(a) Every insurer shall file with the commissioner, except as to inland marine risks where general custom of the industry is not to use manual rates or rating plans, every manual of classifications, rules and rates, every rating plan, policy form and every modification of any of the foregoing which it proposes to use. Every such filing shall indicate the proposed effective date and the character and extent of the coverage contemplated and shall be accompanied by the information upon which the insurer supports the filings. A filing and any supporting information shall be open to public inspection after it is filed with the commissioner, except that disclosure shall not be required for any information contained in a filing or in any supporting documentation for the filing when such information is either a trade secret or copyrighted. For the purposes of this section, the term "trade secret" shall have the meaning ascribed to it in K.S.A. 60-3320, and amendments thereto. An insurer may satisfy its obligations to make such filings by authorizing the commissioner to accept on its behalf the filings made by a licensed rating organization or another insurer. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to require any insurer to become a member or subscriber of any rating organization.

- (b) Certificate of insurance forms must be filed with the commissioner of insurance and approved prior to use. Notwithstanding the "large risk" filing exemption in subsection (j), a certificate of insurance cannot be used to modify, alter or amend the insurance policy it describes. The certificate of insurance shall contain the following or similar language: The certificate of insurance neither affirmatively nor negatively amends, extends or alters the coverage afforded by the policies listed thereon. An industry standard setting organization may be authorized by the commissioner of insurance to file certificate of insurance forms on behalf of authorized insurers.
- (c) Any rate filing for the basic coverage required by K.S.A. 40-3401 et seq. and amendments thereto, loss costs filings for workers compensation, and rates for assigned risk plans established by article 21 of chapter 40 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated or rules and regulations established by the commissioner shall require approval by the commissioner before its use by the insurer in this state. As soon as reasonably possible after such filing has been made, the commissioner shall in writing approve or disapprove the same, except that any filing shall be deemed approved unless disapproved within 30 days of receipt of the filing.
- (d) Any other rate filing, except personal lines filings, shall become effective on filing or any prospective date selected by the insurer, subject to the commissioner disapproving the same if the rates are determined to be inadequate, excessive, unfairly discriminatory or otherwise fails to meet the requirements of this act. Personal lines rate filings shall be on file for a waiting period of 30 days before becoming effective, subject to the commissioner disapproving the same if the rates are determined to be inadequate, excessive, unfairly discriminatory or otherwise fail to meet requirements of this act. The term "personal lines" shall mean insurance for noncommercial automobile, homeowners, dwelling fire-and-renters insurance policies, as defined by the commissioner by rules and regulations. A filing complies with this act unless it is disapproved by the commissioner within the waiting period or pursuant to subsection (f).
- (e) In reviewing any rate filing the commissioner may require the insurer or rating organization to provide, at the insurer's or rating organization's expense, all information necessary to evaluate the reasonableness of the filing, to include payment of the cost of an actuary selected by the commissioner to review any rate filing, if the department of insurance does not have a staff actuary in its employ.
- (f) (1) (A) If a filing is not accompanied by the information required by this act, the commissioner shall promptly inform the company or organization making the filing. The filing shall be deemed to be complete when the required information is received by the commissioner or the company or organization certifies to the commissioner the information requested is not maintained by the company or organization and cannot be obtained.

