6 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Kansas:

7 New Section 1. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a 8 private plaintiff may maintain an action pursuant to this act on such 9 plaintiff's own account and that of the state, if money, property or services 10 provided by the state are involved, or on such plaintiff's own account and 11 that of a political subdivision, if money, property or services provided by 12 the political subdivision, are involved, or on such plaintiff's own account 13 and that of both the state and a political subdivision if both are involved.
14 After such an action is commenced, it may be dismissed only for good 15 cause shown with written consent of the court and the attorney general.
16 The court and the attorney general shall take into account the public 17 purposes of this act and the best interests of the parties in dismissing the 18 action or consenting to the dismissal and provide the reasons for 19 dismissing the action or consenting to the dismissal.

20 (b) If a private plaintiff brings an action pursuant to this act, no other 21 person may bring another action pursuant to this act based on the same 22 facts and claims.

23 (c) An action may not be maintained by a private plaintiff pursuant to 24 this act:

25 (1) Against a member of the legislature or the judiciary, an elected 26 officer of the executive department of the state government, or a member 27 of the governing body of a political subdivision, if the action is based upon 28 evidence or information known to the state or political subdivision at the 29 time the action was brought; or

30 (2) if the action is based upon allegations or transactions that are the 31 subject of a civil action or an administrative proceeding for a monetary 32 penalty to which the state or political subdivision is already a party.

33 (d) A complaint filed pursuant to this section shall be placed under 34 seal for at least 60 days and shall remain until the attorney general has 35 elected whether to intervene. No service may be made upon the defendant
36 until the complaint is unsealed. The defendant shall respond within 20

1 days after a complaint is filed and served upon the defendant pursuant to 2 this act.

3 (e) On the date the private plaintiff files a complaint, such private 4 plaintiff shall send a copy of the complaint to the attorney general by mail
5 with return receipt requested. Such private plaintiff shall send with each 6 copy of the complaint a written disclosure of substantially all material 7 evidence and information such plaintiff possesses.

8 (f) The state is not liable for expenses which a person incurs in 9 bringing an action pursuant to this section.

10 (g) No action may be maintained pursuant to this section that is based 11 upon information discovered by a present or former employee of the state 12 or a political subdivision during such employee's employment, unless such 13 employee first in good faith exhausted internal procedures for reporting 14 and seeking recovery of the proceeds of the fraudulent activity through 15 official channels and the state or political subdivision failed to act on the 16 information provided for not less than six months.

17 (h) No action may be maintained pursuant to this section that is based 18 upon the public disclosure of allegations or transactions in a criminal, civil 19 or administrative hearing, in an investigation, report, hearing or audit 20 conducted by, or at the request of, a house of the legislature, an auditor or 21 the governing body of a political subdivision, or from the news media, 22 unless the action is brought by the attorney general or an original source of 23 information.

24 (i) (1) The attorney general may intervene in an action by a private 25 plaintiff. Within 60 days after receiving a complaint and disclosure, the 26 attorney general may intervene and proceed with the action or, for good 27 cause shown, file a motion for an extension of time to determine whether 28 or not to intervene in such action. Such motion may be supported by 29 affidavits or other submissions. If the attorney general does not intervene, 30 the private plaintiff may proceed with the action.

31 (2) If the attorney general intervenes in an action by a private 32 plaintiff, the attorney general may file a complaint or amend the complaint 33 filed by the private plaintiff who brought the action pursuant to this act.
34 Any such pleading relates back to the filing date of the complaint of the 35 private plaintiff for statute of limitations purposes to the extent that any 36 claim made by the attorney general arises out of the conduct, transactions 37 or occurrences set forth or attempted to be set forth in the complaint made 38 by the private plaintiff.

39 (3) If the attorney general intervenes in an action by a private 40 plaintiff, the private plaintiff remains a party to the action. (A) The 41 attorney general may move to dismiss the action for good cause shown.
42 The private plaintiff shall be notified of the filing of such motion to 43 dismiss and may oppose such motion and present evidence at the hearing.

1 (B) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the attorney
2 general may settle the action. The attorney general shall notify the private 3 plaintiff of an intent to settle the action. Upon request of a private plaintiff, 4 the court shall determine, after a hearing, whether the proposed settlement
5 is fair, adequate and reasonable under all circumstances. Upon a showing 6 of good cause, the court may hear the proposed settlement in camera.

7 (4) If the attorney general does not intervene in an action by a private 8 plaintiff, the private plaintiff has the same rights in conducting the action 9 as the attorney general would have had if the attorney general had 10 intervened. A copy of each pleading or document filed in the action and 11 the transcript of each deposition taken shall be provided to the attorney 12 general, if the attorney general requests such pleadings, documents or 13 transcript, and the attorney general shall pay the costs of providing such 14 information.

15 (5) For good cause shown, the attorney general may intervene in an 16 action in which the attorney general previously declined to intervene, if the 17 interest of the state or political subdivision in recovery is not being 18 adequately represented by the private plaintiff. If, the attorney general 19 intervenes pursuant to this subparagraph, the private plaintiff retains 20 primary responsibility for conducting the action, and any recovery shall be 21 apportioned as though the attorney general had not intervened.

22 (6) The court may limit the participation of a private plaintiff, if the 23 attorney general shows that unrestricted participation by a private plaintiff 24 would interfere with or unduly delay the conduct of an action, or that such 25 participation would be repetitious, irrelevant or solely for the purpose of 26 harassment. The court may limit, among other things:

27 (A) The number of witnesses the private plaintiff may call;

28 (B) the length of testimony of each witness; or

29 (C) the cross-examination of witnesses.

30 (j) If the attorney general decides to pursue a claim through an 31 alternate remedy, including an administrative proceeding to determine a 32 civil penalty, the private plaintiff shall have the same rights in such 33 proceeding as the private plaintiff would have, if the action which they had 34 already commenced had continued under this section, instead of under an 35 administrative remedy, separate statute or common law. Any finding of 36 fact or conclusion of law made in any administrative proceeding that has 37 become final shall be conclusive on all parties to an action pursuant to this 38 section. A finding of fact or conclusion of law is final if it has been finally 39 determined on appeal to the court of proper jurisdiction, if all time for 40 filing such appeal has expired or if such finding or conclusion is not 41 subject to judicial review.

42 (k) The court may stay discovery by a private plaintiff for up to 60 43 days, if the attorney general shows that the proposed discovery would

1 interfere with the investigation or prosecution of a civil or criminal matter
 2 arising out of the same facts, regardless of whether the attorney general
 3 participates in the action. The court may extend the stay upon a further 4 showing that the attorney general has pursued the civil or criminal 5 investigation or proceeding with reasonable diligence, and the proposed 6 discovery would interfere with its continuation. Discovery may not be 7 stayed for more than six months without consent of the private plaintiff,
 8 except for good cause shown by the attorney general. Such good cause 9 shall be shown in open court.

10 (l) This section shall be a part of and supplemental to the Kansas false 11 claims act.
