

2012 Kansas Statutes

75-3702f. Same; transfer of property and records. In all cases where, under the provisions of this act, part or all of the powers, duties, and functions of any existing state agency are divided between the department of administration and any other existing state agency or newly created department, division or officer, the department of administration shall succeed to all property and records which were used for, or pertain to, the performance of the powers, duties, and functions transferred to it. Any conflict as to the proper disposition of such property or records arising under this section, and resulting from the transfer or abolishment, of any existing state agency, or all or part of the powers, duties, and functions thereof, shall be determined by the governor, whose decision shall be final.

History: L. 1972, ch. 332, § 33; July 1.