- (B) If the commissioner finds a filing does not meet the requirements of this act, the commissioner shall send to the insurer or rating organization that made the filing, written notice of disapproval of the filing, specifying in what respects the filing fails to comply and stating the filing shall not become effective.
- (C) If at any time after a filing becomes effective, the commissioner finds a filing does not comply with this act, the commissioner shall after a hearing held on not less than 10 days' written notice to every insurer and rating organization that made the filing issue an order specifying in what respects the filing failed to comply with the act, and stating when, within a reasonable period thereafter, the filing shall be no longer effective. Copies of the order shall be sent to such insurer or rating organization. The order shall not affect any contract or policy made or issued prior to the expiration of the period set forth in the order.
- (2) (A) In the event an insurer or organization has no legally effective rate because of an order disapproving rates, the commissioner shall specify an interim rate at the time the order is issued. The interim rate may be modified by the commissioner on the commissioner's own motion or upon motion of an insurer or organization.
- (B) The interim rate or any modification thereof shall take effect prospectively in contracts of insurance written or renewed 15 days after the commissioner's decision setting interim rates.
- (C) When the rates are finally determined, the commissioner shall order any overcharge in the interim rates to be distributed appropriately, except refunds to policyholders the commissioner determines are de minimis may not be required.
- (3) (A) Any person or organization aggrieved with respect to any filing that is in effect may make written application to the commissioner for a hearing thereon, except that the insurer or rating organization that made the filing may not proceed under this subsection. The application shall specify the grounds to be relied on by the applicant.
- (B) If the commissioner finds the application is made in good faith, that the applicant would be so aggrieved if the applicant's grounds are established, and that such grounds otherwise justify holding such a hearing, the commissioner shall, within 30 days after receipt of the application, hold a hearing on not less than 10 days' written notice to the applicant and every insurer and rating organization that made such filing.
- (C) Every rating organization receiving a notice of hearing or copy of an order under this section, shall promptly notify all its members or subscribers affected by the hearing or order. Notice to a rating organization of a hearing or order shall be deemed notice to its members or subscribers.
- (g) No insurer shall make or issue a contract or policy except in accordance with filings which have been filed or approved for such insurer as provided in this act.
- (1) On an application for personal motor vehicle insurance where the applicant has applied for collision or comprehensive coverage, the applicant shall be allowed to identify a lienholder listed on the certificate of title for the motor vehicle described in the application.
- (2) On an application for property insurance on real property, the applicant shall be allowed to identify a mortgagee listed on a mortgage for the real property described in the application.
 - (h) The commissioner may adopt rules and regulations to allow suspension or modification of the requirement of filing and approval of rates as to any kind of insurance, subdivision or combination thereof, or as to classes of risks, the rates for which cannot practicably be filed before they are used.

- (i) Except for workers compensation and employer's liability line, the following categories of commercial lines risks are considered special risks which are exempt from the filing requirements in this section: (1) Risks that are written on an excess or umbrella basis; (2) commercial risks, or portions thereof, that are not rated according to manuals, rating plans, or schedules including "a" rates; (3) large risks; and (4) special risks designated by the commissioner, including but not limited to risks insured under highly protected risks rating plans, commercial aviation, credit insurance, boiler and machinery, inland marine, fidelity, surety and guarantee bond insurance risks.
- (j) For the purposes of this subsection, "large risk" means: (1) An insured that has total insured property values of $5,000,000 or more; (2) an insured that has total annual gross revenues of $10,000,000 or more; or (3) an insured that has in the preceding calendar year a total paid premium of $50,000 or more for property insurance, $50,000 or more for general liability insurance, or $100,000 or more for multiple lines policies.
- (k) The exemption for any large risk contained in subsection (h) shall not apply to workers compensation and employer's liability insurance, insurance purchasing groups, and the basic coverage required by K.S.A. 40-3401 et seq., and amendments thereto.
- (l) Underwriting files, premium, loss and expense statistics, financial and other records pertaining to special risks written by any insurer shall be maintained by the insurer and shall be subject to examination by the commissioner.
- (m) (1) Any entity that purchases a workers compensation policy for the covered employees of more than one employer pursuant to a shared employment relationship with each employer must purchase the workers compensation policy on a separate multiple coordinate policy basis. Such workers compensation policies must be issued pursuant to K.S.A. 44-501 et seq., and amendments thereto, from an insurer holding a certificate of authority to do business in this state and providing workers compensation coverage.
- (2) The commissioner of insurance may allow an insurer to issue coverage through a master policy if the commissioner is satisfied that the insurer is able to track and report individual client experience to the advisory organization in an acceptable fashion. All such master policies must be filed with the commissioner for prior approval.
- (3) The commissioner of insurance shall be authorized to adopt such rules and regulations as are reasonable and necessary to carry out the purpose and the provisions of this subsection.";
- On page 9, in line 13, following "40-955" by inserting: ", as amended by section 1 of 2011 House Bill No. 2074,";

PROTEST

Mr. Speaker: Pursuant to Article 2, Section 10 of the constitution of the State of Kansas, I protest passage of HB 2014.

