

2012 Kansas Statutes

75-1316. Same, transfer of property and records; resolution of conflicts. (a) When any conflict arises as to the disposition of any property, power, duty or function or the unexpended balance of any appropriation as a result of any abolition, transfer, attachment or change made by or under authority of this act, such conflict shall be resolved by the governor, whose decision shall be final.

(b) The state bank commissioner shall succeed to all property, property rights and records which were used for or pertain to the performance of the powers, duties and functions transferred to the bank commissioner. The deputy commissioner for consumer and mortgage lending shall succeed to all property, property rights and records which were used for or pertain to the performance of the powers, duties and functions concerning the administration of the uniform consumer credit code (K.S.A. 16a-1-101 et seq., and amendments thereto) transferred to the deputy commissioner for consumer and mortgage lending. Any conflict as to the proper disposition of property or records arising under this section, and resulting from the transfer, attachment or all or part of the powers, duties and functions of the consumer credit commissioner, shall be determined by the governor, whose decision shall be final.
