who release tension rather than intensify it, who seek solutions and find no delight in arguments. Peacemakers who calm the waters rather than trouble them, who generate more light than heat.

I ask that You give each Senator a positive attitude. May their goal be Your best for the people of Kansas. I pray that You would fill the Kansas Senate with Your spirit of hope and peace in anticipation of what You will do in and through this body in the waning days of this 2025 legislative session, for Your glory and the betterment of all Kansans.

I pray for President Masterson, Vice President Shallenburger, Majority Leader Blasi and Minority Leader Sykes. Give them Your clear vision for all You want to accomplish through the Kansas Senate in the days ahead.

In Jesus' Name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Shallenburger.

Absent or Not Voting: Billinger, J.R. Claeys.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I fully expected this amendment to fail. With approx 60% of this legislative body backed by the NRA, the outcome was somewhat predictable. It's why we don't get hearings or actual focus on common-sense gun safety issues. Hopefully at some point, we will have the will to act on behalf of our children, not politics.—CINDY HOLSCHER

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

In the Kansas Senate today, we didn't remove the tax on fuel or the tax on wages or the tax on homes or the tax on land. But we did decide to remove the tax on gold. The gold changers won! I vote NO.—TIM SHALLENBURGER

A constitutional majority having failed to vote in favor of the bill, SB 211 did not pass.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I vote “NO” on SB 211. The Kansas Wildlife and Parks Commission has been operating effectively. Members of the Commission have been able to bring up concerns; the majority can recommend rules and regulations. The change regarding appointments makes sense; eliminating the prohibition of appointing a controlled shooting area licensee, an employee of such licensee, or any person who provides hunting outfitting services or hunting guide services does not. Allowing a single member rather than the chair or a majority of the commission to promulgate rules and regulations would waste time and money.—MARCI FRANCISCO

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I understand and appreciate the solid and principled arguments on both sides of this bill. I deeply appreciate that our small-town pharmacies are asking for a lifeline and that this bill is intended to help hospitals. The bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I vote no on HB 2109 because this bill will lead to an erosion of our constitutional rights and was rushed through the process without proper vetting. The proponents would have us believe the only important issue involved with this bill is the liability of utility companies, but when the primary argument of the proponents is that we must pass this bill right now regardless of how it impacts our constitutional rights, that is sure sign that we will regret our actions. Once we expand the power of the state to watch us at all times and reduce our privacy protections, history shows us those rights are seldom if ever return to the people. I am disappointed that we have chosen to prioritize the liability of a utility company over our individual rights as Kansans.—KENNY TITUS

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Regrettably, I vote NO on S Sub HB 2164 concerning the Kansas Offender registration act making it unlawful for adult sex offenders to enter school property. With a careful eye on protecting our youth from potential repeat predators, I earnestly believe that, as written here, barring a parent or grandparent or legal guardian from their child/grandchild's school-based activity or from even transporting them to or from is far too harsh for some family who has paid their debt to society and, in many cases, gone on to live a relatively normal life. Barring a direct family member who has aged well beyond their respective "crime" or often youthful transgression will impair solid family relationships...completely needlessly...and further brand an innocent child to question an otherwise loving, and now, respectable parent.—DAVID HALEY

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Over the last several legislative sessions, water has received some long overdue attention. Four years ago, my House of Representatives predecessor, Dr. Ron Highland led the newly formed Water Committee and conducted an exhaustive review of the state of water in Kansas. As a result of that study, two years later the Legislature passed HB 2302, which made historic investments in the State Water Plan Fund, including new programs that provide critical assistance for the infrastructure that provides clean water to our communities. Now it is time to take the next step. If we want to continue to make progress with our state's water issues, we must develop clear priorities for investment and make sure we have the necessary accountability measures in place. The most pivotal changes in Kansas water law came as a result of studies and special reports prepared in 1944 and 1957 by men who could rightly be called the fathers of Kansas water law. The changes that were adopted from these reports impact us to this day and lead to the creation of one of the most resilient water codes in the western United States. Likewise, we now have the opportunity to make lasting contributions to water in Kansas. This bill creates a task force and working group that will produce draft legislation that can be taken up by this body next year – not just more conversation pieces. We have the opportunity to establish the foundation for addressing our water issues for a generation to come and I am proud to vote in favor of this bill.—KENNY TITUS

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Senate Substitute for House Bill 2382 ensures Kansas students receive complete, scientifically accurate information about human development. In an age of widespread misinformation, students deserve to see the remarkable developmental process they themselves experienced. The scientific facts are compelling: a developing heart starts beating by 22 days, brain development begins by week 5, and by week 10, all major organs are forming. From what gather, some folks find these facts to be inconvenient to their worldview, but that shouldn't have any bearing on the merits of this bill. This bill maintains local control while setting a reasonable standard: if schools teach human development, they should include information about fetal development. That's where human development begins. There is no stork. S Sub HB 2382 requires no philosophical interpretations or ideological content. I proudly support this measure to enhance science education in Kansas. Our students deserve nothing less than a complete understanding of human development based on observable, empirical evidence.—JOSEPH CLAEYS

Senators Erickson, Gossage, Klemp, Masterson, Murphy, Shane, Starnes and Thompson request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Joseph Claeys on S Sub HB 2382.

Sub HB 2382 would significantly impact the way Kansas youth are being taught about human development and sex education. This bill violates the constitutional responsibilities of the State Board of Education to set standards and locally elected school boards to choose instructional materials. Not only is this legislation in direct opposition of the National Sex Education Standards but, as worded, force a child to see it from kindergarten to 12th grade. I vote NO.—PAT PETTEY

Senators Francisco and Sykes request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Pettey on Sub HB 2382.

I vote No on Sub HB 2382 When we use the word life in a scientific sense, we are distinguishing between organic and inorganic matter. What is confusing here is a deliberate use of the word in a different way and claiming it is scientific. Mandating the use these videos using the word life to indicate an independent person with agency and value equal to the mother. That statement is not scientific. It's rooted in some religious traditions. Even in those traditions, the moment when a fetus reaches the point of ensoulment changed as scientific knowledge of the process of reproduction changed. In a country founded when people did not want the government imposing religious beliefs upon the people, this kind of action betrays the traditions of our nation. It may be a simple mistake that led to this confusion, or it may be that the use of language here continues the trajectory of this body asserting religious freedom selectively to support what the majority wants while ignoring and disrespecting other religious beliefs if they are found offensive or inconvenient. We are whitewashed tombs happy to indoctrinate some while opposing the expression of others.—DINAH SYKES

Journal of the Senate

FORTY-EIGHTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, March 25, 2025, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Tim Shallenburger.

The roll was called with 40 senators present.

Vice President Shallenburger introduced guest chaplain, Doug Henkle, who delivered the following invocation:

Father God, in Your word You instruct us to fix our thoughts on what is true, and honorable, and right and pure and lovely, and admirable. You admonish us to think about things that are excellent and worthy of praise. Father, cause us to fix our attention on things that are not unreal, far-fetched dreams, but things that are true; not cheap, flippant, superficial things, but things that are honorable; not things that are wrong and unjust, but that which is right; not things that promote arguments and defense in others, but those that are agreeable; not slander, gossip, and put-downs, but information of good report, the kind that builds up and causes grace to flow. May we consider what our thoughts are fixed on today.

Father, You care about all the details of our lives including the issues before this legislative body this day. You care about every word spoken. Cause this body to strive for resolution where there's conflict, to know when to give way and when to hold the line, to listen twice as much as they speak and may they listen well.

I pray for Your peace today which is far beyond our understanding. I ask that You give each Senator wisdom as they argue their position. I lift up President Masterson, Vice President Shallenburger, Majority Leader Blasi and Minority Leader Sykes to You. Give them Your direction as they lead this chamber. I pray that at the end of the day the deliberations in this chamber would lead to sound decisions that would honor You, blessing all Kansans.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Shallenburger.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Bowers rose on a Point of Personal Privilege and delivered the following remarks: Today, I am deeply honored to recognize a special Kansan, Mr. Larry Wills, for his 25 years of remarkable service as the “singing” tour guide at the Kansas State Capitol. Joining him on the Senate Floor for the 1st time is his wife, Doris. Larry’s story began in Senate District 36. He started his teaching career in 1959 in his hometown of Beloit, Kansas—teaching band at Beloit High School. Over time, he transitioned into social science, later school administration, and ultimately retired in 1999. However,

Larry realized he was not totally ready to retire and he found this very cool part-time job with us in the Capitol as a historical tour guide. From January through May, five days a week, Larry led thousands of visitors through the Kansas State Capital with a bounce in his step, energy, wit, and a deep respect for Kansas history. But what truly set him apart was the gift only he could bring: music. For a quarter of a century, Larry Wills reminded us that Kansas history isn't just something to recite—it's something to experience, to cherish, and to share. He brought stories to life with warmth, wit, and a signature spark that only he could provide. Today, as we recognize his extraordinary service and enshrine his name in the Kansas Senate Journal, we ensure his voice becomes part of our state's enduring legacy. Our capitol tour guides do more than lead tours—they carry the heart of Kansas in every step. And Larry knew instinctively that our past wasn't just meant to be told—it was meant to be sung. With tunes like John Brown's Body, The Chisholm Trail, and Home on the Range, Larry filled these halls with melody and meaning inviting his tour groups to join in. Many of you probably knew him as "the singing guide"—and I can't count the number of times I paused outside my second-floor office to listen as he sang one of my favorites in front of the John Brown mural. Those moments were pure Kansas—authentic, heartfelt, and unforgettable.

INTRODUCTION AND CONSIDERATION OF SENATE RESOLUTIONS

Senators Blasi, Alley, Argabright, Billinger, Blew, Bowers, Bowser, J.R. Claeys, Joseph Claeys, Clifford, Corson, Dietrich, Erickson, Fagg, Faust Goudeau, Gossage, Haley, Holscher, Klemp, Kloos, Masterson, Murphy, Owens, Peck, Petersen, Pettey, Rose, Ryckman, Schmidt, Shallenburger, Shane, Starnes, Sykes, Thomas, Thompson, Titus, Tyson, Ware and Warren introduced the following Senate resolution, which was read:

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1717—

A RESOLUTION denouncing a satanic worship ritual on the grounds of the Kansas state capitol that is scheduled to take place on March 28, 2025.

WHEREAS, The United States of America is one nation under God, founded upon principles that recognize the importance of faith, morality and the common good; and

WHEREAS, The Kansas Senate acknowledges and respects that the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States guarantees all citizens the right to assemble and the freedom of speech, even as it expresses its profound disagreement with actions that mock or desecrate sacred beliefs; and

WHEREAS, The planned satanic worship ritual is an explicit act of anti-Catholic bigotry and an affront to all Christians. It blasphemes our shared values of faith, decency and respect that strengthen our communities: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we denounce the planned satanic worship ritual scheduled to take place on the grounds of the people's house, the Kansas state capitol grounds, on March 28, 2025, as a despicable, blasphemous and offensive sacrilege to not only Catholics but all people of goodwill, and it runs contrary to the spiritual heritage of this state and nation; and

Be it further resolved: That we condemn the extensive vandalism, including damage to statues, candles and glass, the disrespect of an American flag and hate speech graffitied on the walls of St. Patrick Parish in Wichita, Kansas, on March 15, 2025; and

Be it further resolved: That we call upon all Kansans to promote unity, mutual respect and the values that uphold our identity as one nation under God; and

Be it further resolved: That we call upon Kansas Governor Laura Kelly to condemn the stated activity and its implicit use of stolen property; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to Senators Masterson, Blasi and Shallenburger.

On emergency motion of Senator Blasi SR 1717 was adopted by voice vote.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Today we affirm the values that define us as a people and as a nation. The United States of America stands as one nation under God as we just recited in our pledge of Allegiance, founded on principles of faith, morality, and the common good. It is these sacred beliefs that have guided us through our history, strengthened our communities, and united us in times of adversity. As representatives of the people of Kansas, we respect the freedoms enshrined in the First Amendment of our Constitution—the right to assemble and the freedom of speech. Yet, we cannot remain silent when these freedoms are misused to mock or desecrate the sacred values that uphold our identity. The planned satanic worship ritual on the grounds of our state capitol is not merely an act of expression; it is an affront and an explicit act of anti-Catholic bigotry that insults Christians and all people of goodwill. Such actions run contrary to the principles of faith, decency, and respect that bind us together. They undermine the values that promote harmony and mutual understanding among Kansans. This ritual seeks to divide us, but we will not be divided. Instead, we stand firm in our resolve to denounce this blasphemous act as a sacrilege against the spiritual fabric of our state and our nation. Let us, as leaders and citizens, send a clear message that Kansas will remain a place where respect for our shared heritage and values prevail. That we reaffirm our commitment to unity and mutual respect. Let us stand together as one people under God, promoting the common good and protecting the moral foundation that strengthens our communities. Thank you, and may God bless Kansas.—CHASE BLASI

Senator Starnes requests the record to show that he concurs with the “Explanation of Vote” offered by Senator Blasi on SR 1717.

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1718—

A RESOLUTION commemorating Dr. David J. Spittal's retirement as President of MidAmerica Nazarene University.

WHEREAS, After previous tenures at Southern Wesleyan University and Indiana Wesleyan University, Dr. David J. Spittal was selected as MidAmerica Nazarene

University's (MNU) fifth president on January 17, 2012; and

WHEREAS, Within four years, changes brought by Dr. Spittal led to MNU being awarded a 10-year reaffirmation of accreditation from the Higher Learning Commission; and

WHEREAS, Since 2012, Dr. Spittal has hosted an annual night of celebration and generosity, called the President's Honors, which has raised nearly $8,000,000 to support student scholarships; and

WHEREAS, Under Dr. Spittal's leadership, MNU was one of five recipients out of 5,000 eligible institutions for a $10,000,000 Title III Strengthening Institutions Grant from the United States Department of Education to improve academic support, career counseling and wellness programs, as well as make improvements to faculty development and information technology; and

WHEREAS, Throughout Dr. Spittal's leadership, MNU has experienced marked growth, innovation and deep community engagement, which was recognized by the Olathe Chamber of Commerce, which honored Dr. Spittal as its 2024 Citizen of the Year; and

WHEREAS, Nearly 18,000 students have graduated from MNU under Dr. Spittal's tenure and are now serving throughout Kansas as successful nurses, teachers, counselors, legislators and business leaders: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we commemorate Dr. David J. Spittal on his retirement, for his dedication and service as President of MidAmerica Nazarene University, in Olathe, Kansas, and we thank him for his enduring impact on the lives of thousands of Kansans; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send 2 enrolled copies of this resolution to Senator Thomas.