The committee report before us today represents the sincere work of House conferees faced with the difficult task of balancing the myriad of sensitive policy and political issues inherent to any budget bill, but made especially pressing by the fiscal realities that confront us. A conservative member who, like me, is considering voting against this proposed budget must act with great circumspection in determining if this is in fact the correct path.

Prudence is a core political virtue and the disparagement of ½ a loaf in pursuit of unattainable ideological purity can be the cause of much mischief, making compromise impossible and thus imperiling the valid task of balancing the diverse interests found within any polity. With this in mind any conservative member inclined to vote no on this report must be careful to act only upon sufficient reflection, having weighed the consequences and having given due consideration to the fact that, human beings and human societies are inherently imperfect, and just as no perfect social order is possible, no budget that must consider a broad range of interests will ever be fully satisfactory to everyone.

We must not then reject this budget out of a fanciful adherence to an abstract ideology detached from the prudential considerations that our office as public servants demand we consider. With this in mind conservatives who are considering voting against this budget must give due consideration to a number of salient arguments offered by its supporters, I will mention only four:

First, we are all keenly aware of the obligation of the legislature to pass a budget; failure to do so would have grave consequences that cannot be wished away. At some point, in some fashion a budget bill that can receive 63 votes in the House, 21 in the Senate and the Governor's signature must be arrived at in order for vital functions of government to proceed. I agree conservatives should give due weight to this argument.

Second, the budget before us, it has been argued, should be looked at in total, not just through the lens of the growing SGF, but in the broader context of the All Funds budget which in fact decreases under this proposal. Conservatives should also examine this argument carefully and respectfully.

Third, it is further argued that the budget before us is a work of significant compromise with a recalcitrant Senate that is disinclined to enact serious fiscal reform and as such represents the best deal possible as a practical reality. This is an important argument that no conservative should dismiss out of hand.

And finally, some argue, were this budget to fail the most likely result is not an opportunity to vote on a more fiscally responsible proposal, but the empowerment of a renewed coalition of those who wish to add rather than subtract from the proposal we are considering today. This argument, I know, bears greatly on the thinking of many conservative members, who fear as I do allowing to adherence to a theoretical best case scenario to cause us to allow to slip through our grasp the best practically available result

I ask every conservative member to consider these, and all other reasonable arguments in favor of a yes vote carefully and in good faith. I can say for my part that I have attempted to do so with an open mind and with humility, ready to concede that my own conclusions may indeed be in error.

Having done my level best, to consider all of these things I am left at the end of the day with one overriding concern. Many of you I would imagine have seen the great movie A Man for All Seasons which considers a potion of the life of English statesman and martyr Sir Thomas More. It is a movie of many memorable lines; but as I have wrestled with the decisions we are faced with tonight one of those lines in particular has continually come back to me, and it is this: "I think that when statesmen forsake their own private conscience for the sake of their public duties, they lead their country by a short route to chaos."

There is no doubt that the legislature has a public duty to pass a budget. Yet this public duty of the legislature as a whole quite obviously cannot impose an obligation upon individual members to vote for just any budget. Nor, would I argue, can it impose a duty upon a member to vote for a budget that violates a core commitment. For me the point of conscience arises out of the commitment I have made in repeated public pronouncements and quite explicitly in my most recent campaign that I would not support expenditures in excess of available tax revenue, nor SGF increases of greater than inflation plus population growth. To say one thing while meaning or doing another is indeed a short road to chaos.

