

2012 Kansas Statutes

8-1430. "License" and "license to operate a motor vehicle" defined. "License" or "license to operate a motor vehicle" means any driver's license or any other license or permit to operate a motor vehicle issued under, or granted by, the laws of this state, including:

- (a) Any temporary license, or instruction permit;
- (b) the privilege of any person to drive a motor vehicle whether or not such person holds a valid license; and
- (c) any nonresident's operating privilege.

History: L. 1974, ch. 33, § 8-1430; July 1.