

2012 Kansas Statutes

22-3605. Decision and disposition of case on appeal. Any appellate court may reverse, affirm or modify the judgment or order appealed from, or may order a new trial in the district court. In either case the cause must be remanded to the district court with proper instructions, together with the decision of the appellate court, within the time and in the manner to be prescribed by rule of the supreme court.

History: L. 1970, ch. 129, § 22-3605; L. 1975, ch. 178, § 24; Jan. 10, 1977.