On emergency motion of Senator Thomas SR 1718 was adopted by voice vote.

REGARDING VETO OF SENATE BILL 4

The three-day grace period for mail ballots was a bipartisan solution approved by the Legislature in 2017 to address delays in processing of mail by the United States Postal Service, particularly in rural areas. The goal was to ensure that all Kansans had their votes counted, no matter where they lived. Not only will removing the three-day grace period for mail ballots disenfranchise thousands of Kansas voters, but it also shows a lack of understanding of our elections in Kansas. Implementing this will create confusion among county election officials, who will have to update policies and procedures on handling of mail ballots in a higher turnout election year. This bill is an attack on rural Kansans who want to participate in the electoral process guaranteed by our Constitution. I will not sign legislation that deprives Kansans from having their vote counted. Therefore, under Article 2, Section 14(a) of the Constitution, I hereby veto Senate Bill 4.

LAURA KELLY, Governor (MARCH 24, 2025)

SB 4, AN ACT concerning elections; relating to advance voting ballots; requiring the return of such ballots by 7:00 p.m. on the day of the election; amending K.S.A. 25-1132 and repealing the existing section.

ACTION ON VETO MESSAGE

A motion was made by Senator Thompson that SB 4 be passed notwithstanding the Governor's veto.

SB 4, AN ACT concerning elections; relating to advance voting ballots; requiring the return of such ballots by 7:00 p.m. on the day of the election; amending K.S.A. 25-1132 and repealing the existing section.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 30; Nays 10; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Yeas: Alley, Argabright, Billinger, Blasi, Blew, Bowers, Bowser, J.R. Claeys, Joseph Claeys, Clifford, Erickson, Fagg, Gossage, Klemp, Kloos, Masterson, Murphy, Owens, Peck, Petersen, Rose, Ryckman, Shallenburger, Shane, Starnes, Thomas, Thompson, Titus, Tyson, Warren.

Nays: Corson, Dietrich, Faust Goudeau, Francisco, Haley, Holscher, Pettey, Schmidt, Sykes, Ware.

A two-thirds constitutional majority having voted in favor of overriding the Governor's veto, the motion prevailed and the bill passed.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I vote "NO" on the motion to concur on the House amendments to SB 18. "Hunter Nation" has both a 501(c)(3) and a 501(c)(4). I understand that the bill as written allows the revenue from sales of their license plates to go to the (c)(4). The legislature should be requiring such revenues to go to a public purpose; the Senate should have non-concurred, sent it to a conference committee, and asked for the wording from the House committee directing the funds to go to the Hunter Nation Foundation, their 501(c)(3) organization.—MARCI FRANCISCO

The substitute bill passed, as amended.

The Call was lifted.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

In an era where there is immense distrust in politicians and government, I cannot stand in support of the Senate Substitute for House Bill 2054. I agree that many of the changes in the bill are beneficial, but there are also impacts of the bill that serve counter to the mission of appropriate disclosure and transparency in politics. Citizens do not believe political action committees in our political processes are ethical or beneficial. We have used the contrast between parties and PACs as leading justification for these proposed legislative changes. However, my opinion is that the public would ask us to put tighter reins on PACs as opposed to loosening the reins on political parties. This bill will result in more money in politics and fuel citizen disenfranchisement with politics and government. Many citizens believe the political parties do not represent them or their interests. We must ask ourselves if this is the most appropriate legislative remedy to help make the process work better for the people of Kansas. Today I must vote my conscience on Senate Substitute for House Bill 2054 and vote no.—DOUG SHANE

HCR 5004, A PROPOSITION to amend section 1 of article 5 of the constitution of the state of Kansas to require individuals to be citizens of the United States, at least 18 years of age and a resident of the voting area in which such person seeks to vote in order to vote in this state.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 37; Nays 3; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Yeas: Alley, Argabright, Billinger, Blasi, Blew, Bowers, Bowser, J.R. Claeys, Joseph Claeys, Clifford, Corson, Dietrich, Erickson, Fagg, Gossage, Haley, Holscher, Klemp, Kloos, Masterson, Murphy, Owens, Peck, Petersen, Pettey, Rose, Ryckman, Schmidt, Shallenburger, Shane, Starnes, Sykes, Thomas, Thompson, Titus, Tyson, Warren.

Nays: Faust Goudeau, Francisco, Ware.

A two-thirds constitutional majority having voted in favor of the resolution, HCR 5004 was adopted.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I vote “NO” on House Concurrent Resolution No. 5004. There is little reason to put forward this proposal for a constitutional amendment to clarify the wording in Section 1 of Article 5; the “Qualifications of electors” clearly states that every citizen of the United States who has attained the age of eighteen years; and resides in the voting area in which he or she seeks to vote shall be deemed a qualified elector. It will cost the state some $50,000 for the Secretary of State to publicize the question and additional expenses for our counties if the ballot needs two sides or a second page. More troubling is the wording for the explanation of vote: “A vote for this proposition would clarify that only a person who is a citizen of the United States is eligible to vote in this state” while “A vote against this proposition would make no change to the constitution of the state of Kansas, and the language concerning voter qualifications would remain the same” without noting that “the same” means you need to be a citizen to vote. We owe the citizens of Kansas a better explanation.—MARCI FRANCISCO

Journal of the Senate

FORTY-NINTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, March 26, 2025, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Ty Masterson.

The roll was call with 40 senators present.

President Masterson introduced guest chaplain, Doug Henkle, who delivered the following invocation:

Dear Heavenly Father, I come to You, this morning, in the powerful name of Jesus. As the work of this session comes to a conclusion, I ask again that You would give us peace. Peace, not necessarily the absence of conflict but rather Your presence, Jesus, which creates a stillness within us that is greater than what's going on around us. We have been reminded by the prophet Isaiah that "You will keep in perfect peace all who trust in You, all whose thoughts are fixed on You!" Father, I ask that we trust You and that You cause our thoughts to be fixed on You today, that we might experience Your perfect peace. I pray that You would cause a bond of common purpose to unite this body and that Your Holy Spirit would fill the Kansas capitol.

Despite our high-tech world and efficient procedures, people remain the essential ingredient of life. Lord, I pray for friendly relations within this chamber and between chambers as conference committees conclude their work. Cause each member of this body to think before they speak, aware that their words will not be overlooked or easily erased. Cause each Senator to address the closing issues of this session, to the best of their ability, in a diplomatic and honorable way.

I pray that these Senators, who You love dearly, would have confidence in You that You are at work, that You are in full control and that You are in the midst of all that happens here. Because of that, dear Father, give them a sense of satisfaction and peace as they conclude this session. I pray that, as You have commanded us, we would love one another as You have loved us, despite differing views and approaches to the issues at hand.

I pray for President Masterson, Vice President Shallenburger, Majority Leader Blasi and Minority Leader Sykes. Give them Your clear vision for all You want to accomplish in the concluding days of the 2025 session.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Masterson.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

We shouldn't even be debating this bill today. According to our own joint rules this bill was not blessed before the deadline and officially died last Friday. Specifically Joint Rule 4(f) states only bills that have touched an exempt committee before the deadline can be considered this week and this bill did not touch an exempt committee until yesterday and that occurred after the deadline. Even if we pretend it does, Joint Rule 4(g) provides that any exception to the rule had to be approved by a resolution adopted by this body and we haven't done that. So I have to ask, what are we doing here? Either the rules matter and we hold true to them or let's stop calling them rules and start calling them simply guidelines.—DINAH SYKES

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I fully support our firefighters across the state, as well as the official Fallen Firefighters Memorial of the State of Kansas in Wichita, and the council that SB 199 would establish. However, my concern with SB 199 lies in the provision allowing for the year-round sale of fireworks. Given the increasing frequency and severity of wildfires in our rural regions, this raises significant safety concerns. Our rural volunteer firefighters are always on the front lines, bravely protecting our communities. I deeply admire their courage and dedication—and I would like to avoid adding yet another potential cause for a wildfire to ignite.—ELAINE BOWERS

I vote no on SB 199 because I oppose the year round sale of fireworks. I have the utmost respect for fallen firefighters and their families and I am grateful for the sacrifices they have made. I fully support the Fallen Fighters Memorial and all the great work of those involved with the museum and monument.—KENNY TITUS

Senators Argabright, Joseph Claeys, Clifford, Dietrich, Francisco, Pettey and Starnes request the records to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Titus on SB 199.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT

The House accedes to all Senate amendments to the bill, and your committee on conference further agrees to amend the bill as printed with Senate Committee amendments, as follows:

On page 1, following line 6, by inserting:

"New Section 1. (a) No county election officer shall disqualify an individual from serving as a poll worker at any election on the basis of residency or registered voter status if such individual is a citizen of the United States and an active military member or the spouse or other dependent of an active military member.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or otherwise restrict any poll worker qualifications based on the age of the individual, except as provided in K.S.A. 25-2804, and amendments thereto.

(c) "Active military member" means any person with full-time duty status in the armed forces of the United States, including members of the national guard and reserve.

Sec. 2. K.S.A. 2024 Supp. 25-1122 is hereby amended to read as follows: 25-1122.

(a) Any registered voter may file with the county election officer where such person is a resident, or where such person is authorized by law to vote as a former precinct resident, an application for an advance voting ballot. The signed application shall be transmitted only to the county election officer by personal delivery, mail, facsimile or as otherwise provided by law.

(b) If the registered voter is applying for an advance voting ballot to be transmitted in person, the voter shall provide identification pursuant to K.S.A. 25-2908, and amendments thereto.

(c) If the registered voter is applying for an advance voting ballot to be transmitted by mail, the voter shall provide with the application for an advance voting ballot the voter's current and valid Kansas driver's license number, nondriver's identification card number or a photocopy of any other identification provided by K.S.A. 25-2908, and amendments thereto.

(d) A voter may vote a provisional ballot according to K.S.A. 25-409, and amendments thereto, if:

(1) The voter is unable or refuses to provide current and valid identification; or

(2) the name and address of the voter provided on the application for an advance voting ballot do not match the voter's name and address on the registration book. The voter shall provide a valid form of identification as defined in K.S.A. 25-2908, and amendments thereto, to the county election officer in person or provide a copy by mail or electronic means before the meeting of the county board of canvassers. At the meeting of the county board of canvassers the county election officer shall present copies of identification received from provisional voters and the corresponding provisional ballots. If the county board of canvassers determines that a voter's identification is valid and the provisional ballot was properly cast, the ballot shall be counted.

(e) No county election officer shall provide an advance voting ballot to a person who is requesting an advance voting ballot to be transmitted by mail unless:

(1) The county election official verifies that the signature of the person matches that on file in the county voter registration records, except that verification of the voter's signature shall not be required if a voter has a disability preventing the voter from signing. Signature verification may occur by electronic device or by human inspection. In the event that the signature of a person who is requesting an advance voting ballot does not match that on file, the county election officer shall attempt to contact the person and shall offer the person another opportunity to provide the person's signature for the purposes of verifying the person's identity. If the county election officer is unable to reach the person, the county election officer may transmit a provisional ballot, however, such provisional ballot may not be counted unless a signature is included therewith that can be verified; and

(2) the person provides such person's full Kansas driver's license number, Kansas

nondriver's identification card number issued by the division of vehicles, or submits such person's application for an advance voting ballot and a copy of identification provided by K.S.A. 25-2908, and amendments thereto, to the county election officer for verification. If a person applies for an advance voting ballot to be transmitted by mail but fails to provide identification pursuant to this subsection or the identification of the person cannot be verified by the county election officer, the county election officer shall provide information to the person regarding the voter rights provisions of subsection (d) and shall provide the person an opportunity to provide identification pursuant to this subsection. For the purposes of this act, Kansas state offices and offices of any subdivision of the state will allow any person seeking to vote by an advance voting ballot the use of a photocopying device to make one photocopy of an identification document at no cost.

(f) (1) Applications for advance voting ballots to be transmitted to the voter by mail shall be filed only at the following times:

(A) For the primary election occurring on the first Tuesday in August in both even-numbered and odd-numbered years, between April 1 of such year and the Tuesday of the week preceding such primary election;

(B) for the general election occurring on the Tuesday following the first Monday in November in both even-numbered and odd-numbered years, between 90 days prior to such election and the Tuesday of the week preceding such general election;

(C) for the presidential preference primary election held pursuant to K.S.A. 25-4501a, and amendments thereto, between January 1 of the year in which such election is held and 30 days prior to the day of such election;

(D) for question submitted elections occurring on the date of a primary or general election, the same as is provided for ballots for election of officers at such election;

(E) for question submitted elections not occurring on the date of a primary or general election, between the time of the first published notice thereof and the Tuesday of the week preceding such question submitted election, except that if the question submitted election is held on a day other than a Tuesday, the final date for mailing of advance voting ballots shall be one week before such election; and

(F) for any special election of officers, at such time as is specified by the secretary of state.

(2) The county election officer of any county may receive applications prior to the time specified in this subsection and hold such applications until the beginning of the prescribed application period. Such applications shall be treated as filed on that date.

(g) (1) Unless an earlier date is designated by the county election office, applications for advance voting ballots transmitted to the voter in person shall be filed on the Tuesday next preceding the election and on each subsequent business day until no later than ~~12~~ 12:00 noon on the day preceding such election. If the county election officer so provides, applications for advance voting ballots transmitted to the voter in person in the office of the county election officer also may be filed on the Saturday preceding the election. Upon receipt of any such properly executed application, the county election officer shall deliver to the voter such ballots and instructions as are provided for in this act.

(2) An application for an advance voting ballot filed by a voter who has a temporary illness or disability or who is not proficient in reading the English language or by a person rendering assistance to such voter may be filed during the regular advance ballot application periods until the close of the polls on election day.

