

2012 Kansas Statutes

17-5565. Remote service units. Any savings and loan association or savings bank having its principal office in this state may provide and engage in financial transactions by means of remote service units wherever located. Such remote service units shall not be considered to be branch offices or agencies. Any financial transaction effected by use of a remote service unit shall be deemed to be transacted at the savings and loan association to which the information is transmitted for entry into a customer's account.
