

2023 Kansas Statutes

84-9-306. Law governing perfection and priority of security interests in letter-of-credit rights.

(a) Governing law: Issuer's or nominated person's jurisdiction. Subject to subsection (c), the local law of the issuer's jurisdiction or a nominated person's jurisdiction governs perfection, the effect of perfection or nonperfection, and the priority of a security interest in a letter-of-credit right if the issuer's jurisdiction or nominated person's jurisdiction is a state.

(b) Issuer's or nominated person's jurisdiction. For purposes of this part, an issuer's jurisdiction or nominated person's jurisdiction is the jurisdiction whose law governs the liability of the issuer or nominated person with respect to the letter-of-credit right as provided in K.S.A. 84-5-116, and amendments thereto.

(c) When section not applicable. This section does not apply to a security interest that is perfected only under K.S.A. 2023 Supp. 84-9-308(d), and amendments thereto.

History: L. 2000, ch. 142, § 26; L. 2002, ch. 159, § 10; May 23.

Revisor's Note:

Former section 84-9-306 was repealed by L. 2000, ch. 142, § 155 and the number reassigned to the current text.