(3) The county election officer may designate places other than the central county election office as satellite advance voting sites. At any satellite advance voting site, a registered voter may obtain an application for advance voting ballots. Ballots and instructions shall be delivered to the voter in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as otherwise provided by this subsection.

(h) Any person having a permanent disability or an illness that has been diagnosed as a permanent illness is hereby authorized to make an application for permanent advance voting status. Applications for permanent advance voting status shall be in the form and contain such information as is required for application for advance voting ballots and also shall contain information that establishes the voter's right to permanent advance voting status.

(i) On receipt of any application filed under the provisions of this section, the county election officer shall prepare and maintain in such officer's office a list of the names of all persons who have filed such applications, together with their correct post office address and the precinct, ward, township or voting area in which the persons claim to be registered voters or to be authorized by law to vote as former precinct residents and the present resident address of each applicant. Names and addresses shall remain so listed until the day of such election. The county election officer shall maintain a separate listing of the names and addresses of persons qualifying for permanent advance voting status. All such lists shall be available for inspection upon request in compliance with this subsection by any registered voter during regular business hours. The county election officer upon receipt of the applications shall enter upon a record kept by such officer the name and address of each applicant, which record shall conform to the list above required. Before inspection of any advance voting ballot application list, the person desiring to make the inspection shall provide to the county election officer identification in the form of driver's license or other reliable identification and shall sign a log book or application form maintained by the officer stating the person's name and address and showing the date and time of inspection. All records made by the county election officer shall be subject to public inspection, except that the voter identification information required by subsections (b) and (c) and the identifying number on ballots and ballot envelopes and records of such numbers shall not be made public.

(j) If a person on the permanent advance voting list fails to vote in four consecutive general elections, the county election officer may mail a notice to such voter. The notice shall inform the voter that the voter's name will be removed from the permanent advance voting list unless the voter renews the application for permanent advance voting status within 30 days after the notice is mailed. If the voter fails to renew such application, the county election officer shall remove the voter's name from the permanent advance voting list. Failure to renew the application for permanent advance voting status shall not result in removal of the voter's name from the voter registration list.

(k) (1) Any person who solicits by mail a registered voter to file an application for an advance voting ballot and includes an application for an advance voting ballot in such mailing shall include on the exterior of such mailing, and on each a page contained therein, except the application, in such mailing a clear and conspicuous label in 14-point 10-point font or larger that includes:

(B) the official protection and advocacy for voting access agency for this state as designated pursuant to the federal help America vote act of 2002, public law 107-252, or any other entity required to provide information concerning elections and voting procedures by federal law.

(5) A violation of this subsection is a class C nonperson misdemeanor.

(1) No person shall mail or cause to be mailed an application for an advance voting ballot, unless such person is a resident of this state or is otherwise domiciled in this state.

(2) Any individual may file a complaint in writing with the attorney general alleging a violation of this subsection. (b) Member states may charge a fee for granting a license to practice cosmetology.

(c) Individuals not residing in a member state shall continue to be able to apply for a member state's single-state license as provided under the laws of each member state, except that the single-state license granted to these individuals shall not be recognized as granting a multistate license to provide services in any other member state.

(d) Nothing in this compact shall affect the requirements established by a member state for the issuance of a single-state license.

(e) A multistate license issued to a licensee by a home state to a resident of that state shall be recognized by each member state as authorizing a licensee to practice cosmetology in each member state.

(f) At no point shall the commission have the power to define the educational or professional requirements for a license to practice cosmetology. The member states shall retain sole jurisdiction over the provision of these requirements.

ARTICLE 4—MULTISTATE LICENSE

(a) To be eligible to apply to their home state's state licensing authority for an initial multistate license under this compact, a licensee must hold an active and unencumbered single-state license to practice cosmetology in such licensee's home state.

(d) A multistate license to practice cosmetology issued by a member state's state licensing authority shall be recognized by each member state as authorizing the practice thereof as though that licensee held a single-state license to do so in each member state, subject to the restrictions herein.

(c) A multistate license granted pursuant to this compact may be effective for a definite period of time, concurrent with the licensure renewal period in the home state.

(4) notwithstanding any other provision of this compact, if a licensee does not meet the requirements set forth in this compact for the reissuance of a multistate license by the new home state, then such licensee shall be subject to the new home state requirements for the issuance of a single-state license in that state.

(c) If a licensee changes such licensee's primary state of residence by moving from a member state to a non-member state, or from a non-member state to a member state, then the licensee shall be subject to the state requirements for the issuance of a single-state license in the new home state.

(d) Nothing in this compact shall interfere with a licensee's ability to hold a single-state license in multiple states, except that, for the purposes of this compact, a licensee shall have only one home state and one multistate license.

(e) Nothing in this compact shall interfere with the requirements established by a member state for the issuance of a single-state license.

ARTICLE 6—AUTHORITY OF THE COMPACT COMMISSION AND MEMBER STATE LICENSING AUTHORITIES

(c) Discipline shall be the sole responsibility of the state where cosmetology services are provided. Accordingly, each member state's state licensing authority shall be responsible for receiving complaints about individuals practicing cosmetology in that state and for communicating all relevant investigative information about any such adverse action to the other member states through the data system in addition to any other methods the commission may require by rule.

ARTICLE 7—ADVERSE ACTIONS

(a) A licensee's home state shall have exclusive power to impose an adverse action against a licensee's multistate license issued by the home state.

(b) A home state may take adverse action on a multistate license based on the investigative information, current significant investigative information or adverse action of a remote state.

(c) In addition to the powers conferred by state law, each remote state's state licensing authority shall have the power to:

(1) Take adverse action against a licensee's authorization to practice cosmetology through the multistate license in that member state, except that:

(A) Only the licensee's home state shall have the power to take adverse action against the multistate license issued by the home state; and

(B) for the purposes of taking adverse action, the home state's state licensing authority shall give the same priority and effect to reported conduct received from a remote state as it would if such conduct had occurred within the home state. (2) issue cease and desist orders or impose an encumbrance on a licensee's authorization to practice within that member state;

(3) complete any pending investigations of a licensee who changes their primary state of residence during the course of such an investigation. The state licensing authority shall also be empowered to report the results of such an investigation to the commission through the data system as described herein;

(4) issue subpoenas for both hearings and investigations that require the attendance and testimony of witnesses, as well as the production of evidence. Subpoenas issued by a state licensing authority in a member state for the attendance and testimony of witnesses or the production of evidence from another member state shall be enforced in the latter state by any court of competent jurisdiction, according to the practice and procedure of that court applicable to subpoenas issued in proceedings before it. The issuing state licensing authority shall pay any witness fees, travel expenses, mileage and other fees required by the service statutes of the state where the witnesses or evidence are located;

(5) if otherwise permitted by state law, recover from the affected licensee the costs of investigations and disposition of cases resulting from any adverse action taken against that licensee; and

(6) take adverse action against the licensee's authorization to practice in that state based on the factual findings of another remote state.

(d) A licensee's home state shall complete any pending investigation of a cosmetologist who changes such licensee's primary state of residence during the course of the investigation. The home state shall also have the authority to take appropriate action and promptly report the conclusions of the investigations to the data system.

(e) If an adverse action is taken by the home state against a licensee's multistate license, the licensee's authorization to practice in all other member states shall be deactivated until all encumbrances have been removed from the home state license. All home state disciplinary orders that impose an adverse action against a licensee's multistate license shall include a statement that the cosmetologist's authorization to practice is deactivated in all member states during the pendency of the order.

(f) Nothing in this compact shall override a member state's authority to accept a licensee's participation in an alternative program in lieu of adverse action. A licensee's multistate license shall be suspended for the duration of the licensee's participation in any alternative program.

(g) Joint investigations.

(1) In addition to the authority granted to a member state by its respective scope of practice laws or other applicable state law, a member state may participate with other member states in joint investigations of licensees.

(2) Member states shall share any investigative, litigation or compliance materials in furtherance of any joint or individual investigation initiated under the compact.

ARTICLE 8—ACTIVE MILITARY MEMBERS AND THEIR SPOUSES

Active military members or their spouses shall designate a home state where the individual has a current license to practice cosmetology in good standing. The individual may retain their home state designation during any period of service when that individual or their spouse is on active duty assignment.

(a) The compact member states create and establish a joint government agency whose membership consists of all member states that have enacted the compact, which shall be known as the cosmetology licensure compact commission. The commission is an instrumentality of the compact member states acting jointly and not an instrumentality of any one state. The commission shall come into existence on or after the effective date of the compact as set forth in article 13.

(12) as set forth in the commission rules, charge a fee to a licensee for the grant of a multistate license and thereafter, as may be established by commission rule, charge the licensee a multistate license renewal fee for each renewal period. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent a home state from charging a licensee a fee for a multistate license or renewals of a multistate license or a fee for the jurisprudence requirement if the member state imposes such a requirement for the grant of a multistate license;

(13) assess and collect fees;

(14) accept any and all appropriate gifts, donations, grants of money, other sources of revenue, equipment, supplies, materials and services, and receive, utilize and dispose of the same, except that, at all times, the commission shall avoid any appearance of impropriety or conflict of interest;

(F) monitoring compact compliance of member states and providing compliance reports to the commission;

(G) establishing additional committees as necessary;

(H) exercising the powers and duties of the commission during the interim between commission meetings, except for adopting or amending rules, adopting or amending bylaws and exercising any other powers and duties expressly reserved to the commission by rule or bylaw; and

(I) other duties as provided in the rules or bylaws of the commission.

(2) The executive committee shall be composed of up to seven voting members:

(A) The chair and vice chairperson of the commission and any other members of the commission who serve on the executive committee shall be voting members of the executive committee.

(B) Other than the chair, vice chair, secretary and treasurer, the commission shall elect three voting members from the current membership of the commission.

(C) The commission may elect ex officio, nonvoting members from a recognized national cosmetology professional association as approved by the commission. The commission's bylaws shall identify qualifying organizations and the manner of appointment if the number of organizations seeking to appoint an ex officio member exceeds the number of members specified in this article.

(3) The commission may remove any member of the executive committee as provided in the commission's bylaws.

(4) The executive committee shall meet at least annually.

(A) Annual executive committee meetings, as well as any executive committee meeting at which the commission does not take or intend to take formal action on a matter for which a commission vote would otherwise be required, shall be open to the public, except that the executive committee may meet in a closed, non-public session of a public meeting when dealing with any of the matters specified in article 9(f)(4).

(B) The executive committee shall give five business days advance notice of its public meetings, posted on its website and as determined to provide notice to persons with an interest in the public matters that the executive committee intends to address at those meetings.

(5) The executive committee may hold an emergency meeting when acting for the commission to:

(A) Meet an imminent threat to public health, safety or welfare;

(B) prevent a loss of commission or member state funds; or

(C) protect public health and safety.

(e) The commission shall adopt and provide an annual report to the member states.

(f) Meetings of the commission.

(1) All meetings of the commission that are not closed pursuant to article 9(f)(4) shall be open to the public. Notice of public meetings shall be posted on the commission's website at least 30 days prior to the public meeting.

(2) Notwithstanding article 9(f)(1), the commission may convene an emergency public meeting by providing at least 24 hours' prior notice on the commission's website and any other means as provided in the commission's rules for any of the reasons it may dispense with notice of proposed rulemaking under article 11(l). The commission's legal counsel shall certify that one of the reasons justifying an emergency public meeting has been met.

(3) Notice of all commission meetings shall provide the time, date and location of the meeting, and if the meeting is to be held or accessible via telecommunication, video conference, or other electronic means, the notice shall include the mechanism for access to the meeting.

(4) The commission may convene in a closed, non-public meeting for the commission to discuss:

(A) Non-compliance of a member state with its obligations under the compact;

(B) the employment, compensation, discipline or other matters, practices or procedures related to specific employees or other matters related to the commission's internal personnel practices and procedures;

(C) current or threatened discipline of a licensee by the commission or by a member state's licensing authority;

(M) other matters as adopted by the commission by rule. If a meeting, or portion of a meeting, is closed, the presiding officer shall state that such meeting will be closed and reference each relevant exempting provision, and such reference shall be recorded in the minutes.

(5) The commission shall keep minutes that fully and clearly describe all matters discussed in a meeting and shall provide a full and accurate summary of actions taken and the reasons therefore, including a description of the views expressed. All documents considered in connection with an action shall be identified in such minutes. All minutes and documents of a closed meeting shall remain under seal, subject to release only by a majority vote of the commission or order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(g) Financing of the commission.

(1) The commission shall pay, or provide for the payment of, the reasonable expenses of its establishment, organization and ongoing activities.

(2) The commission may accept any and all appropriate sources of revenue, donations and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials and services.

(3) The commission may levy on and collect an annual assessment from each member state and impose fees on licensees of member states to whom it grants a multistate license to cover the cost of the operations and activities of the commission and its staff, which shall be in a total amount sufficient to cover its annual budget as approved each year for which revenue is not provided by other sources. The aggregate annual assessment amount for member states shall be allocated based upon a formula that the commission shall adopt by rule.

(4) The commission shall not incur obligations of any kind prior to securing the funds adequate to meet the same, nor shall the commission pledge the credit of any member states, except by and with the authority of such member state.

(5) The commission shall keep accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements. The receipts and disbursements of the commission shall be subject to the financial review and accounting procedures established under its bylaws. All receipts and disbursements of funds handled by the commission shall be subject to an annual financial review by a certified or licensed public accountant, and the report of the financial review shall be included in and become part of the annual report of the commission.

(h) Qualified immunity, defense and indemnification.

(1) The members, officers, executive director, employees and representatives of the commission shall be immune from suit and liability, both personally and in their official capacity, for any claim for damage to or loss of property or personal injury or other civil liability caused by or arising out of any actual or alleged act, error or omission that occurred, or that the person against whom the claim is made had a reasonable basis for believing occurred, within the scope of commission employment, duties or responsibilities, except that nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to protect any such person from suit or liability for any damage, loss, injury or liability caused by the intentional or willful or wanton misconduct of that person. The procurement of insurance of any type by the commission shall not in any way compromise or limit such immunity granted in this paragraph.

