

2012 Kansas Statutes

74-5326. Jurisdiction of proceedings; petition. The board shall have jurisdiction of the proceedings to revoke or suspend the license of any psychologist licensed under this act. The petition for the revocation or suspension of a license may be filed: (a) By the attorney general in all cases; (b) by the county attorney of the county in which the licensed psychologist resides or has practiced; or (c) an attorney employed by the board. The petition shall be filed in the office of the secretary of the board.

History: L. 1967, ch. 432, § 26; L. 1986, ch. 299, § 28; June 1.