Still two further things must be considered, was the commitment I and perhaps others made correct, or was it made rashly based upon incorrect assumptions. And second has new information emerged that would justify deviating from such a commitment. In my own case I must answer these questions in the negative.

The nature and extent of the budget challenge we face this year should come as no surprise to anyone, I certainly knew it when I made the commitments I have made; it is the natural product of years of overspending and the blind acceptance and expenditure of federal stimulus dollars. Both of which I have not merely warned about, but have repeatedly over the years offered legislation and floor amendments to prevent. But of course, "I told you so" is not a policy proscription that abrogates the actual hard work of governing. Still, no new information or argument has convinced me that adherence to the simple principle of living within our means is inconsistent with the mandates of practical politics; indeed if it is then we are very far indeed down the road to our demise.

Living within our means is not an unrealistic goal, a perusal of the headlines tells us we can do better. Indiana passed a budget that spends less than available tax revenue, leaving a $1 billion surplus, while reducing the corporate income tax 24% and creating a process for returning cash reserves to the taxpayers. Such results are attainable here, if we have the political courage to make it so.

No argument for this budget can overcome the simple fact that we will spend $6.058 billion despite estimated available tax revenue of $5.8 billion; and that we will spend approximately $380 million more SGK dollars in FY 2012 than in FY 2011 and $785 million more than FY 2010. For me to vote for such a budget would be to violate core campaign pledges and as such to violate my private conscience in the name of public duty. To do so would not be honest and would be a disservice to our state, it would indeed be a short route to chaos. I urge each of you to examine your own conscience and to vote accordingly.--Lance Kinzer

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Our Heavenly Father, Today we gather for sine die, which otherwise might be known as sign or die! As we look back over the session we first want to thank You for Your faithfulness. We have sought Your wisdom and direction and hopefully made every effort to follow that. Some of the decisions were easy to make, some were heart-wrenching and painful. Secondly I want to give thanks for these dedicated leaders who have worked hard and long to make decisions to make a better Kansas. With some of the decisions they are pleased, with others they might still be struggling. Give them a sense of peace in knowing They did the best they could. Thank you for understanding families that supported them in being absent from the home to be here working. Thirdly, I pray for Kansans around the state. In the upcoming months, many of them will have to make major adjustments due to the resolutions passed here. Give them grace and wisdom in making those changes. When it is all said and done, please find us faithful in doing all that we could To feed the hungry.

give drink to the thirsty,
care for the stranger,
clothe the homeless,
and serve those in need.
For in doing this for the least of our brothers,
we did it for You.
(Matthew 25:37-40)
In Christ's Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Grange.

VETO MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following message with the Governor's objection to S. Sub. for HB 2014, AN ACT making and concerning appropriations for fiscal years ending June 30, 2011, June 30, 2012, June 30, 2013, June 30, 2014, June 30, 2015, and June 30, 2016, for state agencies; authorizing certain transfers, capital improvement projects and fees, imposing certain restrictions and limitations, reducing compensation for state officers, and directing or authorizing certain receipts, disbursements, procedures and acts incidental to the foregoing; amending K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 2-223, 12-5256, 49-514, 55-193, 72-8814, 74-99b34, 75-2319, 75-6702, 76-775, 76-783, 76-7,107, 79-2959, 79-2964, 79-3425i, 79-34,156, 79-34,171 and 82a-953a and repealing the existing sections; also repealing section 138 of chapter 165 of the 2010 Session Laws of Kansas, was received and read.

Message to the Legislature of the State of Kansas:

I want to congratulate the 2011 Legislature on putting together a fair budget in the midst of a down economy. Filling a $500 million budget hole without raising taxes is a difficult task, but the Committees on Appropriations and Ways and Means and the entire House and Senate took on the challenge and produced a budget that funds state priorities while maintaining a responsible $50 million real ending balance. And this balance will grow throughout FY 2012. In fact, in the time period between passage of this bill and today, it is estimated that KPERS will show $4 million in additional savings in FY 2011 and $11 million in FY 2012. I am proud of everyone's hard work. I will sign this bill.