(2) The commission shall defend any member, officer, executive director, employee and representative of the commission in any civil action seeking to impose liability arising out of any actual or alleged act, error or omission that occurred within the scope of commission employment, duties or responsibilities, or as determined by the commission that the person against whom the claim is made had a reasonable basis for believing occurred within the scope of commission employment, duties or responsibilities, except that nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to prohibit such person from retaining their own counsel at their own expense and that the actual or alleged act, error or omission did not result from such person's intentional or willful or wanton misconduct.

(3) The commission shall indemnify and hold harmless any member, officer, executive director, employee and representative of the commission for the amount of any settlement or judgment obtained against that person arising out of any actual or alleged act, error or omission that occurred within the scope of commission employment, duties or responsibilities, or that such person had a reasonable basis for believing occurred within the scope of commission employment, duties or responsibilities, if the actual or alleged act, error or omission did not result from the intentional or willful or wanton misconduct of that person.

(4) Nothing in this compact shall be construed as a limitation on the liability of any licensee for professional malpractice or misconduct, which shall be governed solely by any other applicable state laws.

(5) Nothing in this compact shall be interpreted to waive or otherwise abrogate a member state's state action immunity or state action affirmative defense with respect to antitrust claims under the Sherman antitrust act of 1890, the Clayton act 15 U.S.C. §§ 17-27 or any other state or federal antitrust or anticompetitive law or regulation.

(6) Nothing in this compact shall be construed to be a waiver of sovereign immunity by the member states or by the commission.

ARTICLE 10—DATA SYSTEM

(a) The commission shall provide for the development, maintenance, operation and utilization of a coordinated database and reporting system.

(b) The commission shall assign each applicant for a multistate license a unique identifier, as determined by the rules of the commission.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of state law to the contrary, a member state shall submit a uniform data set to the data system on all individuals to whom this compact is applicable as required by the rules of the commission, including:

- (1) Identifying information;
- (2) licensure data;
- (3) adverse actions against a license and information related thereto;
- (4) non-confidential information related to alternative program participation, the beginning and ending dates of such participation and other information related to such participation;
- (5) any denial of application for licensure and the reason for such denial, excluding the reporting of any criminal history record information when prohibited by law;
- (6) the existence of investigative information;

- (7) the existence of current significant investigative information; and
- (8) other information that may facilitate the administration of this compact or the protection of the public, as determined by the rules of the commission.
- (d) The records and information provided to a member state pursuant to this compact or through the data system, when certified by the commission or an agent thereof, shall constitute the authenticated business records of the commission and be entitled to any associated hearsay exception in any relevant judicial, quasi-judicial or administrative proceedings in a member state.
- (e) The existence of current significant investigative information and the existence of investigative information pertaining to a licensee in any member state shall only be available to other member states.
- (f) It shall be the responsibility of the member states to monitor the database to determine whether adverse action has been taken against such a licensee or license applicant. Adverse action information pertaining to a licensee or license applicant in any member state shall be available to any other member state.
- (g) Member states contributing information to the data system may designate information that shall not be shared with the public without the express permission of the contributing state.
- (h) Any information submitted to the data system that is subsequently expunged pursuant to federal law or the laws of the member state contributing the information shall be removed from the data system.

ARTICLE 11—RULEMAKING

- (a) The commission shall adopt reasonable rules in order to effectively and efficiently implement and administer the purposes and provisions of the compact. A rule shall be invalid and have no force or effect only if a court of competent jurisdiction holds that the rule is invalid because the commission exercised its rulemaking authority in a manner that is beyond the scope and purposes of the compact, the powers granted under this compact or based upon another applicable standard of review.
- (b) The rules of the commission shall have the force of law in each member state, except that where the rules of the commission conflict with the laws of the member state that establish the member state's scope of practice laws governing the practice of cosmetology as held by a court of competent jurisdiction, the rules of the commission shall be ineffective in such state to the extent of the conflict.
- (c) The commission shall exercise its rulemaking powers pursuant to the criteria set forth in this article and the rules adopted thereunder. Rules shall become binding as of the date specified by the commission for each rule.
- (d) If a majority of the legislatures of the member states rejects a rule or a portion of a rule, by enactment of a statute or resolution in the same manner used to adopt the compact within four years of the date of adoption of the rule, then such rule shall have no further force and effect in any member state or to any state applying to participate in the compact.
- (e) Rules shall be adopted at a regular or special meeting of the commission.
- (f) Prior to adoption of a proposed rule, the commission shall hold a public hearing and allow persons to provide oral and written comments, data, facts, opinions and arguments.
- (g) Prior to adoption of a proposed rule by the commission and at least 30 days in advance of the meeting at which the commission will hold a public hearing on the proposed rule, the commission shall provide a notice of proposed rulemaking:

- (1) On the website of the commission or other publicly accessible platform;
- (2) to persons who have requested notice of the commission's notices of proposed rulemaking; and

- (3) in such other way as the commission may by rule specify.

- (h) The notice of proposed rulemaking shall include:

- (1) The time, date and location of the public hearing at which the commission will hear public comments on the proposed rule and, if different, the time, date and location of the meeting where the commission will consider and vote on the proposed rule;

- (2) if the hearing is held via telecommunication, video conference or other electronic means, the commission shall include the mechanism for access to the hearing in the notice of proposed rulemaking;

- (3) the text of the proposed rule and the reason therefor;

- (4) a request for comments on the proposed rule from any interested person; and

- (5) the manner in which interested persons may submit written comments.

- (i) All hearings shall be recorded. A copy of the recording and all written comments and documents received by the commission in response to the proposed rule shall be available to the public.

- (j) Nothing in this article shall be construed as requiring a separate hearing on each rule. Rules may be grouped for the convenience of the commission at hearings required by this article.

- (k) The commission shall, by majority vote of all members, take final action on the proposed rule based on the rulemaking record and the full text of the rule.

- (1) The commission may adopt changes to the proposed rule if the changes do not enlarge the original purpose of the proposed rule.

- (2) The commission shall provide an explanation of the reasons for substantive changes made to the proposed rule as well as reasons for substantive changes not made that were recommended by commenters.

- (3) The commission shall determine a reasonable effective date for the rule. Except for an emergency as provided in article 11(l), the effective date of the rule shall not be earlier than 45 days after the commission issues notice that it has adopted or amended such rule.

- (l) Upon determination that an emergency exists, the commission may consider and adopt an emergency rule with five days' notice, with opportunity to comment, except the usual rulemaking procedures provided in the compact and this article shall be retroactively applied to the rule as soon as reasonably possible, not later than 90 days after the effective date of the rule. For the purposes of this provision, an emergency rule is one that shall be adopted immediately to:

- (1) Meet an imminent threat to public health, safety or welfare;

- (2) prevent a loss of commission or member state funds;

- (3) meet a deadline for the adoption of a rule that is established by federal law or rule; or

- (4) protect public health and safety.

- (m) The commission or an authorized committee of the commission may direct revisions to a previously adopted rule for purposes of correcting typographical errors, errors in format, errors in consistency or grammatical errors. Public notice of any revisions shall be posted on the website of the commission. The revision shall be subject to challenge by any person for a period of 30 days after posting. The revision may be challenged only on grounds that the revision results in a material change to a rule. A challenge shall be made in writing and delivered to the commission prior to the end of the notice period. If no challenge is made, the revision will take effect without further action. If the revision is challenged, the revision may not take effect without the approval of the commission.

(n) No member state's rulemaking requirements shall apply under this compact.

ARTICLE 12—OVERSIGHT, DISPUTE RESOLUTION AND ENFORCEMENT

(1) The executive and judicial branches of state government in each member state shall enforce this compact and take all actions necessary and appropriate to implement the compact.

(2) Venue is proper and judicial proceedings by or against the commission shall be brought solely and exclusively in a court of competent jurisdiction where the principal office of the commission is located. The commission may waive venue and jurisdictional defenses to the extent it adopts or consents to participate in alternative dispute resolution proceedings. Nothing in this compact shall affect or limit the selection or propriety of venue in any action against a licensee for professional malpractice, misconduct or any such similar matter.

(3) The commission shall be entitled to receive service of process in any proceeding regarding the enforcement or interpretation of the compact and shall have standing to intervene in such a proceeding for all purposes. Failure to provide the commission service of process shall render a judgment or order void as to the commission, this compact or adopted rules.

(b) Default, technical assistance and termination.

(1) If the commission determines that a member state has defaulted in the performance of its obligations or responsibilities under this compact or adopted rules, the commission shall provide written notice to the defaulting state. The notice of default shall describe the default, the proposed means of curing the default, any other action that the commission may take and offer training and specific technical assistance regarding the default.

(2) The commission shall provide a copy of the notice of default to the other member states.

(3) If a state in default fails to cure the default, the defaulting state may be terminated from the compact upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the delegates of the member states, and all rights, privileges and benefits conferred on that state by this compact may be terminated on the effective date of termination. A cure of the default does not relieve the offending state of obligations or liabilities incurred during the period of default.

(4) Termination of membership in the compact shall be imposed only after all other means of securing compliance have been exhausted. Notice of intent to suspend or terminate shall be given by the commission to the governor, the majority and minority leaders of the defaulting state's legislature, the defaulting state's state licensing authority and each of the member states' state licensing authority.

(5) A state that has been terminated is responsible for all assessments, obligations and liabilities incurred through the effective date of termination, including obligations that extend beyond the effective date of termination.

(6) Upon the termination of a state's membership from this compact, such state shall immediately provide notice to all licensees who hold a multistate license within that state of such termination. The terminated state shall continue to recognize all licenses granted pursuant to this compact for a minimum of 180 days after the date of said notice of termination.

(7) The commission shall not bear any costs related to a state that is found to be in default or that has been terminated from the compact unless agreed upon in writing between the commission and the defaulting state.

(8) The defaulting state may appeal the action of the commission by petitioning the United States district court for the District of Columbia or the federal district where the commission has its principal offices. The prevailing party shall be awarded all costs of such litigation, including reasonable attorney fees.

(c) Dispute resolution.

(1) Upon request by a member state, the commission shall attempt to resolve disputes related to the compact that arise among member states and between member and non-member states.

(2) The commission shall adopt a rule providing for both mediation and binding dispute resolution for disputes as appropriate.

(1) The commission, in the reasonable exercise of its discretion, shall enforce the provisions of this compact and the commission's rules.

(2) By majority vote as provided by commission rule, the commission may initiate legal action against a member state in default in the United States district court for the District of Columbia or the federal district where the commission has its principal offices to enforce compliance with the provisions of the compact and its adopted rules. The relief sought may include both injunctive relief and damages. In the event that judicial enforcement is necessary, the prevailing party shall be awarded all costs of such litigation, including reasonable attorney fees. The remedies in this compact shall not be the exclusive remedies of the commission. The commission may pursue any other remedies available under federal or the defaulting member state's law.

(3) A member state may initiate legal action against the commission in the United States district court for the District of Columbia or the federal district where the commission has its principal offices to enforce compliance with the provisions of the compact and its adopted rules. The relief sought may include both injunctive relief and damages. In the event that judicial enforcement is necessary, the prevailing party shall be awarded all costs of such litigation, including reasonable attorney fees.

(4) No individual or entity other than a member state may enforce this compact against the commission.

ARTICLE 13—EFFECTIVE DATE, WITHDRAWAL AND AMENDMENT

(a) The compact shall come into effect on the date that the compact statute is enacted into law in the seventh member state. On or after the effective date of the compact, the commission shall convene and review the enactment of each of the charter member states to determine if the statute enacted by each such charter member state is materially different than the model compact statute.

(1) A charter member state whose enactment is found to be materially different from the model compact statute shall be entitled to the default process set forth in article 12.

(2) If any member state is later found to be in default, or is terminated or withdraws from the compact, the commission shall remain in existence, and the compact shall remain in effect even if the number of member states should be fewer than seven.

(3) Member states enacting the compact subsequent to the charter member states shall be subject to the process set forth in article 9(c)(24) to determine if such enactments are materially different from the model compact statute and whether the enactments qualify for participation in the compact.

(4) All actions taken for the benefit of the commission or in furtherance of the purposes of the administration of the compact prior to the effective date of the compact or the commission coming into existence shall be considered to be actions of the commission unless specifically repudiated by the commission.

(5) Any state that joins the compact shall be subject to the commission's rules and bylaws as they exist on the date that the compact becomes law in that state. Any rule that has been previously adopted by the commission shall have the full force and effect of law on the date that the compact becomes law in that state.

(b) Any member state may withdraw from this compact by enacting a statute repealing that state's enactment of the compact.

(1) A member state's withdrawal shall not take effect until 180 days after enactment of the repealing statute.

(2) Withdrawal shall not affect the continuing requirement of the withdrawing state's state licensing authority to comply with the investigative and adverse action reporting requirements of this compact prior to the effective date of withdrawal.

(3) Upon the enactment of a statute withdrawing from this compact, a state shall immediately provide notice of such withdrawal to all licensees within that state. Notwithstanding any subsequent statutory enactment to the contrary, such withdrawing state shall continue to recognize all licenses granted pursuant to this compact for a minimum of 180 days after the date of such notice of withdrawal.

(c) Nothing contained in this compact shall be construed to invalidate or prevent any licensure agreement or other cooperative arrangement between a member state and a non-member state that does not conflict with the provisions of this compact.

(d) This compact may be amended by the member states. No amendment to this compact shall become effective and binding upon any member state until it is enacted into the laws of all member states.

ARTICLE 14—CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

(a) This compact and the commission's rulemaking authority shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes and the implementation and administration of the compact. Provisions of the compact expressly authorizing or requiring the adoption of rules shall not be construed to limit the commission's rulemaking authority solely for those purposes.

(b) The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be contrary to the constitution of any member state, a state seeking participation in the compact or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held to be unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any other government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby.

(c) Notwithstanding article 14(b), the commission may deny a state's participation in the compact or terminate a member state's participation in the compact, in accordance with the requirements of article 12, if the commission determines that a constitutional requirement of a member state is a material departure from the compact. Otherwise, if this compact shall be held to be contrary to the constitution of any member state, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining member states and in full force and effect as to the member state affected as to all severable matters.

