

2012 Kansas Statutes

25-2508. Statutory construction relating to age for election purposes. Whenever, in any statute relating to elections which was in effect prior to April 6, 1971, there is a provision fixing twenty-one (21) years as a minimum age for purposes of voting, registration, or any other purpose concerning elections, such provision shall be construed as fixing such age at eighteen (18) years.

History: L. 1972, ch. 126, § 1; March 20.