

2023 Kansas Statutes

58-5106. Reasonable reliance, liability. A trustee or other person that reasonably relies on the validity of a distribution of part or all of the property of a trust to another trust, or a modification of a trust, under the uniform trust decanting act, law of this state other than the act or the law of another jurisdiction is not liable to any person for any action or failure to act as a result of the reliance.

History: L. 2023, ch. 48, § 6; July 1.