

2012 Kansas Statutes

47-627. Treatment for itch or mange; order of commissioner. If the animal health commissioner finds the disease known as the itch or mange existing among domestic animals, the animal health commissioner shall order all animals so affected to be properly treated as the commissioner deems necessary.

History: L. 1911, ch. 312, § 18; R.S. 1923, 47-627; L. 1989, ch. 156, § 26; L. 2012, ch. 140, § 47; July 1.