

2012 Kansas Statutes

16-718. Periodic inspections to determine compliance with act. Law enforcement officers of a city or county shall have access during regular business hours to the place of business of any pawnbroker or precious metal dealer conducting business in the city or county. Access shall be for the purpose of periodically inspecting property pledged or purchased in the transaction of the business of the pawnbroker or precious metal dealer, and records relating to those transactions, to determine if the pawnbroker or dealer is complying with the provisions of this act.