ARTICLE 15—CONSISTENT EFFECT AND CONFLICT WITH OTHER STATE LAWS

(a) Nothing in this compact shall prevent or inhibit the enforcement of any other law of a member state that is not inconsistent with the compact.

(b) Any laws, statutes, regulations or other legal requirements in a member state in conflict with the compact are superseded to the extent of the conflict.

(c) All permissible agreements between the commission and the member states are binding in accordance with their terms.

Sec. 4.

SECTION 1—PURPOSE

In order to strengthen access to medical services and in recognition of the advances in the delivery of medical services, the participating states of the PA licensure compact have allied in common purpose to develop a comprehensive process that complements the existing authority of state licensing boards to license and discipline PAs and seeks to enhance the portability of a license to practice as a PA while safeguarding the safety of patients. This compact allows medical services to be provided by PAs, via the mutual recognition of the licensee's qualifying license by other compact-participating states. This compact also adopts the prevailing standard for PA licensure and affirms that the practice and delivery of medical services by the PA occurs where the patient is located at the time of the patient encounter and, therefore, requires the PA to be under the jurisdiction of the state licensing board where the patient is located. State licensing boards that participate in this compact retain the jurisdiction to impose adverse action against a compact privilege in that state issued to a PA through the procedures of this compact. The PA licensure compact will alleviate burdens for military families by allowing active duty military personnel and their spouses to obtain a compact privilege based on having an unrestricted license in good standing from a participating state.

SECTION 2—DEFINITIONS

As used in this compact:

(a) "Adverse action" means any administrative, civil, equitable or criminal action permitted by a state's laws that is imposed by a licensing board or other authority against a PA license, application for licensure or compact privilege such as license denial, censure, revocation, suspension, probation, monitoring of the licensee or restriction on the licensee's practice.

(b) "Compact privilege" means the authorization granted by a remote state to allow a licensee from another participating state to practice as a PA to provide medical services and other licensed activity to a patient located in the remote state under the remote state's laws and regulations.

(c) "Conviction" means a finding by a court that an individual is guilty of a felony or misdemeanor offense through adjudication or entry of a guilty plea or no contest to the charge by the offender.

(d) "Criminal background check" means the submission of fingerprints or other biometric-based information for an applicant for licensure for the purpose of obtaining that applicant's criminal history record information, as defined in 28 C.F.R. § 20.3(d), from the state's criminal history record repository as defined in 28 C.F.R. § 20.3(f).

(c) "Data system" means the repository of information concerning licensees, including, but not limited to, license status and adverse actions, that is created and administered under the terms of this compact.

(f) "Executive committee" means a group of directors and ex officio individuals elected or appointed pursuant to section 7(f)(2).

(j) "License" means current authorization by a state, other than authorization pursuant to a compact privilege, for a PA to provide medical services that would be unlawful without current authorization.

(k) "Licensee" means an individual who holds a license from a state to provide medical services as a PA.

(n) "Model compact" means the model for the PA licensure compact on file with the council of state governments or other entity as designated by the commission.

(o) "PA" means an individual who is licensed as a physician assistant in a state. For purposes of this compact, any other title or status adopted by a state to replace the term "physician assistant" shall be deemed synonymous with "physician assistant" and shall confer the same rights and responsibilities to the licensee under the provisions of this compact at the time of its enactment.

(p) "PA licensure compact commission," "compact commission" or "commission" means the national administrative body created pursuant to section 7(a).

(t) "Rule" means any rule or regulation adopted by an entity that has the force and effect of law.

(u) "Significant investigative information" means investigative information that a licensing board, after an inquiry or investigation that includes notification and an opportunity for the PA to respond if required by state law, has reason to believe is not groundless and, if proven true, would indicate more than a minor infraction.

(v) "State" means any state, commonwealth, district or territory of the United States.

SECTION 3—STATE PARTICIPATION IN THIS COMPACT

- (a) To participate in this compact, a participating state shall:

SECTION 4—COMPACT PRIVILEGE

- (a) To exercise the compact privilege, a licensee shall:
 - (1) Have graduated from a PA program accredited by the accreditation review commission on education for the physician assistant, inc., or other programs authorized by commission rule;

 - (7) have had no revocation of a license or limitation or restriction on any license currently held due to an adverse action;
- (A) if a licensee has had a limitation or restriction on a license or compact privilege due to an adverse action, two years shall have elapsed from the date on which the license or compact privilege is no longer limited or restricted due to the adverse action;
- (B) if a compact privilege has been revoked or is limited or restricted in a participating state for conduct that would not be a basis for disciplinary action in a participating state in which the licensee is practicing or applying to practice under a compact privilege, that participating state shall have the discretion not to consider such action as an adverse action requiring the denial or removal of a compact privilege in that state;
- (8) notify the compact commission that the licensee is seeking the compact privilege in a remote state;

(10) report to the commission any adverse action taken by a nonparticipating state within 30 days after such adverse action is taken.

(b) The compact privilege shall be valid until the expiration or revocation of the qualifying license unless terminated pursuant to an adverse action. The licensee shall comply with the requirements of subsection (a) to maintain the compact privilege in a remote state. If the participating state takes adverse action against a qualifying license, the licensee shall lose the compact privilege in any remote state in which the licensee has a compact privilege until the licensee meets the following conditions:

(1) The license is no longer limited or restricted; and

(2) two years have elapsed from the date on which the license is no longer limited or restricted due to the adverse action.

(c) Once a restricted or limited license satisfies the requirements of subsection (b), the licensee shall meet the requirements of subsection (a) to obtain a compact privilege in any remote state.

(d) For each remote state in which a PA seeks authority to prescribe controlled substances, the PA shall satisfy all the requirements imposed by such state in granting or renewing such authority.

SECTION 5—DESIGNATION OF THE STATE FROM WHICH THE LICENSEE IS APPLYING FOR A COMPACT PRIVILEGE

Upon a licensee's application for a compact privilege, the licensee shall identify to the commission the participating state from which the licensee is applying, in accordance with applicable rules adopted by the commission and subject to the following requirements:

(a) When applying for a compact privilege, the licensee shall provide the commission with the address of the licensee's primary residence and, thereafter, shall immediately report to the commission any change in the address of the licensee's primary residence; and

(b) when applying for a compact privilege, the licensee is required to consent to accept service of process by mail at the licensee's primary residence on file with the commission with respect to any action brought against the licensee by the commission or a participating state, including a subpoena, with respect to any action brought or investigation conducted by the commission or a participating state.

SECTION 6—ADVERSE ACTIONS

(a) A participating state in which a licensee is licensed shall have exclusive power to impose adverse action against the qualifying license issued by that participating state.

(b) In addition to the other powers conferred by state law, a remote state shall have the authority, in accordance with existing state due process law, to:

(1) Take adverse action against a PA's compact privilege within that state to remove a licensee's compact privilege or take other action necessary under applicable law to protect the health and safety of its citizens; and

(2) issue subpoenas for both hearings and investigations that require the attendance and testimony of witnesses as well as the production of evidence. Subpoenas issued by a licensing board in a participating state for the attendance and testimony of witnesses or the production of evidence from another participating state shall be enforced in the latter state by any court of competent jurisdiction, according to the practice and procedure of such court applicable to subpoenas issued in proceedings pending before it. The issuing authority shall pay any witness fees, travel expenses, mileage and other fees required by the service statutes of the state in which the witnesses or evidence is located.

(c) Notwithstanding subsection (b)(2), subpoenas shall not be issued by a participating state to gather evidence of conduct in another state that is lawful in such other state for the purpose of taking adverse action against a licensee's compact privilege or application for a compact privilege in the participating state.

(d) Nothing in this compact shall be deemed to authorize a participating state to impose discipline against a PA's compact privilege or to deny an application for a compact privilege in that participating state for the individual's otherwise lawful practice in another state.

(e) For purposes of taking adverse action, the participating state that issued the qualifying license shall give the same priority and effect to reported conduct received from any other participating state as it would if the conduct had occurred within the participating state that issued the qualifying license. The participating state shall apply its own state laws to determine appropriate action.

(f) A participating state, if otherwise permitted by state law, may recover from the affected PA the costs of investigations and disposition of cases resulting from any adverse action taken against that PA.

(g) A participating state may take adverse action based on the factual findings of a remote state if the participating state follows its own procedures for taking the adverse action.

(h) Joint investigations.

(1) In addition to the authority granted to a participating state by such state's PA laws and regulations or other applicable state law, any participating state may participate with other participating states in joint investigations of licensees.

(2) Participating states shall share any investigative, litigation or compliance materials in furtherance of any joint or individual investigation initiated under this compact.

(i) If an adverse action is taken against a PA's qualifying license, the PA's compact privilege in all remote states shall be deactivated until two years have elapsed after all restrictions have been removed from the state license. All disciplinary orders by the participating state that issued the qualifying license that impose adverse action against a PA's license shall include a statement that the PA's compact privilege is deactivated in all participating states during the pendency of the order.

(j) If any participating state takes adverse action, it promptly shall notify the administrator of the data system.

SECTION 7—ESTABLISHMENT OF THE PA LICENSURE COMPACT COMMISSION

(a) The participating states hereby create and establish a joint government agency and national administrative body known as the PA licensure compact commission. The commission is an instrumentality of the compact states acting jointly and not an instrumentality of any one state. The commission shall come into existence on or after the effective date of the compact as set forth in section 11(a).

(b) Membership, voting and meetings.

(1) Each participating state shall have and be limited to one delegate selected by such participating state's licensing board or, if such participating state has more than one licensing board, selected collectively by the participating state's licensing boards.

- (2) A delegate shall be either:
 - (A) A current PA, physician or public member of a licensing board or PA council or committee; or

- (3) Any delegate may be removed or suspended from office as provided by the laws of the state from which the delegate is appointed.
- (4) The participating state licensing board shall fill any vacancy occurring in the commission within 60 days.
- (5) Each delegate shall be entitled to one vote on all matters voted on by the commission and shall otherwise have an opportunity to participate in the commission's business and affairs. A delegate shall vote in person or by such other means as provided in the bylaws. The bylaws may provide for delegates' participation in meetings by telecommunications, video conference or other means of communication.
- (6) The commission shall meet at least once during each calendar year. Additional meetings shall be held as set forth in this compact and the bylaws.
- (7) The commission shall establish by rule a term of office for delegates.
- (c) The commission shall have the following powers and duties:
 - (1) Establish a code of ethics for the commission;
 - (2) establish the fiscal year of the commission;
 - (3) establish fees;
 - (4) establish bylaws;
 - (5) maintain its financial records in accordance with the bylaws;
 - (6) meet and take such actions as are consistent with the provisions of this compact and the bylaws;
 - (7) adopt rules to facilitate and coordinate implementation and administration of this compact, and such rules shall have the force and effect of law and shall be binding in all participating states;
 - (8) bring and prosecute legal proceedings or actions in the name of the commission, except that the standing of any state licensing board to sue or be sued under applicable law shall not be affected;
 - (9) purchase and maintain insurance and bonds;
 - (10) borrow, accept or contract for services of personnel, including, but not limited to, employees of a participating state;
 - (11) hire employees and engage contractors, elect or appoint officers, fix compensation, define duties, grant such individuals appropriate authority to carry out the purposes of this compact and establish the commission's personnel policies and programs relating to conflicts of interest, qualifications of personnel and other related personnel matters;
 - (12) accept any and all appropriate donations and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials and services and receive, utilize and dispose of the same. At all times the commission shall avoid any appearance of impropriety or conflict of interest;
 - (13) lease, purchase, accept appropriate gifts or donations of or otherwise own, hold, improve or use any property real, personal or mixed. In performing these actions, the commission shall avoid the appearance of impropriety at all times;
 - (14) sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, abandon or otherwise dispose of any property real, personal or mixed;
 - (15) establish a budget and make expenditures;

- (16) borrow money;
 - (17) appoint committees, including standing committees composed of members, state regulators, state legislators or their representatives, consumer representatives and such other interested persons as may be designated in this compact and the bylaws;
 - (18) provide and receive information from, and cooperate with, law enforcement agencies;
 - (19) elect a chairperson, vice chairperson, secretary and treasurer and such other officers of the commission as provided in the commission's bylaws;
 - (20) reserve for itself, in addition to those reserved exclusively to the commission under the compact, powers that the executive committee shall not exercise;
 - (21) approve or disapprove a state's participation in the compact based upon its determination as to whether the state's compact legislation materially departs from the model compact language;
 - (22) prepare and provide to the participating states an annual report; and
 - (23) perform such other functions as may be necessary or appropriate to achieve the purposes of this compact, consistent with the state regulation of PA licensure and practice.
- (d) Meetings of the commission.
- (1) All meetings of the commission that are not closed pursuant to this subsection shall be open to the public. Notice of public meetings shall be posted on the commission's website at least 30 days prior to the public meeting.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (d)(1), the commission may convene a public meeting by providing at least 24 hours' prior notice on the commission's website and any other means as provided in the commission's rules for any of the reasons it may dispense, with notice of proposed rulemaking under section 9(1).
- (3) The commission may convene in a closed, nonpublic meeting or nonpublic part of a public meeting to receive legal advice or to discuss:
- (A) Noncompliance of a participating state with its obligations under this compact;
 - (B) the employment, compensation, discipline or other matters, practices or procedures related to specific employees or other matters related to the commission's internal personnel practices and procedures;
 - (C) any current, threatened or reasonably anticipated litigation;
 - (D) the negotiation of contracts for the purchase, lease or sale of goods, services or real estate;
 - (E) the accusation of any individual of a crime or the formal censure any individual;
 - (F) the disclosure of trade secrets or commercial or financial information that is privileged or confidential;
 - (G) the disclosure of information of a personal nature, if disclosure would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
 - (H) the disclosure of investigative records compiled for law enforcement purposes;
 - (I) the disclosure of information related to any investigative reports prepared by or on behalf of or for use of the commission or other committee charged with the responsibility of investigation or determination of compliance issues pursuant to this compact;
 - (J) legal advice; or
 - (K) any matters specifically exempted from disclosure by federal or a participating state's statutes.

(4) If a meeting, or portion of a meeting, is closed pursuant to subsection (d)(3), the chairperson of the meeting or the chairperson's designee shall certify that the meeting or portion of the meeting may be closed and shall reference each relevant exempting provision.

