

2020 Kansas Statutes

40-464. Same; discharge of structured settlement obligor and annuity issuer, when; liability of transferee. Following a transfer of structured settlement payment rights under this act: (a) The structured settlement obligor and the annuity issuer shall be discharged and released from any and all liability for the transferred payments as to all parties except the transferee.

(b) The transferee shall be liable to the structured settlement obligor and the annuity issuer:

(1) If the transfer contravenes the terms of the structured settlement, for any taxes incurred by such parties as a consequence of the transfer; and

(2) for any other liabilities or costs, including reasonable costs and attorneys' fees, arising from compliance by such parties with the order of the court or responsible administrative authority or arising as a consequence of the transferee's failure to comply with this act.

(c) Neither the annuity issuer nor the structured settlement obligor may be required to divide any periodic payment between the payee and any transferee or assignee or between two or more transferees or assignees.

(d) Any further transfer of structured settlement payment rights by the payee may be made only after compliance with all of the requirements of this act.