Pursuant to Article 2, Section 14 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I hereby return S. Sub. for HB 2014 with my signature approving the bill, except for the items enumerated below. The net effect of these line item vetoes will be an increase in the ending balance of $498,000.

Kansas Technology Enterprise Corporation

Pipeline

Section 26 has been line-item vetoed in its entirety.

As part of my agency reorganizations, I recommended elimination of KTEC. This is an unnecessary appropriation from a fund (the EDIF) that is short of cash for an agency that will not exist on July 1. Other sources are now available to keep the entrepreneurial program running.

Department of Health & Environment—Division of Health Care Finance Preferred Mental Health Drug List

Section 108(e) has been line-item vetoed in its entirety.

The Preferred Drug List for the Medicaid Program has been in use for several years and has helped in controlling pharmacy expenditures which had been growing exponentially. Expanding the Preferred Drug List to include mental health drugs and using the Mental Health Preferred Drug List (PDL) Advisory Committee to recommend appropriate medically-indicated management of mental health drugs dispensed under the MediKan program will reduce expenditures. My veto of this provision will not require implementation of a PDL, but would allow for improved patient safety; timely access to medications, support of systematic, best-practice guidance for providers, and lower overall costs. The use of a PDL is standard practice in most private health insurance plans.

State Employee Health Benefits Program Surcharge

Section 108(f) has been line-item vetoed in its entirety.

After further review of this provision, it appears that the revenues that might be generated from a surcharge on state employee health premiums are far less than originally anticipated. After a thorough review, the actual revenues that can reasonably be anticipated from this surcharge are $790,000. Given the legal concerns the provision may create as it relates to the Kansas Wage Payment Act coupled with the smaller revenues produced, I am compelled to veto the surcharge. I have further directed the Secretary of the Kansas Department of Health and Environment that upon the effective date of the state reorganization of the Kansas Health Policy Authority, the state employee gift card program shall be phased out. This administrative action is reasonably anticipated to generate savings to the Health Plan of $600,000, which amount shall essentially offset the lost revenue as a result of this specific line-item veto.

Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services

Quarterly Reporting

That portion of Section 111(a) that reads as follows has been line-item vetoed:

"And provided further," That in addition to the other purposes for which expenditures may be made by the above agency from the state operations account for fiscal year 2012, expenditures shall be made by the above agency from the state operations account for fiscal year 2012 to report, at least quarterly during such fiscal year, to the legislative budget committee concerning the budget and financial status of the department of social and rehabilitation services and any other matter the committee may request."

I have directed my administration to maintain open lines of communication with the Legislature, instructing them to operate transparently and provide timely information on our policies, ongoing progress, and the challenges we must meet. The language contained in this provision would place an unfair and unnecessary administrative burden on one state agency, so I have vetoed it.

Kansas Arts Commission

Agency Operations

Section 115(a) has been line-item vetoed in its entirety. That portion of Section 143(a) that reads as follows has been line-item vetoed:

This veto strikes State General Fund appropriations made to the Commission and removes the Commission's FTE position limitation. My FY 2012 Budget Report recommended no funding for the Commission and outlined a transition plan in order to fund the arts in Kansas with private donations while maintaining the state's federal match. In difficult fiscal times such as these, the state must prioritize how to spend its limited resources and focus its attention on providing core services. The arts will continue to thrive in Kansas when funded by private donations, and I intend to personally involve myself in efforts to make this happen.

