

2012 Kansas Statutes

60-465a. Reproductions of original court records deemed same as original record; certified copy as evidence. The photographs, microphotographs or photographic film or prints or reproductions of the original records as authorized in K.S.A. 20-159 and amendments thereto shall be deemed to be an original record for all purposes, and may be used as evidence in all courts or administrative agencies. A copy thereof, certified in writing by the person designated by the chief judge of the judicial district as having custody of such reproduction, may be used as evidence in all courts or administrative agencies.

History: L. 1977, ch. 104, § 3; L. 1999, ch. 57, § 53; July 1.