Others Attending:

See attached list.

Chairman Kinzer proposed the Committee adopt the following requests for bill introductions without objection unless a specific request for a motion/vote is made.

Representative Bruchman requested a bill to adopt series LLC's as a new Corporation entity in Kansas.

Representative Rubin requested a Concurrent Resolution to amend the Kansas Constitution to change the judicial selection of Supreme Court Justices to more closely coincide with the Federal system and with some proposed legislation that this committee will likely be considering regarding selection of judges of the court of appeals.

Representative Kuether requested a bill to extend child support for children of special needs until the age of twenty-three.

Kevin Barone, representing the Kansas Professional Bail Bonding Association, requested a bill regarding K.S.A. 22-2802, dealing with bonds that are set. He also stated they have talked with the Insurance Commissioner about a potential licensing that may be added later by a balloon amendment.

Chairman Kinzer reminded everyone about the change of location for the meeting on Thursday, January 27th, which will held in the Docking Building, Room 785.

The next meeting is scheduled for January 25, 2011.

The meeting was adjourned at 3:45 p.m.