(5) The commission shall keep minutes that fully and clearly describe all matters discussed in a meeting and shall provide a full and accurate summary of actions taken, including a description of the views expressed. All documents considered in connection with an action shall be identified in such minutes. All minutes and documents of a closed meeting shall remain under seal, subject to release by a majority vote of the commission or order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(e) Financing of the commission.

(1) The commission shall pay, or provide for the payment of, the reasonable expenses of its establishment, organization and ongoing activities.

(2) The commission may accept any and all appropriate revenue sources, donations and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials and services.

(3) The commission may levy on and collect an annual assessment from each participating state and may impose compact privilege fees on licensees of participating states to which a compact privilege is granted to cover the cost of the operations and activities of the commission and its staff. Such assessment shall be in a total amount sufficient to cover the commission's annual budget as approved by the commission each year for which revenue is not provided by other sources. The aggregate annual assessment amount levied on participating states shall be allocated based upon a formula to be determined by commission rule. Compact privileges and such compact privilege's associated fees shall be governed as follows:

(A) A compact privilege expires when the licensee's qualifying license in the participating state from which the licensee applied for the compact privilege expires; and

(B) if the licensee terminates the qualifying license through which the licensee applied for the compact privilege before its scheduled expiration and the licensee has a qualifying license in another participating state, the licensee shall inform the commission that it is changing to that participating state through which it applies for a compact privilege to that participating state and pay to the commission any compact privilege fee required by commission rule.

(4) The commission shall not incur obligations of any kind prior to securing the funds adequate to meet such obligations, nor shall the commission pledge the credit of any of the participating states, except by and with the authority of the participating state.

(5) The commission shall keep accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements. The receipts and disbursements of the commission shall be subject to the financial review and accounting procedures established under its bylaws. All receipts and disbursements of funds handled by the commission shall be subject to an annual financial review by a certified or licensed public accountant, and the report of the financial review shall be included in and become part of the annual report of the commission.

(1) The executive committee shall have to power to act on behalf of the commission according to the terms of this compact and commission rules.

(2) The executive committee shall be composed of nine members described as follows:

(A) Seven voting members who are elected by the commission from the current membership of the commission;

(B)(i)(a) one ex officio, nonvoting member from a recognized national PA professional association; and

(3) The commission may remove any member of the executive committee as provided in its bylaws.

(4) The executive committee shall meet at least annually.

(5) The executive committee shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

(A) Recommend to the commission changes to the commission's rules or bylaws, changes to this compact legislation, fees to be paid by compact-participating states such as annual dues and any commission compact fee charged to licensees for the compact privilege;

(B) ensure that compact administration services are appropriately provided, whether contractual or otherwise;

(C) prepare and recommend the budget;

(D) maintain financial records on behalf of the commission;

(E) monitor compact compliance of participating states and provide compliance reports to the commission;

(F) establish additional committees as necessary;

(G) exercise the powers and duties of the commission during the interim between commission meetings, except for issuing proposed rulemaking or adopting commission rules or bylaws or exercising any other powers and duties exclusively reserved to the commission by the commission's rules; and

(H) perform other duties as provided in the commission's rules or bylaws.

(6) All meetings of the executive committee at which it votes or plans to vote on matters in exercising the powers and duties of the commission shall be open to the public and public notice of such meetings shall be given as public meetings of the commission are given.

(7) The executive committee may convene in a closed, nonpublic meeting for the same reasons that the commission may convene in a nonpublic meeting as set forth in subsection (d)(3), and shall announce the closed meeting as the commission is required to do under subsection (d)(4) and keep minutes of the closed meeting as the commission is required to do under subsection (d)(5).

(g) Qualified immunity, defense and indemnification.

(1) The members, officers, executive director, employees and representatives of the commission shall be immune from suit and liability, both personally and in their official capacity, for any claim for damage to or loss of property or personal injury or other civil liability caused by or arising out of any actual or alleged act, error or omission that occurred or that the individual against whom the claim is made had a reasonable basis for believing occurred within the scope of commission employment, duties or responsibilities. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to protect any such individual from suit or liability for any damage, loss, injury or liability caused by the intentional or willful or wanton misconduct of such individual. The procurement of insurance of any type by the commission shall not in any way compromise or limit the immunity granted hereunder.

(2) The commission shall defend any member, officer, executive director, employee, and representative of the commission in any civil action seeking to impose liability arising out of any actual or alleged act, error or omission that occurred within the scope of commission employment, duties or responsibilities or as determined by the commission that the individual against whom the claim is made had a reasonable basis for believing occurred within the scope of commission employment, duties or responsibilities. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit such individual from retaining such individual's own counsel at the individual's own expense or that the actual or alleged act, error or omission did not result from the individual's intentional, willful or wanton misconduct.

(3) The commission shall indemnify and hold harmless any member, officer, executive director, employee or representative of the commission for the amount of any settlement or judgment obtained against that individual arising out of any actual or alleged act, error or omission that occurred within the scope of commission employment, duties or responsibilities or that such individual had a reasonable basis for believing occurred within the scope of commission employment, duties or responsibilities, if the actual or alleged act, error or omission did not result from the intentional or willful or wanton misconduct of that individual.

(4) Venue is proper and judicial proceedings by or against the commission shall be brought solely and exclusively in a court of competent jurisdiction where the principal office of the commission is located. The commission may waive venue and jurisdictional defenses in any proceedings as authorized by commission rules.

(5) Nothing in this compact shall be construed as a limitation on the liability of any licensee for professional malpractice or misconduct, which shall be governed solely by any other applicable state laws.

(6) Nothing in this compact shall be construed to designate the venue or jurisdiction to bring actions for alleged acts of malpractice, professional misconduct, negligence or other such civil action pertaining to the practice of a PA. All such matters shall be determined exclusively by state law other than this compact.

(7) Nothing in this compact shall be interpreted to waive or otherwise abrogate a participating state's state action immunity or state action affirmative defense with respect to antitrust claims under the Sherman act, Clayton act or any other state or federal antitrust or anticompetitive law or regulation.

(8) Nothing in this compact shall be construed to be a waiver of sovereign immunity by the participating states or by the commission.

SECTION 8—DATA SYSTEM

(a) The commission shall provide for the development, maintenance, operation and utilization of a coordinated data and reporting system containing licensure, adverse action and the reporting of the existence of significant investigative information on all licensed PAs and applicants that are denied a license in participating states.

(b) Notwithstanding any other state law to the contrary, a participating state shall submit a uniform data set to the data system on all PAs to whom this compact is applicable, utilizing a unique identifier, as required by the rules of the commission, including:

- (1) Identifying information;
 - (2) licensure data;
 - (3) adverse actions against a license or compact privilege;
 - (4) any denial of application for licensure and the reason for such denial, excluding the reporting of any criminal history record information where such reporting is prohibited by law;
 - (5) the existence of significant investigative information; and
 - (6) other information that may facilitate the administration of this compact, as determined by the rules of the commission.
- (c) Significant investigative information pertaining to a licensee in any participating state shall only be available to other participating states.
- (d) The commission shall promptly notify all participating states of any adverse action taken against a licensee or an individual applying for a license that has been reported to such commission. Such adverse action information shall be available to any other participating state.
- (e) Participating states contributing information to the data system may, in accordance with state or federal law, designate information that shall not be shared with the public without the express permission of the contributing state. Notwithstanding any such designation, such information shall be reported to the commission through the data system.
- (f) Any information submitted to the data system that is subsequently expunged pursuant to federal law or the laws of the participating state contributing the information shall be removed from the data system upon reporting of such by the participating state to the commission.
- (g) The records and information provided to a participating state pursuant to this compact or through the data system, when certified by the commission or an agent thereof, shall constitute the authenticated business records of the commission and shall be entitled to any associated hearsay exception in any relevant judicial, quasi-judicial or administrative proceedings in a participating state.

SECTION 9—RULEMAKING

(a) The commission shall exercise its rulemaking powers pursuant to the criteria set forth in this section and the rules adopted thereunder. Commission rules shall become binding as of the date specified by the commission for each rule.

(b) The commission shall adopt reasonable rules in order to effectively and efficiently implement and administer this compact and achieve its purposes. A commission rule shall be invalid and have no force or effect only if a court of competent jurisdiction holds that the rule is invalid because the commission exercised its rulemaking authority in a manner that is beyond the scope of the purposes of this compact, the powers granted hereunder or based upon another applicable standard of review.

(c) The rules of the commission shall have the force of law in each participating state, except that where the rules of the commission conflict with the laws of the participating state that establish the medical services, a PA may perform in the participating state, as held by a court of competent jurisdiction, and the rules of the commission shall be ineffective in that state to the extent of the conflict.

(d) If a majority of the legislatures of the participating states rejects a commission rule, by enactment of a statute or resolution in the same manner used to adopt this compact within four years of the date of adoption of the rule, then such rule shall have no further force and effect in any participating state or to any state applying to participate in the compact.

(e) Commission rules shall be adopted at a regular or special meeting of the commission.

(f) Prior to adoption of a final rule by the commission and at least 30 days in advance of the meeting at which the rule will be considered and voted upon, the commission shall file a notice of proposed rulemaking:

(1) On the commission's website or other publicly accessible platform;

(2) to persons who have requested notice of the commission's notices of proposed rulemaking; and

(3) in such other ways as the commission may specify by rule.

(g) The notice of proposed rulemaking shall include:

(1) The time, date and location of the public hearing on the proposed rule and the proposed time, date and location of the meeting in which the proposed rule will be considered and voted upon;

(2) the text of and the reason for the proposed rule;

(3) a request for comments on the proposed rule from any interested person and the date by which written comments must be received; and

(4) the manner in which interested persons may submit notice to the commission of their intention to attend the public hearing or provide any written comments.

(h) Prior to adoption of a proposed rule, the commission shall allow persons to submit written data, facts, opinions and arguments, which shall be made available to the public.

(i) If the hearing is to be held via electronic means, the commission shall publish the mechanism for access to the electronic hearing.

(1) All persons wishing to be heard at the hearing shall, as directed in the notice of proposed rulemaking published not less than five business days before the scheduled date of the hearing, notify the commission of their desire to appear and testify at the hearing.

(2) Hearings shall be conducted in a manner that provides each person who wishes to comment a fair and reasonable opportunity to comment orally or in writing.

(3) All hearings shall be recorded. A copy of the recording and the written comments, data, facts, opinions and arguments received in response to the proposed rulemaking shall be made available to a person upon request.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring a separate hearing on each proposed rule. Proposed rules may be grouped for the convenience of the commission at hearings required by this section.

(j) Following the public hearing, the commission shall consider all written and oral comments timely received.

(k) The commission shall, by majority vote of all delegates, take final action on the proposed rule and shall determine the effective date of the rule, if adopted, based on the rulemaking record and the full text of the rule.

(1) If adopted, the rule shall be posted on the commission's website.

(2) The commission may adopt changes to the proposed rule if the changes do not expand the original purpose of the proposed rule.

(3) The commission shall provide an explanation on its website of the reasons for any substantive changes made to the proposed rule as well as reasons for any substantive changes not made that were recommended by commenters.

(4) The commission shall determine a reasonable effective date for the rule. Except for an emergency as provided in subsection (l), the effective date of the rule shall be not sooner than 30 days after the commission issued the notice that it adopted the rule.

(l) Upon the determination that an emergency exists, the commission may consider and adopt an emergency rule with 24 hours' prior notice, without the opportunity for comment or hearing, except that the usual rulemaking procedures provided in this compact and in this section shall be retroactively applied to the rule as soon as reasonably possible but in no event later than 90 days after the effective date of the rule. For the purposes of this provision, an emergency rule is one that shall be adopted immediately by the commission in order to:

- (1) Address an imminent threat to public health, safety or welfare;
- (2) prevent a loss of commission or participating state funds;
- (3) meet a deadline for the adoption of a commission rule that is established by federal law or rule; or
- (4) protect public health and safety.

(m) The commission, or an authorized committee of the commission, may direct revisions to a previously adopted commission rule for purposes of correcting typographical errors, errors in format, errors in consistency or grammatical errors. Public notice of any revisions shall be posted on the commission's website. The revision shall be subject to challenge by any person for a period of 30 days after posting. The revision may be challenged only on grounds that the revision results in a material change to a rule. A challenge shall be made as set forth in the notice of revisions and delivered to the commission prior to the end of the notice period. If no challenge is made, the revision shall take effect without further action. If the revision is challenged, the revision shall not take effect without the approval of the commission.

(n) No participating state's rulemaking requirements shall apply under this compact.

SECTION 10—OVERSIGHT, DISPUTE RESOLUTION AND ENFORCEMENT

(1) The executive and judicial branches of state government in each participating state shall enforce this compact and take all actions necessary and appropriate to implement the compact.

(2) Venue is proper and judicial proceedings by or against the commission shall be brought solely and exclusively in a court of competent jurisdiction where the principal office of the commission is located. The commission may waive venue and jurisdictional defenses to the extent that it adopts or consents to participate in alternative dispute resolution proceedings. Nothing herein shall affect or limit the selection or propriety of venue in any action against a licensee for professional malpractice, misconduct or any such similar matter.

(3) The commission shall be entitled to receive service of process in any proceeding regarding the enforcement or interpretation of the compact or the commission's rules and shall have standing to intervene in such a proceeding for all purposes. Failure to provide the commission with service of process shall render a judgment or order in such proceeding void as to the commission, this compact or commission rules.

(b) Default, technical assistance and termination.

(1) If the commission determines that a participating state has defaulted in the performance of its obligations or responsibilities under this compact or the commission rules, the commission shall provide written notice to the defaulting state and other participating states. The notice shall describe the default, the proposed means of curing the default and any other action that the commission may take and shall offer remedial training and specific technical assistance regarding the default.

(2) If a state in default fails to cure the default, the defaulting state may be terminated from this compact upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the delegates of the participating states, and all rights, privileges and benefits conferred by this compact upon such state may be terminated on the effective date of termination. A cure of the default shall not relieve the offending state of obligations or liabilities incurred during the period of default.

