

2023 Kansas Statutes

17-7698. Delegation of rights and powers to manage. Unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, a member or manager of a limited liability company has the power and authority to delegate to one or more other persons any or all of the member's or manager's, as the case may be, rights, powers and duties to manage and control the business and affairs of the limited liability company. Any such delegation may be to agents, officers and employees of a member or manager or the limited liability company, and by a management agreement or another agreement with, or otherwise to, other persons. Unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, such delegation by a member or manager shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable. Unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, such delegation by a member or manager of a limited liability company shall not cause the member or manager to cease to be a member or manager, as the case may be, of the limited liability company or cause the person to whom any such rights, powers and duties have been delegated to be a member or manager, as the case may be, of the limited liability company. No other provision of the Kansas revised limited liability company act shall be construed to restrict a member's or manager's power and authority to delegate any or all of its rights, powers, and duties to manage and control the business and affairs of the limited liability company.
