

2012 Kansas Statutes

9-2106. Name of trust company. No trust company shall take the name of any other trust company incorporated in the state of Kansas, or a name so near like another as to be easily confused with it. No trust company shall change its name until such name change has been submitted to and approved by the commissioner. The commissioner shall have power to refuse authority to any trust company violating this provision.

History: L. 1989, ch. 48, § 6; L. 2002, ch. 8, § 1; July 1.