(3) Termination of participation in this compact shall be imposed only after all other means of securing compliance have been exhausted. Notice of intent to suspend or terminate shall be given by the commission to the governor, the majority and minority leaders of the defaulting state's legislature and to the licensing board of each of the participating states.

(4) A state that has been terminated is responsible for all assessments, obligations and liabilities incurred through the effective date of termination, including obligations that extend beyond the effective date of termination.

(5) The commission shall not bear any costs related to a state that is found to be in default or that has been terminated from this compact, unless agreed upon in writing between the commission and the defaulting state.

(6) The defaulting state may appeal its termination from the compact by the commission by petitioning the United States district court for the District of Columbia or the federal district where the commission has its principal offices. The prevailing member shall be awarded all costs of such litigation, including reasonable attorney fees.

(7) Upon the termination of a state's participation in the compact, the state shall immediately provide notice to all licensees within that state of such termination:

(A) Licensees who have been granted a compact privilege in that state shall retain the compact privilege for 180 days following the effective date of such termination; and

(B) licensees who are licensed in that state who have been granted a compact privilege in a participating state shall retain the compact privilege for 180 days unless the licensee also has a qualifying license in a participating state or obtains a qualifying license in a participating state before the 180-day period ends, in which case, the compact privilege shall continue.

(c) Dispute resolution.

(1) Upon request by a participating state, the commission shall attempt to resolve disputes related to this compact that arise among participating states and between participating and nonparticipating states.

(2) The commission shall adopt a rule providing for both mediation and binding dispute resolution for disputes as appropriate.

(1) The commission, in the reasonable exercise of its discretion, shall enforce the provisions of this compact and rules of the commission.

(2) If compliance is not secured after all means to secure compliance have been exhausted, by majority vote, the commission may initiate legal action in the United States district court for the District of Columbia or the federal district where the commission has its principal offices against a participating state in default to enforce compliance with the provisions of this compact and the commission's adopted rules and bylaws. The relief sought may include both injunctive relief and damages. In the event that judicial enforcement is necessary, the prevailing party shall be awarded all costs of such litigation, including reasonable attorney fees.

(3) The remedies herein shall not be the exclusive remedies of the commission. The commission may pursue any other remedies available under federal or state law.

(c) Legal action against the commission.

(1) A participating state may initiate legal action against the commission in the United States district court for the District of Columbia or the federal district where the commission has its principal offices to enforce compliance with the provisions of the compact and its rules. The relief sought may include both injunctive relief and damages. In the event that judicial enforcement is necessary, the prevailing party shall be awarded all costs of such litigation, including reasonable attorney fees.

(2) No person other than a participating state shall enforce this compact against the commission.

SECTION 11—DATE OF IMPLEMENTATION OF THE PA LICENSURE COMPACT COMMISSION

(a) This compact shall come into effect on the date that this compact statute is enacted into law in the seventh participating state.

(1) On or after the effective date of the compact, the commission shall convene and review the enactment of each of the states that enacted the compact prior to the commission convening, called charter-participating states, to determine if the statute enacted by each such charter-participating state is materially different than the model compact.

(A) A charter-participating state whose enactment is found to be materially different from the model compact shall be entitled to the default process set forth in section 10(b).

(B) If any participating state later withdraws from the compact or its participation is terminated, the commission shall remain in existence and the compact shall remain in effect even if the number of participating states should be fewer than seven. Participating states enacting the compact subsequent to the commission convening shall be subject to the process set forth in section 7(c)(21) to determine if their enactments are materially different from the model compact and whether they qualify for participation in the compact.

(2) Participating states enacting the compact subsequent to the seven initial charter-participating states shall be subject to the process set forth in section 7(c)(21) to determine if their enactments are materially different from the model compact and whether they qualify for participation in the compact.

(3) All actions taken for the benefit of the commission or in furtherance of the purposes of the administration of the compact prior to the effective date of the compact or the commission coming into existence shall be considered to be actions of the commission unless specifically repudiated by the commission.

(b) Any state that joins this compact shall be subject to the commission's rules and bylaws as they exist on the date that this compact becomes law in that state. Any rule that has been previously adopted by the commission shall have the full force and effect of law on the day that this compact becomes law in that state.

(c) Any participating state may withdraw from this compact by enacting a statute repealing the same.

(1) A participating state's withdrawal shall not take effect until 180 days after enactment of the repealing statute. During the 180-day period, all compact privileges that were in effect in the withdrawing state and were granted to licensees licensed in the withdrawing state shall remain in effect. If any licensee licensed in the withdrawing state is also licensed in another participating state or obtains a license in another participating state within the 180 days, the licensee's compact privileges in other participating states shall not be affected by the passage of the 180 days.

(2) Withdrawal shall not affect the continuing requirement of the state licensing board of the withdrawing state to comply with the investigative and adverse action reporting requirements of this compact prior to the effective date of withdrawal.

(3) Upon the enactment of a statute withdrawing a state from this compact, the state shall immediately provide notice of such withdrawal to all licensees within that state. Such withdrawing state shall continue to recognize all licenses granted pursuant to this compact for a minimum of 180 days after the date of such notice of withdrawal.

(d) Nothing contained in this compact shall be construed to invalidate or prevent any PA licensure agreement or other cooperative arrangement between participating states and between a participating state and nonparticipating state that does not conflict with the provisions of this compact.

(e) This compact may be amended by the participating states. No amendment to this compact shall become effective and binding upon any participating state until it is enacted materially in the same manner into the laws of all participating states as determined by the commission.

SECTION 12—CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

(a) This compact and the commission's rulemaking authority shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes and the implementation and administration of the compact. Provisions of the compact expressly authorizing or requiring the adoption of rules shall not be construed to limit the commission's rulemaking authority solely for those purposes.

(b) The petition may be accompanied by a report of an examination and evaluation of the proposed ward or ward conducted by an appropriately qualified professional that shows that the criteria set out in K.S.A. 39-1803, 59-2946(e), 59-29b46(i) or 76-12b03, and amendments thereto, are met.

(c) Upon the filing of such a petition, the court shall issue the following:

Such hearing, in the court's discretion, may be conducted in a courtroom, a treatment facility or at some other suitable place. The time fixed in the order shall in no event be earlier than seven days or later than 21 days after the date of the filing of the petition. The court may consolidate this hearing with the trial upon the original petition filed pursuant to K.S.A. 59-3058, 59-3059, 59-3060 or 59-3061, and amendments thereto, or with the trial provided for in the care and treatment act for mentally ill persons or the care and treatment act for persons with an alcohol or substance abuse problem, if the petition also incorporates the allegations required by, and is filed in compliance with, the provisions of either of those acts.

(2) An order requiring that the proposed ward or ward appear at the time and place of the hearing on the petition unless the court makes a finding prior to the hearing that the presence of the proposed ward or ward will be injurious to the person's health or welfare, that the proposed ward's or ward's impairment is such that the person could not meaningfully participate in the proceedings or that the proposed ward or ward has filed with the court a written waiver of such ward's right to appear in person. In any such case, the court shall enter in the record of the proceedings the facts upon which the court has found that the presence of the proposed ward or ward at the hearing should be excused. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this subsection, if the proposed ward or ward files with the court at least one day prior to the date of the hearing a written notice stating the person's desire to be present at the hearing, the court shall order that the person must be present at the hearing.

(3) An order appointing an attorney to represent the proposed ward or ward. The court shall give preference, in the appointment of this attorney, to any attorney who has represented the proposed ward or ward in other matters, if the court has knowledge of that prior representation. The proposed ward, or the ward with the consent of the ward's conservator, if one has been appointed, shall have the right to engage an attorney of the proposed ward's or ward's choice and, in such case, the attorney appointed by the court shall be relieved of all duties by the court. Any appointment made by the court shall terminate upon a final determination of the petition and any appeal therefrom, unless the court continues the appointment by further order.

(4) An order fixing the date, time and a place that is in the best interest of the proposed ward or ward at which the proposed ward or ward shall have the opportunity to consult with such ward's attorney. This consultation shall be scheduled to occur prior to the time at which the examination and evaluation ordered pursuant to subsection (d) (1), if ordered, is scheduled to occur.

(5) A notice similar to that provided for in K.S.A. 59-3066, and amendments thereto.

(d) Upon the filing of such a petition, the court may issue the following:

The court may order the proposed ward or ward to submit to such an examination and evaluation to be conducted through a general hospital, psychiatric hospital, community mental health center or community developmental disability organization or by a private physician, psychiatrist, psychologist or other person appointed by the court who is qualified to examine and evaluate the proposed ward or ward. The costs of this examination and evaluation shall be assessed as provided for in K.S.A. 59-3094, and amendments thereto.

(2) If the petition is accompanied by a report of an examination and evaluation of the proposed ward or ward as provided for in subsection (b), an order granting temporary authority to the temporary guardian or guardian to admit the proposed ward or ward to a treatment facility and to consent to the care and treatment of the proposed ward or ward therein. Any such order shall expire immediately after the hearing upon the petition, or as the court may otherwise specify, or upon the discharge of the proposed ward or ward by the head of the treatment facility, if the proposed ward or ward is discharged prior to the time at which the order would otherwise expire.

(3) For good cause shown, an order of continuance of the hearing.

(4) For good cause shown, an order of advancement of the hearing.

(5) For good cause shown, an order changing the place of the hearing.

(e) The hearing on the petition shall be held at the time and place specified in the court's order issued pursuant to subsection (c), unless an order of advancement, continuance or a change of place of the hearing has been issued pursuant to subsection (d). The petitioner and the proposed ward or ward shall each be afforded an opportunity to appear at the hearing, to testify and to present and cross-examine witnesses. If the hearing has been consolidated with a trial being held pursuant to either the care and treatment act for mentally ill persons or the care and treatment act for persons with an alcohol or substance abuse problem, persons not necessary for the conduct of the proceedings may be excluded as provided for in those acts. The hearing shall be conducted in as informal a manner as may be consistent with orderly procedure. The court shall have the authority to receive all relevant and material evidence which may be offered, including the testimony or written report, findings or recommendations of any professional or other person who has examined or evaluated the proposed ward or ward pursuant to any order issued by the court pursuant to subsection (d). Such evidence shall not be privileged for the purpose of this hearing.

(f) Upon completion of the hearing, if the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the criteria set out in K.S.A. 39-1803, 59-2946(e), 59-29b46(i) or 76-12b03, and amendments thereto, are met, and after a careful consideration of reasonable alternatives to admission of the proposed ward or ward to a treatment facility, the court may enter an order granting such authority to the temporary guardian or guardian as is appropriate, including continuing authority to the guardian to readmit the ward to an appropriate treatment facility as may later become necessary. Any such grant of continuing authority shall expire two years after the date of final discharge of the ward from such a treatment facility if the ward has not had to be readmitted to a treatment facility during that two-year period of time. Thereafter, any such grant of continuing authority may be renewed only after the filing of another petition seeking authority in compliance with the provision of this section.

(g) Nothing herein shall be construed so as to prohibit the head of a treatment facility from admitting a proposed ward or ward to that facility as a voluntary patient if the head of the treatment facility is satisfied that the proposed ward or ward at that time has the capacity to understand such ward's illness and need for treatment, and to consent to such ward's admission and treatment. Upon any such admission, the head of the treatment facility shall give notice to the temporary guardian or guardian as soon as possible of the ward's admission, and shall provide to the temporary guardian or guardian copies of any consents the proposed ward or ward has given. Thereafter, the temporary guardian or guardian shall timely either seek to obtain proper authority pursuant to this section to admit the proposed ward or ward to a treatment facility and to consent to further care and treatment, or shall otherwise assume responsibility for the care of the proposed ward or ward, consistent with the authority of the temporary guardian or guardian, and may arrange for the discharge from the facility of the proposed ward or ward, unless the head of the treatment facility shall file a petition requesting the involuntary commitment of the proposed ward or ward to that or some other facility.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

The number one issue I hear from constituents about is property tax relief. This is a piece of the puzzle toward transparency, which equates to property tax relief, if it should be passed by the voters. We're not changing the constitution today. We are saying we would like for Kansas citizens to have an opportunity on whether they want to amend the Kansas Constitution to limit valuation increases on Kansas property. Therefore Mr. Vice President, I proudly cast an "aye" vote in favor of allowing citizens to vote. When you allow citizens to vote you almost never make the wrong choice.—

VIRGIL PECK

Senators Erickson, Klemp, Kloos, Petersen, Starnes and Senator Thompson request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Peck on S Sub HCR 5011.

Journal of the Senate

FIFTIETH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, March 27, 2025, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Ty Masterson.

The roll was called with 40 senators present.

President Masterson introduced guest chaplain, Rickey Bolden, who delivered the following invocation:

Dear Jesus, this morning, I lift each of these leaders to You, those entrusted with the responsibility of guiding their communities and this nation. May they lead with compassion, integrity, and justice, always prioritizing the needs of the people they serve. Inspire them to be peacemakers, fostering unity and understanding.

In a world often divided by differences, I pray that these leaders engage in conversations with respect and kindness. Teach them to listen to one another with open hearts and minds, valuing one another's perspective as unique reflections of Your creation. May these men and women seek common ground and solutions that honor the dignity of one another, even amidst disagreement. Help them to remember that their words have power, therefore, guide them to use their words to build bridges rather than walls.

Jesus, I pray that these leaders find rest and renewal in You. That they draw strength from Your presence as they navigate the challenges of leadership.

I pray for their families, these quiet heroes who share in the burdens and sacrifices of these public servants. Grant their spouses and children patience, understanding, and resilience. May their families be sources of encouragement and support, providing a foundation of love and stability.

Finally, we ask that You instill in these leaders a heart for service, that they support each other as leaders through prayer, encouragement, and active participation in their communities. Teach them to serve selflessly, to love unconditionally, and act justly, in all they do. May they reflect Your light, and love to their communities. In Jesus' name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Masterson.

(h) If the applicant for a facility owner license or facility manager license is a horsemen's association, such applicant shall not operate historical horse race machines at such racetrack facility.

