

2012 Kansas Statutes

75-3717c. College of veterinary medicine at Kansas state university separate state agency for purpose of preparation of governor's budget report and related legislative measures; title for such purpose. For the purpose of preparation of the governor's budget report and related legislative measure or measures for submission to the legislature, the college of veterinary medicine at Kansas state university shall be considered a separate state agency and shall be titled for such purpose as the "Kansas State University Veterinary Medical Center." The budget estimates and requests of such college shall be presented as a state agency separate from Kansas state university, and such separation shall be maintained in the budget documents and reports prepared by the director of the budget and the governor, or either of them, including all related legislative reports and measures submitted to the legislature.

History: L. 1978, ch. 21, § 20; July 1.