

2012 Kansas Statutes

17-5533. Same; recognition by state. Any association or corporation, which has heretofore converted itself into a federal savings and loan association under the provisions of the home owners' loan act of 1933, and has received a charter from the federal home loan bank board, shall hereafter be recognized as a federal savings and loan association and its federal charter shall be given full credence by the courts of this state to the same extent as if such conversion had taken place under the provisions of this act: Provided, Such association shall have filed with the commissioner a copy of the federal charter or a certificate showing the organization of such association as a federal savings and loan association.

History: L. 1943, ch. 133, § 111; July 1.