

2012 Kansas Statutes

74-3212. Same; application of city ordinances, when; prosecutions in municipal court. In those instances where an institution is located within the corporate limits of a city, the governing authority of the institution may agree or consent that ordinances of such city pertaining to parking and traffic regulations on city streets shall apply to all or part of the roads, streets and driveways on the grounds of such institution, and when such agreement or consent has been made or given by the governing authority of the institution, then such city ordinances shall apply to all or part of the roads, streets and driveways of the institution as shall have been designated by the governing authority in the agreement or consent. Persons violating such ordinances shall be subject to prosecution in the municipal court of the city, and summonses may be issued by the city for such violations.

History: L. 1957, ch. 484, § 4; L. 1976, ch. 145, § 236; L. 1977, ch. 105, § 23; L. 1996, ch. 213, § 4; July 1.