(i) All facility owner licenses and facility manager licenses shall be reviewed annually by the commission to determine if the licensee is complying with the provisions of this act and rules and regulations of the commission and following such proposed plans and operating procedures as were approved by the commission. The commission may review a facility owner license or facility manager license more often than annually upon its own initiative or upon the request of any interested party. The commission shall require each facility owner licensee and each facility manager licensee to file annually with the commission a certified financial audit of the licensee by an independent certified public accountant, which audit shall be open to inspection by the public, and may require any such licensee to provide any other information necessary for the commission to conduct the annual or periodic review.

~~(j)~~(j) Subject to the provisions of subsection ~~(j)~~(k), the commission, in accordance with the Kansas administrative procedure act, may suspend or revoke a facility owner or facility manager license or may impose a civil fine not exceeding $10,000 per failure or violation, or may both suspend such license and impose such fine, if the commission finds probable cause to believe that:

(2) in the case of either a facility owner licensee or facility manager licensee, the licensee has violated any of the terms and conditions of licensure provided by this section or any other provision of this act or any rule and regulation of the commission.

~~(j)~~(k) Prior to suspension or revocation of a license pursuant to subsection ~~(j)~~(j), the commission shall give written notice of the reason therefor to the licensee and all other interested parties. The licensee shall have 30 days from receipt of the notice to cure the alleged failure or violation, if it can be cured. If the commission finds that the failure or violation has not been cured upon expiration of the 30 days or upon a later deadline granted by the commission, or if the alleged violation is of such a nature that it cannot be cured, the commission may proceed to suspend or revoke the licensee's license pursuant to subsection ~~(j)~~(j). Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to preclude the commission from imposing a fine pursuant to subsection ~~(j)~~(j) even if the violation is cured within 30 days or such other period as provided by the commission.

~~(k)~~(l) If an applicant for a facility owner license proposes to construct a racetrack facility and the commission determines that such license should be issued to the applicant, the commission shall issue to the applicant a facility owner license conditioned on the submission by the licensee to the commission, within a period of time prescribed by the commission, of a commitment for financing the construction of the racetrack facility by a financial institution or other source, subject to approval by the commission. If such commitment is not submitted within the period of time originally prescribed by the commission or such additional time as authorized by the commission, the license shall expire at the end of such period.

~~(h)~~(m) If a facility owner licensee's license authorizes the construction of a dual racetrack facility, such license shall be conditioned on the completion of such facility within a time specified by the commission. If, within the time specified by the commission, the licensee has not constructed a dual racetrack facility in accordance with the plans submitted to the commission pursuant to subsection (e), the commission, in accordance with the Kansas administrative procedure act, shall:

(1) Impose upon the licensee a civil fine equal to 5% of the total parimutuel pools for all races held at the licensee's facility on and after the date that racing with parimutuel wagering is first conducted at such facility and until the date that construction of the dual racetrack facility is completed and horse racing has begun; and

(2) revoke the licensee's license unless the licensee demonstrates reasonable cause for the failure to complete the facility.

~~(m)~~(n) The refusal to renew a facility owner license or a facility manager license shall be in accordance with the Kansas administrative procedure act and shall be subject to review under the Kansas judicial review act.

~~(n)~~(o) The grant or denial of an original facility owner license or facility manager license shall not be subject to the Kansas administrative procedure act. Such grant or denial shall be a matter to be determined in the sole discretion of the commission, whose decision shall be final upon the grant of a license to one of two or more competing applicants without the necessity of a hearing on the denial of a license to each other competing applicant. Any action for judicial review of such decision shall be by appeal to the supreme court in accordance with the Kansas judicial review act, except that the scope of review shall be limited to whether the action of the commission was arbitrary or capricious or constituted an abuse of discretion. All competing applicants for the facility owner license or facility manager license shall be parties to such appeal. Any such appeal shall have priority over other cases except those having statutory priority.

~~(o)~~(p) The commission may adopt rules and regulations regulating crossover employment between facility manager licensees and facility owner licensees and organization licensees.

(c) If the commissioner makes written findings of fact that there is a situation involving an immediate danger to the public health, safety or welfare or the public interest will be irreparably harmed by delay in issuing an order under subsection (a)(3), the commissioner may issue an emergency temporary cease and desist order. Such order, even when not an order within the meaning of K.S.A. 77-502, and amendments thereto, shall be subject to the same procedures as an emergency order issued under K.S.A. 77-536, and amendments thereto. Upon the entry of such an order, the commissioner shall promptly notify the person subject to the order that: (1) ~~It~~ Such order has been entered; (2) the reasons therefor; and (3) that upon written request within 15 days after service of the order, the matter will be set for a hearing, which shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Kansas administrative procedure act. (1) Misrepresentations and false advertising of insurance policies. Making, issuing, circulating or causing to be made, issued or circulated, any estimate, illustration, circular, statement, sales presentation, omission or comparison that:

(a) Misrepresents the benefits, advantages, conditions or terms of any insurance policy;

(b) misrepresents the dividends or share of the surplus to be received on any insurance policy;

(c) makes any false or misleading statements as to the dividends or share of surplus previously paid on any insurance policy;

(d) is misleading or is a misrepresentation as to the financial condition of any person, or as to the legal reserve system upon which any life insurer operates;

(e) uses any name or title of any insurance policy or class of insurance policies misrepresenting the true nature thereof;

(f) is a misrepresentation for the purpose of inducing or tending to induce the lapse, forfeiture, exchange, conversion or surrender of any insurance policy;

(g) is a misrepresentation for the purpose of effecting a pledge or assignment of or effecting a loan against any insurance policy; or

(h) misrepresents any insurance policy as being shares of stock.

(2) False information and advertising generally. Making, publishing, disseminating, circulating or placing before the public, or causing, directly or indirectly, to be made, published, disseminated, circulated or placed before the public, in a newspaper, magazine or other publication, or in the form of a notice, circular, pamphlet, letter or poster, or over any radio or television station, or in any other way, an advertisement, announcement or statement containing any assertion, misrepresentation or statement with respect to the business of insurance or with respect to any person in the conduct of such person's insurance business, that is untrue, deceptive or misleading.

(3) Defamation. Making, publishing, disseminating or circulating, directly or indirectly, or aiding, abetting or encouraging the making, publishing, disseminating or circulating of any oral or written statement or any pamphlet, circular, article or literature that is false, or maliciously critical of or derogatory to the financial condition of any person, and that is calculated to injure such person.

(4) Boycott, coercion and intimidation. Entering into any agreement to commit, or by any concerted action committing, any act of boycott, coercion or intimidation resulting in or tending to result in unreasonable restraint of the business of insurance, or by any act of boycott, coercion or intimidation monopolizing or attempting to monopolize any part of the business of insurance.

(5) False statements and entries. (a) Knowingly filing with any supervisory or other public official, or knowingly making, publishing, disseminating, circulating or delivering to any person, or placing before the public, or knowingly causing directly or indirectly, to be made, published, disseminated, circulated, delivered to any person, or placed before the public, any false material statement of fact as to the financial condition of a person.

(b) Knowingly making any false entry of a material fact in any book, report or statement of any person or knowingly omitting to make a true entry of any material fact pertaining to the business of such person in any book, report or statement of such person.

(6) Stock operations and advisory board contracts. Issuing or delivering or permitting agents, officers or employees to issue or deliver, agency company stock or other capital stock, or benefit certificates or shares in any common-law corporation, or securities or any special or advisory board contracts or other contracts of any kind promising returns and profits as an inducement to insurance. (7) Unfair discrimination. (a) Making or permitting any unfair discrimination between individuals of the same class and equal expectation of life in the rates charged for any contract of life insurance or life annuity or in the dividends or other benefits payable thereon, or in any other of the terms and conditions of such contract.

(c) Refusing to insure, ~~or~~ refusing to continue to insure, ~~or~~ limiting the amount, extent or kind of coverage available to an individual, or charging an individual a different rate for the same coverage solely because of blindness or partial blindness. With respect to all other conditions, including the underlying cause of the blindness or partial blindness, persons who are blind or partially blind shall be subject to the same standards of sound actuarial principles or actual or reasonably anticipated experience as are sighted persons. Refusal to insure includes denial by an insurer of disability insurance coverage on the grounds that the policy defines "disability" as being presumed in the event that the insured loses such person's eyesight. However, an insurer may exclude from coverage disabilities consisting solely of blindness or partial blindness when such condition existed at the time the policy was issued.

(d) Refusing to insure, ~~or~~ refusing to continue to insure, or limiting the amount, extent or kind of coverage available for accident and health and life insurance to an applicant who is the proposed insured ~~or charge,~~ charging a different rate for the same coverage ~~or,~~ excluding or limiting coverage for losses or denying a claim incurred by an insured as a result of abuse based on the fact that the applicant who, is the proposed insured, is, has been, or may be the subject of domestic abuse, except as provided in subsection (7)(d)(v). ~~"Abuse"~~ As used in this paragraph, "abuse" means one or more acts defined in K.S.A. 60-3102, and amendments thereto, between family members, current or former household members, or current or former intimate partners.

(i) An insurer ~~may shall~~ not ask an applicant for life or accident and health insurance who is the proposed insured if the individual is, has been or may be the subject of domestic abuse, or seeks, has sought or had reason to seek medical or psychological treatment or counseling specifically for abuse, protection from abuse or shelter from abuse.

(ii) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a person from declining to issue an insurance policy insuring the life of an individual who is, has been or has the potential to be the subject of abuse if the perpetrator of the abuse is the applicant or would be the owner of the insurance policy.

(iii) No insurer that issues a life or accident and health policy to an individual who is, has been or may be the subject of domestic abuse shall be subject to civil or criminal liability for the death or any injuries suffered by that individual as a result of domestic abuse.

(iv) No person shall refuse to insure, refuse to continue to insure, limit the amount, extent or kind of coverage available to an individual or charge a different rate for the same coverage solely because of physical or mental condition, except where the refusal, limitation or rate differential is based on sound actuarial principles.

(v) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a person from underwriting or rating a risk on the basis of a preexisting physical or mental condition, even if such condition has been caused by abuse, provided that:

(A) The person routinely underwrites or rates such condition in the same manner with respect to an insured or an applicant who is not a victim of abuse;

(B) the fact that an individual is, has been or may be the subject of abuse may not be considered a physical or mental condition; and

(C) such underwriting or rating is not used to evade the intent of this section or any other provision of the Kansas insurance code.

(vi) Any person who underwrites or rates a risk on the basis of preexisting physical or mental condition as set forth in subsection (7)(d)(v), shall treat such underwriting or rating as an adverse underwriting decision pursuant to K.S.A. 40-2,112, and amendments thereto.

(vii) The provisions of this paragraph shall apply to all policies of life and accident and health insurance issued in this state after the effective date of this act and all existing contracts that are renewed on or after the effective date of this act.

(e) Refusing to insure, or refusing to continue to insure, or limiting the amount, extent or kind of coverage available for life insurance to an individual, or charging an individual a different rate for the same coverage, solely because of such individual's status as a living organ donor. With respect to all other conditions, persons who are living organ donors shall be subject to the same standards of sound actuarial principles or actual or reasonably anticipated experience as are persons who are not organ donors.

(8) Rebates. (a) Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, knowingly permitting, offering to make or making any contract of life insurance, life annuity or accident and health insurance, or agreement as to such contract other than as plainly expressed in the insurance contract issued thereon; paying, allowing, giving or offering to pay, allow or give, directly or indirectly, as inducement to such insurance, or annuity, any rebate of premiums payable on the contract, any special favor or advantage in the dividends or other benefits thereon, or any valuable consideration or inducement whatever not specified in the contract; or giving, selling, purchasing or offering to give, sell or purchase as inducement to such insurance contract or annuity or in connection therewith, any stocks, bonds or other securities of any insurance company or other corporation, association or partnership, or any dividends or profits accrued thereon, or anything of value whatsoever not specified in the contract.

(b) Nothing in subsection (7)(a) or (8)(a) shall be construed as including within the definition of discrimination or rebates any of the following practices:

(i) In the case of any contract of life insurance or life annuity, paying bonuses to policyholders or otherwise abating their premiums in whole or in part out of surplus accumulated from nonparticipating insurance. Any such bonuses or abatement of premiums shall be fair and equitable to policyholders and for the best interests of the company and its policyholders;

(ii) in the case of life insurance policies issued on the industrial debit plan, making allowance to policyholders who have continuously for a specified period made premium payments directly to an office of the insurer in an amount that fairly represents the saving in collection expenses;

(iii) readjustment of the rate of premium for a group insurance policy based on the loss or expense experience thereunder, at the end of the first or any subsequent policy year of insurance thereunder, which may be made retroactive only for such policy year;

(iv) engaging in an arrangement that would not violate section 106 of the bank holding company act amendments of 1972, as interpreted by the board of governors of the federal reserve system or section 5(q) of the home owners' loan act;

(v) the offer or provision by insurers or producers, by or through employees, affiliates or third-party representatives, of value-added products or services at no or reduced cost when such products or services are not specified in the policy of insurance if the product or service:

(A) Relates to the insurance coverage; and

(B) is primarily designed to satisfy one or more of the following:

(1) Provide loss mitigation or loss control;

(2) reduce claim costs or claim settlement costs;

(3) provide education about liability risks or risk of loss to persons or property;

(4) monitor or assess risk, identify sources of risk or develop strategies for eliminating or reducing risk;

(5) enhance health;

(6) enhance financial wellness through items such as education or financial planning services;

(7) provide post-loss services;

(8) (a) incentivize behavioral changes to improve the health or reduce the risk of death or disability of a customer;

(b) as used in this section, "customer" means a policyholder, potential policyholder, certificate holder, potential certificate holder, insured, potential insured or applicant; or

(9) assist in the administration of the employee or retiree benefit insurance coverage.

(C) The cost to the insurer or producer offering the product or service to any given customer shall be reasonable in comparison to such customer's premiums or insurance coverage for the policy class.

(D) If the insurer or producer is providing the product or service offered, the insurer or producer shall ensure that the customer is provided with contact information, upon request, to assist the customer with questions regarding the product or service.

(E) The commissioner may adopt rules and regulations when implementing the permitted practices set forth in this section to ensure consumer protection. Such rules and regulations, consistent with applicable law, may address, among other issues, consumer data protections and privacy, consumer disclosure and unfair discrimination.
