

May 14, 2020 House Commerce, Labor and Economic Development Committee Meeting

KOMA statement to be read prior to meeting by person designated by Chair and to be incorporated into the minutes:

- Due to health and safety concerns, members of the public are not in attendance at this meeting but full access to this meeting is being conducted by medium of interactive communication allowing members of the public, without cost, to listen to the meeting through the use of live stream audio broadcasting on the internet and teleconference, as available. The audio link can be reached by:

<http://www.kslegislature.org> selecting the Audio/Video link, then Statehouse Live & Archive.

- The agenda for this meeting has been posted on the KS Legislature website, was included with the notice of the meeting and may be requested from the Office of Revisor of Statutes, using the Office of Revisor of Statutes official website at <http://ksrevisor.org> . Any other documents presented during this meeting will be available on the website and from the Office of Revisor of Statutes.
- Each member of the Committee and staff will state their name and title, each time the individual begins speaking or voting so that the individual can be readily identified by remote listeners.
- All participants are required to ensure that microphones, phones, or other electronic devices are muted when the participants are not speaking so that the ability of remote listeners or observers to hear the proceedings is not unnecessarily impeded.
- Public comment will not be allowed at this meeting.
- During this Committee meeting, the Committee will not recess to a closed or executive meeting pursuant to K.S.A. 75-4319, and amendments thereto.
- Each motion, if any, will be clearly stated before the Committee votes and the Chairperson will announce the results of the final vote.
- The Chairperson will be permitted to sign any binding document for the Committee.
- Audio will be available on the Legislature's official website within 30 minutes of the adjournment of the meeting for members of the public to review.
