

2012 Kansas Statutes

20-1a06. Temporary deposits in bank account by clerk of supreme court; expenditures; subject to post audit. The clerk of the supreme court may temporarily deposit all moneys received by or for him from bar applicants, and other amounts specified by order of the supreme court to be received for deposits or other purposes in a bank checking account of a bank located in Topeka and selected by the chief justice of the supreme court. All expenditures from such bank account shall be made upon checks signed by the clerk of the supreme court or his deputy unless otherwise ordered by the supreme court. Amounts deposited under this section, except amounts which are required by K.S.A. 20-1a03 to be remitted to the state treasurer, shall not be subject to any limitation imposed by any appropriation act of the legislature. The provisions of K.S.A. 75-4214, 75-4215 and 75-4217 shall not apply to the bank account authorized by this section nor to moneys deposited therein which are not required to be remitted to the state treasurer. All receipts, accounts, expenditures and other disbursements from the bank account established under authority of this section shall be subject to post-audit in accordance with article 11 of chapter 46 of Kansas Statutes Annotated and any amendments thereto, but shall not be subject to pre-audit by the director of accounts and reports.
