

2012 Kansas Statutes

60-903. Restraining order. (a) No notice or bond required. A restraining order may issue without notice or bond, except as provided in subsection (b) of K.S.A. 60-904, and amendments thereto, but if it appears to the judge that a restraining order may result in damage to the party restrained, a bond to secure payment of any damages sustained may be required. An application for a restraining order shall also be considered as an application for a temporary injunction and either party may give notice of hearing thereon. The order shall remain in force until the hearing on the application for a temporary injunction.

(b) Service. Where a restraining order is issued without notice it shall be served upon each party restrained in the manner prescribed for personal service of a summons.
