

2012 Kansas Statutes

59-2302. Lease for three years or less. A petition for the lease of the real estate of a decedent, or of a conservatee, for a term of three years or less may be heard with or without notice. The court may direct the personal representative to execute the lease whenever it appears to be for the best interests of the estate or the persons interested in the real estate.

History: L. 1939, ch. 180, § 257; L. 1965, ch. 346, § 35; L. 1985, ch. 191, § 47; July 1.