

2012 Kansas Statutes

74-536. Grain and dairy inspection not affected. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as limiting or extending the authority conferred by law upon the chief inspector of grain, or the state dairy commissioner, nor giving any authority in regard to grain or dairy products, which will in any way conflict with authority heretofore conferred by law upon the said chief inspector of grain and the state dairy commissioner.

History: L. 1947, ch. 8, § 7; June 30.