Across the Board Reduction

That portion of Section 175 that reads as follows has been line-item vetoed:

"Provided further," That the aggregate amount lapsed in each account of the state general fund of the state agency under this section shall be the amount in the account budgeted for state operations which bears the same relation to $5,900,000 as the aggregate amount budgeted for state operations from the state general fund for the state agency in the Governor's Budget Report for FY 2012 bears to the aggregate amount budgeted for state operations from the state general fund for all state agencies in the Governor's Budget Report for FY 2012:"

My administration remains committed to right-sizing the state budget and reducing the likelihood of allotments by maintaining a responsible ending balance. While I fully intend to make these reductions, I must have the flexibility to impose them where I believe they can be made without harming key services. The $5.9 million reduction is left intact with this veto and the certification of reductions will be made as provided for in the bill. These reductions, however, should not be made on a pro-rata basis, so I have vetoed this proviso.

Moving Forward

As we look toward more challenges ahead, I encourage the Legislature to join me in thoroughly reviewing areas where we can reduce the reach of state government. One of these areas is state subsidization of public broadcasting. I intend again to include no funding for public broadcasting operations grants in my FY 2013 budget, so I encourage recipients of these grants to make appropriate preparations.

Again, I commend the Legislature for its work during the 2011 session, and I look forward to working with all of you in the coming months and years as we get our state's budget and economy back on track.

CONSIDERATION OF VETOED LINE ITEMS

The governor's line item objections to S. Sub. for HB 2014 having been read (see this Journal, pp. 1662-1664), the time arrived for reconsideration of S. Sub. for HB 2014, AN ACT making and concerning appropriations for fiscal years ending June 30, 2011, June 30, 2012, June 30, 2013, June 30, 2014, June 30, 2015, and June 30, 2016, for state agencies; authorizing certain transfers, capital improvement projects and fees, imposing certain restrictions and limitations, reducing compensation for state officers, and directing or authorizing certain receipts, disbursements, procedures and acts incidental to the foregoing; amending K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 2-223, 12-5256, 49-514, 55-193, 72-8814, 74-99b34, 75-2319, 75-6702, 76-775, 76-783, 76-7,107, 79-2959, 79-2964, 79-3425i, 79-34,156, 79-34,171 and 82a-953a and repealing the existing sections; also repealing section 138 of chapter 165 of the 2010 Session Laws of Kansas.

There was no motion to reconsider the line items in Section 26, Section 108(e), Section 108 (f), portion of Section 111(a), and Section 175. The chair ruled the line items had been reconsidered and the vetos sustained.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS

On motion of Rep. Kuether the House proceeded to reconsider the line item veto in Section 115(a) and a portion of Section 143(a) of S. Sub. for HB 2014 (see this Journal, p. 1664), AN ACT making and concerning appropriations for fiscal years ending June 30, 2011, June 30, 2012, June 30, 2013, June 30, 2014, June 30, 2015, and June 30, 2016, for state agencies; authorizing certain transfers, capital improvement projects and fees, imposing certain restrictions and limitations, reducing compensation for state officers, and directing or authorizing certain receipts, disbursements, procedures and acts incidental to the foregoing; amending K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 2-223, 12-5256, 49-514, 55-193, 72-8814, 74-99b34, 75-2319, 75-6702, 76-775, 76-783, 76-7,107, 79-2959, 79-2964, 79-3425i, 79-34,156, 79-34,171 and 82a-953a and repealing the existing sections; also repealing section 138 of chapter 165 of the 2010 Session Laws of Kansas.

The Governor's objection of the line item having been read, the question being, shall the line item be passed not withstanding the Governor's veto?

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: Vetoing state support for the arts in Kansas is not about fiscal responsibility. It is in fact a job-killing veto, especially in rural areas. It is not about returning to "core" functions of government. Governments have supported the arts since governments began, because it is important for the arts to flourish. How will we attract employers here when our Governor delivers a message that Kansas is too backward to support quality of life in this state? This veto makes Kansas the laughing stock of the nation. I vote yes to override the veto on S. Sub. for HB 2014. It is what the people of Kansas want -- Ann E. Mah
